Foreword

Great in tradition but ever moving forward with the times the students of Jefferson Senior High School are busier making more traditions than looking back into the past.

In the pages of our ACORN we have shown how the students and teachers work and plan each day. Our accomplishments are shown by honors won in the fields of academic attainment, athletics, and the arts. Proudly we say; "Traditionally old, progressively new."

JERALD R. WHITE, Principal

TO THE STUDENT BODY OF 1962-1963

It has been a real pleasure to work with you during this school year, to share the joy of your honors and successes, to accept with patience the reversals, and to strive always to make Jefferson a better school.

To the Seniors who are about to assume even more responsibility as they go on to further education, to work, to the armed forces, in their private lives and in their community endeavors, we assure you of our continual interest in your achievements. We urge you to set your goal high and wish for you all the success possible.

May God be with you in the many fruitful years to come.

Jerald R. White

Our hallowed halls are popular gathering places for students. Upstairs, downstairs, our precious halls are the "crossroads" of the school.

Robbie Baldwin, Billie Sue Board, and Joan Collie are shown with one of the many familiar scenes in our halls before the first bell for homeroom period

Barbara Tabor, Norma Milam, Joy Cronise, Barbara Baldwin, Carolyn Johnson, and Nancy Cassada discuss homework assignments in our halls before going to class.

Administration

Jefferson is proud of the modern equipment which can be found in each department of our school. Here the science department boasts a new laboratory with all modern equipment. This does not take the place of our well established ways, but serves as a continuation of emphasis in science, the languages, sports, social studies and business department; all have many new devices which, with the "tried and true" ones, help us in our spoken and written work as well as training in the manual arts.

and Faculty

Main Office

Mr. White and Miss Edna Chesney talk over a student's record

Miss Barbara Graeser checks IBM cards for missing grades; marks which will not be passed over by the machine.

The main office is the nerve center of the school. It is a banking center for permanent record cards, test scores, as well as a post office and information booth.

It is a gathering place for teachers and students who wish to find out the plans for the day. It is also the place where students wait patiently, if uncertainly sometimes, to see the principal.

The genial atmosphere in this office is a major factor in our smooth running school.

Activities Office

Dottie Young tries her hand at the new supply dispenser

The most popular place in the school? The Activities Office, of course. Mr. Houston Sizer, assistant principal and head of this office, and his secretary, Mrs. Mary Olinger, are ever ready to help with books, paper, pens, stamps and other "tools of the trade."

The athletic supplies, information, as well as deportment problems are handled by Mr. Sizer.

Mr. Sizer and Mrs. Olinger pause to listen to a student's explanation

Attendance Office

Student helpers, Rita Dowdy, Diane Fitzgerald (seated), Mary Whitley, Betty Jo Craig (standing)

Mr. Paul Steagall and Mrs. Beverly Osterhoudt listen to our many excuses for absenteeism—some real, some questionable. However, they manage to smile as well as listen to our explanations. They are interested in the student's welfare as well as punctuality.

Our well-equipped student clinics are also under their supervision.

Mrs. Beverly Osterhoudt and student helper, Joan Collie

Mr. Paul Steagall and student helper, Vickie King

Our New Office Machines Are Always in Use

Always busy, Miss Edna Chesney is shown as she uses our new duplicating machine. She finds it a great time saver when she prepares transcripts, test scores, newspaper releases, and the many other documents necessary to the school business.

Students find her a willing listener to their problems as well as an adviser. She is never impatient with the questions which would confuse almost anyone else as they pour forth from both teachers and pupils.

MISS EDNA CHESNEY

Indispensable to the main office is the corps of student assistants who are always ready for work

Mr. Paul Steagall and Miss Barbara Graeser prepare report cards on the IBM machine

Class

Sandra Powers, Secretary, Rita Dowdy, Treasurer, Jimmy Null, President, Judy Coverstone, Vice-President.

That goal of goals, the peak of all ambitions, a year to be remembered for the rest of our lives.

Many thrills are lost. The memories of past years; visions of classes, assemblies, proms, exams, football and basketball games.

Memories lasting forever: the electing of class officers, senior lounge, raising money, senior day, class gifts, cap and gowns, and of course our souvenir tassels.

We shall never forget the American Theater with the familiar "Pomp and Circumstance" and our long wait for diplomas.

Now looking forward to business, college, and marriage we have so much ahead, and yet so much to leave behind.

So ends the story of our senior class . . . no, we'll say so begins the story of our senior class.

Election of officers highlighted the first semester of the Junior Class activities. The new president, Gordon Jessee, began at once the delegation of responsibilities. The Junior-Senior prom claimed top billing in the class activities; also high on the list for the class is the drive for academic honors. This alert class will bear watching for next year's achievements.

Sophomore Class Officers—Gail Schoonover, Secretary; Norma Rochester, Treasurer; Barry Church, President; and Jean Dobbins, Vice-President. Miss Mildred Kerlin is their adviser.

As we, the Sophomores, came to Jefferson for the first time, we were bewildered by the strange faces, the new teachers and just being in a high school.

Now as the year has almost ended and we will soon become juniors, we look back at the beginning of our sophomore year. We shall always remember the pep assemblies, football and basketball games, quizzes and, of course, the exams. The teasing by the seniors and juniors was great fun, too.

We shall always remember with pleasure our sophomore year at Jefferson.

Guidance

Billy Craig and Joyce Epperly ask Mrs. Catherine Stahl about junior achievement tests.

Students feel free to discuss with guidance counselors their problems and questions about their education.

The Guidance Department at Jefferson is staffed with competent advisers. They are always ready to help when needed.

for All

Mrs. Ruth Staton talks with Linda Wills and Nicky Jamison about college applications.

Sophomores Pat Bush and Joyce Dillon smile as Mr. William Holly recalls some of his experiences as an underclassman.

