"Buck" Via, our Director of Activities, performs one of his never-ending duties of selling school supplies. He is in charge of managing all business for sports, publications, organizations, forensic activities. He can answer all and any questions asked while doing a thousand other things.

Keeping our office in order are Miss Chesney and Mrs. White. Their many duties include . . . answering the phones and handing out messages . . . being responsible for the daily attendance sheet . . . fixing student schedules . . . sending grades to colleges . . . compiling notices . . . keeping records of our school years. These two patient people are always willing to give you a helping hand.

Mrs. Foley, an Andrew Lewis graduate, is Mr. Via's right hand lady.

Here, Mrs. Ethel Fields, Dean of Girls, V. Rogers, M. Smith, E. Masinter, S. Robertson, S. Rushton and N. Barrett attend to their numerous office duties.

The Guidance Department offers a program of service to all Jefferson students. It helps the student secure information concerning the possibility and desirability of further schooling; helps the student to adjust to the school, his curriculum and all activities; helps him find his specific abilities and skills, and of course encourages parental and pupil cooperation.

Mr. M. G. White, Chairman of the Guidance Committee, prepares a letter of recommendation to Agnes Scott for Lynn Lambert.

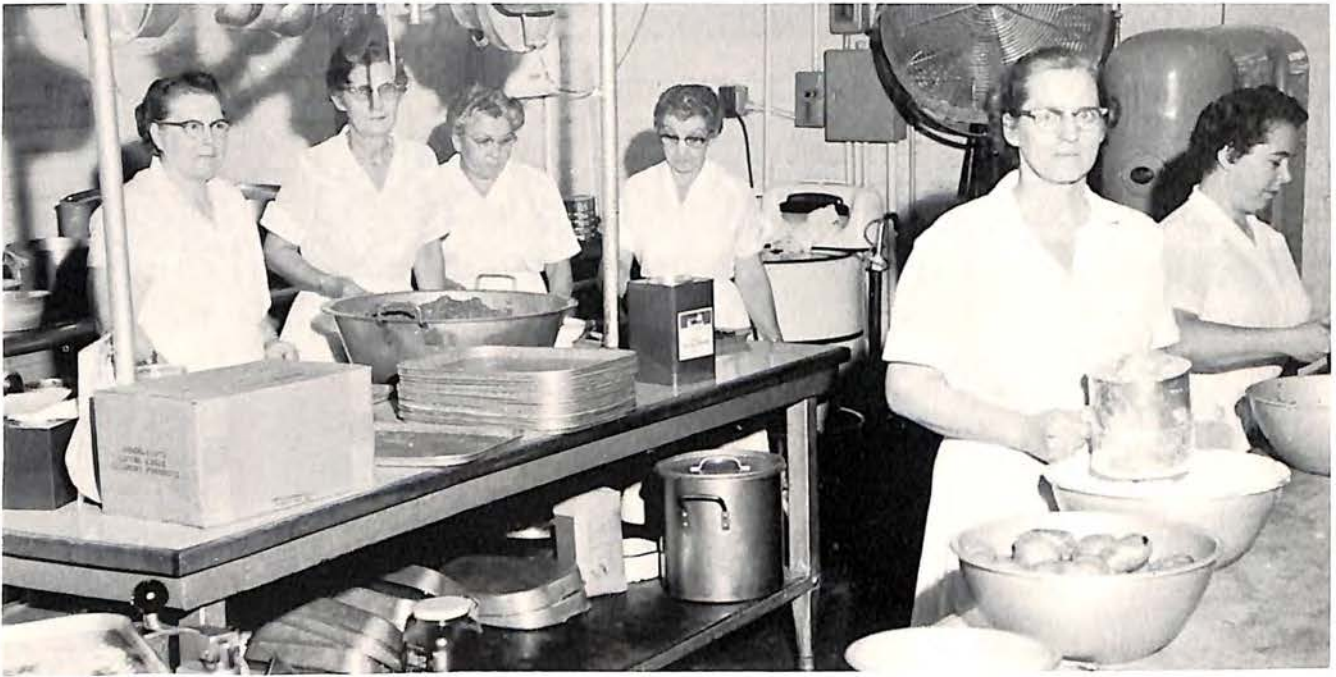

C. Huffman, Mr. James Bishop Dean of Boys and D. Rierson look on as C. Wilson makes a list of absentees to be checked.

Miss Margaret Fisher consults the latest bulletin from Roanoke College to answer one of the many inquiries about the cross-town school . . . this one from Kyle Umberger.

