ORIGIN OF NAMES
4104 W. Osage Way
Spokane, WA 99208

The northern border of England, interfacing with lowland Scotland, produced a thirty-mile-wide corridor from Carlisle to Berwick from which many of the prominent names of the world emerged. Amongst these distinguished surnames was Craghead. Research of ancient documents including the Inquisitio, the Exchequer Rolls of Scotland, the Ragman Rolls, the Domesday Book, parish cartularies, baptisms, and tax rolls, revealed that the first record of the name Craghead was found in Ayrshire where they were seated from very ancient times, some say well before the Norman Conquest and the arrival of Duke William at Hastings in 1066 A.D.

Although your name, Craghead, occurred in many references, from time to time the surname was spelt Craighead, Craighede, Craigdallie, Craigdallie, and these changes in spelling frequently occurred, even between father and son. Sometimes a different spelling appeared on each occasion through a lifetime at the same person's birth, death or marriage.

The family name Craghead is believed to be descended originally from the Strathclyde Britons. This ancient founding race of the north were a mixture of Gaelic/Celts whose original territories ranged from Lancashire in the south, northward to the south bank of the River Clyde in Scotland. They were divided into three sub-kingdoms, the Selgovians south of the Clyde, the Novantii in Galloway in south west Scotland, and the Rhiged to the south in Cumberland, Westmorland, and Lancashire.

From 400 A.D. to 900 A.D. their territory was overrun at first by the Irish Gaels, then the Angles from the east, and finally the Picts and Dalriadans from the north. However, their basic culture remained relatively undisturbed. By 1000 A.D., however, the race had formed into discernible Clans and families, perhaps some of the first evidence of the family structure in Britain.

By the 16th and 17th centuries many of our modern family names descended directly from this ancient race, including Craghead. Many of these families were later found scattered, not only throughout England, Scotland and Ireland, but all over the world, surnames which can now be traced back to this locality and time period. Tracing its ancient development, the name Craghead was found in Ayrshire where they were recorded as a family of great antiquity seated at Dailly in that shire. They are believed to be descended from a natural son of the Craigs of Riccarton and settled in Dailly about the year 1400. They had acquired a further branch in the

Preface

Carse of Gowrie by 1700, and Thomas Craigdallie was Treasurer of Perth in 1731. The first on record was David Craighead of Aberbrothok and Dailly. Notable amongst the family at this time was David Craighead of Aberbrothok.

The natural division of Scotland and England, an arbitrary line from Carlisle to Berwick, posed an artificial division to the unity of the ancient Strathclyde Britons and their family groupings. To the north they became Scottish, to the south English. However, many of the family structures would continue to be unified clans, powers unto themselves, owing little allegiance to either Scotland or England, having territories and political interests on both sides of the border.

Soon after the Norman Conquest border life was in turmoil. In 1246, six Chiefs from the Scottish side and six from the English side met at Carlisle and produced a set of laws governing all the Border Clans. These were unlike any laws prevailing in England or Scotland or, for that matter, anywhere else in the world. For example, it was a far greater offence to refuse to help a neighbour recover his property, wife, sheep, cattle or horses than it was to steal them in the first place. Hence the expression “Hot Trod”, or , a hot pursuit, from which we get the modern “hot to trot”. For refusal of assistance during a “Hot Trod”, a person could be hanged on the instant, without trial. Frequently, the descendants of these clans or families apologetically refer to themselves as being descended from “cattle or horse thieves” when, in fact, it was an accepted code of life on the border.

In 1603, the Union of the Scottish and English crowns became reality under King James VI of Scotland, who was also crowned King James 1st of England. The Crown dispersed these “unruly border clans”. In 1587, an Act of Scottish Parliament had condemned certain border families for their lawlessness. Scotland was moving toward breaking up the old “border code”. Hence, the Border Clans were banished to England, northern Scotland and to Ireland. Some were outlawed directly to Ireland, the Colonies and the New World.

Many of the Border Clans settled in Northern Ireland, transferred between 1650 and 1700 with grants of land provided they “undertook” to remain Protestant. Hence they became known as the “Undertakers”. Many became proudly Irish. The name Craghead may well have arrived in Ireland early in the 17th century during the reign of James I of Britain, when six counties in Ulster were confiscated and settled by the Protestant “Planters” or “Undertakers” as these settlers were known.

But there were many who were dissatisfied with life in Ireland, and sought a more rewarding life. They looked to the New World and sailed aboard the “White Sails” an armada of sailing ships such as the Hector, the Rambler, and the Dove which struggled across the stormy Atlantic. Some ships lost thirty or forty percent of their passenger list, migrants who died of disease and elements.

Preface

In North America, some of the first migrants which could be considered kinsmen of the family name Craghead and its spelling variants were Thomas Craghead who settled in Nantucket in 1774.

From the port of arrival many joined the wagon trains westward, moving to prairies or the west coast. During the American War of Independence those who remained loyal to the Crown moved north into Canada and became known as the United Empire Loyalists. There were many prominent notable contemporaries of the name Craghead: and the family name continued to make an important contribution to the political and cultural life of the societies on both sides of the Atlantic.

Preface

The origin of the family is found in a book titled "The Craighead Family" by Rev. James Geddes Craighead D.D. and published in 1876. The book is on file in the Library of Congress as well as in the Virginia Room of the Roanoke Virginia library. The following are excerpts from that book:

The name Craighead is unmistakably Scotch in its origin; Craig or Crag signifying in Scotland any rocky locality. Craig: a Parish in Forfarshire, and an estate in Perthshire. As a topographical expression, Craig has the same meaning as Carrick. The Southern district of Ayrshire is so called. (Patronymica Britannica) Craighead: A place in the Parich of Dailly, County Ayr. (New England Historical and Genealogical Register.) The original emigrant to this country wrote his name Craghead.

From a book titled "The Surnames of Scotland" by George F. Black, the following information was obtained:

Craighead – of local origin from one or more places of the name.

David Craighead appears as a witness in Aberbrothok in 1546 (reg., p. 561).

William Craigheid, Baxter in Aberdeen is recorded in 1613 (SCM., V, p. 88)

John Craigheid in Fidesbieg in 1633 (ibid., 111, p. 95).

Craghede 1492

The Gaelic name was deCarraig and other spellings have been Creaghead and Creagh.

In researching records the name is most often spelled Craighead and Craghead. Many of our forefathers could not read or write and the spelling of the name was determined by the individual who recorded information about them. The spelling of the name with and without the "i" is found both ways in most families, including my own. A large percentage of this branch of the family spelled their names without the "i" so I will use this spelling whenever possible. The Scottish are known for adding an "i" to a lot of their words and those "i's" are sometimes dropped when the words are used in England or America.

No genealogical book is ever complete so my effort here is to compile information I have gathered to date and add other information as it becomes available. In tracing the origin of the family I have talked with older family members, reviewed genealogical books, checked Courthouse records and census records. It was through the efforts of many people that this information was compiled. A special thanks goes to my mother Mrs. E.J. Craghead of Roanoke Virginia (now deceased at age 90), who wrote many letters to family members and helped through her memory of the family.

Preface continued

I originally issued this book in 1971, since that time I was able to obtain a copy of a book titled “The Cra(i)ghead Family; Virginia – Missouri” by Mrs. W. B. Craghead Jetmore, Kansas and Mrs. F. A. Craighead Fulton Missouri. This book documented information about Cra(i)gheads originating in Virginia and migrating to Missouri. These Cra(i)ghead’s are a part of the same family documented in this book that remained in Virginia. Since this book is not readily available to most people, I am adding some of this information to this book for the convenience of those interested in obtaining more information about their roots.

I have also added quite a bit of additional information about the births, deaths and other information about the later generations.

Many people have been kind enough to provide information to this book. Some of these include Leigh Blount, Nan Mykel, William Maxey, Rebecca Harris, Emogene Hess, Frances Blevins, Janet Peak, Peggy Conner, Glenna Lee, Adelene Barnes and many others related to the family that have provided information.

The name Craighead, being Scottish, does have a coat of arms according to one source. The coat of arms contains “A silver shield with a black crow between 3 fountains, the crest is a Pillow”. The family motto is “Securum Presidium”.

THE NAME CRAGHEAD

The name Craghead is not a very common name and I was surprised to find it in a comic strip. A cousin of mine, living in Port Charlotte, Florida found it in her local newspaper and mailed it to me. It has not been touched up and is as it appeared in the paper.

CRAGHEADS FROM SCOTLAND AND IRELAND

Thomas Craghead was born in Scotland about 1612 and married Margaret Agnes Hart in 1633. Thomas died in Londonderry, Ireland August 22, 1711. The total number of children is unknown but they had a son Robert Craghead.

