

1968-1969

Floral Displays To Be Judged

After a flower show This award was first Wednesday six trophies will presented in 1951. have new names engraved on them.

"Footlights and Flowers," the first large flower show to be sponsored by the Roanoke Council of Garden Clubs since 1957, is to be held at the Kazim Shrine Temple. It is open without charge from 3 to 9 p.m.

Before the displays are opened to the public, they will be judged and ribbons and

The trophies, two silver bowls and four loving cups, are housed at "Fairacres," home of the Roanoke garden council. Names of the winners are engraved on the cups and bowls as a permanent record.

The oldest of the trophies dates back to 1950 when the Fallon Perpetual Trophy was donated. The loving cup is awarded to the individual winning the Tri-Color award for an artistic arrangement consisting of all fresh plant material.

The next oldest is a silver bowl, the Roy L. Webber Award, which is given for the best horticulture specimen.

The newest trophy is the Heironimus Award, a silver bowl first presented in 1965 to the individual winning the award for creativity.

Other trophies include the Jobe Trophy, first awarded in 1954 and with only three names on it so far, which goes to the club winning Tri-Color in tables and capsule tables. This class has been restricted in recent years because of lack of space.

The Agnew Trophy, a loving cup, is given to the garden club which wins the most ribbons in the horticulture section.

The Nobles Flowers Trophy, also a loving cup, goes to the club with the most ribbons in the artistic division.

Mrs. R. W. Boyd of the Dig and Dream Garden Club is in charge of the trophies for Wednesday's flower show. The presentation will be at 3:30 p.m. on Wednesday.

Mrs. R. S. Spencer Jr. of the Rosalind Hills Garden Club is general show chairman.

President Stays on the Road

By CLARE WHITE

By CLARE WHITE Times Women's Editor After five months as president of the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs, (VFWC), Mrs. Charles Henry Peery III of Tazewell is going strong.

She has to move fast. Her modest, "I travel quite a bit" turned out to mean that she is away from home most of the time. In September she spent a week in Tazewell and all the rest of the month on the road.

Today she is in Roanoke for the meeting of the Blue Ridge District, VFWC at Huntington Court Methodist Church.

As VFWC president she will speak at each of the eight district meetings in Virginia. Her first one was Tuesday at Tazewell when she addressed the Southwestern District. After her visit to Roanoke, she will move on to Clifton Forge for the meeting of the Shenandoah District.

Next week she will have three more district meetings and the week after, the last two of the fall.

She is just back from a general federation board of directors meeting in Washington and is to go to a southeastern conference in St. Petersburg, Fla., in Novem-

Along with all of that she spends a week every month at

"Richmond is kind of a second home now," she says. "The distance doesn't seem near as far as it used to." She finds the entire state has shrunk as she travels back and forth shrunk as she travels back and forth. "I keep a bag packed most of the time." Mrs. Peery feels the VFWC is getting a good start on its programs. With the theme, "Health — Freedom," for the two years of her office, she expects to put a special emphasis on health in Virginia. Virginia.

She notes that the purchase of a linear accelerator for the the VFWC headquarters in treatment of cancer, called a clinac, at the Medical College on her visits to the district clinac, at the Medical College of Virginia has been approved. Woman's clubs in Virginia are supporting this venture with contributions. Mrs. Peery also expects to number of the general federation's new program, "Beauty for Business," into the picture on the state level.

to the Scandanavian countries.

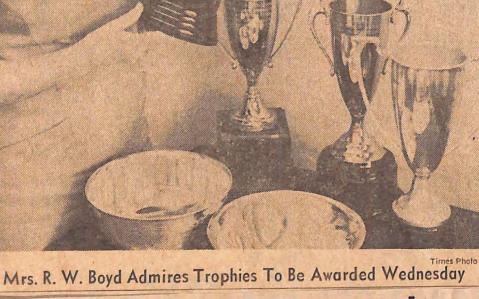

Accompanying Mrs. Peery

In her talk today she will call attention to the aims of the general federation. She also expects to touch on the third international tour planned for club members. The tour next summer will go meetings is Mrs. James C. Helton of Blacksburg, third Helton of Blacksburg, third vice president and director of junior clubs. Other vice presidents take turns. Mrs Norman L. Brown of Richmond, second vice president, is attending the meeting in Roanoke and was in Tazewell Tuesday. The new president says she

f in d s her job "quite fascinating, very appealing." She has even convinced her husband.

"He thinks it's quite wonderful," she says. "He's very civic-minded and thinks this is great as long as I can keep up physically."

for t to th

to Ashla with ership

Monacan

of Richmond,

emu

Receive

Award

G

Shell Oil Co. 25 n's Clu

rtificates to two

mem

en to the Woman's

Education by Charles lent of Shell to Ashland woman's March.

b, third

Old-Fashioned Virtues Best, Women Told

By CLARE WHITE Times Women's Editor

The president-elect of the General Federation of Women's Clubs (GFWC) urged the delegates of the Virginia federation to "pass on to all who will listen, our respect for the old-fashioned virtues.'

VFWC Convention

Saying that a great nation is also a moral nation, Mrs. Walter V. Magee took a firm stand for honesty, integrity, truthfulness, modesty, religion and morality.

Mrs. Magee was the speaker for the Alice Kyle banquet Tuesday night at Hotel Roanoke as the Virginia tion, Mrs. Magee warned that

The afternoon general session was given to reports by officers and district presidents. A tea and fashion show in honor of Mrs. Magee was held following the session. The national officer told he audience that "our great tas day of its annual convention.

is to find where we as im dividuals can become involved in public affairs as person and through our effort strengthen our communities and our states." Saying that the United States is the world's most

Federation of Women's Clubs it can decay from within by (VFWC) wound up the first losing sight of the principles on which it was founded. Nineteen civilizations, she said, have fallen, not by attack from an outside enemy, but from an inner decline in morality.

"To build ourselves as strong individuals and our clubs as strong organizations,

She sees an increase of interest in the fine arts.

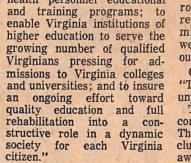

"We started with the arts. as literary clubs, and I can see a renaissance coming in the arts now."

is behind her, Mrs. Magee con-Bond Issue Supported endorse a resolution in support of the mental health and education bond issue which will be presented to Virginia voters in the fall.

will be presented by the resolutions committee of VFWC urging the active sup-port of all clubs. They will be expected to undertake a public information effort in their communities in support of ap-

The Virginia Federation of critically needed mental Women's Clubs is expected to health personnel educational and training programs; to higher education to serve the growing number of qualified An emergency resolution Virginians pressing for ad-missions to Virginia colleges and universities; and to insure an ongoing effort toward

The VFWC convention will continue today and Thursday. The meetings of the junior clubs start today with an awards breakfast.

Mrs. W. V. Magee, President-elect Of GFWC, Prepares Notes for Meeting

Wednesday, May 1, 1968.

6₹

8₽

19

25

20

84

44

9$

45

TÞ

01

12

21

18

91

13

π

10

6

15

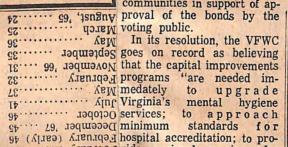

IU

15

ge..... Jəquiəidəs goes on record as believing 18 99, Jaquianon that the capital improvements 78 Azenadə programs "are needed im-LE KEW medately It Ainf Virginia's mental hygiene gp..... 100100 services; to approach gt 19, 19quiocog minimum standards for 94 (Aliea) Alenida Hospital accreditation; to pro-ISELVIVIrginia's mentally retarded 67 85 patients; to implement MIGO ON ON SOX

Mistake?

mmmmmmmmmm

enable Virginia institutions of quality education and full rehabilitation into a constructive role in a dynamic

The VFWC held its first

fessed to a "geat, lofty am-bition to do nothing."

statewide arts festival in Right now, though, she is in a job that leaves her no time Asked what she might do when the national presidency for anything else. Her 24 hours in Roanoke is typical.

by plane She arrived early in the morning and, as she was halfway across the lobby of the hotel, was paged for a long distance call. She took it in the hotel's check room. Her day was so full reporters were lucky to get 15 minutes for interviews and were sitting in line in the hall outside her room.

Calmly she summed it up, "The life of a president is very unpredictable."

Mrs. W. V. Magee, President-elect Of GFWC, Prepares Notes for Meeting

Old-Fashioned Virtues Best, Women Told

By CLARE WHITE Times Women's Editor

VFWC Convention

The president-elect of the General Federation of Women's Clubs (GFWC) urged the delegates of the Virginia federation to "pass on to all who will listen, our respect for the old-fashioned virtues.

Saying that a great nation is also a moral nation, Mrs. Walter V. Magee took a firm stand for honesty, integrity, truthfulness, modesty, religion and morality.

Mrs. Magee was the speaker for the Alice Kyle banquet Tuesday night at Hotel as the Virginia Roanoke

Federation of Women's Clubs (VFWC) wound up the first day of its annual convention.

The afternoon general session was given to reports bv officers and district presidents. A tea and fashion show in honor of Mrs. Magee was held following the session. The national officer told her audience that "our great task is to find where we as individuals can become involved in public affairs as persons and through our efforts strengthen our communities and our states."

Saying that the United States is the world's most powerful and responsible na-

it can decay from within by losing sight of the principles on which it was founded. Nineteen civilizations, she said, have fallen, not by attack from an outside enemy, but from an inner decline in morality.

"To build ourselves as strong individuals and our clubs as strong organizations. we must take our full share of responsibility to preserve the moral standards of this nation ' Mrs. Magee is making a tour of state conventions, stopping in Roanoke before going to Los Angeles, Calif., and then to Texas.

She has been in club work for 27 years, starting with the woman's club in her home town of Lakewood, Ohio. Besides being president of her own club and of the Greater Cleveland Federation and the Ohio Federation, she has held every office in the General Federation.

In an interview before her talk Tuesday she said this is the first time the GFWC has had a president-elect. For six months she has a chance to lay the groundwork and make the plans for the presidency, a job she will assume at the general convention in Boston, Mass., in June. At that time she will move to Washington, D.C., for the two years of her office.

"I already have an apart-"I already have an apart-ment," she said. Her husband, who is retired from the American Steel Wire Division of the U.S. Steel Corp., will ac-company her. The GFWC has a five-story mansion in Wachington nith a mansion in Washington with a staff of 35. One floor is reserved for the use of the president, but Mrs. Magee is going to keep an outside apartment as well

Asked about her office hours, she said she keeps them 24 hours a day. This is particularly true now, she added, ruefully, as she crosses and recrosses the country with its time changes.

Mrs. Magee said the GFWC is not an authoritarian organization. It prefers that the ideas come from the individual club level. The parent organization then guides, suggests procedures and helps get the ideas achieved.

"We don't just do something and drop it," she said, using as an example the continuing interest of the clubs in education.

She sees an increase of interest in the fine arts.

"We started with the arts, as literary clubs, and I can see a renaissance coming in the arts now."

merit

t i m to t

Bond Issue Supported

The Virginia Federation of critically needed mental Women's Clubs is expected to endorse a resolution in support of the mental health and education bond issue which will be presented to Virginia voters in the fall.

An emergency resolution will be presented by the resolutions committee of VFWC urging the active support of all clubs. They will be expected to undertake a public information effort in their communities in support of approval of the bonds by the voting public.

In its resolution, the VFWC goes on record as believing that the capital improvements programs "are needed immedately to upgrade Virginia's mental hygiene services; to approach minimum standards for hospital accreditation; to provide regional services for Virginia's mentally retarded patients; to implement mononmononmon health personnel educational and training programs; to enable Virginia institutions of higher education to serve the growing number of qualified

The VFWC held its first statewide arts festival in March.

Virginians pressing for admissions to Virginia colleges and universities; and to insure an ongoing effort toward

3. G. Richardson of od Junior Woma yon the Valley presented

. Education by Charles dent of Shell n to Ashland Club, first aman's Club

Right now, though, she is in a job that leaves her no time Asked what she might do for anything else. Her 24 hours when the national presidency is behind her, Mrs. Magee conin Roanoke is typical.

> by plane She arrived early in the morning and, as she was halfway across the lobby of the hotel, was paged for a long distance call. She took it in the hotel's check room. Her day was so full reporters were lucky to get 15 minutes for interviews and were sitting in line in the hall outside her room.

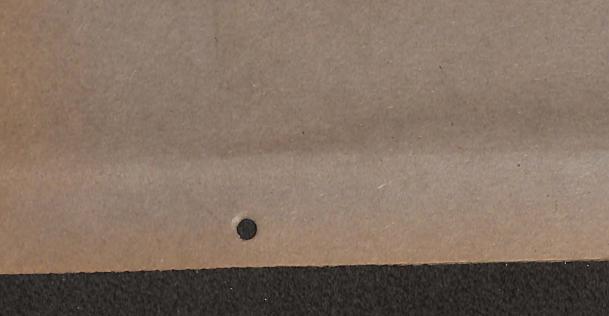

fessed to a "geat, lofty am-bition to do nothing."

Calmly she summed it up, "The life of a president is very unpredictable.

quality education and full The VFWC convention will rehabilitation into a con-structive role in a dynamic continue today and Thursday. The meetings of the junior society for each Virginia citizen." clubs start today with an awards breakfast.

tion, Mrs. Magee warned that of THE TIMES Wednesday, May 1, 1968.

Mrs. Virginia Mae Brown (left) and Mrs. E. Parker Brown Open Box Lunch

Virginia Clubwomen Ge

USE PENNEYS TIME PAYMENT PLANI

·Ksba Bui pad. All designed to make lawn mow ing, pivoting axle, low back chair and blade. Recoil starter, ball joint steer Great new 1968 features ... new sin-gle lever height of cut adjustment, fixed cutter deck, plus 26" single 617.

Women's Club Conventione

By CLARE V Times Women

Only a woman c newly painted c cars and say, wi "They look lovely." About 700 women looked at coal cars and engines and all the shop paraphernalia of the Norfolk and Western Railway Wednesday from the vantage point of a special train.

The train was special in more ways than one. Not only was it put together just for the delegates attending the con-vention of the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs, it was undeubtedly the it was undoubtedly the cleanest train the railroad has ever put on the tracks. The 14 passenger cars that pulled away from the station at 10:30 a.m. were so clean a white gloved finger could, and was, drawn over a window sill without a smudge. It was also the smoothest ride. There was not a bump, not a click nor a clack, not even a creak.

Charges Dropped In Bribery Case

HOPEWELL (AP)—The three-day bribery trial of former Fairfax County Supervisor Stuart T. DeBell came abruptly to an end Wednesday when the charges were dismissed by the presiding judge charges were dismissed by the presiding judge. As an all-male jury in Hope-well Circuit Court waited to re-ceive the case, Judge Ernest P. Gates emerged from a confer-ence with opposing counsel and announced the dismissal because of "insufficient evidence." The state had charged that announced the dismissal because of "insufficient evidence." The state had charged that DeBell accepted a $3,000 bribe in 1963 for his vote in favor of rezoning a 22-acre tract in Fair-fax County to permit the con-struction of an apartment com-plex there. Gates, who on Tuesday had denied a defense motion to dis-miss the charges, said in revers-ing himself Wednesday there was "not an iota of evidence there there was an understand-there there was an understand-ing" that DeBell would "get some money" for his vote on was circumstantial," the judge rage and herbert F. Schulham. Wythe said. "Acceptance of a gift with-out consent would not constitute bribery." DeBell's trial had been trans-ferred to Hopewell Circuit Court on his claim he could not re-ceive a fair trial in Fairfax Counting

The other four, who are waitsome money" for his vote on the rezoning. "All the evidence submitted was circumstantial," the judge said. "Acceptance of a gift with-out consent would not constituted former to the total and the submitted former to the s

Af In

WY

County.

Godwin Calls For Law

was called, was working session c economic growth emphasis on int pansion and out Roanoke area. A coach was a re from the N&W ai Roanoke Chambel merce to give a count of what was windows. A speed miles an hour was so the visitors could get a good view Pages for the trip were members of junior woman's clubs of the Blue Ridge District, dressed for the part in denim railroading caps and bandanas. The train went east on the main track almost to Vinton, then back to Roanoke and

The traveling si

AUTO CENTER the women in the women in the women in the women in the from train to gradient were waiting at the were waiting at the officials were the willing considered the work of the w

the willing assis Chamber of Co the railroad, th patient of the wo successful, laugh After the progr

tuamteu [bo coil starter, th even cut, -toolt . . . 29

oposal

oject

who individually brought in 10

Mrs. Virginia Mae Brown (left) and Mrs. E. Parker Brown Open Box Lunch

Women's Club Conventioneers Collect Boxed Lunches at End of Train Ride

Virginia Clubwomen Get Firsthand Lo

By CLARE WHITE Times Women's Editor

Only a woman could look at newly painted coal hopper cars and say, with emotion, "They look lovely." About 700 women looked at coal cars and engines and all the shorp paraphernalis of the the shop paraphernalia of the Norfolk and Western Railway Wednesday from the vantage Thursday, May 2, 1968. point of a special train.

> The train was special in more ways than one. Not only was it put together just for the delegates attending the con-vention of the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs, it was undoubtedly the cleanest train the railroad has ever put on the tracks.

The 14 passenger cars that pulled away from the station at 10:30 a.m. were so clean a white gloved finger could, and was, drawn over a window sill

It was also the smoothest ride. There was not a bump, not a click nor a clack, not even a creak.

Herman H. Pevler, N&W president, added another superlative. He said it carried more passengers than any other train, too.

The traveling seminar, as it was called, was billed as a working session on Virginia's economic growth with special emphasis on industrial expansion and outlook in the Roanoke area. Aboard each coach was a representative from the N&W and from the Roanoke Chamber of Commerce to give a running account of what was outside the windows. A speed of about 10 miles an hour was maintained so the visitors could get a good view.

Pages for the trip were members of junior woman's clubs of the Blue Ridge District, dressed for the part in denim railroading caps and bandanas.

The train went east on the main track almost to Vinton, then back to Roanoke and south on the main line to !

Roanoke park, where it ra the spur line to Wasena Pr At the park box lur waited for the women tables spread at Transportation Museum After a welcome by Pe who rode with his guests, Virginia Mae Brown, chairman of the Inter Commerce Commission, s on "A Balanced Transp tion System for a Gro Nation."

The only hitch in smooth-running day occu when the train arrived Wasena Park. The steps v had been provided to a the women in the de from train to grassy were waiting at all the except that of the car the officials were riding. the willing assistance Chamber of Commerce the railroad, the most patient of the women ma successful, laughing jum After the program the

VFWC Considers Proposal To Aid Radiology Project

By SHARON ABERCROMBIE Times Women's Writer

A physician on the staff of e Medical College of the Virginia said Wednesday that a new linear accelerator is of "great significance" in the treatment of cervical cancer and Hodgkins disease.

The linear accelerator, said Dr. S. H. Levitt in a talk to the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs (VFWC) at Hotel Roanoke, was developed only five years ago, and is being used successfully in cancer therapy in Washington, D.C., and Baltimore, Md.

The VFWC will vote today on sponsoring a two-year financial project to help purchase the accelerator for of Medical College the Virginia. Its prohibitive cost, $250,000 is the reason why the school has not yet added the new equipment to their radiology laboratory.

In pointed out the advantages of the new machine, Dr. Levitt described it as having a beam four times as strong as present equipment. The stronger beam, he said, gets to the growth quicker damage to less birrounding tissues and protices electrons particularly weful in treating breast Cincer. lore than 700 Virginians are treated every year at the college hospital, and for that reason, he said, "it is im-portant to have the very best

At the same meeting Wednesday, Mrs. James L. Raper, president of the Warwick Junior Woman's Club, presented the Warwick Safety awards.

First place in the over 40member division went to the Jefferson Junior Thomas Woman's Club of Richmond for its work in bicycle safety. In the under-40 members category, first place went to the Seaford Junior Woman's Club for its mothing recently and the seaford Club for its work in preventing individual safety hazards.

Honorable mentions were awarded to the Monacan Junior Woman's Club of H mond and the Waynesboro Junior Woman's Club.

Thirty-one clubs competed in the federation safety contest.

Mrs. James B. Roberts of Fairfax, second vice president of the VFWC announced that the Shenandoah District won a cup for the largest percentage of increase in membership.

The Lee District and the Alice Kyle District tied as winners of the extension cup given for the district with the largest number of new clubs. Certificates to clubwomen who individually brought in 10 who individually brought in 10 new members were given to Mrs. W. L. Barlow Jr., Town and Country Junior Woman's Club; Mrs. Bill King, Junior Woman's Club of Wytheville, and Mrs. Leven Ditterious and Mrs. Larry Fitzpatrick, Marion Junior Woman's Club.

Mrs. Virginia Mae Brown (left) and Mrs. E. Parker Brown Open Box Lunch

Women's Club Conventioneers Collect Boxed Lunches at End of Train Ride

Virginia Clubwomen Get Firsthand Look at Trains

VFWC Considers Proposal To Aid Radiology Project

Cimes Women's Writer

physician on the staff of Medical College of unia said Wednesday that w linear accelerator is of at significance" in the tment of cervical cancer

Hodgkins disease. e linear accelerator, said H. Levitt in a talk to the inia Federation of nen's Clubs (VFWC) at Roanoke, was developed five years ago, and is used successfully in cantherapy in Washington, and Baltimore, Md.

VFWC will vote today ponsoring a two-year al project to help the accelerator for se Medical College of Its prohibitive cost, ia. 0 is the reason why the has not yet added the equipment to their gy laboratory.

pointed out the adtest. es of the new machine, vitt described it as havbeam four times as as present equipment. nder heam he said.

SHARON ABERCROMBLE are treated every year at the who individually brought in 10 new members were given to Mrs. W. L. Barlow Jr., Town and Country Junior Woman's Club; Mrs. Bill King, Junior college hospital, and for that reason, he said, "it is important to have the very best in cancer patient care.'

At the same meeting Wednesday, Mrs. James L. Raper, president of the Warwick Junior Woman's Woman's Club of Wytheville, and Mrs. Larry Fitzpatrick, Marion Junior Woman's Club. Club, presented the Warwick Safety awards.

First place in the over 40member division went to the Thomas Jefferson Junior Woman's Club of Richmond for its work in bicycle safety. In the under-40 members category, first place went to the Seaford Junior Woman's Club for its work in preventing individual safety hazards. Honorable mentions were awarded to the Monacan Junior Woman's Club of Richmond and the Waynesboro Junior Woman's Club.

Thirty-one clubs competed in the federation safety con-

Mrs. James B. Roberts of Fairfax, second vice president of the VFWC announced that the Shenandoah District won a cup for the largest percentage

By CLARE WHITE Times Women's Editor Only a woman could look at newly painted coal hopper cars and say, with emotion, "They look lovely."

About 700 women looked at coal cars and engines and all the shop paraphernalia of the Norfolk and Western Railway Wednesday from the vantage point of a special train.

> The train was special in more ways than one. Not only was it put together just for the delegates attending the con-vention of the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs, it was undoubtedly the cleanest train the railroad has ever put on the tracks.

> The 14 passenger cars that pulled away from the station at 10:30 a.m. were so clean a white gloved finger could, and was, drawn over a window sill without a smudge. It was also the smoothest ride. There was not a bump, not a click nor a clack, not even a creak

Herman H. Pevler, N&W president, added another superlative. He said it carried more passengers than any other train, too.

The traveling seminar, as it was called, was billed as a working session on Virginia's economic growth with special emphasis on industrial expansion and outlook in the Roanoke area. Aboard each coach was a representative from the N&W and from the Roanoke Chamber of Com-merce to give a running account of what was outside the windows. A speed of about 10 miles an hour was maintained so the visitors could get a good view. Pages for the trip were members of junior woman's clubs of the Blue Ridge District, dressed for the part in denim railroading caps and bandanas. The train went east on the main track almost to Vinton, then back to Roanoke and the spur line to Wasena Pit. At the park box lunes run through the main railroad waited for the women m tables spread at the tion.

Transportation Museum. After a welcome by Per. who rode with his guests, In. Virginia Mae Brown, ine and was the first to be con-chairman of the Interse ducted by a federation in the chairman of the internation. Commerce Commission, sie nation. It was also the first of its Relanced Transpite It was also the first of its Relanced Transpite It was also the first of its when the train arrived a Wasena Park. The steps when had been provided to any the women in the des from train to grassy were waiting at all the except that of the car v the officials were riding. the willing assistance of Chamber of Commerce the railroad, the most patient of the women ma successful, laughing jum After the program the south on the main line to Sth continued on the spur until it Roanoke park, where it ram reached the main line west of Roanoke, where it reversed to

> The traveling seminar grew out of a General Federation of Women's Club study program

tions. These ranged from knowledgeable on es on railroading and industry to blooming along the tracks. The one that rocked our car after being told that Poppa Joe's was nearby, "What's Poppa Joe's?"

Train at Transportation Museum

chairman of Commission, see Haunt. commerce Commission, see Haunt. on "A Balanced Transput-tion System for a Grong kind to be held in Roanoke. Nation." It was also the first of its kind to be held in Roanoke. That the women enjoyed it was evident from their ques-tions. These ranged from identification of catalpa trees

Mrs. Brown Looks Back on Office

Mrs. Peery, President-elect VFWC, Laughs With Mrs. Brown

By CLARE WHITE Times Women's Editor As the advance officials of

As the advance officials of the Virginia Federation - of Women's Clubs (VFWC) gathered at Hotel Roanoke Monday for the 61st con-vention, the outgoing presi-dent, Mrs. E. Parker Brown of Dickmend total time for Richmond, took time for a brief look backward. Mrs. Brown has been president of VFCW for the past two years and will turn her gavel over to Mrs. Charles H. Peery III of Tazewell at the close of this convention.

Although reluctant to pinpoint any one achievement in a term that has been "remarkable for the unity of the organization as a whole," Mrs. Brown was visibly proud of four areas of success of four areas of success.

Her term of office has seen the first statewide fine arts festival, with 165 special events scheduled for its observance. In the field of education, she says "we kept plugging" for the instigation of kin-dergartens on a state basis."

Mrs. Brown also points to the international study pro-gram of the VFWC, the study of India. In this connection more than 4,000 school kits were sent to Indian schoolchildren.

In the field of safety, the VFWC is proud of its record in automotive safety work, tak-ing some of the credit for

"We are not going to stop," she adds. "We will continue to work at the local level to get the program started."

Mrs. Brown also points to legislation in this area. The most exciting event in Mrs. Brown's two years was the surprise announcement of a gift through the VFWC of a $14,000 heated p h y s i c a l therapy pool to the Children's Rehabilitation Center of the University of Virginia. Only Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Peery knew of this before it was announced at last year's conference.

Monday was taken up with committee meetings and board meetings, as the host clubs of the Blue Ridge District got ready for more than 1,000 delegates.

The executive committee was entertained at a dinner at the hotel by the Rokeva Woman's Club of Roanoke. The Roanoke County Woman's Club is hostess for a breakfast this morning at Conchurst, and the Woman's Club of Roanoke will entertain the same group for lunch at the home of Mrs. Roy L. Webber, president of the Plue Bidge president of the Blue Ridge District, VFWC. The first general session will with Mrs. Brown presiding. Reports of officers and of district presidents will be heard at this meeting. A fashion show will follow.

Mrs. Walter W. Magee, president-elect of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, will speak at the Alice Kyle banquet tonight. Her topic will be "We Face the Future Through Federation."

Other events scheduled for the three-day meeting include a train ride Wednesday morning, a traveling seminar to the transportation museum where Mrs. Virginia Mae Brown, vice chairman of the Interstate Commerce Com-mission will address the delegates on "A Balanced Transportation for a Growing Nation."

THE ROANOKE TIMES, Wednesday, May 1, 1968. ICC Official I o Speak

At VFWC Convention

A train ride from Hotel Roanoke to Wasena Park and a talk by the first woman to be named to the Interstate Commerce Commission (ICC) will highlight Wednesday's activities for the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs (VFWC) now meeting in Roanoke.

During the one-hour train ride, the delegates will participate in a working session on Virginia's economic growth with special emphasis on industrial expansion and outlook in the Roanoke area.

After delegates to the 61st convention disembark at the Fransportation Museum from their "traveling seminar" for a luncheon, Mrs. Virginia Mae Brown of Washington, D.C., will speak to the women on "A B a l a n c e d Transportation System for a Growing Nation.'

Mrs. Brown, formerly of Charleston, W.Va., is vice chairman of the Interstate Commerce Commission and the first woman to be ap-pointed to that group. Born in Pliny, W.Va., Mrs.

Brown was educated in the public schools of Putnam County. She received an A.B.

University in 1945 and an Virginia Judicial Council; in LL.B. degree from the West 1952 assistant attorney Virginia College of Law in 1947.

From 1947 to 1964 Commissioner Brown served in the state government of West Virginia. In 1947 she was appointed law clerk to the at-torney general; in 1949 ex-

Mrs. Virginia Mae Brown

degree from West Virginia ecutive secretary to the West general; in 1961 legal counsel to the governor; in 1961 in-surance commissioner; and in 1962 commissioner of the Public Service Commission. In each of these appointments she was the first and only woman to hold these positions. In March, 1954, Com-missioner Brown, a Democrat, was nominated by President

Times Photo

Johnson to be the first woman member of the Interstate Commerce Commission. Her nomination was confirmed by the Senate and she took the oath of office in a White House ceremony on May 25, 1964. She has served on each of

She has served on each of the commission's three divisions; as chairman of the Policy and Planning Com-mittee; and as a member of the special Ad Hoc Committee on Small Shipments. She was elected by the commission to serve as vice chairman in 1968. 1968

Commissioner Brown is married to James V. Brown, also an attorney. They reside with their two daughters, Victoria Anne and Pamela Kay, in Alexandria.

Roanoke World-News, Tuesday, April 30, 1968

Installers' Pact Past Offices Prepared Fu

Togetherness has been the theme for Mrs. Charles H. Peery III of Tazewell (left), and Mrs. E. Parker Brown of Richmond, president of the Virginia Federation of Women's in office during the convention here this week clubs throughout the state during the year. Here they unpack for the last days of Mrs. By Mary Bland Armistead World-News Women's Editor

Mrs. Charles Henry Peery III of Tazewell, expected to be named president of the Virg-inia Federation of Women's Clubs (VFWC) here this week, was a Peery before she mar-ried and friends accused her of taking that giant step because she didn't want to change her name. "She wasn't interested in abanging that ar her religion changing that or her religion or politics," they teased, "so she found a man that fitted all three.

Now that she has no opposition to the VFWC presidency, the charge still holds: she's first vice president of the federation and will simply drop the "vice" after elections Thursday. The word "president" fits her comfortably; she's a born leader.

Jane Crockett Peery Peery says "It's a long way from Tazewell to Richmond" and she doesn't mean the six-hour drive across the state. She means the long way she's traveled in federation work since she became a charter member of the Jeffersonville Woman's Club in 1947 and won her way through every major office from presidency of the local club to positions of responsibility on the state level.

The Jeffersonville by-laws were amended so she could succeed herself as president. Later she became Southwestern District chairm-or of education and montal an of education and mental health, then took office as vice president, and finally guided the district as president in 1960-61.

After that came the offices of state secretary and second vice president before she rose to her present post two years Is Reported Near

NEW YORK (AP) — Reports Western Electric Co. and 23,00 from union and management striking telephone equipment in sources of a settlement on basic stallers have raised new hop issues by representatives of the for settlement of the nationwid telephone strike.

C&P, Union

business until it was sold re-gretfully after his recent death.

death. . Once she thought the de-mands of VFWC leadership would be difficult to meet were she still professionally occupied, "but I would have tried it because that's how sold I am on the federation. "Where one deer closes on "Where one door closes, an-other opens." The president-elect believes

"All of us need some way to express ourselves; some way to extend our Christian beliefs. Federation work is the way I feel I can do this and be of the greatest service.

"Its work is so broad, no facet of life is untouched by it, and I enjoy being a part of it and r enjoy being a part of it because, while hoping to con-tribute something of value to it, I am reaping many values myself." Education was the keystone for the administration of Mrs. for the administration of Mrs. E. Parker Brown of Rich-mond. Mrs. Peery intends to continue her efforts, with special emphasis on a statewide kindergarten pro-gram, but will present a new era of interest, possibly in the realm of mental health, during her two-year term.

her two-year term. She'll travel a lot, not only down that long road to head-quarters in Richmond, but on official visits to clubs in each of the state's eight districts. Already she's a familiar person to thousands of members as she spent much of this year as "Mrs. Brown's telephone strike. The new hope developed Mon day from meetings here betwee the top negotiators. They ar Patrick J. Morgan, national d Fisheries, "is 100 per cent behind me in this new effort. He thinks it's great." The couple celebrated its

The couple celebrated its 25th wedding anniversary this past April 11, an important date for the distantly-related childhood sweethearts. "He's the outdoors man," his wife says. 'I enjoy it, but I've never hunted in my life. I just couldn't bring myself to do that, so I got involved in golf and gardening, reading and a little music."

She is vice president of the Tazewell County chapter, Virginia Society for Crippled Children and Adults; on the county mental health board; and a former official in the Council of Church Women.

Mrs. Peery believes the

Mrs. Peery believes the status of women is improving "although in many areas, it's still a man's world." "But," she insists, "if wom-en develop a true interest in business, politics or any other heretofore male interest, she can make many contributions in those fields. That's why I believe VFWC work so very important: it demands a terimportant: it demands a ter-rific amount of service, but gives untold returns to the members and the commembers munity."

dvertiser

Clubs. Mrs. Peery will succeed Mrs. Brown

and has joined her in visitations to many Brown's administration.

National Official Honored At Convention Opener

Delegates from more than 400 affiliated clubs in the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs began an assessment of their year's work today as the 61st annual convention opened at Hotel Roanoke. Registration took place all morning before the general session convened with Mrs. E. Parker Brown of Richmond,

Mrs. Walter Magee National President-Elect

president. The convention will be guided by her theme, "We Face the Future," and by adjournment Thursday evening, new officers will have been chosen, special awards in education and community im-provement bestowed, and reports on all divisions, committees and study groups given.

This afternoon, Mrs. Walter V. Magee of Lakewood, Ohio, was honored with a reception and fashion show at the hotel. She will be the featured speaker this evening at the Al-ice Kyle banquet when special tribute is given to past presidents of the federation.

presidents of the federation. District presidents and members of the junior ex-ecutive c o m m itte e were hostesses at the reception for her and the following club representatives were models: Mrs. Clark Johnston, Roan-oke County; Mrs. D. Robert Vecellio, Salem Juniors; Mrs. Hampton W. Thomas, Bram-bleton Juniors; Mrs. Charles T. Southern, Salem; Mrs. Charles E. Minter, Junior Woman's Club of Roanoke; Mrs. George Buchanan and Mrs. E. Clay Dickerson, Wom-an's Club of Roanoke.

Also Mrs. Carl Bower, Vin-ton; Mrs. R. W. Boyd, Wil-liamson Road; Mrs. Gerald Bell, Roanoke County Juniors; Mrs. Frank Johnson, Rokeva; Mrs. Harry E. Dixon, Wom-an's Club of Roanoke; Mrs. Marshall Denison, Roanoke County Juniors.

After the banquet tonight, Mrs. C. H. Peery III of Tazewell, state president-elect, will preside at a fine arts festival where finalists in arts, crafts, music, poetry, literature and drama will be honored honored.

Members of the Blue Ridge District are serving as hostesses to the convention for the first time in eight years. Mrs. Roy Webber, Roanoke, is district president.

district president. Tomorrow opens with a jun-ior awards breakfast with Mrs. James M. Minor Jr. of Richmond presiding. The convention's first "traveling seminar" will begin at 10:30 a.m., ending at the Transportation Museum in Wasena Park where Mrs. Virginia Mae Brown will speak. She is vice chairman of speak. She is vice chairman of the Interstate Interstate Commerce Commission.

Extension certificates and during afternoon deliberations. Dr. S. H. Levitt of the Medical College of Virginia will speak on advancements in science and the evening will end with a banquet and presentation of awards will be presented

Shell education awards. Charles Towers, vice presi-dent of Shell Oil Co., will make the presentations. He is in charge of the company's southern marketing region.