Clubs

The membership of the SCIENCE CLUB includes students with a profound interest in scientific programs and research. The club serves as a clearing house for scientific problems and maintains close liaison with colleges and universities for the benefit of students with special projects.

Each year field trips are planned for Green Bank, West Virginia, Oak Ridge, Tennessee, University of Virginia, V.P.I. and Washington, D. C. Special speakers and a few social events balance out a worthwhile program.

Student Cooperat

S.C.A. officers: President, Robert Baldwin, Vice-President, Billie Sue Board, Recording Secretary, Judy Coverstone, Correspondence Secretary, Joan Collie, and Treasurer, Joy Cronise.

S.C.A. advisers are Mrs. Catherine Stahl and Mr. Marshall Denison.

The PREFECT of Jefferson Senior High School is composed of the Student Cooperative Officers and elected members from the senior, junior, and sophomore classes.

At the beginning of each school year, Prefect takes charge of the Sophomore Orientation Day, also gives a tea for the faculty members. Other activities in which Prefect sponsors are elections for class officers, S.C.A. officers, Queens and their courts, and preparations of student directories; the Christmas Dance, and the Spring Project.

The year has been a busy one and also an exciting one for those who have participated in the Student Government activities. All Prefect members hope that each Jeffite has enjoyed these activities and that Jefferson is a better school because of their efforts.

Our Student Council is always on the alert.

ive Association

Senior Prefect members Barbara Baldwin, Teddy Moomaw, Barbara Tabor, Patsy Weaver, Jimmy Null, Gail Wilson, and J. C. Bolling, work on Christmas Dance decorations.

Junior Prefect members Danny Franklin, Jeanette Crouch, Gordon Jesse, Janice Jamison, and Billy Craig look through Prefect's scrapbook.

Junior Classical League

Quid Magistra Baird eis narrat?

One of the oldest organizations at Jefferson is the Junior Classical League. Every third Tuesday this group of Latin scholars meet to discuss the Romans and as well as other in Caesar's own language.

Venturing forth from the hallowed halls of Jefferson the JCL's motored to Charlottesville with their adviser, Mrs. Helen Baird to present a play at the yearly convention at the U. of Va. They also publish a newspaper, The Roanoke Roman. The State President of JCL—'61-'62 was Danny Hawley, a member of this group. Rex Humrich is presently treasurer.

Fleur-De-Lys

The Fleur-de-Lys ranks high in club life of our school. Inspiring programs are held each month. Speakers, films, and devotional activities are highlights. All our many activities are conducted in French.

Mr. Carroll Adams, our adviser, enjoys our "French antics" and shares our enthusiasm.

Mais oui, nous ne parlons que français.

Pan American League

FIRST ROW: J. Dobbins, W. Wallace, J. Dillon, T. Nackley, W. Hanger, G. Jones, R. McCowan, D. Roberts, P. McDonald, J. Conner, J. Jamison, C. Sanderlin. SECOND ROW: J. Coverstone, K. Dillon, J. Epperly, S. St. Clair, J. Keifer, D. Edwards, L. Stevens, G. Bain, J. Richardson, D. Wilks, A. Brooks. THIRD ROW: B. Tabor, J. Crouch, S. McLeod, D. Chisom, L. Shelor, M. Barber, C. Kennedy, P. Driscoll, G. Sands, T. Keifer.

International in scope our PAN-AMERICAN LEAGUE welcomes all opportunities to increase friendships with other countries as well as knowledge.

Our purpose is to strengthen the understanding of our "South of the Border" friends. Slides, guest speakers, movies, the piñata at Christmas and the spring picnic were activities we enjoyed during the year.

Students give a Spanish rendition in song.

Voice of Christian Youth

The V.C.Y. is an inter-denominational club whose main purpose is to promote Christian fellowship among the students at Jefferson.

The Thanksgiving Assembly sponsored by the V.C.Y. was our first activity. For Christmas copies of the Christmas story were presented to the hospitals in Roanoke to be used on the patient's trays.

Inspirational and recreational programs are offered once a month. Miss Sarah Goodwin is the adviser.

Future Homemakers

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS of AMERICA is a bright spot for students who are interested in promoting better home and school life. "Launching good citizenship through homemaking" is the objective for the year.

Spotlights of the year are a Christmas basket, Valentines Party for the ladies in the Mary Louise Home, and a Potluck Supper for the F.H.A. members and their mothers provide a delight to the members. A review of spring fashions and a Honors Banquet topped off the year.

Red Cross

The Jefferson RED CROSS has for its purpose teaching and developing a desire to be of service.

The organization cooperates with the chapter work, and assists in service at the Veterans Facility by collecting ditty bags, cookies, magazines, crossword puzzles, and presenting an annual variety program. This year the chapter furnished the Catawba Tuberculosis Sanatorium entertainment for the patients on the children's ward. Educational supplies showing life in the United States were sent to children overseas.

The first aid program of our school is one of the projects of the chapter.

The officers of 1962-63 are Franc Roberts, Peggy Staton, Lynette Dean, Mary Tucker.

Vera Adams, Vaunda Cress, Clara Beaver, Judy Lester, work as Gray Ladies at Lewis-Gale Hospital.

Edith Sweeney, Tommy Keifer, Jean Neal, Peggy Staton, Darlene Finch are working on Cross Word Puzzles which were one of the projects of the year.

Workers in Business

Alert Distributive Education students are ready for Mr. Leon Tomblin's instructions

Distributive Education students prove their worth in local business houses. Mr. Leon Tomblin trains these workers to serve, meet the public, and promote business interests.

Besides the classroom work, there is D.E.C.A., the official club for Distributive Education. Students participate in many extracurricular activities that relate to classroom instruction.

