For a few brief moments between classes these girls found an opportunity to chat.

Foreword

How does one tell the story of a school year? There seems to be so many things to say – so many happy and sad memories.

There is the classwork, tests and homework that make a daily routine. It is for us to remember that the work and sometimes burdensome assignments were the real purpose for being here each day. Only in looking back at the things we learned can we now appreciate many of them.

There was also time for social and athletic events. We can never forget the thrilling football and basketball games, nor the hops that were so much fun.

It is our sincere aim to give a lively and complete coverage of this school year – 1968-69.

To begin our thoughts of this year we want to adopt the theme FRIENDSHIP and present to you the following poem.

FRIENDSHIP

Oh, the comfort –
 The inexpressible comfort of feeling
 safe with a person,
 Having neither to weigh thoughts,
 Nor measure words – but pouring them all right out – just as they are –
 Chaff and grain together –
 Certain that a faithful hand will take and sift them –
 Keep what is worth keeping –
 And with a breath of kindness
 Blow the rest away.

Dinah Maria Mulock Craik

Hurrying to and from classes was all a part of the daily routine.

It looks as if these girls are discussing their English assignments for the day.

This is one exciting scene from our Homecoming pep assembly.

As we look through the door into the Home Economics classroom there is deep concentration to be seen by watching the student's expression.

Mrs. Rita Wilson appears to be into the task of beautifying the office with a new paint job.

Sandra Patsel gives us the impression that she has her job well under control.

Alma Mater Praised

To Thee, our Alma Mater,
Our hearts will e'er be true;
And so, with lifted voices,
We sing our praise to you.

Still thru thy halls we wander
Our friend You'll always be.
Forever we'll be faithful,
Dear Jefferson, to Thee.

Hail to Our Alma Mater,
To us You'll always be,
A symbol of our happy days,
Our heartaches and our glee.

Within your walls fond mem'ries,
Grow dearer day by day,
All hail our Alma Mater,
Grant us courage on life's way.

CREED

We, the students of Jefferson High School, believe in purity of living, obedience to authority, courteous manners, achievement through effort, loyalty, service, and integrity of character.

We believe in living up to the best that is within us at all times, whether alone or with many, and in keeping faith with ourselves, our homes, our school, city, country, and our God.

Sandra Patsel shows very thoughtful expression during class lecture.

Leroy Parker may be remembering his past football experience during Homecoming.

Scenes of lunchroom gaiety and chatter!

A variety of wearing apparel helped to boost the Jefferson spirit.

Friendship is a key to happiness and success. Without it we would walk alone, life would be shallow and meaningless.

During the school year people get together as friends and enjoy the life at Jefferson and the many courses and activities available.

Athletes foot strikes again!