CRAGHEADS IN THE UNITED STATES

Rev. Thomas Craghead came to this country along with hundreds of others due to religious persecution. From 1729 to 1750 it was estimated that 12,000 persons annually left from Ulster, Ireland for America due to religious persecution. It is believed that many of Rev. Thomas Craghead's church membership came to America with him from Ireland when he arrived in 1715. A book "Puritan Settlers" pages 741-742 states that a Rev. Thomas Craghead, an Irish Gentleman was employed to preach 6 months at North Stonington on September 4, 1722. In October, after they gave him a call to settle as their pastor, which he accepted – but was never settled there. Mr. Craghead had been a minister in Ireland, and had preached at Freetown, Mass. (The church which had called him seems to have been the First Congregational Church)

(This connection is unproven)

CRAGHEADS IN VIRGINIA LAND BOUNDRIES

In searching for historical data about the family it becomes necessary to know some of the boundary changes of the counties. In general the Cragheads have been found in Lunenburg, Bedford, Franklin, Montgomery and Floyd Counties prior to 1850.

As settlers in Virginia moved west, new counties were formed to meet the needs of the people. The original land division (county) was usually quite large and as more people settled in the county, smaller boundaries with additional courthouses were established due to the hardship of traveling great distances and of course the political ramifications. Boundary changes were usually the result of petitions signed by a large number of people. These changes were not always easy and resulted in some bitter battles before new boundaries were established.

Lunenburg County was established in 1746 and its boundaries at that time included the present counties of Lunenburg, Mecklenburg, Halifax, Henry, Charlotte, Pittsylvania, Campbell, Bedford, Franklin and Patrick. Lunenburg County was divided into two counties in 1752. The Staunton (Roanoke) River was used as the primary boundary in the division of the county. Lunenburg County was established north of the Staunton River, from the lower part to the extent of the county upwards. The new county formed south and West of the Staunton River was called Halifax.

Bedford County was formed from the western part of Lunenburg County in November 1763. Then in 1782 Campbell County was formed from Bedford County and in 1786 part of Franklin County was formed from Bedford County.

Halifax County was divided in 1767 when Pittsylvania County was formed. Pittsylvania County was then divided forming Henry County in 1777. Henry County boundaries were changed when Franklin County was formed in 1786 and again in 1791 when Patrick County was formed.

Franklin County was formed November 8, 1786 from Bedford County and Henry County. A long battle was fought in establishing this new county. Several petitions were filed for and against the formation of this county as early as 1779. John Craghead's name appeared on one of these petitions May 23, 1780 as being in favor of a new county being formed.

Cragheads in Montgomery County and later Floyd County resulted from William Craghead (grand son of John Craghead) and his family moving from Franklin County to Montgomery County some time between 1840 and 1850. Montgomery County was formed from Botetourt and Pulaski Counties in 1776-1777. Floyd County was formed in 1831 from Montgomery and Franklin Counties.

CRAGHEADS IN VIRGINIA EARLY SETTLERS

The first Craghead I have found record of being in Virginia was Roberd Craghad (Robert Craghead) in 1738. "Virginia Magazine of History" Volume 13 page 181 shows his name on a list of tithables of the Parish of King William in 1738. Virginia Genealogical Society Volume 31 No. 2, May 1993 states that a Robert Craighead born in Maryland deserted from Virginia Reg. at Maidstone on August 10, 1756. He had black hair. A second Craghead I have found record of being in the state of Virginia was John Craghead. A book titled "Marriages of Some Virginian Residents" 1607-1800 by Wulfeck states that he was born at Chesterfield Virginia in 1740. It is thought the Robert Craghead mentioned above is the father of John Craghead and other children. Robert is thought to have immigrated to this country sometime between 1715 and 1740. The children of Robert Craghead are believed to be Robert, John, Peter, Mary "Polly", and Charlotte. John and Peter Craghead are believed to be responsible for most descendents by that name living in Franklin County around 1800.

Reverend Alexander Craghead previously mentioned, spent some time in Virginia. He lived near the Cow Pasture River in Augusta County from 1749 until 1755. Some of his children were born during this time, but all members of the family moved to Sugar Creek, North Carolina about 1755 and Alexander died there in 1766.

William Craghead, the son of Thomas and Margaret Craghead of Delaware is known to have moved to Virginia. Records of St. Paul's Parish shows William owned land there from 1759 through 1779. Th "Virginia Magazine" Volume 63 – Hanover, September 13, 1758 listed William Craghead as an Elder. William was well known in Lunenburg County and died there February 10, 1803. He was the father of seven children.

The records of St. Paul's Parish in 1772 states the Samuel Clark was paid one Pound for making a coffin and digging a grave for Alexander Craghead (probably Rev. Alexander Craghead).

WHAT WAS THE AVERAGE HOME LIKE IN FRANKLIN COUNTY, VIRGINIA
IN 1786

The information was gathered from “Franklin County, Virginia 1786 – 1986, A Bicentennial History”. Clearly, it is difficult to describe a “typical” Franklin County resident of 1786. It is possible, however, to describe a statistically “average” household, based on the land and personal property tax books and Robert Woods’s “List of White People & Buildings” in 1785. From these sources the average household or farmstead appears to have contained about six people, including father, mother, children, and perhaps a brother or sister of one of the parents. The neighbors on the next farm were liable to be relatives, either by blood or by marriage. The family probably lived in a one-room log dwelling with a mud-and-stick or stone chimney; if there was any other structure on the farmstead it likely was a log kitchen. Despite the traditional notion that the backcountry contained abundant cheap land available to all, the odds were about even that the family rented its farm rather than owned it. The farmstead comprised about three hundred acres, most of them unimproved. The average family owned no slaves but relied on its own labor to tend the crops and livestock. Tobacco, corn, and garden crops were grown, and the family owned a couple of horses, half a dozen head of cattle, and ten or twelve hogs. The household furniture was sparse: a few beds, a table, four or five chairs, a chest or two, and odds and ends of cooking and eating utensils were jammed into the small dwelling. It was a difficult, hand-to-mouth existence for most such families, barely above the subsistence level. When crops were good, the non land owning family might eventually be able to purchase some real estate.

CRAGHEADS IN VIRGINIA FRANKLIN COUNTY

In researching records of early settlers in this area, two brothers, John and Peter Craghead were the first Craghead's found in what is known as Franklin and Henry Counties. The first records on Peter Craghead were in Henry County in 1777 and the first record of John Craghead was in 1770 in Amherst County. These brothers raised their families and died in Franklin County. Both brothers recorded their Will at Franklin County's courthouse at Rocky Mount. Marriage records, census records and John's Will identify most of the children of these two brothers. John is thought to have 12 children and Peter possibly 3 to 5. It is also noted that neither brother could read or write.

John Craghead was active in the affairs of the county as was found when he signed a petition for the formation of Franklin County. Old court records show that in February 1788 John Craghead, Richard Booth, Richard Compton and Phillip Rasley or any three of them are appointed to view a road from Hales Ford on Staunton River across the county South, to cross Blackwater River near John Cragheads and to lead into the road that goes by the Black place at the mouth of Snow Creek and make a report there of. In August 1788 the court ordered that leave is granted to John Craghead to build a water grist mill on Gills Creek, he being proprietor of both sides of the said creek.

A book titled "Marriages of Some Virginia Residents 1607-1800" Vol. 2 by Wulfec states that John Craghead was born at Chesterfield Virginia in 1740 and that he married Jane Dicia Maxey from Lynchburg Virginia, who was born in 1747. The book also states the John died in Franklin County June 1808 and that Jane died at Hales Ford Virginia in 1833. The book listed a son Timothy who was born in 1777.

Amherst County Deed Book C page 37 – March 5, 1770 John Craghead sold, for 40 pounds, 170 acres on Lackeys thoroughfare and both sides of North branch Davis Creek to John and Agnes Key.

December 6, 1773 John Craghead and wife Jenny, ac, to John Boles, Buckingham County for 67-10 pounds for surveys of 309 acres on both sides of Lackey's Mountain and Corbin Creek and North side Davis Creek lines.

The Virginia Taxpayers 1782-1787 lists John as paying a poll tax and tax on two slaves in Bedford County. John's name appears on a petition dated May 23, 1780 to the General Assembly for a new county to be formed on the south side of the Staunton River, then in Bedford County. From the land books in the land office at Richmond Virginia: John Craghead purchased 270 acres on the South side of Blackwater River adjoining Samuel Smith June 1, 1784.

John Craghead's Will was found recorded in Franklin County courthouse at Rocky Mount Virginia provides additional insight into John's family. Peter Craghead's Will is also found recorded there, but does not list his children. The content of both Wills are included in this book.

Elizabeth Hale, widow of Richard Hale, is listed in 1786 as owner of 162 acres of land. In 1805, 162 acres comprises a plot owned by John Craghead, which he purchased from the children of Richard Hale on February 4, 1798. John Craghead and Elizabeth Hale were married, April 3, 1789.

From a book titled "Franklin County, Va. 1786-1986, A Bicentennial" page 49; There is a court order in Bedford County Virginia stating that on July 25, 1780 John Craghead was sent to prison for being a Loyalist. It was felt he was a sympathizer for the English. He was ordered to prison for six months and fined 1000 pounds.

There is some indication that John could have been a Quaker, but there is some doubt at this time whether this may be true or not.

