

Roanoke Public Libraries
Virginia Room
Manuscript Collection Finding Aids
Virginia Regional Women's Guild Scrapbook, 1941-1943

Collection Description:

Repository: Roanoke Public Libraries, Virginia Room

Accession Number:

Title: Virginia Regional Women's Guild Scrapbook, 1941-1943

Physical Characteristics: 1 scrapbook, bound in wood.

Creator: Virginia Regional Women's Guild

Donated by:

Arrangement: Chronologically

Reproduction Restrictions: Due to age and the delicate condition of this item, photocopying is not permitted. Should a copy be needed, feel free to photograph the item with a digital camera or see Virginia Room staff for assistance. The publication has no known restrictions.

Processor: Dyron Knick, 10 July 2013

Biographical Note:

The Virginia Regional Women's Guild of the Evangelical and Reformed Church was established in Roanoke on March 5, 1941. The purpose of the organization was to unite all the women of the Evangelical and Reformed Churches within its boundaries; to promote Christian fellowship among them and to enlarge their understanding of the entire work of the Church. The purpose of the organization is further defined in the Articles of the Women's Guild as "Looking always to Christ as the motive and source of strength, its purpose shall further be to enlist their interest to the end that every woman shall pray, study, work and give to the fields of Christian service: the Home, the local Church, the Denomination, the Community, the Nation and the World."

Scope and Content:

This scrapbook contains ephemera, photographs, brochures, newspaper clippings, and correspondence related to the guild. Contents of the scrapbook are arranged chronologically.