JEFFERSON

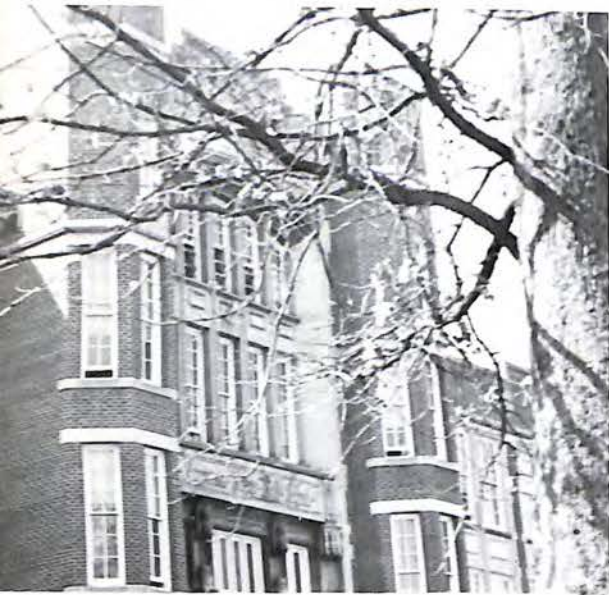

Soul Team

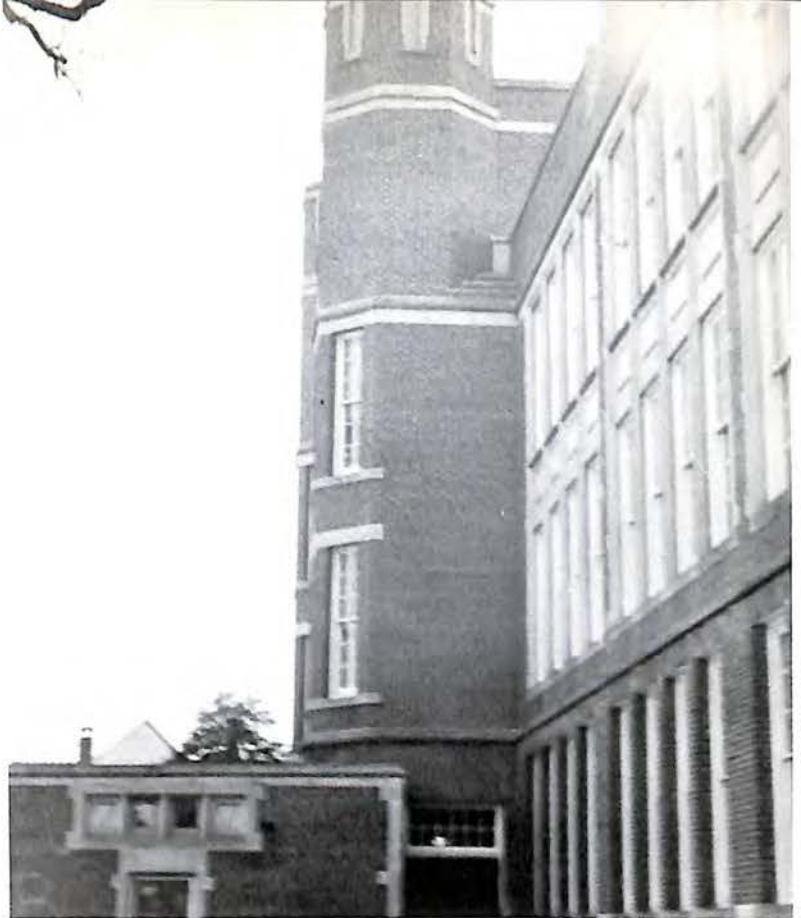

Each person is an individual at Jefferson, not an IBM card or a figure. A deep interest is held for students by the faculty and administration, and with each passing day they share their knowledge trying to help the student grow into a better person.

"I came back!"

Hail to our Alma Mater

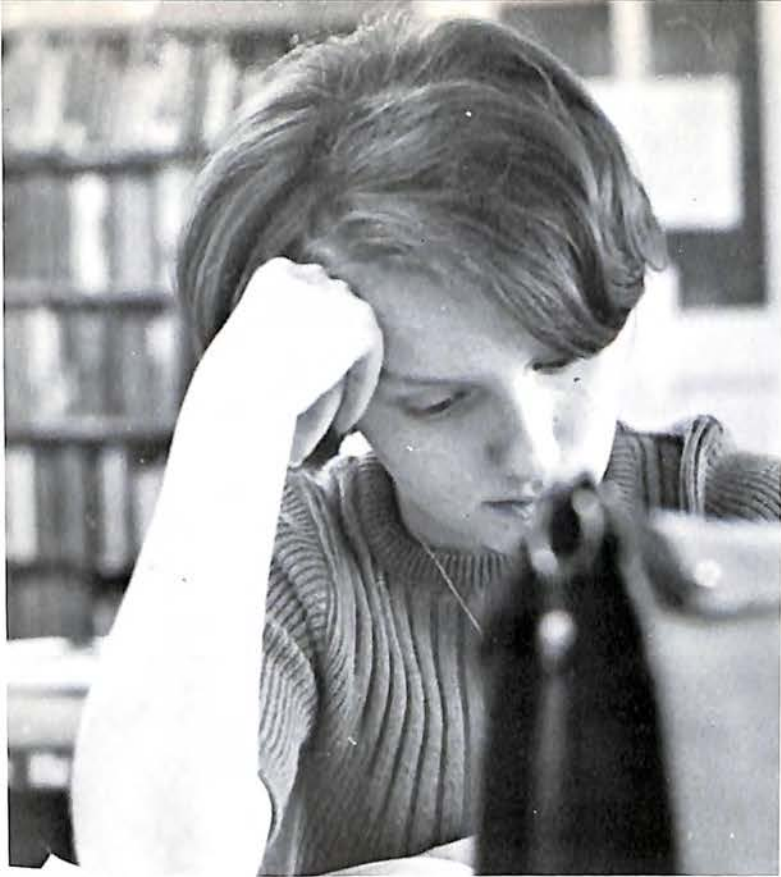

Within your walls fond memories . . .