NOTES ON JOHN CRAGHEAD & JANE MAXEY

Research has indicated that Jane Leodicia Maxey may have been from Goochland Co. Va. I searched the marriage records and John and Jane's marriage was not recorded in Goochland County. I did find that in the general index to Deeds, Wills etc. two Maxey's were listed. November 20, 1733 John Maxey was the Grantee and William Maxey was the Grantee (Deeds). On April 12, 1748 Walter Maxey was the Grantee and Silvanus Maxey was the Grantor (Deeds). Jane's father was Walter Maxey so this could be a connection to Goochland Co. Goochland Co. was formed in 1728 from Henrico Co. that was formed in 1634.

Since John Craghead was listed as being from Chesterfield Co., I went to the courthouse at Chester Virginia and found that Chesterfield County was formed in 1749, but they did not keep records of marriages and maybe other records until 1771. If John and Jane were married in Chesterfield Co., there would have been no official record kept. Chesterfield Co. was also formed out of Henrico County.

I stopped by Amelia County Virginia courthouse since it was in the general area to see if they might have something there. One Craghead was listed. George Craghead married Prentonella Lamkin, daughter of Peter Lamkin September 25, 1786. George is covered in the "Craighead Family" by Rev. James Geddes Craighead. Marriage records in Amelia County start in 1735

I have read that Jane was from Lynchburg, Virginia so I checked Campbell County to see if they had any records of her marriage to John. Campbell County was not formed until 1782 so they were not married there. Campbell County was formed from Bedford County that was formed in 1754 and there was no record of their marriage in Bedford County. I ordered two micro film from the Roanoke library on Goochland County. Goochland County marriage bonds 1730-1810 and Goochland County marriage register 1730-1853. No Craghead's or Maxey's were found listed in these records.

I stopped by the Amherst County courthouse and checked their records. John and Jane owned land in Amherst County as early as 1770. Amherst County was formed in 1761, but no record of their marriage was found there.

THE FAMILY OF JOHN CRAGHEAD

John Craghead was born about 1740 at Chesterfield, Virginia and died in June 1808 in Franklin County, Virginia. He was married three times. His first wife was Jane Leodicia Maxey (Jenny) and they had eleven children together. It is thought that John and Jane were married about 1762 or 3. Jane is thought to have died some years prior to her father's Will being written in 1791. John's second wife was Elizabeth Hale and their marriage bond was April 6, 1786. The minister marrying them was Robert Jones and the surety was John Kemp. John and Elizabeth Hale did not have any children together. John's third wife was Elizabeth (Betty or Betsy) Robinson and they were married October 28, 1799 in Bedford County and had one daughter together. Betsy was the daughter of Lucy Robinson.

Jane Maxey was the daughter of Walter and Mary Netherland Maxey and Jane was probably born in Goochland Co., Virginia. Since Walter Maxey had requested in his will that Jane's children have a share of his real and personal property equal to that of one of his own children, It was necessary for John Craghead to come into court in January 1798 and acknowledge that he was guardian of his minor children, William, Timothy, and Isaiah, and to be bonded to cover their share of their grandfather's inheritance. The older Craghead children were also included in the chancery suit fined on May 8th for the purpose of having commissioners appointed to sell some of Walter's land.

Children of John and Jane Maxey Craghead:

1. Jane (Jenny) Craghead, born about 1763 and married James Hale, October 2, 1786 in Franklin County, Virginia.
2. Susannah (Suckey) Craghead, born about September 1765 and married George Key (born 1753 in Amherst Co., Va., died January 14, 1836 in Calloway Co., Mo.) on August 22, 1785 in Bedford County, Virginia.
3. Nancy (Ann) Craghead, born about 1766 and married James Lewis Hale, July 20, 1789 in Franklin Co. Virginia.
4. Dicey Craghead, born about 1768 and married Hail Maxey, November 3, 1789 in Bedford Co., Virginia.
5. Mary (Molly) Craghead, born about 1770 and married Thomas Allen December 23, 1790 in Bedford Co., Virginia.
6. Robert M. Craghead, born September 22, 1772 in Bedford Co., Va. and died December 7, 1857. Robert married Nancy Powell, November 18, 1792 in Franklin Co., Virginia.
7. John Craghead Jr., born September 25, 1774 in Bedford Co., Va. and died January 24, 1859 in Franklin Co., Virginia. John married Sally Powell January 2, 1794 in Franklin Co., Virginia.
8. Hester (Easter or Ester) Craghead, born about 1775 and married John Burdett.
9. William Craghead, born about 1776 and married Jean Dunn January 13, 1800 in Franklin Co., Virginia.

10. Timothy Craghead, born in 1777 and married Mary (Polly) Agee December 23, 1802 in Franklin Co., Virginia (marriage bond was dated December 6, 1802). Mary was the daughter of Matthew and Mary Ligon Agee.
11. Isaiah Walter Craghead, born September 10, 1782 in Bedford Co., Va. and married Feminina Robinson December 22, 1802 in Bedford Co., Virginia.

Daughter of John and Elizabeth Robinson Craghead:

12. Lucy Robinson Craghead, born in 1800 and married James English January 27, 1820.

John had a home built for his third wife Elizabeth Robinson by Abram P. Paul and was believed to have been started in 1799. It is believed that his son John Craghead Jr., Townsend Craghead, Robert Alfred Craghead and Joseph Bruce Craghead all lived in the house a one time. Joseph Bruce Craghead grandson of Townsend recalled that he saddled Townsend's horse for him and Townsend rode to Scruggs and voted. Townsend returned home and died that night. The grounds around the house were always kept meticulously and there was never a hoof print to be found anywhere in the yard.

PERMISSION LETTER FOR JOHN CRAGHEAD TO MARRY BETSEY ROBINSON

1. Jane (Jenny) Craghead, born about 1764, died after 1850 in Lawrence Co. TN. and married James E. Hale, (son of Richard and Elizabeth Hale) October 2, 1786 in Franklin Co., Va. No other information is known about her family at this time. Their marriage bond is recorded in Franklin Co., VA on October 2, 1786 with Richard Edmundson as Surety.
2. Susannah (Suckey) Craghead, born September 1765 and married George Key August 22, 1785 in Bedford County, Virginia. George Key was born in 1753 in Amherst Co., Va. and died January 14, 1836 in Callaway Co., Mo.

“The Virginia Genealogist Vol. 18 contained information about Susannah and her husband George. When George Key’s first term of enlistment expired in 1778, he returned home to Amherst County, stayed a short time and went to Bedford Co., Va. where he remained until his reenlistment November 1779 (Revolutionary War pension application, George Key, widow Susannah).

According to Robert Craghead’s affidavit, he had known George Key two or three years before the marriage with his sister Susannah. The marriage was performed by the Rev. Mr. Salisbury in Bedford County Virginia, in a church about 15 miles from her fathers house. Her father lived South of the Staunton River in that part of Bedford County which became Franklin County in 1786. George and Susannah Craghead were married August 22, 1785 (Bedford Co. Marriage Register).

Susannah was about 20 years old at the time of her marriage. She was 74 years of age when she made an affidavit in Missouri in April 1840 (Revolutionary War Pension application). This places her birthday in September 1765. George was born about 1753.

George and Susannah probably lived on the South side of the Blackwater River in Bedford County on 100 acres of land which John Craghead gave to them in 1786 (Franklin Co. deed book). In 1809 John and Robert Craghead Executors of John Craghead deceased, sold to George Key 106 acres on the North side of Blackwater River.

George and Susannah along with some of their children moved to Callaway County Missouri in 1831. George died there January 15, 1836 and Susannah sometime after 1840. George and Susannah had the following children:

8. Ester (Easter) (Hester) Craghead, born about 1775 and married John Burrell/Burdett? and no other information is know about her and her family at this time. A marriage bond in Franklin County VA recorded a marriage February 7, 1820 between Betsey L. Craghead and John Burdett with Isaiah Craghead as Surety
9. William Craghead born about 1776 and married Jean Dunn on January 13, 1800 in Franklin County, Virginia. The name of the surety was Thomas Dunn. William Craghead was on the tax list in Franklin County in 1805, but no other information is known about William or his family at this time.
10. Timothy Craghead, born in 1777 in Virginia and his marriage bond to Mary "Polly" Agee was December 23, 1802 in Franklin Co., Va. Timothy died in Franklin Co. in 1809. The surety for Timothy and Mary's marriage was Matthew Agee, her father. Mary was the daughter of Matthew and Mary (Ligon) Agee. Their marriage bond is recorded in Franklin Co., VA December 6, 1802

Timothy first appears on the personal tax lists of Franklin County, Va. in 1803 and last in 1809. His wife appears in 1810 with the same amount of property that Timothy owned. Polly Craghead paid taxes on 117 acres of land in 1824, received from Matthew Agee, which was located on Gills Creek, Blackwater River Franklin County, Va. She is shown by the land taxes to have died in 1842.

According Agee history, Matthew Agee, father of Polly, was a French Huguenot. Having been persecuted, he left France and went to Holland. He fought with or for William of Orange and was given 600 acres of land in Virginia. There at Lanakin, Goochland County, the Huguenots settled, Matthew Agee among them. From there he moved to Franklin county. The Ligon family have traced their family lineage back to royalty a copy of which is attached. The following are the children of Timothy and Polly Craghead:

- A. William Thomas Craighead , born about 1808 in Pittsylvania Co.and died in 1894. William was married twice; 1st to Susannah Maxey (marriage bond March 6, 1828) James Maxey as Surety, and 2nd to Sarah Ann Grant July 21, 1870? Additional information on William is included later in this book.

