History of Ninth Grade Class of 1953

The first thing we remember of this old brown stone building is the day we first set our feet upon its steps in the fall of 1950. We trembled to think that we would be going to this school and we felt mighty small being the youngest students. During that year many wonderful things happened. We were first acquainted with the wonderful assemblies, the dances and all the different athletics. Betsy Drewry was the first girl to get enough athletic points in the seventh grade to join the Girls' Athletic Association. Walter Howard received the honor of being catcher on the all American Midget Baseball Team.

After working mighty hard we progressed to the eighth grade. We had great expectations for that year, most of which came true. My, but we were proud of Laura Fox when she was chosen Snow Queen of our city. No less was our pride when the eighth grade Midget Football team went to the Santa Claus Bowl Game and captured top honors. John Hurt, one of our star players, was given the title of "All American Midget Football Player."

After a vigorous struggle we reached the fabulous Ninth Grade. We were proud of being the oldest but we realized our responsibility of setting a good example for our younger schoolmates. We again came to the election of Snow Queen and Betty Lou Hunter was chosen from our school. The Ninth Grade dramatics club sponsored many fine plays: "All American Boy", "Bird's Christmas Carol", "A Christmas Pageant", "Rip van Winkle", "An Easter Pageant", and "A Man Without a Country." The art department furnished fine scenery and decorations. After the music assemblies which included Christmas music and a Spring Concert everyone was singing in the halls.

We also enjoyed a gay social life. The Y-Teen Dance, to which we dragged our "bo's", was a big success. Mary Hart Richardson was crowned "Queen." The Basketball Banquet which was given to the Boys' basketball Team, the Cheerleaders, the Volleyball Team and their guests, by the Parent-Teacher Association of our school, was enjoyed very much. The Ninth Grade's fine Basketball team, which was supported by Cheerleaders and spectators alike, won third place in the league. Our girls' volleyball team captured the championship and had everyone in the school boasting about them. The student council sponsored a talent show that was a highlight of the year. The council's officers went to Miami, Florida, much to the envy of everyone else. They promoted a big campaign to wipe out vandalism in our school. We elected our class officers for this year which were: President - Frank Ellet; Vice President - Julia Stutts; Secretary - Janet Bowman; Treasurer - Betty Bernard. We couldn't have picked finer people.

We, of the Ninth Grade, look back on the years we have been at Lee Junior with great pride and we hope you will think of us when you are having the gay time of the years to come.

"Last Will and Testament"

We, the Ninth Grade pupils of Lee Junior High School, being of unsound minds and decrepid bodies do hereby declare this our Final Will and Testament.

ARTICLE ONE

We leave Miss Page 100 aspirin tablets to ease the many headaches we have caused.

We will to next year's prospective history students Mrs. Walton's daily check-ups which we love so well.

We leave to Miss McNeace a row of portable black boards in hopes she can get all her pupils to the board next year.

We leave Mr. Foster's wonderful point system to the seventh graders who will be caught in its clutch.

We leave much appreciation and many thanks to all our teachers, past and present, for their interest in our plans and for putting up with most of us for three years.

ARTICLE TWO

Sally James leaves her gift of "gab" to Suzanne Burton whom we feel is quite capable of taking the responsibility.

Ann Burch leaves the future G. A. A. president the lovely task of cleaning up after the other members' "tea" parties.

Barbara Keller leaves her melodious voice to Sue Lunsford to help support next year's choir.

Laura Fox leaves her glamorous looks to Suzanne Norman.

Ann Miller leaves her wily schemes for catching males to Betty Sue Wyatt.

Walter Howard leaves his current title as "heart breaker" to Jimmy Deady.

John Hurt leaves his ability of leadership to next year's president of the Student Council. (He'll need it!!!)

Eddie Noir leaves to Jimmy Vest his longing for one certain person of the fair sex.

Mary Hart Richardson leaves her fantastic fashions to anyone who is willing to wear them.