Forever we'll be faithful,
Dear Jefferson to thee.

We're loyal to you Jefferson High,
The Maroon and the White, Jefferson High,
We'll back you to stand
Against the best in the land
For we know you have said Jefferson,
Rah! Rah!

Go smashing ahead Jefferson High
Go crashing ahead Jefferson High
Our team is the fame protector,
On boys, for we expect a touchdown
From you, Jefferson, Rah! Rah!

Think the situation over . . .

work the problem out . . .

Put your figures to work.

Mr. John R. Graybill, Principal

Passing through the halls with a smile on his face, Mr. Graybill helped make each day pleasant.

By visiting classes, talking to students and teachers Mr. Graybill knew how students felt about their academic life. His concrete interest was quickly felt throughout the school.

He praised our athletic teams when we won and cheered them when we lost. His school spirit was deeply felt throughout the entire Jefferson community.

A typical scene at the football games was to see Mr. Graybill cheering the team regardless of victory or defeat.

Mr. Benjamin L. Taylor

Mr. Benjamin L. Taylor—Assistant Principal first semester

Promotion For Mr. Ben Taylor

A promotion to Principal at Lee Junior for Mr. Ben Taylor brought to us at mid-semester Mr. William Field.

Assistant Principal,—this title usually brings to mind one who is in charge of controlling discipline problems. Mr. Taylor and Mr. Field our Assistant Principals have certainly approached this situation with a positive attitude rather than one which says that matters of this nature are hopeless and depressing. They always strive to know about the situation in detail so they could offer help and a fairness to each individual involved.

Physical Education Department

Boys' and girls' physical education activities offered a real potential for contributions to general education through maintaining a condition of personal good health and fitness.

Our physical education department has three main objectives: to provide opportunities for participation in physical activities that will result in educational experiences; to develop the organic systems of the body so that each student may live at his highest level; and to develop skills in activities with favorable attitudes toward play that will carry over into future careers and leisure hours.

Science—systematized knowledge derived from observation, study, and experimentation carried on in order to determine the nature or principles of what is being studied—gave the students better insight about the environment around them and their heredity.

Under the direction of Mr. Wilson the Science Department was able to maintain the high academic standing in the field of science, by having films, lab experiments and various field trips.

Business Department offers new Data Processing Course

New this year at Jefferson was a course in Data Processing which was taught by Miss Judy Ervin. Basic information and operation was taught beginning with the key punch machines, the sorter, the key sort, and the pegboard.

We feel that this course adds to our total business curriculum and provides a very worthwhile opportunity for the students to prepare for increasing openings in this line in the Roanoke Valley.

Activities

Office

One of the most familiar places at Jefferson is the Activities Office. During the course of the day, one might find Mr. Byrd, with a pipe in his mouth, talking on the phone and Mrs. Monroe slaving over the adding machine.

Among the many functions of the Activities Office is the scheduling of sports events, receiving and dispersing of club funds and selling items essential for every student's day.

Even with a busy schedule, Mr. Byrd and Mrs. Monroe find time to support each and every Jefferson activity.

Mrs. Julie Kosko, and Mr. Leeson Nucholls were kept busy telephoning parents of absentees, checking tardy slips, and excusing or admitting students to class. The new discredit system was put into full use. As each day went by we worked toward improving our attendance.

Home-School Counselors

Mrs. Beulah Dabney and Mrs. Shirley Ingram, shown at left, The Home School Counselors, have worked this year trying to help students with any problems they have had which made it difficult for them to do their best in school. The counselors have visited in many homes and have counseled with students here at Jefferson.

ACORN

Yearbook Staff

1969

Sandra Barton, Deloris Mays, Linda Creasey, and Maxine McKay type copy and captions on triplicate sheets.

