A Basic Communication

For the Parents of Students in the Roanoke City Public Schools

NEW PARTNERSHIPS ANNOUNCED

Roanoke City Public Schools are pleased to announce the establishment of three new school-community partnerships.

West End United Methodist Church has formed a partnership with Hurt Park Elementary to assist in tutoring students in reading and math skills.

Dominion Business Schools has joined with Addison Junior High School to concentrate on tutoring students in reading and math skills, providing assistance as needed for the Career Awareness Unit, conducting an essay contest for Black History Month and participating in the Lucy Addison Day Program.

C & P Telephone will present a series of seminars, titled Choices, to ninth graders at Breckinridge, Addison and Jackson. The program is designed to demonstrate how business, education, community, and individual resources can be utilized in a cooperative venture to convey to students the relevance of education in preparation for adult life.

There are now nine long-term partnerships in the school division.

BUSINESS PARTNERS HONORED AT ANNUAL CHAMBER DINNER

Roanoke City Public Schools honored four Roanoke City businesses at the Roanoke Valley Chamber of Commerce's annual dinner meeting on January 5.

The businesses were presented with plaques for their support of public education through their school-business partnerships.

The four partnerships are: Central Fidelity Bank with Jackson Junior High School; IBM Corporation with Lincoln Terrace Elementary School; Dominion Business School Inc. with Addison Junior High School; and Arby's Restaurants with Preston Park Elementary School.

Partnerships are based on a mutually beneficial exchange of resources between the business and the school.

Business involvement and cooperation in public education endeavors is vital to the economic and social stability of the Roanoke Valley and the school system's goal of providing quality education for our youngsters.

FOREST PARK TESTS HOMEWORK HELPLINE

Forest Park Elementary School students and their parents are being encouraged to take advantage of The Homework Helpline.

By providing this homework-by-telephone assistance, the teacher-volunteers hope to assist students in building good study habits and to increase their desire for learning. The volunteers won't give out a direct answer to a homework question. But instead will guide the student to the solution to the problem.

In addition, the telephone service is being used to refer parents and students to free neighborhood tutoring.

The phone lines are staffed 4:30 p.m. to 7 p.m. Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays. Helpline phone numbers are 981-2285 and 981-2343.

NEW PROGRAM BUILDS MATH SKILLS

The FARM, a hands-on, manipulative-based math program is an exciting, relatively new program for kindergartners and first grade students.

The curriculum gives students experience in receiving information through all their senses by being actively involved.

The activities provide students with practice using objects in ways which will lead to the understanding of mathematical skills such as place value, decimals, multiplication and division, graphing, story problems, measurement, and geometry.

The FARM presents sorting and counting activities in a way that will teach needed skills from all math areas.

With the activities being manipulative-based and independent of math notation, they provide concrete models which match the abstract, numerical ones. That eliminates re-teaching time.

The presentations of the lessons for the program are unique. Each chapter revolves around a story or poem being read aloud to the students, depicting the main character's newest dilemma and eliciting possible solutions.

Excellence In Education

The stories, involving a circus and farm theme, are written to capture student interest and enthusiasm, as well as provide an intriguing continuum among activities and math areas. Student participation with concrete models reinforces the action and decisions of the story line.

The expansion of the program to almost all kindergarten classes and a pilot program for first graders speaks to its success.

PERFORMING ARTS IN A COLORFUL SPLASH

Children ages six to 12 are invited to attend five performing arts programs to be held at Mill Mountain Theatre at Center in the Square.

The series, Rainbow Splashes, will be held on one Saturday each month through June.

Mike Seeger, a singer/musician, kicked off the series on Feb. 27 with a folk singing program.

On March 12, the Southwest Virginia Opera Society featuring Ross Rosazza performed.

The Roanoke Symphony String Quintet with conductor and pianist Victoria Bond will entertain the youngsters on April 16 with musical solos and discussion on the various musical instruments and the music itself.

On May 28, the Roanoke Ballet Theatre dancers will display their talents through performing classical and contemporary ballet.

To conclude the series, actors from the theatres production of "Cotton Patch Gospel" will perform excerpts on June 4.

Tickets for each performance are $1. Information on the availability of the tickets can be attained by calling 342-5790.

Rainbow Splashes is being sponsored by Dominion Bank and The Arts Council of Roanoke Valley.

WRITING CAN LEAD TO READING

A new program titled Writing to Read is based on the premise that kids can learn to read by first learning to write.

Although there are 26 letters in the alphabet, the English language is based on combining 42 sounds or phonemes into words, (for example, dan and tan).

Students learning to read by this method begin to write phrases and sentences as they hear them and see them on the computer. No attempt is made to correct spelling or punctuation at this point.

As students work more and more with books, the book spelling becomes more apparent and dominating. And the students begin a self-editing process as they write.

Then, they move into the next stage of intermediate story writing, they create compound sentences and more consistency with book spelling.

In the last stage, students move into more complex, sophisticated story writing and use correct book spelling.

The program incorporates a multi-model approach using visual, auditory, and manipulative techniques as students rotate through five learning stations using language arts machines. This process provides immediate feedback as they work at the listening/computer station for reinforcement of the sound/word at the typewriter or word processor learning station.

Some teachers have modified the plan by using the HBJ Reading Series and the Writing to Read program as a supplemental technique.

DATES TO REMEMBER

Up coming school closing dates for students are April 4 - 8 and April 25. There will also be a two-hour dismissal on April 1 and May 27.

ROANOKE CITY SUMMER SCHOOL

Roanoke City Public Schools are offering summer school programs at both the elementary and secondary levels. In this edition of ABC you will find a listing of the options available for your child.

PRE-SCHOOL

The division's Chapter 1 program is offering a summer program for Chapter 1 children who will be entering school in kindergarten or the first grade in the fall of 1988. Eligible children are those who are or will be five years old on or before Dec. 31 for the kindergarten level and six years old for the first grade level.

The summer program is designed to help children get ready for school. Some of the activities planned include language arts, mathematics, field trips, group experiences and show-and-tell time.

This program is offered at no charge to parents and transportation will be provided.

The program begins on June 27 and will end on July 29. Hours are from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Lunch will be served daily.

Early childhood classes will be held at the following four Chapter 1 locations:

- *Forest Park - will serve Westside and Oakland.
- *Hurt Park - will serve Highland Park and Lincoln Terrace.
- *Northwest - will serve Preston Park and Round Hill.
- *Fallon Park - will serve Morningside and Virginia Heights.