11. Isaiah Craghead, born September 10, 1782 and died August 22, 1864. He married Feminine Robinson December 27, 1802. They left Virginia and moved to Kentucky for two years and then on to Callaway, Co. Missouri. Isaiah always used the "i" in his last name. It is said that Isaiah made a practice of compounding various drugs and chemicals. His ledgers show many purchases of such items in large quantities. He is said to have been very capable in many ways. In fact, he lost his life trying to build some sort of building which only he knew how to build, even though he was up in years at the time. He fell and died a few days later. Isaiah gave 1 acre of land for a graveyard for all "whites" who wished to bury their dead there. The deed is recorded in Fulton, MO. The following is a list of their children:

- A. John Robert Craghead, born October 1, 1803 and died September 20, 1866. He married Sarah Hale October 28, 1823.
- B. Jane English Craghead, born February 21, 1805 and died May 19, 1871. Jane married Joseph P. Callaway April 28, 1839.
- C. George Hopkins Craghead, born November 18, 1806 and died October 12, 1832. He married his cousin Sarah Craghead, daughter of Robert M. and Nancy Craghead.
- D. James L. Craghead, born January 4, 1810 and died May 5, 1892. James was married twice, 1st Mary A. Williamson born July 25, 1825, 2nd Nancy Ashworth Mattox and James were married April 24, 1890. James was called "Walking Jim" as he always enjoyed taking long hikes. He did not father any children with either wife. He was a Baptist, while the rest of his family were Methodist. He was very close with his friend John "Unity" Craghead and may have changed to Baptist on that account. He would walk and ponder and had definite opinions on most things.

The following is an account written in the newspaper "Mexico Ledger":
100 Years Ago From The Ledger Of May 1, 1890:

Fulton, MO, April 24 – A notable wedding took place here at 2 PM today at the Baptist Church. James L. Craghead, one of the pioneers of Callaway County, having emigrated from Virginia in 1829, was married to Mrs. Nancy Maddox. "Uncle Jim" as he is generally called, is 81 years old, and is probably the most popular man in Fulton, as he is the best-known in the county, and the announcement of his wedding crowded the church with his friends until standing room was at a premium.

"Uncle Jim" Craghead had been a widower for about two years. Both he and his bride are well off. He is one of the best-known characters in Central Missouri, a keen politician, and woe be the candidate whom he opposes.

He is a Hard-Shell Baptist and will not enter a church where an organ is played. He has voted 15 times for Democratic candidates for president, and he marries a most estimable lady in her sixtieth year, and the match is in every respect suitable. The presents from his friends number over 200.

- E. Isaiah Washington Craghead, born February 28, 1813, and died March 31, 1873. He married Susan Bethena Kemp December 31, 1840. Susan was born September 9, 1817 and died December 26, 1865. She was the daughter of Walter and Derusha (Key) Kemp. The Kemp bible documents the following children:

THE FAMILY OF PETER AND MARY CRAGHEAD

The first record found on Peter Craghead was in Henry County, Virginia when in 1777 at age 27, he renounced allegiance to Great Britain and swore his allegiance to the Commonwealth of Virginia. This places Peter's birth date about 1750. Unlike his brother John very little is known about Peter and his family. Tax Lists of Virginia shows Peter as paying taxes in Henry County in 1778, 1779 and 1780. Peter recorded his Will at Rocky Mount Courthouse in Franklin County in book 1 page 1 on March 18, 1786. The Will mentions his wife's name as being Mary and she along with a brother John Craghead and Richard Radford were named as executors. The Will states that they had children but their names are not known. Peter could not read or write as he signed his Will with his mark.

Census records and marriage records indicate that Peter and Mary could have had 3 to 6 children. The following names appear to be names of children of Peter and Mary (not proven):

1. Mary Craghead, born about 1771
2. John Craghead, born about 1773
3. Shelton Craghead, born about 1775, guardian bond of Robert Camp, was appointed guardian of Shelton Craghead December 6, 1790, an orphan child of Peter Craghead.
4. Martha Craghead, born about 1779
5. Peter Craghead, born about 1781
6. Sarah (Sally) Craghead died August 6 1887 and was married to _____ Bernard *
"An Old Virginia court, 1786 – 1789" by Wingfield states that the Will of Peter Craghead was exhibited in court September 4, 1786, which could mean Peter died between March 18, 1786 and September 4, 1786.

It appears that Peter and Mary both died around 1786 based on a statement in Deed Book 1 pages 151-3. Peter's farm was sold for his orphans (see attachment E page 144).

"Franklin County, Va. 1786-1986, A Bicentennial History" page 75

This article lists Richard Edmondson as a very wealthy man in 1786. The article lists a daughter of Richard as Elizabeth Craighead. Since none of John Craighead's (Peter Craighead's brother) sons married Elizabeth Edmondson, it is likely that Elizabeth married one of Peter Craighead's sons. Richard Edmondson was a witness on Peter Craighead's Will, which would also indicate a closeness between Peter and Richard. In Richard's Will he left only one shilling to Elizabeth.

*Information from a family bible owned by Kate Craghead and stated that Sarah was a daughter of Peter Craghead. (see attachment L.)

FRANKLIN COUNTY

Census Data

At this time I have not been able to identify all of the descendents of John and Peter Craghead. Census data provides some information but I'm sure some were missed.

Franklin County census of 1810 listed the following Craghead's as heads of household.

1. Betsy Craghead - I believe this to be the widow of John Craghead who died in 1808.
2. Isaiah Craghead - son of John Craghead and step son of Betsy Craghead.
3. Polly Craghead - I'm not sure but many facts would indicate she could be the widow of Timothy Craghead who died in 1809, Mary Agee.
4. John Craghead- Probably the son of John.

Franklin County census of 1820 listed the following Craghead's as heads of household.

1. Polly Craghead

CRAGHEAD - POWELL - PAYNE

A book titled "Pioneer Families of Franklin County Virginia" by Marshall Wingfield provides most of the information about the relationship of these three families. Robert Powell of Franklin County Virginia, who died there in 1811, was the father of eight children, two of which married into the Craghead family. (Ref: Inventory of his estate made August 15, 1811 and of record in Franklin County Will Book 2, page 4.

Not listed according to age:

1. William, married 1st Sophia Hancock, December 26, 1804 and 2nd Sarah Newbill.
2. Jane T., married Phillip Thurmon, October 22, 1807.

8. Frances, married Thomas A. Payne, January 14, 1799. Thomas was from Campbell County.

"Virginia Magazine of History" Vol. 34 page 78 contains additional information about the family. This article lists Edward Powell, who married _____ Tuggle as parents of the above children. I believe the name Edward to be incorrect since Courthouse records identify him as Robert. His name might have been Robert Edward Powell. This article does state his father came from England and Robert was one of twelve children. There were eleven boys and one girl. The eleventh son was named "Eleven".

The following is additional information about three of the Powell children:

4. Sarah (Sally) Powell married John Craghead Jr. January 2, 1794. John was born in 1775 and his wife was born between 1775 and 1780. John Jr. is the son of John and Jane Dicia Craghead.

6. Frances Powell, married Thomas Austin Payne January 14, 1799, and had descendants who married into the Craghead family. Frances died at her old home in Franklin County about 1843. Thomas died about 1830. Frances and Thomas had the following children:

The following concerns Robert Payne and how his children married into the Craghead family:

- C. Robert Powell Payne married his cousin Elizabeth Payne March 30, 1829, both of Franklin County Virginia. Robert was born October 10, 1808 and Elizabeth was born August 10, 1810. In 1839 Robert and Elizabeth moved to Callaway County Missouri where Robert died July 5, 1847 and Elizabeth died November 29, 1902. The following is a list of their children:

CRAGHEADS IN MISSOURI Callaway County

Robert M. Craghead was the first Craghead known to have settled in Callaway County in 1819. He was the son of John and Jane Craghead of Franklin County Virginia. He was later joined by his brother Isaiah in 1830 and a nephew John who was the son of John Jr. in 1828. The nephew John was married to Julia Smith. Nancy, daughter of John and Sally Craghead, married William Craghead and moved to Callaway County. Also coming to Missouri was Susannah (Suckey) Craghead, a sister to Robert and Isaiah, and wife of George Key. George was 78 years old when he and Susannah moved to Callaway County in 1831. There were many other families who also moved from Franklin County Virginia to Callaway County Missouri during the first half of 1800. Charles P. Craghead moved to Callaway County around 1850. A book titled "The Cra(i)ghead family; Va - Mo. by Mrs. W. B. Craghead and Mrs F. A. Craighead provide a detailed study of this branch of Cragheads.

MONTGOMERY COUNTY VIRGINIA
William and Susannah Maxey Craghead

William Thomas Craghead was the first Craghead known to have lived in Montgomery County, Virginia. William was the son of Timothy and Mary Agee Craghead of Franklin County. William was born in Pittsylvania County about 1808 and died in Montgomery County about 1894. William was married twice, first to Susannah Maxey on March 6, 1828 in Pittsylvania County, Virginia (marriage bond from Franklin Co.), second to Sarah Ann Grant July 21, 1870. Susannah was born in 1803 and died about September 1870. Susannah was the daughter of James and Sally Agnu (Agnew) Maxey who were married January 4, 1796. (The information about the second marriage was taken from "The Cra(i)ghead Family Va.-Mo." and the dates do not match the census data).