Officers of the D.E. Club are Nancy Mullins, Betty Bandy, Linda Bryant, Richard Maxey, and Merle Barber

Leadership, social adjustment, financial problems, and general knowledge of business skills are the objectives of our F.B.L.A. chapter.

Senior students in Vocational Office Training receive on-the-job training in downtown offices.

The Jefferson Chapter has been an Honor Chapter in the state and a Gold Seal Chapter in the nation for the past five years.

The Employer Appreciation Banquet has become an outstanding event of the year.

Future Teachers of America

Joy Cronise, First Vice-President; Dorothy Sutphin, Treasurer; Billie Sue Board, Vice-President; Darla Fulton, President; Wanda Jo Raper, Secretary

FTA is a national organization for students who are interested in teaching. The development of personality, character, cultural traits and those characteristics which are the foundation stones of successful teaching are offered.

Some of the activities for the year include: panel and informal discussion of problems in teaching on the various levels; a tour of a local business concern; our International Relations programs, a travelogue by Miss Loila Stalker and one by the City-Wide FTA; the sale of signature name cards, and finally, CAREER DAY, when each FTA member visits a school of his choice in the city. Our aim is to provide a scholarship for a deserving and outstanding student of the FTA.

Library Club

Vera Adams, Darlene Reedy, Edith Sweeny, Gloria Booth, Sharon McDonald, Larry Lee. NOT PICTURED: Carolyn Fulton, Faye Poff.

The Library Club at Jefferson was organized in order to give experience to pupils interested in library work and who plan to pursue it as a career.

Pupils get experience not only in working at the desk and charging books, but they get active experience in mending books, making out overdue slips, opening new books, pasting pockets and stamping and shelving books.

"You see, I told you there was something more than pictures there," Miss Frances Miller tells Stewart Griffin

Advisers to the Library Club and also to the students are Miss Frances Miller and her assistant, Mrs. Rosemary Hall

Thespians

Mr. J. Cohron gives instructions to the stage crew about scenery for the "Chimes Assembly"

One of the stage crew works on lighting for the "Chimes Assembly"

The lively THESPIANS keep us busy as well as entertained. The fall play, Night Must Fall, started Thespians off to a good year; following the fall play came days and days of hard work on the chimes assembly for Christmas, and highlighting the end of the year, was the spring play.

Willing workers in the Forensic program, these students are always in demand.

All the News

Phyllis Coffey, Tommy Keifer, Annie Mae Bush, and Elizabeth Harlow look over the newspaper for articles they had prepared.

Inspiration, originality, a "nose" for news, as well as hours of labor are required to produce the JEFFERSON NEWS. Our newspaper ranks high with Jeffites as we look forward to each edition. Special features intrigue us. We like to read "We are glad that:," "We are sorry that:," "We don't give a darn that:"—all from the "Editors Say." Best of all are the news and sports.

Students who work on publications at our school receive excellent training in the field of journalism.

The wide exchange program keeps them up to date on things happening in other schools. It also proves a challenge to the newspaper reporters and editors. Our paper is a winner in CSPA, SIPA, and Quill and Scroll.

Ronnie Sutphin, photographer, doubles for both the JEFFERSON NEWS and the ACORN yearbook.

Editor-in-chief, Brenda Ensor, and Steve Woods visit printers to pick-up newspaper.

and More

Carolyn Updike and Jeanette Walrond watch as Judy Lester types the sports page.

Mrs. Ruth Staton and Brenda Ensor, Editor-in-Chief, check final copy of newspaper before sending to printer.

Charles Aird, Jima Faucetta, and Dexter Bently, Business Managers, leave school to secure ads for the newspaper.

THE ANNUAL —

The ACORN staff and adviser plan work for the year. Members (seated) Betty Amos, Stewart Griffin, Nonie Corvin, Joyce Nicely, Jimmy Hobbs, Jo Ann Hannah, Linda Wills, Betty Nowlin, Wanda Wade, (standing) Mrs. Vivian Bender, Nicky Jamison, Barbara Hicks, Richard Gardner, Sandra Powers, Nancy Cassada, Rita Dowdy, Gail Wilson.

The ACORN staff presents to you the year of 1962-63 in review.

The staff meets each day and plans, considers, and works for the day when you, our fellow students, will gaze in retrospect on your dreams, aspirations, realization of accomplishments as well as all the fun we had.

Senior Day our dreams will be realized for you will have the '63 ACORN for your very own. We hope you are pleased.

Barbara Hicks and Jo Ann Hannah check pages before shipping them to the publishers.

OUR SCHOOL YEAR

Barbara Hicks, Associate Editor, Nicky Jamison, Editor, Stewart Griffin, Associate Senior Editor study pages.

OUR YEARBOOK

Richard Gardner, Betty Amos, Nonie Corvin, Sherry Dodd and Joyce Nicely work on page plans for girls and boys sports.

Gail Wilson, Ahwanda Wade, Rita Dowdy, and Linda Wills check old annuals for ideas while Nancy Cassada checks final copies for errors.

Acorn Magazine

The Literary Staff shows satisfaction in work well done

Students look forward to the ACORN literary magazine which contains their own efforts in writing for publication.

Our magazine is printed twice each year. The Editor, Charles Kennedy, begins early in his work of encouragement to students to try their skill at writing.

The art department draws from its vast variety of talents for illustrations. We are proud of our magazine which displays the versatility of our students.

Mrs. Nina Cooper is literary adviser; Mr. William Holley is the art adviser, and Mr. Houston Sizer is business adviser.

Charles Kennedy, Editor, and Nina Cooper, Adviser, exhibit great pride over the fall issue of the ACORN.

Mr. William Holley observes art students as they work on illustrations.