For more information call the Chapter 1 office at 981-2957

SUMMER STARS

Chapter 1 students in grades 1 - 6 can register for this free program that will begin on June 27 and end on July 29.

The Summer Stars Program is designed to give individual attention to students who need extra help in the areas of mathematics and/or reading. Special materials and computer instruction are used to help students become better prepared for the regular school year in the Fall.

Reading and mathematics curriculum specialists and teacher aides will work with the students on a one-to-one basis as well as in small group sessions.

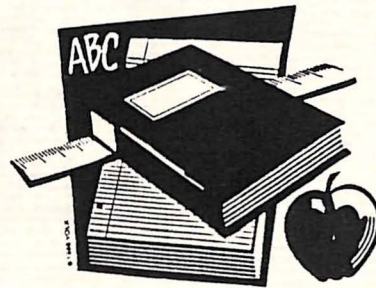

There will also be special learning units and field trips as part of the overall program.

The day will begin at 8:30 a.m. and will go to 12:30 p.m. each day. Lunch will be served daily.

The following locations will house the Summer Stars summer school:

- *Forest Park - will serve Westside and Oakland.
- *Hurt Park - will serve Highland Park and Lincoln Terrace.
- *Northwest - will serve Preston Park and Round Hill.
- *Fallon Park - will serve Morningside and Virginia Heights.

For more information call the Chapter 1 office at 981-2957.

ALL STARS

Junior high school students enrolled in Chapter 1 schools can register to attend a special summer school program that will focus on helping students maintain and improve certain skills for math and reading.

Individual attention will be given to students by reading and mathematics teachers and instructional aides. Small group sessions will also be a part of the program.

Excellence In Education

Some activities planned include field trips and exciting special learning units.

The summer program begins on June 27 and will end on July 29. Hours are from 7:45 a.m. to 12:45 p.m. Transportation will be provided. This is a free program.

Ruffner Junior High School will serve as the location for the Chapter 1 junior high summer school program.

For more information call the Chapter 1 office at 981-2957.

SECONDARY SUMMER SCHOOL

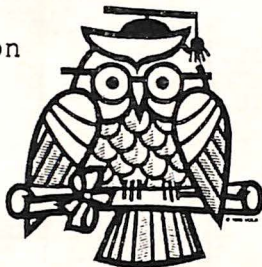

Junior high and senior high school students can register for summer school courses in May and June. Students may enroll in new subjects, subjects they failed during the current academic year, or subjects they failed in previous years.

Final registration will be from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. on June 23 in the Guidance Department of each of the junior and senior high schools. After that, students will be accepted on a space available basis.

Tuition for all secondary school students enrolled in Roanoke City Public Schools is as follows:

- *new and repeat courses -- $85.00
- *one semester course for half credit -- $42.50
- *driver education -- $85.00
- *registration fee -- $15.00

Regular summer courses for junior high courses (grades 8 and 9) will be held at Ruffner Junior High School. Senior high courses (grades 10 - 12) will be held at William Fleming High School.

SUMMER HONORS PROGRAM

Roanoke City Public Schools students in grades 4 - 9 for the 1988-89 school year who are academically talented and highly motivated are invited to attend the 1988 Summer Honors Program scheduled for July 5 to Aug. 5.

Tuition for one child is $100; $150 for two children; and $180 for three children. Some financial aid may be available.

For more information please contact Louise Clarke at 981-2876.

SPECIAL EDUCATION SUMMER SCHOOL

Special education students in grades 1 - 6 may register for this special education summer school program to be held at Fallon Park Elementary School. A $10 non-refundable registration fee and $50 tuition fee is due by June 28.

Teaching emphasis will be in the areas of math and language arts.

Classes begin on June 28 and end on July 26. Hours will be 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. with lunch being served daily.

Deadline for registration is May 27.

For more information contact the special education office at 981-2466.

SCHOOL NEWS

* The school division recently received the 1988 Community Involvement in Education Award, one of only five such awards given to school divisions in the state. It was presented by the Virginia Community Education Association and the Virginia Department of Education.

* All students will be dismissed two hours early on June 15, the last student day of the school year. P.M. kindergarten will take place during the morning with the other students. There will be no A.M. kindergarten.

Mrs. Barlow's Third Grade

The week of January 25, Pippi Longstockings visited the third grade. The class will make a booklet, discuss parent child roles, answer critical and literal questions, make a bookmark and a diarama, write a tall tale and finish the week with a tea party. Watch for our tall tales in next months news!

Mrs. Meador's Fourth Grade

The 4th grade took a trip to the Science Museum on January 22nd. They saw many interesting exhibits. They also have a trip planned to the Lancerlot in Vinton on February 4th to go ice skating. A Valentine party will be held on February 12th and the students will be making their own folders during art class. The best folder will win a prize!

Mrs. Templeton's First Grade

What I Want To Be When I Grow Up!

What I want to be when I grow up is a teacher. I like to help kids, kids are nice, kids are loved.

Meg Hammerstrom

I like to learn children's names. I like to be with children. Children are fun to play with. Children are cute. That is why I want to be a teacher when I grow up.

Degra Nofsinger

I want to be a teacher when I grow up.
I like to write on the chalk board.
Keri Kidd

When I grow up I want to be a scientist and go to the beach and study sharks.
Adam Craighead

I want to be a artist because I like art. I like to draw. I love to draw animals.
Trey Missimer

When I grow up I want to be a park ranger because I like the woods and I like the animals. I go hiking. I go camping. My friends and I like to build forts and I have fun in the woods!
Cameron Davis

Mrs. Tritsarolis' Kindergarten

Snow! Snow! Snow! We love the snow but we miss our friends in kindergarten, too!

Some kindergarten students have already finished their Look, Listen, and Learn readiness workbook and are starting in Sounds, Symbols, and Sense.
Buffy and Mack are becoming very popular once again.....and you know what that means....READING! The other kindergarten students will be finishing up in their Look, Listen, and Learn workbooks very soon!

P.V. Numeral, our math friend, has been working so very hard on The Farm! He needed some help because drawing graphs of the farm count everyday took him too long. Now the kindergarteners are helping P.V. make exchanges from animal card to pebbles! It's a really exciting process and the students are exchanging beautifully. Pretty soon we'll be helping P.V. with "coming in" counts (addition) and "leaving" counts (subtraction). Math is fun! We really enjoy it!

Welcome, Sylvia Hall, Korrine and Kristina Dillard, to the afternoon kindergarten class. Sylvia comes to us from Westside and Korrine and Kristina come from Crystal Springs! We are very glad to have them join us!