The convention closes Thursday after a prayer breakfast, elections, and a special education luncheon with Dr. Rosemary Sprague of Longwood College as speaker. Mrs. Omar O. Utt, past president of the Virginia Federation of Garden Clubs, will conduct a flower ar-ranging workshop after lunch and the installation banquet is that evening. The convention closes and the installation banquet is that evening. A large delegation is ex-pected from Southwest Virg-inia to honor Mrs. Charles E. Peery III who will be installed as president. A private party in her honor is planned for Thursday evening. The Junior Division of the federation will have separate federation will have separate sessions Wednesday and Thursday.

Charles Towers To Give Shell Awards

s. Tuesday, April 30, 1968

Offices Prepared Future VFWC President

ne for Mrs. ll (left), and mond, presiof Women's Mrs. Brown in office during the convention here this week and has joined her in visitations to many clubs throughout the state during the year. Here they unpack for the last days of Mrs. Brown's administration. By Mary Bland Armistead World-News Women's Editor

Mrs. Charles Henry Peery III of Tazewell, expected to be named president of the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs (VFWC) here this week, was a Peery before she married and friends accused her of taking that giant step because she didn't want to change her name. "She wasn't interested in changing that or her religion or politics," they teased, "so she found a man that fitted all succeed nersen as president. Later she became Southwestern District chairm-an of education and mental health, then took office as vice president, and finally guided the district as president in 1000 ft

1960-61. After that came the offices of state secretary and second vice president before she rose to her present post two years "I've been coming up the ladder a long time," she said yesterday before the 61st state gathering began at Hotel Roanoke

Mrs. Peery is an alumna of Longwood College and an astute business woman, assisting her father in the family furniture and hardware business until it was sold re-gretfully after his recent death.

. Once she thought the de-mands of VFWC leadership would be difficult to meet were she still professionally occupied, "but I would have tried it because that's how sold I am on the federation. "Where one door closes, an-other opens."

The president-elect believes "All of us need some way to express ourselves; some way to extend our Christian beliefs. Federation work is the way I feel I can do this and be of the greatest service. "Its work is so broad, no facet of life is untouched by it, and I enjoy being a part of it because, while hoping to con-tribute something of value to it, I am reaping many values myself.

Education was the keystone Education was the keystone for the administration of Mrs. E. Parker Brown of Rich-mond. Mrs. Peery intends to continue her efforts, with special emphasis on a statewide kindergarten pro-gram, but will present a new era of interest, possibly in the realm of mental health during realm of mental health, during her two-year term.

She'll travel a lot, not only down that long road to head-quarters in Richmond, but on official visits to clubs in each Advertis of the state's eight districts. Already she's a familiar person to thousands of members as she spent much of this year as "Mrs. Brown's right hand," accompanying her on many trips, and her tall charm and beautiful smile became as important as her predecessor's quiet authority. Commitments at home will be minor during her ad-ministration as Mrs. Peery is childless and her husband, a district biologist for the Commission of Game and Inland Fisheries, "is 100 per cent behind me in this new effort. He thinks it's great.

The couple celebrated its 25th wedding anniversary this past April 11, an important date for the distantly-related childhood sweethearts. "He's the outdoors man," his wife says. 'I enjoy it, but I've never hunted in my life. I just couldn't bring myself to do that, so I got involved in golf and gardening, reading and a little music."

She is vice president of the Tazewell County chapter, Virginia Society for Crippled Children and Adults; on the county mental health board; and a former official in the Council of Church Women.

Mrs. Peery believes the status of women is improving "although in many areas, it's still a man's world." "But," she insists, "if women develop a true interest in business, politics or any other heretofore male interest, she can make many contributions in those fields. That's why I believe VFWC work so very important: it demands a ter-rific amount of service, but gives untold returns to the members and the community.

John W. Yost of Vinton, will be the second from the Southwest Virginia area to head the state federation. Mrs. R. G. Boatwright of Coeburn was president from 1941-44 when officers were elected to three-year terms.

"The job takes time and thought and surrender of many personal pleasures," Mrs. Peery says, "but you hope when the term is over you have provided something worthwhile and developed something for further leadership."

cial Honored At Convention Opener

resident. The convention will e guided by her theme, "We 'ace the Future," and by adournment Thursday evening, ew officers will have been hosen, special awards in ducation and community imeports on all divisions, comittees and study groups ven.

This afternoon, Mrs. Walter . Magee of Lakewood, Ohio, as honored with a recepon and fashion show at the otel. She will be the featured beaker this evening at the Ale Kyle banquet when special ibute is given to paresidents of the federation. past District presidents and embers of the junior ex-utive committee were stesses at the reception for er and the following club presentatives were models: Mrs. Clark Johnston, Roan-te County; Mrs. D. Robert ccellio, Salem Juniors; Mrs. ampton W. Thomas, Brameton Juniors; Mrs. Charles Southern, Salem; Mrs. Southern, Salem; Mrs. narles E. Minter, Junior oman's Club of Roanoke; rs. George Buchanan and rs. E. Clay Dickerson, Wom-

Club of Roanoke

Also Mrs. Carl Bower, Vin-ton; Mrs. R. W. Boyd, Wil-liamson Road; Mrs. Gerald Bell, Roanoke County Juniors; Mrs. Frank Johnson, Rokeva; Mrs. Harry E. Dixon, Wom-an's Club of Roanoke; Mrs. Marshall Denison, Roanoke County Juniors.

After the banquet tonight, Mrs. C. H. Peery III of Tazewell, state president-elect, will preside at a fine arts festival where finalists in arts, crafts, music, poetry, literature and drama will be bongred honored.

Members of the Blue Ridge District are serving as hostesses to the convention for the first time in eight years. Mrs. Roy Webber, Roanoke, is district president.

district president. Tomorrow opens with a jun-ior awards breakfast with Mrs. James M. Minor Jr. of Richmond presiding. The convention's first "traveling seminar" will begin at 10:30 a.m., ending at the Transportation Museum in Wasena Park where Mrs. Virginia Mae Brown will speak. She is vice chairman of speak. She is vice chairman of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Extension certificates and awards will be presented during afternoon deliberations. Dr. S. H. Levitt of the Medical College of Virginia will speak on advancements in science and the evening will end with a banquet and presentation of

Shell education awards. Charles Towers, vice presi-dent of Shell Oil Co., will make the presentations. He is in charge of the company's southern marketing region. The convention closes

The convention closes Thursday after a prayer breakfast, elections, and a special education luncheon with Dr. Rosemary Sprague of Longwood College as speaker. Mrs. Omar O. Utt, past president of the Virginia Federation of Garlen Clubs, will conduct a lower ar-ranging workshop after lunch and the installation banquet is that evening.

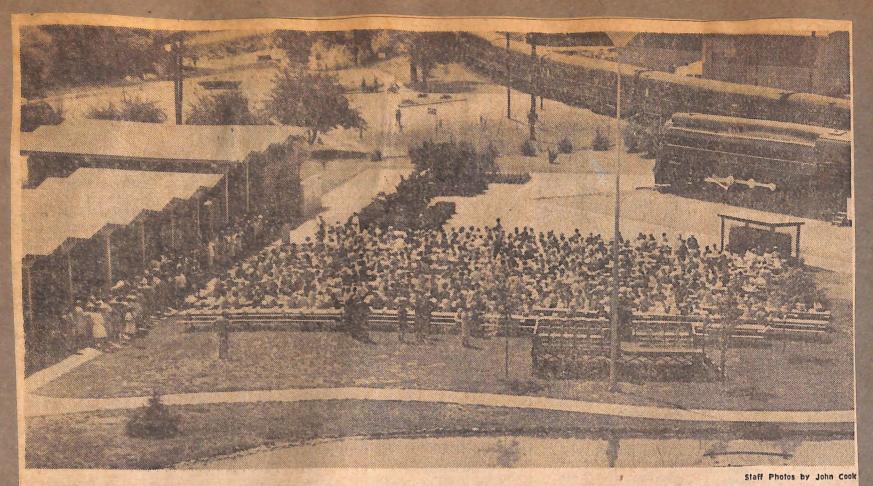

A large delegation is ex-pected from Southwest Virg-inia to honor Mrs. Charles E. Peery III who will be installed as president. A private party in her honor is planned for Thursday evening. The Junior Division of the federation will have separate sessions Wednesday and Thursday.

Thursday.

To Give Shell Awards

Charles Towers

Women clubbers have lunch at museum; their special train is in background

Top Officials Expected For District Convention

A general meeting of the Blue Ridge District, Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs, will be tomorrow of the Virginia will be tomorrow at the Hun-tington Court U n it ed Methodist Church with the Williamson Road Woman's Club and the Valley Junior Woman's Club as hostesses.

The meeting will begin at 9:30 a.m. with registration and coffee, a general session at 10:30, and luncheon at 12:30 p.m.

This meeting will mark the first visit of the newly-elected state officers to this area, and the program has been planned by Mrs. E. Clay Hurd, senior general chairman, and Mrs. Julian Venable, junior general chairman.

Among those local members attending will be Mrs. Roy L. Webber, state secretary and a member of the Woman's Club of Roanoke; and Mrs. Hampton W. Thomas, editor and Mrs. of the Virginia Clubwoman.

Delegates from the Woman's Club of Roanoke will be Mrs. Richard Wahlberg, be Mrs. Richard Wahlberg, Mrs. Clifford Henerfauth, Mrs. W. S. Kitchen and Mrs. Harold W. Garst, club presi-dent. District chairmen at-tending from that club are Mrs. A. E. Roscoe, family finance, and Mrs. W. L. Myers, veterans affairs. Also attending from the club

Also attending from the club will be Mrs. H. Stanley Bailey, past state president; Mrs. Harry E. Dixon, past district president; Mrs. John Leckrone, Mrs. E. C. Melborn and Mrs. Harriett Cofer.

Yearbook Is Dedicated

The Roanoke Junior Woman's Club has dedicated Woman's Club has dedicated its 1968-69 yearbook to the Roanoke Woman's Club of Roanoke. Mrs. Harold Garst, president of the woman's club, was a guest at the junior club's recent meeting to accept the dedication. The group met in the WRBA (Blue Ridge ETV) Studios and

(Blue Ridge ETV) Studios and saw a fashion show given by

The bride is a graduate of William Fleming High School and attended Elon College.

She is a member of the Beta Sigma Phi sorority. The bridegroom is a graduate of Patrick Henry High School and attended Virginia Western Community College.

Smartwear-Irving Saks. The Smartwear-Irving Saks. The show included ensembles for lounge, daytime, after-five and evening, and was commentated by Mrs. William A. Kelly. Mrs. H. R. Vann of Smartwear was in charge. A portion of the fashion show was taped for later use on WDBJ-TV's "Kaleideo-scope" show.

Also at the meeting, the group named representatives to the Blue Ridge District meeting of the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs to be held tomorrow at Huntington Court United Methodist Church. Mrs. Forrest Landon, club president, and Mrs. Joseph St. Clair will be delegates, with Mrs. Ralph Shupe and Mrs. Frank Radford as alternates. The group's next meeting will be Oct. 29 at Mountain View, at which time a panel View, at which time a panel discussion on the $81 million bond issue and liquor-by-the-drink will be held.

County Club Plans Bazaar

Miss Clatterbuck Wed

Roanoke.

Miss Cynthia Jeanne Clat- ring of lace and pearls and erbuck and Loring Charles she carried a white Bible with terbuck and Loring Charles Colburn were married Sept. 20 in the First Presbyterian Church of Eden, N.C., the Rev. John C. Whitley ofticiating. The bride is a daughter of

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Clatferbuck, the bridegroom a son of Mrs. Felecia Colburn, all of Roanoke.

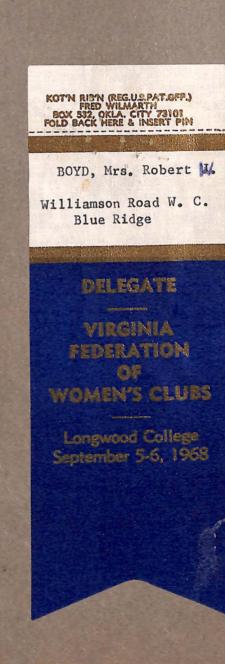

The bride wore a ballerina gown of white silk featuring a collared redingote trimmed with lace over a sleeveless gown. Her veil was held by a

The Roanoke County Woman's Club will meet Oct. 3 at the Conchurst clubhouse, for a board meeting at 10 a.m. and general session at 11:15 an orchid and satin streamers. a.m. The couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Clat-terbuck III of Roanoke, and after a wedding trip to Greensboro, N.C., is living in Roanoke

Mrs. R. O. Ettinger, Salem, will speak on international relations.

relations. Mrs. W. A. McKinney, president, and Mrs. Clarke Johnston are representatives to the fall meeting of the Blue Ridge District, V i r g i n i a Federation of Women's Clubs, to be heid tomorrow at Hun-tington Court U n it e d Methodist Church. (The ship has set Nov. 6 as

The club has set Nov. 6 as the date for its annual bazaar to be held from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. Luncheon will be served.

ICC Me2 Roanoke World-News, Wednesday, May 1, 1968 De Landing On Moon Should Begin Era No Of Exploitation

By Tol World-News E

By Tol World-News E It may tal another year fc Commerce Com make a final Norfolk and W peake and Of Dlan the vice Northwestern University. By Neil P. Ruzic plan, the vice ICC said here Mrs. Virginia Mae Brown, who is expected to become chairman of the ICC next 'ear, said a final report could come during the first half of 1969, but that it might be later. Examiner Edward L. Bois-seree's hearing report will prob-ably be issued next fall, she said.

said. Mrs. Brown was in Roanoke to speak at the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs' traveling seminar today. A lawyer and former member of the West Virginia Public Service Com-mission, Mrs. Brown was named to the ICC in 1964. The more than 800 women at-

The more than 800 women attending the federation con-vention toured industries in the area on a special N&W train.

The ICC has 33 rail merger cases pending before it, Mrs. Brown said in an interview, some of them more complex than the N&W-C&O case.

She pointed in particular to some of the mergers of railroads west of the Mississippi. "In the East we tend to think we have a hard time. But I always say you don't know how to fight until you get past the Mississippi River," Mrs. Brown said, pointing in particular to the Rock Island merger case. That case has been in hearings for two years and has taken up more than 45,000 pages of for testimony, she said.

The reason we would build Kan. The reason we would build Kan. spaceships there instead of here Sgt. S is that then we could launch these spacecraft more easily. The moon has several ad-wantages in this regard. First of all, there is no air, so you could accelerate spacecraft much The s faster without worwing chart

Roa

USA

Forbe

S.Sgt. J. Sink, Mr. and J. Sink Archbold NE, has the U. Force mendatio

Asked about the N&W in-clusion case, Mrs. Brown said she didn't know whether the ICC would have to take any further action. In that case the N&W was ordered to offer inclusion to the Erie Lackawanna, Delaware and Hudson and Boston and Maine railroads. Only the EL has accepted the inclusion terms. The D&H is due to vote on the plan May 22.

Mrs. Brown would not say whether she felt a transcon-tinental rail system would develop from the rail mergers now in process. She did say such a system would be "extremely important." She continued, "As far as the N&W is concerned, it is considered an Eastern railroad, but it goes beyond St. Louis to Omaha and Kansas Ci-ty ty

Rail passenger service, Mrs. Brown said, is receiving at-tention from both the ICC and the new Department of Transportation in localities where it is needed.

One reason why American rail passenger service is not as good as European is that the European railroads are not privately owned "and could care less whether they pay their way," she said.

She declined to comment on a report by ICC Examiner John Messer last week which recom-mended that the ICC establish certain minimum standards for passenger trains.

During both her press conference and in a speech delivered later at a luncheon at the Tranportation Museum, Mrs. Brown stressed the importance of looking at all forms of transportation together. The 14-car special train stopped at the museum.

Projections indicate there will h

Photo by Betty Masters Mrs. Gwen D. Hoffman, a club member from New Castle, assists Mrs. Virginia Mae Brown as she prepares to board train

The Roanoke World-News 21

Wednesday, May 1, 1968

Board To Hear Educator, Lawyer

Dr. Henry I. Willett, Longwood College president, and Leonard G. Muse of and Leonard G. Muse of Roanoke, vice chairman of the Virginia Public S c h o o l Authority, will be speakers during the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs (VFWC) heard moting next week board meeting next week.

Dr. Willett will address an evening session Thursday; Muse is to speak the following morning. The two-day session will be at Longwood College.

Mrs. Charles H. Peery III of T a z ewell, recently-elected VFWC president, has an-nounced a theme of "I Will Lift Up . . ." and officers' reports and workshops on federation work will be con-ducted ducted.

On the opening day, representatives of state clubs which won general federation awards for projects will report. They are the Cavalier Junior Woman's Club of Virginia Beach; Franklin Park of McLean; Ashland Junior of Ashland and Ginter Park Junior of Richmond.

On Friday, Mrs. Betty Martin, director of the women's division of the Institute of Life Insurance, will discuss women's financial responsibilities as a homemakers, earners and citizens.

Board members will learn first-hand the details of a new national awards program to encourage businesses to im-prove their a p p e a r a n c e s through use of landscaping

Dr. Henry Willett Leonard G. Muse Speakers for VFWC board meeting

lub member from New Castle, assists n as she prepares to board train

She pointed in particular to some of the mergers of railroads west of the Mississippi. "In the East we tend to think we have a hard time. But I Photo by Betty Masters always say you don't know how to fight until you get past the Mississippi River," Mrs. Brown said, pointing in particular to the Rock Island merger case.

World-News

Decision On N&W-C&O Merger Not Expected For Another Year

World-News Business Writer

is expected to become chairman of the ICC next year, said a final report could come during the first half of 1969, but that it might be laten.

might be later. Examiner Edward L. Bois-seree's hearing report will prob-ably be issued next fall, she

Mrs. Brown was in Roanoke to speak at the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs' traveling seminar today. A lawyer and former member of the West Virginia Public Service Commission, Mrs. Brown was named to the ICC in 1964. The more than 800 women attending the federation con-vention toured industries in the area on a special N&W train. The ICC has 33 rail merger cases pending before it, Mrs Brown said in an interview some of them more complex than the N&W-C&O case.

That case has been in hearings for two years and has taken up more than 45,000 pages of f( testimony, she said.

said

ICC Member Speaks in Roanoke

hearing stage for only about a year and took up about 10,000 pages of testimony. "Actually, in the merger field, this case didn't take very long,' she added.

Asked about the N&W in-clusion case, Mrs. Brown said she didn't know whether the ICC would have to take any further action. In that case the N&W was ordered to offer inclusion to the Erie Lackawanna, Delaware

Mrs. Brown would not say whether she felt a transcon-tinental rail system would develop from the rail mergers now in process. She did say such a system would be "extremely important." She continued, "As far as the N&W is concerned, it is considered an Eastern railroad, but it goes beyond St. Louis to Omaha and Kansas Citv.

the new Department of Transportation in localities where it is needed.

One reason why American rail passenger service is not as good as European is that the European railroads are not privately owned "and could care less whether they pay their way," she said.

She declined to comment on a report by ICC Examiner John Messer last week which recom-mended that the ICC establish certain minimum standards for passenger trains.

During both her press con-ference and in a speech delivered later at a luncheon at the Tranportation Museum, Mrs. Brown stressed the importance of looking at all forms of transportation together. The 14car special train stopped at the museum.

Projections indicate there will h

Hear Educator, Lawyer

port. They are the Cavalier mior Woman's Club of rginia Beach; Franklin ark of McLean; Ashland nior of Ashland and Ginter irk Junior of Richmond.

Wednesday, May 1, 1968

On Friday, Mrs. Betty artin, director of the omen's division of the stitute of Life Insurance, ll discuss women's financial sponsibilities as a memakers, earners and izens.

Board members will learn st-hand the details of a new ional awards program to courage businesses to imwe their appear ances ough use of landscaping and Hudson and Boston and Maine railroads. Only the EL has accepted the inclusion terms. The D&H is due to vote on the plan May 22.

21

Dr. Henry Willett Leonard G. Muse Speakers for VFWC board meeting

Rail passenger service, Mrs. Brown said, is receiving at-tention from both the ICC and be a 50 per cent increase in the mode of transportation said as a single, integrated system." ping services are all considered needs for all forms of Mrs. Brown. "Now becase of "Coordination among the part of the same system."

Photo by Betty Masters

Mrs. Gwen D. Hoffman, a club member from New Castle, assists Mrs. Virginia Mae Brown as she prepares to board train

The Roanoke World-News Wednesday, May 1, 1968

ICC Member Speaks in Roanoke

Decision On N&W Not Expected For

By Tom White

World-News Business Writer Commerce Commission (ICC) to make a final decision on the Norfolk and Western - Chesapeake and Ohio rail merger plan, the vice chairman of the ICC said here today. Mrs. Virginia Mae Brown, who is expected to become chairman of the ICC part new said a final Is expected to become chairman of the ICC next 'ear, said a final report could come during the first half of 1969, but that it might be later. Examiner Edward L. Bois-seree's hearing report will prob-ably be issued next fall, she said.

Mrs. Brown was in Roanoke to speak at the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs' traveling seminar today. A lawyer and seminar today. A lawyer and former member of the West Virginia Public Service Com-mission, Mrs. Brown was named to the ICC in 1964. The more than 800 women at-tending the federation con-vention toured industries in the area on a special N&W train. The ICC has 23 roll memory

The ICC has 33 rail merger cases pending before it, Mrs. Brown said in an interview, some of them more complex than the N&W-C&O case.

She pointed in particular to ome of the mergers of some railroads west of the Mississippi. "In the East we tend to think we have a hard time. But I always say you don't know how to fight until you get past the Mississippi River," Mrs. Brown said, pointing in particular to the Rock Island merger case. That case has been in hearings for two years and has taken up more than 45,000 pages of f testimony, she said.

be a 50 per cent increase in the mode of transportation needs for all forms of Mrs. Brown, "Now bed It may take more than another year for the Interstate said said. growth of the transports

"In the past, emphasis primarily has been placed upon the growth of each individual hearing stage for only about a year and took up about 10,000 pages of testimony. "Actually, in the merger field, this case didn't take very long," she added.

Asked about the N&W in-clusion case, Mrs. Brown said she didn't know whether the ICC would have to take any further action. In that case the N&W was ordered to offer inclusion to the Erie Lackawanna, Delaware and Hudson and Boston and Maine railroads. Only the EL has accepted the inclusion terms. The D&H is due to vote on the plan May 22 on the plan May 22.

on the plan May 22. Mrs. Brown would not say whether she felt a transcon-tinental rail system would develop from the rail mergers now in process. She did say such a system would be "extremely important." She continued, "As far as the N&W is concerned, it is considered an Eastern is considered an Eastern railroad, but it goes beyond St. Louis to Omaha and Kansas Ci-

Rail passenger service, Mrs. Brown said, is receiving at-tention from both the ICC and the new Department of Transportation in localities where it is needed.

One reason why American rail passenger service is not as good as European is that the European railroads are not privately owned "and could care less whether they pay their way," she said.

She declined to comment on a report by ICC Examiner John Messer last week which recommended that the ICC establish certain minimum standards for passenger trains.

During both her press conference and in a speech delivered later at a luncheon at the Tranportation Museum, Mrs. Brown stressed the importance of looking at all forms of transportation together. The 14car special train stopped at the museum. *

Projections indicate there will h

Board To Hear Educator, Lawyer

Dr. Henry I. Willett, Longwood College president, Willett, and Leonard G. Muse of Roanoke, vice chairman of the Virginia Public S c h o o l Authority, will be speakers during the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs (VFWC) board meeting next week.

Dr. Willett will address an evening session Thursday; Muse is to speak the following morning. The two-day session will be at Longwood College.

Mrs. Charles H. Peery III of VFWC president, has an-nounced a theme of "I Will Lift Up . . ." and officers' reports and workshops on federation work will be con-

report. They are the Cavalier Junior Woman's Club of Virginia Beach; Franklin Park of McLean; Ashland Junior of Ashland and Ginter Park Junior of Richmond.

On Friday, Mrs. Betty Martin, director of the women's division of the Institute of Life Insurance, will discuss women's financial responsibilities as a homemakers, earners and citizens.

Board members will learn first-hand the details of a new national awards program to encourage businesses to improve their appearances through use of landscaping and other beautification techniques.

ducted On the opening day, representatives of state clubs which won general federation awards for projects will Friday. jor General. mmmmmm

The "Business for Beauty" program, as it is officially named, will be sponsored by Cities Service Oil Company (CITGO). James C. Hunter, a representative of CITGO, will address the meeting on

Dr. Thomas J. Hartford, a vice president of the American Cancer Society, will speak on "Hopeful Aspects of Cancer." Dr. Hartford served more than 30 years in the Army Medical Corps and retired as Deputy Surgeon General with the rank of Ma-

During his Army career, he was commander of Tripler Army Hospital and Walter Reed Army Hospital. Alice Kyle District is hostess for the board of directors meeting. Mrs. W. A. Watson, III and Mrs. Ralph Hines are chairmen.

Dr. Henry Willett Leonard G. Muse

Speakers for VFWC board meeting

VFWC Supports Mental Health Funds; Votes Donation To MCV For Equipment

The Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs (VFWC) today endorsed an emergency resolution supporting the proposed state bond issue of $81 million to finance mental health and education.

It also voted to sponsor a two-year financial project to help purchase a new linear ac-celerator for the Medical College of Virginia. That ac-tion came after a discussion on the new equipment last night by Dr. S. H. Levitt of the Richmond school.

He described it as having "great significance" in the in the and Hodgkins disease. The equipment, he said, would cost $250,000 and be added to the radiology laboratory there.

At a prayer breakfast this morning at Hotel Roanoke, Mrs. Fred R. Pfisterer of Louisville, Ky., declared "con-fidence in God is the only way a person can achieve self-suf-ficiency today."

She said too many crosswinds are leading to a loss of self confidence, to apathy in the face of power structures, to withdrawal and anyioty anxiety

"We need a reaffirmation of God," she told the group now nearing the close of its 61st state convention. "We turn away from the very places in which we could see God moving. He is in those crosswinds, in the tumults of our lives and He has a purpose there if we seek it out." Mrs. Pfisterer is secretary of spiritual life cultivation for the Southwest jurisdiction, Women's Society of Christian Service for the Methodist Church. the United

Her husband is pastor of the Fourth Avenue Methodist Church in Louisville.

"God is the source of our power," she said, "and anx-icty and doubt could be diffused if persons would look to God for a singleness of purpose with which to combat

"There is no need to be pro-phets of doom. God is our hope.

Del. Willis M. Anderson of Virginia House of Delegates was a morning speaker, and Dr. Rosemary Sprague of Longwood College for new club and district ofspoke at a luncheon session. Later, orientation sessions ficers were held and Mrs. Omar O. Utt, a past president of the Virginia Federation of Garden Clubs, gave a flower

Arranging demonstration. New officers, headed by Mrs. Charles H. Peery III of Tazewell, will be installed at a banquet tonight. Metropolitan Opera star Maria Dornya will be guest artist and a late evening reception will close the state convention.

Roanoke World-News, Monday, April 29, 1968 Roanoke Women Will Judge Art, Works at Convention

Judges for an exhibit of art work by members of the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs have been announced by Mrs. J. M. Hamil of Roanoke, state fine arts vice chairman.

They are Mrs. J. M. Yeatts, art education specialist with the Roanoke City Schools, and Mrs. C. R. Harholdt, director of public information for the Roanoke Fine Arts Center. The exhibit will be displayed at Hotel Roanoke during the federation convention April 30-

May 2. Mrs. Yeatts, Fine Arts Center director from 1960-66, teaches art in the second step program with the sity schools. She studied art at the Fondazione Giorgio Cini Workshop in Venice, Italy, in 1963, and at the University of Virginia Extension, Roanoke College at the Fine Arts Center. She received a bachelor's degree in 1957 from the University of New York. State

Mrs. Harholdt studied at Bryn Mawr College and the University of Minnesota. She studied painting with Peter and Nicholas Wreden, J. M. Yeatts and Don Harris. She formerly was with press relations and publications at Hollins College and with the Roanoke chapter of the Red Cross office of public information.

nd

Art awards will be an-nounced April 30 during "Arts Festival Night" at the convention.

Mrs. J. M. Yeatts

Miss Dorothy L. Gibboney, superintendent of Roanoke City schools since 1966, received a special citation from the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs today. It was presented by a past president, Miss Anne Dobie Peebles, in recognition of 13 years of teaching, 12 as a principal; four in research and administration work; and six as school personnel director. The presentation was a feature of a luncheon session at Hotel

Reanoke during which Dr. Rosemary Sprague, professor of English at Longwood College, was guest speaker.

Valley Club

To Entertain

The Valley Junior Woman's Club will entertain tomorrow night in honor of Mrs. James

C. Helton, state junior direc-tor, and Mrs. Leslie W. Hamlet Jr., district junior

A dinner is to be held at the Oasis Restaurant followed by dessert at the home of Mrs.

On Wednesday, the guests will be served breakfast at the home of Mrs. Durward Starkey.

The Valley Juniors will co-host, with the Williamson Road Woman's Club, the fall Blue Ridge District meeting to be held Wednesday at Hun-tington Court United Methodist Church. Co-chairman for the club is Mrs. Julian Venable.

Mrs. John Kealey and Mrs. Charles Nelson will represent the group at the meeting.

Francis S. Key.

Officials

Roanoke World-News, Friday, May 3, 1968

WCLeaderAsksAidToHandicapped

14

The new president of the Virginia F e d e r a t i o n of Women's Clubs (VFWC) will stress aid to the mentally and physically handicapped, she stressed last night in an in-augural speech. Mrs. Charles H. Peery III of Tazewell said her theme will be health and freedom: "Freedom from ills of the body, mind and spirit, from the chains of crippling defects, and from the fears of ad-vanced age."

vanced age." She said she hopes these goals can be worked out in each of the six departments of the federation she will head for the coming two years.

In the fine arts department, for instance, she envisioned "an opportunity of working with crafts" as an aid to the handicapped. Outdoor recrea-tional benefits can be provided by the conservation depart-ment, she indicated, and the education department was charged to extend its scholarship program to in-clude training for work in health fields. health fields. Mrs. Peery spoke at the closing banquet of the 61st state convention at Hotel Roanoke. She was elected yesterday to succeed Mrs. E. Parker Brown of Richmond. In her talk, she expressed hope the public affairs depart-ment may provide "a facility for treatment and education of the multiple handicapped child," and suggested that "some woman's club might take over a motel that has been by-passed by con-struction of an interstate highway and develop it into a home for the elderly."

The CARE program during her administration will be focused on the Jose Marie Cabral General Hospital in Santiago, a new 300-bed facili-ty with limited personnel and equipment at present.

Mrs. Peery's interest in work with the handicapped was sparked, she said, by the work of the late Dr. J. W. Wit-ten of Tazewell, who reared 250 boys over a period of many years and started them on meaningful careers. She has also worked with a

She has also worked with a private family foundation which assists the handicapped through therapy. The new president will con-duct a fall meeting of the board of directors Sept. 5 and 6 at Longwood College. The 1969 federation convention, she said, will be next April 14-17 in Richmond.

Awards Given

A Richmond junior club won a $300 award from the Sears ners are: Mrs. William Hoy, Foundation last night for "Safetytown," a miniature community built to teach trafand pedestrian safety to children.

children. Clyde Ware, foundation representative, presented the prize to the Ginter Park Junior Woman's Club whose project is now being con-sidered for a national award at the general federation con-vention next month in Boston, Mass Mass.

Taking second place in the state awards was the Cavalier junior club of Virginia Beach, receiving $200; the Vienna Woman's Club won a $100

third prize. Two $50 prizes for fourth and fifth places went to the Junior Woman's Club of Fairfax and the Woman's Club of Poquoson. More than 400 clubs in the state participated in the contest for community improvement.

Southwest Thirty-one Virginia women, seven of them in the Roanoke area have received awards for their entries in the Fine Arts Contest sponsored by the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs (VFWC).

ners are: Mrs. William Hoy, Blacksburg Woman's Club, first place tree ornaments and eggs; Mrs. Ben Niswander, Buena Vista Woman's Club, first place, knitting (suits); Mrs. William Wilson, Harrisonburg Woman's Club, third place, knitting (casual sweaters); Mrs. T. A. Bergman, Lyn-chburg Suburban Woman's Club, first place, knitting (evening sweaters.) Mrs. Arthur Cook, Charlot-tesville Woman's Club, third place, knitting (evening sweaters);

Southwest Virginia are win-sweaters)

sweaters); Mrs. Barry Orndorff, Marion Junior Woman's Club, first place, knitting (children's apparel); Mrs. James L. Howard, Covington Junior Woman's Club, second place, crocheting (children's ap-parel); Mrs. Harvey Griffith

Mrs. Charles H. Peery III New VFWC President

Jr., Woman's Club of Lyn-chburg, third place, hooked rugs; Mrs. Eleanor Ogg, Rad-ford Woman's Club, second place, sewing (children's ap-parel); Mrs. Kenny Padbury, Grundy Junior Woman's Club, third place, needlepoint; Mrs. Robert Hickson, Lynch-burg Junior Woman's Club, third place, creative stit-chery; Mrs. Arthur Cook, Charlottesville Woman's Club, first place, and Mrs. Henry L. Wood, Blacksburg Woman's Club, second place, creative stitchery.

Mrs. James C. Heston New VFWC Junior Director

Mother-In-Law To Take Over Family's Care

By Toni Burks World-News Women's Writer 's Writer Mrs. James Helton of Blacksburg has taken on a part-time job but one with full-time overtones, and she's leaving the home front to her mother-in-law But Mrs. Helton believes she has a "one in a million" type of mother-in-law and feels she

Mrs. Helton says most of Mrs. Helton says most of her hobbies include interests enjoyed by her husband, who is associated with the First National Exchange Bank of Virginia, and their two sons, David, 7, and Philip, 5. They all enjoy gathering around the piano in the living room for song fests, led by Mrs. Helton's husband.

Roanoke winners and their categories are: Mrs. E. C. Mewborn, Rokeva Woman's Mewborn, Rokeva woman's Club, first place, fabric pain-ting; Kathryn Kesler, Rokeva Woman's Club, first place, decorated trays and boxes; Mrs. Jane Renick, Junior Woman's Club of Roanoke, first place, papier

Woman's Club of Roanoke, first place, papier mache jewelry and table accessories; Mrs. H. Don Veasey, Rokeva Woman's Club, second place, knitting; Mrs. Donna Arthur, Roanoke County Junior Woman's Club, third place, stain-ceramics. Mrs. James N. Fletcher, Brambleton Junior Woman's Club, third place, naturescopes. naturescopes.

Hent to Cumie Enster

Roanoke World-News, Friday, May 3, 1968

VFWCLeaderAsksAidToHandicapped

The new president of the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs (VFWC) will stress aid to the mentally and physically handicapped, she stressed last night in an inaugural speech. Mrs. Charles H. Peery III of Tazewell said her theme will be health and freedom: "Freedom from ills of the body, mind and spirit, from the chains of crippling defects, and from the fears of advanced age.

14

She said she hopes these goals can be worked out in each of the six departments of the federation she will head for the coming two years.

In the fine arts department, for instance, she envisioned "an opportunity of working with crafts" as an aid to the handicapped. Outdoor recrea-tional benefits can be provided by the consecution depart by the conservation depart-ment, she indicated, and the education department was charged to extend its scholarship program to in-clude training for work in health fields.

health fields. Mrs. Peery spoke at the closing banquet of the 61st state convention at Hotel Roanoke. She was elected yesterday to succeed Mrs. E. Parker Brown of Richmond. In her talk, she expressed hope the public affairs depart-ment may provide "a facility for treatment and education of the multiple handicapped child," and suggested that 'some woman's club might take over a motel that has by-passed by conbeen struction of an interstate highway and develop it into a home for the elderly."

The CARE program during her administration will be focused on the Jose Marie Cabral General Hospital in Santiago, a new 300-bed facility with limited personnel and equipment at present.