Craig, J. Neal, P. A. Staton, B. Wiseman, W. Wallace, C. Johnson. FIFTH ROW: L. Nelson, R. Dowdy, B. Brown, L. Johnson, D. Waldrow, B. Noell, S. St. Clair.

The main objective of the Jefferson Y-Teens is to create a Christian-like atmosphere at school, at home and in the community.

This year the club has sponsored a membership drive, doughnut sale, participated in World Fellowship and Inter-Club Council Conference and was also represented at Camp Kiwaniana this past summer.

Our advisers this year are Mrs. Nina Cooper and Mrs. Beverly Osterhoudt who guide and offer suggestions at the meetings.

Diane Waldrow, Barbara Brown, Lynn Johnson, Sandra St. Clair, Mrs. Osterhoudt, Sue Neff, Mrs. Cooper, Barbara Baldwin are the officers of this year's Y-Teens

The aim of the Hi-Y is "Clean Speech, Clean Scholarship, Clean Sportsmanship, and Clean Living."

This year the Hi-Y was represented at the District Hi-Y Conference held in Roanoke and the Model General Assembly held in Richmond.

Weekly meetings are held during the year, except test weeks. Programs include speakers, films, field trips, and sports events.

The Hi-Y helps the school by parking cars before home football games and delivering baskets at Christmas time.

Band

The Jefferson Band is a well-known and much appreciated organization at our school. This year our band has had a very heavy schedule as usual. What would football games, pep rallies, and parades be without the band? Three members were chosen for the All-State Band. They were Al Ashley, David Roberts, and Teddy Arthur. Then practice started for the Spring Concert. In April the band went to Washington, D.C. for the annual Cherry Blossom Festival.

Magicianettes

The twenty-four girls who performed in our football and basketball halftime shows and all the big parades were the members of the Jefferson drill team known as the MAGICIANETTES. This year they were led by Head Magicianette, Joan Collie.

FIRST ROW: J. Collie, Head, C. Corvin, N. Corvin, S. Gauldin, P. Jenkins, V. King, R. Shiner, C. Holland, N. Cassada, C. Dickerson, V. Sellers, D. Hampton. SECOND ROW: B. Ferguson, A. Howery, D. Moran.

Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter assemblies were highlighted by our choir. The special Christmas concert and spring concert tours pleased us as only music can.

This year Jefferson was honored to host the All-State Chorus. We are proud that six members of our choir were chosen to participate. Mr. Gene Ferguson is choir director.

Choir officers this year include Darla Fulton, Secretary; William Caudle, President; Lonnie Moran, Business Manager; Billie Board, accompanist; Lynette Dean, Treasurer.

All-State Chorus this year consists of Joy Cronise, Vanda Cress, Billie Board, William Caudle, Barbara Baldwin, Mary Connor, Mike Lloyd, Walter Cunningham.

Wish Upon a Star

Gail Schoonover, Patsy Weaver, Sandra Powers, Rita Dowdy, Joan Collie, Nonie Corvin, Gail Wilson, Maid of Honor; Judy Coverstone, Snow Queen; Carolyn Crigger, Carolyn Johnson

The Christmas Dance sponsored by the S.C.A. with the music by the Divots, was one of the many highlights of the year. The theme of the dance was "WISH UPON A STAR." Many people did just that, and for at least ten girls, their wish was granted. It was a beautiful dance and the floor show was great.

Here are three of many people working hard on the decorations for the dance

Mike Lloyd, Clark Thomas, Rodney Banks, and Barry Akers might go to the Soviet Union someday. They are learning Russian from Mrs. Natalie Peterson just in case.

Spanish enthusiasts David Roberts, Pat McDonald, Wanda Wallace, Chuck Kennedy, Barbara Tabor, and Gary Sands practice the language with the use of lab equipment.

Communication and travel have led students to realize that modern languages are a necessity. We are proud of our language department, our qualified teachers and alert learners.

Mrs. Baird's Latin class sings in the LANGUAGE

Students of our school show their interest in language. Latin finds its way into the publications, creative work, and the sciences.

Modern languages are popular as well as interesting. French students speak the language in their classes, as do students in the other language classes.

Advanced Math Class

Advanced math students in Miss Stalker's class show their skill as they master problems in trig, solid geometry, and college algebra. This class is geared for those who plan to study engineering or other higher math.

Students learn to use tools as well as their heads

Programmed Algebra Class

"The product of the means equals the product of the extremes"

Programmed learning is planned for those who wish to work at their own speed. These students in algebra show a definite interest in their work.

Typing

Mr. Paul Steagall gives a speed test to his class

The teaching aims of our Clerical Practice classes are: a thorough knowledge of business forms, office procedures, duties and responsibilities of office work, filing, arithmetic fundamentals, and the development of personal traits. In the advanced classes, correct techniques of office machines, building up skill and speed are stressed.

The goals in typing classes are basic typing techniques and skill building, with emphasis on accuracy and speed. English fundamentals and efficient office procedures, along with good personality traits are stressed. In the advanced classes, vocational office production standards are developed.

Clerical Practice

Mr. W. O. Halloway watches Kirk Edwards, Bobby Hodges, Wayne Griffin, and Jerry Abell excel in sheet metal work.

Wallace Thurman, Mr. C. W. Woodson, and Bobby Bower place finishing touches on a masterpiece.

Honors

Norma Miliam, Honor Student

Using her toes, Norma turns in perfect work in typing.

Norma's likes are music, friendly people, and the senior lounge. Norma's favorite subject is typing; she enjoys football and takes a keen interest in its finer points. Norma dislikes unfriendly people.

At home Norma enjoys playing her organ and talking on the phone to her friends. She is also an active member of the Belmont Presbyterian senior choir and Vice-President of the Christian endeavor. She also teaches handicrafts and is assistant arts and crafts director at Camp Easter Seal.