Information Center News

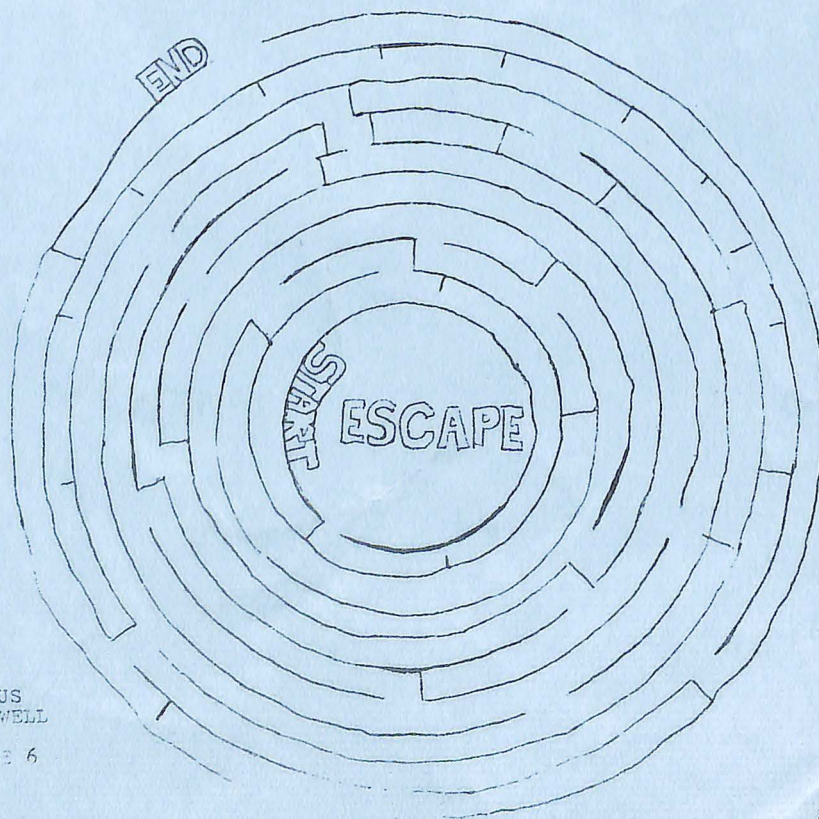

This semester the students in the intermediate grades will be using the library skills they learned this fall to complete projects. The sixth graders are working on a unit about Hawaii. The unit will culminate with a luau! They are using Atlases and Almanacs to gather information. The fourth graders are researching science topics. They will display their knowledge in the form of mobiles.

The primary students will continue their enjoyment of childrens books and stories. In addition, they will learn about dictionaries, encyclopedias, newspapers and magazines.

Kindergarten Newsletter

February was a very busy month in Kindergarten. We finished up our study on the unit, My Community. As a final activity we had a career day. The students were then video-taped telling about what they were dressed up as and why. Please remember that the video tapes can be checked out for home viewing simply by sending a note to school with your child stating that you are interested in checking out the video over night. Career day was a big success! Our future looks very bright!

A mini-unit about safety symbols/traffic signs was explored during the second week of February.

During the final two weeks of this month we learned about the "Great Men In February"; i.e. George Washington, Abraham Lincoln, Martin Luther King Jr. The morning kindergarten class sang, "He Had a Dream", at the Black History Month Assembly on February 29th. Both classes really enjoyed learning this song about Dr. King.

The afternoon kindergarten class got a special treat during "Show and Tell" on the week that we were learning about the letter "Jj". Sarah Wright's mother came to school dressed up like a clown and juggled, jumped, and told jokes. She also brought homemade jets for the tasting treat! The boys and girls really enjoyed this special visit! A big "thank you" to our clown friend!

to me. Sign Here.

Christopher Carroll

I have lost some teeth already. I thank you for my money.

Michael Whitmire

I haven't lost a tooth yet but I soon will. When I do, I want two dollars.

Travis Kyger

I know you got my teeth because a dollar was under my pillow.

Robert King

I like you Tooth Fairy. I'm a good boy.
I hope that you like my writing. I like you.

Scott Overstreet

I have not lost any teeth yet. Do you know when I will lost them?

Meg Hammerstrom

I really like the money I get when I lose a tooth. I am saving the money I get from you. I love you!

Leigh Morris

I have not lost a tooth. Do you like cats? I do not like cats.

Trey Missimer

I lost 7 teeth. 4 are permanent. I like you! Do you like me?

Degra Nofsinger

Thank you for the ones. I like you My brother lost one of his teeth in the car.

Ruth Alisaukas

I have lost w. teeth and I'll be losing two more teeth before long and I can't wait to lose my tooth soon.

Mrs. Chapman's Second Grade

Second grade has been studying fossils and sound in Science. Mrs. Bernice Smith of the Science Museum came and helped us to make our own fossils.
We used sea shells, clay and plaster of paris.

In our sound unit we have made our own instruments that will vibrate and will play for the next P.T.A. Meeting.

We are also practicing a play to be given at the meeting.

We have a new student, Paul Perry, who came to us from Fairview.

Short Stories from Third Grade

"How the Tiger Got Stripes"

One day all the tigers had school.
They did all the work. They had to paint. They had to paint a painting of George Washington. They had to do it in black paint. They got mad at the teacher. They went to the office.
They went home. The next day they went to school. They had to paint.
They painted themselves.

Jason

"How the Tiger Got It's Stripes"

Once there was a mountain lion. He was mad as a dog. Sometimes he would try to catch a zebra. But the zebra could see him. And the zebra would run away. And that made the mountain lion mad. And he had to get a little mouse instead. All of the animals like the monkey, elephant and the giraffe made fun of him. That made him mad but one thing he can do is to fight. So one day he changed his name to a tiger. Once he went to a wizard and the wizard gave him stripes. And now he can catch the zebra.

"How The Tiger Got Stripes"

Well there was once a man who loved to paint. The old man was once using orange paper to paint on. He was a tiger asleep under the orange piece of paper and it had blended in with the tiger. The old man started to make stripes. Well he went way off the paper and on to the tiger. An hour later he had left and the tiger woke up and he saw the stripes and from that day on tigers have had stripes. The End

By Nichole Fisher

"Spring"

The loveliest season of the year is spring. When the flowers bloom, birds sing. the grass grows as green as the leaves. You see the rainbow through the dark blue sky. The sun shines with a great big smile. The wind blows softly. The trees are as green as green paint.

