Roanoke, Virginia

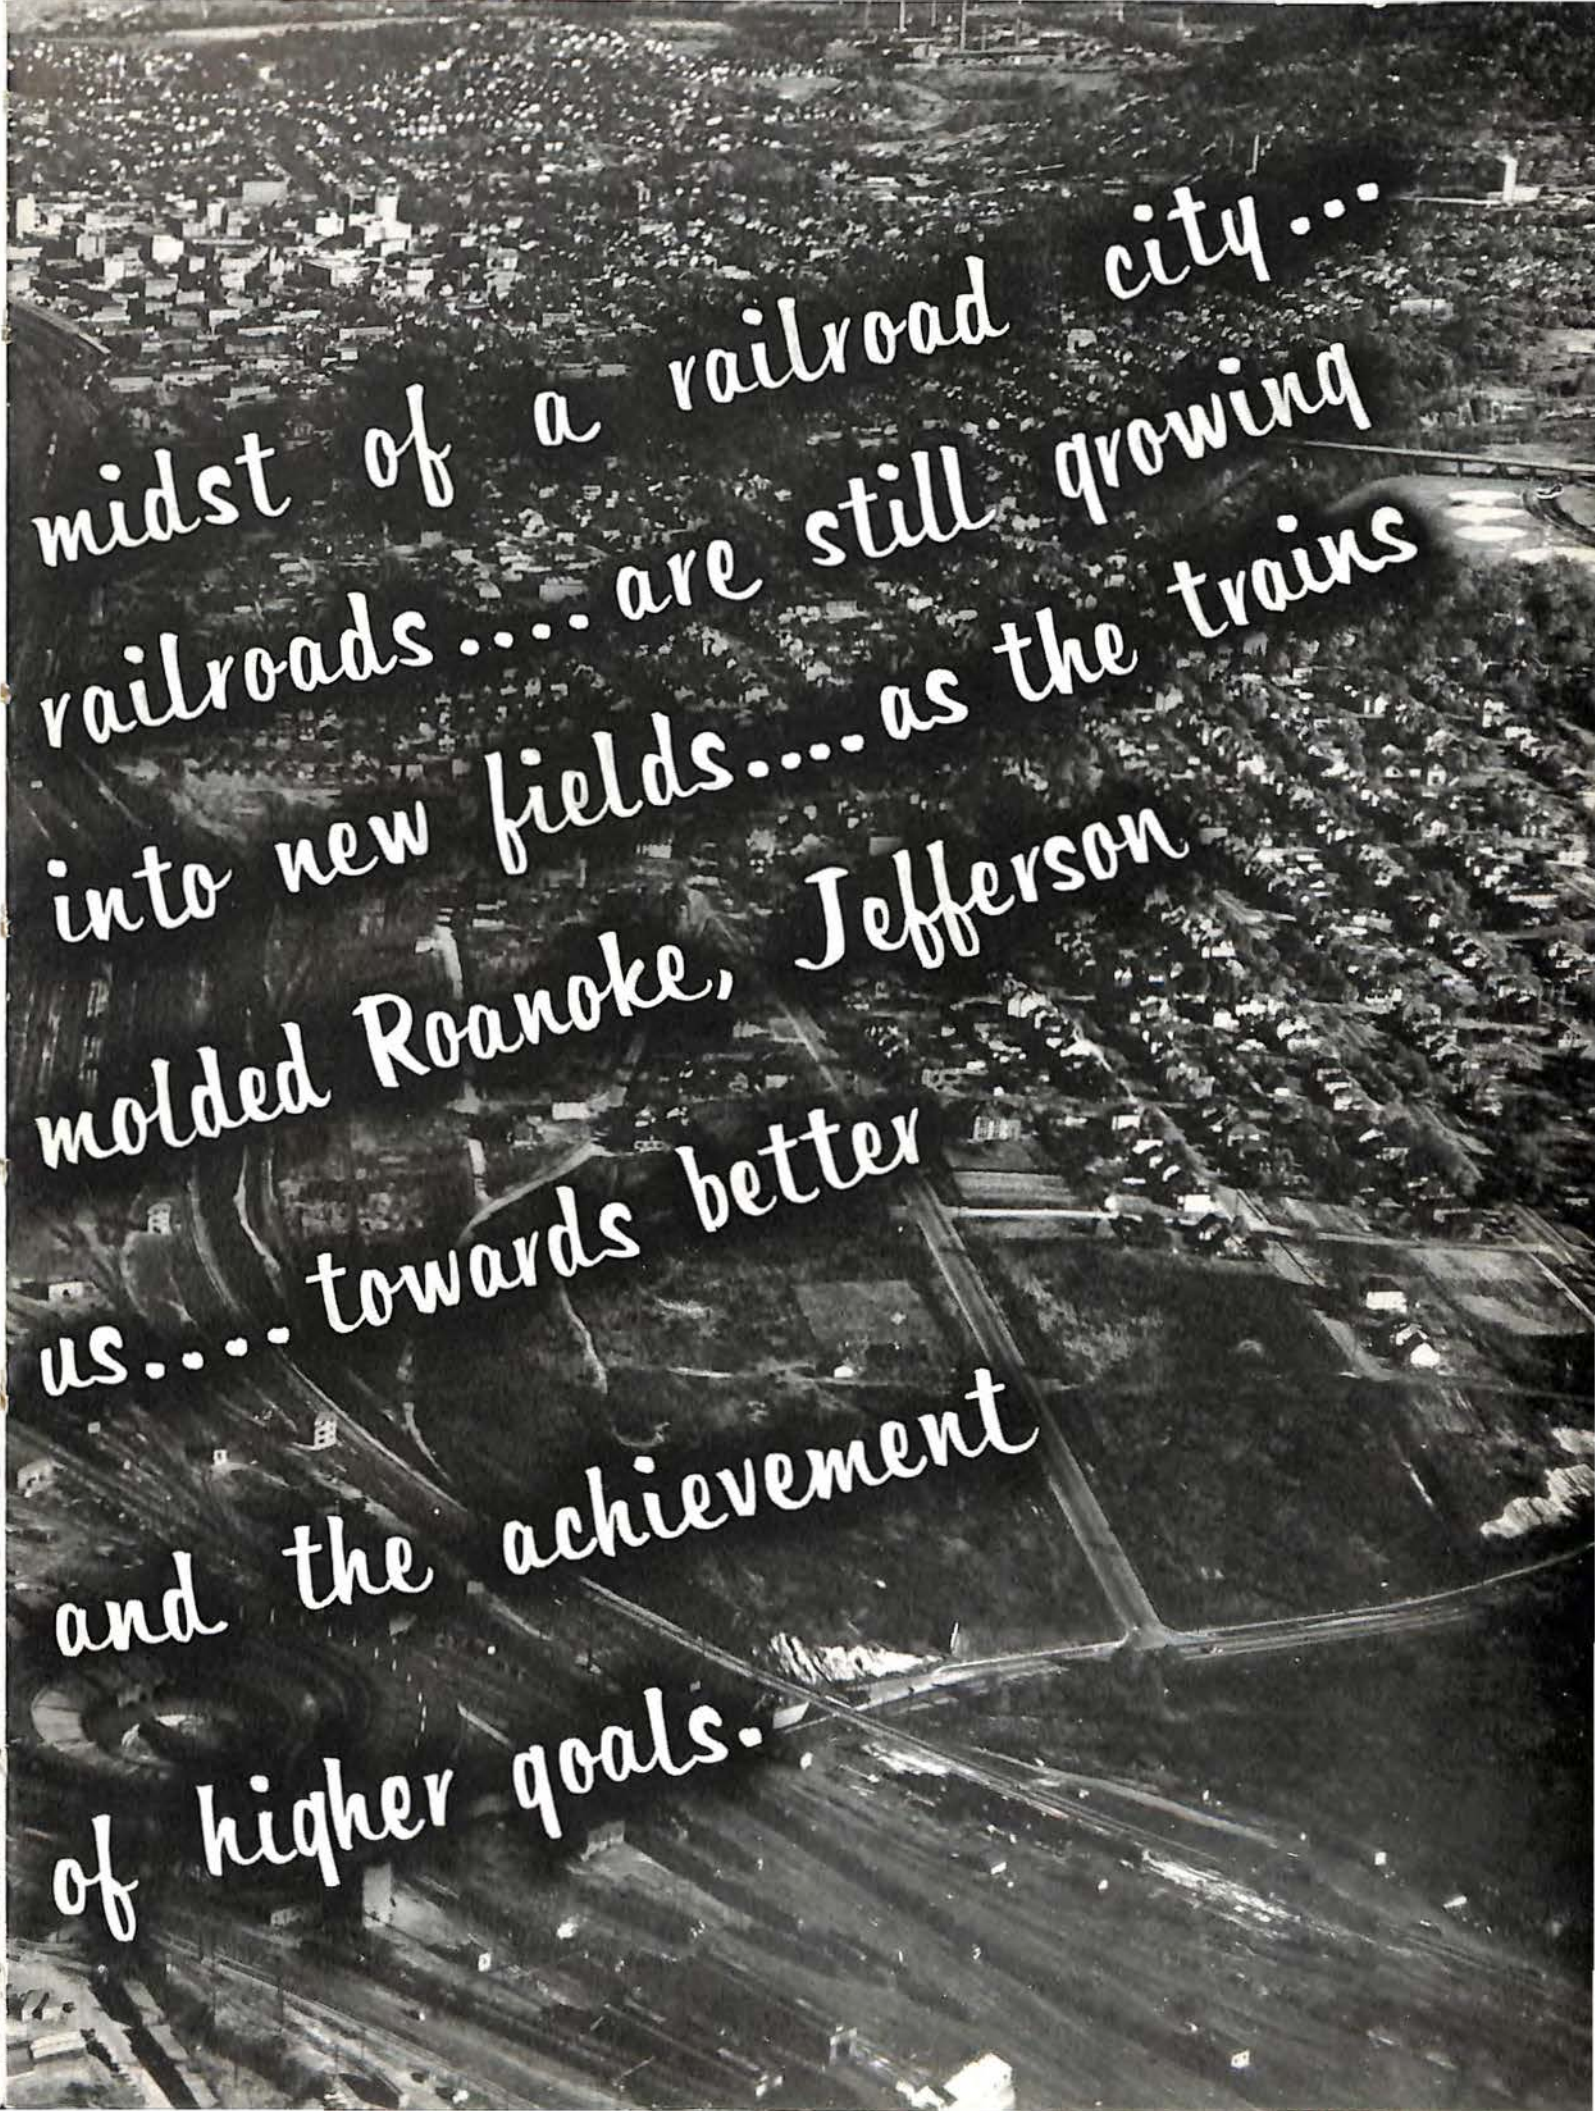

Jefferson .... in the
we .... like our
in size .... branching of the N.&W. have has molded

midst of a railroad city...
railroads... are still growing into new fields... as the trains molded Roanoke, Jefferson us... towards better
and the achievement of higher goals.

Jefferson Senior High School

The growth of our city has paralleled the growth of the Norfolk and Western . . . as it has prospered, so have we.

Here at Jefferson we realize its benefit to us . . . to our families . . . symbolizing to us a future goal of security and prosperity as we reach adulthood . . . We in our daily lives at school have learned to appreciate this fast-growing railroad city . . . our city.

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Juniors . . . a happy medium . . . the wide-eyed Sophomores below . . . the poised Seniors still above, though no longer towering.

We displayed a wide variety of talent in our own Junior Assembly, "George Washington Visits Jefferson" . . . a fitting theme for the last days of February . . . humorous, but true to life of us typical teenagers who constantly cause confusion . . . ranging from the love-sick couples who roam halls to the barbarians who invade the cafeteria at around twelve noon.

The school year draws to a close . . . excitement . . . hard work . . . all mixed with happiness . . . then the day of the long awaited Junior-Senior Prom finally arrived . . . time to be remembered . . . packed with new ideas, friends and experiences; along with added responsibilities . . . a wonderful year indeed . . . but we still have the big one to look forward to . . . that all-important Senior year.

SOPHOMORE CLASS OFFICERS

Susan Moyer, Secretary; Mr. Frank O. Smith, Adviser; Lee Mastin, President; Lawrence Koontz, Vice President; C. P. Brumfield, Treasurer, who is late getting aboard—so busy collecting Class dues

Orientation opens the door to a new, entirely different life . . . a new world to our Sophomores . . .