William and Susannah lived in the Hales Ford section of Franklin County until sometime after 1840, when they moved to Alleghany Springs District in Montgomery County, Va. On February 5, 1847 William bought 363 acres on Bottom Creek for $816.75 from Madison Pitzer. On May 7, 1850 William bought 131 acres of land from Costley Conner for $76.00 giving him ownership of land on both sides of Bottom Creek. He was then granted the right to build a 15 ft. dam and a water powered gristmill. The Franklin County census of 1840 shows that William was a farmer and owned a female slave under 10 years of age. The census also showed that a male child was living with them that was not shown on the Montgomery County census of 1850. It also stated that William and Susannah could not read or write. The census of the 41st district of Montgomery County, Virginia taken November 25, 1850 shows that William was a farmer and owned property valued at $1500.00 The census listed the following children:

1. William T. age 21 (twin)
2. James R. age 21 (twin)
3. Martha E. age 19
4. Sarah J. age 17
5. Charles O. age 17
6. Mary E. (Polly) age 12
7. Lewis age 10
8. Frances Zella age 8

In August of 1852 William Craghead was given permission from Montgomery County to build a dam and grist mill on Bottom Creek.

MONTGOMERY COUNTY VIRGINIA
William and Susannah Maxey Craghead

The Montgomery County Census of 1860 for Alleghaney Springs was taken June 29, 1860. This census listed William as a miller and Charles and Lewis as farmers (he must have built his grist mill). William owned real estate valued at $3665 and personal property valued at $5000. The census listed the following people living in his household:

1. William Craghead age 52
2. Susannah Craghead age 57
3. Charles O. Craghead age 23
4. Mary Craghead age 19
5. Lewis Craghead age 22
6. Zella Craghead age 16

The Montgomery County census of 1870 for Alleghany Springs was taken September 17, 1870. This census listed William as a farmer with real estate valued at $2000 and personal property valued at $100. Sarah was listed as a housekeeper and a note was added to the census that Susannah had since died. The census listed the following people living in the household:

1. William Craghead age 62
2. Susannah Craghead age 67
3. Sarah Craghead age 23 (she was Sarah Ann Grant)
4. Emily A. Craghead age 3 (she was Emily A. Grant daughter of Sarah Ann Grant) Emily married William Levi Craighead in 1886.

William married Sarah Ann Grant July 21, 1870 and was the father of three more children. Sarah was born about 1847.

1. Virginia (Jenny) E. Craghead, born August 4, 1871 (1873) and married Charles Levy Wood May 3, 1896.
2. John Sidney Craghead, born March 12, 1873
3. Edward Peter Craghead, born May 10, 1875
4. Emily A. Grant, step daughter to William Craghead, born about 1867.

There is considerable difference between the value of property owned by William in 1860 and 1870. Since the Civil War occurred during this time period, this may have had a bearing on the value of his holdings.

Joseph Craghead, mulatto, was listed in the Montgomery County census of 1880 as living with Arthur Maxey age 96 and Susan Maxey age 75. Joseph may be related to some of the slaves that William brought with him to Montgomery County.

WILLIAM THOMAS CRAGHEAD
Letter Received From Viola Craighead
Grand Daughter of William Thomas Craighead

William was born about 1808 according to census records, but a letter received from Viola Craighead would place his birth as being in 1801. William was her grandfather and she further stated that William came to Copper Hill, Virginia to live sometime between 1845 and 1849. He bought land in the area in 1847, so this would verify that statement. She said William was a widower with seven children, 3 boys and 4 girls. Census records show he and his first wife, Susannah Maxey had 8 children, 4 girls and 4 boys. One of the boys could have left home by this time.

Susannah, Williams first wife, died about September 1870 according to census records. Viola's letter states that William married Sarah Ann Grant in 1864 and they had three children (other records show they were married July 21, 1870). She also said that William had quite a bit of wealth prior to the civil War and lost it during the war except for several thousand acres of land. Viola said that William died in 1894 and is buried in the "Craighead Cemetery" at Copper Hill, Virginia. I inquired about this cemetery and most people I talked with located it off Conner road near the junction of route 221. Bessie Craighead (whose house was on route 221) gave me permission to view the cemetery. The cemetery was in a clump of trees and had received no upkeep for many years. There were only two tomb stones with names in the cemetery (neither were Craighead) and all the rest of the graves were marked with plain stones. It was hard to determine how many graves were in the cemetery, but maybe 20.

Viola's letter provided additional information about the children from William's second marriage and this information is included in this book. I greatly appreciate her sharing this information with us. I would also like to mention that all of Viola's family spells their name Craighead.

Other information received from census records would indicate that Sarah had a daughter Ann Grant born in 1876, and is shown as a step-daughter to William. Martha Grant, mother of Sarah, was living with Sarah and William when the census was taken in 1880.

WILLIAM CRAIGHEAD
Written by Genevieve Craighead Henderson

William Craighead and Susannah Maxey were married on March 28, 1828, in Pittsylvania County, Virginia. (their marriage bond is recorded in Franklin Co. Va.) William was the son of Timothy Craighead and Mary "Polly" Agee, whose date of marriage was December 6, 1802 in Franklin County, Virginia. William and Susannah were both born around 1805.

From old census records it appears that William and Susannah lived for a number of years in Franklin County, Virginia. It appears from the census records of Franklin, Floyd, and Montgomery Counties and from marriage records from those areas that William and Susannah had eight children.

According to research by Robert A. Craighead, a great grandson of Lewis Craighead (William's son), William Craighead received an initial grant, or patent, on 370 acres of land in the Bottom Creek section of Montgomery County of Virginia. He has been told that other grants or purchases occurred until the estate contained over 2000 acres. While there is no record indicating that William ever received a grant, or patent, to land in adjoining Roanoke County, it is reasonable to assume that he acquired parcels in Roanoke County since the several family burial plots in bottom Creek area are situated in Roanoke County.

Based on stories passed down over the generations, William (who was called Grandpap Billy) and his family arrived in Montgomery County with their possessions in horse-drawn wagons, and unknown number of slaves, and hogsheads of seed and tobacco pulled by oxen.

I have not found a date when Susannah died. However, on July 21, 1870, William married Sarah Ann Grant, daughter of Peter and Martha Grant. Sarah Ann (who was born around 1847) was considerably younger than William, she being around 23 at the time of marriage and William around 65. Three children were born of this marriage.

Records of the descendants of William and Susannah Craighead appear in Floyd and Montgomery Counties mostly. The children from William's second marriage all settled in the Bottom Creek area of Bent Mountain.

Listed in the 1880 census as living at the residence of William and Sarah Ann Grant Craighead is Emily Ann (Annie) Grant (stepdaughter), who later married William L. Craighead, son of Lewis and Mary Craighead, and grandson of William and Susannah Craighead. The Grants were related to the Browns who were Bottom Creek residents.

WILLIAM CRAIGHEAD
Written by Genevieve Craighead Henderson

I have been unable to determine where William Craighead is buried or where either of his two wives are buried. My guess would have it that they are buried in the Craighead cemetery above the Peter Craighead home since many of the Craigheads and Browns are buried there, or at the Funk cemetery since this is part of the property which William Craighead had owned and especially since Levi and Sarah Jane Funk had been caring for William.

- d. Roscoe B. Craighead, born August 3, 1902 and never married. Roscoe had an affliction caused by rickets, (some called it St. Vitas) that gave him the appearance of being drunk. He ran a store at Copper Hill, Virginia. Roscoe died January 12, 1980. Records filed at the Floyd County courthouse show that on January 17, 1944 Roscoe was found guilty of murder in the second degree, and sentenced to 10 years in prison. The sentence was then suspended and he was placed under the probation officer of Floyd County for 10 years. These records did not give any details as to what happened. Roscoe and one or more people were said to have gotten into a ruckus over Roscoe not selling more liquor to people who were already drunk resulting in the shooting according to the memory of people I have talked with. There may also have been teasing and threats made to Roscoe prior to the shooting. Court records states that the victim was Wilford Melvin Rierson. He was shot in the neck October 12, 1943 and died November 15, 1943. Roscoe and his sister Clara spent their last days at Reynolds Nursing home at Stuart, VA.

The Murder of William D. Craighead
As remembered by Edgar L. Vest

I think this happened in March 1934, if my memory is correct (actual death date was December 14, 1932). My mother received a call from my dad it seems like about 9 or 10 that night. My dad was a constable as was Will Craighead. That was the name dad called him. They had been on a ridge on the Floyd/Franklin county line to destroy a still. I just don't remember the man's name that was the apparent operator and/owner. He lived in a two story house and had kin in NC if not from NC himself. Apparently my dad and Will had got several complaints about the still operation. You know the Sheriff in those days were like they are today, if anything was done it had to be someone besides the Sheriff. Anyway Luther Bell at Check was also a Constable and I don't remember why he was not with them. Maybe he was sick or some other reason.