The senior class will always remember Norma for her courage and determination. We wish Norma Miliam the best in everything she does.

The senior class of Jefferson extends congratulations to Norma Miliam for a job well done.

In the three years that Norma has been at Jefferson she has won many honors and the respect of every teacher and student. Norma was Vice-President of her Sophomore homeroom; tapped into the National Honor Society in her Junior year; and won the D.A.R. Good Citizenship Award in her Senior year. When she graduates in June, she hopes to attend Roanoke College.

While at Jefferson Norma has maintained a G average. Norma ranks in the upper ten percent of a class of 220 seniors. This is credited to her attentiveness and turning in work without mistakes.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society, one of the most distinguished organizations at Jefferson, is also one of the most sought after for membership. Its standards are very high, requiring a 4.0 scholastic average, no semester F's, and faculty approval before membership can be granted. Its purpose is to recognize Character, Service, and Scholarship.

When a student has fulfilled the qualifications, he is tapped for membership in an impressive procession, one of the outstanding events of the year. Miss Leila Stalker is adviser to the Society.

MOST TYPICAL SENIOR
Rita Dowdy, Jimmy Null

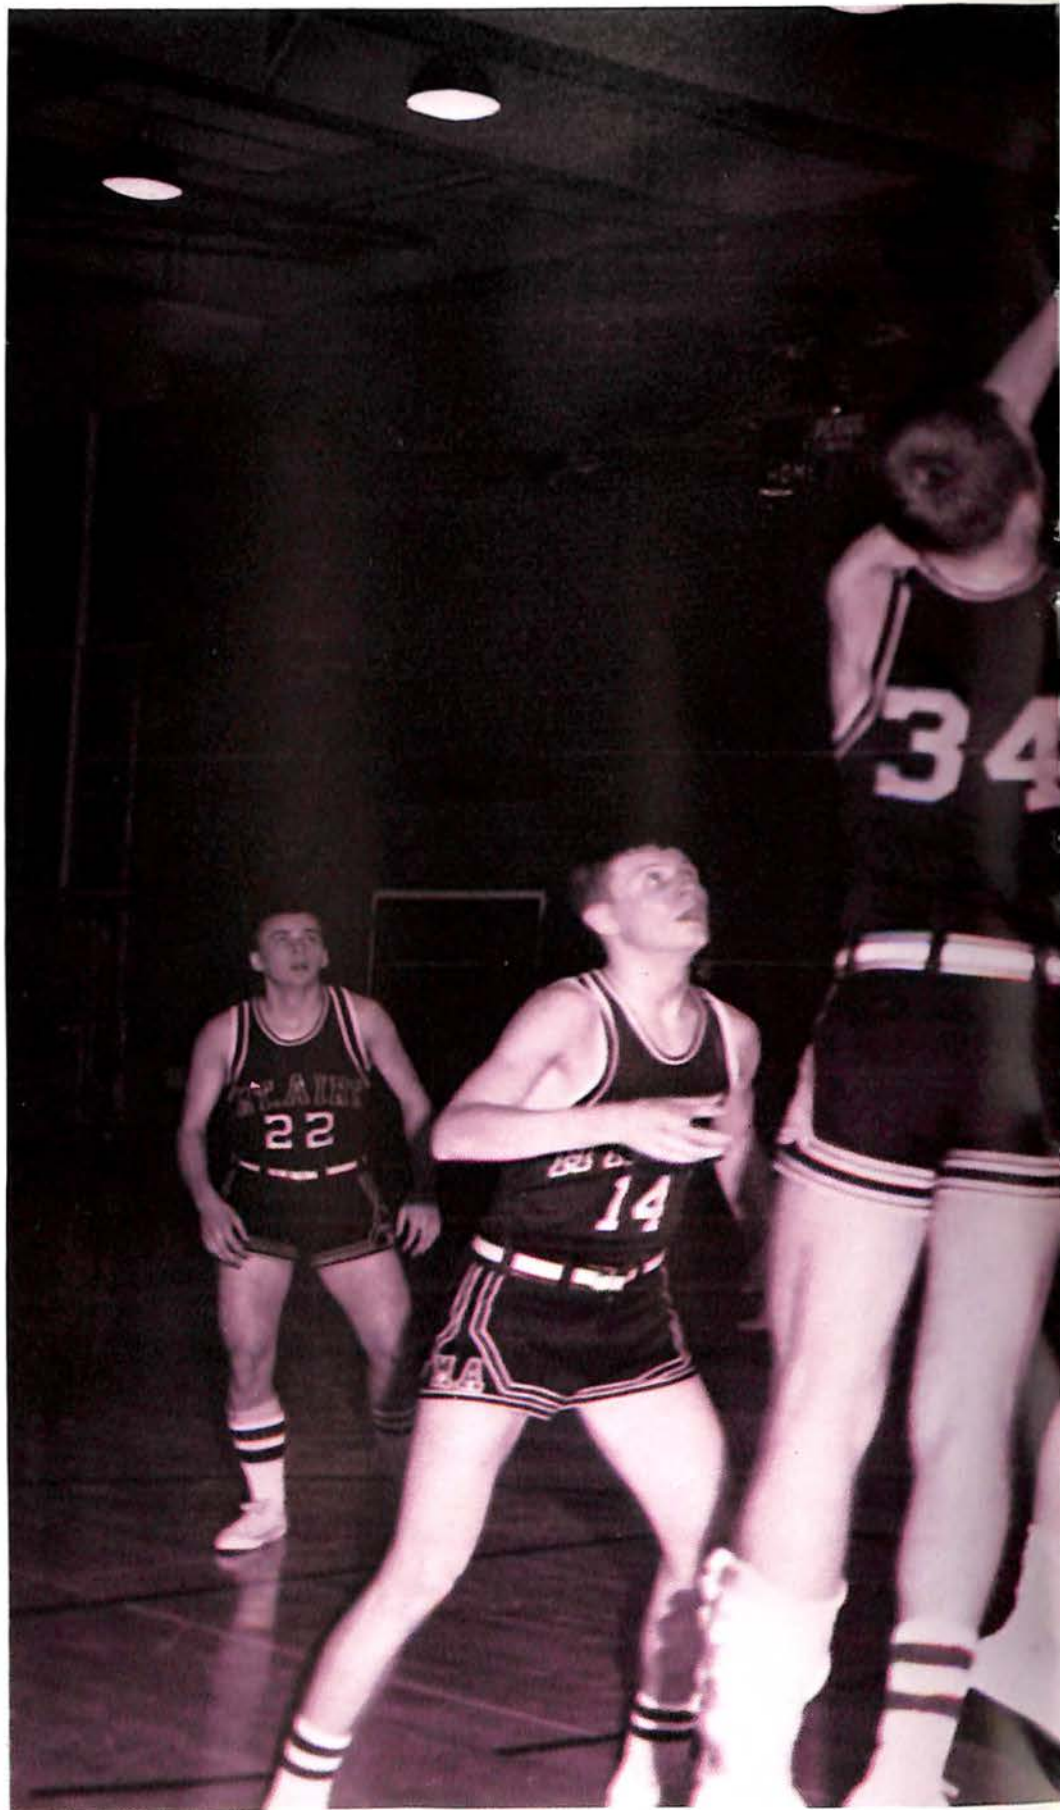

Sports in Jefferson High School are a vital part of our school life.