Our seven lunch periods run smoothly and effectively under the supervision of our cafeteria ladies, directed by Mrs. Ruth F. Davis. Pictured above, they are, Mrs. Mildred Slusser, Mrs. Ruth Davis, Mrs. Ruby Wiley, Mrs. Edyth Garland, Mrs. Willa Higgins, and Mrs. Martha Hartberger.

On the shoulders of our Maintenance Department fall the big responsibilities of keeping our school clean, neat and in good repair. A staff of custodians is on duty at all times.

Mr. Nathaniel Carr, head of the Department, is pictured at lower left.

The custodians are Mr. Jake Smith, Mr. Ed Gillespie, Mr. Herman Skanks, Mr. T. F. Denton, and Mr. Zebedee Meadows.

Class Work

Jefferson students are offered many courses from which we may choose our curriculum — college preparatory, business, vocational, and general. On the following pages we hope to give samples of the many different types of subjects which we may take.

BIOLOGY . . . is the study of plants and animals. At the middle right Cathie Logan is comparing Charles Lester to the skeleton for the rest of this Biology class.

ART . . . this department is kept very busy throughout the year helping with assemblies, plays, posters, decorations, etc. To the left are Kenneth Orange, Zurna Pentecost, Jackie Preton, and Judy Woodyard.

LIBRARY . . . The library play an important part in the school life of every Jeffite. There we have a wide choice of books for research, parallels, and relaxation-reading. Also we find many magazines and newspaper. Below Phyllis Saul is checking cards while Dallas Craig and Carol Sumner leaf through parallel booklets.

SPEECH . . . We all enjoy the fine plays put on each year by the Speech Dept., but few realize the hours of hard work that go into each production. Below, Mickey White and Tommy Munson adjust a spotlight while Miss Hardie looks on. At the lower right, Ronnie Pharr and Billy Pleasants fixing the angel's window for the Chimes assembly, prove you have to be a "monkey" to be on stage crew.

Physical Education builds stronger bodies, teaches rules of health and good sportsmanship. It is one of the many classes which play a big part in Jefferson's school curriculum. This phys. ed. class seems to be enjoying a game of volleyball, a favorite among girls' sports.

Perfection is almost an essential in good music. Jefferson is lucky to have an excellent music department under the capable direction of Mr. Jerry White. Here Mr. White works with Henry Reese, who was a member of this year's All State Band.

In a General Business class, one of the many courses offered by the Commercial Department, Miss Marn Ann Foster, a Senior at Longwood College, teaches a unit on "Money and How to Manage It." Carolyn Hairfield, Pat Robinson, and Beverly Wood listen attentively.

Each course offered in the Vocational School trains boys to get apprenticeship work in their respective trades.

The school offers courses in Electricity, Welding, Printing, Sheet Metal, Machine Shop, Auto Motive Shops, Cabinet Making, Industrial Arts, and Mechanical Drawing.

Eugene Davis, David Martin, and Donny Poff tear down an engine as part of the Auto Mechanics training class.

Here Bud Stanley and Gerald Norville are locking type in a form preparatory to printing posters for the Senior Play.

Seniors

Senior Class Officers Of 1958

"Tempus fugit" expresses the way our years at Jefferson have gone by. Our Senior year brings many wonderful memories . . . homerooms in the auditorium when we had pep assemblies just for us . . . homecoming . . . Snow Queen Dance . . . our Madonna . . . Senior Assembly . . . the wonderful feeling of leaving assemblies first . . . writing of our themes . . . Junior-Senior prom . . . Senior Day!

At last we have achieved our first goal. For many of us there will be college, for other, work. Marriage is also one of our big plans of the future.

Yes, we have really had great times at Jefferson. Many wonderful friendships have been formed and we have had many experiences that we can never forget.

Juniors

On a windy spring day, the officers of the Junior Class are seen discussing plans for the Junior-Senior Prom. They are President, Harry Gamble; Secretary, Page Montgomery; Treasurer, Lucy Boyd Lemon and Vice President, Ken Moorman.