Cooperation, hard work, fun—these characterized the 1969 Yearbook Staff. The students of the yearbook staff were lead by their editor-in-chief Delores Webber and their advisor Miss Ledford.

FRIENDSHIP was the theme chosen for the 1969 Yearbook.

In the place of frantically, scratching pencils, clicking cameras, rushing feet, wildly waving arms and battle scarred gallies is emptiness, stillness, The ACORN has gone to press!

Sharon Gillespie and Peggy Gearheart spent many hours working on the index.

Upper photo shows Deloris Mays helping Peggy Gearheart with index. In bottom photo Jennifer Evans in deep concentration?

Layouts, layouts, and more layouts! When will it all end?

Jefferson News Reports School Activities

Mrs. Jobe, advisor, and Cecilia Summers, editor.

Obtaining information to cover all school news, writing controversial editorials in general interest of the students, and making known yearly sports actions were among the duties performed by the 1968-69 Jefferson News Staff.

Fourteen publications during the year meant two newspapers each month and a continuity of work on behalf of the news staff. Printing, done by Toler and Company of Roanoke, required correspondence and communication with that business.

Pat Kennedy, Editor

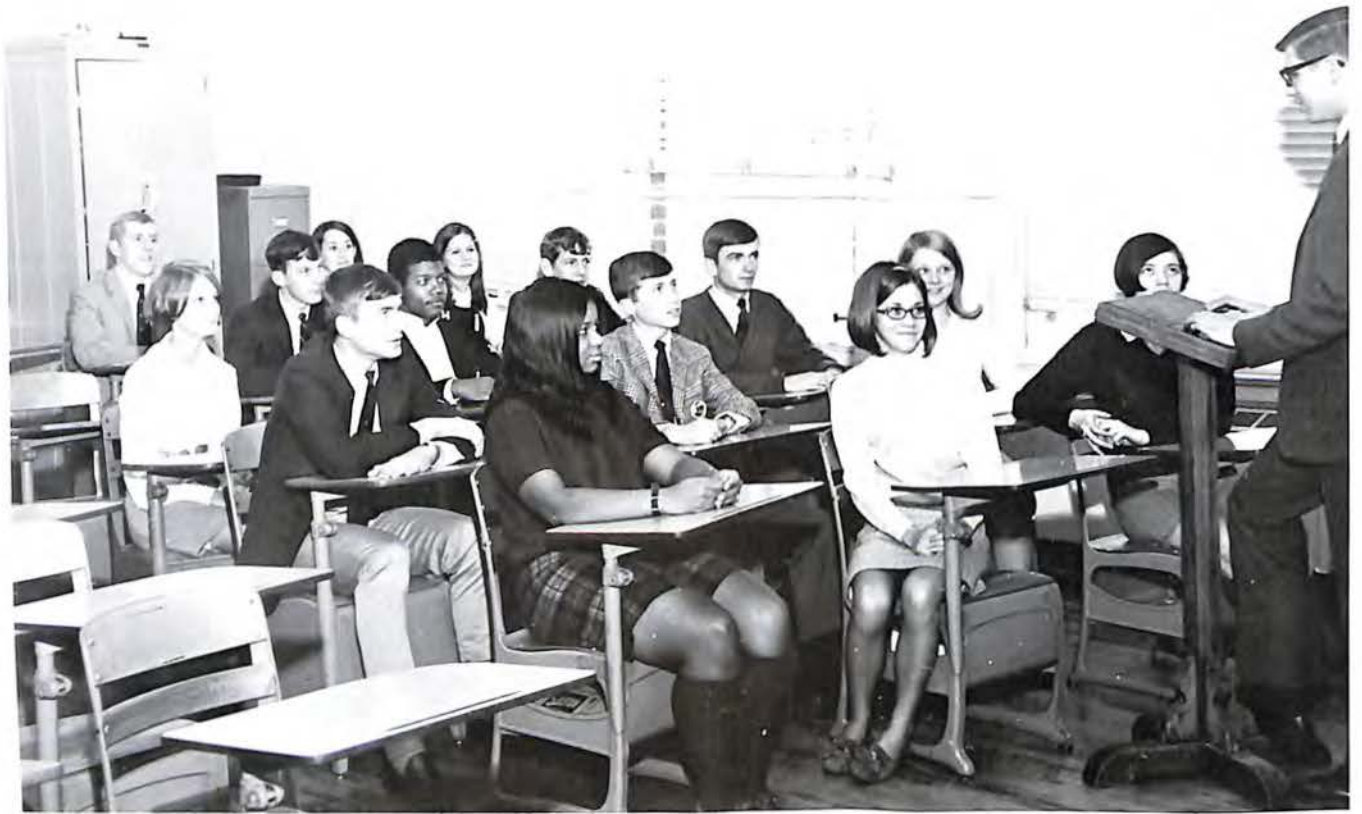

Acorn Magazine Staff

Imagination! Possibly this word describes better than any other the quality one must have if they desire to write. The class with the responsibility for publishing the magazine is titled Creative Writing and in order to create an individual's imagination must be vivid and active at all times.

Mrs. Staton and her staff placed in our hands a fall and a spring issue of the Acorn Magazine.

Student Co-operative Association

Ronnie Arthur, President

Even before school got into full swing the new S.C.A. officers were well into their training and planning period, that would provide an inside look at some of the activities to be sponsored, some of the problems to be solved and many days of work and fun during the coming school year. A get-acquainted tea held at the beginning of the school year, set the wheels turning for a better student-teacher relationship.

Sophomores were greeted by the Student Government members on orientation day, which is set aside for the purpose of uniting the new students with the atmosphere at Jefferson.

Homecoming, fun night and varsity-faculty games for projects adopted for raising money for student activities.

An Easter Egg hunt for the children that the Roanoke Jaycees sponsor and the annual Easter Assembly at Jefferson are two of the Jefferson Y-Teens Chapter's traditional activities held each year. Members attended the Brotherhood Conference and the "Hanging of the Greens" program held annually at the Y.W.C.A. There were also some social activities for club members. There was a slumber party held at the Y.W.C.A. and a weekend at Camp-On-Craig, the Y-Teen Camp in Craig County.