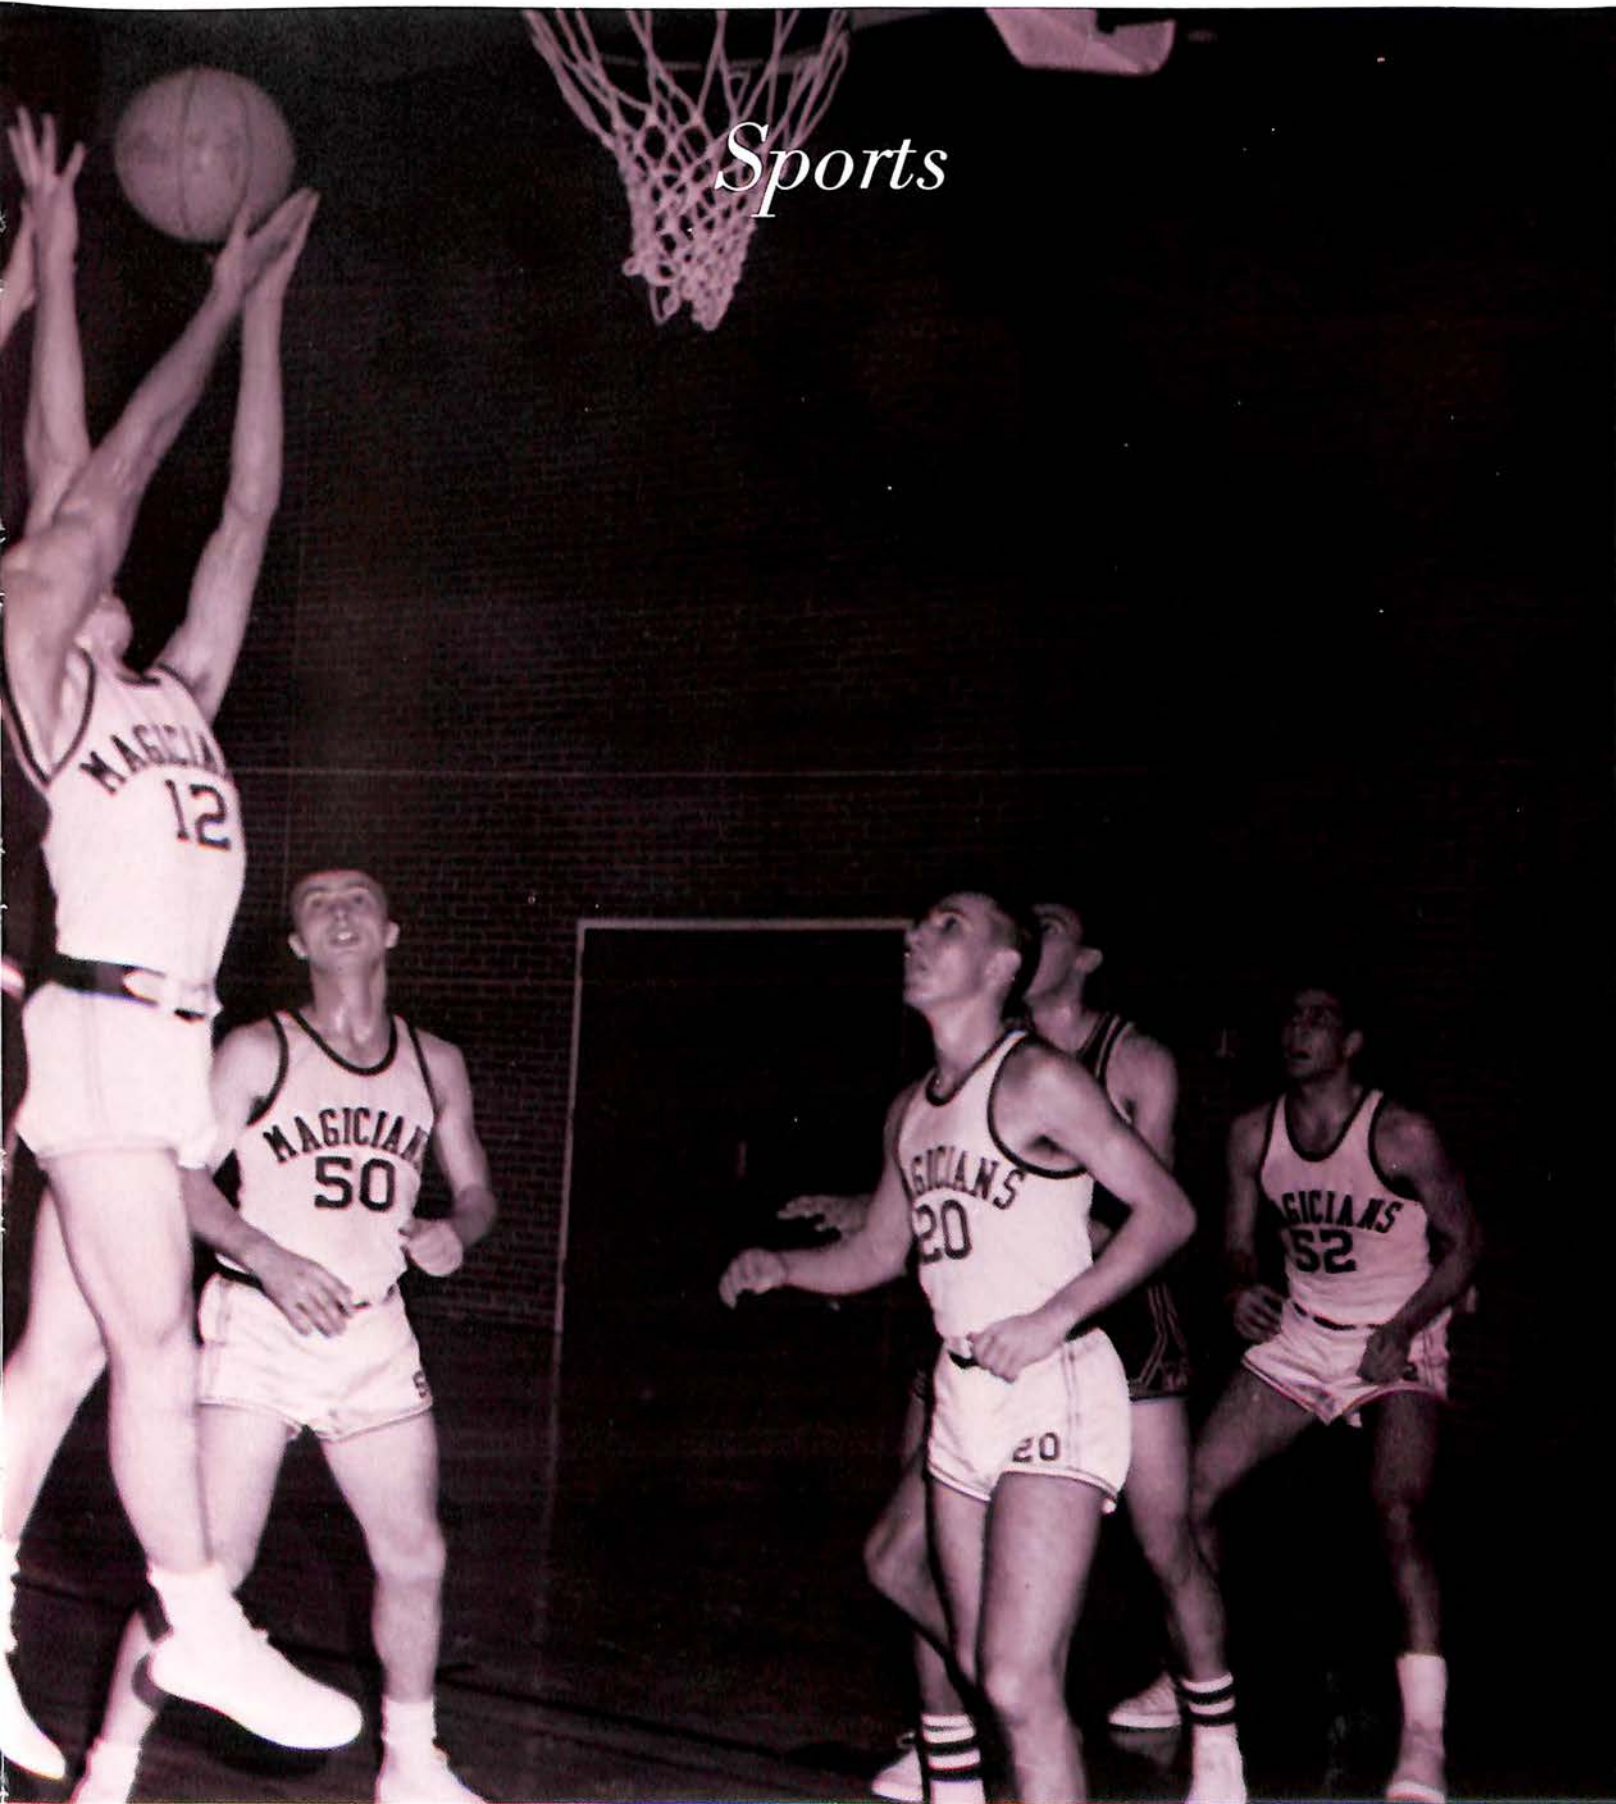

Football in the fall brings out school spirit, gay colors, and martial music.

Basketball, volleyball, track, wrestling, tennis, and baseball fill the spring season with thrills, gala parties, and much excitement.

Competitive games bring out the crowds that cheer us. It is with a feeling of sadness that we bid farewell to a season of sports.