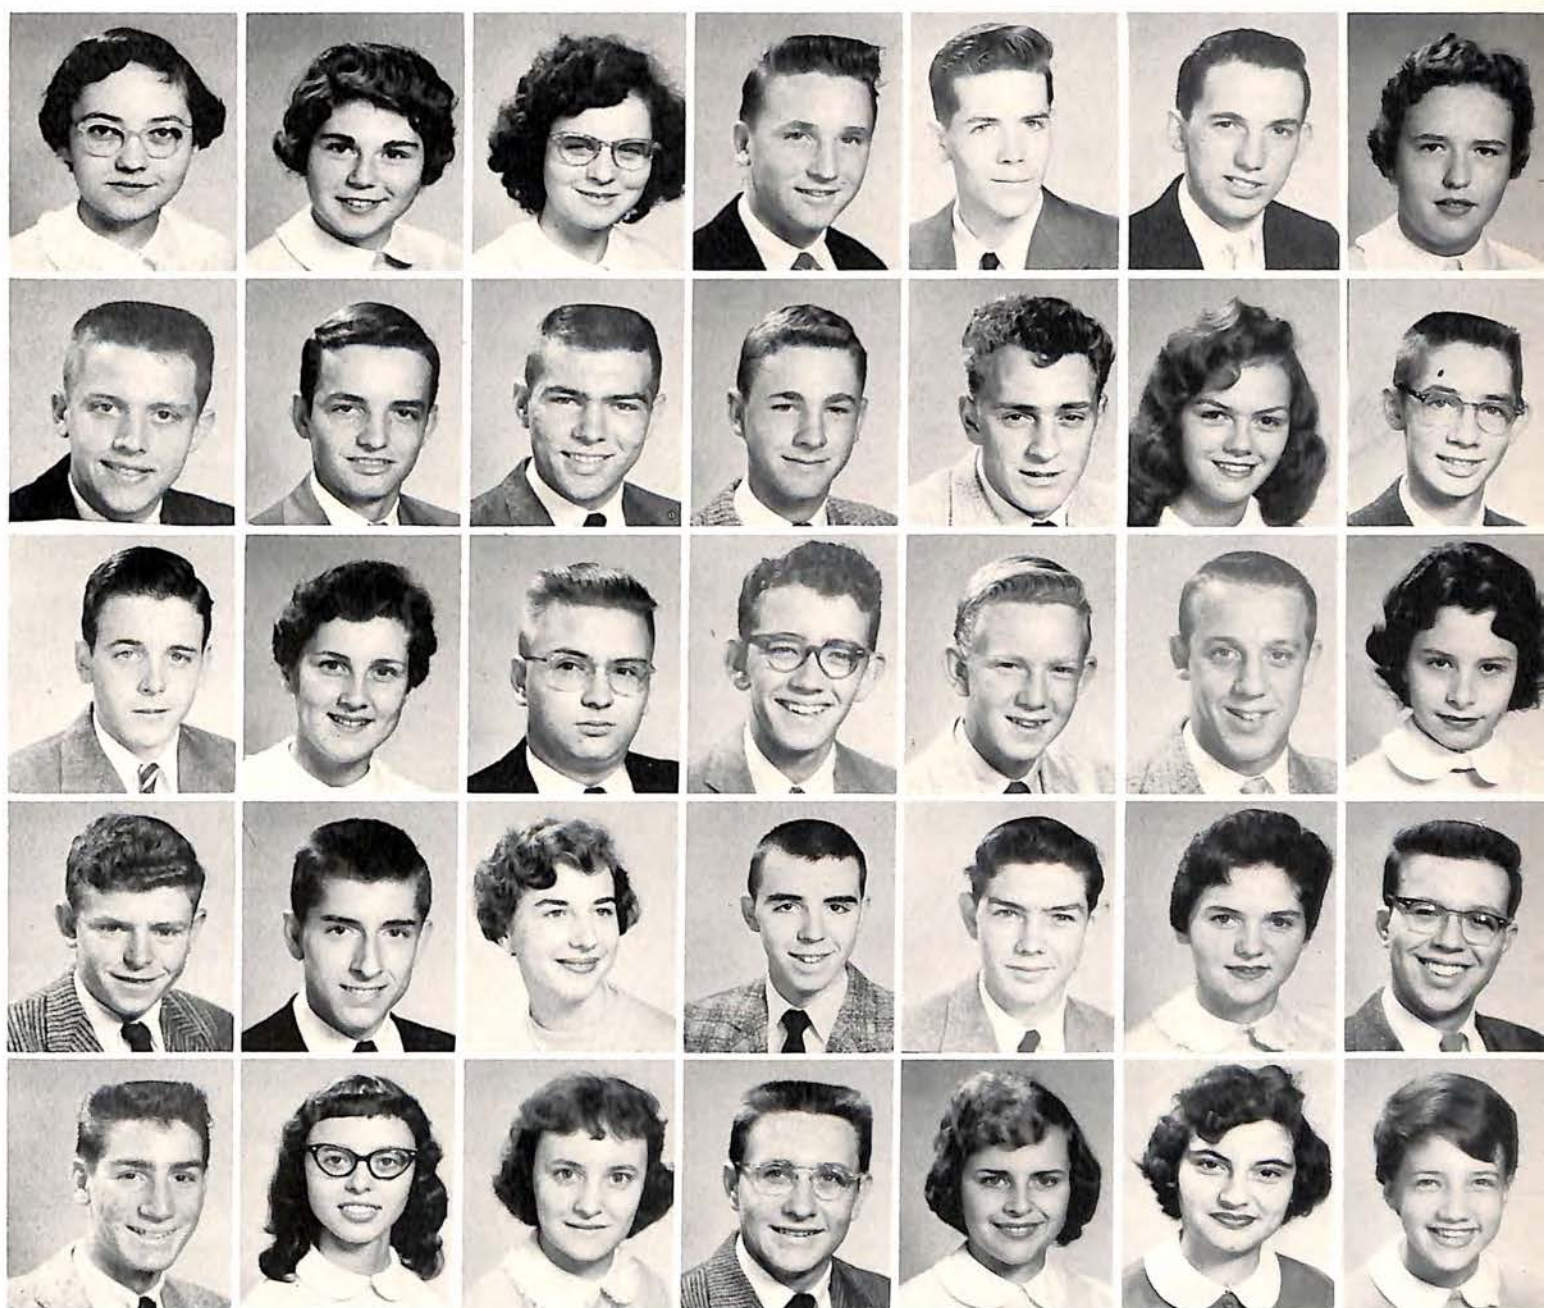

When we became Juniors, we realized that we must assume more of the responsibilities of our school. Early in the year, when the Class was organized, we started to see some of these plans take shape.

The first duty of the newly elected officers was to direct the Junior Assembly. The theme this year was "You are There", which displayed the many talents of our class.

When spring rolled around, Juniors began planning the Junior-Senior prom, the high-light of the season. This dance honors the Seniors who graduate in a few days. And then the great day arrives — and we are Seniors.

All eyes focused on the cheerleaders across the street during an outdoor pep assembly.

Sophomores

Those doors, so big and cold looking from the outside, opened into a friendly and refreshing world . . . as the sophomores attended Jefferson for the first time.

The crowded halls . . . the short lunch periods . . . the rush to classes . . . new friendships . . . we finally got into the swing of things.

But those mid term exams! . . . we found out what cramming really is . . . the days flew by with hops, assemblies, basketball games, and the dances . . . then, all of a sudden it's June . . . we really feel like a part of dear Jeff now . . . we await anxiously the coming year with all its hopes and promises . . . at last we'll be Juniors!

Mr. Charles Buchanan, stands behind the group.

P. Naff, Secretary, is not pictured.

The purpose of the Distributive Education Club is to make the students more familiar with the business men and women of Roanoke and to bring better understanding and friendly cooperation between the school and the business world.