They arrived at the still side late in the p.m. just before sundown and they wore sheepskin coats in those days. They went by the man's house and his woodpile and got his ax from the chopping block. A short distance away was the still and they took off their coats and chopped up the still. My dad had put his coat back on and Will was putting his coat on when a man come over the ridge and on to the house. My dad didn't know the man and asked Will if the man was the owner of the still? By the time Will looked the man was out of sight.

They started to leave and Will picked up the ax and started back to the woodpile and my dad told him to leave the ax and the man would find it. No, Will said always put things back where you get them and Will went ahead and my dad was a short distance going toward the way they came in. Dad said he stopped and just as Will swung the ax back in the chop block there was a blast from a shotgun from the upstairs window. In fact my dad said he thought there were three shots as one hit him in the face, another in the chest and as he turned to fall another hit him in the back and/or shoulder area.

Dad said he drew his pistol and knew the person would have to lean out the window to get a shot at him. This never happened and dad waited and never heard any sounds of anyone in the house or leaving the house so he went somewhere nearby and called the Sheriff and also called my mother. It was about dark when the shooting took place. Anyway the still seemed to be just over on the Franklin county side and of course they had no way knowing the exact location of the county line.

The Murder of William D. Craighead
As remembered by Edgar L. Vest

I think it was about 3 or 4 a.m. and a call had gone out about the killing, the Sheriff of Franklin was on the road between Rocky Mount and Roanoke looking for a person my dad had given the description of. He (Sheriff) met a man and drove on and turned around and came back and asked him if he would like a ride? Sheriff's didn't wear uniforms in those days, so the man accepted the ride.

When they got to Rocky Mount the Sheriff pulled his gun and stuck it in the mans side and told him he was under arrest for killing Will Craighead. The man stopped his talking and was jailed. The next day dad went to the jail and picked him out of a lineup as the man he had ask Will if he was the owner of the still and Will knew him, but never got to see him as he was putting on his coat.

The man was tried and was put in prison for 40 years with the recommendation of the jury that he receive no pardon. Dad died in 1954 and a short time before his death, this man's wife came and talked to him about getting him out of the pen. He told her he was only a witness and if she got all the living jury members to sign a petition, then he would also sign. I do not think this ever took place.

I never learned if the man lived until 1974-1975 and was released or what happened to the man.

(The man's name who was tried and convicted was Walter Beck, son-in-law of Jonas Wilson. The location of the still was in Franklin County just off the Blue Ridge Parkway and near the old Dewey Hundley place.)

ROANOKE TIMES DECEMBER 15, 1932
OFFICERS CALLED TO SLAYING SCENE, SHOTS REPORTED FIRED FROM HOUSE NEAR WHERE STILL WAS DESTROYED. VICTIM LEAVES FAMILY.
FRANKLIN AND FLOYD OFFICERS START INVESTIGATION IN NEIGHBORHOOD.

Floyd, Dec. 14, 1932 (Special). – Constable Will Craghead, 60 was shot to death early tonight in an isolated neighborhood three and a half miles southeast of Copper Hill. Floyd county officers were in the section tonight making an investigation and few details were available.

According to a telephone message from Sheriff Cephas Hylton, who was called to the scene, the shooting occurred at the home of Walter Beck, 35. Had destroyed Still.

It was said Craghead, who was constable in the Locust Grove district, accompanied by Deputy Sheriff Noah Vest, raided a still about fifty yards from the Beck house. The officers are said to have cut up the still with an axe taken from a woodpile in the yard.

As Craghead returned the axe to the woodpile, three shots are alleged to have been fired from a shotgun from an upstairs window of the Beck home, according to Sheriff Hylton. One of the shots hit Craghead and he is said to have been killed instantly.

Deputy Sheriff Vest who was at the rear of the house, ran to the front where he found Craghead's body. Vest went to the home of Jonas Wilson some distance away and summoned Sheriff Hylton.

Franklin county officers were also reported on their way to the scene tonight. The Franklin-Floyd county line is said to run near the Beck house and there was some uncertainty tonight as to which county the shooting occurred in.

Reached by telephone late tonight Deputy Sheriff Vest said Beck had not been located. He said he helped Constable Craghead destroy the still. Officer Vest said three shots were fired but that it had not been determined how many of the charges struck Craghead

According to officers, no one saw the person who fired the shots. Craghead's body had not been moved several hours after he was slain. Sheriff Hylton expected to remain on the scene during the night, it was said here. Craghead is survived by his wife and nine children.

What if Jackson had lived?

JACKSON'S LEGACY

By Robert Craighead. 60 pages. $12.

By George Kegley

GEORGE KEGLEY edits the Journal of the History Museum and Historical Society of Western Virginia.

What if the South had won the Civil War? Where would the nation be today? Many writers have joined the "what if" school, speculating about what might have happened if events had taken a different turn. For want of a nail (on a horseshoe), a horse and a battle were lost, according to an old legend.

Bob Craighead of Salem, a retired railroad economic development man, has weighed in with an interesting bit of fiction, telling of Gen. Thomas "Stonewall" Jackson's miraculous recovery from his critical wounds at the Battle of Chancellorsville in 1863, through herbal remedies administered by a slave. As Craighead tells it, Jackson recovered so quickly that little more than a month after he lost an arm at Chancellorsville, he planned the strategy for a swift assault at Gettysburg to defeat stronger Union forces commanded by Maj. Gen. George Meade.

After this dramatic coup, Gen. Jeb Stuart's cavalry surrounded Washington, and Gens. Robert E. Lee and Stonewall Jackson rode into the capital to accept surrender from President Abraham Lincoln. It may be far-fetched, but Craighead makes his case, largely based on Jackson's surprise assault against larger Union forces. Jackson, trying a new tactic, directed his soldiers to run on a zig-zag course, presenting a difficult target for the enemy.

Craighead, calling his work a combination of historical facts and fiction, writes of surrender terms that ended slavery, returned West Virginia to Virginia, gave Southern California to the Confederacy and required the Union to pay Confederate debts for war materials. The North and South remained separate nations. Jackson followed Jefferson Davis as Confederate president, the Confederate capital was moved from Richmond to Dallas and the state capital was based in Lexington. Part of Jackson's legacy was a social security trust to assist the elderly.

The short book would have benefited from closer editing. But it tells briefly of what might have been, something to think about. Even James Robertson's monumental Jackson biography hinted at such a scenario. Virginia Tech history professor Robertson wrote, "had Jackson lived, the Confederate quest for independence would have come much closer to realization."

Craighead is in good company. "Dixie Victorious: An Alternate History of the Civil War," by Peter Tsouras, is an August selection of the History Book Club. A reviewer said that it "shows how a different decision here or a minor incident there could have set the nation on a vastly different course." He could have been writing about the Craighead book.

HENDERSON JR.
Robert E.

Robert E. Henderson Jr., 86, of Roanoke County, Va., passed away at his home on Wednesday, January 4, 2017.

Bob or Bobby as most people called him, was born on June 2, 1930, in Reidsville, N.C., to Robert E. Sr. and Mae Likens Henderson. His parents moved back to the Back Creek area of Roanoke County when he was about two years old and Back Creek would be his home until his death except for a short time spent working in Maryland and two years that he served in the United States Army during the Korean War, stationed in Japan.

His parents predeceased him along with his brother, David D. Henderson.

Bobby is survived by his wife of over 59 years, Genevieve Craighead Henderson; two brothers, R. Ray (Shirley) Henderson and Charles E. (Judy) Henderson; two sisters June H. (Carl) Lowe and Genevieve H. Grant; sister-in-law Nancy H. (James) Boyd; and brother-in-law and sister-in-law Donald W. and Edith C. Prillaman; several special nephews, nieces, great-nieces and nephews; many cousins; and wonderful friends and neighbors.

Bobby was a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (Cotton Hill Ward). He was employed first at Johnson-Carper Furniture Company and for over 30 years at General Electric, taking early retirement in 1988. His greatest interest was in farming, raising Hereford cattle and hay. He took great pride each year in his garden, blueberries and looking after his Pinecliffe Farm property there on Back Creek.

He spent many hours with his in-laws, Clinton and Ruth Simpson Craighead, at Back Creek Orchard and helped with the apple crop for several years, helped his father-in-law at the sawmill, and was taught by him to cut timber and operate the sawmill that he made for him.

The family is most grateful to his Family Physician, Dr. Kevin Kelleher, the staff at Amedisys Hospice Care, especially Sharon and Sarah, and to his caregivers, Angie, Brittany, Elizabeth Marie and Monica, for their attention and loving care.

A service celebrating Bobby's life will be held at 11 a.m. on Saturday, January 7, 2017, at Oakey's South Chapel with Bishop Paul Rucker conducting. Interment will follow in Sherwood Memorial Park. The family will receive friends from 5 until 8 p.m. on Friday, January 6, 2017, at Oakey's South Chapel.

The family suggests that anyone wishing to do so, make a donation to either the Back Creek Fire & Rescue Station; to the Bent Mountain Fire Rescue Station; or to a charity of your choice in lieu of flowers. Online condolences may be expressed to the family at www.oakeys.com.