Eric Farber

"My Mystery"

One day I woke up. I was late for school. I ran out the door. I forgot to lock it. When I got home I saw a piece of black fur. I saw foot prints. I went to my room. I saw a honey bottle. So I went to the bathroom. I saw more fur. So I went to the kitchen and I saw a BEAR!

By Keith Foster

"My Love Story"

I feel like I am the luckiest kid alive because my mom is going to have a baby. If she has it during the night I will go over to Cory's house. If my mom has the baby during the day my dad will come and get me at school. We have everything for the baby. The baby's room is almost done. The bedroom set is called Peek-

A-Bear. It is so cute. The thing I hate about it is that the baby is going to be a boy. At least the baby and I are going to be 9 years apart.

By Marcie P.

"The Loveliest Season"

The loveliest season of all is Spring. I'm happy when the flowers start to bloom and the bees start to buzz when the kids come over to play and the wind very softly blows. In the Spring the birds start to sing and chirp and the fruit starts to grow. I can hardly wait for it to come back so I can listen to all the sounds of the birds and the bees and see all the things start to grow like the fruit and the flowers. I wish Spring would hurry up and come. Hurry up Spring!

by Lori

"A Mystery"

One day when I was walking home from school a feather came down from the sky. It was dark red and very bright. When I got home there were some more feathers on the floor. I saw scratches on the walls. I saw some mud marks on the floor and then I heard some flapping. When I heard some chirping everything was the same way. When I opened my closet I saw a cardinal bird.

Mrs. Meador's Fourth Grade

The 4th grade has had a very busy February. We had a wonderful Valentine party and several students won prizes for various games. Also, Tracy Poff won 1st place for her Valentine holder, Erica Hardy won second, and Brandon Urick took third place. We also visited the Science Museum and particularly enjoyed seeing Death of the Dinosaurs in the planetarium. We hope to plan another trip there to see a movie about the Great Barrier Reef off the coast of Australia.

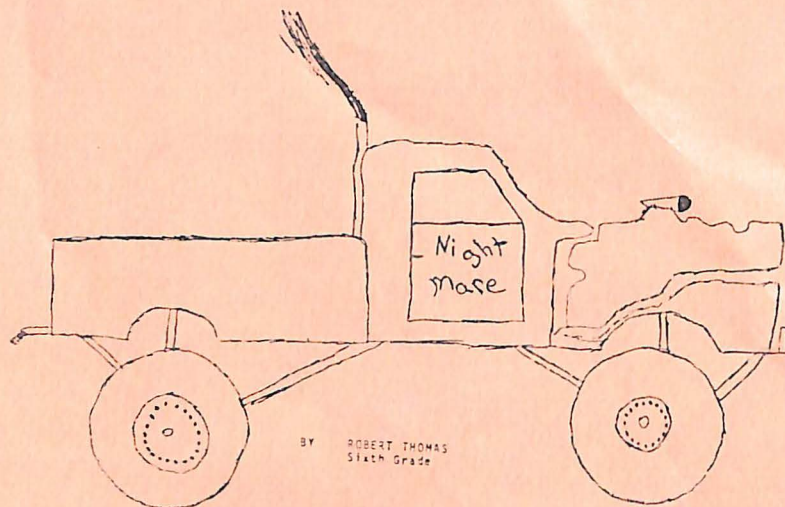

Mr. Dowe's Fifth Grade

The class enjoyed an exciting trip to Lancerlot Skating Center. Thanks to Mr. Summerville for making the arrangements.

Thanks to the PTA for the Valentine Party. Each of us appreciates the "sweet" way you treated us. The teacher also says thanks for the treats.

We are looking forward to our trip to the Municipal Building to see our government in action. Hopefully we will observe courtroom procedures.

On Feb. 29, the class will present "A Review of Black History."

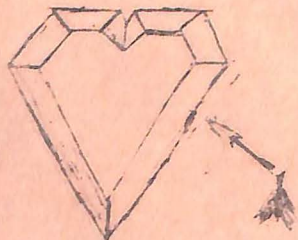

Mr. Bova's Sixth Grade

We would like to welcome Martha Copeland to the sixth grade at Grandin Court. Martha comes to our school from Westside Elementary.

On Feb. 9th, the 6th grade went to Ruffner's Magnet School. We went into Mr. Deck's art room. We saw a play in the lunch room performed by the drama class. Then we heard the band class play the Muppets theme. Each extra class you take is two hours long. We had a very good time visiting the Magnet School.

One April 13th, the first, second and third grade classes visited the Roanoke Youth Symphony at the Civic Center. Everyone especially enjoyed the instruments being played in the audience.

Our trip to Community Hospital

We saw a x-ray room and our classmate Keri got up on it. We got to see the playroom, we played in it!

by Christy Bowen

Miss Anderson's Class

We're glad that Spring is finally here! Maybe now we can all stay healthy and in school. Otherwise, we might miss fun field trips or exciting programs like

"Sinbad, the Sailor" sponsored by the PTA. We enjoyed this interesting drama production of Sinbad and his travels. Thanks to the PTA!!

Mrs. Chapman's Class

The second grade has a new student. His name is Jeffery Bradford and he had been in the county. Welcome Jeffery!!

Last week we had our last Science Museum Outreach. Mrs. Smith talked to us about one of our favorite subjects - DINASOURS! She had slides and things we could touch.

This week we're taking our SRA tests but since we had them in the fall we don't mind them.

Guess what??---our room mother (Amy Phillips' mother) has a new baby boy!

Mrs. Barlow's Class

On March 29, the third grade class visited the Roanoke Transportation Museum. The class was able to experience "hands on" about rolling friction, the mechanical advantage of wheel size on an incline, and measure drive wheels on various engines.

It was a lovely sunny day and the class returned to school having a much better understanding of trains as a means of transportation and their importance to the Roanoke Valley.

Mrs. Meador's Class

The 4th grade has been testing, testing, testing!! There were a lot of tests for us this spring.

We enjoyed Sinbad, the Sailor and appreciate the PTA being able to have such a nice show for us.

We are going to be working on a surprise for Mother's Day gifts beginning next week. Don't ask! It's a surprise!

Our Monticello trip is on May 20th. We will be going on a large tour bus and will leave school about 7:30 that morning. We will tour both Monticello, Thomas Jefferson's home, and the Cyrus McCormick Farm where the reaper was invented. We will return to school about 6:00 that evening.

We are also having a taste-testing party in May as a culminating activity in health. We'll be tasting lots of healthy foods, such as yogurt. Health is our most important possession!!

