

Peggy Sue Mason

Immeasurable falls far short of defining the quality and quantity of love and life time of dedicated service which Peggy Sue Mason has freely showered upon innumerable young lives locally and abroad.

Her educational background includes a B.A. degree from North Carolina College (Durham) 1956; majoring in Sociology; minor, Social studies; the Certificate for Elementary Education from Hampton Institute, 1959; and required MA degree from the University of Maryland (overseas Division/Tokyo, Japan 1964) and Frankfurt, Germany, 1968; Our Lady of the Lake College, (San Antonio, TX) 1967, and University of Virginia, Charlottesville, 1969 with a major in Mentally Handicapped Children.

Her areas of teaching—elementary education (Grades 1-7), History and social Studies (middle and high school) and Mental Retardation(elementary, middle and high school) spanned over a period of nearly 40 years at schools in Martinsville and Roanoke, VA, San Antonio, TX; Tokyo, Japan and Frankfurt, Germany as wife of a military man.

She has held memberships in the National, Virginia, and Roanoke education Associations; the National council of Exceptional Children; Roanoke Valley Association for Children with Learning Disabilities; holds life membership in the Virginia Congress PTA and was a charter member of the Roanoke Valley 4-H Leadership Association.

“Peggy Sue,” as she is affectionately known by most, has served on the Board of Directors for the Roanoke Neighborhood Alliance, Teacher Center Planning; Roanoke City Public Schools; Federal

(continued on page-7)

PEGGY SUE WITH STUDENTS IN TOKYO