LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

ARTICLE I

To Miss Temple we leave a larger geometry class.

To Mr. Hudson we leave a heating pad to keep him warm when the weather stripping falls from the windows.

To Mrs. Hoal we leave a box of chartreuse crayons.

To Mr. Hall we leave more pages for next years' annual.

To Miss Sandidge we leave that "tuffie" Julia Mitchell.

To Mr. Howard we leave a brand new bunch of point-makers.

To Miss McNeace we leave a cut-away model of the Globe Theater.

To Miss Bowden we leave a homeroom on the first floor.

To Mr. Bowman we leave an atom that he can't split.

To Miss Godsey we leave a beauty salon to keep up with her changing hair styles.

To Mr. Ebert we leave a back brace to relieve the pain when he finishes doing the twist.

To the entire faculty we leave our best wishes for a happy vacation.

ARTICLE II

Joe German leaves to Mr. Ebert, a basketball team as good as this years'.

Pam McGregor leaves her chartreuse blouse to Mrs. Hoal.

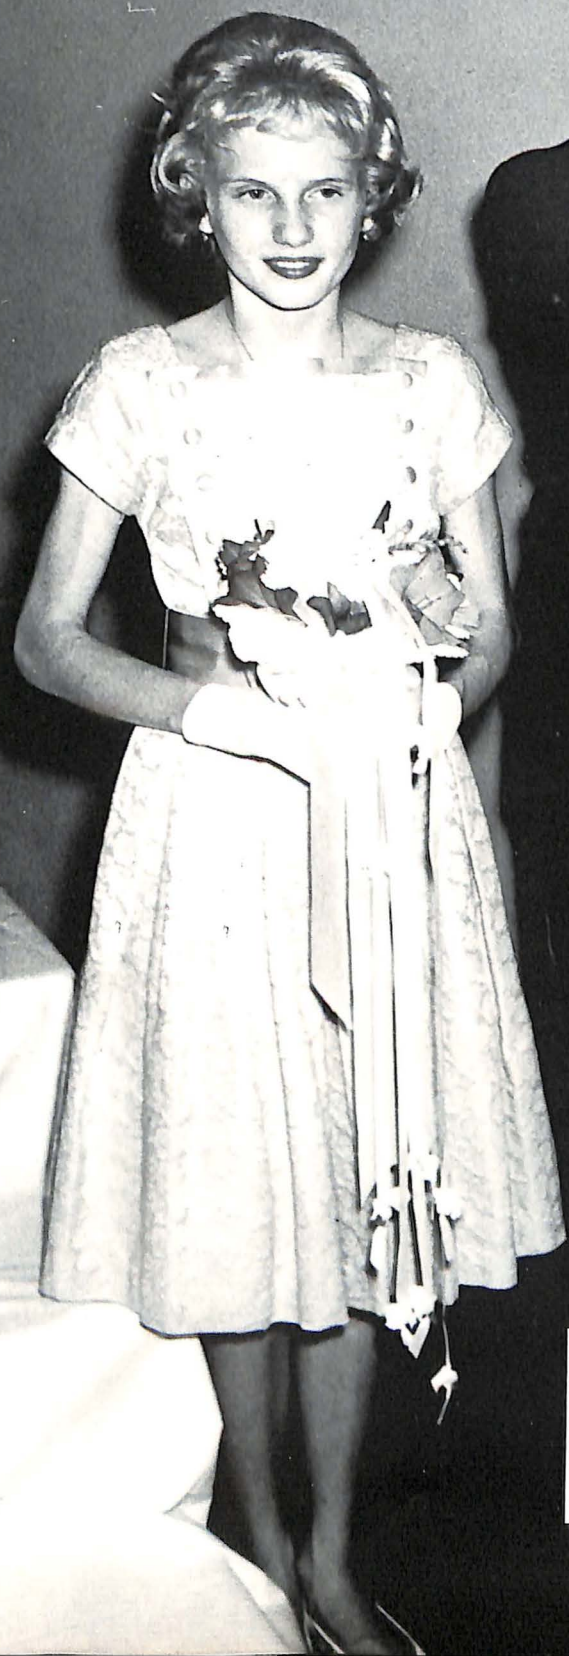

David McCray leaves his handwriting to anyone who can read it.

Ginny Moomaw leaves her arguments with Mr. Hudson to anyone brilliant enough to win them.

Richard McDaniel leaves his tennis shoes to anyone with feet big enough to wear them.

Mary Lou Stafford leaves her loyalty at Lee vs. Wilson games to Gratton Reynolds.