Mrs. Peery's interest in work with the handicapped was sparked, she said, by the work of the late Dr. J. W. Wit-ten of Tazewell, who reared 250 boys over a period of many years and started them on meaningful careers. She has also worked with a private family foundation private family foundation which assists the handicapped

through therapy. The new president will con-duct a fall meeting of the board of directors Sept. 5 and 6 at Longwood College. The 1969 federation convention, she said, will be next April 14-17 in Richmond.

Mrs. Charles H. Peery III New VFWC President

Mrs. James C. Heston New VFWC Junior Director

Mother-In-Law To Take Over Family's Care

By Toni Burks • World-News Women's Writer

Mrs. James Helton of Blacksburg has taken on a part-time job but one with full-time overtones, and she's leaving the home front to her mother-in-law.

But Mrs. Helton believes she has a "one in a million" type of mother-in-law and feels she will be leaving her two boys and husband in good hands.

Mrs. Helton is the newly- at Virginia Tech. third vice president of elected

Mrs. Helton says most of her hobbies include interests enjoyed by her husband, who is associated with the First National Exchange Bank of Virginia, and their two sons,

David, 7, and Philip, 5. They all enjoy gathering around the piano in the living room for song fests, led by Mrs. Helton's husband. And from living in a college town, they have become sports fans, attending most activities

Mrs. Helton is a member of

Awards Given

A Richmond junior club won Southwest Virginia are wina $300 award from the Sears ners are: Mrs. William Hoy, Foundation last night for Blacksburg Woman's Club, "Safetytown," a miniature first place tree ornaments community built to teach traf- and eggs; Mrs. Ben fic and pedestrian safety to children.

Clyde Ware, foundation representative, presented the prize to the Ginter Park Junior Woman's Club whose project is now being considered for a national award at the general federation convention next month in Boston, Mass.

Taking second place in the state awards was the Cavalier junior club of Virginia Beach, receiving $200; the Vienna Woman's Club won a $100

third prize. Two $50 prizes for fourth and fifth places went to the Junior Woman's Club of Fairfax and the Woman's Club of Poquoson. More than 400 clubs in the state participated in the contest for community in the contest for community improvement.

Thirty-one Southwest Virginia women, seven of them in the Roanoke area – have received awards for their entries in the Fine Arts Contest sponsored by the Virginia F e d e r a t i o n of Women's Clubs (VFWC).

Roanoke winners and their categories are: Mrs. E. C. Mewborn, Rokeva Woman's Mewborn, Rokeva Woman's Club, first place, fabric pain-ting; Kathryn Kesler, Rokeva Woman's Club, first place, decorated trays and boxes; Mrs. Jane Renick, Junior Woman's Club of Roanoke, first, place, papier mache Woman's Club of Roanoke, first place, papier mache jewelry and table accessories; Mrs. H. Don Veasey, Rokeva Woman's Club, second place, knitting; Mrs. Donna Arthur, Roanoke County Junior Woman's Club, third place, stain-ceramics. Mrs. James N. Eletcher Brambleton Junior Fletcher, Brambleton Junior Woman's Club, third place, naturescopes.

eggs; Mrs. Ben nder, Buena Vista Niswander, Buena Vista Woman's Club, first place, knitting (suits); Mrs. William Wilson, H a r r i s o n b u r g Woman's Club, third place, knitting (casual sweaters); Mrs. T. A. Bergman, Lyn-chburg Suburban Woman's Club, first place, knitting (evening sweaters.)

Mrs. Arthur Cook, Charlottesville Woman's Club, third place, knitting (evening sweaters)

sweaters); Mrs. Barry Orndorff, Marion Junior Woman's Club, first place, knitting (children's apparel); Mrs. James L. Howard, Covington Junior Woman's Club, second place, crocheting (children's ap-parel); Mrs. Harvey Griffith

Jr., Woman's Club of Lyn-chburg, third place, hooked rugs; Mrs. Eleanor Ogg, Rad-ford Woman's Club, second place, sewing (children's ap-parel); Mrs. Kenny Padbury, Grundy Junior Woman's Club, third place needlepoint: Mrs. third place, needlepoint; Mrs. Robert Hickson, Lynch-burg Junior Woman's Club, third place, creative stitchery; Mrs. Arthur Cook, Charlottesville Woman's Club, first place, and Mrs. Henry L. Wood, Blacksburg Woman's Club, second place, creative stitchery.

the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs (VFWC) and junior director for 1968-70, a job which promises to keep her on the road and away from the home fires.

She will be visiting the state's 132 junior clubs, which have a 5,000 membership, and coordinating their activities; traveling to district meetings, planning conventions, at-tending state board gatherings and General Federation meetings.

'I'll probably keep a bag packed in the hall closet," she laughs.

Between trips, Mrs. Helton will probably be found in the gardens of her Blacksburg home. She and her husband are garden enthusiasts and their pride and joy is the variety of iris and day lilies surrounding their house.

We practically built the house around the day lilies.' she says, explaining that when the family moved from Bristol three years ago, more than 100 flower bulbs came, too

Junior Blacksburg the Woman's Club and has been active with that club's project of getting a library in Blacksburg. "We've always Blacksburg. depended upon the college library," she said, "so we thought it was time to try for a public building.

A graduate of Emory and Henry College, she is a past president of the Bristol Junior Woman's Club and has served as federation junior projects chairman for the Southwestern District and as VFWC vice chairman of education.

looking Mrs. Helton is forward to her new club job and feels it has a great deal of personal satisfaction to offer as well as accomplishing something for others. She feels the juniors' part in state ac-tivities is significant of the membership's enthusiasm. "These women are so willing to work which will make my job easier," she said. And also working to making the job easier will be the motherin-law, Mrs. Kyle Helton.

Federation To Convene In Boston

The 77th annual convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs (GFWC) will be June 9-14 at the Statler Hilton, Boston, Mass., and a number of speakers have been scheduled to appear.

Mrs. E. D. Pearce, presi-dent of the organization, will officially open the convention June 11, and will read a message from President Lyn-don B. Johnson. The keynote address will be given by Dr. address will be given by Dr. Irving Lehrman of Temple Emanuel, Miami Beach, Fla.

That afternoon, the speaker will be Russell Train, president of the Conservation Foundation.

During the evening session, Mrs. Pearce will speak on "Three Moods of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

Ralph Nader, author and lecturer, will discuss "Corporate Responsibility and Consumer Protection" at the June 12 morning meeting. A Boston tour is planned that afternoon.

A highlight of the convention will take place at that even-ing's meeting when the $10,000 winner and runners-up in the Community Improvement Program will be announced. Art Linkletter will be master of ceremonies, and William F. McCurdy, president of the S e ars-Roebuck Foundation which sponsors the program, will speak.

Mrs. Katie Louchheim, deputy assistant secretary of state for educational and cultural affairs, will speak June 13.

That afternoon, international delegates will be honored at a fiesta. Mrs. William C. Britt, wife of Lt. Col. William C. Britt, U.S. Marine Corps, sta-(1

1 2

tioned in Korea, will be in-troduced. She was recently chosen "Military Wife of the Year, Pacific" in a contest sponsored by the Wilson Har-rell. Co. and conducted by rell Co. and conducted by Linkletter.

Carl T. Rowan, author, will compo diplomat and former director Miss v of U.S. Information Agency, television will address the evening program "Campus Revolution" is the subject of a panel for the June 14 morning gathering. Dr. John H. Lawton, chairman of the speech department of Boston College, will be in charge. Students at the college will compose the panel. Miss Virginia Graham,

Miss Virginia Graham, television personality, will speak at a "Celebrity and Awards Luncheon" that afternoon. Mrs. A. Paul Hartz of Waverly, Va., will preside during a presentation of resolutions, and Mrs. James J.

Harper of Southport, N.C., will report on revisions Junior clubwomen will meet June 9-10 after which they will join the general convention.

Women To Discuss Goals

The Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs will hold its annual board of directors meeting day at Thursday and Fri-Longwood College.

Art Center

Previewed

Members of the fine arts department of the Williamson Road Woman's Club were taken on a picture tour of the taken on a picture tour of the Roanoke Fine Arts Center at Cherry Hill by Mrs. Carl Thurston who presented slides and explained center work at the club's meeting. Mrs. Thurston told the group about the Art Lending Service and the work of the Service and the work of the Docent Guild, a volunteer

She noted that proceeds of the Art Mart, which is sponsored by the Docents, goes toward art education in

Mrs. Thurston also told the group that the center is fast becoming a cultural and education center for southwest Virginia with a membership of women's organization.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. C. M. Painter.

the schools.

1,033

For Club

Mrs. Charles H. Peery III, president, has chosen "I Will Lift Up . . ." as the meeting's theme.

During the two-day session Virginia clubwomen will hear officers' reports and attend workshops exploring different facets of federation work. Definition of the VFWC ob-jectives and emphasis by department and division chairmen will be of prime interest to those attending. These emphases guide state clubs in formulating their pro-grams for the coming year.

At the Thursday session, representatives of the Cavalier Junior Woman's Club (Virginia Beach), Franklin Park Woman's Club (McLean), Ashland Junior Woman's Club (Ashland), and Ginter Park Junior Woman's Club (Richmond) will report on their clubs' projects which won General Federation of won General Federation of Women's Clubs awards during the past year. Dr. Henry I. Willett, Longwood College president, will address the meeting Thursday evening. He is a graduate of Washington and Lee University and received both a master's degree and his doctorate from the Univer-sity of Virginia. Prior to sity of Virginia. Prior to assuming the presidency of Longwood College in December, 1967, Willett was first a school teacher and then an administrator in the Chesapeake school system. On Friday the director of the Women's Division, Institute of Life Insurance, Mrs. Betty Martin, will speak of women's financial responsibilities as homemakers, earners and citizens. Mrs. Martin has been active since 1946 in developing for the women of the country information services about life and health insurance and family money management.

Mrs. Martin is a native of California and attended college there and at the Sorbonne. She was a member of the faculty of Santa Monica City College and during World War II served as assistant director of the Women's Reserve for the 3rd Naval District

Leonard G. Muse, Roanoke lawyer and former state senator, will address the meeting Friday morning. Muse is president of the Virginia Baptist Children's Home, trustee of Roanoke College, rector of Radford College and vice chairman of the Virginia Public School Authority. He is a graduate of Roanoke College and the University of Virginia Law School.

Board members will learn firsthand the details of a new GFWC national awards program to encourage businesses to improve their appearances through use of landscaping and other beautification techniques. The "Business for Beauty" program, as it is of-ficially named, will be sponsored by Cities Service Oil Co. (CITGO). James C. Hunter, a representative of CITGO, will address the meeting on Friday. Dr. Thomas J. Hartford, a gram to encourage businesses

Dr. Thomas J. Hartford, a vice president of the American Cancer Society, will speak to the board members on "Hopeful Aspects of Cancer." Hartford is a native of Nebraska and graduated from the University of Nebraska College of Medicine. He served over 30 years in the Army Medical Corps and retired as deputy surgeon general with the rank of ma-jor general. During his Army corper Hartford served as career, Hartford served as commander of Tripler Army Hospital and Walter Reed

Any Hospital and Walter Reed Army Hospital. Alice Kyle District is hostess for the board of direc-tors meeting. Mrs. W. A. Watson III and Mrs. Ralph Hines are chairmen of ar-rangements.

DEC 67

Council Candidates

Council and for the office of mayor will be presented at an open meeting May 2 of the Williamson Road Woman's Club. The candidates will be asked to state their positions on questions of vital interest in their campaigns. Mrs. Hazel K. Barger will serve as moderator during the question and answer session.

To Speak at Meeting Candidates for Roanoke City

Club Officers, Chairmen Are Named

Mrs. Harold W. Garst was installed as president of the Woman's Club of Roanoke during a luncheon meeting at Hidden Valley Country Club.

Mrs. Harold W. Garst Heads woman's club

Mrs. Charles H. Peery III of Tazewell, president of the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs, presided.

Other officers and committee chairmen named were Mrs. E. Clay Dickerson, first vice president; Mrs. Roy R. Pollard, second vice presi-dent; Mrs. W. S. Kitchen, third vice president; Mrs. Clif-ford P. Henerfauth, recording courterway and Mrs. A. P. secretary; and Mrs. A. B. MacMackin, treasurer. Also, Mrs. A. E. Rc coe, im-mediate past president and by-laws; Mrs. Garland Foster, corresponding secretary. Mrs.

laws; Mrs. Garland Foster, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Harry E. Dixon, parliamen-tarian; Mrs. James W. Long, program; Mrs. D. F. Kerfoot Jr., communications; Mrs. K. P. Young, yearbook and historian; Mrs. James T. Bagby, newsletter; Mrs. Richard Wahlberg, finance; Mrs. W. L. Myers, ways and means; Mrs. Roy V. Creasey, junior woman's club contact chairman; Mrs. B a g b y, Brambleton Juniors contact chairman. chairman

Others are Mrs. W. Clay Iarris, conservation and Harris, garden; Mrs. P. G. Stultz Sr., fine arts; Mrs. Horace S. Fitzpatrick, home life; Mrs. Fitzpatrick, home life; Mrs. Percy C. Light, international affairs; Mrs. W. M. Hendley, public affairs; Mrs. Paul Johnson, safety; Mrs. A. M. Feges, health and mental health; Mrs. Lewis P. Thomas, duplicate bridge; Mrs. E. B. Wright, regular bridge; Mrs. A. D. Stockton Jr., community improvement; Mrs. C. J. Clements, cour-Mrs. C. J. Clements, cour-tecy; Mrs. Benton B. Clear, education; Mrs. J. W. Inge III, historical records. Also, Mrs. Creasey, cancer control; Mrs. Robert Garland, legislative; Mrs. Lloyd G. Bair, Mountain View; Mrs. Jack Collyer, name tags; Mrs. Harriet Cofer, telephone; Mrs. James W. Hatcher, trunk treasures; Mrs. W a r r e n Cratch, veterans; Mrs. W. V. Blassingham; and M r s Hampton Thomas, radio and television chairman. Mrs. Roscoe, as outgoing control; Mrs. Robert Garland, was made an member and president, honorary presented a gift from the club.

Roanoke World-News, Wednesday, Oct. 2, 1968 13

Blue Ridge District Growth Considered

Possible redistricting of the Blue Ridge District, Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs (VFWC), was discussed today for a meeting of that group at Huntington Court United Methodist Church.

The redistricting, if it comes, noted Mrs. James Helton of Blacksburg, will mean an enlargement of the Blue Ridge District taking in two clubs from the Lynchburg and Danville areas.

Mrs. Helton, state third vice president and head of the junior clubs, explained that the move is being studied to make travel of state and district officers easier, and make division of the state's clubs more equal clubs more equal. The decision for redistricting, she said, is under the authority of the state executive board, and if it does come, would not be enacted until 1970 with a new administration.

Two other state officers, Mrs. Charles H. Peery III of Tazewell, president of the VFWC, and Mrs. Norman L. Brown of Hampton, second vice president, spoke at today's meeting which was hosted by the Williamson Road Woman's Club and the Valley Junior Woman's Club. Mrs. Peery's theme for her administration is "Health-Freedom," with special emphasis on health in Virginia, she said. She announced that the purchase of a linear

She announced that the purchase of a linear accelerator for the treatment of cancer, called a "Clinac," at the Medical College of Virginia, has been approved. State clubs are making contributions toward this purchase purchase.

Last night the Williamson Road Woman's Club

Mrs. James Helton VFWC speaker

entertained at the Lakeview Club in honor of Mrs. Peery and Mrs. Brown, with Mrs. E. Parker Brown of Richmond as a special guest. The latter is immediate past president of the VFWC and now general federation chairman of the home life department. Other state officers at the

Other state officers at the event included Mrs. Roy L. Webber, secretary and Mrs. Hampton W. Thomas, editor of the Virginia Clubwoman. Both are of Roanoke. Bub Pidge District efficience

Blue Ridge District officers honored were Mrs. Charles T. Southern of Salem, president; Mrs. Roger L. Smith of Blacksburg, first vice president; and Mrs. R. N. McFarland, chairman of the home life department. Other guests were Mrs. Edgar Thurman, Mrs. H. Stanley Bailey and Mrs. William S. Murray, past president of the district.

Club Delegations Announced

Top Officials Expected For District Convention

A general meeting of the Blue Ridge District, Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs, will be tomorrow at the Huntington. Court United Methodist Church with the Williamson Road Woman's Club and the Valley Junior Woman's Club as hostesses. The meeting will begin at 9:30 a.m. with registration and coffee, a general session at 10:30, and luncheon at 12:30 p.m.

This meeting will mark the first visit of the newly-elected state officers to this area, and the program has been planned by Mrs. E. Clay Hurd, senior general chairman, and Mrs. Julian Venable, junior general chairman.

Among those local members attending will be Mrs. Roy L Webber, state secretary and a member of the Woman's Club of Roanoke; and Mrs. Hampton W. Thomas, editor of the Virginia Clubwoman.

Delegates from the Woman's Club of Roanoke will be Mrs. Richard Wahlberg, Mrs. Clifford Henerfauth, Mrs. W. S. Kitchen and Mrs. Harold W. Garst, club presi-dent. District chairmen at-tending from that club are Mrs. A. E. Roscoe, family finance, and Mrs. W. L. Myers, veterans affairs. Also attending from the club will be Mrs. H. Stanley Bailey.

will be Mrs. H. Stanley Bailey, past state president; Mrs. Harry E. Dixon, past district president; Mrs. John Leckrone, Mrs. E. C. Melborn and Mrs. Harriett Cofer. Smartwear-Irving Saks. The show included ensembles for lounge, daytime, after-five and evening, and was commentated by Mrs. William A, Kelly, Mrs. H. R. Vann of Smartwear was in charge. A portion of the fashion show was taped for later use on WDBJ-TV's "Kaleideoscope" show.

scope show. Also at the meeting, the group named representatives to the Blue Ridge District meeting of the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs to be held tomorrow at Huntington Court United Methodist Church. Mrs. Forrest Landon, club president, and Mrs. Joseph St. Clair will be delegates, with Mrs. Ralph Shupe and Mrs. Frank Radford as alternates. The group's next meeting will be Oct. 29 at Mountain View, at which time a panel discussion on the $81 million bond issue and liquor-by-the-drink will be held.

Mrs. J. H. Durham of Roanoke Pins Corsage on Mrs. Brown As Mrs. Peery (second from left) and Mrs. Southern Watch

Expansion Is Proposed For Blue Ridge District

By CLARE WHITE

Times Women's Editor The Blue Ridge District of the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs (VFWC) will be a little bigger if proposed changes in the districting of the state are passed. Delegates to the fall meeting of the district Wednesday at Huntington Court Methodist Church were told of proposed changes by Mrs. James C. Helton of Blacksburg, a member of the VFWC committee to study the withing subject

A committee is appointed every 10 years to review the district divisions of the state and to recommend changes if deemed advisable. The deemed advisable. The committee will meet in February to draft its final recommendations, said Mrs. Helton.

Present plans call for Blue Ridge to be increased by the addition of part of Pittsylvania County, to include Danville, Gretna and Chatham, but not to include Altavista and Hurd.

Major changes are expected in metropolitan areas of the state., such as Richmond, Tidewater and Northern. There is a strong possibility that a new district will be created in Tidewater. It will be called Peninsula and will include Newport News and the cities north of Hampton Roads. Tidewater district will take in Norfolk and the areas south of the water.

The Blue Ridge District was invited to have its spring meeting March 29 at the Floyd County High School by the Floyd County Woman's Club and the Bent Mountain Woman's Club.

VFWC President Mrs. C. H. Peery III addressed the delegates on the subject, "And What Are You Searching For?"

Deploring the hippie mobs she saw outside her hotel when she was in Boston for the general federation meeting, she called on her audience to "make our federation a vital agency in a meeting, said a state our restless society.

"As local clubs you must justify yourselves as more than afternoon tea parties," she told the women, admonishing them to look around their communities and see what needed to be done. "Let's fight a lot," she said, against the enemies of home and family such as pornography and sex-oriented records, TV and movtes.

Mrs. Norman L. Brown of Hampton, VFWC second vice president, spoke to the group on club membership and how to increase the number and the interest of members. Mrs. Helton, VFWC third vice president and director of junior clubs, gave a talk on "The Upward Reach." She urged the clubwomen to support the Nov. 5 $81-million bond referendum and to press for conservation measures, particularly as affecting the pollution of streams.

The Williamson Road Woman's Club and the Valley Junior Woman's Club were hosts for the meeting. Mrs. Charles T. Southern of Salem, president of the Blue Ridge District, presided.

Club Chairmen Named; Training Film Shown

Marshall Denison, Mrs. president of the Roanoke County Junior Woman's Club, has announced the appointment of three new chairmen: Mrs. George Blackmore, health; Mrs. Lloyd Parcell, safety; Mrs. Eugene Firebaugh, projects.

Films of activities at the Special Education School in Salem, where mentally re-tarded children receive special training, were shown by Mrs. David Slack and Mrs. R. G. Pingle at a recent meet-ing. Members of the club do volunteer work there each week

Sergent will be delegates at an Oct. 2 meeting of the Blue Ridge District, Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs, at the Huntington Court Methodist Church. Alternates will be Mrs. Gerald Bell and Mrs. Fred Jordan.

Plans for an Oct. 15 card party and fashion show at the Conchurst clubhouse were discussed as were tentative plans for a Christmas dinner Dec.

13. Mrs. Robert Gray was introduced as a new member and an orientation class for all club members who have The president and Mrs. Bill at the president's home.

VFWC District To Hold Fall Meeting in Roanoke

The fall meeting of the Blue Ridge District, Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs (VFWC), will be in Roanoke Oct. 2 at Huntington Court Methodist Church. The host clubs will be the Williamson Road Woman's Club and the Valley Junior Woman's Club. General chairmen in charge of arrangements are Mrs. J. Clay Hurd of the Williamson Road club and Mrs. Julian Venable of the junior club.

Three state officers will visit the meeting: Mrs. Charles H. Peery III of Tazewell, president of VFWC; Mrs. Norman L. Brown of Hampton, second vice president, and Mrs. James C. Helton of Blacksburg, third vice president and director of the junior clubs for the state. The presiding officer will be Mrs. Charles T. Southern, president of the Blue Ridge District.

Federation Is Cited For Public Projects

The Virginia Federation of Vomen's Clubs was instru-nental in having laws enacted Women's Clubs was instrumental in having laws enacted prohibiting billboards within 500 yards of interstate high-ways. It also supported the establishment of federal regula-tions to insure purity of food and drugs.

Mrs. William S. Murray of Hollins, a former president of the federation, cited these as among its accomplishments in a talk for the Roanoke County Junior Women's Club recently.

Blue ribbon winners in an arts and crafts judging were: Mrs. Tom Clifton, decorated boxes and trays and original creations; Mrs. W. H. Scott,

An oil painting by Miss Ruth Ann Longanacre will be enter-ed in the Roanoke Fine Arts Center judging.

Mrs. W. Marshall Denison, president, and Mrs. G. J. Bell will be delegates to the VFWC convention to be held in Rich-mond in April.

Mrs. C. H. Peery III, VFWC President

VFWC President Will

By CLARE WHITE

Times Women's Editor The new president of the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs will put her emphasis on the handicapped during her term of office.

Mrs. Charles Henry Peery III of Tazewell was elected to the VFWC presidency Thursday at the 61st general convention of the organization at Hotel Roanoke

In her inaugural address at the banquet Thursday night she outlined her ambitions for the coming two years. The theme of her regime will be health and freedom; "freedom from ills of the body, mind and spirit, from the chains of crippling defects, and from the fears of advanced age."

Mrs. Peery is particularly interested in the handicapped, both physical and mental. A relative of the late philan-thropist, Dr. J. W. Witten of Tazewell, who reared 250 boys, she says a lot of her thinking on this subject dates back to him. She has also worked with a private family foundation which assists the handicapped through therapy.

She hopes to implement aid for the handicapped in each of the six departments of VFWC work.

In the fine arts department she sees an opportunity of working with crafts for the handicapped. She also hopes to see the member clubs use such tools as music therapy. The conservation ment could extend the benefits of outdoor recreation for the physical development of children with handicaps.

In the education department Mrs. Peery would like to see the scholarship program of the VFWC expanded to include those training for work in health fields. The scholarship program already includes kindergarten and special education grants.

Through the public affairs department she hopes to see provision for a facility for treatment and education of the multiple handicapped child.

Mrs. Peery also is concerned with the problems of people of advanced age. As an embryonic idea, "not thought out yet," she offers the sug-gestion that some woman's club might take over a motel that has been by-passed by construction of an interstate highway and develop it into a home for the elderly.

The new president con-gratulated members of the VFWC for providing the "seed money" for the purchase of a linear accelerator for the treatment of cancer, called a clinac, at the Medical College of Virginia. Through the influence of the woman's clubs across the state it is felt that this equipment will be made possible.

The CARE program during her administration will be focused on the Jose Maria Cabral General Hospital in Santiago, Dominican Republic. This is a newly opened 300-bed hospital with limited personnel and equipment. The in-ternational emphasis of the VFWC is expected to be toward a Latin American country.

Mrs. Peery also said she hoped to see another ternational tour for the members of the VFWC during her administration.

Mrs. Peery was born Jane Crockett Peery of Tazewell and married a distant cousin. Her husband, a wildlife biologist for the Commission of Game and Inland Fisheries, is a relative of the late Gov. George C. Peery, governor of Virginia during the 30s.

She was a charter member She was a charter memper of the Jeffersonville Woman's Club in 1947. Tazewell was originally c a ll e d Jef-fersonville, she says, and when the Tazewell Senior Woman's Club, the second oldest woman's club in the state sponsored a new slub in state, sponsored a new club in Tazewell, it took the old name of the town.

Two members of the parent club, Mrs. B. W. Stras and Mrs. R. O. Crockett, were on hand to see Mrs. Peery take the highest office of the Virginia federation. The Tazewell Senior Woman's Club was disbanded last year. 000000

Richmond Club Wins Sears Award

A Richmond club was presented a $300 award Thursday night from the Sears Foundation for its two-year community improvement project.

The Ginter Park Junior Woman's Club was recognized at the VFWC banquet by Clyde Ware, a representative of the Sears Foundation, for "Safety town," a miniature community built for children to teach them the rudiments of traffic and pedestrian safety

The Ginter Park club project also is being considered for a national award at the General Federation of Women's Clubs convention this June in Boston, Mass.

Taking second place in the state awards was Cavalier Junior Woman's Club of Virginia Beach, which received $200.

A $100 award and third place went to the Vienna Woman's Club.

Two $50 awards for fourth and fifth places went to the Junior Woman's Club of Fairfax and the Women's Club of Poquoson.

A total of 432 clubs entered the contest.

Prize money will be used to further the clubs' community improvement projects.

Focus on Handicapped

There are however, four woman's clubs in Tazewell.

Mrs. Peery was president of the Southwestern District. VFWC, in 1960-62. She started up the state ladder as secretary of the VFWC and, when she completes her term as president, will have served 10 years on the executive level.

She will be the second state resident from the president

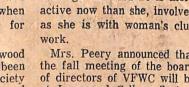

Southwestern District. Mrs. R. G. Boatwright of Coeburn was president from 1941-44, when officers were elected for three-year terms.

A graduate of Longwood College, Mrs. Peery has been active in the Virginia Society for Crippled Children and Adults, serving on both the state and county boards. Both she and her husband are ac-tive in the Main Street

Methodist Church in Tazewell. although she said he is more active now than she, involved as she is with woman's club

Mrs. Peery announced that the fall meeting of the board of directors of VFWC will be at Longwood College Sept. 5 and 6.

The 1969 convention will be held April 14-17 at the Hotel Jefferson in Richmond.

VFWC Convention

Speaker Receives Ovation

By SHARON ABERCROMBIE limes Women's Writer

The Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs wound up the final day of its state meeting Thursday by giving a standing ovation to one of its speakers, presenting awards and special citations, and voting on an installing new officers.

Dr. Rosemary Sprague, professor of English at Longwood College, cited modern fallacies in education, and chided the ethics of college sit-ins and riots, at the federation luncheon held at Hotel Roanoke.

alling new officers. "My colleagues at Berkeley, Calif., tell me that part of the trouble there results from

Club, third place, creative stitchery; Mrs. Arthur Cook, Charlottesville Woman's Club, first place, and Mrs. Henry L. Wood, Blacksburg Woman's Club, second place, creative stitchery. Mrs. Edward Lavender, Mrs. Edward Lavender, Stuarts Draft Woman's Club, third place, applique; Mrs. Fred Gabriel, Waynesboro Woman's Club, first place in ceramics free form and first place for ceramics with glaze.

Merit awards went to Mrs.

J. R. T. Bowen, Covington Woman's Club, for semiprofessional art; to Mrs.

Randolph Peters of the Marion Junior Woman's Club for novice photography; and to Mrs. J. David Woody of Bristol Woman's Club for professional protography. The Woman's Club of Lynchburg was a runner-up for an award for poetry, literature and drama and took

State first place awards in the fine arts department went to the Ashland Junior Woman's Club, Thomas Jef-ferson Junior Woman's Club and Federated Woman's Club

In the crafts division first place awards were won by Junior Woman's Club of Manassas, Westwood Junior Woman's Club and the Federated Woman's Club of Poetry, Literature and Drama first places went to Ashland Junior Woman's Club, Portsmouth Junior Woman's Literature

Club and Woman's Club of and a first in music.

of Petersburg.

Petersburg.

students thinking they should be passed in courses simply because they're there, like Mt. Everest, instead of study-ing."

Dr. Sprague said that the true definition of education, "the cultivation of the mind to enrich the spirit" has been passed over. In its place, she said, is the prevailing notion that education is the means to a prestige job and a high salary.

"Let's face it," she pointed out, "not everyone should go to college."

She said that the philosophy of "every child in a classroom through college" is wrong because everyone hasn't the mental stamina to attain the groves of academe, and not everyone was born to do research."

"Politics," she said, "must stop demanding that education be all things to all people. The school is not a substitute for home and church."

Other speakers included Mrs. Fred F. Pfisterer, who spoke at a breakfast on "We Face the Future Prayerfully," and Del. Willis Anderson of Papage Roanoke.

Anderson spoke at the morning general session on the pro-posed state bond issue on mental health and education. In encouraging support for the bonds, Anderson said that approval will make possible "an entirely new facility for mentally retarded children in Northern Virginia and plans for another in Tidewater."

More than $13 million of the allotted $81 million will go for mental health facilities and the balance will go for education, he said.

He said that six new com-munity colleges throughout Virginia are included in the bond issue, as well as capital improvements for Longwood, Madison, and Radford College, the University of Virginia, VMI, and VPI.

Hopewell. Music awards were given to the Junior Woman's Club of Manassas, Westwood Junior Woman's Club and the Woman's Club of Lynchburg. "In spite of the sales tax and increased revenue from other sources, Virginia has reached the point where it cannot finance operating needs and capital im-provements out of current revenue alone. We've got to run hard just to stay even, and we've got to run even harder to catch up with many of our to catch up with many of our unmet needs."

The federation later passed resolution to support the bond issue.

In a separate resolution, it also voted to provide "seed money" towards the purchase of new cancer therapy equipment at the Medical College of Virginia. At the afternoon session, Miss Anne Dobie Peebles, a past president of the VFWC, presented a special citation to Miss Dorothy G i b b o n e y, superintendent of Roanoke Ci-ty Schools, for her outstanding work in the field of education. Mrs. Omar O. Utt presented a flower arranging demonstration at the afternoon session. Mrs. Utt is past president of the Virginia Federation of Garden Clubs.

At the banquet last night, new officers for the next two years were installed and community improvement awards were presented. Miss Maria Dornya, from the Metropolitan Opera Company, was guest artist.

A reception for Mrs. Charles Henry Peery III, new VFWC president, officially closed the convention.

Fine Arts Awards Given

Thirty-one Southwest Virginia women, seven of them in the Roanoke area have received awards for their entries in the Fine Arts Contest sponsored by the Virginia F e d e r a t i o n of Women's Clubs (VFWC).

The awards were made Tuesday night at Hotel Roanoke, where the VFWC is holding their state meeting this week.

Roanoke winners and their Roanoke winners and their categories are: Mrs. E. C. Mewborn, Rokeva Woman's Club, first place, fabric pain-ting; Kathryn Kesler, Rokeva Woman's Club, first place, decorated trays and boxes; Mrs. Jane Renick, Junior Woman's Club of Roanoke, first place, papier mache jewelry and table accessories; Mrs. H. Don Veasey, Rokeva Woman's Club, second place, Mrs. H. Don Veasey, Rokeva Woman's Club, second place, knitting; Mrs. Donna Arthur, Roanoke County Junior Woman's Club, third place, stain-ceramics. Mrs. James N. Fletcher, Brambleton Junior Woman's Club, third place, naturescopes.

Southwest Virginia are win-ners are: Mrs. William Hoy, Blacksburg Woman's Club, first place tree ornaments and eggs; Mrs. Ben Niswander, Buena Vista Woman's Club, first place, knitting (suits); Mrs. William Wilson, Harrisonburg Wilson, Harrisonburg Woman's Club, third place, knitting (casual, sweaters); Mrs. T. A. Bergman, Lyn-chburg Suburban Woman's Club, first place, knitting (evening sweaters.)

Mrs. Arthur Cook, Charlot-tesville Woman's Club, third place, knitting (evening sweaters);

sweaters); Mrs. Barry Orndorff, Marion Junior Woman's Club, first place, knitting (children's apparel); Mrs. James L. Howard, Covington Junior Woman's Club, second place, crocheting (children's ap-parel); Mrs. Harvey Griffith Jr., Woman's Club of Lyn-chburg, third place, hooked rugs; Mrs. Eleanor Ogg, Rad-ford Woman's Club, second place, sewing (children's ap-parel); Mrs. Kenny Padbury, Grundy Junior Woman's Club, Grundy Junior Woman's Club, third place, needlepoint; Mrs. Robert Hickson, Lynch-burg Junior Woman's

of the

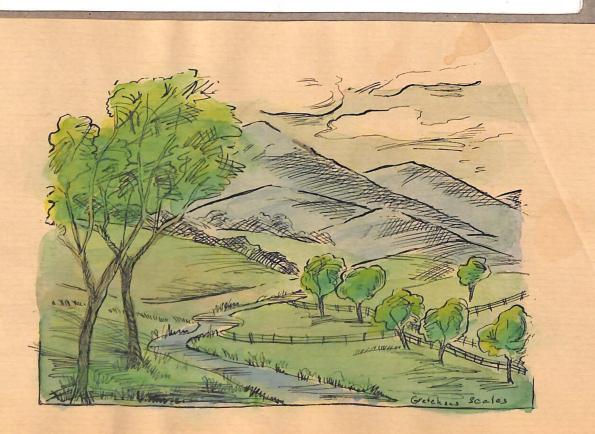

Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs

April 30, May 1, 2, 1968

HOTEL ROANOKE

ROANOKE, VIRGINIA

of the

Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs

April 30, May 1, 2, 1968

HOTEL ROANOKE

ROANOKE, VIRGINIA

WELCOME

Officers and Members of the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs

THEME

Springs of many waters bring health for the body; Wellsprings of understanding bring health for accomplishment

> Board of Directors - Dinner Main Dining Room, Rotunda Longwood College, Farmville Alice Kyle District -Host September 5, 1968

of the

Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs

April 30, May 1, 2, 1968

HOTEL ROANOKE

ROANOKE, VIRGINIA

INVOCATION

Our Blessings, O Lord, are more abundant than the waters of the sea. With friendship to warm our hearts, work to fill our hands, and accomplishment to fulfill our vision. In the evening, lead us beside the still waters; lead us to rest by the soft dews of quietness. And in the morning, guide us to the wellsprings of understanding, That we may know Thy will to do Thy will. For all things we thank Thee.

For Thy continued blessings we ask in Jesus Name.

A-Men Inspired by the Book of Proverbs and Psalms.

of the

Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs

April 30, May 1, 2, 1968

HOTEL ROANOKE

ROANOKE, VIRGINIA

MENU Pineapple - Grapefruit Juice Baked Chicken - giblet gravy Whipped Potatoes Buttered Mixed Vegetables Spiced Peaches Tossed Green Salad - Dressing Hot Rolls and Butter Pecan Pie. Coffee or Tea

of the

Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs

April 30, May 1, 2, 1968

HOTEL ROANOKE

ROANOKE, VIRGINIA

Art Chairman, Mrs. John Waidlick, W. C. of Lynchburg Artist Sketch, Mrs. Baxter Scales, W. C. of Lynchburg Assisting, Mrs. Charles Gibson Theme and Invocation, Mrs. William Gresham, W.C. of Lynchburg Paper, Caskie Paper Company, Lynchburg Decorations, Fort Hill, Suburban, Timbrook and Woman's Club of Lynchburg.