Our club, a Christian organization, is concerned with the spiritual growth of its members and rendering service to others in the community, at home, and at school. This club meets on the second Wednesday of each month with Mrs. Dorothy Lipscomb and Miss Ruby Boyd as advisors.

Tranquil scenes of beautiful landscape vibrant still life and realistic portraits created a deeper sense of culture improvement was brought about largely by the efforts shown by members of the Art Club. Many projects were part of the clubs growth as an organization, such as a float in the Homecoming parade and displaying of students art work.

To broaden and strengthen the member knowledge and appreciation of art, the club sponsored a trip to Cherry Hill and the Fine Arts Center and invited several speakers to their club meetings.

Art Club is open to students taking Art and to others who are especially interested in taking Art.

Work For Better Industry

Josh Wilson, Reporter; Peggy Bell Isle, Secretary; Susan Adams, President; Darlene Overstreet, Vice-President; Mark Moock, Treasurer.

VICA membership provided the students with the opportunity for participation in vocational industrial leadership. One aim of VICA was to develop student leadership and training and a pride in the community.

There was district competition March 5th. Jefferson is part of district 6. Some of the fields in the competition were talent, and creativity. This was televised and publicized by the newspaper. Jefferson competed for the first time this year.

Business Leaders Prepared

Wanda Mickey, President.

Jefferson's Business Club is made up of all business students who wish to learn more about the business world, and are taking business courses.

Activities this year included tours of local businesses and hearing from guest speakers, with up-to-date information. Also the club received the honor of winning first place in the Homecoming Parade float contest. It's main purpose is to train future business leaders of the business world.

Tom McMahon, Carson Kelley, Tommy Helms portrayed the three old men in the play "A STONE IN THE ROAD."

"GEORGE WASHINGTON SLEPT HERE", "THE BAD CHILDREN", "A STONE IN THE ROAD", and "OLIVER" were the four plays presented by the Jefferson High School Theatre this year.

Jefferson High School Theatre is Roanoke's oldest scholastic drama group. It's graduates have gone to appear in theatres all over the United States. Many of the backstage personnel are now working on technical staffs on radio and television and legitimate theatre.