First impressions . . . the immensity of the school . . . the crowds of people . . . the strange rooms and large classes . . . and, of course . . . the everlasting asking of questions . . . "Which way is the Gym?" . . . "Is the Society Hall in the basement?"

And again a new world of acquaintances . . . forming friendships . . . learning by making mistakes . . . becoming a part of things . . . electing officers . . . finally settling down . . .

As months go by . . . Our Soph benefits . . . new ideals are formed . . . both character and personality are molded . . . and Jefferson, with its atmosphere and environment, will be the foundation . . . for this and much more . . . as our Soph lives up to the great expectations of his Junior year.

For the second consecutive year Jefferson, under the able direction of Coach Rudy Rohrdanz, won the City-County Trophy. The team kept alive our tradition of fine FOOTBALL, winning six games, tying two, and losing only two.

Hopes for the State Championship were running high until a heart-breaking tie with Danville was followed by a loss to Maury. Although defeated earlier in the season by Kingsport, the loss to Maury was our only Conference defeat. The last game of the season the team proved their capabilities by tying Woodrow Wilson High of Portsmouth, state champions.

Coach Rohrdanz said this was the team's best game. Although "shaky" at the first of the season, by hard work, they had come through in fine style.

Jefferson's footballers dominated both the Roanoke City-County and the Western District All-Star teams by placing four players on each. On the Western District team were Jack Reynolds, Carol Jamison, Ken Catron, and Don McPeak, Jack Reynolds, Carol Jamison, Ken Catron and David Edmonds placed on the City-County eleven. One Jefferson player, Jack Reynolds, made All-State honors. Practically the entire Jefferson starting line-up received nominations to one of these three teams.

Thirty-two players received letters, only twenty of these going to seniors. The remaining boys should furnish Coach Rohrdanz with a fine nucleus for next year's team.

STATE CHAMPIONS! Under the able direction of a new coach, Mr. Preston Brown, Jefferson's Hoopsters won all the honors to be had as they captured the City-County and Western District Championships and topped these by winning the State Championship for our school for the first time since 1941.

Runner-Up All-American Center Dick Kopley added to the honors by leading the State Group I scoring race. Louis Mills, who sparked the team with his outstanding floor play, was voted the Outstanding Player at the Virginia High School State Basketball Tournament.

With only three lettermen returning for the 1954-55 WRESTLING season, Coach Bill Bynum molded a team which ended the season with eight wins and only four losses.

Nine of our boys competed in the State Tournament February 25-26 at Charlottesville. They were Pat Schaffer, Ronnie Saul, Harry Rudolph, John Hurt, Jim English, Jim Worley, Warren Gardner, Robert Shumate, and Carol Jamison.

Bruce Brenner lived up to expectations by winning second place in the State Tournament. Carol Jamison took third place and Everett Custer took fourth, each in his respective weight.

Only three of the first string, Carol Jamison, Everett Custer and Jim English, are graduating, leaving the rest of the squad to return next year.

Many schools on our wrestling schedule hold an advantage over the Jefferson matmen in that they have four years of wrestling experience to our three.

With the continued optimism held this year, Jefferson's wrestling squad will go even further next year.

TENNIS, 1955

With the return of many experienced players, Mr. A. D. "Hunk" Hurt expects a fine tennis season this spring. The big gun in the Magician's line-up should be Bobby Cunningham, the number one man last year.

Although the 1954 team didn't win the state crown, they played many good matches and always showed a will to win. It is hoped that through their outstanding play the 1955 team may create more interest in tennis here at Jefferson.

The VARSITY "J" CLUB is made up of boys who have won their letter in any of the six varsity sports here at Jefferson.

An annual event sponsored by the "J" Club is the Pigskin Prom. The Pigskin Queen and her court are chosen by members of the football squad and crowned at the dance by the "J" Club President. A square dance is the Club's spring project. The year is ended with a picnic for members following final exams.

Many awards are given to Jefferson athletics by the Varsity "J" Club. The Paul E. Martin Memorial Award is given to the football player most resembling the character and ability of Paul Martin. The Jimmy Akers Memorial Trophy is for Wrestling, while the Berkley Mauck Memorial Plaque is for track. The recipient must be a senior.