Program

of the

Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs

April 30, May 1, 2, 1968

HOTEL ROANOKE

ROANOKE, VIRGINIA

STATE OFFICERS

President	Mrs. E. Parker Brown
First Vice President	Mrs. Charles H. Peery, III
Second Vice President
Third Vice President	Mrs. James M. Minor, Jr.
Secretary	Mrs. W. A. Watson, III
Treasurer

PAST VIRGINIA FEDERATION PRESIDENTS

°Mrs. James R. Kyle, Lynchburg	1907-1909
^o Mrs. A. B. Carrington, Danville
^o Mrs. W. W. King, Staunton
^o Mrs. M. M. Caldwell, Roanoke
^o Miss Helen Norris Cummings, Alexandria	1912-1915
°Mrs. John L. Hagan, Danville	1917-1919
^o Mrs. Henry E. Parker, Newport News
^o Mrs. Henry Lockwood, Clarendon	1921-1923
^o Mrs. J. Allison Hodges, Richmond
°Mrs. Henry S. Eley, Suffolk
^o Mrs. W. F. Morehead, Salem	1926-1928
^o Mrs. Henry S. Eley, Suffolk
Mrs. J. L. Blair Buck, Richmond
^o Mrs. L. J. Giles, Clifton Forge	1932-1935
Mrs. Fred M. Alexander, Richmond	1935-1938
Miss V. Lucille Bland, West Point	1938-1941
Mrs. R. G. Boatwright, Coeburn	1941-1944
Mrs. O. F. Northington, Jr., Wheaton, Maryland
°Mrs. Claude E. Eley, Suffolk
Mrs. Roy E. Kyle, Bedford
Mrs. A. Paul Hartz, Waverly
Mrs. H. Stanley Bailey, Roanoke
Mrs. R. Richard Schweitzer, Norfolk
Mrs. William S. Murray, Hollins
Miss Anne Dobie Peebles, Carson
Mrs. J. York Welborn, Arlington
Mrs. Giles C. Engledove, Richmond
Mrs. Alvah E. Riggins, Tabb
MIN. Alvali E. Alggins, Tabb.	1964-1966

• Deceased.

I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with Liberty and Justice for all.

1

1

1

COLLECT FOR CLUBWOMEN

Keep us, Oh God, from pettiness; let us be large in thought, in word, in deed.

Let us be done with faultfinding, and leave off self-seeking.

May we put away all pretense and meet each other face to face — without self-pity and without prejudice.

May we never be hasty in judgment and always generous.

Let us take time for all things; make us to grow calm, serene, gentle.

Teach us to put into action our better impulses straightforward, and unafraid.

Grant that we may realize it is the little things that create differences, that in the big things of life we are at one.

And may we strive to touch and to know the great common human heart of us all, and Oh, Lord God, let us forget not to be kind.

-Mary Stewart

STANDING RULES

Admission to all sessions will be by badge only.

No Delegate shall represent more than one organization or be entitled to more than one vote.

No proxy shall be allowed.

When addressing the Chair, a delegate or a visitor shall first give her name and that of her club.

All motions must be written, signed and sent to the Recording Secretary immediately upon presentation.

All resolutions shall be referred to the Committee on Resolutions and may not be presented to the Convention or debated until reported to the assembly by the Committee on Resolutions.

Debate shall be limited to two minutes; time shall be extended only by unanimous vote of the House.

Members will not be allowed to enter the Convention Hall while a speaker is addressing the Convention or during the time a vote is being counted. Doors will be opened before and after each address and before and after debate.

An information desk is maintained for the convenience of the delegates and visitors and lost and found items will be handled there.

Sessions will begin promptly at the time announced.

Members are requested to be in the hall at the appointed hour and to remain through sessions.

Club presidents or delegates are asked to take home paintings, contest entries and other exhibits.

1	Mis. Mog Lee Nembership CONVENTION PROGRAM THEME: We Face the Future Presiding: Mrs. E. Parker Brown, President TUESDAY, APRIL 30, 1968 GENERAL SESSION — Exhibit Hall
	Weinkers Diso -
	CONVENTION PROGRAM
	THEME: We Face the Future Ohi ha
	Presiding: Mrs. E. Parker Brown, President Conagen -
	TUESDAY, APRIL 30, 1968
2:00 P.M.	100
	Call to Order InvocationMrs. James H. Helton, Blue Ridge Junior Director
	Pledge of Allegiance to the FlagMrs. G. V. Bradshaw, Jr., Junior Secretary-Treasurer
	WelcomeMrs. Roy L. Webber, Blue Ridge District President
	Greetings
	Credentials ReportMrs. Wallace Lancaster, Chmn, Credentials Committee
	Presentation of ProgramMrs. A. E. Roscoe, Convention Co-Chairman
	Presentation of Junior CommitteeMrs. A. B. MacMackin, Convention Co-Chairman
	Bules Governing Convention
OGINC	Reports of Officers:
SFWC and Outreed w ee district w out storder and to observant weet.	Treasurer and	Secretary
and it was a	Third Vice PresidentMrs. James M. Minor, Jr. Second Vice PresidentMrs. James B. Roberts
a Destri cent	First Vice PresidentMrs. Charles H. Peery, III
le forder u	PresidentMrs. E. Parker Brown
out hoervan	Federation Song
for our	Reports of District Presidents:
Week	Alice KyleMiss Anna Dickhoff
	Blue RidgeMrs. Roy L. Webber LeeMrs. G. H. Vogel
	NorthernMrs. John O. Gregory
	ShenandoahMrs. C. C. Tharp
	SouthsideMrs. E. Carl White, Jr.
	Southwestern
	TidewaterMrs. Otis B. Gregg
	Report of Budget and Finance CommitteeMrs. R. B. Wayland, Chmn Recess
4.20 DM	We Face the Future WITH OUR
4:50 F.M.	GENERAL FEDERATION FIRST LADY ELECT
	(Tea and Fashion Show Courtesy of Heironimus of Roanoke) —Shenandoah Room
7:00 P.M.	ALICE KYLE BANQUET — Ballroom Grace
	Introductions
	Special MusicMrs. Oleg H. Kor
	Tribute to Past Presidents
	We Face the Future THROUGH FEDERATION Mrs. Walter V. Magee, President Elect, General Federation of Women's Clubs
	Recess
9:30 P.M.	FINE ARTS FESTIVAL — Exhibit Hall
	Presiding: Mrs. C. H. Peery, III
	Mrs. Harry E. WelshFine Arts Chairman
	Mrs. Harry E. Weisn

Mrs. William A. TeelePoetry, Literature & Drama Chairman

Mrs. Daniel S. SpiersArtmobile Chairman

Same

10:30 P.M. DISTRICT GET-TOGETHERS

Callection - Rarfiffer nurseum in Wristy

WEDNESDAY, MAY 1, 1968

7:30 A.M	Junior Awards Breakfast — Ballroom
	Presiding: Mrs. James M. Minor, Jr., Junior Director
8:00 A.M.	. Idea Breakfast — Shenandoah Room
9:45-10:1	5 A.M. Assemble at Railway Station
10:30 A.M.	. Traveling Seminar — We Face the Future AS CONCERNED VIRGINIANS
11:30 A.M.	Welcome to Transportation Museum
	A Balanced Transportation System for a Growing Nation
	Mrs. Virginia Mae Brown, Vice Chairman
	Introduced by: Mrs. James F. Boone, Home Life Chairman Viewing of Museum before and after Buffet Luncheon
12:45-1:30	P.M. Return Trip (Please see note on page 9.)
2:15 P.M.	GENERAL SESSION — Exhibit Hall
	Call to Order
	Devotional
	Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag
	National Anthem Vice Chairman, Legislation & Citizenship
	Credentials ReportMrs. Wallace Lancaster, Chairman
	Presentation of Extension Certificates and Awards
	The Virginia Club Woman
	Warwick Safety AwardMiss Anne Dobie Peebles, Chairman Mrs. Wesley W. Cooper, Safety Chairman
	Mrs. James L. Raper, President,
	Revisions
	A START ADVANCEMENTS IN SCIENCE
	Dr. S. H. Levitt
	Legislative ResumeMrs. Harvey W. Carson, Jr., Chairman Recess
5:30 P.M.
	Junior Banquet — "The Old South" — Ballroom Presiding: Mrs. James M. Minor, Jr., Junior Director
6:30 P.M.	Friendship Buffet — Shenandoah Room
8:30 P.M.	EVENING SESSION - Exhibit H. H.
	Special Music
	Sommittee
	Juniorettes Report Mrs. James M. Minor, Jr. VFWC Junior Director
	Juniorettes Report
	Mr. Charles Towers, Vice President
	Introduced by: Mrs. J. Hodges Parker, Education Chairman
	Shell Education Awards

10:00 P.M.	Films: — Shenandoah Room "Linear Acceleration"Dr. S. H. Levitt
	"First Virginia Art Festival"
	THURSDAY, MAY 2, 1968
7:30-11:00) A.M. Voting — Cavalier-Pocahontas Rooms
8:00 A.M.	PRAYER BREAKFAST — Ballroom
	GraceMrs. John L. Lewis, III, Vice Chairman of Public Affairs
	MusicMrs. Michael J. Contessa, Vice Chairman of Conservation
	Bible Readings
	VFWC Past President Mrs. James M. Minor, Jr., VFWC Junior Director
	We Face the Future PRAYERFULLYMrs. Fred R. Pfisterer Introduced by: Mrs. Fred McCoy, Health Chairman
9:00 A.M.	JUNIOR BUSINESS SESSION — Shenandoah Room
10:30 A.M.	GENERAL SESSION — Exhibit Hall
	Call to Order
	CollectLed by: Mrs. Gilbert Stewart, Vice Chairman of Health Safety Pledge
	Reports:
	HistorianMrs. Kyle Booth
	Dorothea Buck FellowshipMrs. Nathan Lantor Mary Macon McGuire LoanMrs. Ernest L. Whitehouse
	Special Education ScholarshipsMrs. John D. Meade
	International AwardsMrs. William L. Schulthesis, Chmn, and Mrs. Robert N. Picardat, Vice Chmn, International Affairs
	Business
	ResolutionsMrs. Harvey W. Carson, Jr., Chairman
	We Face the Future REALISTICALLYMr. Willis M. Anderson, Virginia House of Delegates
	General Federation ResolutionsMrs. A. Paul Hartz, Chairman GFWC Resolutions Committee
	Recess
1:00 P.M.	EDUCATION LUNCHEON — Ballroom
	Grace
	MusicNorthern District Trio and Petersburg Choral Ensemble
	We Face the Future THROUGH EDUCATIONDr. Rosemary Sprague, Longwood College
	Introduced by: Mrs. H. Stanley Bailey, VFWC Past President
	Presentation of Special Citation
	Business
	Final Credentials ReportMrs. Wallace Lancaster, Chairman
	Recess

3:30 P.M. ORIENTATION FOR NEW CLUB AND DISTRICT OFFICERS

-Cavalier-Pocahontas Rooms

Presiding: Mrs. W. A. Watson, III, VFW Secretary

We	Face	the	Future	WITH	KNOWI	LEDGE .
----	------	-----	--------	------	-------	---------	--

Participating: Mrs. C. C. Tharp, Mrs. G. H. Vogel, Miss Anna Dickhoff, Mrs. Roswell Seagle, Mrs. John O. Gregory, Mrs. J. York Welborn, Mrs. William S. Murray

3:30 P.M. FLOWER ARRANGING DEMONSTRATION - Shenandoah Room Presiding: Mrs. Alvah E. Riggins, VFWC Past President

> We Face the Future WITH BEAUTY ... Mrs. Omar O. Utt, Past President, Virginia Federation of Garden Clubs

6:30 P.M. INSTALLATION BANQUET - Ballroom

GraceMrs. Norman L. Brown, Parliamentarian Presentation of Community Improvement Program Awards . . .

Mr. Clyde Ware, Sears Foundation

Introduced by: Mrs. Alexander Morgan, Public Affairs Chairman We Face the Future WITH A SONG IN OUR HEARTS

Miss Maria Dornya, Metropolitan Opera Company Accompanied by: Mrs. Velma Cash Hankla

Introduced by: Mrs. M. L. Spangler, Communications Chairman

Installation of Officers

Adjournment

Recessional

College 9:00 P.M. Reception - Shenandoah Roony

PRE-CONVENTION MEETINGS

Fall The	and the for the second
Sept tem PRE-CONVENTION MEETINGS
State Gower april MONDAY, APRIL 29, 1968
2:00 P.M.	Budget and Finance Committee MeetingPresident's Suite
3:00 P.M.	Executive Committee MeetingPresident's Suite
6:00 P.M.	Dinner honoring Junior Executive CommitteeCamp Easter Seal
6:30 P.M.	Dinner honoring Executive Committee
8:30 P.M.	Executive Committee MeetingPresident's Suite

TUESDAY, APRIL 30, 1968

8:00 A.M.	Breakfast honoring Junior Executive CommitteeJunior Director's Suite
8:00 A.M.	Breakfast honoring Executive Committee
9:30 A.M.	Executive Committee MeetingPresident's Suite
11:15 A.M.	Incoming District Presidents & Junior Directors MeetPresident's Suite
10.00 M

12:00 Noon Luncheon honoring Executive Committee

JUNIOR MEETINGS

WEDNESDAY, MAY 1, 1968

7:30 A.M.	JUNIOR BREAKFAST — Ballroom
	Presiding: Mrs. James M. Minor, Jr.
	THE UNITED NATIONS
	Presentation of Colors GraceMrs. E. H. Lester, Junior Director, Southwestern District
	WelcomeMrs. James H. Helton, Junior Director, Blue Ridge District
	Presentation of Program
	Introduction of Nations Mrs. G. V. Bradshaw, Jr., Junior Secretary-Treasurer Mrs. G. V. Bradshaw, Jr., Junior Felitor of "Club Woman"
	Mrs. William Conner, Julion Lawrence Tidewater District
	Mrs. J. T. Cutler, Junior Director, Natural Messatern District Mrs. E. H. Lester, Junior Director, Southwestern District
	Mrs. E. H. Lester, Junior Director, Southacted District Mrs. Fred Swearingen, Jr., Junior Director, Southside District
	Mrs. Robert Wetsel, Junior Director Northern District
	Mrs. Archie Boadwine, Junior Director, Lee District Mrs. Coleman D. Figg, Junior Director, Elee District
	Mrs. Coleman D. Figg, Junior Director, Blue Ridge District Mrs. James H. Helton, Junior Director, Blue Ridge District
	Mrs. James H. Helton, Junior Director, Male Raise District Mrs. Robert Colinger, Junior Director, Alice Kyle District
	Key Nations Mrs. Michael Contessa
	Education - Communications Mrs I M Hamil
	Fine Arts Mrs Kenneth W Lane
	CraftsMrs. Paul Loudy MusicMrs. Bennett Wilson
	Poetry, Literature, Drama Mrs B M Hylton
	Home Life Mrs. Bobert Picardat
	International AffairsMrs. William F. Powers LegislationMrs. J. L. Lewis, III
	Health Mrs Cene K Long
	Safety Mrs. Biobard Calvert
	Junior State ProjectMrs. Leon Cashwell Membership
	Special Citations, Care
	Credentials Report
	Recess
	"THE OLD SOUTH" - Ballroom
5:30 P.	M. JUNIOR BANQUET — "THE OLD SOUTH" — Ballroom
	Presiding: Mrs. Janes and Presiding:
	Processional
	Presentation of Colors
	Grace Greetings
	Greetings
	V.P.I. Glee Club
	Cho I Wilkins Chizonomp
	Corinne Murray Award
	Westhampton Award in Education
	Marjorie Branch Award Alexandria Award in International Affairs
	Care Awards
	Mrs. James H. Helton, Nominee for Junior Director
	Final Credentials Report
	Recess

THURSDAY, MAY 2, 1968

9:00 A.M.	JUNIOR BUSINESS SESSION — Shenandoah Room Presiding: Mrs. James M. Minor, Jr.
	Collect for Clubwomen
	Presentation of Junior State ProjectMrs. William Comer
	Presentation of Junior General Federation ProjectsMrs. G. V. Bradshaw
	Presentation of Operation Healthy Baby AwardsMrs. Gilbert Stewart Mrs. A. B. MacMackin Report of Junior Nominating Committee and Election of Junior Secretary-TreasurerMrs. W. L. Hopkins

20

CONVENTION ARRANGEMENTS

Co-Chairmen	Mrs. A. B. MacMackin
	Mrs. A. E. Roscoe
Junior Chairman of Arrangements	Mrs. Leslie Hamlett, Jr.
Junior Vice-Chairman of Arrangements
Senior Registration Chairman
Junior Registration Chairman
General Reservation Chairman	Mrs. J. T. Bagby
Junior Reservation Chairman	Mrs. S. R. Reas

20

APPRECIATION

To the entire Blue Ridge District for hostessing convention.

To Heironimus of Roanoke for the Fashion Show-Tea.

To Norfolk and Western Railroad for transportation and luncheon on the Traveling Seminar. Note: The Traveling Seminar grew out of a General Federation study program and is the first to be conducted by a Federation in the nation. We are grateful to the Norfolk and Western Railroad for agreeing to be our host, to the industries in the area that have cooperated in explaining Virginia's economic development, and to Virginia Polytechnic Institute for con-

20

VIRGINIA STATE FEDERATION SONG

Come from sea and plain and mountain, Kindred are we, Fair Virginia's loyal daughters, Blest may we be. Come with thoughts with love o'erflowing; Willing hands and spirits flowing; And with joy that passes knowing Each friend to see.

Shine our spirit of devotion, In this world of need. Hand in hand a band of women, Onward we lead. Formed are we a federation, For the home and state and nation; Mother heart for all creation, True in word and deed.

CALL FOR THE SIXTY-FIRST

Annual Convention

VIRGINIA FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS

APRIL 30, MAY 1, 2, 1968 Hotel Roanoke • Roanoke, Virginia

THEME

We Face The Future

The Annual Convention of the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs will be held at Hotel Roanoke, Roanoke, Virginia, April thirtieth, May first and second, nineteen hundred and sixty-eight.

Presidents of the clubs are requested to read the Call to the members and to elect delegates, according to the Bylaws of the Federation, Article X, Section 3 (a), "An individual club with a membership of one hundred or less shall be entitled to representation by its president or her appointee and one delegate or her alternate." The correct number of credential cards to which your club is entitled are enclosed.

Advance registration may be made by mail on forms accompanying this Call. Registration may be made at Hotel Roanoke to the sessions. Credential cards must be signed by the club president and secretary.

The registration fee is $4.00 for a delegate, regardless of the length of time she is in attendance. Registration fee for visitors is $4.00 for the entire convention or $2.00 for a single day. Article X, Section 3 (d), Bylaws states: "Any member of any club belonging to the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs, may be present at conventions and may take part in the discussions upon all measures brought forward but shall neither introduce motions nor vote."

Club presidents please bring this Call with you so that you may follow the resolutions and revisions as they are presented on the floor.

ADMISSION TO ALL SESSIONS WILL BE BY BADGE ONLY

PRE-CONVENTION MEETINGS

MONDAY, APRIL 29, 1968

2:00 P.M.	Budget and Finance Committee MeetingPresident's Suite
3:00 P.M.	Executive Committee MeetingPresident's Suite
6:00 P.M.	Junior Executive Committee DinnerCamp Easter Seal
6:30 P.M.	Dinner for Executive Committee
8:30 P.M.	Executive Committee Meeting

TUESDAY, APRIL 30, 1968

- 8:00 A.M. Junior Executive Committee BreakfastJunior Director's Sr
- 8:00 A.M. Breakfast for Executive Committee
- 12:00 Noon Luncheon for Executive Committee
- Luncheon for Executive Committee

Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs

BOARD OF DIRECTORS LONGWOOD COLLEGE — FARMVILLE, VIRGINIA September 5-6, 1968

20

THEME: "I will lift up" Psalm 121

2:00 P.M. THURSDAY - Jarman Hall

Presiding: Mrs. CHARLES H. PEERY, III, President

Call to Order
Collect
Collect
Amior Somotomy Trogoninon
WelcomeMrs. Charles W. Scott President, Alice Kyle District Mrs. W. A. Wetsen, H. B. Charles S. Scott
Credentials Report Mrs. W. A. Watson, III, Board Chairman
Credentials Report
Mrs. E. Carl White, Jr., Treasurer
Mrs. Roy L. Webber, Secretary
Mrs James C. Holton, This Life Days in the
Mrs. James C. Helton, Third Vice President and Director of Juniors
Mrs. Norman L. Brown, Second Vice President
Mrs. James B. Roberts, First Vice President
Mrs. Charles H. Peery, III, President Recognition of District Presidents and Junior Directors
Presented by Mrs. James C. Halton
Mis. R. Frank Cassell, President, Ashland Junior Women's Chil, A. 11, 1
Mis. R. L. Williams, President, Ginter Park Junior Women's Old Drift
Mis. D. H. Granam, Fresident, Franklin Park Women's Club Mat
'Planning for Progress' — Presenting Department and Division ChairmenMrs. James B. Roberts
DevotionalMiss Anna Dickhoff
Recess
(.30 Junior Business Cont

1.00	Junor	Dusiness Session	Auditorium I	TT 11
4:30	Intern	ational Tour Preview	Auditorium, Jarm	an Hall
6:00	- 7:30	Buffet Dinner — Rot	tunda	er H II

8:30 - Jarman Hall - heet State Poular mus. Ray D. Whey

CALL FOR THE SIXTY-FIRST

Annual Conbention Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs

APRIL 30, MAY 1, 2, 1968

HOTEL ROANOKE • ROANOKE, VIRGINIA

THEME

We Face The Future

The Annual Convention of the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs will be held at Hotel Roanoke, Roanoke, Virginia, April thirtieth, May first and second, nineteen hundred and sixty-eight.

Presidents of the clubs are requested to read the Call to the members and to elect delegates, according to the Bylaws of the Federation, Article X, Section 3 (a), "An individual club with a membership of one hundred or less shall be entitled to representation by its president or her appointee and one delegate or her alternate." The correct number of credential cards to which your club is entitled are enclosed.

Advance registration may be made by mail on forms accompanying this Call. Registration may be made at Hotel Roanoke to the sessions. Credential cards must be signed by the club president and secretary.

The registration fee is $4.00 for a delegate, regardless of the length of time she is in attendance. Registration fee for visitors is $4.00 for the entire convention or $2.00 for a single day. Article X, Section 3 (d), Bylaws states: "Any member of any club belonging to the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs, may be present at conventions and may take part in the discussions upon all measures brought forward but shall neither introduce motions nor vote."

Club presidents please bring this Call with you so that you may follow the resolutions and revisions as they are presented on the floor.

ADMISSION TO ALL SESSIONS WILL BE BY BADGE ONLY

PRE-CONVENTION MEETINGS

MONDAY, APRIL 29, 1968

TUESDAY, APRIL 30, 1968
8:30 P.M.	Executive Committee Meeting	President's Suite
6:30 P.M.	Dinner for Executive Committee
6:00 P.M.	Junior Executive Committee Dinner	Camp Easter Seal
3:00 P.M.	Executive Committee Meeting	President's Suite
2:00 P.M.	Budget and Finance Committee Meeting .	President's Suite

8:00 A.M.	Junior Executive Committee BreaktastJunior Director'	s Suite
8:00 A.M.	Breakfast for Executive Committee
	Executive Committee MeetingPresident's
11:15 A.M.	Incoming District Presidents and Junior Directors MeetPresident'	s Suite
12:00 Noon	Luncheon for Executive Committee

THE CONVENTION

TUESDAY, APRIL 30, 1968

2:00 P.M.	General Session	1
	Reports of State Officers
	Reports of District Presidents
	Report of Budget and Finance Chairman
4:30 P.M.	Reception Honoring GFWC President Elect
7:00 P.M.	Alice Kyle Banquet
	The Aits restival	,
10:30 P.M.	District Get-togethers

WEDNESDAY, MAY 1, 1968

7:30 A.M.	Junior Awards Breakfast
	Priorial Dicaklast
	Associable at Railway Chail
10:30 - 1:3	0 P.M. Traveling Seminar (Lunchers of T
2:15 P.M.	0 P.M. Traveling Seminar (Luncheon at Transportation Museum)
	General Session
	Extension Awards
	Report of Editor of THE VIRGINIA CLUB WOMAN Report of Nominating Computer
	Report of Nominating Committee
	Safety Awards
	Revisions
	Resolutions
5:30 P.M.	Junior Banquet
6:30 P.M.	Junior Banquet
8:30 P.M.
10:00 P.M.	Evening Program and Shell Education Awards

THURSDAY, MAY 2, 1968

7:30	- 11:00	A.M. Voting
8:00	A.M.	Prayer BreakfastCavalier-Pocahontas Rooms
9:00
10:30
		Committee Reports Exhibit Hall
		Resolutions
		Business
1:00	PM	International Awards
3:30	-	Education Luncheon
	A . 1VI .	Orientation for New Club and District Officers
6:30	P.M.	Flower Arranging Workshop
		Installation Banquet
		Program
		Installation Reception

POST CONVENTION MEETING

FRIDAY, MAY 3, 1968

8:30 A.M. 1968-70 Executive Committee Breakfast and Meeting

VFWC NOMINEES FOR OFFICE

President	Mrs. C. H. Peery, III
First Vice-President	Mrs. James B. Roberts
Second Vice-President	Mrs. Norman L. Brown
Third Vice-President	Mrs. James H. Helton
Secretary	Mrs. Roy L. Webber
Treasurer	E. Carl White, Jr.

PROPOSED REVISIONS TO BYLAWS

The Revisions Committee proposes the following changes in the Bylaws of the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs:

ARTICLE VI - DEPARTMENTS, DIVISIONS AND STANDING COMMITTEES

- SECTION 2 (page 59 Yearbook): Amend by adding the word "Scholarship," after the word "Credentials.".
- SECTION 10 (page 60 Yearbook): Amend by adding the following as Section 10: 'The Scholarship Committee shall be composed of three members, the chairman and one other person appointed by the President, and the third member shall be the retiring chairman of the committee for the previous administration. This committee shall be responsible for administering the funds of all scholarships awarded according to the policy of the current administration. It shall be responsible for keeping the president and treasurer advised of all scholarships awarded.
- SECTION 11 (page 60 Yearkbook): Other sections to be renumbered. Section 10 becomes 11. etc.

ARTCLE XII – DISTRICTS

SECTION 4 — (a)—(First line on page 64 Yearbook): Amend by inserting the words "and alternate" after "district's member".

> (Line six, page 64 Yearbook): Amend by inserting the words "and alternate" after "district member".

PROPOSED REVISIONS TO POLICIES GOVERNING AWARDS

(Page 66 Yearbook)

- 1. Amend by adding the following words "and shall be reviewed at the beginning of each administration.
- 5. Delete the entire section.

Amend the complete section title, "POLICIES GOVERNING AWARDS", by substi-tuting the words "STANDING RULES" for the word "POLICIES".

PROPOSED RESOLUTIONS TO BE PRESENTED TO THE CONVENTION

COMMISSION FOR GERIATRIC PATIENTS STUDY

WHEREAS, a majority of the geriatric patients in Virginia's state mental hospitals need only custodial nursing care and not psychiatric hospitalization; and

WHEREAS, it appears that there are insufficient nursing facilities in Virginia to provide care for these and other geriatric patients outside the state mental hospitals; and

WHEREAS, there appears to be need for development of other types of services, as well as nursing services, for the geriatric patient in Virginia;

RESOLVED, that the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs support the establishment by the Governor of a Special Commission for Geriatric Patients to study the problem of nonpsychiatric geriatric patients in state mental hospitals; and

RESOLVED, that the study include all phases of inpatient and outpatient services, boarding homes, nursing homes, day-care facilities and any other type of facility suitable for service for the older residents of Virginia; and

FURTHER RESOLVED, that this Special Commission for Geriatric Patients report and make recommendations to the Governor and the Virginia General Assembly.

Submitted by: VFWC RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE

VALC STUDY ON SERVICES FOR EMOTIONALLY DISTURBED CHILDREN

WHEREAS, services for emotionally disturbed children are diverse and complex and may be provided by a variety of public and private programs; and

WHEREAS, services for emotionally disturbed children in Virginia are in inadequate supply in view of the number of children needing such services;

RESOLVED, that the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs support a Virginia Advisory Legislative Council study on all aspects of the provision of services for emotionally disturbed children, reporting and making recommendations to the Governor and the Virginia General

Submitted by: VFWC RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE

EDUCATION

WHEREAS, the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs is very concerned about the overcrowded conditions in many of our public schools, and

WHEREAS, teachers cannot adequately instruct or give necessary attention to children where the pupil-teacher ratio is excessive,

RESOLVED, that the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs urges appropriations necessary to provide classrooms at the rate of no more than 24 pupils per teacher.

Submitted by: BLACKSBURG JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB as Revised by: VFWC Resolutions Committee

WHEREAS, one of the most important functions of government is to protect the inalienable right of the citizen to be secure in person and property within his home and in his movement through streets, parks, and countryside; and

WHEREAS, crime is on the increase and rampant to the extent that a man, woman, or child is not safe at home or away either by night or day; and

WHEREAS, there has been a tendency to champion the rights of criminals instead of placing emphasis upon the suffering and injustice inflicted upon the victims of crime;

RESOLVED, that the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs encourages parents, schools, and churches to instill values in children that will develop upright, wholesome, law-abiding, and law-respecting citizens and that this emphasis on citizenship start early in the school training continuing throughout the course of study, which course should include a study of ethics and citizenship; and further

RESOLVED, that the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs support the study and report made recently by the Virginia State Crime Commission; and further

RESOLVED, that the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs urges the General Assembly of Virginia to pass legislation and to appropriate necessary funds to establish a Central Crime Laboratory in Virginia, and to provide funds for other services to law enforcement officials to enable them to preserve law and order.

> Submitted by: MRS. G. KENNETH MILLER Chairman, VFWC Citizenship and Legislation Division

RESOLUTION FOR REAFFIRMATION AS AMENDED

Submitted by VFWC RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE

EDUCATION

Special Education in Virginia

WHEREAS, the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs supports the development of adequate educational facilities for the handicapped, and

WHEREAS, this will mean an even greater need for qualified teachers and supervisory personnel:

RESOLVED, that the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs continue its support of scholarships (add:) and in-service training for those interested in furthering their career in special education in Virginia; and (Delete:)

RESOLVED, further it supports continuing development of a training center for Special Education in a qualified Institution of Higher Learning in the State of Virginia. (Add:)

RESOLVED, further that it support the expansion of special education services to handicapped children of all areas of the state through the combined efforts of school divisions and/or through development of regional programs of special education.

RESOLUTIONS FOR REAFFIRMATION

Submitted by VFWC RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE

HEALTH

Control of Harmful Effects of Radiation

WHEREAS, radiation has become instrumental in the improvement of health, welfare and productivity of the public when properly utilized, and

WHEREAS, it may impair the health of the people and the industrial and agricultural potentials of the state if improperly utilized; and

WHEREAS, medical authorities have pointed out the need for regulation and safeguarding of radiation hazards;

RESOLVED, that the State of Virginia be urged to encourage the constructive uses of radiation and to control any potentially harmful associated effects.

POPULATION CONTROL

WHEREAS, the current world population explosion is a grave concern to the leaders and the peoples of the world; and

WHEREAS, the unprecedented increase in population in our nation is making more acute the problem of furnishing necessary health, education, and welfare services; and

WHEREAS, family planning is recognized as an integral part of the public health and has been approved by a majority of the religious groups of the world;

RESOLVED, that the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs recognizes the need for family planning and lends its support to the establishment of maternal and child health clinics where necessary information is available through Health Departments and other established agencies.