Mr. Laban Johnson directs the plays presented while his staff of drama students and the stage crew set up props, make costumes, apply make-up, etc.

Kathy Campbell as Gretel and Dennis Grass as Hansel portrayed the children in the play "THE BAD CHILDREN."

Marilyn Gibson gives Tommy Helms the last touch for his scene in "THE STONE IN THE ROAD."

The casts for the two one-act plays receive last minute instructions from Mr. Johnson.

Future Teachers Of America

The builders of tomorrow's knowledge, Future Teachers of America are the source of inspiration and hope in the classroom of tomorrow. They are not only the future but the present as well.

By tutoring at a local church and observing in classrooms, the F.T.A. members got a first hand look at classroom activities.

In order to raise money to give scholarships to deserving seniors, the club sold senior name cards.

By participating in the state convention, city wide club and various activities of local teacher sororities, the Jefferson's club broadened and improved it's outlook on the teaching profession.

What better way to prepare for the challenging job of homemaker than to become part of the organization devoted to learning about the various areas in this field. So often we think of only cooking and maybe sewing when thinking of home economics. These things are only a beginning however, then we must also include family budgeting, marketing, child care, decorating, entertaining, and the place of the family in the community.

To make these studies more meaningful, field trips were taken, demonstrations given, and guest speakers were heard during club meetings.

Pan American League

During the year of 1968-69 the Spanish Club entered a float in the Homecoming Parade and during the month of December decorated a bulletin board to be judged along with the others.

The club also had activities of it's own. A doughnut sale was the money making project. December 19th the club gave a dance for it's members. At the party we had several Spanish ideas to accent it. One was an old Spanish custom, the breaking of a Pinata. Spanish food was on hand for our enjoyment too. In the future we plan on having a Mexican Meal prepared for us by Mr. Osborn, our sponsor.

In the spring a picnic will bring the year's activities to a close.

French Club

Why is it that one thinks of France as romantic? Is it the jaunty Frenchmen in their berets, the sidewalk cafes, the landscape, or the beautiful river Seine? Perhaps all these and much more make the total picture of France.

Through membership in the French Club one has the opportunity to learn of French culture and customs. This, we feel, brings about a greater appreciation of the country and its people.

The library is a very exciting and adventurous place. With a single book you can explore the heavens, the seas and the universe. Some books can put you into another time and place just by reading them.

Music Hath Charm

Choir members practiced long, hard hours in preparation for the Christmas concert.