Cave Spring names Shannon Craighead the 2011-2012 Knight

As Cave Spring High School's 2011-2012 Knight ascended the stairs at the front of the auditorium, the room was abuzz with last minute speculations as to the identity of the helmeted figure. Once Cave Spring's Principal, Steven Spangler, had finished the knighting, Shannon Craighead took off her helmet. Immediately, the auditorium was bursting with applause as dozens of Cave Spring Students rose to their feet, chanting Craighead's name.

Craighead, an 18-year-old senior at Cave Spring, has spent most of her high school years participating in student activities and playing volleyball. One of Cave Spring's star players, Craighead also plays travel volleyball in the offseason.

After being joined on stage by her parents, Raymond and Lisa, Craighead addressed her fellow classmates. Craighead stated that she hoped this year would "dominate," and wished everyone a good year. She also encouraged everyone to do something that they are uncomfortable with or that they are not very good at in the hopes of bettering themselves. Joking, she added that she's "not very good at public speaking."

The Knight is the most prestigious honor for a student at Cave Spring High. Student nominations are collected during the student's junior year. The Knight is chosen out of the nominations by the faculty and staff at Cave Spring High School. Craighead is Cave Spring's 51st Knight and the school's ninth female.

Craighead is the youngest of three children. Brother Jason, who graduated in 2002, and sister Stacey, who graduated in 2006, are very proud of their little sister.

Craighead also has "Knight blood." Uncle Rob Tavener was the Knight during 1979.

"I know that in years past, I have always looked up to the Knight," Craighead says, "if I can be half the role model that those people were for me, I would be happy."

Don Craighead, Cave Spring High School's wrestling coach was named Coach of the Year by other coaches in the district this month. As the head coach for Cave Spring for only two years and the assistant coach for the three years before that, it came as quite a surprise to Craighead.

Don Craighead is the son of Mary Reba Stone and Nelson Andrew Craighead.

DYER
Jessica

Jessica Dyer, formerly of Roanoke, the younger of the two Craghead daughters, was found peacefully asleep in her chair at home in Norfolk, Va., Monday, November 3, 2008. Jessica was a beautiful artistic person that could inspire beauty in the clients she served as a hairdresser and in the students she taught at Brandon Middle School. She would choose controversial topics to discuss in order to get her students to think and excel in academic knowledge. She often expressed how much she wanted them to learn, graduate and have a better quality of life. She was predeceased by her father and mother, David and Hazel Craghead and brother-in-law, Albert Dewey Hendrick. She is survived by her family that loved her dearly; her sister, Barbara Hendrick; nephew and wife, Patrick and Amy Abbott; niece and husband, Beth and James Lynskey; and her great-nephews that she loved dearly, Adam Blake and David (Kai) Lynskey, all of Roanoke, Va. Also survived are her fiancé, Ricky Speight, of Carrollton, Va. and her best "childhood friend" Jim Booth, of Ocean View, Va.; and her ex-husband, Glen Dyer, of Berryville, Va. She also leaves behind a host of friends and students that she impacted their lives in some special way. She will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved her. Funeral services will be at 12 p.m. on Saturday, November 8, 2008, at Oakey's North Chapel. The Rev. Ken Dupin will officiate. Interment will be in Blue Ridge Memorial Gardens. The family will receive friends Saturday from 11 a.m. until service time at Oakey's North Chapel, 540-362-1237.

LEWIS CRAWFORD CRAIGHEAD
written by Genevieve Craghead Henderson

There are some discrepancies in the age of Lewis Craighead when one looks at old census records. He is shown as age 45 in the 1880 census, yet I have found records showing his date of birth as 1840. He was born in Franklin County, Virginia, as the youngest son of William and Susannah Maxey Craighead.

On January 10, 1861, he was married to Mary Funk (daughter of Levi and Zelpha Vaughn Funk) in Montgomery County, Virginia. The 1880 census lists Mary's age as 30, however, it appears from her marriage license that she was born in Grayson County, Virginia, so was only 17 when they were married. Ten children were born of this marriage.

My father used to tell us that his grandfather Lewis lived to be 90 years and six months of age, which was considered to be very old in those days. In fact, my Great-Grandmother Maggie King reminded her daughter Edith of this prior to her marriage to Amos Craighead. My Grandfather was not too happy of the fact the upon being told by Edith the she and Amos wanted to get married. Grandma Kin's comment was something to the effect to go ahead if that was what she wanted to do, but just remember "the Craigheads never die"

Grandpa Amos Craighead never talked a great deal about his parents. I grew up knowing very little about these Great-Grandparents except the Lewis was called a deserter from the army during the Civil War and that Granny Mary was a "tough lady" who smoked a corncob pipe and it was not an unusual sight to see her bare footprints in the snow. She was known to have told off the mail carrier one time when he looked at this old lady's bare feet and grinned. Perhaps these stories overshadowed the far more important things that related to the lives of this couple.

In a drawer in the Floyd County Courthouse, we found lists of names of men who had served in the Civil War, Company I – 54th Virginia Infantry. Listed along with Lewis were C.O. Craighead, Robert Craighead and W.T. Craighead. These were the names of Lewis's older brothers. One story about the war that I have been told was that at one point Lewis and a few of his fellow soldiers had a fire going and the fire melted the rocks around it. They found the rocks contained lead, which was very useful then to the army.

The story that has been handed down to my generation about Lewis Craighead was that Lewis was indeed in the Civil War, but in an area where very little fighting was taking place. His family was living on Bottom Creek (a teenage wife with one or two small children). A young wife with babies had a hard time raising crops to put the family through the summer, much less the following winter. Conditions were very bad on Bent Mountain, even those with money could not afford the few "rations" that were available.

LEWIS CRAWFORD CRAIGHEAD
written by Genevieve Craghead Henderson

Lewis was given time off from the army to come home to put in some crops for his family. When he reached home and found his family almost starved, not only did he put in crops, but he decided he was needed at home far more than standing around waiting for the next battle or for the war to end. He would remain at home to take care of the crops and harvest food for the winter and then he would return to the war. Not the right decision from the government's viewpoint, but the right decision in the mind of this young father. He was then declared a deserter, and a man by the name of Sisson from "down on the river" (Shawsville) roamed the mountains in search of Lewis. Lewis was a man on the run, hiding in the woods and fearing the day he might be caught. The war was almost over. My Grandfather would take us as young children to the cave hidden below tall spruce trees down the mountain from our house and show us where his father had spent many of his nights. He showed us in the back corner of the cave where his father would build a small fire, and he pointed out some of the big rocks that Lewis would stack up at the front of the cave to keep the light from the fire and keep in the heat. The black smoke stains on the low rock ceiling at the back of the cave were still visible. At one time Lewis came so close to being caught – the fire was out, but the rocks were still warm – and Lewis had disappeared into the night only minutes ahead of the arrival of Sisson. Grandpa told us of times Lewis would hide in the laurel and rhododendron thickets on what is known as "the knob" and how Granny Mary would take him food late at night. She let a pet sheep walk behind her so it would walk over her footprints and she could not be followed the next day by the man who was searching for her husband.

Grandpa use to also tell us about the time his father had found some bear cubs in the woods, but did not see the mamma bear. Not wanting to leave the cubs there to die from starvation, he brought them to the house where his wife and children were living. He also wanted the children to have the cubs as pets. They raised up some boards on the floor of the house and put the cubs there. Mary was so afraid the Sisson would come again to the house searching for Lewis as he had done so often and hear the cubs and would know that Lewis had been the one to bring the cubs home. But one night there was another visitor – the mamma bear. Mary gladly reunited the cubs with their mother.

The war ended – Lewis was still a deserter. People in the area remembered him as a deserter, but his family remembered him as a caring father. The real story of the Civil War would have been very different for the poor country boy from Bottom Creek and the rich son of a southern plantation owner. Lewis Craighead's father had owned slaves, but Lewis's family was probably about as poor as the black men who worked on the mountainside with him. Lewis was a man with little or no education. Like so many other young soldiers, he probably did not understand this war that was being fought to "free" slaves. The slaves who worked for his father and many of the other landowners in Montgomery County were as "free" as he was – this young man in his early to mid-twenties, with a young wife and small children, whose entire life had been spent either in the red dirt of Franklin county or steep rocky hillsides of Bottom Creek.

I like best the story about the birth of Lewis and Mary's son James Lewis Craighead on March 18, 1866. Like so many of the Craighead men, Lewis had a sawmill. Mary asked Lewis one morning to help her take some looms apart and carry them to another building to be stored. Lewis told her that he had to go somewhere to hunt a piece for the sawmill and that he would help her the next day. Lewis left, and Mary had a black woman or girl helping her. They decided to take the looms apart and then they took them outside and stored them in the other building. Next they cleaned the room and put up a bed. This was perhaps all in preparation for the birth of a new baby. They then scrubbed the floor. Mary said she was going to the spring for water. She took two wooden buckets and headed for the spring. After filling the two buckets with water, she started back to the house. But baby James Lewis decided he wanted to be born under an apple tree which was on the path to the spring house. Mary wrapped him in her apron and took him to the house. When Lewis returned home, Mary was in bed with their new son. Uncle Jim's granddaughter shared this story with me, which had been passed down from her aunt, and his family members are sure this was the reason that James Lewis Craighead always loved apples.