WELFARE

Juvenile Courts - Detention, Probation and Parole Services

WHEREAS, adequate detention, probation, psychiatric, psychological and parole services are necessary for the successful functioning of the Juvenile Court System; and

WHEREAS, in Virginia such services are not always provided in a measure commensurate with the need; and

WHEREAS, children are being committed to jail because of insufficient detention services and inadequate supporting services in contravention of the law and to the physical, mental, and moral detriment of such children; and

WHEREAS, children paroled from State custody are not receiving necessary supervision and assistance by either juvenile courts or welfare departments;

RESOLVED, that the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs urges its member clubs to examine the conditions which prevail in their communities in regard to the treatment of children before the court; that they lend their support and influence to he improvement of services to children locally and on the State level; and that they encourage the development of regional detention facilities.

adde

Mrs. E. Parker Brown President

Virginia Jederation of Women's Clubs

BOARD OF DIRECTORS LONGWOOD COLLEGE — FARMVILLE, VIRGINIA September 5-6, 1968

20

THEME: "I will lift up . . . " Psalm 121

10.0

2:00 P.M. THURSDAY — Jarman Hall

Presiding: MRS. CHARLES H. PEERY, III, President

Call to Order CollectMrs. Harold Pearson Junior Director, Alice Kyle District Junior Secretary-Treasurer WelcomeMrs. Charles W. Scott President, Alice Kyle District Mrs. W. A. Watson, III, Board Chairman Credentials ReportMrs. Paul S. Devine, Chairman Presentation of Officers: Mrs. E. Carl White, Jr., Treasurer Mrs. Rov L. Webber, Secretary Mrs. James C. Helton, Third Vice President and Director of Juniors Mrs. Norman L. Brown, Second Vice President Mrs. James B. Roberts, First Vice President Mrs. Charles H. Peery, III, President Recognition of District Presidents and Junior DirectorsMrs. Norman L. Brown "Profiting from the Past"Presented by Mrs. James C. Helton Mrs. R. Frank Cassell, President, Ashland Junior Woman's Club, Ashland Mrs. R. L. Williams, President, Ginter Park Junior Woman's Club, Richmond Mrs. D. H. Graham, President, Franklin Park Woman's Club, McLean Mrs. R. M. McCall, President, Cavalier Junior Woman's Club, Virginia Beach "Planning for Progress" - Presenting Department and Division ChairmenMrs. James B. Roberts Recess 4:30International Tour PreviewLounge, Wheeler Hall 4:30

6:00 - 7:30 Buffet Dinner - Rotunda

8:30 - James Hall - hear State Parliamentarian

8:15 P.M. THURSDAY EVENING - Jarman Hall

Presiding: MRS. CHARLES H. PEERY, III, President

Music — "Through Music, We Lift Up"Mrs. Hunter R. Watson, Soloist Mrs. Sally C. Watkins, Accompanist

Presented by Mrs. M. L. Spangler, Chairman, Music Division

"Can We Afford To Let George Do It?"Dr. H. I. Willett, Jr. President, Longwood College

Introduced by: Mrs. Roy D. Whitlock

Recess

9:30	Reception		Lankford	Parlor
10:00	Exhibits and CLINAC promotion	Council	Room, La	ankford
10:00	"First Virginia Fine Arts Festival" - Film	ABC	Room, La	ankford
10:30	Open House for Juniors		Cox	Lounge
11 00				0

11:00 Second Showing of Fine Arts Film (If sufficient interest)

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 6

7:30-8:30	Buffet	Breakfast	L			Rotund	12
0 00 0 00	T 1.				4 7		T	**

- 8:30-9:00 Parliamentary BriefingAuditorium, Jarman Hall
- 8:30 Revision Committee Meeting
- 8:30 Resolution Committee Meeting

Call to Order

Budget and Finance CommitteeMrs. E. Parker Brown, Chairman Dorothea Buck Latin American

Business

"New Approaches"

- Mr. James C. Hunter, Assistant Manager, Public Relations, Cities Service Oil Co., presented by Mrs. George H. Vogel, Conservation Chairman
- Miss Betty Martin, Director of Women's Division, Institute of Life Insurance, presented by Mrs. R. B. Wayland, Home Life Chairman
- The Honorable Leonard Muse, State Chairman, Virginians FOR the Bond Issue, presented by Mrs. John O. Gregory, Education Chairman

rianning for Hogess Through "Community Involvement"Auditorium, Jarman Hall Presiding: Mrs. James B. Roberts Consultants: Mr. Leonard G. Muse and Mr. Richard H. C. Taylor
"Education and Service"ABC Room, Lankford Hall Presiding: Mrs. Norman L. Brown Consultant: Miss Betty Martin
"Cultural Pursuits"Lower Dining Room, Rotunda Presiding: Mrs. James C. Helton Consultant: Mr. James C. Hunter
12:00 General SessionAuditorium, Jarman Hall
Final Credentials ReportMrs. Paul S. Devine
Federation SongLed by Mrs. W. R. DeJarnette
"Hopeful Aspects of Cancer"Dr. Thomas J. Hartford
Vice President, Area Medical Affairs American Cancer Society
Introduced by Mrs. E. G. Middlton, Jr., Health Chairman
GraceMrs. Roy L. Webber
Adjournment
1:00-2:30 LuncheonRotunda
JUNIOR PROGRAM

10:45-11:45 Workshops - "Planning for Progress Through

Thursday, September 5: 12:00 Noon Junior Luncheon 4:30 P.M. Junior Business Session Jarman Hall 10:30 P.M. Open House for Juniors Cox Lounge

(Distribution of materials)

OTHER MEETINGS

Wednesday, September 4:

2:00 P.M.	Budget and Finance Committee MeetingWheeler	Lounge
3:00 P.M.	Executive Committee Meeting	Lounge
	Executive Committee Dinner	U
8:30 P.M.	Executive Committee MeetingWheeler
	Junior Executive Committee MeetingCox	Lounge
Thursday, Se	eptember 5:	U
8:00 A.M. 8:30 A.M.	Junior Executive Committee BreakfastCox Executive Committee BreakfastWheeler	Lounge

9:30 A.M. Executive Committee MeetingWheeler Lounge

11:45 A.M. Executive Committee Luncheon

HOSTESS DISTRICT: Alice Kyle

Mrs. W. A. Watson, III Chairman of Arrangements Miss Anna Dickhoff, Vice Chairman Mrs. C. H. Dowdy, Reservation Chairman Mrs. Ralph Hines, Junior Chairman Mrs. Edmund Newman, Junior Vice Chairman Mrs. William E. Duncan, Junior Reservation, Chairman

Recess

BLUE RIDGE DISTRICT

VIRGINIA

FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS

HUNTINGTON COURT UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

ROANOKE, VIRGINIA

October 2, 1968

V. F. W. C. OFFICERS

Mrs. C. H. Perry, III, President	Tazewell
Mrs. James B. Roberts, First Vice-President	. Fairfax
Mrs. Norman L. Brown, Second Vice-President	Hampton
Mrs. James C. Helton, Third Vice-President	lacksburg
Mrs. Roy L. Webber, Secretary	Roanoke
E. Carl White, Jr., Treasurer Colonia	l Heights

BLUE RIDGE DISTRICT OFFICERS

Mrs.	Charles T. Southern, Jr., President
Mrs.	Roger L. Smith, First Vice-President
Mrs.	J. F. Redman, Second Vice-President Martinsville
Mrs.	Leslie W. Hamlett, Jr., Third Vice-President Roanoke
Mrs.	Warren Lineberry, Secretary
	H. A. Bruce, Treasurer
Mrs.	Roy L. Webber, Parliamentarian

JUNIOR OFFICERS

Mrs. Leslie W. Hamlett, Jr., Junior Director Roanoke Mrs. L. Clayton Caldwell, Jr., Secretary-Treasurer. New Castle

HOSTESS CLUB PRESIDENTS

Mrs. R. W. Boyd Williamson Road Woman's Club Mrs. John J. Kealey, Jr. Valley Junior Woman's Club

The Blue Ridge District of the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs (VFWC) will hold its annual summer work-shop on Saturday in New Castle. The New Castle Wo-man's Club and the Junior Woman's Club will co-host the event beginning with an inevent beginning with an in-formal coffee before the morning session.

ing session. The junior business meeting will be conducted by Mrs. Leslie W. Hamlett, Jr. of Roanoke, third vice-president of the Blue Ridge District and district junior director. The senior business meeting will be conducted by Mrs. Charles T. Southern Jr. of Salem, presi-dent of the Blue Ridge Dis-trict. After the business sessions,

After the business sessions, the groups will hear a wel-come from Harry Bowman, mayor of New Castle. Mrs. James Helton of Blacksburg, VFWC third vice-president, is expected to give reports from the national con-vention just concluded in Boston. Lunch will follow the joint Lunch will follow the joint session. Final reports will be given after the luncheon and Mrs. W. R. Boyd, president of the Williamsor. R o a d Woman's Club, will announce the ar-rangements for the fall dis-trict meeting.

Mirs. Robert, W. Boyla, 3728 Sumise Ave., My, min

Book Review Given

William Styron's "Con-fessions of Nat Turner" was reviewed by Mrs. William Marmion for the home life department of the Williamson Road Woman's Club. The group met this week with Mrs. F. J. Bernard

The Juniors of the Blue Ridge District request the pleasure of your company at a tea honouring Mrs. James C. Helton Third Vice-President and Director of Juniors Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs Sunday, the twelfth of January two to four o'clock in the afternoon Mountain View 714 Thirteenth Street, Southwest Roanoke, Virginia

PROGRAM - 10:30 A.M.

Mrs. Charles T. Southern, Jr., Presiding

Call to Order

Devotions
Pledge of Allegiance Mrs. W. S. Murray
Federation Song Mr. Ralph Mills, Accompanist
Collect Mrs. H. Stanley Bailey
Welcome Mr. Roy L. Webber Mayor of Roanoke
President Williamson Road Woman's Club
Special Music
Credential Report Mrs. Cleveland Bowser, III Credentials Chairman
Minutes Mrs. Warren Lineberry Secretary
Report of Treasurer Mrs. H. A. Bruce
Time and Place
Third Vice President Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs Mrs. James C. Helton Subject: "The Upward Reach"
Second Vice President Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs Mrs. Norman L. Brown Subject: "First the Diagnosis, Next a Prescription and Then Comes the Cure"
President Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs
Announcements Mrs. J. Clay Hurd, General Chairman
RECESS FOR LUNCH
LUNCHEON 12:30 P.M.
Invocation Mrs. Roger L. Smith First Vice President, Blue Ridge District
Presentation of Guests, Officers and District Chairmen

ARRANGEMENTS COMMITTEE

Mrs. J. Clay Hurd General Chairman
Mrs. Julian W. Venable
Mrs. R. W. Boyd President Williamson Road Woman's Club
Mrs. J. J. Kealey President Valley Junior Woman's Club
Mrs. Samuel Jarrett
Mrs. D. L. Buckingham Senior Luncheon Reservations
Mrs. Cleve Bowser, III Junior Registration Chairman
Mrs. George Rainer Posters, Name Tags
Mrs. George DeMott Luncheon Chairman
Mrs. Charles T. Sigmon Decorations
Pages:
Mrs. Judson Durham Williamson Road Woman's Club
Mrs. Charles Poff Valley Junior Woman's Club
Mrs. Duward Starkey Valley Junior Woman's Club
Coffee – Courtesy Valley Junior Woman's Club

BLUE RIDGE DISTRICT CHAIRMEN

COMMITTEES

Budget and Finance	Mrs. Henry Wood
Community Improvement	Mrs. R. H. Tickle, Jr.
Breeze Editor	Irs. A. B. McMakin
Club Institute
Historian and Pressbook Mrs	. I. Boyd Overstreet
VFWC Headquarters Building Fund
Credentials Mrs. Cl	eveland Bowser, III

JUNIOR COMMITTEE CHAIRMEN

Commuications	Mrs. William H. Farthing
Courtesy	Mrs. Charles M. Poff
GFWC Projects	Mrs. Robert H. Pusey
Newsletter Éditor	Mrs. Joseph V. Judy

Hands Across The Sea To Wonju Por 1-30-69

Editoral It is not often that the citizens of a small city can play an active role on the vast stage of international relations.

Such a rare opportunity will come to Roanoke tomorrow with the third observance of Wonju Day in honor of our sister city in faraway Korea.

And within just a few hours the people of Wonju-a city of comparable size to Roanoke and an important rail center surrounded by mountains - will begin their recognition of Roanoke Day.

Roanokers should be proud that this city in distant Asia has seen fit to hold this celebration and that William J. Porter, has agreed to be the main speaker for the day.

Roanoke, when its turn comes tomorrow, will be playing host to a long list of distinguished visitors. The main speaker will be James F. Leonard, country director for Korea with the U.S. State Department. The Korean government will be represented by Sook Han, cultural and information attache at the embassy in Washington, and by Taik Sup Auh, assistant public information attache.

*

The Korean Embassy is also sending us two sisters, the Misses Mikye and Miyoung Chang, who are music students in this country, to present a program of traditional folk songs from their nation. They will perform at two high school assemblies and at tomorrow night's banquet at the Patrick Henry Hotel

The idea of the sister city affiliation between Roanoke and Wonju was born in 1964 in the mind of a Korean doctor who had once studied in this city. Roanoke City Council approved the relationship by official resolution and asked the Jaycees to assume the program.

When the scope of the program outgrew the efforts of a single organization within a year, the International Municipal Cooperation Committee of Roanoke, Virginia, Inc., was formed. This non-profit citizen corporation is more familiarly known as the Sister City Committee.

During the nearly five years the international tie between the two cities has thrived, Roanoke and Wonju have welcomed each other's citizens, exchanged gifts and exhibits, promoted correspondence between individuals and clubs, and generally carried out the plan for equal partnership. Some of the beautiful handcrafted art work sent. from Wonju in the last few years is now on display in the lobby of the First National Exchange Bank.

*

Many persons ask what they, as individuals, can do to help promote goodwill for the United States.

*

The answer is that they can at least help in one part of the world; for Roanokers that part of the world is the City of Wonju, Korea, which does us such an honor tomorrow. Roanoke citizens can and should take an active part in the sister city program to bring understanding between the individuals living in a least two cities of the world.

They will have the reward of gaining insight into a city and nation which are the inheritors of thousands of years of a different culture and civilization.

Ribbons Go For Crafts At Meeting

Six members of the Williamson Road Woman's Club won blue ribbons in a recent craft exhibit.

Entries were judged by Mrs. Carol Jo Nichols, art teacher at Andrew Lewis High

Winners were Mrs. Samuel Winners were Mrs. Samuel Jarrett, naturescope; Mrs. Carol Vincent, original design, creative stitchery and decorated box; Mrs. Judson Durham, table decoration; Mrs. J. Clay Hurd, fantasy flowers; Mrs. J. H. Pearman, sewing for children; Mrs. Howard Bourne, ceramics.

Mrs. Nichols was guest speaker at the meeting and in-troduced David Petersen, an Andrew Lewis senior whose painting, "Alpine Repose," has been selected for com-petition in the 1969 Hallmark art contest sponsored by the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

Roanoke World-News, Tuesday, Jan. 28, 1969

eception On Wonju Day Program

An exhibit of Korean art and has recorded some American terview Kyeu Hoon Park, a chang, a soprano studying at he propular Korean music will be pronounces phonetically but that she teacher from Wonju who is Peabody Music Conservatory in Bailimore, and Miss Miyong Chang, a pinaits studying at the studying in Roanoke. Park owns there entertainers also present does not speak herself. She and there entertainers also present to doay's most popular ballads the sister city program of the attraction of the sister city program of the entertainers also present to doay's most popular ballads the sister city program of the entertainers also present to doay's most popular ballads the sister city program of the sister city in Korea, many of them about the will be presented at 1 p.m. Fritter the people to people provide show a strong Western influence with particular overtones of the sister city in Korea with particular overtones of the sister city in Korea with particular overtones of the sister city in Korea with a banguet at 7. The art exhibit will be of display through Friday in the the maniste. The song solve the people to people provide at the people of Ruanoke as gifts during the provide the specific to the specific the specific to the specific the people of Ruanoke as gifts during the people of Ruanoke as gif as a traditional Korean dancer, jewelry, wood and lacquer work, textiles and paintings, a 11 crafted by hand. The items have been sent from Wonju to the people of Roanoke as gifts dur-ing the five years the cities have been affiliated. The songs by the top singers in Korea will be played during a special program at 1:35 p.m. Friday on WDBJ Radio. Selec-tions will also be played on a spot basis on the station during that morning.

hat morning. One of the singers, Patti Kim,

Woman Is Part-Time Caterer

By GARNETTE HELVEY

Times Women's Writer Most working women think of 5 o'clock as time to shut out all thoughts of the office, go home, put their feet up and read the evening newspaper.

Other people may think this way, but Mrs. Charles I. Sigmon doesn't. She looks forward to moonlighting.

When she leaves her job at the Veterans Administration office, she begins to think about weddings and receptions.

What began as a hobby 10 years ago has blossomed into a lucrative second job. In connection with garden club work, Mrs. Sigmon occasionally helped members of her church. plan the flower arrangements and bouquets for their weddings.

"The couples seemed so pleased with the results that I was encouraged to branch out and do receptions, too," she says.

An branch out she did.

She added punch bowls, candelabra and serving pieces to her silver collection and began planning and catering receptions.

She made satin, pleated table skirts in a rainbow of pastel colors to have ready when a bride gave her a special color scheme for the reception. Frequently she visits the department stores to see the bridesmaids' dresses just so she can match them with the meeting decade with the reception decor.

The brides tell Mrs. Sigmon what they have in mind for church and reception decorations, and she sees they get it She also advises brides as to the quantities of mints, punch and cake they will need, makes sure they are delivered, and stays until after the wedding to show those serving how to cut the cake and pour the punch.

The night before the ceremony, she designs the bouquets and adds the finishing touches to the flower arrangements for the church and for the reception. Mrs. Sigmon usually averages one or two weddings per week . . . especially in June. June.

The job is as much a hobby with her husband as it is with Mrs. Sigmon. He often helps her in setting up the decora-tions the day of the ceremony. But, when it's time to in-struct the punch pourers and the cake cutters, he steps out of the picture and leaves it to her. her.

Mrs. Sigmon Fixes Flower Arrangement for Wedding Reception

Col. Norman Holland, Miss Mi Young Chang, Miss Mi Hyu Chang and Capt. Chi Luck Kim at Patrick Henry High School for program

WONJU DAY

ROANOKE, VIRGINIA

WONJU, KOREA

Sponsored by the Sister City Committee of Roanoke

BANQUET PROGRAM

7 p.m. FRIDAY, JANUARY 31, 1969 PATRICK HENRY HOTEL Roanoke, Virginia

A Piano - 18 yrs - 24 yrs. Staff PhotoSarry. Mi Young Chang and sister Mi Hye Chang

More than a half-day ago — for that is the measure of the time it takes for each of our lands to face the sun — Wonju honored us by observina Roanoke Day.

Now, as they take their turn at night, we have been recognizing

Wonju Day for the third time in this city. It was nearly five years ago that Roanoke City Council made official the establishment of a people-to-people tie between Roanoke and Wonju, Korea. The succeeding years have brought exciting exchanges of gifts, art, books, letters and residents which have given the people of both cities a greater insight into the daily lives of one

This last year, in particular, we have shared the pride of Wonju residents in the victory of Mr. Chi Yong-Choo in the Olympic boxing ring. We have also shared the feeling of apprehension as 65 Communist guerilla invaders were rounded up within miles of our sister city. We have had the joy of welcoming Mr. Kyeu Hoon Park as a temporary resident and the Rev. Won Yong Na as a Christmas-time visitor. Also recalled are visits over many years from Dr. Kim Young U, Miss Kim Dae Hoon and Dr. and Mrs. Robert F. Roth. Wonju last year accorded Chaplain Richard M. Hedrick the same warm hospitality

An exhibit of arts and crafts from Wonju, all gifts from our sister shown other Roanoke servicemen in the past. city in past years, is on display in the lobby of the First National Exchange Bank downtown. Everyone should see it for a hint of the great Another example of that talent is unveiled here tonight in the scenes artistic skill of the Korean people. of Wonju as painted by its young people and sent as a gift to the students in Roanoke. Their version of daily life in Korea, from the winding lanes between walled gardens to the women washing in the brook by the tracks, speak to us across the barriers of language. These and other paintings will shortly be on view on the first floor of the Municipal Building and an exhibit of Roanoke student art will be

The Sister City Committee (officially the International Municipal sent to Wonju — a second exchange. Cooperation Committee of Roanoke, Virginia, Inc.) is chartered as a non-stock, non-profit corporation by the state. It is composed of a non-stock, non-protector corporation by the state. It is composed of interested individuals who contribute $1 and businesses and clubs At the annual meeting in March these members elect the board At the annual meeting in March mese members elect the board was which conducts the daily business of the organization. The board was

Any guest tonight who wishes to take part in this challenging and increased last year from 11 to 25 members. Any guest ronight who wishes to take part in this challenging and rewarding program may send their $1 dues to the treasurer, M. D. Pack, P. O. Box 2129, Roanoke, Virginia 24009.

PROGRAM

Presiding: William B. Poff. President Sister City Committee

INVOCATION

NATIONAL ANTHEMS

DINNER

INTRODUCTIONS

WELCOME

REMARKS

REMARKS

KOREAN FOLK SONG MEDLEY

SPEAKER

atic Eller

PRESENTATIONS

William B. Poff

The Hon, Roy L. Webber Mayor, City of Roanoke

Col. Norman L. Holland, U. S. Army Redstone Arsenal. Ala.

The Rev. J. Carroll Fink, Minister

United States — Republic of Korea

South Roanoke United Methodist Church

Mr. Sook Han Cultural and Information Attache Republic of Korea Embassy

> Miss Mikye Chang, soprano Miss Miyoung Chang, pianist

Mr. James F. Leonard Country Director for Korea U. S. State Department

William B. Poff

ADJOURNMENT

VFWC Says 1970 Census Invasion of Privacy

By GARNETTE HELVEY Times Women's Writer

RICHMOND - The Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs VFWC) went on record against tandem trucks on the state's highways and for quality education, citizenship educa-tion, halfway houses f o r juvenile offenders and reflectorized license plates.

Also adopted was a special emergency resolution on the 1970 census. Introduced by the Tidewater District during the business meeting of VFWC Thursday at Hotel Jefferson, the resolution declared the questionnaire for the 1970 census as planned an unnecessary invasion of privacy. The recommendation adopted by the clubwomen called for elimination of all but the six questions which deal directly with an accurate count of the population of the United States.

The women also urged their fellow club members across the state to work for the elimination of the penalty for refusal to answer all but the six questions.

The VFWC was preceded in criticism of the census by the Daughters of the American Revolution at their state convention in Roanoke in March. At that time they reaffirmed a resolution similar to that adopted by the VFWC.

Mrs. H. Stanley Bailey of Roanoke took the floor at Thursday's meeting in Richmond to voice her support of the resolution governing tandem trucks.

"It's no longer safe to get in your car and take a trip," stated Mrs. Bailey, a travel agent and past president of VFWC. "It's emotional and frightening to be on the bighway." highway.

Testifying along with Mrs. Bailey in support of the resolution were Mrs. E. Parker Brown of Richmond, chairman of the VFWC legislative division, and Mrs. Wesley Cooper of Arlington, safety chairman.

The resolution was adopted as amended for the VFWC to record its opposition to the enactment of legislation allowing the use of tandem trucks in Virginia and that a copy of the resolution be submitted to the governor and the General Assembly. The amendment covered an ap-pearance before the State Highway Commission hearing in May.

Mrs. Bailey stated that the length of such trucks has already been increased to the point that they do not have enough horse power to pull them up a hill, thus slowing down traffic. "Then," she said, "when an automobile is maintaining the speed limit maintaining the speed limit going down a hill the trucks run up behind and run over you."

"Soon," she added, "Congress will be asked for permission to increase the length of tandem trucks to 100 feet. This is about double the length of many homes and en-tirely too dangerous to be on the highways in Virginia."

Mrs. Cooper and Mrs. Brown's reaction paralleled that of Mrs. Bailey. We have the right to stay alive and we have to protect that right, they said.

Mrs. Minor pointed out that almost none of the eastern seaboard states have these larger trucks on their roads.

"Only 28 states have them, and they are all west of us."

Only one club member, Mrs. E. B. Gibson of Richmond, voiced an opinion against the proposed resolution. Her feeling was that the trucks would bring money into the state.

Other resolutions adopted were:

That the organization work to promote legislation work will provide facilities and personnel to insure quality education in the public schools; and that it support teahers' salaries so they will be commensurate with abili-ty; and that it urge its members to work for a feasi-

Political Posters Disturb VFWC Delegates

RICHMOND — The Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs (VFWC) settled down for lunch and speaker Paul Duke, an NBC newsman, after a disturbing morning incident involving politics.

Mrs. Charles H. Peery III Mrs. Charles H. Peery III of Tazewell, president of VFWC, announced at the close of the business session that political posters had been displayed at the Hotel Jef-ferson where the group's 62nd annual convention was meeting meeting

The poster declared "VFWC Endorses Henry Howell."

Mrs. Peery said the organization is not backing anyone and ordered that the posters be removed.

Duke, whose talk concluded the three-day convention, told the women "the problems facing the nation today are no laughing matter." The former Richmonder suggested that women can do their part to make this a bet-ter society. "Woman Power" is all it takes.

If the women want something done about malnutrition or high prices they complain. "Congress they complain. always responds."

The news correspondent is a graduate of the University of Richmond. He specializes in covering congressional ac-tivities in Washington and he drew a humorous picture of the new administration.

"The lights are back on in the White House and Stetson hats no longer get, within a mile of the White House. Those who were once 'in' are now out.

"If Johnson wanted fresh air in his bedroom he would push a button to open a window. If Nixon wants fresh air, he gets up and raises the win-dow himself."

"The new administration is much more relaxed," said Duke. "Nixon is even serving snacks to reporters in the afternoon."

GARNETTE HELVEY

Mrs. Charles H. Peery III of Tazewell, president of the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs (VFWC), told the group's convention in Richmond today "its principal last month in New Orleans, La. Mrs. Peery, delivering her annual report to the opening objective of featuring health through every means had led us to be the pioneer federasession of the convention at Hotel Jefferson, praised the tion in the country working on the Conquer Uterine Cancer Crusade.

Such a move, she said, "is just beginning to swing into action as a result of the first itron, which was used at the Medical College of Virginia for many years in the treatment of cancer. CLINAC has been installed in a remodeled room there, she added, and treated its first patient last

VFWC Treasurer Moving, Resigns

RICHMOND (AP)-Resigna-tion of Mrs. E. Carl White Jr. of Colonial Heights as treasurer of the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs (VFWC) was announced yesterday on the eve of the federation's annual convention here.

Mrs. R. B. Wayland of Portsmouth was named to succeed Mrs. White by the VFWC president, Mrs. Charles R. Peery III of Tazewell.

Mrs. Peerv's announcement came at the end of a meeting of the executive committee. She said Mrs. White resigned because she is moving from Virginia to Georgia in Sep-tember. The resignation is effective June 30.

Mrs. Wayland, who will serve as treasurer until May 1970, is immediate past budget finance chairman the federation and home life chairman. She is second vice president of the Tidewater federation.

Some 700 VFWC members are expected for the three-day convention which opened to

it was adopted," she declared. "You have demonstrated without reservation your support. Contributions are pouring in and we know they will continue for the need is so very tremendous."

The president reviewed pro-gress made in other areas during the first half of her administration. She said club contributions to the VFWC state scholarship programs "have opened a whole new field in providing assistance for supportive health careers."

She said the federation has joined with the national organization's Crusade for morality in the Mass Media "in speaking out for decency, honor, morality and patriotism."

Also, she cited regional community improvement seminars which she declared "a statewide opportunity to make our community im-provement efforts more realistic,"

Mrs. Charles H. Peery III opens convention

Hotel Jefferson, praised the support of women's clubs across the state in the purchase of a linear ac-celebrator known as the CLINAC which was adopted as a federation project two month. "This project was just a promise to do our best when

Presidential Report Hails CLINAC The CLINAC, she explained, is the successor to the Max-

ble pupil-teacher ratio. A resolution g o v e r n i n g citizenship was also adopted. It calls for VFWC to pledge support of the citizenship education of the State Board of Education, and urges its departments. The clubs voted to adopt the resolution that the present juvenile training school pro-gram be augmented by a system of regional training facilities facilities.

Another phase of highway safety approved by the VFWC was the resolution urging the adoption of reflectorized license plates.

local clubs to consider ap-propriate activities in citizenship education to sup-plement the program of the State Board of Education.

State Board of Education. Also adopted was a resolu-tion for the organization to recommend that state reim-bursements be made available to communities for the pro-motion of halfway ho us e (probation houses) programs, for youthful offenders, which will work in conjunction with family courts and probation departments.

Political Posters Disturb VFWC Delegates

RICHMOND - The Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs (VFWC) settled down for lunch and speaker Paul Duke, an NBC newsman, after a disturbing morning incident involving politics.

Mrs. Charles H. Peery III of Tazewell, president of VFWC, announced at the close of the business session that political posters had been displayed at the Hotel Jefferson where the group's 62nd annual convention was meeting.

The poster declared "VFWC Endorses Henry Howell."

Mrs. Peery said the organization is not backing anyone and ordered that the posters be removed. Duke, whose talk concluded the three-day convention, told the women "the problems fac-ing the nation today are no laughing matter." The former Richmonder suggested that women can do their part to make this a bet-ter society. "Woman Power" is all it takes.

If the women want something done about malnutrition or high prices they complain. "Congress they complain. always responds."

The news correspondent is a graduate of the University of Richmond. He specializes in covering congressional activities in Washington and he drew a humorous picture of the new administration.

"The lights are back on in the White House and Stetson hats no longer get, within a

Mrs. Peery, delivering her annual report to the opening session of the convention at

Hotel Jefferson, praised the support of women's clubs across the state in the purchase of a linear ac-celebrator known as the

CLINAC which was adopted as a federation project two known as the La.

years ago.

mile of the White House. Those who were once 'in' are now out.

"If Johnson wanted fresh air in his bedroom he would push a button to open a win-dow. If Nixon wants fresh air, he gets up and raises the window himself."

"The new administration is much more relaxed," said Duke. "Nixon is even serving snacks to reporters in the afternoon."

GARNETTE HELVEY

ing was that the trucks would bring money into the state.

Other resolutions adopted were:

That the organization work to promote legislation that will provide facilities and will provide facilities and personnel to insure quality education in the public schools; and that it support teahers' salaries so they will be commensurate with abili-ty; and that it urge its members to work for a feasi-ble numl-teacher ratio ble pupil-teacher ratio.

A resolution governing citizenship was also adopted. It calls for VFWC to pledge support of the citizenship education of the State Board of Education, and urges its

Mrs. Charles H. Peery III of Tazewell, president of the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs (VFWC), told the group's convention in Richmond today "its principal objective of featuring health through every means had led us to be the pioneer federa-tion in the country working on the Conquer Uterine Cancer Crusade.

Such a move, she said, "is just beginning to swing into action as a result of the first World Conference on Uterine Cancer" which she attended

Mrs. Charles H. Peery III opens convention

is the successor to the Maxitron, which was used at the Medical College of Virginia for many years in the treatment of cancer. CLINAC has been installed in a remodeled room there, she added, and treated its first patient last month. "This project was just a promise to do our best when

VFWC Treasurer Moving, Resigns

RICHMOND (AP)-Resignation of Mrs. E. Carl White Jr. of Colonial Heights as treasurer of the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs (VFWC) was announced yesterday on the eve of the federation's annual convention here.

Mrs. R. B. Wayland of Portsmouth was named to succeed Mrs. White by the VFWC president, Mrs. Charles R. Peery III of Tazewell.

Mrs. Peery's announcement came at the end of a meeting of the executive committee. She said Mrs. White resigned because she is moving from Virginia to Georgia in Sep-tember. The resignation is effective June 30.

Mrs. Wayland, who will serve as treasurer until May 1970, is immediate past budget finance chairman of the federation and home life chairman. She is second vice president of the Tidewater federation.

Some 700 VFWC members are expected for the three-day convention which opened to-

it was adopted," she declared. "You have demonstrated without reservation your support. Contributions are pouring in and we know they will continue for the need is so very tremendous."

The president reviewed progress made in other areas during the first half of her ad-ministration. She said club contributions to the VFWC state scholarship programs "have opened a whole new field in providing assistance for supportive health careers."

She said the federation has joined with the national organization's Crusade f or morality in the Mass Media 'in speaking out for decency, honor, morality and patriotism."

Also, she cited regional community improvement seminars which she declared "a statewide opportunity to make our community im-provement efforts more realistic," and placed special emphasis on the federation's

focus on fine arts. "As we go into the second year of this administration." she concluded, "freedom will manifest itself in our legislative program. Yes, let us consider this our legislative year ... Let us mobilize our forces for action."

This evening, the annual Alice Kyle banquet, honoring the federation founder, will be held before extension awards for individual club projects are announced.

Tomorrow's program opens with a junior breakfast before a morning of business and an afternoon of the Valentine Museum. The junior banquet is that evening at the John Marshall Hotel while the senior members banquet at the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts.

They will be guests at the Virginia Museum Theater later.

Voting several resolutions, including support of therapeutic a b o r t i o n; halfway houses for rehabilita-tion of juvenile delinquents; regional training schools to remove juveniles from adult penal institutions; and opposition to tandem trucks on state highways, will begin Wednesday and conclude Thusday at a final business session safety approved by the VFWC was the resolution urging the adoption of reflectorized reflectorized license plates.

Presidential Report Hails CLINAC last month in New Orleans, The CLINAC, she explained,

Walter M. Dixon Jr.

Sandy Sprung

Donald P. Palmer

Actress, Bank Officials To Speak For 18th Family Finance Forum

An actress and three officials of a Roanoke bank will address the 18th Family Finance Forum at Hotel Roanoke Wednesday.

The forum is sponsored by the 29 senior and junior women's clubs of the Blue Ridge District of the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs in cooperation with the First National Exchange Bank of Virginia. The theme for the forum will be "The Total Woman." Walter M. Dixon, trust officer, joined the bank in 1967 on moving to Roanoke from a Charlottesville bank.

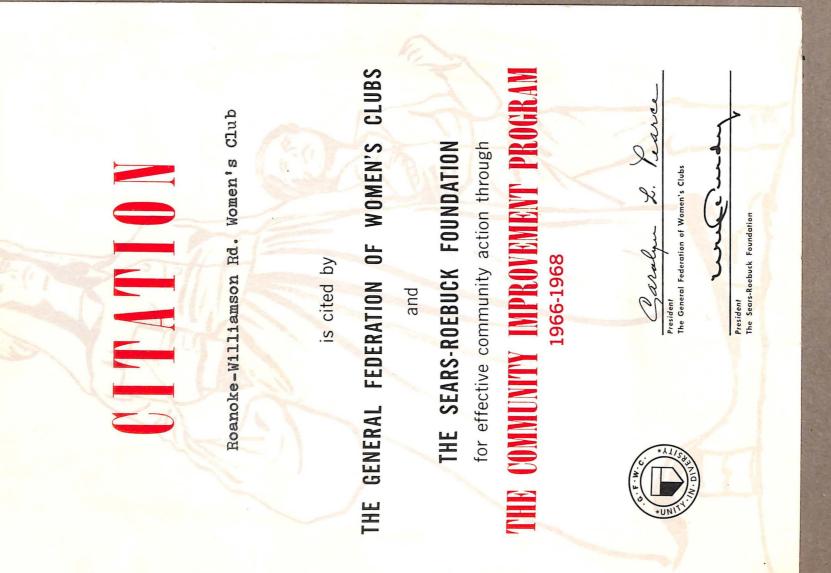

Joe B. Eanes is assistant cashier and has responsibilities in marketing, training, advertising and is advertising and public relations director of the bank's BankAmericard program.

Serving as moderator will be H. Clay Ferguson, assistant vice president. begin at noon and will be presided over by Mrs. Charles T. Southern Jr., of Salem, district president. Byron Hicks, executive vice president, will introduce Miss Sprung who will speak on "The Total Woman."

Mrs. A. E. Roscoe of Roanoke is chairman of the forum, with Charles R. Cooper, assistant director of sales, as coordinator of the bank's activities. Roanoke Junior Woman's Club, and Mrs. Charles W. Poff, president of the Valley Junior Woman's Club.

Mrs. John H. Leckrone and the fine arts department of the Woman's Club of Roanoke are in charge of decorations and have selected "Spring Hats" as their theme.

Mrs. Hampton W. Thomas of the Woman's Club of Roanoke is publicity chairman.

Clubwoman ToBeAnalyzed In Convention Programs

be included in the three-day convention of the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs VFWC) next week in Richnond.

The theme is "The Indispensable Clubwoman," chosen by Mrs. Charles Peery III of Tazewell, VFWC president. Convention dates are April 15-17.

"The Individual as a Clubwoman" will be the emphasis of the Alice Kyle Banquet on Tuesday evening. Mrs. Harold D. Burkholder, national treasurer, will address the women. Mrs. Burkholder is from Rhode Island, a graduate of William and Mary, and has served as chairman of the Rhode Island Governor's Commission on the Status of Women.

A Fine Arts Festival Tuesday evening will present "The Creative Clubwoman." Handiwork representing all areas of the state will be displayed along with literary and artistic efforts. A concert by the 125-member Richmond Public School's Youth Symphony and Honor Choir will highlight the program.

"The Clubwoman Projecting Herself" will be the theme of a special public speaking breakfast Wednesday. Mrs. B. D. Boyd of Washington, D.C., will be the featured speaker. Mrs. Boyd is the ampleue Mrs. Boyd is the employe development officer in the training division of the In-ternal Revenue Service, an instructor in the management training program in several federal agencies, and is on the faculty of the Department of Agriculture graduate school.

"The Inner Clubwoman" will be Dr. William Lordi's topic at the Wednesday luncheon. Dr. Lordi is a Richmond psychiatrist and director of the Dooley Memorial Guidance Clinic.

uidance Clinic. The prayer breakfast is Thursday. "The planned Thursday. "The Clubwoman's Source of Strength" will be discussed by recording secretary of the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. Robert D. Silk, na- Hotel John Marshall, Mrs. Silk is from Stanley, Kansas.

Seven special programs will Mrs. Leslie Barnhardt, tional junior director, will address the junior banquet Wednesday evening at the

Actor, Newscaster Will Discuss Arts

Men will play an important role in the Virginia Federa-tion of Women's Club convention.

Robert Montgomery will ad-dress the convention in the Virginia Museum Theatre Wednesday evening. Mr. Montgomery served as a special consultant to President Eisenhower, and is currently serving as a consultant to John D. Rockefellar, and president of the Repertory Theatre of Lincoln Center. In recent years he has been a leading proponent of morali-ty in the mass media and is the author of "Open Letter From a Television Viewer" which was published in 1968.

The NBC news cor-respondent, Paul Duke, will speak at the final session of the convention Thursday the convention Thursday afternoon. Mr. Duke is from Richmond and a graduate of the University of Richmond. He began his journalistic career by covering the Virginia State Capital for the Associated Press.

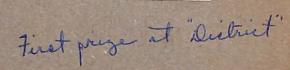

Mr. Duke specializes in covering Congressional ac-tivities. He is often seen on the "Today" show and "Meet the Press" and is heard each weekend on "Monitor."

Spring District Floyd, Va. 1969 Meeting

Second prige of "District"

AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY VIRGINIA DIVISION, INC.