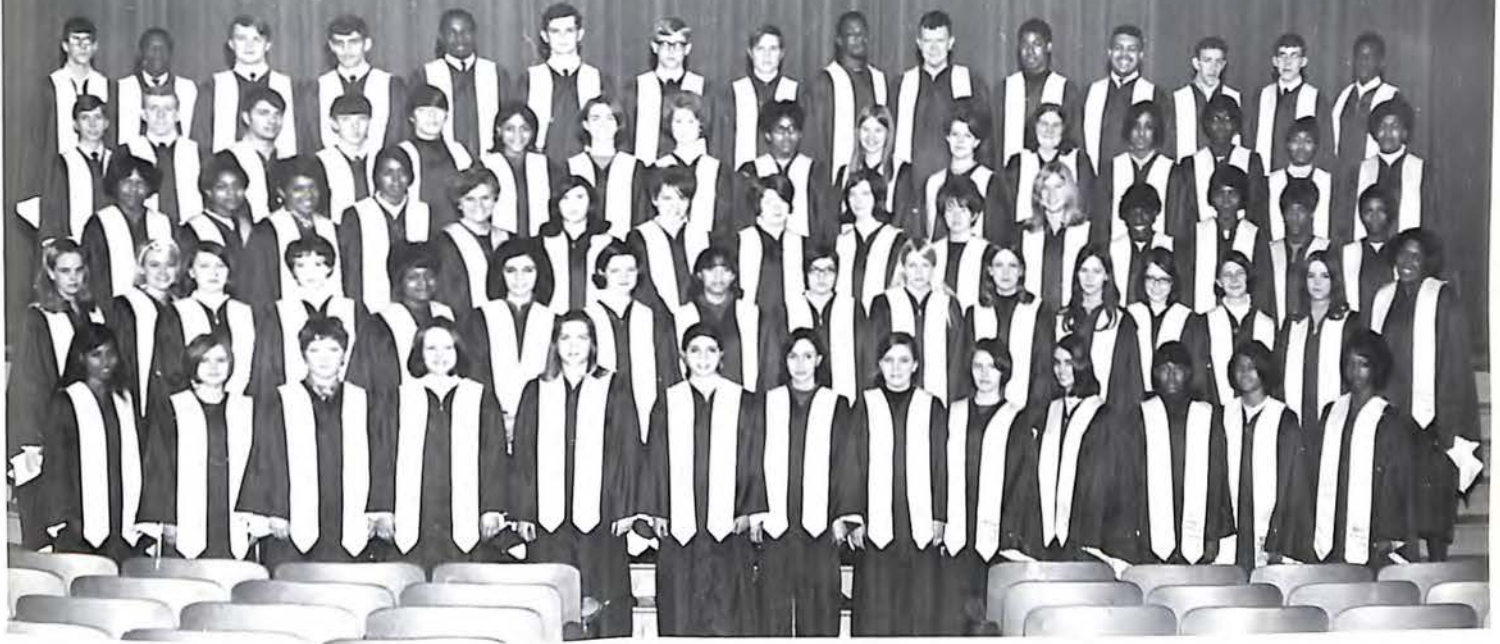

Jefferson's Choir has participated in various programs and activities this year. They sang in both the Thanksgiving and Christmas assemblies, and presented a Christmas concert on the evening of December 16, as well as a television appearance on December 19. Following the concert on December 16, a party for the choir and guests was held in the gym. Ten members of the choir were chosen all-region and all-state chorus. Those students were: Margaret Barlow, James Cook, Tony Gilbert, Dennis Grass, Toni Moldenhauer, Ted Porter, Marian Turner, Barry Tyree, Margaret Chisom, and Pam Young. The choir presented another concert in the Spring, as well as several church programs during the year. There are 90 members in the choir, and it is directed by Mrs. Nan Lee.

Intramurals Important to Girls

The Jefferson Girls' Physical Education Department launched a big drive this year to build a stronger intramural program. It is our philosophy that intramurals are just as much an intergal part of our program as varsity sports. They provide participation opportunities for those girls who cannot, for some reason, play varsity sports. Therefore, we have tried to provide a variety of activities to meet the interest of all girls at Jefferson.

Activities provided are: volleyball, gymnastics, table-tennis, basketball, and bowling.

On December 6, 1969 at the Salem Civic Center the Magicians of Jefferson High met T. C. Williams of Arlington, and the outcome had some people wondering if Jefferson would even finish second in the Western District as some people had predicted. But – seventeen games later Jefferson was not in second place, but Number 1, 12-0 in the District with the unpredictable tournament facing them.

In the first round the Magicians were spectators as they watched Halifax beat Lewis, which gave the Comets a chance at Jefferson, but the Magicians took care of Halifax—too—and prepared for Danville in the finals. Saturday night Danville was eager to revenge two earlier loses to Jefferson, but the Magicians were just too strong and carried home the Western District Championship trophy. The following week Jefferson paid yet another visit to the Civic Center this time to tangle in the Western District Regionals. Jefferson's first challenge was Graham High of Bluefield. The G-men just could not handle the Magicians as Jefferson ran to a 81-45 victory and once again faced Danville. This time George Washington fell to the Magicians 88-71. And so the dream of every basketball team was coming true for Jefferson, they were on their way to the State!

Wrestling Team

This may have been a year of rebuilding in Jefferson's wrestling program, but Seniors John Coles and Don Armstrong were truly stars.

Jefferson's season record was only 1-9, but with Junior Richard Anderson and 19 promising Sophomores the wrestling program is looking brighter.

Mr. Harris, who coached the team, played an active part in the speedy development of our Sophomores. John Coles and Richard Anderson will represent Jefferson in the state matches. Coach Harris and all the wrestling team should be commended for their achievements.

Jefferson's wrestlers exercise and prepare for their next match.

Team has rough, but rewarding season

Wrestling captains Don Armstrong and John Coles practice for the hard matches ahead of them.