Although the 1962 football season was for the most part a disappointing one, the season was not without its bright spots. Dropping seven straight games after an opening victory, the Magicians finished with a fury, downing Halifax 33-7, and triumphing over our rivals, William Fleming 27-19. The team drew praise from all after midseason with its defense and with its offense in the last three games. Of the seven defeats, four were by one touchdown and one was by a single point. The team looks to next year with anticipation of a much better season.

'62-'63

Although this was a rather poor season with three wins and fourteen losses, Jefferson's fighting spirit made the games interesting. The support of the students was tremendous as they urged the Magicians on. The peak of the season came when we beat Fleming by two points. Co-captains Robbie Baldwin and Ray Robertson paced the Magicians most of the season in scoring and did an all around good job. Robbie was voted to the first team All-Western District and Ray was voted to the second team which concluded a successful season for both of them.

Jefferson's 1963 Track Team with veteran performers Henry Kirk, Jimmy Hobbs, Billy Altizer, and Richard Ewers, formed the nucleus of the Track Team. Newcomers turned in good performances and with hard work paid off.

The Tennis Team drew from veterans also and with newcomers' help had a rewarding season.

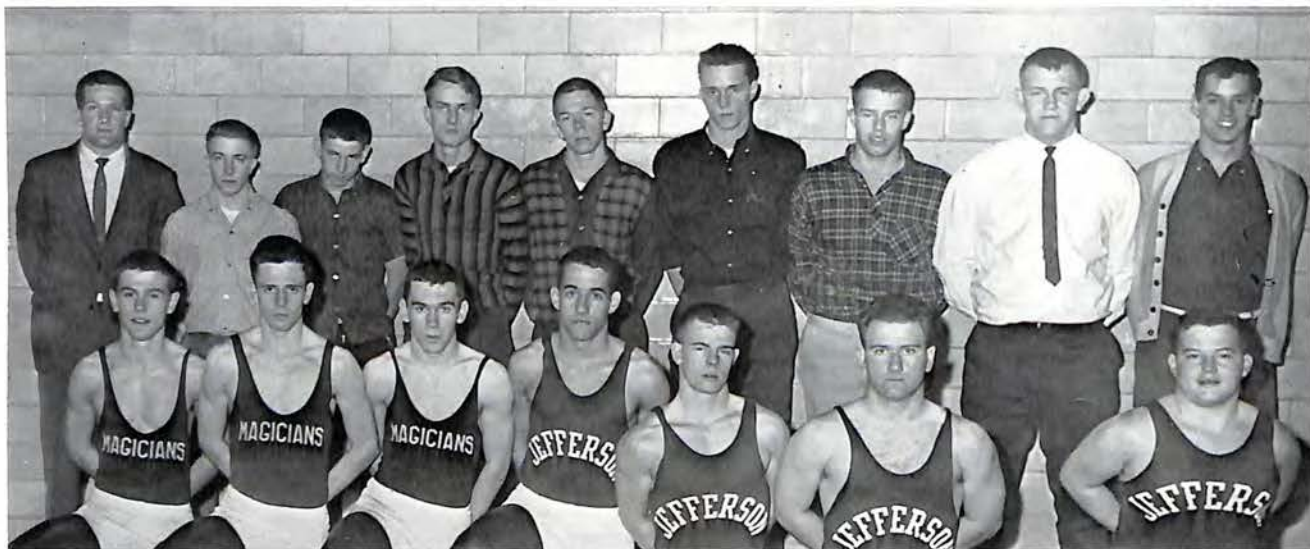

The Baseball Team this year was coached by Mr. Charles Hellard and with nine returning lettermen, four of whom are seniors, this year's team came out with a fine season.

Wrestlers in Action

FIRST ROW: Joey Jamison, Roy Main, Cephas Huffman, John Hatcher, Raymond Ferguson, Willard Hale, Ralph Baucomn.
SECOND ROW: Mr. Denison, Tommy Shelton, James Shelton, Gary Jones, Mike Wince, Jerry Terry, Edward Magnum, Waldo Cunningham, Eddy Lawhorn, manager.

Although the "Red Raiders" did not have a very good season this year they improved from last year's team. With many sophomores coming out, next year's team should be much better.

The boys returning from last year were: Joey Jamison, Cephas Huffman, Ronnie Grant, Willard Hale, and Ralph Baucomn. The team came out with a 0-11-1 season. In Western District, Edward Magnum took fifth to go on to win sixth place in the state. We look forward to a better season and more wrestlers next year.

The Varsity "J" Club

The Varsity "J" Club has been re-organized at Jefferson this year after many years of absence.

In order for a boy to become a member of the "J" Club, he must letter in one or more major varsity sports. To letter he must show strong character and ability in these sports.

The club had many money raising projects this year. It sponsored "sock" hops, WROV-Faculty Basketball game, and the Varsity-Faculty basketball game. With the money that the club has earned, it has done many things for the school; the one big thing was buying a lounge chair and donating it to the Senior Lounge.

FIRST ROW: D. Crawford, J. Hobbs, R. Robertson. SECOND ROW: H. Kirk, J. Kahle, G. Lipscomb, J. Null, J. Schoonover, S. Wood, J. Wimmer, R. Maxey, W. Cunningham. THIRD ROW: R. Baldwin, T. Lovell, B. ## They Are Our Girls

Running out on the field or court in maroon and white uniforms and topped with cheerful smiles, this year's Varsity Cheerleaders led the student body and fans in yells that added greatly to the excitement of every football game.

Each member of the squad is responsible for the signs placed in the halls each week before a game. These varsity cheerleaders are also in charge of pep assemblies and promoting school spirit.

The Girl's Athletic Association was organized to give girls an opportunity to participate in various sports activities throughout the year. The program helps girls build traits of sportsmanship, make new friends, as well as build healthier bodies.

A girl can become a member of the G.A.A. by maintaining a set number of points. To get these points, she may be a cheerleader, sell programs at football games, and through the intermural program.