D. E. students attend classes at Jefferson in the morning and work afternoons and Saturdays, thus learning through study and experience.

The D. E. Club, sponsored by Mr. Charles Buchanan engages in various activities throughout the year. These include candy sales to raise money, participation in the state D. E. convention, and, in the spring, giving an employer-employee banquet.

Carol Sue Cassell, secretary to Mr. Arnold Schlossberg, receives her work for the afternoon.

The Future Homemakers of America is a national organization of girls studying homemaking in junior and senior high schools. The purpose of the organization is expressed by its motto, "Toward New Horizons." The F. H. A. provides for the development of leadership and stresses the importance of being a good member of family, school, and community.

The Y-Teens have been nationally active since 1946. Their purpose is to instill in the hearts and minds of the girls a feeling of fellowship and brotherhood.

Meetings are organized in an interesting manner; to be entertaining as well as informative.

Through these high school girls, the purpose of the Young Women's Christian Association is fulfilled.

Junior Y-Teens

Senior Y-Teens 1

First Row:

J. Young, B. Beck, S. Kelly, S. Irwin, C. Cassell, G. Brugh, N. Cecil, D. Schlosberg, J. DeLong, I. Feather.

Second Row:

The Y-Teens increased so in number that two groups, Y-Teens I and II were formed.

A Y-Teen tries to live an ideal life and learns to take her place in her community. In doing this, the programs range from world fellowship to vocations and relationships. Get-togethers are often through Y-Teen dances, coke parties, outings, and slumber parties. This gives us a chance not only to have fun but to make more friends.