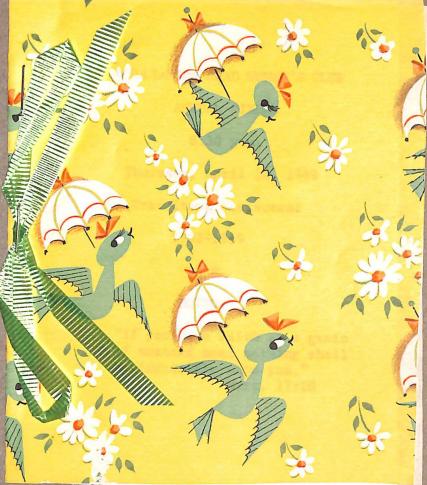

APPRECIATION OF CONTINUING SUPPORT OF THE PROGRAM OF THE AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY AND IN RECOGNITION OF NOTABLE ACHIEVEMENT IN THE CONQUER UTERINE CANCER PROJECT IN WHICH 75 PER CENT OF ITS MEMBERSHIP PARTICIPATED

Williamson Road Woman's Club

IS HEREBY AWARDED THIS EXPRESSION OF OUR GRATITUDE 1968-69

President David Elmith MQ

Annuat Dinner April 10 - 1969

Art in Home Is Discussed for Group

Descriptions of European art galleries and of some in the United States were given the fine arts department of the Williamson Roanoke Woman's Club at a recent meeting. Mrs. W. S. Kitchen discuss-ed art in the home, suggesting purchasing items that please and that can be expressions of an individual's personality. Reminding that art can take said a color photograph can be used as a focal point of a room and cue its colors. Mrs. J. Paul Muddiman was many forms in a home, she

Mrs. J. Paul Muddiman was

Roanoke World-News, Thursday, May 22, 1969

U.S., Spain Contrasted In Exchange Teacher Talk

The newness of the United homeland have changed little States, as contrasted with the centuries-old buildings and way of life in his native Spain, is a major impression of Emilio Antero Santos, he says. He is a Spanish exchange teacher at William Fleming High School, and spoke at a meeting of the Williamson Road Woman's Club this places in his

Many

declared. He discussed dif-ferences in cultures, especially in school systems, in the two countries, and add-ed that a highlight of his year's stay here was at-tending the inauguration of President Richard Nixon and meeting Vice President Spiro Agnew. Agnew. In Spain, he commented, such a meeting would nct have been possible.

since Roman times, h e declared. He discussed dif-

New committee chairmen were announced by Mrs. Robert W. Boyd, president. Mrs. G. W. DeMott will head the public affairs group; Mrs. J. T. Taylor, fine arcs; Mrs. S. R. Moxley, home life; Mrs. Frank E. Painter, membership; Mrs. J. Clay Hurd, ways and means: Mrs. Hurd, ways and means; Mrs. H. S. Jackson, community improvement.

provement.
Other chairmen are Mrs. J.
G. Willhide, publicity; Mrs. R.
J. Barger, legislative; Miss Helen Churchill, education;
Miss Sylvia Haislip, health and mental health; Mrs. M.
H. Stiff Jr., veterans' affairs;
Mrs. D. L. Buckingham, yearbook.

Roanoke World-News, Saturday, May 3, 1969

hostess at the meeting.

WILLIAMSON ROAD WOMAN'S CLUB

ANNUAL DINNER

6:30 p.m.

Thursday, April 10, 1969

Traveltown Restaurant

1952-1969

* *

MOTTO

Annual Dinner April 10-1969

"If you have faith as a grain of mustard seed nothing shall be impossible unto you." Matt. 17:20

PROGRAM

Welcome Blessing - Chaplain

Dinner

Introduction of Guests

Recognize New Members

Attendance Trophy

Minutes

Treasurer's Report

President's Report

Installation of Officers

* * *

DID YOU SIGN UP FOR YOUK CHOICE OF DEPARTMENTS FOR THE NEW CLUB YEAR?

Annual Dinner April 10-1969

Officers 1969-70

President - Mrs. R. W. Boyd First Vice President -Mrs. Geo. W. DeMott Second Vice President -Mrs. F. E. Painter Third Vice President -Mrs. J. C. Hurd Recording Secretary -Mrs. J. H. Root Corresponding Secretary -Mrs. T. H. Dove Treasurer - Mrs. D. H. Nicely Parliamentarian - Mrs. R. J. Barger Historian - Mrs. J. H. Durham Chaplain - Mrs. R. N. McFarland, Sr

Annual Dinner April 10-1969

Mayor Signs Healthy Baby Proclamation

Mayor Roy L. Webber of Roanoke, Mrs. E. Duward Starkey, VFWC Health and Mental Health Vice-Chairman, and Mrs. Leslie W. Hamlett, Jr., Blue Ridge District Junior Director, read over proclamation.

Clubs To Observe Healthy Baby Week

In conjunction with National Healthy Baby Week, the Valley Junior Woman's Club and the Brambleton Junior Woman's Club requested Mayor Roy L. Webber to proclaim the week of May 11 through May 17 as Healthy Baby Week in Roanoke.

The clubs have secured permission from the administrators of two local hospitals to recognize healthy babies born at their hospitals that week.

A complete layette will be presented to the first healthy baby born during that week, and one month's free diaper service will be provided for the first healthy boy and the first healthy girl born during the same period.

The mother of each healthy baby born during that week at both hospitals will receive a flower on her tray with a specially printed card congratulating her on the birth of her healthy baby.

Clubmembers will display posters throughout the community to publicize Healthy Baby Week.

• Alottuz • noti Petersburg -suitrom • Quttins-

att Discusses Problem With Student

SATATE GATINU

zotze al's Career əji suno d in Childhood

y stock owned by the $162,257,744.71 $ 33,788,575.02 25,449,536.02 $ 3'000'000'0 69'691'697'871$ 549,416.71 2,574,709.00 $0.042,174,9 $0.042,174,9 272,028.39 90.084,98 28.101,478 92'698'618 18.207,970, I

$112'361'824.03

$162,257,744.71 22'22'220'23 1'116'240'23 6'310'861'24 5,183,449.65 5,183,449.65 79,066,333.93 9,841,213.10 3,594,128.21

> 89.381,426,01 12,762,005.84 3,780,736.90 98.260,897

$ 1'346'382'6t uper 31, 1968 U

lincome taxes. don s ni Znitlu

V $100 of legal

She said she is donating the slides to the school, in hope that the practice will be continued.

10

A member of Huntington Court United Methodist Church, Mrs. Bennett is also active in the Williamson Road Woman's Club and Delta Kap-

Woman's Club and Delta Kap-pa Gamma, e d u c a t o r 's honorary society. She said she enjoys reading, photography, sewing, cooking and painting and hopes she will have more time to pursue these' interests in Florida. "When I read now, I feel I should be reading professional journals. I used to try to keep a step ahead, but now I just try to keep up," she ex-plained. plained.

Tuesday, April 22, 1969. "I am looking forward to the sun and beach. But if I get homesick for the classroom, I will be looking for a little red schoolhouse on the beach," she said. "I leave this position with mixed emo-tions. It was a very hard decision, but one I had to make." She said she will follow the progress o f Roanoke City schools, and especially Monterey, with pride and interest. "I have always been proud to be a part of the Roanoke school system," she con-tinued, "because I think it is one of the finest in ex-istence." She said the district has allowed freedom of ex-nerimentation and has more has allowed freedom of experimentation and has pro-vided excellent facilities.

THE TIMES

Mayor Signs Healthy Baby Proclamation

Mayor Roy L. Webber of Roanoke, Mrs. E. Duward Starkey, VFWC Health and Mental Health Vice-Chairman, and Mrs. Leslie W. Hamlett, Jr., Blue Ridge District Junior Director, read over proclamation.

Clubs To Observe Healthy Baby Week

In conjunction with National Healthy Baby Week, the Valley Junior Woman's Club and the Brambleton Junior Woman's Club requested Mayor Roy L. Webber to proclaim the week of May 11 through May 17 as Healthy Baby Week in Roanoke.

The clubs have secured permission from the administrators of two local hospitals to recognize healthy babies born at their hospitals that week.

A complete layette will be presented to the first healthy baby born during that week, and one month's free diaper service will be provided for the first healthy boy and the first healthy girl born during the same period.

The mother of each healthy baby born during that week at both hospitals will receive a flower on her tray with a specially printed card congratulating her on the birth of her healthy baby.

Clubmembers will display posters throughout the community to publicize Healthy Baby Week.

Mrs. Bennett Discusses Problem With Student

Principal's Career Started in Childhood

By REBECCA THOMAS Times Women's Writer Mrs. Mildred Bennett can't remember wanting to be anything other than a teacher. "When I was a little girl I used to line up bottles and pretend they were students. Then I would teach them," said the school principal who is resigning after 30 years of is resigning after 30 years of service in the Virginia school system.

system. The educator was honored Monday night at the final meeting of the Monterey Elementary School P a r e n t Teacher's Association. Prin-cipal of the school since it opened in 1960, Mrs. Bennett was presented a s e wing machine as a parting gift. She and her husband Leonard W and her husband, Leonard W. Bennett, are moving to Florida.

Florida. "For years my husband and I have been talking about moving to Florida. It's something we both want to do. We have chosen Ormond Beach because we like it and have friends there," said Mrs. Bennett. Bennett.

A graduate of Radford College, Mrs. Bennett receiv-ed her master's degree in education from V i r g i n i a Polytechnic Institute. The educator began her teaching career in Pulaski in 1939, where for three years she taught the first six grades in a one-room school. After teaching in Pulaski six more years, she came to Roanoke, where she has been teaching ever since. From 1948 to 1960 she taught at Oakland Elementary School, then moved to Monterey then moved to Monterey

She said she is donating the slides to the school, in hope that the practice will be continued.

A member of Huntington Court United Methodist Church, Mrs. Bennett is also active in the Williamson Road Woman's Club and Delta Kap-

Woman's Club and Delta Kap-pa Gamma, e d u c a t o r 's honorary society. She said she enjoys reading, photography, sewing, cooking and painting and hopes she will have more time to pursue these' interests in Florida. "When I read now, I feel I should be reading professional journals. I used to try to keep a step ahead, but now I just try to keep up," she ex-plained.

"I am looking forward to the sun and beach. But if I get homesick for the classroom, I will be looking for a little red schoolhouse on the beach," she said. "I leave the beach," she said. "I leave this position with mixed emo-tions. It was a very hard decision, but one I had to make." She said she will follow the progress of Roanoke City schools, and especially Monterey, with pride and interest.

pride and interest. "I have always been proud to be a part of the Roanoke school system," she con-tinued, "because I think it is one of the finest in ex-istence." She said the district has allowed freedom of ex-perimentation and has pro-vided excellent facilities.

Tuesday, April 22, 1969.

Baby Week, the Valley Junior Woman's Club and the Brambleton Junior Woman's Club requested Mayor Roy L. Webber to proclaim the week of May 11 through May 17 as Healthy Baby Week in Roanoke.

The clubs have secured permission from the administrators of two local hospitals to recognize healthy babies born at their hospitals that week.

A complete layette will be presented to the first healthy baby born during that week, and one month's free diaper service will be provided for the first healthy boy and the first healthy girl born during the same period.

The mother of each healthy baby born during that week at both hospitals will receive a flower on her tray with a specially printed card congratulating her on the birth of her healthy baby.

Clubmembers will display posters throughout the community to publicize Healthy Baby Week.

Mrs. Mildred Bennett can't remember wanting to be anything other than a teacher. "When I was a little girl I used to line up bottles and pretend they were students. Then I would teach them, said the school principal who is resigning after 30 years of service in the Virginia school system.

The educator was honored Monday night at the final meeting of the Monterey Elementary School Parent Teacher's Association. Principal of the school since it opened in 1960, Mrs. Bennett was presented a sewing machine as a parting gift. She and her husband, Leonard W. Bennett, are moving to Florida.

"For years my husband and I have been talking about moving to Florida. It's something we both want to do. We have chosen Ormond Beach because we like it and have friends there," said Mrs. Bennett.

A graduate of Radford College, Mrs. Bennett received her master's degree in education, from Virginia Polytechnic Institute.

The educator began her teaching career in Pulaski in 1939, where for three years she taught the first six grades in a one-room school.

After teaching in Pulaski six more years, she came to Roanoke, where she has been teaching ever since. From 1948 to 1960 she taught at Oakland Elementary School, then moved to Monterey Elementary School as principal. "When I accepted the posi-tion of principal I wondered if tion of principal I wondered if I would miss the actual teaching, but I have remedied that by paying frequent visits to the classrooms, teaching selected lessons," she explained.

"I try to stay close to the children," she said. There are about 250 students at Monterey Elementary School, and Mrs. Bennett knows them all by name. "My door is always open and the children know they are free to come in and discuss their problems.'

Respect is the basis of her disciplinary philosophy. ''I respect the children and I expect respect in return. And I get it," she said. In teaching, she said she tries to relate the subject matter to everyday living.

The principal said she has The principal said she has always stressed reading skills, "because a child who can read can help himself." She said she also is in favor of let-ting a child watch television. "No matter what people say, a child does increase his vocabulary as well as his general knowledge by watch-ing television," she explained. "Whenever there is an educational program on television during school hours, we try to let the children watch it," she said. "We encourage them to watch news of astronauts because it is h i s tory-in-the-making. Our basic program of science is keyed to television in-struction."

Next fall, Monterey combined with T i n k e r Elementary. Tinker is being phased out and children from that district will be bussed to Monterey. Monterey's teaching staff will be in-creased from nine to 13. Mrs. Bennett said she thought this a good time to make the break since next year Monterey will be a much larger operation and change is in order.

An amateur photographer, Mrs. Bennett has kept a history of the school in slides.

Tuesday, April 22, 1969.

She said she is donating the slides to the school, in hope that the practice will be continued.

A member of Huntington Court United Methodist Church, Mrs. Bennett is also active in the Williamson Road Wemenic Club and Dalks Ker Woman's Club and Delta Kappa Gamma, educator's honorary society.

She said she enjoys reading, photography, sewing, cooking and painting and hopes she will have more time to pursue these interests in Florida. "When I read now, I feel I should be reading professional journals. I used to try to keep a step ahead, but now I just try to keep up," she explained.

"I am looking forward to the sun and beach. But if I get homesick for the classroom, I will be looking for a little red schoolhouse on the beach," she said. "I leave this position with mixed emo-tions. It was a very hard decision, but one I had to make." She said she will follow the progress of Roanoke City schools, and especially Monterey, with pride and interest. "I have always been proud to be a part of the Roanoke school system," she con-tinued, "because I think it is one of the finest in ex-istence." She said the district has allowed freedom of experimentation and has pro-vided excellent facilities.

THE ROANOKE TIMES, Saturday, May 3, 1969.

Mrs, Mildred C. Painter

Mrs. Painter Dies at 66

Mrs. Mildred C. Painter, 66, first chairman of the Roanoke County Library board of trustees, and a longtime Roanoke City schoolteacher, died Friday night at her home at 4506 Hazelridge Road, N.W. She was the wife of C. M. Painter. Mrs. Painter was a trustee of the Roanoke County Public Library from its inception in 1941 until 1952, when she resign-ed after the area where she liv-ed was annexed by the city. She was chairman of the county library board from 1941 until 1949. At her retirement from the library board that body in a resolution expressed "its warm appreciation, and that of Roanoke County, to Mrs. Painter for her long period of leadership and service in the successful growth and develop-ment of the Roanoke County Public Library." Mrs. Painter taught in the ment of the Roanoke County Public Library." Mrs. Painter taught in the Roanoke City schools for more than 40 years. She was at the Belmont School from 1926 to 1956, when she transferred to Preston Park School. She taught there until she retired last year. Oakey's Funeral Home, Roanoke, is handling ar-rangements.

The Roanoke Public Library acknowledges with genuine appreciation your gift to the Library of "Dream Castles"

Roanoke Public Library Board Java E. Lines Secretary

In Memory of Mrs. Mildred C. Painter Fine Arts Department May 1969

GFWC Delegates Balk On Abortion Measure

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Delegates to the 78th annual convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs (GFWC) adopted resolutions yesterday on campus disrup-tions, transportation and elections. Action on a therapeutic abortion resolution, the only resolu-tion still pending, was delayed until today, the last day of the convention.

The measure on campus disorders called on news media to deemphasize coverage of campus problems and student unrest and urged law enforcement officials to handle campus disruptions as they would violations involving other public or private property.

Delegates called for development of a "balanced modern transportation system" and urged Congress to defeat any legislation which would permit use of larger or heavier buses and trucks. They also called for a congressional study of presidential and other elections, recommending a realignment of states' electoral college votes to "more equitably reflect the percen-tage of the popular vote."

Roanoke World-News, Friday, June 6, 1969

Roanoke Woman Gets USO Position

President Nixon has appointed Mrs. Hazel K. Barger of Roa-noke a director of the United Service Organization, Inc., which provides shows and operates USO service for the military personal personnel.

The charter provides for the president to name nine directors whose duties include approving entertainers sent overseas.

Mrs. B a r g e r a long-time friend of the Nixon family, is a former member of the Republi-can National Committee.

During the Eisenhower administration, she was a member of the White House-appointed De-fense Advisory Committee.

Mrs. Barger said she was told considerable travel would be involved. The appointment is for three years.

The state of the s

Roanoke World-News, Thursday, June 19, 1969

The fine arts department of the fine arts department of the Williamson Road Woman's Club held a memorial service for one of the club's founders, Mrs. Mildred C. Painter, re-cently. She was the first chairman of the Becenter County, Li

Memorial Honors Charter Member of the Roanoke County Li-brary board and a retired teacher.

A book, "Dream Castles," is being placed in the Wil-liamson Road branch of the Roanoke Library in her memory memory.

Memory. Mrs. Betty Helton, a new member, attended the depart-ment's covered dish supper at the home of Mrs. J. T. Taylor.

The Roanoke World-News

Wednesday, August 13, 1969

Pros and Cons of Bigger Trucks

B. J. Knight of Lynchburg, president of a trucking firm, speaks in favor of allowing larger tractor trailer rigs on Virginia highways. He was one of many persons speaking today at a public hearing in Roanoke on the controversial truck issue. The hearing was before a special committee appointed by the General Assembly. Story on Page 1.

Bigger Truck Rigs Praised, Protested At Public Hearing

By Ozzie Osborne World-News Staff Writer

Bigger trailer trucks were criticized as a safety hazard and lauded as an economic benefit at a confrontation today between trucking and railroad interests.

interests. State Sen. William F. Stone of Martinsville. chairman of the Senate Roads Committee, was the leadoff speaker and chief critic of legislation that would allow bigger trucks on four-lane Virginia highways. His position was backed by Mrs. Charles H. Peery III of Tazewell, president of the Virginia Federation of Women's Club, and a half dozen other speakers at a public hearing at speakers at a public hearing at Memorial the Roanoke Hospital's rehabilitation center auditorium.

Leading the attack for the truckers was Douglas V. Bralley, president of the Highway Users Virginia Association.

Both the railroads and the truckers had lobbyists, public truckers had lobbyists, public relations men and lawyers at today's hearing. Some will speak later today. Both sides also promised to carry the battle to Richmond Friday when a public hearing will be held there.

Railroad and trucking lob-byists handed reporters fat press kits as they entered the auditorium. Alan F. Kiepper, Richmond city manager and head of the special commission studying trailer trucks, said his commission was prepared to sit all day.

Stone said he's certain that the public doesn't want bigger trucks allowed on Virginia roads and aimed most of his remarks at proving bigger trucks would be a safety hazard.

"I think it's dangerous to the people of this state," he said of the proposed legislation.

Mrs. Peery also took the tack the bigger trucks would be a safety hazard.

She conceded that truck drivers are good at their jobs, but questioned whether nonprofessional drivers might be caused to have wrecks "when they are affected by the force of passing trucks" or when they're panicked "by the proximity of vehicles several times the size of private cars."" of private cars She said further:

"We do not wish to be on the road with twin trailers. We are already intimidated by 55-foot trucks presently allowed. To add aditional length is un-thinkable. Fear and frustration are safety hazards that cannot be minimized be minimized.

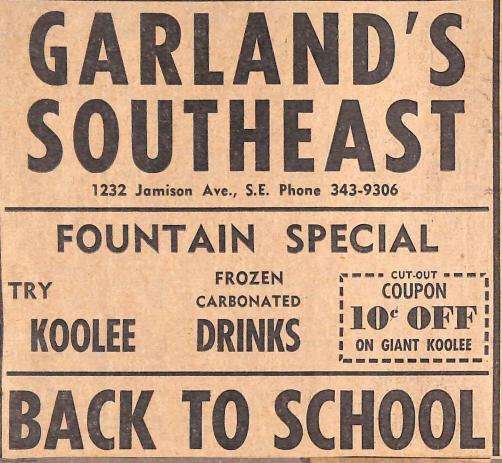

"We have been told these trucks do not travel together—that there are no "caravans. Well, maybe they are not supposed to be together, but they are.

"Clubwomen in Virginia are not alone in their conviction that increased size and weight of trucks is a definite safety hazard. The General Federation of Women's Clubs to which our organization belongs, adopted a strong resolution in June that calls upon the Congress of the United States to defeat any legislation which would permit heavier, longer, and wider trucks and buses on the roads and streets of this country.'"

Pollard Spent $348,347 In Losing Campaign

RICHMOND-Lt. Gov. Fred Pollard reported Wednesday at he spent $348,347 in his successful effort to capture e Democratic nomination for vernor in the July 15 imary. Pollard arrived at the figure taking one-third of the Dilard-Thompson-Farley ticket of adding the sum spent on levision advertising f o r ollard only. But the spent on the sum spent on the state spent on the spent on the spent on the spent of the spent of the spent spent on the transmission advertising f or the spent on the spent on

According to Pollard's official previsouly reported his expenses engaged in a runoff August 19. are

Thursday, August 14, 1969.

MRS. CHARLES H. PEERY III "Serious Hazard" railroads will have more to say Friday.

State Sen. William F. Stone of Martinsville, chairman of the Senate Roads Committee, also spoke against the twin trailers. Stone cited safety hazards of the proposed trail-ers and he said the truckers will ask for more weight if the proposal is passed. "They're going to b r e a k down your bridges and every-thing in this state if you let them have it," the senator read said.

John Boatwright, a railroad lobbyist, also questioned the validity of the three subcom-mittee reports recently re-leased without comment by the commission.

le Trailers

Burks told the commission the introduction of the twin trailers will be followed by requests for increased load limits. "The bill introduced in the last Congress of the United States which would have permitted operation on the interstate system of units in excess of 100,000 pounds is a clear indication of what the trucking industry really has in mind." Burks said.

trucking industry really has in mind." Burks said. Burks accused the trucking industry of trying to get, "at the expense and inconvenience of the tax paying public, a competitive advantage which it does not need, over an industry (the railroads) which pays for its own right of pays for its own right of

Burks said permitting the large trailers would cause ever greater cuts into the rail freight business and that this would not be good for the

Big Truck Opposition Is Restated for Board

Mrs. Walter Varney Magee, national president of the General Federation of General Federation of Women's Clubs, has called on 200 of her organization's top leaders from 50 states to con-tinue their opposition to a bill before Congress to increase truck weights and sizes.

truck weights and sizes. "We're campaigning for highway safety when we op-pose bigger trucks and we in-tend to keep the momentum going until we defeat the proposal now before Con-gress," she told the federa-tion's board' meeting at The Greenbrier, White S u I p h u r Springs, this week.

Responding to a trucking company executive who had chided the administration's anti-big truck drive by sug-gesting the club women would have to get their hats delivered by "balloon or something" or "live with trucks,' Mrs. Magee answered with a gas-filled balloon carrying a colorful ar-ray of hats ray of hats. "Let no one take our cam-paign lightly," she counseled her federation leaders.

She called on the Federal She called on the Federal Highway Administration to put "first things first—safety on the highways," and to study and set forth proper safety standards before pro-posing recommendations on truck weights and sizes posing recommendations on truck weights and sizes. She added that ''n o statistics can allay our con-cern that our fears would be intensified if even larger vehicles of 70 feet, and particularly double-bottomed ones, were permitted on our highways and streets."

railroads or the economy of rainoads or the economy of the state. Burks said the railroads paid almost $14 million in taxes to localities and to the state in 1967 and that the railroad payroll is more than $140 million.

$140 million. He said the railroads have helped to get new industry for Virginia and have helped to expand foreign trade. "The trucking industry," he added, "cannot point to any similar record of actions initiated by them for the development of Virginia's economy and Virginia's economy and foreign trade and it makes no assertion of willingness to assume any of the railroad industry's role in this vital area." area.'

Burks also said that trucking industry claims that the twin trailers would aid "con-tainerization" of freight are out of line because present in-ternational standards for con-tainer size will not fit pro-posed trailer sizes.

In addition, Burks said, railroads have a "tremendous reserve c a p a c i t y '' for carrying freight which, if utilized, would help cut down on highway congestion by taking such freight off the roads roads.

Strange Coalition Forms Against Double Trailers

By BEN BEAGLE Times Staff Writer

Two truck drivers, the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs and a number of railroads formed an alliance Wednesday as the Virginia Twin Trailer Study Commission met in Roanoke. The drivers, the women and the railroads were against the legalizing of the larger rigs and the trucking industry and spokesmen for several business firms took the opposite side.

The three-hour session in the auditorium of the Roanoke Memorial Hospital Rehabilitation Center developed arguments heard before in the General Assembly. About 75 persons came

The opposition' said the twin trailers are hazardous, just one more step in the direction of heavier loads for state roads and an unfair competitive advantage for the trucking industry.

"Economic Benefit"

Hodges Sr. of Roanoke, told the commission "any truck at

The trucking industry's

Wednesday was brief. Alan

Kiepper, Richmond's city manager and chairman of the commission, explained that and 40 minutes before the commission. The truckers, he said, will use most of their Spokesman for several an economic advantage-and consequent lower prices to consumers-if twin trailers, which would operate only on four-laned roads, are allowed

Creative Packaging Co., said

Jim Jennings of Roanoke's

time at a second hearing presentation

been

industry wants.

same thing.

said the trucks will cause

any speed is hazardous."

the industry has allowed-along with

Friday in Richmond.

in Virginia.

official

Spokesman for the trucking ndustry and the business firms said they will benefit the economy of the state, are not hazardous and "emotionalism" has been a major factor in opposition to the double trailers.

One of the drivers, Earl Bowyer of Vinton, told the commission, "I don't want to railroads-a total of an hour double trailer).'

Bowyer pointed to a model exhibit set up by the Virginia Highway Users Association, noting that the exhibit was on small industries said they see was, apparently, dry.

"You get two of them out there on a hill, buddy, when you've got ice and snow (and) you've got one more trailer to block it," Bowyer said. Bowyer said he hopes the industry "can survive" without the double rigs.

the double trailers would cause economic benefits. He Another driver, E. D. said 28 states permit double the federation, she said, drive The state, by not allowing them, is putting many state shippers at a disadvantage, Jennings said. He said that many firms, like his, have light products to ship although they take up a lot of room. "a precious cargo - small children." As a driver, Mrs. Peery said, she is "already intimidated (by trucks) . . . to add additional length is unthinkable." She has been, she they take up a lot of room. Twin trucks, he said, would allow the company to save on shipping charges and on costs to consume said, "competing with trucks in clusters . . . with trucks bearing down on me. . .'

Model of Proposed Twin Trailer Is Shown Beside Car

"serious hazard" on Virginia trailers 65 feet long and this is what the Virginia trucking roads.

The women, she said, have no "powerful or prosperous lobby" to speak for them. And, she asked the commission, "please don't let this happen in Virginia."

Many of the other industry spokesmen backing the larger trucks — up from 55 feet to 65 feet — said essentially the same thing Douglas V. Bralley, presi-dent of the Virginia Highway Willis S. Clemmer of Staunton, representing Westing-house Electric Corp., told the commission "c o n s u m e r s eventually new the transporta-Users Association, told the commission "a great deal of emotionalism . . . has been ineventually pay the transporta-tion bill." jected into the consideration of twin trailers which we sug-But Mrs. Charles H. Peery gest has largely been initiated III of Tazewell, president of by the activities of the the women's club federation, said the ris club federation railroads. ..."

has asked the PTA groups for opportunities to appear before them but "we were not however permitted to do so and to this time we have not been given an opportunity to present the twin trailer facts available to us either to the PTAs or the ladies of the garden clubs. Bralley said the association hopes to do this in detail at the Friday hearing in Richmond.

Bralley said a recent subcommittee report which showed the double trailers to be safe was "a most thorough and carefully conducted study" which shows that the position of the trucking industry on safety has been sound all along.

Bralley said "we were gratified to note" that another study showed that there would be no appreciable effect on present bridges or pavement if the double rigs are allowed.

Bralley said his association (The study said that there would be no effect if present weight limits are not increased.)

> In Richmond Friday, Bralley said, "We will show the commission that the economic benefit of the commonwealth from the use of twin trailers will be most significant."

> Bralley claimed that position of the railroads against the trucks "is based on purely competitive considerations.'

Bralley said the "technological, economic and industrial development of the commonwealth must be planned and based on unbiased, objective fact, not emotion.

The railroad side of the argument Wednesday was taken largely by Martin P. ever greater cuts into the rail Burks of Roanoke, general counsel for the Norfolk & freight business and that this Western Railway. The would not be good for the railroads or the economy of the state.

Thursday, August 14, 1969.

Burks said the railroads paid almost $14 million in taxes to localities and to the state in 1967 and that the railroad payroll is more than $140 million.

He said the railroads have helped to get new industry for Virginia and have helped to expand foreign trade. "The trucking industry," he added "cannot point to any similar record of actions initiated by them for the development of Virginia's economy and foreign trade and it makes no assertion of willingness to assume any of the railroad industry's role in this vital area.'

Burks also said that trucking industry claims that the twin trailers would aid "containerization" of freight are out of line because present international standards for container size will not fit proposed trailer sizes.

In addition, Burks said railroads have a "tremendous reserve capacity'' carrying freight which, if utilized, would help cut down on highway congestion by taking such freight off the roads

State Sen. William F. Stone of Martinsville, chairman of the Senate Roads Committee, also spoke against the twin trailers. Stone cited safety hazards of the proposed trail ers and he said the truckers will ask for more weight if the proposal is passed.

'They're going to break down your bridges and everything in this state if you let them have it," the senator said.

John Boatwright, a railroad lobbyist, also questioned the validity of the three subcommittee reports recently released without comment by the commission.

"Serious Hazard"

railroads will have more to

Burks told the commission

the introduction of the twin trailers will be followed by requests for increased load limits. "The bill introduced in the last Congress of the United States which would have permitted operation on the interstate system of units in excess of 100,000 pounds is a clear indication of what the trucking industry really has in

Burks accused the trucking industry of trying to get, "at the expense and inconvenience of the tax paying public, a competitive advantage which it does not need, over an industry (the railroads) which pays for its own right of Burks said permitting the large trailers would cause mind." Burks said.

way.'

say Friday.

Mrs. Walter Varney Magee, delivered by "balloon or national president of the something" or "live with General Federation of trucks," Mrs. Magee Women's Clubs, has called on answered with a gas-filled

Most of the 24,000 women in

Investors' Guide

Bonds Don't Aid Inflation Fight

By Sam Shulsky

Q.—We are retired in our 50s, with money in mutuals and savings and loans. Because of present economic conditions, the stock market seems unattractive. Inflation continues unabated. I'm con-sidering investments in bonds sidering investments in honds,

Full Lis NEW YORK (AP) - Tuesday's complete American Stock Exchange prices:

Q.—Could you please give me a list of short-term in-vestments?

continues unabated. I'm con-sidering investments in bonds, but I'm uncertain as to whether they should be con-vertible, municipal or straight (nonconvertible) bonds. A.—Your problem lies in trying to solve a long-term prob-lem (inflation) with a short-term means (the "unat-tractive," as you put it, stock market). That isn't easy to do. I can give you one answer: Nonconvertible bonds and tax-exempt municipal bonds can't which you can double your money in three weeks. Short-term investments are generally considered to be: sav-ings accounts, Treasury bills, commercial paper. You can put and get it back out in a few and get it back out in a few and ys, weeks, months or a year. Of course, any investment that is negotiable can be considered 'short-term." You can sell a itock (which is a perpetual orm of security) or a bond due in 1999 five minutes after you After briefing the 175 women attending the meeting on the legislation and recent develop-ment, he asked for their assistance as c o m m u n i t y volunteers. "Three bombs fell on us assistance as community volunteers. "Three bombs fell on us over a year ago," he said. "First, there was the report issued by a citizen's group, 'Hunger USA'; second, the report by several women's groups on child hunger, "Their Daily Bread'; and third, the nationwide TV Broadcast, 'Hunger in America.' "

Those reports while rough on the agencies, awakened the national conscience to the hunger problem, he said.

A

.07

Lautri

27

Hats by Balloon

Hats came to Mrs. Walter Varney Magee by balloon at the annual meeting of the board of directors of the General Federation of Women's Clubs. The lighter-thangir delivery was the federation's answer to a snide remark by a trucking executive.

The federation, of which Mrs. Magee is president, is fighting bigger trucks on the highways. The trucker remarked that the women must be expecting to get their new hats by balloon. So they proved they could

Woman's Club Unit Buys Patients Gifts

Roanoke World-News, Wednesday, October 29, 1969

News

From Clubs

The Italian artist, Leonard da Vinci, was described as "a master of thought and feel-ing" by a speaker for the Williamson Road Woman's Club this work Club this week. According to Miss Sylvia Hatslip, he stressed light and shade in art instead of the im-portance of color, and copies of "The Last Supper" and the "Mona Lisa" were shown to illustrate the talk.

The meeting was at the home of Mrs. Carl Vincent where yearbooks were distributed. They are dedicated to the late Mrs. C. M. Painter, a founder of the club

Roanoke World-News, Thursday, Sept. 18, 1969

Women Take Stand on Hunger

10

By CLARE WHITE Times Women's Editor

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W.Va. - The commitment of the Nixon administration to the goal of eliminating hunger is not a political football, Marvin M. Sandstrom said Tuesday.

Sandstrom addressed the board of directors of the General Federation of Women's Clubs (GFWC) at its annual meeting at The Greenbrier Hotel. He Is acting deputy administrator, food and nutrition service, U.S. Department of Agriculture.

The administrator, who has been in the field 35 years, said he felt very, very good about the future of the programs to "wipe out hunger and povertycaused malnutrition."

"It's going to be a longtime deal," he said, "but both houses of Congress now favor the required legislation and the necessary funding." In the past, legislation has been passed, but not subsequently funded.

Sandstrom made a strong pitch for help from the powerful GFWC, the world's biggest group of club women. After briefing the 175 women attending the meeting on the legislation and recent development, he asked for their assistance as community volunteers.

"Three bombs fell on us over a year ago," he said. "First, there was the report issued by a citizen's group, 'Hunger USA': second, the report by several women's groups on child hunger, 'Their Daily Bread'; and third, the nationwide TV Broadcast, 'Hunger in America.' "

Those reports while rough on the agencies, awakened the national conscience to the hunger problem, he said.

Stamp Program, the Food Donation Program, the new Supplemental Food Program, National School Lunch Program and the Special Milk Program are all going concerns. The problem, said Sandstrom, is "we aren't reaching enough of the needy to have the impact that must be made to wipe out hunger." Much of the answer lies in involvement, particularly involvement of groups like the GFWC, he told them.

Programs such as the Food

Mrs. Walter Varney Magee, GFWC president, professed herself much interested in the hunger problem, so it may well be that this will be a future project for the women's clubs. The presidents' are usually reflected in the projects of the organization.

This board meeting is a midterm report period for the officers of the national board. Mrs. Magee, and others, have served one year and will serve another before a new election. The board consists of GFWC officers, national department and division chairmen, state presidents and junior officers, and committee chairmen.

Attending from Virginia are Mrs. A. Paul Hartz of Waverly, chairman of the resolutions of THE TIMES Wed., Sept. 24, 1969.

committee; Mrs. Charles H. Peery Jr. of Tazewell, Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs (VFWC) president; Mrs. E. Parker Brown of Richmond, GFWC home life chairman; and Mrs. James C. Helton of Bristol, VFWC junior director. The three big interests of GFWC at present are the crusade for morality in the mass media (motion pictures, television, pornography), law observance and crime prevention, and the campaign against twin-trailer trucks.

on all these, and other, club still in business. projects.

million by a bookstore. Members of the Saginaw munities.

Junior Woman's Club became exercised over the books for sale over the books for sale at a Saginaw bookstore. Individually, they and other concerned citizens bought books they considered obscene, took them to the police station and asked for the arrest of the person sell-

Michigan has a state law against pornography, and Saginaw has a city ordinance against sale of pornography to those under 18.

There have been eight arrests, four of which have been bound over to the circuit court for trial. There the matter stands at the moment, with the addition of the suit brought in the spring by the store against the club, individual members of the club, the husband of one member, the district attorney and the chief of police.

