FOREWORD

A yearbook is like an album—it holds memories of friends and never to-be-forgotten incidents.

The Class of '53 hopes that the pages that are to follow have pictured and presented important events in the 1952-53 school year.

The class also hopes that this yearbook will hold the friendships we have formed, the clubs we have belonged to, the songs we have sung, the sports we have played, the happy occasions that have crammed the school year 1952-53 and the memories of the teachers who guided us. Yes, it will bring pleasant recollections of these things that have made our school years dear to us.

HELEN GIRST

WAVERLY LAW

So live, that when thy summons comes to join
The innumerable caravan, which moves
To that mysterious realm, where each shall take
His chamber in the silent halls of death,
Thou go not like the quarry-slave at night,
Scourged to his dungeon, but, sustained and soothed
By an unfaltering trust, approach thy grave,
Like one who wraps the drapery of his couch
About him, and lies down to pleasant dreams.

DEDICATION

To Mrs. Dorothy D. Witten, who willingly and unselfishly gave us her guidance, who instilled in our minds and hearts the true meaning of our motto, "Character, Scholarship and Service," we dedicate this edition of the ADDISONIAN.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

TO THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1953:

To you who have the good fortune to graduate from this school in this the year of its silver anniversary, greetings. Twenty-five years is a short time in terms of the life of the great seats of learning, but it has been sufficient time for this institution to have become an important factor in the remarkable development of this community.

Through the years Addison High School has set as its goal the development of high standards of character, scholarship, and service and it makes no apologies in the face of the strictest appraisal of its worth and work. In measurably achieving these ideals, it has had the good fortune of an active and foreseeing city school board, the deep interest of the school administrative staff, the constant support of alumni and friends, the cooperation of a consecrated and efficient body of teachers, and always the love and loyalty of an earnest body of students.

You have enjoyed a real privilege. How well will you measure up to the opportunities and responsibilities of a good citizen?

I wish for all of you good health and a good measure of the success for which you have worked and prayed.

EDWIN L. PHILLIPS

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

Brightly dawned that day four years ago when we, the present Senior Class, first came to LUCY ADDISON HIGH SCHOOL. We were excited and a little frightened, not knowing what to anticipate. After several weeks of bewilderment, we finally fitted ourselves into the pattern of high school life.

We made many new friends and began learning quite a few things that we did not know. Other than that, our freshman year progressed rather slowly. We constantly sighed, "Oh! to be a senior."

That first year ended without any unusual or remarkable experiences and we were now—"Sophisticated Sophomores."

We all met again at wonderful Lucy Addison in the fall of 1950, feeling very superior, very experienced, and very know-it-all. No one could tell us anything. By this time, all the newness of high school had worn off and we felt like old hands. We had all joined clubs, participated in sports, and begun to take part in many extra-curricular activities. Midwinter and spring passed rather uneventfully with the exception of those stiff exams. And soon, it was June again!

We began to look forward to the glorious day when we would be Juniors. And what an eventful year it was! Our officers were: President, William Hackley; Vice President, Waverly Law; Secretary, Betty Wright; Assistant Secretary, Frances Ray; Treasurer, Warren Bond; Business Manager, Lynwood Harris; and Sergeant-at-Arms, William Avery. What an exciting and enjoyable time we had getting ready for our Junior Day exercises! We admit we were trembling a wee bit as we marched up the aisle, but we loved it.

Death, however, left its sting. Waverly Law, our beloved classmate, was summoned to the realms above.

Another highlight of our third year in high school was the Junior-Senior Prom. Decked in our formal finery, we waltzed until the clock struck the bewitching hour. But Junior Days do not last always; so gradually, they faded into the unforgettable past.

Our Senior year was memorable in more than one way. We entered a "spanking" new high school building. This year was chocked full of interesting and never-to-be forgotten experiences. One very important event in our fourth year was the operating of our own city government for a day.

But again, death dealt a heavy blow. Our dear Helen Girst passed into eternity after a brief illness.

We are the Class of '53, the first to graduate after the completion of the building. We depart with our hearts in our throats and tears in our eyes. Many times shall we re-live those days at L. A. H. S. and long forever to return.

SENIOR CLASS SONG

Hail, happy morning!
Long have we yearned for thee.
Seniors of fifty-three, loyal are we.
Gaily we march along
Singing our joyous song—
Hearts light and spirits free,
Singing to thee.