Projects number many from taking albums to the hospital wards to selling peanuts for the March of Dimes.

Here we see P. Hughes, G. Oakey, N. Flint (president), R. Mickey, Helen Dobyns, and R. Coverstone, officers of Y-Teens I holding a bake sale at Morgan-Eubanks. (Not pictured is R. Mickey.)

N. Brown, P. McGavock, and N. Cecil present, as one of the Y-Teen projects, record albums to patients at Roanoke Memorial Hospital.

Getting decorations ready for the Y-Teen "Harvest Moon Dance" are S. Epperly, J. Semones, M. E. Boswell, L. Morgan, and E. Woods.

Senior Y-Teens 11

Y-Teen II officers are (First row) C. Hippert, M. E. Boswell (president) O. Garnard, D. Ferguson, (Second row) P. Fisher, J. Semones, E. Woods, J. Black, (Third row) R. Drawbond, S. Epperly, B. Updike, and C. Harper.

But in all of these there is one purpose—the Y.W.C.A. purpose, "To build a fellowship of women and girls, devoted to the task of realizing in our common life those ideals of personal and social living to which we are committed by our faith as Christians."

In this endeavor we seek to understand Jesus, to share His love for all people, and to grow in the knowledge and love of God.

Members of Senior Y-Teens II are:

First Row:

L. Dillard, J. Simpson, P. Robertson, E. Woods, J. Black, B. Updike, S. Epperly, B. Eaden, R. Saville, G. Adkins.

Officers of the Voice of Christian Youth are shown decorating for the club's Christmas party. They are Suzanne Traylor, Program Chairman; Sandra Kemp, Secretary; June Kelly, President; Carol Hilton, Vice-president; Taylor Harvey, Music Chairman; Sally Abbott, Publicity Chairman; and Fred Linkenhoker, Treasurer.

During the summer of 1956, a group of students had a dream — a dream of a club that would promote Christian fellowship among students at Jefferson. By fall that dream had become a reality, and the VOICE OF CHRISTIAN YOUTH was born with Miss Sarah Goodwin and Mrs. Mildred Sadler as sponsors.

The V.C.Y.'s meet bi-monthly and the programs include Bible quizzes, singing, panel discussions, and films that often depict the experiences of other high school clubs. Programs start with a devotional; occasionally there is a social hour. No dues are required and there is no set list of membership. During the two years of V.C.Y.'s existence, nearly two hundred Jeffites have shown interest in this club by attending, many regularly.

The VOICE OF CHRISTIAN YOUTH is affiliated with Youth for Christ, International.

Officers of the Voice of Christian Youth, with the aid of Mrs. Mildred Sadler, advisor, are pictured planning a program.

President, Ted Towles and Secretary-Treasurer, Cynthia DeLong work on overdue books.

The Library Club has been an active organization for about ten years. The club enjoys reading and working with books and the members work before and after school and during class periods when the library serves as a retreat from studious-minded students from study-hall. The library workers are mainly concerned with overdue books and fines and the proper placement of books.

Every Spring, Seniors invade the library with their little green boxes in search of information to fill their reference cards.

The number of books coming into the library is limited because of lack of room. However, the library has a numerous supply of books and magazines.

The library is frequently used for displays exhibited by various school organizations.

The school's two librarians are Miss Frances Miller and Mrs. Elsie McNeace.

"The crown is ready for the Homecoming Parade," says K. Kavanaugh to Bett Frye. "But do you think this color of paper will be all right for the throne?" asks P. Moore.

Packages! Packages! And more packages! S. Clement, J. Leonard, and J. Williams busily prepare for the Snow Queen Dance.

Busily tallying votes for spring elections are Harry Gamble, S. Grammar, M. Moss, and J. Saddler.

"And here are more decorations for the Snow Queen Dance," say J. Jackson, C. Stiff, and C. Lyle.

Art Club

. . . composed of students wishing to develop their interest and ability in art outside the classroom. The club carries out many projects throughout the year. In the fall the members created a "worm" for the Homecoming Parade (below) to show Jefferson "worming" its way to victory. At the below left, Judy Woodyard and Melanie Wilkes are looking at the art exhibit in a downtown bank. To the left, members are fixing the borders in the Art room. The climax of the year's activities was a spring field trip to Washington, D. C.

Members of the Thespians are B. Staton, L. A. Robertson, L. Reese, P. Hammond, P. Branstetter, C. Cundiff, C. Stiff, L. Bond, and S. Erwin.