Mrs. McCaslin doesn't know how it will end. Three lawyers are representing the Progress reports were made defenders, and the store is

She feels, however, that they have made their com-The report with the biggest they have made then the ang was the with the biggest munity aware of the munity aware of and Ang was that of Mrs. James pornography situation, and McCaslin of Saginaw, Mich. she thinks their experiences der club, and some in- have probably interested viduals, are being sued for other women to make an active protest in their own com-

tion." expressed the belief that the GFWC's opposition to bigger trucks on the highways is having an effect. "We're campaigning for highway safety when we oppose bigger trucks, and we intend to keep the momentum going until we defeat the proposal now before Congress," she said. Mrs. Magee was

Mrs. Magee, in her report on the "State of the Federa-roads of the House Public Works Committee. The directors' meeting will adjourn Wednesday after more reports and executive sessions. Members will stage a mini-Olympics sports competition in the afternoon, and awards for the winners will be presented at a closing banquet Wednesday night.

asked to testify at a hearing before the subcommittee on

Hats by Balloon

Hats came to Mrs. Walter Varney Magee by balloon at the annual meeting of the board of directors of the General Federation of Women's Clubs. The lighter-thanair delivery was the federation's answer to a snide remark by a trucking executive.

The federation, of which Mrs. Magee is president, is fighting bigger trucks on the highways. The trucker remarked that the women must be expecting to get their new hats by balloon. So they proved they could.

PROGRAM - 10:30 A.M.

Mrs. Charles T. Southern, Jr., Presiding

Call to Order

Devotional
Pledge of AllegianceMrs. J. F. Redman
Federation Song Led by Mrs. Owen L. Burks
Welcome
Response To WelcomeMrs. L. Clayton Caldwell, Jr.
Special Music
Credentials ReportMrs. Cleveland Bowser, III
Treasurer's Report
Election of District Member for State Nominating Committee Nominating CommitteeMrs. Henry Wood, Chairman Mrs. A. E. Roscoe, Miss Patricia Coon
Introductions of Special Guests
Mrs. James B. Roberts, First Vice-PresidentVirginia Federation of Women's Clubs Subject
Mrs. James C. Helton, Third Vice-PresidentVirginia Federation of Women's Clubs Subject"It's Up To You"
Time and Place

Announcements	M	rs. T.	E.	Leinhardt
---------------	---	--------	----	-----------

Lunch Recess Luncheon 12:30 P.M.

Invocation	lett, Jr.
Introduction of Guests
AnnouncementsState, District Chairmen and Club Pre	sidents
Report of Credential Chairman	Bowser
Collect
Adjournment

ARRANGEMENTS COMMITTEE

Senior RegistrationMrs. Ray Tipsword
Junior Registration
Posters and Name TagsMrs. D. T. Mook Flowers
CorsagesMrs. M. B. Blair
Dinner
Publicity
LuncheonMrs. H. W. Swink
FavorsMrs. J. M. Crismond
Pages
Coffee Mrs. T. M. Starling

Linda Dillow Camp Easter Seal 1969

VFWC Meets in Roanoke

About 250 members of the Blue Ridge District, Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs (VFWC), attended the organization's annual spring meet-ing Saturday at Raleigh Court United Methodist Church in Roanoke.

The program included an arts and crafts show and lit-erary contest. District officers erary contest. District officers for 1970-71 were elected. First place winners in art, judged by John Will Creasy, were Mrs. Edward Stinson and Mrs. Elizabeth Drum-mond, Brambleton J u n i o r Women's Club; Mrs. Robert E. Jenkins and Mrs. T. James Goode, Salem Junior Wom-an's Club; Mrs. Robert Vann, Junior Woman's Club of Roa-noke; Mrs. Raymond Sink, K a t h r y n Kesler and Lottie Davis, R o k e v a Woman's Club; Mrs. Charls Beck, Bent Mountain; Mrs. Milton Hun-dley, Rocky Mount Junior Woman's Club, and Mrs. T. E. Roberts, Woman's Club of Booneke Roanoke.

Roanoke. Photography winners were Mrs. David Corey, Blacksburg Woman's Club, and Mrs. J. M. Hamil, Salem Junior Woman's Club. Miss Maria Spangler, a stu-dent at Glenvar High School, won the Hallmark art contest.

dent at thenval mgn School, won the Hallmark art contest.
She was sponsored by the Woman's Club of Roanoke.
Blue ribbons in crafts went to Mrs. Tiny Mewborn, Mrs.
Tom Abbott, Mrs. A. E. Roscoe and Mrs. John Leckrone, Roanoke; Mrs. Richard Rader, Mrs. Garland Life and Judy Angle, V alle y Junior Woman's Club; Mrs. Doris E. Hurd, Mrs. Emmett Lindsey, Mrs. Alburn Cole and Mrs. Doris Dunn, Rokeva; Mrs. E 1 i z a b e t h Noel and Mrs. Turner Hopkins, Bedford Junior Woman's Club.
Other craft winners wre Julia Webb, Christiansburg Junior Woman's Club; Margaret Woman's Club, Margaret Woman's Club.

ior Woman's Club; Margaret Turner, Salem Woman's Club; Rachel G i 11, Christiansburg Woman's Club; Mrs. Dale Elliott, Brambleton Junior Woman's Club; Mrs. W. M. Parker, Williamson Road Woman's Club; Mrs. T. Cooper Via, Blacksburg Junior Woman's Club; Mrs. Hugh E. Roberts, Salem Junior Wom-an's Club; Patricia B. Coon, Botetourt County Woman's Club; Arlyce Maycock, Roa-noke County Junior Woman's Club; Mrs. Henry L. Wood, Blacksburg Woman's Club; and Mrs. Frank Hurt, Rocky Mount Woman's Club.

Judges for the craft show were Mrs. R. K. Hubbard, Mrs. R i c h a r d J. Norcross, Mrs. S. F. Hollingsworth and Mrs. Otey Warren, Literary contest winners were Mrs. Donald K. Dooley, Mrs. Lames F. Johnson and Literary contest winners were Mrs. Donald K. Dooley, Mrs. James E. Johnson and Mrs. George A. Willis, Bed-ford Junior Woman's Club; Mrs. James Morris, Radford Woman's Club; Mrs. Bess Lu-cas Koontz, Botetourt County. Also Mrs. A. F. Young, Mrs. Thomas Abbott, Mrs. John S. Felton and Mrs. P.G. Stultz, Roanoke; Miss Nancy Carr Harrison, Miss Kathryn Kesler, Mrs. J. R. Kilian and Miss Mamie Preston, Rokeva. Judges for the literary con-test were George Kegley and Richard I. Broughton. New district officers are Mrs. J. F. Redmon, Henry County, president; Mrs. A. E. Roscoe, Roanoke, first vice president: Mrs. Warren Line-berry, Floyd County, second vice president; Mrs. Richard Graybill, Botetourt C o u n t y, secretary, and Mrs. Eugene Gove, Blacksburg Intermedi-ate Woman's Club, treasurer.

THE ROANOKE TIMES, Monday, March 16, 1970.

Parade July 4 - 1969 First Prize

BLUE RIDGE DISTRICT

VIRGINIA

FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS

RALEIGH COURT UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

March 14, 1970

V. F. W. C. OFFICERS

President	Mrs. Charles H. Perry, III
First Vice-President	Mrs. James B. Roberts
Second Vice-President	Mrs. Norman L. Brown
Secretary	Mrs. Roy L. Webber
Treasurer	Mrs. R. B. Wayland

BLUE RIDGE DISTRICT OFFICERS

President	. Mrs. Charles T. Southern, Jr.
First Vice-President	Mrs. A. E. Roscoe
Second Vice-President	Mrs. J. F. Redman
Third Vice-President	Mrs Leslie W Hamlett, Jr.
Treasurer	Mrs. Howard A. Bruce
Parliamentarian	Mrs. Roy L. Webber

DISTRICT JUNIOR OFFICERS

Junior Director	. Mrs. Leslie W. Hamlett, Jr.
Assistant Junior Director	Mrs. A. L. Eller
Secretary-Treasurer	Mrs. L. Clayton Caldwell, Jr.

HOSTESS CLUB PRESIDENTS

Rokeva Woman's Club Mrs. W. Harold Gregory Brambleton Junior Woman's Club. Mrs. Robert E. Nunnally, Jr.

LUNCHEON - 12:30 P.M.

PROGRAM	_	10:30	A.M.
1 ICO OIUIIM		10.00	11.111

Call to Order Mrs. Charles T. Southern, Jr., Pres.
Pledge of Allegiance Mrs. A. E. Roscoe
Collect Mrs. J. F. Redman
Devotional Rev. Richard M. Robertson
Pastor, Raleigh Court United Methodist Church
Federation Song Mrs. Frank Johnson, Leader Mrs. George E. Scruggs, Accompanist
Welcome Mrs. W. Harold Gregory, President Rokeva Woman's Club
Response Mrs. E. Durward Starkey
Special Music Mrs. George E. Scruggs
 Moods Polka in D Flat Mountain Zephyrs
Lopinyis
Invitation Mr. Bohert Cooper

Representative First National Exchange Bank
Introduction Mrs. A. E. Roscoe
Credentials Report Mrs. Cleveland Bowser, III
Treasurer's Report Mrs. H. A. Bruce
Reports
Roll Call and Recognization of Club Presidents
Election of District Officers
Announcements Mrs. W. Harold Gregory
Adjournment for Lunch

Invocation	Mrs. Hamlett
Introduction of Guests and Officers
Awards Presentations
Crafts	Mrs. John E. Tilden
Fine Arts	Mrs. John S. Felton
Poetry, Literature & Drama	Mrs. John Kilian
State and District Chairman Reports
Announcements
Final Credentials Report	Mrs. Bowser
Installation of Officers	Mrs. Roy L. Webber
Adjournment

ARRANGEMENTS COMMITTEE CHAIRMEN

General Chairman	Mrs. W. Harold Gregory
Poster & Name Tags	Miss Kathryn Kesler
Flowers	Mrs Emmett W. Lindsey
Luncheon	Ladies of Carrie Lee Chap. O.E.S.
Publicity	Mrs. Rachel Burritt
Favor & Door Prizes	Mrs. Richard Eakin
Hostesses & Pages	Mrs. Henry Faery
State Arrangements	Mrs. Henry A. Davis
Tickets	Mrs. V. Edwards
Reservations	Miss Rachel Gettle Mrs. A. J. Waldis
Musie	Mrs. George E. Scruggs

VIRGINIA STATE FEDERATION SONG

Come from sea and plain and mountain Kindred are we, Fair Virginia's loyal daughters Blest may we be. Come with thoughts with love o'erflowing, Willing hands and spirits glowing, And with joy that passes knowing, Each friend to see! Shine our spirit of devotion, In this world of need; Hand in hand, a band of women, Onward we lead, Formed are we, a federation, For the home, and state and nation, Mother heart for all creation, True in word and deed.

True in word and deed.

May sweet fellowship attend us! All through each day Zeal inspire and faith defend us, Thus do we pray.

Let us see a wrong to right it, Let us evil know to fight it, Where the path is dark, God light it With brightest ray.

PLEDGE TO THE FLAG

I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

COLLECT FOR CLUB WOMEN

Keep us, O God, from pettiness; let us be large in thought, in word, in deed.

Let us be done with fault-finding and leave off self-seeking.

May we put away all pretense and meet each other face to face, without self-pity and without prejudice.

May we never be hasty in judgment and always generous.

Let us take time for all things, make us to grow calm, serene, gentle.

Teach us to put into action our better impulses, straight forward and unafraid.

Grant that we may realize that it is the little things that create differences, that in the big things of life we are at one.

And may we strive to touch and to know the great common human heart of us all, and, oh Lord God, let us forget not to be kind!

-Mary Stewart.

Club

Meetings

Square Dancing June

Mr. Santas (Spain) May

Delegate Ray L. Garland October

The Rex. W. P. Watkins, Jr. December

Mrs. Ellie Morton March

Roanoke World-News, Friday, February 20, 1970

Fleming Biology Teacher Named State's Best

By Mary B. Armistead

Ruth B. Painter, a William Fleming High School teacher for 25 years, has been named outstanding biology teacher in the state by the Virginia Com-mittee of the National Association of Biology Teachers.

A certificate is coming her way later from Franklin D. Kizer, supervisor of science in the State Department of Education, and while the veteran instructor thinks her selection "a distinct honor," she wants a microscope of her very own more.

So one is coming from the American Optical Co. in rec-ognition of her new honor. Mrs. Painter wants to do private research in spirogyra, "looking like hair on rocks or in horse troughs." She is in-terested in probing its conju-gation: "at certain times of the year and at a certain tem-perature, two strands come together and form zoo spores which live in the mud during the winter."

She said the temperature at which this phenomenon occurs hasn't been established to her knowledge, so she'll turn a downstairs den at her home into "the beginnings of a lab" and set off after algae on creek banks and in horse traught troughs.

The teacher, instrumental in setting up the first science fair programs in Roanoke schools, has seen many of her students win honors in local, regional and national competitions

She has been director of the Western Virginia Regional Science Fair since 1960 and cited for outstanding service in the development of young scientists.

The first "outstanding teacher" award from the Ro-"outstanding anoke Chamber of Commerce was given her in 1961 and that year, too, she was named to the 21-member Science Fair Council that sets policies for national competition.

Her instruction at Fleming stresses the ecological side of biology, she said today. She is involving her students in the interrelation of plants, ani-mals and inorganic things while also studying soil, water and air.

"We're hitting hard at pol-lution," she remarked. "These students will be the ones to suffer later unless something is done. We're right at the grass roots when we're setting up experiments here that show contamination and pollution."

Mrs. Painter majored in Mrs. Painter majored in English, history and education at Radford College, but mi-nored in biology, which inter-ested her first in high school, and continued its study in courses at Madison and Roanoke colleges and the Univer-sity of Virginia.

She is a member of Delta Kappa Gamma, honorary so-ciety for women educators; the International Science Fair Council; and has held offices in professional, scientific and educational organizations from the local to international level.

The Roanoker was chosen for the award by a committee including a research scientist, a college professor and a former recipient.

Mrs. Painter helps Jay Noble, Renee Morgan with project

Roanoke World-News, Wednesday, March 4, 1970 14

By Mary Bland Armistead World-News Women's Editor Mrs. James B. Roberts, nominee for the presidency of the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs (VFWC), says she's a frustrated social worker who has found an outlet in club work. Her visions of "a great career as a psychiatric social worker" became a mere cas-tle in the air housed in a small apartment while her husband, acquired in 1947, did advance study in business ad-ministration and she became un Ch ministration, and she became a teacher. Mrs. Roberts, the former Phyllis Vreeland, daughter of an army officer and Phi Beta

Ka ve

in

Ar

na

in g b

to jo Ci th C:

sh

pc fe pi MOB

PENNCRAFT[®] PO SAVE $7

Your Choice: Reg. 36.99, Now

leming High School teacher for 25 years, has been named outstanding biology teacher in the state by the Virginia Committee of the National Association of Biology Teachers.

A certificate is coming her way later from Franklin D. Kizer, supervisor of science in the State Department of Education, and while the veteran instructor thinks her selection "a distinct honor," she wants a microscope of her very own more.

So one is coming from the American Optical Co. in recognition of her new honor.

Mrs. Painter wants to do private research in spirogyra, greenish thread-like algae looking like hair on rocks or in horse troughs." She is interested in probing its conjugation: "at certain times of the year and at a certain temperature, two strands come together and form zoo spores which live in the mud during the winter.

She said the temperature at which this phenomenon occurs hasn't been established to her knowledge, so she'll turn a downstairs den at her home into "the beginnings of a lab" and set off after algae on creek banks and in horse troughs.

The teacher, instrumental in setting up the first science fair programs in Roanoke schools, has seen many of her students win honors in local. regional and national competitions

She has been director of the Western Virginia Regional mer recipient.

scientists The first "outstanding teacher" award from the Roanoke Chamber of Commerce was given her in 1961 and that year, too, she was named to the 21-member Science Fair Council that sets policies for national competition. Her instruction at Fleming stresses the ecological side of biology, she said today. She is involving her students in the interrelation of plants, animals and inorganic things while also studying soil, water and air.

"We're hitting hard at pollution," she remarked. "These students will be the ones to suffer later unless something is done. We're right at the grass roots when we're setting up experiments here that show contamination and pollution."

Mrs. Painter majored in English, history and education at Radford College, but minored in biology, which inter-ested her first in high school, and continued its study in courses at Madison and Roanoke colleges and the University of Virginia.

She is a member of Delta Kappa Gamma, honorary society for women educators; the International Science Fair Council; and has held offices in professional, scientific and educational organizations from the local to international level.

The Roanoker was chosen for the award by a committee including a research scientist, a college professor and a for-

Mrs. Painter helps Jay Noble, Renee Morgan with project

Roanoke World-News, Wednesday, March 4, 1970 14

Federation Faithfuls Up For Election In May

study of causes of environmental pollution and what

Mrs. Roberts feels the state

She cites some of its accomfederation is a very important organization, involved in many

they can do about it."

By Mary Bland Armistead World-News Women's Editor

Mrs. James B. Roberts, nominee for the presidency of the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs (VFWC), says she's a frustrated social worker who has found an outlet in club work.

Her visions of "a great ca- an army officer and Phi Beta reer as a psychiatric social Kappa graduate of the Unitle in the air housed in a small apartment while her husband, acquired in 1947, did advance study in business administration, and she became a teacher. Mrs. Roberts, the former Phyllis Vreeland, daughter of worker" became a mere cas- versity of North Carolina, is unopposed to succeed Mrs. Charles H. Peery III of Tazewell as federation president.

Elections will be May 1 during the VFWC convention in Arlington.

The young North Carolina native is undismayed at leading "24,000 very talented and creative club women in Vir-ginia." She's been part of what they can do when they band together" since moving to Fairfax when her husband joined the U.S. Office of Education as executive director of the Eureau of Adult and Vocational Education.

"You become so attached," she said at her home this week, "You find so much opportunity for service in the federation, I feel becoming its president is the culmination of all the hard work you've persons mentally ill." She would encourage them too "to done.' be much more involved in the

Presidential Candidate Would Aid Mentally Ill

She is first vice president of the organization now, having served as second vice president, chairman of the education department and president of he Northern District in addition to giving many hours of solid work as "just a plain club member."

significant programs for ad-vancement of the general wel-In her coming administrafare. tion, she hopes to see Virginia plishments: work with the Virginia Museum on the Artwomen "become even more responsive to the needs of mobile project; providing seed money for a Maxitron, the state's first cancer treat-ment machine; work now for Clinac 6, a medical linear ac-clierator for use in the radia-tion treatment of cancer tion treatment of cancer. There have been so many fine projects founded in the fine projects founded in the federation," she says, "how federation, she says, now could anyone select the most outstanding?" She indicates her presidency will see the continuance of work with criplec and emotionally disturbed children, and support of Camp Easter Seal.

The Roberts family lives in the Pine Ridge section of Fairfax in a three-floor Cape Cod ("and all floors are used") on an acre and a half of yard "so we'll have space and yelling room."

There are three children, three cats, three dogs and a horse, and Mrs. Roberts faces the marriage of oldest daugh- a student at George Mason school.

Mrs. James B. Roberts

ter Cameron later this month College. Another daughter, before she can settle to club doings again. Cameron (Cam) is 18 and

Laurie, is 16 and attends junior high school; 10-yearold Benton is in elementary

VFWC To Debete Resolutions

RICHMOND - Delegates to the 63rd annual convention of the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs will consider a number of resolutions during the three day session Wednesday through Friday. The convention will be at The Marriott, Twin Bridges, Arlington.

Resolutions adopted by the Federation become part of the general policy and continue in effect until the purpose of the resolution has been accom-plished or the resolution res-cinded. Resolutions presented to the delegates are always to the delegates are always statewide in scope. The Vir-ginia Federation also considers as part of its policy, reso-lutions adopted by the Gener-al Federation of W o m e n 's Chibs.

The convention will consider a broad resolution on drug abuse. This resolution calls for: the federated clubs to undertake community programs of education concerning drug abuse and an amendment to the Virginia Drug Control Act to include hallucinogens and other mind altering drugs; urges stronger laws to eliminate distribution of non-narcotic drugs and urges the gov-ernor and General Assembly to establish a state study to determine the feasibility of developing a state drug treat-ment and rehabilitation pro-gram gram. A coordinated health system A coordinated health system in Virginia is the subject of a n ot h e r resolution, which calls upon clubs to study the Virginia Comprehensive Health Planning Program and support public and private projects and services that lead to coordinated health services in local areas.

Virginia club women will be asked to support the effort to establish a State Museum of Science.

The Resolutions Committee will recommend the adoption of a resolution concerning juvenile delinquency. A report of the State Board of the Department of Welfare and In-stitutions, "Services in the 70's to Virginia's Delinquent Chil-dren and Their Families," is the subject of the proposed upped to the proposed resolution.

THE ROANOKE TIMES, Tuesday, April 28, 1970.

DEDICATED TO THE MEMORY OF MRS. C. M. PAINTER

We think of Mildred first and always as a friendly person. She spent her life helping others teaching and loving children and as a dedicated and cheerful worker for her Club. She was a Founder and a Charter member of the Williamson Road Woman's Club. We shall ever be grateful for the years of knowing her and working with her.

..........

Yearbook Dedication 1969-70

Brambleton Juniors Win Award

ARLINGTON (AP) -The Brambleton Junior Woman's Club of Roanoke took a top prize for community improvement Wednesday night as the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs opened its annual convention here. First prize storing historical landmarks went to the Ashland Junior Woman's Club.

The community improvement awards were the first among many to be announced during the three-day conven-tion at the Mariott Twin Bridges Motor Motel. Most will be handed out Thursday, "Awards Day" at the meeting. The Ashland Junior Woman's Club was cited by the VFWC for purchasing and refor a community center and for sponsoring a multifaceted program of cultural and educational projects.

The Brambleton Junior Woman's Club of Roanoke won second place in the community improvement competi-tion for setting up and provid-ing volunteers for a program of tests of infant hearing at a Roanoke hospital.

Third place went to the Thomas Jefferson Junior

Woman's Club of Richmond, fourth to the Vienna Woman's Club and fifth to the Portsmouth Woman's Club.

Mrs. Earle A. Brown, president-elect of the General Federation of Woman's Clubs, was to speak at the banquet climaxing the convention's opening day Wednesday night. Between 400 and 500 delegates are attending the convention. The first general ses-sion was Wednesday afternoon

THE ROANOKE TIMES, Thursday, April 30, 1970.

Winning Project

Mrs. Robert Grav Jr., left, demonstrates use of a Rudmose Warblet Infant Audiometer on newborn child at Roamoke Memorial Hospital. She is a member of the Brambleton Junior Woman's Club which inaugurated the hearing test program, the first in the state, in 1968. It has been expanded to the Community Hospital also and this week was second place in the Vir-ginia Federation of Woman's Clubs community improvement contest.

Mrs. Robert Nunnally, club president, received the award at the federation's convention in Arlington last night.

EXECUTIVE BOARD President - Mrs. R. W. Boyd 1st. Vice Pres. - Mrs. G. W. DeMott 2nd. Vice Pres. - Mrs. F. E. Painter 3rd. Vice Pres. - Mrs. J. C. Hurd Recording Sec. - Mrs. J. H. Root Corresp. Sec. - Mrs. T. H. Dove Treasurer - Mrs. D. H. Nicely Parliamentarian - Mrs. R. J. Barger Historian 45 J. H. Durham Chaplain - Mrs. R. N. McFarland, Sr. Junior Pres. - Mrs. Charles Poff Contact Ch. - Mrs. J. C. Hurd Directors: Mrs. R. J. Barger Mrs. D. L. Buckingham Mrs. J. T. Taylor Mrs. C. I. Sigmon Mrs. R. N. McFarland, Sr. Mrs. J. Clay Hurd

1969- 1970

CARE PRESENTS THIS Signs of Crisis' Citation 66

to WILLIAMSON WOMAN'S CLUB

For 100% Participation in the

GFWC-CARE Food Production Program · 1968-1970

Haved Mine Trank I hoffis

President

426

Executive Director

AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY

VIRGINIA DIVISION, INC.

SN APPRECIATION OF CONTINUING SUPPORT OF THE PROGRAM OF THE AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY AND IN RECOGNITION OF NOTABLE ACHIEVEMENT IN THE CONQUER UTERINE CANCER PROJECT IN WHICH _75_ PER CENT OF ITS MEMBERSHIP PARTICIPATED

WILLIAMSON ROAD WOMAN'S CLUB

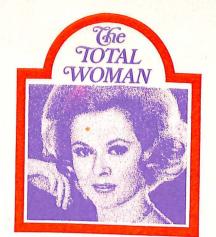

IS HEREBY AWARDED THIS EXPRESSION OF OUR GRATITUDE

President Loyd B Buch

1969-70

Finance Forum

Hotel Roanoke

Our Changing Times

1970

TRUST IN THE FUTURE

1971 there that where the

A FORUM PRESENTED BY THE BLUE RIDGE DISTRICT VIRGINIA FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS IN COOPERATION WITH

FIRST NATIONAL EXCHANGE BANK

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 23, 1969

HOTEL ROANOKE

MRS. ALBERT E. ROSCOE CHAIRMAN, FAMILY FINANCE DIVISION BLUE RIDGE DISTRICT VIRGINIA FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS

 $\Sigma \subset$

PROGRAM

10:00 A.M.	COFFEE	Shenandoah Room
10:30 A.M.	THE TOTAL WOMAN Presiding, Mrs. Leslie W. District Junior Director	Hamlett, Jr.
	Moderator, H. Clay Fergu Assistant Vice Presiden
	The Total Woman Knows Donald P. Palmer, Ass and Trust Officer, FNE	sistant Vice President
	The Total Woman Know Walter M. Dixon, Jr.,
	The Total Woman Knows Joe B. Eanes, Assistant
	Questions and Answers
12 NOON	LUNCHEON Presiding, Mrs. Charles S District President Invocation, Mrs. Roger L First Vice President Introduction of Program, Executive Vice Presiden The Total Woman, Miss	Smith Mr. Byron Hicks t, FNEB

Our Changing Times

TRUST IN THE FUTURE

Finance Forum

Hotel Roanoke

Our Changing Times

YOU ARE INVITED TO A FORUM AND LUNCHEON PRESENTED BY THE BLUE RIDGE DISTRICT VIRGINIA FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS IN COOPERATION WITH FIRST NATIONAL EXCHANGE BANK THURSDAY, APRIL 23, 1970 HOTEL ROANOKE

10:00 A. M.	COFFEE	Shenandoah Room
10:30 A. M.	MORNING SESSION	Shenandoah Room
	Presiding, Mrs. Leslie W. District Junior Director Making the Most of Your Ann Vaughn, Virginia Fad vs. Fashion and How Kathy Thornton, WDI How to Manage Your Mo Warner N. Dalhouse, S FNEB	or Food Dollar Dairy Council to Tell the Difference BJ-TV oney With a Credit Card
12 NOON	LUNCHEON Presiding, Mrs. Charles T. District President	Crystal Ballroom . Southern, Jr.
	Program: "You - In Our up-to-the minute look at consumer, with tips and By Robert W. Harvey, Ec and authoritative Kipling "Changing Times."	your problems as a money-saving ideas. litor of the popular
$1.50 for ea	GISTER: Return the attached for a friend if you like. Th ch luncheon ticket, which y ssk on Thursday, April 23.	ere will be a charge of

1969

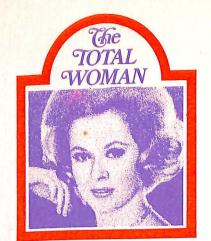

Mrs. Albert E. Roscoe, Finance Chairman

1971

X

Finance Forum

Hotel Roanoke

YOU ARE INVITED TO A FORUM AND LUNCHEON PRESENTED BY THE BLUE RIDGE DISTRICT VIRGINIA FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS IN COOPERATION WITH FIRST NATIONAL EXCHANGE BANK THURSDAY, APRIL 15, 1971 HOTEL ROANOKE

1970

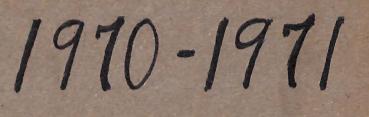

10:00 A. M.	COFFEE	Shenandoah Room
10:30 A. M.	MORNING SESSION	Shenandoah Room
	Presiding, Mrs. E. Duwa District Junio
	"Where There's a Will, T James W. Harkness, Tru
	"Feminine Focus on Li	fe Insurance''
	Marvin A. Kobel, CLU	3141 1
	Director of Public Relat
	The National Associatio	n of Life Underwriters
12 NOON	LUNCHEON	Crystal Ballroom
	Presiding, Mrs. J. F. Red District Presid
	Program: The Overtone	s, a group of six women who will sing m	edleys of show-tunes and light, popular vocal numbers with special arrangements by
	Mrs. Helen F. Robertson	n
HOW TO REGISTER: Return the attached card immediately may register for a friend if you like. There will be a cha $2.50 for each luncheon ticket, which will be available registration desk on Thursday, April 15.		ere will be a charge of

1971

1969

Mrs. John F. Edmunds, Finance Chairman

EXECUTIVE BOARD

President	Maa DI Dais
	- Mrs. D.L.Buckingham
	-Miss Sylvia Haislip 🧃
2nd V- Pres	- Mrs. R. W. Boyd
3rd V-Pres	-
Rec. Sec'y	- Mrs. J. G. Willhide
Corresp. Sec'y	- Mrs. F. E. Painter
Treasurer	- Mrs. S. H. Jarrett
Parliamentarian	- Mrs. J. T. Taylor
Historian .	- Mrs. J. H. Durham
Chaplain .	- Mrs. M. H. Stiff, Jr.
Junior Pres.	- Mrs. George Reimer
Cont. Chairman	- Mrs. J. C. Hurd
Directors: Mrs.	R. J. Baroer
	D. L. Buckingham
	C. I. Sigmon
	J. T. Taylor
	R. N. McFarland, Sr.
Mrs.	J. Clay Hurd
	R. W. Boyd

DEPARTMENT CHAIRMAN

Fine Arts	Mrs.	J.G. E	ller (
Home Life		J.Clay
Public & Internati	onal	······
Affairs	Mrs. J.	G. Wil	lhide

Annual Dinner April 2 1970

0

WILLIAMSON ROAD WOMAN'S CLUB

ANNUAL DINNER

6:30 p.m.

Thursday, April 2, 1970

Traveltown Restuarant

1952-1970

* *

MOTTO

"If you have faith as a grain of mustard seed nothing shall be impossible unto you."

Matt. 17:20

PROGRAM

Welcome Blessing - Chaplain D-I-N-N-E-R Introduction of Guests Recognize New Members Attendance Trophy Honors: Charter Members & Founders Past Presidents Minutes Old Business Reports: Spring District Meeting Treasurer Historian President Installation of Officers Mrs. Clarke Presentation of Gavel D. Johnston New Business Announcements Adjourn

OFFICERS 1970-71

President - Mrs. D. L. Buckingham lst Vice Pres. - Miss Sylvia Haislip 2nd Vice Pres. - Mrs. R. W. Boyd 3rd Vice Pres. -Mrs. Jones L. Hedrick Recording Secretary -Mrs. James G. Willhide Corresponding Secretary -Mrs. Frank E. Painter Treasurer - Mrs. S. H. Jarrett Parliamentarian - Mrs. J. T. Taylor Historian - Mrs. J. H. Durham ^{Chaplain} - Mrs. M. H. Stiff, Jr.

MRS. JAMES B. ROBERTS President, VFWC

New VFWC President

podium Friday as the president of the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs. She was elected at the annual meeting of the group

Mrs. James B. Roberts of Fairfax takes the in Arlington. The outgoing president, Mrs. Charles H. Peery III of Tazewell, smiles her approval.

Mrs. Earle A. Brown President, GFWC

THE TIMES Saturday, May 2, 1970.

Roanoker Gets State Office

Mrs. E. Duward Starkey of the Valley Junior Woman's Club was installed as third vice-president and junior di-rector of the Blue Ridge District during the recent con-vention of the Virginia Feder-ation of W o m e n's Clubs, (VFWC) at Arlington.

Mrs. Cleveland Bowser III has been selected as district health chairman, and Mrs. Charles Poff is a member of the staff VFWC junior courtesy committee.

Also attending the conven-tion from that club were Mrs.

Barry Ward, Mrs. Jerry Hayes and Mrs. George Reimer.

Dear Fellow Club Members of Virginia: For the past 80 years the General

Federation of Women's Clubs has worked to enrich our way of life. In 1970-72 our emphasis will be a BETTER ENVIRON-MENT. This will include not merely the physical aspects but also the social and human conditions as well.

Many have hailed this as "The issue of the Seventies." It is a subject which will require facts and study. Much material is available in all current publications and the subject in its many phases can be overwhelming.

Through our six departments we shall try to accomplish projects within our sphere of influence. It has been pointed out again and again that environment is the concern and problem of everyone and that each citizen must be willing to work and to pay the price to find the solution.

It is the giant jig-saw puzzle of today. Each club and each clubwoman is a necessary piece in restoring the whole.

Your indirect contribution can be as limited as the salvaging of the litter in your own backyard or crusading to clean the air and the water of your own community – or pressing for laws to insure your survival, including your willingness to accept the cost.

We realize that in two short years even the 11 million members of the General Federation of Women's Clubs cannot make our world perfect, but our desire is to do our utmost in establishing A BETTER ENVIRONMENT.

> Sincerely yours, Louise Brown (Mrs. Earle A. Brown) President

Roanoke World-News, Wednesday, May 6, 1970

Linda Brown Camp Easter Seal 1970 VIRGINIA FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS

T PROCINAN. CH. - C

antheragy

BOARD OF DIRECTORS MEETING

- REFERENCE AND A DEPENDENCE IN CONTRACTOR

THEME "RIGHT MAKES MIGHT"

DINNER

- Artmobile - Mrs. S. J. Whitehouse

THE GOLDEN TRIANGLE BALLROOM

PROGRAM	CREDITS
Mrs. James B. Roberts, President,VFWC, Presiding	I would like to thank all the Pen- insula Federation of Women's Clubs
INVOCATION - Mrs. Charles W. Scott PRESENTATION OF GUESTS	for their untiring efforts in helping me with tonight's Banquet. Mrs. Catherine Carmines Chairman of Dinner
PRESENTATION OF ARRANGEMENTS	Arrangements COVERS - Williamsburg Woman's Club
COMMITTEES AND ANNOUNCEMENTS - Mrs. C. E. Upton	PROGRAM AND MENU - Northampton Woman's Club DOOR PRIZES - Fox Hill Woman's Club PLACE CARDS -East Hampton Woman's Club
BRIEF REPORTS -	HOSTESSES -Colonial Place Woman's Club Cavalier Woman's Club
Resolutions - Mrs. A. Paul Hartz Revisions - Mrs. W. S. Murray Public Relations - Mrs. R. L. Smith Artmobile - Mrs. E. L. Whitehouse	FLOWERS -Woman's Club of Newport News COORDINATOR - Woman's Club of Hampton TABLE CENTERPIECES - Poquoson Woman's Club Buckroe Woman's Club
MUSIC - Mrs. P. E. Heath, Jr.	Seaford Woman's Club Cove View Woman's Club
SPECIAL PROGRAM - Written by: Mrs. R. D. Whitlock Mrs. C. W. Moore	Yorktown Woman's Club FAVORS - Denbigh Woman's Club Wythe Woman's Club Stoneybrook Woman's Club Woman's Club of Phoebus Woman's Club of Warwick

MENU

Fresh Grapefruit and Orange Sections Jamacia

> Breast of Chicken over Smithfield Ham

Green Beans Amandine Rissole Potatoes Hearts of Lettuce

Rolls Butter

Coffee

6.5

or

Tea

Assorted Tarts with Cream

toksk skoks

girl Certificate f Appreciation PRESENTED TO Williamson Ro Woman's Club FOR CONTRIBUTING PARTICIPATION IN THE CITIZENSHIP TRAINING PROGRAM, GIRLS STATE SPONSORED ANNUALLY BY THE American Legion Auxiliary Koanake Unit 3 Unit Name and Number Hulda Penn Callaway Mrs. Shilip R. alon Unit Chairman, Girls State J Unit President

BLUE RIDGE DISTRICT

VIRGINIA

FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS

UNITED THRASHER MEMORIAL METHODIST CHURCH VINTON, VIRGINIA

OCTOBER 8, 1970

V. F. W. C. OFFICERS

Mrs. James B. Roberts, President	Fairfax
Mrs. Norman L. Brown, First Vice-President	Hampton
Mrs. Daniel S. Spiers, Second Vice-President.	Richmond
Mrs. J. Darrell Rice, Third Vice-President	Petersburg
Mrs. Charles W. Scott, Secretary	Farmville
Mrs. Walter L. Thomas, Treasurer	Newport News

BLUE RIDGE DISTRICT OFFICERS

Mrs. Jimmy F. Redman, President	Martinsville
Mrs. A. E. Roscoe, First Vice-President	Roanoke
Mrs. Warren Lineberry, Second Vice-President	Floyd
Mrs. E. Duward Starkey, Third Vice-President	Roanoke
Mrs. R. A. Graybill, Secretary	Troutville
Mrs. Eugene Grove, Treasurer	Blacksburg

JUNIOR OFFICERS

Mrs. E. Duward Starkey, Ju	unior Director	Roanoke
Mrs. Charles Friedman, As	sistant Junior Director	Blacksburg
Mrs. James E. Johnson, Jr.,	Secretary-Treasurer	Bedford

HOSTESS CLUB PRESIDENTS

Mrs. Clarence LaPradeRock	y Mount Woman's Club
Mrs. M. B. Ballantine	Vinton Woman's Club

ARRANGEMENTS CHAIRMAN

Mrs. R. V. Roe......Vinton

VFWC District To Meet in Vinton

The Blue Ridge District of the Virginia Federation of Women's Clobs (VFWC) is meeting today at Thrasher Memorial Methodist Church in Vinton. Mrs. Jimmy F. rell Rice of Petersburg, third Redman of Martinsville, dis-trict president, will preside. rector. rell Rice of Petersburg, third

District Meeting Vinton - October 8-1970

Speaker Urges Simple Alternatives To Curb Pollution

a Federation of Women's Clubs has called on members to throw away their electric can openers and electric toothbrushes.