Mr. Dowe's Class

The pupils were quite thrilled and satisfied with their art activity, "Mobiles". Every pupil completed his project. Each model was interesting and had perfect balance. The items used in this project were "household junk."

Spanish classes begin May 3. The pupils are looking forward to their lessons.

A field trip is planned to the Transportation Museum on May 17th.

Bryan Lenertz and Kris Goin were highly applauded for their performance on the Chess team. Congratulations!!!

GRANDIN COURT'S CHESS TEAM

Grandin Court participated in the Roanoke City Chess League this spring. We had two teams - a primary team (grade 3) and an elementary team (grades 4-6).

The primary team won first place in the tournaments. Team members were Kyle Hayes, Johnny Alisauskas, Matt Phillips and Keith Foster. Congratulations Boys!!!

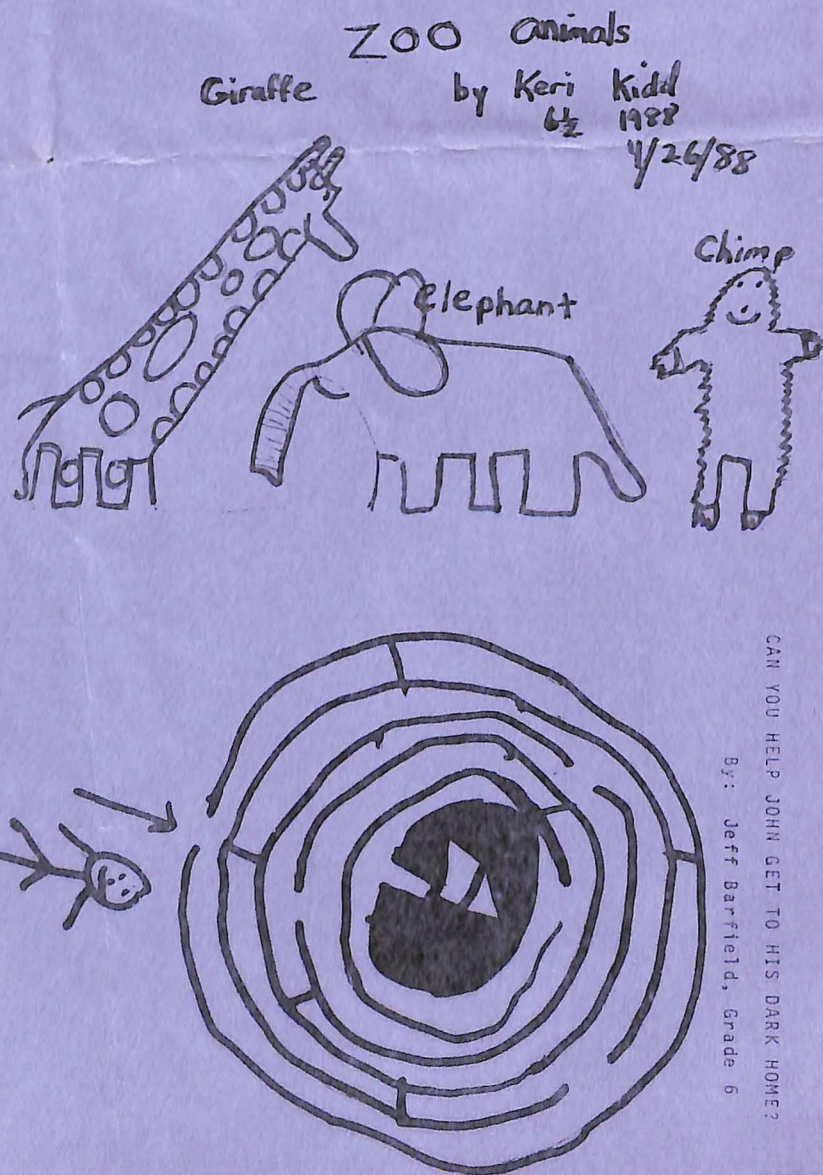

The elementary team is tied for first place with Raleigh Court and Fairview. Although we have played all our games, the winners will be determined after April 30. Elementary team members include Margaret Gumpert and Michelle Green (6th grade), Kris Goin and Bryan Lenertz (5th grade), and Grayson Scott, Brian Whitaker, Derek Cunningham, and Brandon Urlick (4th grade).

The primary team also participated in the Atlantic Coast Scholastic championship in Pulaski on March 26. Our students finished 3rd. This is particularly exciting because several states participated in the tournament.

CONGRATULATIONS TO:

Andy Marchal and Marcus Cardwell in the sixth grade. Andy won a third place award of a $50.00 savings bond in the AAA Traffic Safety Poster Contest. Marcus won a "sit-up" competition against Channel 10's sports announcer Greg Roberts. We're all proud of you!!!

KINDERGARTEN NEWS

Both morning and afternoon kindergarten students went to visit a dairy farm on Tuesday, May 31st. We had a wonderful time! We learned a lot about cows and how milk gets from a cow to us. We would like to thank all of our grown-up friends who went with us: Mrs. Mercer, Mrs. Peery, Mr. & Mrs. Fleming, Mrs. Ozmer, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Evans, Ms. Musgrove, Mrs. Staniunas, and Mrs. Powell. We're glad that you could go.

During the last week of school we will be finishing up our unit on FARMS. We will also be finishing up in math and reading. The students will also be bringing home caterpillars and folders and workbooks!

We have been so busy this year! We have learned many, many new things! We have met and made many, many new friends! We look forward to being off on SUMMER VACATION but we'll miss everyone. (We can't wait to start first grade!!!)

Miss Anderson's Class

It has been interesting this past month learning about basic shapes and primary colors. At times our room looked like an art gallery.

At other times, our room was surrounded by monsters and creatures of fantasy from the second graders' imaginations. It was the "monsterama"!

We've also enjoyed our study of the city and country. We have some talented architects in the first grade.

Field trips are highlights of any school year. Recently the second graders visited Booker T. Washington National Monument for a day of learning, and the first graders traveled to a local dairy farm for a "mooving" experience.

We all look forward to finishing the year with pride and a smile.

Mrs. Chapman's Class

On May 11th the second grade took a trip to the Booker T. Washington Memorial. We had read a biography about him and to see first hand how this former slave lived was interesting. We especially liked the spring, smokehouse and blacksmith shop. Booker Washington went on to become a famous person and educator.

After a week of rain we finally got to cook our pinch pots! We were so happy - none got broken.

Friday, May 20 we made molded candles and planted beans just as early settlers did. Most of our beans are now in our home gardens.