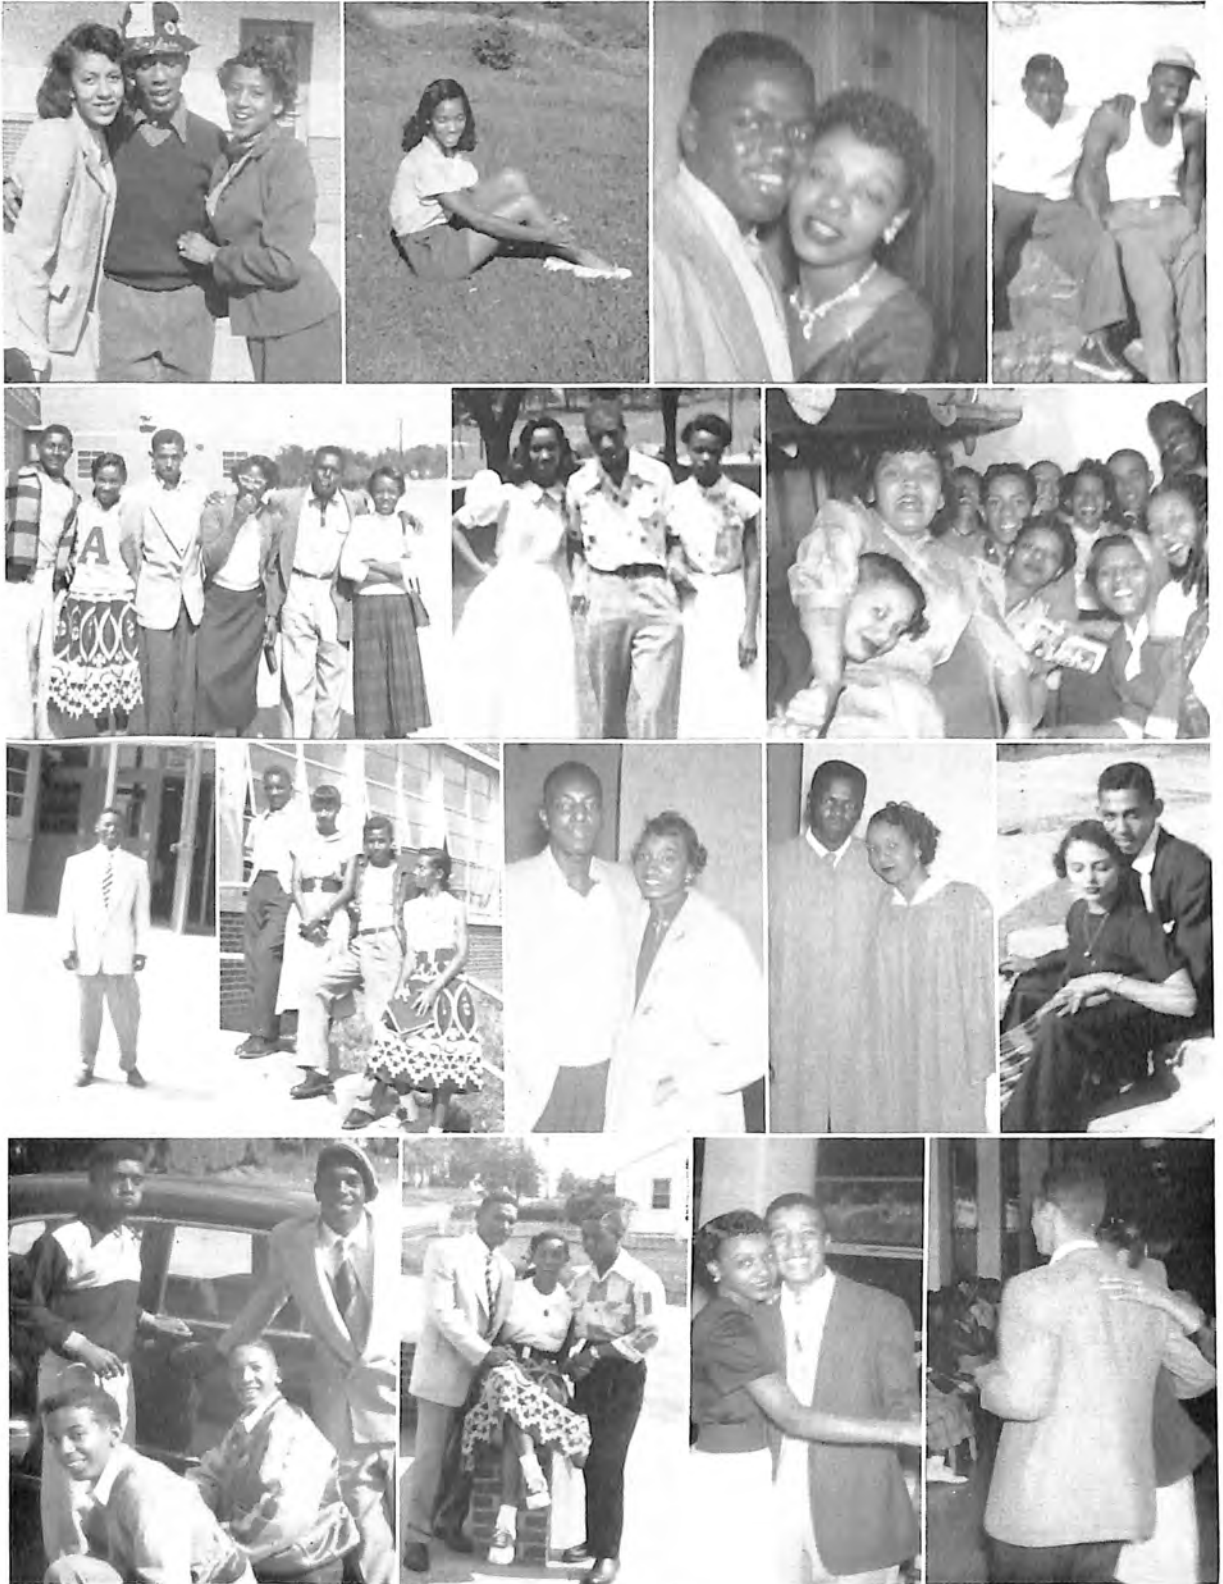

School days have ended—
Gliding so swiftly by.
Yet in our memories
They'll never die.
We pledge our loyalty,
Addison, now to thee:
Through all the years to be
Faithful and true.
