TAP hosts Annual Black History Celebration

TAP will hold its annual Black History Celebration Tuesday, Feb. 23 at 10 a.m. at the Dumas Center on Henry Street. This year's theme is Bridging the Gap.

TAP will celebrate the contributions of African Americans from past to present.

Those honored and their respective fields are: the Golden Chorale Singers, Music; Estelle McCadden, Community; Cleo Sims, Education; Carla Lewis for her contributions in preserving Roanoke's Black History; William Penn, Music and Vice-Mayor Sherman Lea, Government.

Additionally, TAP will recognize the contributions of its president Ted Edlich as bridging the gap locally from segregation to desegregation.

Those in attendance will be invited to enjoy a Soul Food buffet which will be served following the program. The public is cordially invited to attend.