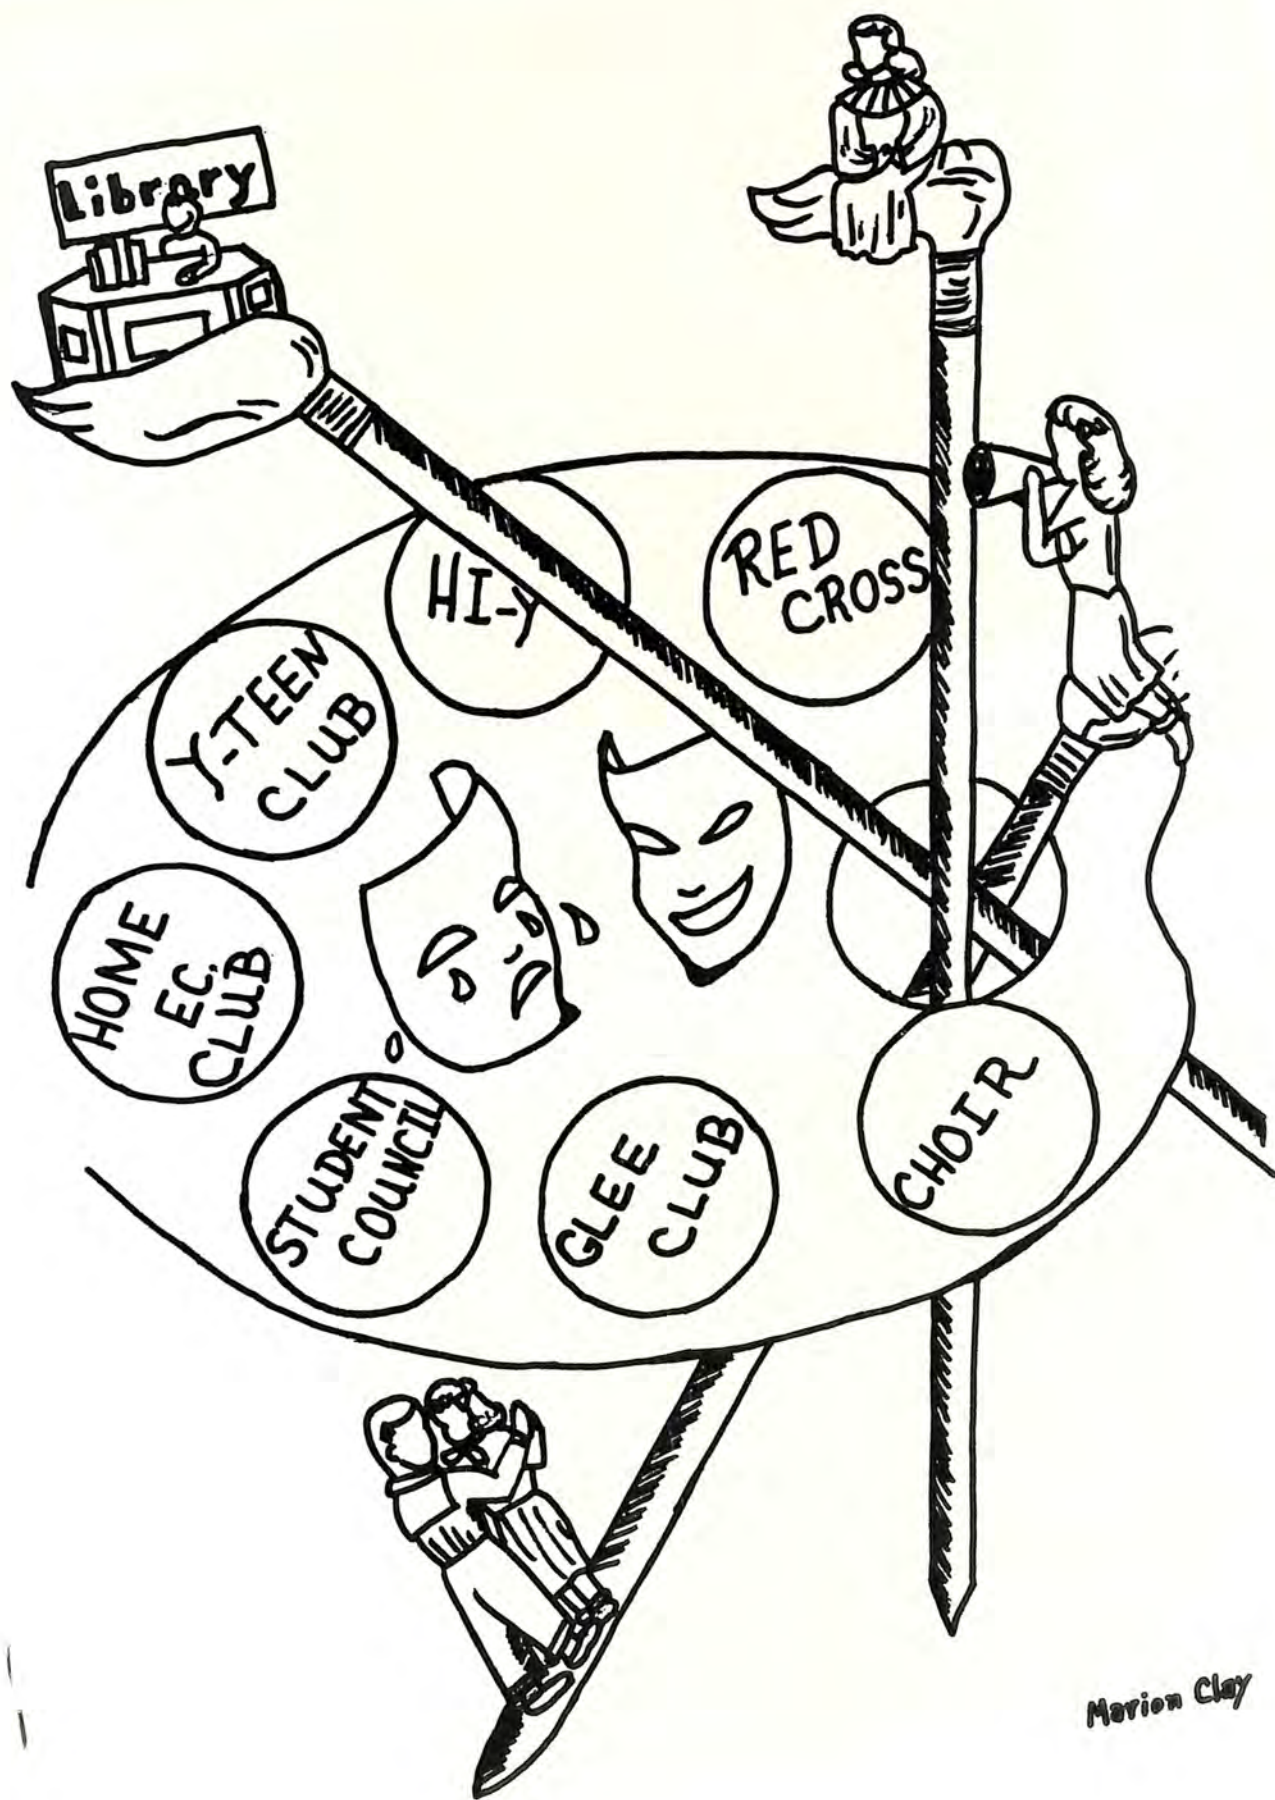

Nelson Showalter wills his hypnotic powers of flirtation to Kent McIlhaney since he doesn't need them anymore.

Marion Costello leaves to Charlie Bush his talent to announce and crack corny jokes.

Betty Lou Hunter leaves her love for tall boys to Betty Denison.

We, the undersigned, do hereby declare this our last will and testament, signed and sealed this 14th day of April, in the year of nineteen hundred and fifty-three, A.D.