The Jefferson Senior High School Choir under the direction of Mr. Robert Griffey, has had a gruelling but profitable year. The choir gave many Christmas programs, including those for the Kiwanis, Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Manager's Meeting and a program of Christmas Varieties for the public. The weeks after Christmas were filled with rehearsal sals and more rehearsals in preparation for the Spring Concert and the Easter program given at Sherwood Amphitheatre. The most exciting activity of the choir was the choir trip. Choir members sold cards, candy and stationery to make the tour through Kentucky possible. Last, but most important to the choir are the Baccalaureate and Commencement Services.

Band

The BAND has a busy schedule throughout the year, beginning with the football season in the fall. During the year it gives concerts, attends musical festivals, takes part in parades, and many other activities. This year the Band was invited to play in the Gator Bowl at Jacksonville, Fla. and to present several Florida concerts. On the next page are the flagbearers, Joyce Prillman, Dorothy Dobbins, Bunny Wright, Jane McGarrell, and Sandra Jarrett. To their right are the Drum Majors Richard Puckett and Douglas Lucas.

The Pan American League has 125 members. We are enjoying more activity this year than ever in the past. First on the list of the year's big events was the annual fall picnic, held at Fishburn Park where everyone enjoyed games, hotdogs and singing. The traditional pinata party was held in the cafeteria. Leonite Pagenhardt portrayed the Madonna and Gray Rosenberger Joseph. Russell Rosenberger broke the pinata and the scramble was enjoyed by everyone. Another feature in the monthly meetings included a demonstration of how to make enchiladas. The Pan American Day assembly was presented to show how the League unites to help goodwill between countries progress. The May meeting, as usual, was under the direction of the seniors. They presented skits and sang songs which they had used in their regular course of study.

Front row: F. Neal, C. Hippert, D. Floyd, B. Dent, M. Wertz, O. Martin, J. Shapiro, K. Kavanaugh.
 Second row: J. Poff, J. Simpson, Treasurer; M. Davis, Secretary; L. Pagenhardt, M. Smith, President; V. Rogers, G. Rosenberger, Vice-President; P. Moore, S. Sublette.

Below, members of the Cicero class, attired as senators, look on with interest as John Armentrout, as Cicero, the great Roman orator, declaims against Tommy Sink as Cataline, who conspired to overthrow the Roman government.

Below, the Roanoke Roman staff members, hoping to get a good idea for a story, clean and examine projects made by Latin students. Richard Hooper laughs at Sandy Helms' attempt to wash Caesar's face. Susan Meador and Richard Martin discuss the workmanship put into a lyre and a battle standard. The dolls being admired by June Kelley and Nancy Goodwin must have been Gauls . . . they are blondes!

The Acorn Magazine is issued twice a year by the students of Jefferson. The material for the magazine is carefully selected by the staff so that each issue will be interesting, amusing and informative.

The staff studies poetry, essays, short stories and other different types of creative writing. They examine the magazines of other schools to compare The Acorn for criticism.

Seated—Judy Wolfenden, Connie Shaffner, Jo Whittle, Lynne Lambert, Ann Tilghman, Ann Leigh Hardy, Ginny Cress, Ray Hardy, Jo Jo Blank, Betty Bondurant.
Standing—Bobby Edwards, Eddie Burnette, Robert Adams.

Ronald Brammer, Editor of the Jefferson News
 Ronald Brammer has been a newspaperman for three years. In his junior year he was the Sports Editor of the News. His many responsibilities include making sure that the stories are in on time, that the pages are made up correctly before going to press, and marking all of the copy.

The JEFFERSON NEWS is celebrating its 24th birthday this year, having had its beginning in 1934. For the past eleven years, the Columbia Scholastic Press Association has awarded the News medalist honors. The staff has a never-ending job trying to please the 1,300 subscribers.

The twenty-four reporters must be on their toes to keep up with all of our school activities. A reporter has to have one hundred and twenty inches printed, twenty-five headlines, and fifteen hours after school before he can become a star reporter.

The credit of getting the paper to the press goes to the literary advisor, Mrs. Ruth Staton. The staff photographers, R. Board and W. Sink, go far and wide to capture unusual shots. All business for the paper is handled by Mr. Richard P. Via.

Yearbook Staff

Work for the '58 Yearbook is begun during the summer with the editors and advisor meeting with the publisher's representative.