Mrs. Barlow's Class

(This is unedited work by the third grade)

Magic Circle is special to me. It means secrets and friendship. We talk about peoples problems and how to solve them. Talk about people who you loved and then they passed away is the hardest and sadest thing to talk about. If you are in third grade and Mrs. Barlow's the teacher, you will get to do it too.

by Crystal Handy

I like Magic Circle because we get to choose what we're going to talk about. I especially liked the time we had three wishes.

by David Staniunas

I feel that Magic Circle is a good place to share what you think and no one can gossip and laugh at you.

by Annie Eure

The best part about Magic Circle is that I get answers to problems. I feel like I am helping when I help people and it get my problems out.

by Matt Phillips

In Magic Circle we talk about things you said and you didn't mean. In Magic Circle its quiet. What Magic Circle means to me is when the whole class is together and share what each other has to say.

by Johnny Alisauskas

Magic Circle is a way to share your feelings. I think Magic Circle should be in every class. We talk about lies, dreams and other feelings. You can really get your feelings out.

by Megan McKnight

Magic Circle was a time that I could let out my feelings and whats inside me. It was a time to hear somebody's feelings. We picked a topic and talked about it.

by Cory Evans

The reason I like Magic Circle is because say you have something you want to talk about with someone and you can't hold it anymore. This give you a chance to get it out of your system. Thats why I like Magic Circle.

by Sarah Mercer

I like Magic Circle because you get to let out your feelings if their bad or if their good and so you don't have to keep them locked inside. Magic Circle is a very good thing and you can tell what happened and let out what you feel about it.

by Lori Stanley

Magic Circle is very special. You get to talk about your parents and family and something you had fun doing and when you did something wrong. All you second graders will love third grade but the best part is Magic Circle.

by Heather Bly

Mrs. Meador's Class

The 4th graders really enjoyed their trip to Monticello on May 20th. We learned so much about Thomas Jefferson and the history surrounding his home.

We made collages in social studies using old National Geographics. They were beautiful!

We are looking forward to the end of school, particularly to the picnic and early dismissal! Mrs. Meador also has a special surprise planned for us on Tuesday the 14th.

We wish everyone a safe, happy summer. Keep in shape!

Mr. Dowe's Class

May 24th, the fifth grade did a program - musical (Constitution) for the music teacher, Mrs. Burgess. Later on, the fifth grade went on a field trip to the Transportation Museum that was on June 1. At the end of the year, the fifth grade will be doing an activity with moles, they will be painting them. Now the Birthdays: Nancy Campbell, June 3rd; Chris Ross May 22nd, Heather Carneal May 21st. Also on the last day of school, in art we will make a drawing on shirts and iron them so they will stay on.
by: Kimberly Woodward, Joanna Crawford, Shannon Peery

P.S. See you next year!!

Mr. Bova's Class

Not long ago, each sixth grade student was asked to complete two sentences:

- 1) A serious student is a student who...
- 2) A serious and dedicated teacher is a teacher who...

We would like to share some of our thoughts with you:

- 1) A SERIOUS STUDENT IS A STUDENT WHO:
 - ...is always willing to try
 - ...is not afraid to ask for help
 - ...exhibits self-control
 - ...listens while others are talking
 - ...thinks positive
 - ...does not disrupt the class when they are trying to work
 - ...copies down all homework assignments
 - ...doesn't goof-off in class
 - ...helps substitutes and other classmates
 - ...enjoys learning new things
 - ...takes pride in all their work
 - ...doesn't make fun of other students

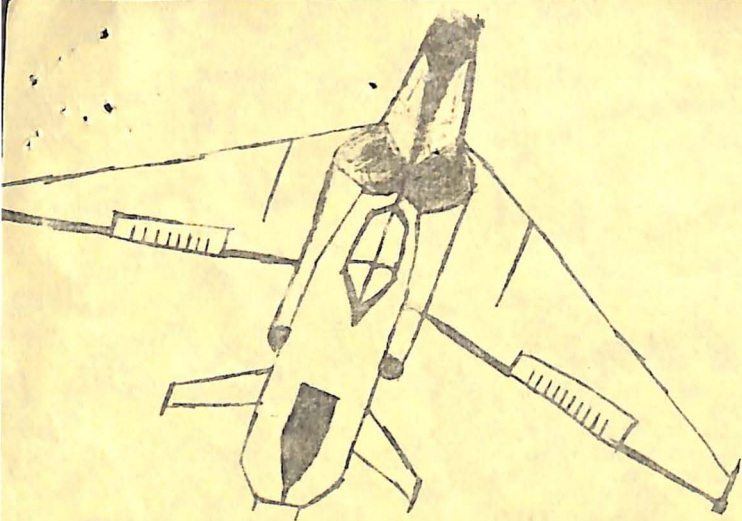

...earns in all work on time
...makes the best use of their time

2) A SERIOUS AND DEDICATED TEACHER IS A TEACHER WHO...

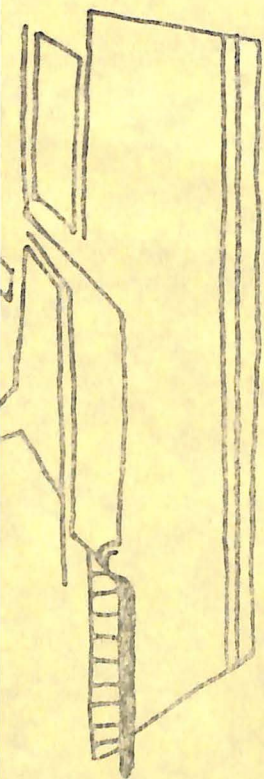

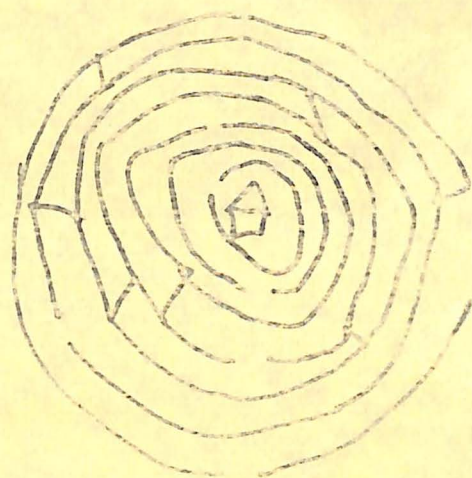

- ...can be strict enough to keep order but nice enough to be respected
- ...is willing to talk with students about personal problems
- ...cares about all students
- ...won't make you write sentences for punishment
- ...won't fly off the handle when a student misbehaves but stays calm
- ...will explain things thoroughly and clearly for you to understand
- ...won't put you down because of your grades
- ...can be a friend and a teacher
- ...treats all students equally
- ...has sympathy and understanding for what the kids feel like
- ...keeps his or her promise
- ...gives each student a chance to do something important
- ...tries to make classes interesting
- ...is caring
- ...does not give too much homework (Hint! Hint!!)
- ...is cool

The 6th grade went to Woodrow Wilson Junior High School. We all got to have a guide to show us around the school. We had three classes plus lunch with them. It gave us a chance to find out what junior high school is like.