Indoor Track Means Work

Coach Osborne started off early in an attempt to rebuild the Jefferson track program by starting with the indoor track team. The boys worked very hard with weights, exercising, and plenty of running around the school and park, preparing for the outdoor season.

Daily practice enabled the boys to do their best.

Coach Harris; Tim Callahan; Donnie Stanley, captains; Coach Sink.

Farewell To Miss Gibboney

Miss Dorothy Gibboney, Superintendent

Through the years Miss Gibboney has served Roanoke City Schools as teacher, Director of Personnel, and Superintendent. It is with mixed emotion that we say farewell as she retires at the end of this school session. We shall miss her in her official capacity, but know that the entire school system will continue to hold a special place in her heart. Our best wishes go with her.

Mr. D. Mott Robertson, Director of Instruction

Mr. Alfred Fisher, Business Manager

The clear water's spray beneath my feet,
speaks softly to me,
The winds whistling through the trees
to blow away my fears
A stone beneath me holds me high above them all,
So here I sit, friends afar, I return to reality –
they are waiting.

Delores Webber

DEDICATION

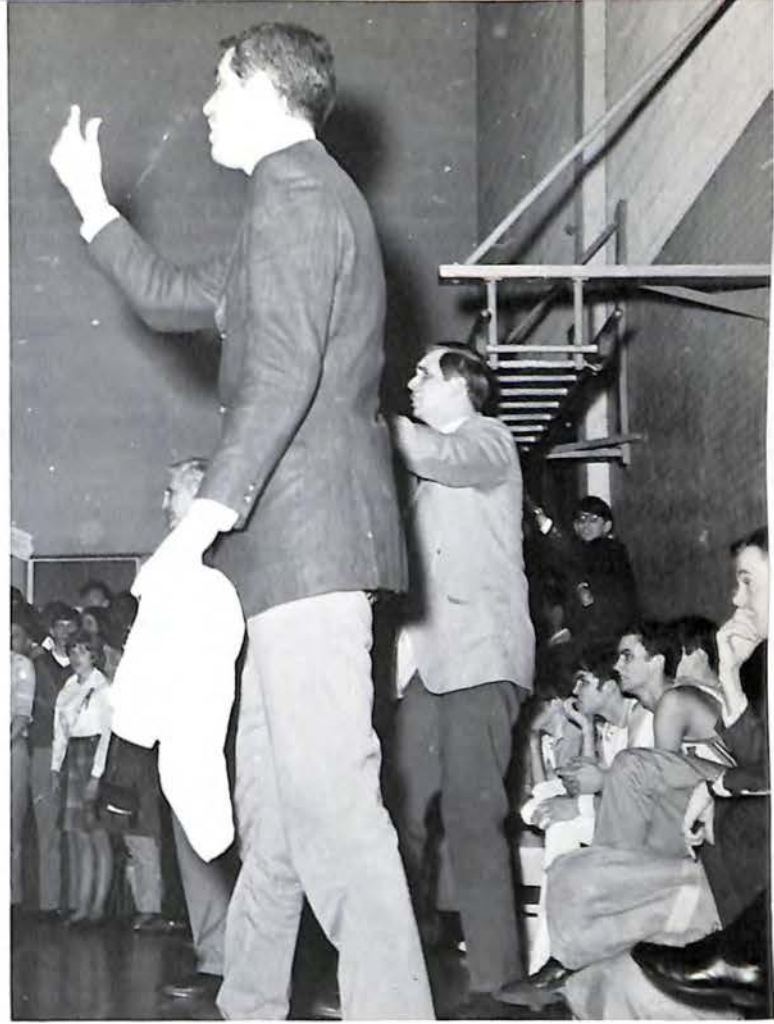

MR. DICK KEPLEY

Intent expression of strategy planning is shown here.

Cheers ring out loud and strong at an exciting basketball game. With this same enthusiasm we are pleased to dedicate the 1969 yearbook to you Mr. Dick Kepley.

With your devotion and understanding you have given Jefferson a warmer and better atmosphere. For a friendly and kind person such as you there are possibly so many words that it is difficult to find the few to best express our appreciation for your loyalty and glowing school spirit. So with just THANK YOU we dedicate our book to you.

Coach Kepley calls team to side for pep talk.