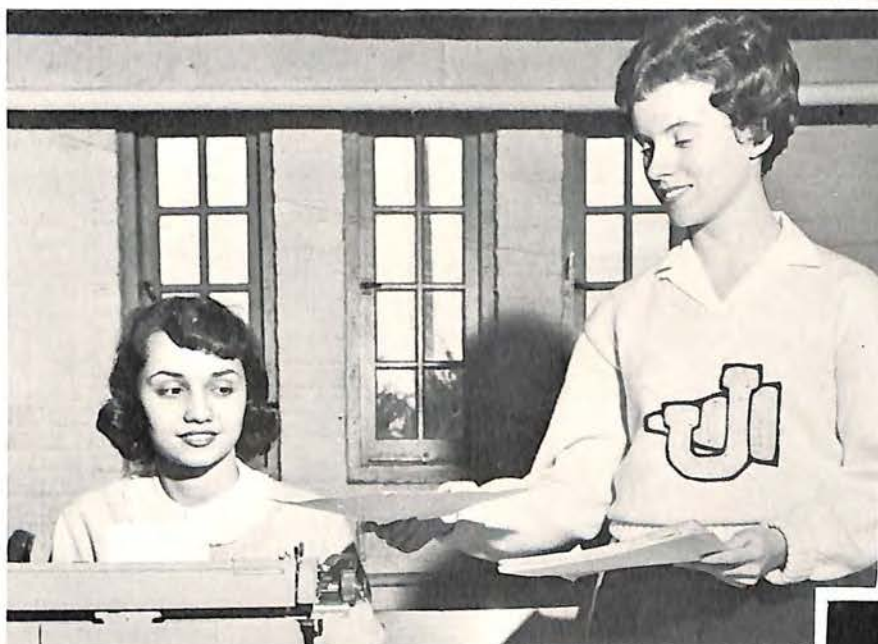

At the beginning of school each staff member is assigned certain pages for which he is responsible. At top left, Vanetta Romaine and Robin Frantz get acquainted with the unique filing system of the staff. After a few days of scanning various types of school yearbooks, Mrs. Drewry briefs the staff on the work for the year and the process of getting a yearbook out. Next comes the interviewing and gathering of material for your pages. In the center, Judy DeLong, Martha Wertz, and Carolyn Epperson chat with Mrs. Evelyn Mitchell concerning the F.H.A. section. Of course pictures make a yearbook and in lower left our staff photographers, Eugene Crumpler and John Freed try to justify to Mr. Via their "expense account."

All copy must be typed and biggest job of all, the Senior Directory. Center left, Carolyn King and Donna Floyd work together to complete the directory. Lower left, Bing Gentry discusses the football pages with Mr. Rohrdanz. This section was given extra care since the team is '57 State Champions.

At last, the finished product and the climax . . . dedication announced by Editor Peggy Leonard.

The officers of the Girls' Athletic Association are Nancy Barrett, president; Norma Wallace, vice-president; Jackie Craft, program chairman; Margaret Saville, secretary; Joyce Semones, treasurer.

The Girls' Physical Education program is organized to stress skill, planned to improve health and intended to further good sportsmanship.

Volleyball, basketball, badminton, tumbling and the usual dose of calisthenics were some of the steps taken. But also, this year our Junior girls were instructed in Body Mechanics to develop muscle tone and good general health. Tests were given to determine their physical fitness.

The spring semester found Jefferson students enjoying a weekly square dancing fest organized on a co-ed basis. The Virginia Reel and the Texas Star were favored by the participants.

The Girls' Physical Education instructors are Miss Jeanne Bentley, Mrs. Martha Gravely and Mrs. Virginia Smith.

The program is truly a worth-while, well rounded one which greatly benefits our Junior and Sophomore girls.

Tumbling is one of the most challenging facets of the program. Rehearsing for a performance for the P. T. A. are M. Hinchee, J. Joseph, B. Howard, G. Dickson, O. Martin, R. Weld, and B. Davis.

Magicians

This year the Magicians gridders won the Group I State Championship for the first time since 1928. The team had a near perfect season except for the one loss which came at the hands of powerful Dobbys-Bennett High of Kingsport.

The Jeffites started off their season with a victory over the Orioles of Pulaski. The next win was over a weak but spirited Groveton team. The next with Grundy was the first real test for the Magicians and we proved we had one of the better teams in the state by beating them by a wide margin.

State Champions 1957

The big game of the season was with cross-town rival William Fleming. The team spirit was high and the stands were full as the Magicians rolled to their fourth straight victory. The only loss of the season came in the next game with Kingsport, but this did not mar our state record. The big battle with arch rival E. C. Glass of Lynchburg clinched the western-district title.