Dear PTA Grandin Court School,

On behalf of Roanoke Area Ministries I want to thank you for your donation in honor of one of your teachers, Miss Carrine Williams.

RAM is an ecumenical urban ministry concerned with the plight of those less fortunate.

Your donation will be used for emergency financial assistance. Much of this assistance will include heat, rent, utilities, medical needs, food, etc.

Thank you for aiding us in our efforts to help the needy families in the Roanoke Valley.

Dear PTA Board Members,
Thank you so much for the baby gift & card - it's always nice to be remembered at times like this. Actually, the birth of another child just insures that my association with the Grandin Court PTA will be a long & enduring one! Many thanks for your understanding & support.

Sincerely,
Christy Davis

To The Grandin Court PTA,
I never got an opportunity to thank you for the roses during Principal Appreciation Week. You made me feel very special. I was very proud to wear the roses because it was an indication of what a fantastic PTA we have at Grandin Court. I think that you are the best. Thanks again for Everything. Marsha Christy

Grandin Court PTA,

I would like to thank you for making "Teachers Appreciation Week" very special. It was such a joy to come to school and see a special treat from you every day. The apple, mints, red pen, stickers, and carnation were all very nice. I will remember Grandin Court Elementary with fond memories. I will be happy to substitute teach again at such a fine school.

Dear Mary Anne,

Just a special note to say thanks a million for the "refreshment and first-aid tray" that you provided on Parent-Teacher Conference Day.

I have worked in many schools, and I can honestly say that this was one of the most kind and thoughtful gestures ever done for me as a staff member.

Many thanks for all the nice things you do for Grandin Court and your excellent leadership.
It's really a pleasure to be associated with a

Without the supervision of an adult AND/OR has the responsibility for supervising younger children in the absence of an adult.

More school children are "latchkey" children because their parents work. Therefore they are faced with a greater responsibility for self-care.

Parents are responsible for the latchkey child's welfare, care, and safety.

This brochure is designed to help parents who cannot be home with their children before and/or after school. Children left alone may have to deal with fear, boredom, loneliness, and household mishaps as well as with emergencies such as injury or fire. The success of coping in this situation depends on good preparation of parents and children through:

- Communicating—talk and listen to your child.
- Being consistent—in discipline and in expectation.
- Keeping rules simple and few—write them down and display them.
- Assigning kid-sized chores—use lists with steps involved.
- Reviewing expectations regularly.
- Showing interest and reassuring your child.
- Letting your affection show.

PARENTS MUST PRACTICE

with their children to assure that children know how to handle situations which include:

- Keeping a list of important emergency numbers
- Using a list of VIP numbers
- Using the key to get in
- Where to put the key
- How to report in or use a contact system when the child gets home
 - Calling the parent at work
 - Calling a neighbor or friend
- How to fix a snack
- How to get started and work on after-school home activities
- What to do in case of fire
 - How to report a fire
 - Using an emergency fire plan
- How to use the telephone
 - Answering the phone
 - Keeping the line open
 - Never playing with the phone

- How to call an ambulance
- How to call the police
- What to do when someone comes to the door
- Calling a neighbor to ask for help
- What to do if something is suspiciously different when the child gets home
- How to give directions to your home
- Having and using a home safety program
 - Knowing basic safety precautions
 - Being able to recognize hazards

GUIDELINES

To help determine if you and your child can handle a "latchkey" situation:

- Is your child fearful of being alone?
- Does your child usually handle home responsibilities without being reminded?
- Does your child remain reasonably calm and use good problem-solving skills in an emergency?
- Does your child usually make wise choices and use good judgment?
- Can your child use time wisely in your absence?
- Is your child generally dependable?
- Can your child handle self-care responsibilities appropriately in your absence?
- Have you arranged adequate support systems for your child?
- Have you organized the home structure for easy management by your child?
- Do you have an arrangement or the flexibility to get immediate attention to your child when necessary?

IN THE GOOD OLD SUMMERTIME

To Parents:

This booklet, Summer "At Home" Learning Opportunities, is sent to you as a service by the Roanoke City Public Schools. It offers some practical suggestions on ways to keep your child's mind and body active and alert this summer.

Learning and language are natural parts of life. The activities that follow offer ways you and your child together can explore and develop these necessary keys to a successful life.

Remember, this booklet is just a starting point--let your mind and imagination soar--discover the many ways you can help your child learn and grow this summer!

WHO? You, your child, your family, your friends

WHAT? Using experiences that come your way

WHEN? Anytime

WHERE? Anywhere

WHY? Because you are your child's first and most important teacher

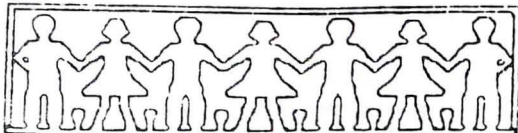

HOW? Read on

READING

BE A MODEL!

- > Help your child see how important reading is in your daily life. Encourage her/him to see how much fun reading can be and to discover the world of opportunities that opens up through a love of reading.
- > READ TO your child. Children cherish time spent together. Let your child READ TO YOU. Discuss the stories you read.
- > Take your child to the LIBRARY and explore all it has to offer:
 - *Books *Tapes *Videos
 - *Magazines *Newspapers *Special programsBring home lots of things to enjoy before the next trip.
- > As a special treat, buy your child a BOOK. It doesn't have to be expensive to be treasured.
- > Share things that you read at home. Mail and recipes interest most children. As you go along, many things will occur to you.
- > Reading is a gift that no one can take away. Help your child develop a love of reading. As a life-long habit, it can bring success and pleasure.

LISTENING

BE A MODEL!