"Go back to the old kind to save electricity," Mrs. James B. Roberts said in Vinton yes-terday at a meeting of the Blue Ridge District, Virginia Federation of Women's Club. Some 250 women attended the Some 250 women attended the gathering at Thrasher Memo-rial United Methodist Church.

Mrs. Roberts, in a talk ti-tled "Beauty and the Beast," urged clubwomen—as a group and as individuals—to fight pollution. She asked them to look for ways to save re-sources, things such as turn-ing off the faucet when brushing teeth instead of letting the

The president of the Virgin- water run, and shunning col- would choose to use the reored tissue paper because the dyes don't dissolve in water. "A lot of this

> She suggested that golfers walk instead of riding gasoline driven carts.

Mrs. Roberts pointed out that there are detergent prod-ucts, for instance, which should be considered for use because they are low in phosphates. She cited Trend, Ivory and Whisk in the "low" category and said they were much lower than the more popular lower than "the more popular Dash.

The Fairfax resident also reported that the some $2.5 million spent on cleaning up throwaway bottles could be funneled into research on solutions to pollution if women

"A lot of things are being done to adjust to pollution in-stead of tackling the prob-lems," Mrs. Roberts said. She noted that in some areas of West Virginia where coal dust is such a problem, residents have begun buying filters for their house windows. She said reports indicate that many New York women are pur-chasing hair spray containing a dust repellent. Both, she said, are examples of people trying to learn to live with pollution instruct of fighting it. pollution instead of fighting it.

Mrs. Robersts asked that the clubwomen be aware of legislation and support anti-pollution efforts, that they re-port cases of companies pol-luting in their home areas.

that they urge conferences to inform people on pollution and also urge the education of children as to what the coun-try's pollutants are.

The federation leader cited as "b e a s t s," the trucks, the d r u n k e n driver and drugs, noting that an increasing pop-ulation, new highways and jet airports will contribute to pollution.

Two other state officers, Mrs. Norman L. Brown of Hampton, first vice president, and Mrs. J. Darrell Rice of Petersburg, third vice presi-dent, were at the meeting which was headed by Mrs. Jimmy Redman of Martins-ville, district president.

General chairman was Mrs. R. Vernon Roe of Vinton, and host groups were the Rocky Mount and Vinton women's clubs.

The World-News, Saturday, October 10, 1970

PROGRAM - 10.30 A. M.

Mrs. Jimmy F. Redman, Presiding

Call to Order

Devotional	Box I C Hollomon
Pastor, United Thrasher Men	norial Mothodiat Church
Pledge of Allegiance	Mm Warron Lineberty
Federation Song	Mrg C W Nicks
Welcome	Mar M B Pallantino
President Vinton V
Mr. G. W. Nieles M	voman's Club
Mr. G. W. Nicks, M Response to Welcome	ayor of Vinton
Response to Welcome	Mrs. George Reimer
President Valley Junic Special Music	r Woman's Club
Special Music	Mr. Creed F. Frazier, III.
Minister of Music, United	Thrasher Memorial Methodist (
Mrs. Nicks, Ac	companist
Credentials Report	Mrs. Roy L. Webber
neusurer's neport	Mrs Fugene Grove
And auction of Special Guests	Mrg Charles T Couhom Ir
The fumes D. Roberts	President
Virgina Federation of	Momon'a Cluba
Subect: "Beauty and the Be	ast"
Mis. Norman L. Brown	First Vice-President
Virginia Federation o	f Momon's Clubs
Bubject: Highways to Actio	n''
Mirs. J. Darrell Rice	Third Vice Provident
Inglind rederation of	Momon'a Cluba
Dubject: My Vacuum Cloar	The second The
The and Place	Mrs Charles C Allen
Announcements	Mrs. R. V. Roe
RECESS FOF	{ LUNCH
Invocation Luncheon	12:30
Invocation	Mrs. Clarence B. LaPrade
or duesis, Sinte and	District Chairmen
Final Credentials Report Collect	Mrs. Webber
	Mrs A F Boscoe
Adjournment

ARRANGEMENT COMMITTEE CHAIRMEN

Senior Registration	Mrs. G. Everett Sowers
Junior Registration
Name Tags and Posters	Mrs. Milton Hunley
Flowers	Mrs. Russell Pagans
Corsages	Mrs. Cecil Doss
Dinner	Mrs. R. V. Roe
Luncheon
Pages	Mrs. A. C. Angle
Mrs. Betrand Gittens, N	Ars. T. J. Varner, Mrs. Russell Pagans
Coffee	Mrs. Robert Wood
	Mrs. Hugh Turner

BLUE RIDGE DISTRICT CHAIRMEN

Conservation and Garden DepartmentMrs. O. M. Reynolds Education Department
Fine Arts DepartmentMrs. Tommy F. Ellis
Crafts Division
Music Division
Poetry, Literature and DramaMrs. Henry W. Crenshaw
Home Life DepartmentMrs. Robert W. Boyd
Family Finance
Health & Mental Health DivisionMrs. Cleveland Bowser, III
International Affairs DepartmentMrs. Edwin L. Burnette
Public Affairs DepartmentMrs. Wayne Utt
Legislation & Citizenship DivisionMrs. Frederick Knobloch
Safety DivisionMrs. J. M. Crismond
Veteran's Affairs

COMMITTEES

Budget and Finance	Mrs. T. E. Leinhardt
Breeze Editor	Mrs. E. J. Sapp
Club Institute
Community Improvement	Mrs. Charles G. Allen
Credentials	Mrs. Roy L. Webber
Hospitality	Mrs. A. E. Roscoe
Historian and Pressbook	Mrs. Leslie W. Hamlett, Jr.
VFWC Headquarters Building F	FundMrs. George T. Eades

Junior Committee Chairmen

Communications	Mrs. Robert Chewning
Courtesy	Mrs. Charles M. Poff
GFWC Projects	Mrs. James A. Melkus
Newsletter Editor	Mrs. James R. Scruggs
VFWC Projects
District Projects	Mrs. Robert Nunnally, Jr.

By Sandra Kelly World News Staff Writer Sometimes movements make new news even though clubs members are not the

they are old. Such is the women's liberation effort. And sometimes, women's are. are.

> Who would have thought, for instance, that the anger of a feminist - a newspaperwoman feminist at thatwould have prompted what today is the General Federation of Women's Clubs?

But it happened, and while this information is not likely to be much of a revelation to to be much of a revelation to people who know their his-tory, it's liable to make bra burners take a second look at the efforts of women who join "ladies" clubs and club-women take another gander at what their radical sisters are trying to say.

Mrs. Ann Redman of Martinsville dug out these-maybe damaging?—records recently when she began her rounds of speaking to clubs in the Blue Ridge District, Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs.

She came to Roanoke this week for her turn with the R o a n o k e Junior Women's Club, Inc., and just in time for "Celebration of Womanhood Day" (a counteraction to women's liberation) s h e d r o p p e d the tidbit about Jennie June Croly.

Jennie June Croly or Jane Cunningham Croly, a New York newspaperwoman, got mad in 1868 because she was r ef u s ed admittance to a reception given for Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dickens at the New York P r e s s Club (a men's club.)

Mrs. Croly, who was mar-ried to a journalist, kept on her corset about the whole af-fair, but she did protest. She formed the Sorosis Club which an analysis which, an encyclopedia says, was not the first woman's club but was the first of any consequence or endurance.

The Sorosis began with Mrs. Croly and 11 of her friends. Records show that the group worked toward promoting an interest in better education, improving 1 a b or laws and prison reform.

In 1889, 21 yean's later, pointed out Mrs. Redman, who is Blue Ridge District president, the Sorosis mem-bers invited 67 women from 17 states to its birthday party for the purpose of forming a federation to seek "unity in diversity." A constitution was adopted in 1890, a charter granted in 1901, and the Virginia federation came into being in 1907.

Today, Mrs. Croly, who made 1868 headlines of "Newspaper Woman Angered by Refusal for Admission," could take creadit for the largest woman's club in the world—more than 10,000,000 women in 55 countries and the United States.

But Mrs. Croly has other firsts to her credit. Her biography notes that she was "probably the first American newspaper woman." She went to work for the New York S u n d a y Times and Noah's Weekly Messenger in 1855, became a special writer on w o m e n's fashions and was one of the first to syndicate her articles. She wrote under the name of Jennie June be-cause she "felt the traditional shyness concerning women in public life," her biography notes

She also founded the New She also founded the New York Woman's Press Club, was the first president of the New York State Federation of Women's Clubs and was at various times editorially con-nected with the New Y or k World, the Graphic Daily Times and for nine years, the New York Times. As Mrs Bedman noted "If

As Mrs. Redman noted, "If you want something done, ask a woman and she'll form a committee and get to work." And quite a lot got done be-cause Mrs. Charles Dickens came to town and a woman in a maxi dress with lace at her neckline couldn't get in to see her.

The women's clubs have been responsible, on a nation-al level, for the first child labor law, the 8-hour working day, the Pure Food and Drug Act, and the existence of such government agencies as the Children's Bureau, the Woman's Bureau, the Public

Woman's Bureau, the Public Health Service and the Nation-al Park and Forestry Service. Mrs. Redman closed with a note, "They (Mrs. Croly and friends) knew as we know today, that the bigger the organization, the better the chance of being heard and getting results." And maybe, she left a mes-

And maybe, she left a mes-sage, too. Something 1 i k e: Girls put on your bras and come pour tea . . . we protest just as soon as the pot i s empty. It could be interesting.

Fine Arts Department December 1970

A Word About the Junior State Project -"Environmental Pollution Control"

Jennie June Croly was 19th Century ini-tiator for what is now the General Fed-eration of Women's Club.

Through study and ACTION, we, Virginia Juniors, can help to assure a future for yet unborn generations.

It is the expressed desire of Virginia Juniors to work on a project of unlimited potential which can improve every club member with work to be done in every community; a project to help overcome a genuine threat to human health - POL-LUTION OF OUR AIR, WATER, AND LAND.

Every club is located in one of two types of communities - those who need to prevent pollution or those who need to eradicate pollution.

1. Survey local conditions - is our land, air and/or water polluted?

2. Learn why these conditions exist: publicize, educate and involve others.

3. Take action for clean-up and control.

Place emphasis on programs, projects and activities to convince those within your community that it is NOW that air pollution, water pollution, and soil pollution must be stopped.

Enter CLEAN AIR NOW PROGRAM conducted by GFWC, National Air Pol-lution Control Administration and General Foods Corp. Contest extends from July 1, 1970 to February 1, 1972. Virginia Juniors - Be sure to begin at home with respect for a clean environment.

Junior Project Chairman Mrs. J. M. Hamil 5143 Carriage Drive, S.W. Roanoke, Virginia 24018

THE ROANOKE TIMES, Saturday, Dec. 19, 1970

Santa Claus on Wheels

from her grandson, Chris Caldwell, and from John Jackson to load a truck with 800 gifts for patients at Southwestern State Hospital

Mrs. Hazel Barger of Roanoke gets help in Marion. This is the second year the Williamson Road Woman's Club has sponsored Operation Santa Claus to collect the Christmas gifts.

Women of THE TIMES.

Santa Claus' Helpers

Mrs. D. L. Buckingham (left) is ready with donations for the Operation Santa Slaus barrel at Heironimus Down-town as Mrs. Hazel K. Barger puts finishing touches on it. The barrel is one of three to be placed by the Williamson Road Woman's Club for collection of Christmas gifts for patients at Southwestern State Hospital in Marion. Mrs. Buckingham is president of the club and Mrs. Barger is chairman of the Santa Claus project.

Professor Is Making Tour Through South

Tour Through South Dr. Helen M. Churchill, asso-ciate professor of biology at Hollins College, has left for a month-long research tour of bi-ology departments at nine uni-versities throughout the South, supported by a grant from Hol-lin's National Science Founda-tion College Science Improve-ment Program. Her visits to universities in Georgia, Florida, North Caroli-na. Tennessee and Kentucky will focus particularly on re-s e a r ch and developments in parasitology, which is Dr. Churchill's major field.

The World-News, Thursday, January 7, 1971

The Rev. M.J. Kim Christmas Dinner-Dec. 1970

VETERANS ADMINISTRATION VOLUNTARY SERVICE

This Certificate is awarded to

WILLIAMSON ROAD WOMAN'S CLUB

in recognition of volunteer service to veterans

Awarded at va HOSPITAL, SALEN, VIRGINIA

on MARCH 20, 1971

Director or Manager

VA Form 10-7042, Dec 1963

The Roanoke Public Library acknowledges with genuine appreciation your gift to the Library of Books Roanoke Public Library Board Jane, Z. Limes SECRETARY

The Lives of Great Composers - Shanberg

January 1970

Blue Ridge District

VIRGINIA

FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS

CHRISTIANSBURG HIGH SCHOOL CHRISTIANSBURG, VIRGINIA

MARCH 20, 1971

V. F. W. C. OFFICERS

Mrs. James B. Roberts, President	Fairfax
Mrs. Norman L. Brown, First Vice-President	Hampton
Mrs. Daniel S. Spiers, Second Vice-President.	Richmond
Mrs. J. Darrell Rice, Third Vice-President	Petersburg
Mrs. Charles W. Scott, Secretary	Farmville
Mrs. Walter L. Thomas, Treasurer	Newport News

BLUE RIDGE DISTRICT OFFICERS

Mrs. Jimmy F. Redman, President	Martinsville
Mrs. A. E. Roscoe, First Vice-President	Roanoke
Mrs. Warren Lineberry, Second Vice-President	Floyd
Mrs. E. Duward Starkey, Third Vice-President	Roanoke
Mrs. R. A. Graybill, Secretary	Troutville
Mrs. Eugene Grove, Treasurer	Blacksburg
Mrs. Charles T. Southern, Parliamentarian	Saləm

JUNIOR OFFICERS

Mrs. E. Duward Starkey, Junior Director
Mrs. Charles Friedman, Assistant Junior DirectorBlacksburg
Mrs. James E. Johnson, Jr., Secretary-TreasurerBedford
HOSTESS CLUB PRESIDENTS

Mrs. Charles G. Allen.....Christiansburg Woman's Club Mrs. Paul W. Byrd.....Christiansburg Junior Woman's Club

ARRANGEMENTS CHAIRMAN

Mrs.	George	L.	BeamerChristiansburg
------	--------	----	----------------------	--

District Judging Scheduled

Mrs D. J.

The schedule for the spring meeting of The Blue Ridge District, Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs, has been announced.

The meeting, planned Saturday at Christiansburg High School, will open with a general session at 10:30 a.m. A feature of the day will be a judging of arts and crafts entries which were first place winners in individual club contests.

Hostess clubs for the event at the Christiansburg Junior Women's and the Christiansburg Woman's clubs.

Wednesday, March 17, 1971

PROGRAM — 10:30 A. M. Mrs. Jimmy F. Redman, Presiding

Call to Order

Devotional......Rev. Vernon D. Miller Pastor, Christiansburg Presbyterian Church Pledge of AllegianceMrs. Frederick Knobloch Legislation and Citizenship Chairman Federation SongMrs. James Morris Pianist Welcome......Mrs. Charles G. Allen President, Christiansburg Woman's Club Mr. Ellis P. Bucklen, Mayor of Christiansburg Mrs. George B. Adams President, Martinsville-Henry County Woman's Club Special Music......Blue Ridge District Chorus Mrs. Lloyd Zurbrigg, Director Mrs. Morris, Accompanist Introduction.......Mrs. Edwin Stone, Music Chairman "Keep America Beautiful"......Thelma Matesky "No Man Is An Island"......Whitney & Kramer "You'll Never Walk Alone"......Rodgers & Hammerstein "Let There Be Music"......Francis Williams Miss Carolyn Spicer......Representative First National Exchange Bank Credeniials Report......Mrs. Roy L. Webber, Chairman Treasurer's ReportMrs. Eugene Grove Reports......Mrs. E. Duwald Starkey, Third Vice-Pres. Mrs. Warren Lineberry, Second Vice-Pres Mrs. A. E. Roscoe, First Vice President Mrs. Jimmy F. Redman, President Roll Call and Recognition of Club Presidents Election of District Nominating Committee

Time and Place	Mrs. John D. Hopkins, Jr.
	Bedford Junior Woman's Club
	Mrs. Roy Hendrickson
	Salem Woman's Club
Announceme nts	Mrs. George L. Beamer
	General Chairman
LINCHE	DN — 12:45
LONGIEC	511 - 12.45
	Mrs. Paul W. Byrd
President, Christiansbu	rg Junior Woman's Club

Introduction of Guests and Officers

Awards Presentations

Crafts
Fine ArtsMrs. Tommy F. Ellis
Poetry, Literature and DramaMrs. Henry W. Crenshaw
State and District Chairmen Reports
Announcements
Final Credential ReportMrs. Webber
Collect
Adjournment

ARRANGEMENTS COMMITTEE CHAIRMEN

General ChairmanMrs. George L. Beamer
RegistrationMrs. A. L. Hungate
Mrs. Paul C. Curtis
CoffeeMrs. Raymond Underwood
LuncheonMrs. Howard C. Bane
FlowersMrs. R. L. Kinnard
Arts and CraftsMrs. W. E. Gill
Name Tags and PostersMrs. James A. Melkus
Mrs. Charles G. Allen
PagesMrs. R. LeRoy Shields

Views and Previews

FROM YOUR VFWC PRESIDENT

Pogo of the comics said, "we have met the enemy and he is us." No more appropriate statement could be made concerning us and our environment, for we have developed a wasteful, "throw away," pollution-producing life style that is based on convenience and not conservation.

Pollution is not a new problem. Writers in ancient Rome warned that the plunder of nature by civilization could not continue indefinitely. Thoreau attacked machines as an "outrage against universal laws". Theodore Roosevelt warned against man's thoughtless intrusions into the balanced world of nature. These warnings were largely ignored but cannot be any longer, for pollution has been intensified by population expansion, industrial growth, urbanization and the rising standard of living. It is now a dire threat to our lives.

The problem is world-wide, but the U. S. alone pumps 172 million tons of pollution and poison into the air every year. This comes from many industrial sources, from automobiles, from incinerators, and from burning leaves. This last item is not only an irritant but has been recently reported as having a direct relationship with carcinogens, which are cancer producing.

No body of water in the U. S. is free from pollution. Again industry is to blame, along with inadequate sewage treatment facilities and pesticide wash-off from farms and gardens. If you garden, don't use Dieldrin, Endrin, Aldrin, Toxaphene, or Heptachlor. They spell DEATH to wildlife. Even the continent of Antarctica has been contaminated by insecticides that threaten life.

Along with pollution, the destruction of wildlife habitats is a leading cause of 307 species of animals being on the verge of extinction. When men and wild animals are competing for land or water, the animals almost invariably lose. Man's desire for plummage, skins and trophies has put many animals on the endangered list. Vanishing wildlife is another warning to man. The more we change the world of nature, the more we make it unliveable for the wild species. Each animal is part of a complex food chain; each has a specific job to do. The loss of a species changes the whole natural arrangement, and conservationists and ecologists tell us that if we continue to destroy life around us, we shall destroy ourselves too.

Stronger environmental protection laws must be enacted by our legislators and more money must be appropriated for pollution abatement. However, in the end, the success of our rescue mission of the earth will depend on whether we are truly able to accept the emergency as real, immediate and personal Environmental concern is being demonstrated more and more through magazine articles, TV programs, editorials in newspapers, and concerted educational efforts of organizations. The concern of Virginia clubwomen is evidenced through your newsletters and bulletins, pollution control programs, and through the actions of clubs such as the Westwood Juniors who published Environmental booklets for kindergarten children, and the Lee District Juniors who are producing a film on pollution.

FEBRUARY, 1971

American youths are very much aware of environmental problems and even the very young are pollution conscious as is indicated in the story of the Sunday School teacher who said to her class: "Why do you suppose we no longer offer burnt offerings to God?" And a small boy answered, "Because of air pollution!"

One of my Grandmother's favorite sayings was "waste not, want not". This was partly due to her Scottish ancestry and partly to her belief that God gave man dominion over the earth, but that did not entitle him to be a devastator of natural resources or an executioner of wildlife. Let us not waste, that our children will not want.

Phyllis Roberts

Sandra Kealey, a member and past president of THE VALLEY JUNIORS was so inspired by our VFWC President's speech on fall tour that she composed this poem which I would like to read to you. It's entitled 'POLLUTION or SOLUTION.'

> Take a trip to pollution town And be prepared to wear a frown! Smoke and sulphur color the sky. Don't look for birds; they cannot fly! Murky green is the color of the water. And no breeze stirs as the day grows hotter. Trees are bare this summer day Grass is the color of ripened hay. This is the way it's gonna be. If we don't get busy . . . you and me!

Finance Forum

Banker Says No Excuse Condones Not Making Will

"Someone once said 'Procrastination is the thief of time,' and nowhere is procrastination more prevalent than years," Harkness admitted. in the area of will making and the planning of estates," a bank official said this morning at the opening of the Women's Finance Forum.

James W. Harkness, a trust officer at First National Exchange Bank, discussing "Where There's A Will," There's A Way," was one of two featured speakers for the 20th annual forum at Hotel Roanoke.

Marvin A. Kobel of Fairfax, public relations director of National Association of Life Underwriters, a d d r e s s e d the group later.

Some 375 members and guests of the Blue Ridge District, Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs, are attending the session.

"I'm sure you've heard or used one of the pat excuses when it came time to think about wills," Harkness said.

One of the most frequently used excuses, he noted, is "I'll think about it for a lit-tle longer" excuse.

"This person truly believes he should do something about he should do something about making a will but he either feels that he is never going to die or that by putting off doing anything of a positive nature he will not die until he does make his will," Hark-ness explained. ness explained.

The second excuse, he said, -more a misconception than an excuse—is that they don't need a will because all prop-erty is jointly-owned with right of survivorship and will pass on at the death of one spouse to the surviving spouse.

"I'm afraid we in the bank-as guilty an anyone about fostering this idea over the few isolated instances, property placed in joint names is "absolutely no substitute for a well-drawn will."

The man or woman who fails to draw a will "must inevitably have his property distributed according to fixed provisions of the state laws of inheritance," and these laws vary

Harkness used a typical will for a person dying intestate (without a will) to point out the undesirable features in Virginia's intestate laws.

-Beneficiaries usually take outright interests in property without regard to their competency to manage the property involved, such as real estate, securities or business interest. "Trust provisions would provide continuing management of them all," Harkness explained.

-The wife's share is frequently inadequate for her needs.

-Complications, when chil-dren are minors, include guardianships. A guardianship is an apparatus of the court

ing industry have been just and controlled by the court. "I hope you never in your lifetime experience the operation of such a vehicle," Hark-He added that except for a ness said. "Guardianship is completely inflexible, and the account is set up and controlled by the courts." -Uncle Sam is the happy recipient of extra tax dollars he never thought he would receive, because tax benefits available from planning are not taken advantage of to their maximum benefit. Among benefits which can be derived from a will and proper planning, Harkness listed the following:

The spouse can be assured of her share and not relegated to a third interest, and can have some or all the property in what mode she receives the property will be determined by existing tax laws.

A will provides for the utili-zation of trusts, caring for the spendthrift, incompetent or minor children, and provides for aged parents and the con-tinuation of a business tinuation of a business.

Insurance, Wills Topics Of Forum

"Trust in the Future" is the theme for a finance forum at Hotel Roanoke April 15, sponsored by the Blue Ridge District, Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs (VFWC), in cooperation with the First National Exchange Bank of Roanoke.

According to Mrs. John F. Edmunds, chairman, coffee at 10 a.m. will precede a morning session featuring James W. Harkness, bank trust officer, and Marvin A. Kobel, director of public relations for the National Association of Life Underwriters.

Harkness will discuss "Where There's a Will, There's a Way," and Kobel's topic will be "Feminine Focus on Life In-surance."

The World-News, Roanoke, Va., Saturday, April 10, 1971.

	and a state of the second
	PROGRAM
10:00 A. M.	COFFEE	Shenandoah Room
10:30 A. M.	TRUST IN THE FUTURE	Shenandoah Room
	Presiding, Mrs. E. Duward S District Junior Di
	Moderator, H. Clay Ferguso Assistant Vice P.
	Where There's a Will, There' James W. Harkness, Trust O
	Feminine Focus on Life Inst Marvin A. Kobel, CLU Director of Public Relations The National Association of
	Questions and Answers	Life ender artiers
12:00 NOON	LUNCHEON	Crystal Ballroom
	Presiding, Mrs. J. F. Redmar District President
	Invocation, Mrs. A. E. Rosco First Vice Presid
	Introduction of Program, By Executive Vice
	THE OVERTONES

TRUST IN THE FUTURE

A FORUM PRESENTED BY THE BLUE RIDGE DISTRICT VIRGINIA FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS IN COOPERATION WITH FIRST NATIONAL EXCHANGE BANK THURSDAY, APRIL 15, 1971 HOTEL ROANOKE MRS. JOHN F. EDMUNDS CHAIRMAN, FAMILY FINANCE DIVISION BLUE RIDGE DISTRICT

participate.) Now that you know that many of the kids think you're too aloof and self-centered, why not try to change the impression you give? B e in g a good sport about all the growling will be a good way to start. *N*ledia Features, Inc.

sbook Auo Y

situation, racial riots and the hard feelings against many youth today. cerned about the Middle East blind to many. I am conworld today, but I am also ognize some problems of the From where I sit I can rec-

Yet, I know nothing about the real life of a Negro and why he wants to change so. I can't understand why Middle East nations won't accept Is-rael. I don't understand why — because a boy has long hair and calls for change—he is nut down by so many.

Most of these, youth of my is put down by so many.

April 20-22

Mrs. Louise Bushnell Convention speaker

A nominee for the 1970 edition of "Outstanding Young Women of America, Mrs. E.

Duward Starkey is a past Junior Secretary Treasurer for Blue Ridge and past president of the Valley Junior Woman's Club. On the state level, she has served VFWC as a member of the Junior Nominating Committee, Vice Chairman of Health (1968-70), and can relax at this year's Convention having been the 1968 Junior Vice Chairman of arrangements.

A busy mother of 2 (one daughter, one son) with a third just born in December, another girl, Helen still finds time to actively serve with the Roanoke Valley March of Dimes (in 1970 as Mother's March Chairman). She is a graduate of Roanoke Memorial Hospital's School of Nursing and her husband is TNT Supervisor for Hercules, Incorporated.

April, 1971

The Woman's Club, Incorporated

Salem, Uirginia

requests the honour of your presence at the meeting commemorating its

Fiftieth Anniversary

Tuesday, the thirteenth of Actober

Eight o'clock in the evening

Salem - Roanoke Halley Civic Center of

1920 - 1970

VFWC Convention Speakers Listed for

The World-News, Roanoke, Va., Friday, April 2, 1971.

Treasurer for Junior Woman's c as a member of airman of Health ntion having been ts.

son) with a third till finds time to rch of Dimes (in graduate of Roand her husband

April, 1971

rporated

r presence ating its

IJ Øcłober ning vic Center

Mrs. Louise Bushnell Convention speaker

VFWC Convention

Speakers Listed for April 20-22

The Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs (VFWC) will hold its 64th annual conven-tion April 20 through April 22, at the Hotel Jefferson, Richmond.

Mond. Mrs. James B. Roberts of Fairfax, VFWC president, has selected "C o n c e r n for The W o r l d Community" as the convention's theme. Mrs. Car-roll E. Miller, second vice of Women's Clubs (GFWC), will speak at the Alice Kyle Banquet on "Willing Women Lead."

Mrs. Louise B u s h n e l l of New York, chairman of the Status of Women, GFWC, and manager, volunteer activities of the National Association of

of the National Association of Manufacturers (NAM), will be the featured speaker on April 21, Her topic will be: "Memories of Vietnam—What Are We Doing at Home?" Other speakers during the convention will include Jef-frey S. Kellam, Richmond, Minister of Electronic Media for Richmond TRAV (televi-sion-radio-audio visuals), who for Richmond TRAV (televi-sion-radio-audio visuals), who will d is c u s s "Bridging the Generation Gap"; Bernard S. Cohen of Alexandria, "Envi-ronmental Rights and Citizen Obligation"; Mrs. Joan Bu-chanan of New Jersey, Direc-tor of Junior Clubs. GFWC, will speak at the Juniors' ban-guet: Mrs. John N e wt on quet; Mrs. John Newton Thomas of Richmond will give a message on "Paper Doll People" at a prayer breakfast.

A safety panel on "The Problem Drinker Can Be Con-trolled," with Mrs. Hampton Thomas of Roanoke presiding, will include John E. Cox, Re-gional Public Affairs Manager of Allstate Insurance Company as moderator; Willard Y. Howell, Director, Office of Alcohol Counter Measures, De-partment of Transportation, N a t i o n a l Highway Traffic Safety administration, speaking on "The Problem Drink-er"; John T. Hanna, Director, Virginia Highway Safety Divi-sion, on "Where V irginia Stands"; and Rep. Donald G. Pendleton, on "The Problem Drinker can be Controlled in Virginia." Of interest will be an arts and crafts exhibit where all district winners will be on dis-play and judge, the Penny Art Awards which are given to clubs with the most extensive year - round program to promote fine arts, and an award for the most outstanding event by a club to promote interest, education and appreciation in the art division.

4

The Lee District of the Federation is handling all ar-rangements for the conven-tion. Mrs. G. Kenneth Miller of Richmond is convention chairman.

Club Lists New Leaders

Officers of the Williamson Road Woman's Club were in-stalled at the group's 19th an-nual banquet at Lakeview Mo-

Mar banquet at hakeview his-tor Lodge. Mrs. William S. Murray conducted the installation cer-emony.

emony. Officers are Mrs. D. L. Buckingham, president; Miss Sylvia Haislip, first vice pres-ident; Mrs. R. W. Boyd, sec-ond vice president; Mrs. J. C. Hurd, third vice president. Also, Mrs. J. S. Willhide, recording secretary; Mrs. F. E. Painter, corresponding sec-retary; Mrs. S. H. Jarrett, treasurer; Mrs. J. T. Taylor, parliamentaian; Mrs. H. S. Jackson, historian; and Mrs. M. H. Stiff Jr., chaplain.

Annual Dinner Lakeview Motor Lodge April 1 - 1971

Mrs. W. S. Murray

VILLIAMSON ROAD WOMAN'S CLUB

6:30 P. M. Thursday, April 1, 1971 Hermitage Room Lakeview Motor Lodge

1952 - 1971

FLCWER Yellow Chrysanthemum

MOTTO

"If you have faith as a grain of mustard seed nothing shall be impossible unto you." Matt. 17:20

MENU

Grapefruit

Tossed Salad

Baked Country Style Steak

Baked Potato - Garden Vegetables

Hot Rolls - Coffee or Tea

Sherbet

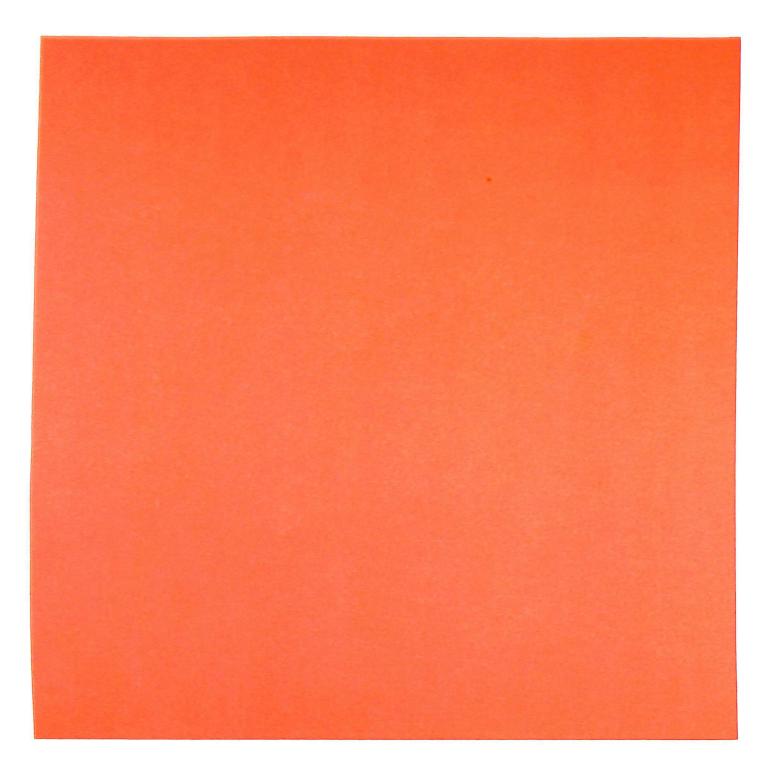

PROGRAM

Welcome Blessing - Chaplain DINNER Introduction of Guests Recognize New Members Presentation of Attendance Trophy Honors: Founders Charter Members Past Presidents Minutes Unfinished Business - Election of Officers Reports: Spring District Meeting Treasurer Recording Sec. - Highlights President Installation of Officers Acceptance - President New Business Adjourn

SLATE OF OFFICERS

President - Mrs. D. L. Buckingham 1st V-Pres. - Miss Sylvia Haislip 2nd V-Pres. - Mrs. R. W. Boyd 3rd V-Pres. -Rec. Sec'y. - Mrs. J. G. Willhide Forr. Sec'y. - Mrs. F. E. Painter Treasurer - Mrs. S. H. Jarrett Parliamentarian - Mrs. J. T. Taylor listorian - Mrs. H. S. Jackson haplain - Mrs. M. H. Stiff, Jr.

Mayor Roy L. Webber and members of the Council of The City of Roanoke, Virginia invite you to attend a dinner and the opening night premiere of the Roanoke Civic Center Saturday, March 27, 1971

0

$10 per person to include:

Reception and dinner, 5:30 P.M., Hotel Roanoke

Reserved seat for

"Let It Shine"

8:30 P.M., Coliseum, Civic Center

Dress Informal. Please respond by Saturday, March 2, 1971. Card enclosed.