In the next two games, which were victories over Danville and Andrew Lewis, the Jeffites showed we were the class of the state. The final game with Covington was the clincher for the state title which the team had worked so hard for.

This year's basketball team, coached by Don Bartol and Joe Byrd, turned in a fine season. The team finished the year in a tie for the Western District lead with Lynchburg. In the playoff game we lost by three points.

In the Western District tournament we defeated Halifax and Lynchburg to take the crown. In the state tournament at Charlottesville we were defeated by a strong Granby team in the opening round.

Jay Blackwood practices running the 180 yard low-hurdles.

This year's team is the first Jefferson has had since 1950. Coach Joe Byrd welcomed a squad of about 100 boys at the first practice. Among the better looking prospects were, Pitchers: Dickie Sink and Steve Lindamood; Infielders: Grover Flint and Tommy Rogers and outfielders: Andy Christensen and Dick Mayo. The team played a fourteen game schedule and has bright hopes for 1959 especially since most of this year's players are Sophomores and Juniors.

Spring Sports

Track

We of Jefferson should be proud of our track team. The team this year had an extended season since the boys participated in both indoor and outdoor meets. The team received many points from Jay Blackwood in running the hurdles and from Key Clark and Carlton Waskey in the dashes.

Golf

This year's golf team, under the coaching of Mr. Houston Sizer, had a successful season. With three returning lettermen to make a strong team they made an outstanding showing at the Golf tournament in Norfolk.

Tennis

Coach "Hunk" Hurt had only two new players this year since the majority of the boys returned from last year's team. Ken Moorman, Bing Gentry, Buddy Saunders, Phil Heiner, Arnold Masinter, and two new comers, Billy Johnson and Bobby Howell, did a good job for Jefferson.

Scenes From Assemblies

"Love-sick six graders" Kathy Hill and Kyle Umberger, sang "Smoochin'" in the Valentine assembly.

The most colorful scene was this final scene in which Johnny Economy, cupid and Tina Triantafilles, cupidress, are brought together.

The fall play was "The Man Who Married A Dumb Wife." The lower left picture catches Fred Barnett and Billy Neff in the action.

Sandy Helms, Nancy Royal, June Wimmer, Susan Oakey, Carol Bruce, Marian Jo Blank, Lucy Boyd Lemon, Richard Hooper, Harold Settle, and Martha Hodges.

Betty Mason, Nancy Goodwin, Jean Leonard, Judy Mundy, Faye Shelton, Bobby Young, Jack Pilcher, Bob Belton, Buddy Saunders, and Susie McAfee.

Manhasset Exchange

This year Jefferson participated in an exchange program with Manhasset High School, Manhasset, New York. Our students attended their high school February 1-7 and the Manhasset students (shown below) arrived in Roanoke February 22 and departed the following Friday.

The Top Ten students of the 1958 Senior Class are:

First Row: Lewis Cocke.

Second Row: David Finch, Bill Davis, Nancy Goodwin, and Judy Mundy.

Third Row: Phil Heiner, Al Hall, Jean Leonard, Myrna Smith, and Susan Jennings.

Mickey White was narrator for the Publication's Assembly held in the fall.

Honors

Diane Rierson was selected by the student body to reign as this year's Snow Queen.

Nancy Goodwin received the Good Citizen Award presented by the Daughters of the American Revolution.

These seniors were chosen by various civic organizations to attend Boys' and Girls' State held annually in Blacksburg. They were:

National Honor Society Members are

The National Honor Society is based on four principles: Scholarship, Leadership, Service and Citizenship. Becoming a member of this group is one of the highest honors that can be bestowed upon a student while here at Jefferson. It is a reward for all the effort he has put forth during his years of hard work and participation in the many activities which are offered at school.

Other members are

FIRST ROW: Becky Staton, Tommy Munson, Nancy Flint, Lucy Boyd Lemon, Sue Robertson, Enid Masinter, Cecilia Stiff, Betty Frye, Phil Hillen.

SECOND ROW: Myrna Smith, Virginia Rogers, Ann Leigh Hardy, Sally Rushton, Sammy Lionberger, Lynn Morgan, Sally Abbott, Nancy Barret.

Peggy Collins was chosen by the student body as the Madonna.

Chimes

Old Woman, Jan Garrett, comforts Charles Stone who portrays Holgar in "Why The Chimes Rang."

The traditional characters Steen, Holgar, and Uncle Bertel are portrayed by Lave Hurt, Charles Stone, and Dickie Whitehead.

Bing Gentry as the Priest offers a magnificent gift to the Christ Child.