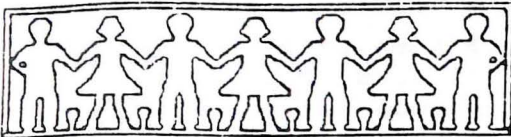

- > As often as you can, pay close attention when your child asks questions or shares something with you.
- > Set aside a special time each day, even if it is only five minutes, when you can read aloud to your child.
- > If your child asks for a favorite story to be read many times, please remember that this may be very boring to an adult but it makes children happy AND helps them become better readers.
- > Play rhyming games. See how many words you can find to rhyme with bus, car, park, or any word you choose which fits with what you are doing at the time.
- > Sing songs. Recite nursery rhymes, poems or TV jingles. Share games like "Ring-around-the Rosie" and jump-rope songs. Get your child to sing with you and to share with other children.
- > Teach your child to follow directions. Start with one thing: "Please take these spoons to the table." After a day or two add something like: "Take these spoons to the table and put them next to the plates." Later add a third direction.

TALKING

BE A MODEL!

- > After you read aloud to your child, or watch a TV show or movie together, talk about the story. Ask questions like:
 - *WHO did what? *WHY did they do it?
 - *WHAT would YOU do if you had this happen?
 - *Did you LIKE the story? Why? Why not?
 - *What is another way this story could END?
- > Listen to what your child has to say about the stories, shows and movies to know if he/she is understanding and enjoying what you are sharing. Things that are 'too grown-up', or hard to understand, can upset children.
- > Talk about things that happen around you:
 - *In your home *In stores
 - *In your neighborhood *In trafficPoint out things you think are interesting. Name things like flowers, trees, and animals. Talk about what you are going to do tomorrow.
- > Ask lots of questions.
Try to get your child to ask lots of questions.
Answer as many questions as you can, and work with your child to find answers to questions you can't answer.

THINKING

BE A MODEL!

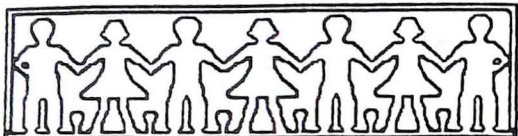

- > SHARE IDEAS, thoughts, and feelings with your child.
Make it easy for your child to share the same with you.
- > Let your child MAKE SIMPLE CHOICES: "Do you want to:
 - *order chocolate OR strawberry ice cream?"
 - *wear shorts OR jeans?"
 - *spend your money for this OR that?"
- > Ask your child to HELP PLAN and take some responsibility for:
 - *a picnic *a trip *a party
 - *a special meal *a shopping list *mending something
- > Explain SAFETY RULES about:
 - *swimming pool *crossing streets *strangers.Ask questions about the rules to see if child understands.
Make up problems using the rules and let your child tell you what she/he would do.
- > Read SIGNS with your child, have him/her tell you what they mean: "What do you do at an EXIT?"
- > Be free with PRAISE when you approve of your child's actions or choices. Explain your reasons when you feel a situation could have been handled differently.

MATH

BE A MODEL!

- > In the kitchen, let your child help by:
 - *MEASURING, stirring, pouring for you when you cook.
 - *DIVIDING fruits, vegetables, or pies in halves, quarters..
 - *Making the RIGHT NUMBER of sandwiches.
 - *CLEANING UP afterward.
- > At the grocery store, talk about:
 - *SHAPE and SIZE: "Is this box round or square, big or little?"
 - *NUMBER: "We need three yellow apples. Get them, please."
 - *MONEY: "What can we buy for a quarter? A dollar?"
"What costs more (or less)? An apple or a lemon?"
- > When you are walking or riding together:
 - *COUNT yellow cars, cats, street signs, anything that will interest your child.
 - *Talk about HOW LONG you think the trip will take, HOW FAR it is in blocks or miles? WHAT TIME you expect to get home.
- > Draw a CLOCK for your child with hands showing time for a favorite TV show. Mark a special day on a CALENDAR and count the days as they go by.

PLAY

BE A MODEL!

- > Being outside is the greatest thing about summer for most children. Make sure your child doesn't get TOO HOT, TOO TIRED, TOO MUCH SUN. All of these can make a child very fussy or ill.
- > PLAY GAMES with your child when you have time; (Explain and follow the rules):
 - *Hide and Seek
 - *Dominoes
 - *Easy board games
- > Make it easy for your child to use some ART SUPPLIES:
 - *Pencils *Paper *Crayons *Scissors *Glue *Tape.This gives a child "something to do" that is both calm and creative. "Making a picture" of something your child has enjoyed, wants to do, or imagines gives him/her another wonderful means of self-expression.
- > Make SIMPLE PAPER BAG PUPPETS for plays and make-believe.
- > Recipe for simple "modeling" CLAY---mix together;
 - *2 cups flour
 - *1 cup salt
 - *1/2 tsp. cooking oil
 - *a little water
 - *(A drop of food coloring can be added.)
- > Toys, games and art materials need to be PUT AWAY, TOO.
~~Make this a normal part of the fun~~

Need Someone To Talk With?

Maybe you're home alone...
maybe you're lonely or scared...
maybe you need a friend.

Call Phone Friend!

What Phone Friend Is.

Phone Friend is a free program being offered by the Roanoke Valley Chapter of the American Red Cross. It is there for your children to call should they not be able to reach you. Sometimes they may need a special friend to help them through scary moments, loneliness, or to tell them what to do if the pet gets sick, or if they hear strange noises in the house.

What Phone Friend Isn't..

Phone Friend is not a crisis hotline, but our volunteers can quickly help your children should they call us first in an emergency. Nor is Phone Friend intended to replace YOUR instructions to YOUR children. We just want to be there when your child needs someone to talk with.

Hours of Operation..

Our hours of operation are from 2:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m., Monday through Friday. We may, in the future, look toward expanding our hours of operation, but we must first be able to deliver a quality Red Cross program during the most critical time period we know of - - that is, the time from when your children are dismissed from school until the time you can come home.

Who's Answering the Phones?

Our Phone Friend telephone lines will be staffed by well-trained Red Cross volunteers who have a special interest in children and their safety. These volunteers will have ready access to all local emergency resources in case there is a problem more serious than loneliness, fright, or a need for information.

What Can Parents Do to Help?

You can support the program by sharing this information with your children, and by explaining the purpose of Phone Friend. By placing the Phone Friend sticker on the telephone, your children will always be able to call us for a listening ear. We encourage responsible use of the telephone and ask that you train your children to know what numbers to call for other emergencies, such as fire, police or rescue squad dispatchers. We also suggest that you post all emergency numbers by the telephone. For children calling outside the Roanoke area, our toll-free number is: 1-800-354-3388.