Included in this record is information on five of Lewis's children: William L. "Buck", James Lewis "Jim", Charles Amos, Peter Everett "Pete" and M. Susannah "Sook". Their oldest child, a daughter named Mary Jane (b. 1862, d. 1948) was never married. She is buried in the Craighead Cemetery. Fannie Craighead (b. 1872) married Joseph Womack in 1894 and lived in the Shawsville area. In her later years she would come to visit several of her nieces and nephews and spend several days. E. Adeline Craighead (b. 1873) married Field Garlick, and she also lived in the Shawsville area. The 1880 census also lists John W. Craighead (age 3) and L.E. Craighead (age 1). Montgomery County Deed Book V, page 433, lists these two children as John Wesley Valentine Craighead and Lucy Ella Craighead. Grandpa Amos Craighead told us as small children about the great flu epidemic of the 1880's and that some small children in his family had died at that time. I do not recall how many he said, but I feel sure that these two children must have died at that time since we know nothing further about them.

Lewis and Mary Craighead are buried in the Craighead cemetery which is on a hilltop of his home place (above Peter Craighead's home), along with several of their sons and daughters.

WILLIAM LEVI "BUCK" CRAIGHEAD
Written by Genevieve Craghead Henderson

Lewis and Mary Craighead's oldest son was named after Lewis's father and Mary's father. He is listed as William L. Craighead, age 15 years, in the 1880 census. So far as I know, Uncle Buck lived his entire life in the Bottom Creek area.

He married Emily Ann (Annie) Grant, daughter of Sarah Ann Grant (who was William Craighead's second wife). He and Annie lived where Dick and Vergie Conner (his daughter) would live in later years.

Annie Grant Craighead must have been a very compassionate person. Annie's half-sister, Virginia F. (Jinnie Craighead, was married to Charlie Woods, and they lived next door neighbors of Buck and Annie Craighead. Mrs. Jinnie Woods died at an early age, and the "matchmakers" were at work trying to find the good widower another wife. The Shaver men were regular preachers at Bottom Creek Church, and quite often Miss Rena Shaver would be present with her family at those services. Following a Sunday church service, the Shavers were invited to the Woods home for Sunday dinner. Poor Mr. Charlie was in the kitchen trying to come up with something to serve them for dinner. Mrs. Annie Craighead had cooked her family's Sunday dinner early that morning before going to church. Knowing that Mr. Charlie (her deceased half-sister's widower) was in a real dilemma, Mrs. Annie took their Sunday dinner up the road to the Woods home and slipped it through the kitchen window to Mr. Charlie without his guests ever knowing. Not too long after that Mr. Charlie and Miss Rena were married. Miss Rena was in for quite a shock if she expected him to be a great cook based on that Sunday dinner.

After uncle Buck's wife's death, he moved to the property now owned by The Nature Conservancy. One can find small remains of the three small houses that were Uncle Buck's home, located on the right side of the road just before you reach the Conservancy's locked gate.

Uncle Buck had a separate building for his kitchen, another building for his bedroom, and then a third (two-story) building that was used mainly for storage. He had this funny looking ladder that was used for climbing into the second story, so apparently there were no inside steps leading to the second story. Perhaps the Craighead men had some problem with building steps inside of their buildings for easy access to upstairs lofts and rooms. I have been told that Amos Craighead (who was my Grandfather and Buck's brother) built a barn beside a pine tree. In order to get into the loft to get the hay for the cows, you had to climb up the pine tree. After my Grandmother fell out of the pine tree, Grandpa built a way to get into the loft. Whenever he teased my brother about some of his carpentry projects, Donald would remind him of the story of his barn and Grandma's fall.

The middle house, which was white with a small front porch, was uncle Buck’s main residence. On pretty days in his later years, Uncle Buck could be found sitting on his porch, leaning back in a straight chair against the wall, or sitting on his porch steps chewing and spitting his tobacco. This was a well deserved rest for an old man. There are evidences throughout the woods surrounding his home and behind the little church of his many years of hard labor of moving rocks and building long rows of rock fences. At one time there was a small pond that he had built primarily by hand up behind the church. Floods later washed most of the pond away. Neighborhood children were cautioned to stay away from the pond, so it must have been deep enough that parents were worried their children could drown in it. I only went to the pond one time – one winter afternoon with cousins on the way home from school. It was a pretty pond with large rocks and spruce trees around it. The water was frozen, and the brave ones would run and slide on the ice. Many years ago the hillside across from the Leland Craighead home appeared to be terraced – there were at least two long rows of rock fence the uncle Buck had built around the hillside.

Buck and Annie Craighead were the parents of six children.

I can remember uncle buck usually had some chickens, and his chicken house and lot were next to the kitchen. He would always have a big red rooster, and quite often it was one that would fight. If Uncle Buck was not on the porch, you carried a big stick and went by his house very quietly.

Our visits with Uncle Buck were usually for only a few minutes when we walked by his house with Grandpa, and the two of them would chat for a minute about the weather or a little neighborhood talk.

William L. “Buck” and Annie Craighead are buried in the family cemetery across from where they lived when Aunt Annie was living, near the Montgomery County line.

JAMES LEWIS CRAIGHEAD
Written by Genevieve Craghead Henderson

As noted in the write up of Lewis and Mary Craighead, James Lewis “Jim” Craighead was born March 18, 1866, under an apple tree.

On December 27, 1888, he married Sallie Lee Janney. Aunt Sallie was born September 12, 1872, in Franklin County, the daughter of John and Malinda (Hale) Janney. (Her sister, Lillie G. Janney, was Edward Craighead’s first wife).

At one time Uncle Jim and aunt Sallie lived on Bottom Creek, just a short distance from his brother Peter Craighead’s home. In later years they moved to the Eugene King property.

Uncle Jim was an inventor. He put together a washing machine. Also, I have heard a story that he lost a tooth and decided to make him a wooden one. It was a perfect fit until it had been in his mouth for several hours and the wood began to swell. It was quite a struggle to remove the wooden tooth.

I don’t remember a lot about Uncle Jim and Aunt Sallie except that they seemed to be a very happy couple. I do remember that Uncle Jim usually wore laced up high boots and riding pants. Aunt Sallie was a very neat little lady and had a “just starched” look about her apron and dress

Their grandson Robert Craighead has done considerable research on the Craighead family.

CHARLES AMOS CRAIGHEAD
Written by Genevieve Craghead Henderson

Charles Amos Craighead was born January 25, 1875, to Lewis and Mary (Funk) Craighead in Montgomery County, Virginia.

On February 8, 1900, he married Laura Edith King, daughter of Peter O. and Mary (Conner) King, at the Peter O. King home place in Montgomery County, Virginia. The marriage license shows Amos's age as 26 and Edith's as 19. (Edith was born April 11, 1882, in Montgomery County, Virginia). Amos's occupation is shown as farmer. The marriage license shows the minister who performed the wedding ceremony as I. H. Shaver.

At the time of the birth of their first child, Clinton Coy Craighead on the 16th of November, 1900, Amos and Edith were living in Roanoke County, or as Clinton would have stated "out on the mountain". I do not know where they were living when the second son, Linden, was born; but while these boys were very young they lived near Bottom Creek Church in the house that was torn down by the Conservancy. Five more children were born of this marriage.

Amos and Edith spent most of their lives on Bent Mountain. As noted elsewhere in this material, they moved to the Funk home place at one time. Amos continued farming and also had a saw mill. They moved to Catawba, Virginia, where Grandpa was a tenant farmer for a Mr. Looney – they were living there in the early 1920s. Later they moved to Roanoke. In addition to the children who were still at home, Grandma ran a boarding house for several railroad and silk mill employees, a number of whom were relatives or close friends to her children. Grandpa returned to Bottom Creek to live with Clinton and his family during the depression, living first in a house owned by Troy Tice near the Oakley King grocery store. Amos owned what had been the Maxey property (now Conservancy property) and had always planned to build a house on that property, but never did so. He and Clinton bought the Jim Poff property which adjoined the Maxey property and was to the right of the Funk Cemetery, and moved from the Tice property to the house on that property. This was around 19___. A few years later Grandma's health began to fail, and she also moved back to Bottom Creek to live with her husband and her son and his family. She died at that home on March 14, 1939.

Amos moved again when Clinton purchased the Walter Manning home place (where Jim and Lucy Poff had been living). This was the white house that was torn down by the Conservancy on the Loop Trail. But when Clinton and his family moved in May 1949 to the foot of Bent Mountain, Amos would not move with them. On the morning they moved, he told them he would not be going with them – that there was nothing for him on Back Creek – and no one could change his mind. He lived at that property for a few more years and then moved to Blue Ridge, Virginia (Botetourt County) to live with his son Irving. He died January 28, 1957.

Grandpa enjoyed farming. All of the years that he lived with our family, he was in charge of the garden and could grow beautiful vegetables. With Daddy working at the railroad and later with timber, Grandpa did most of the farming. We usually had a “hired hand” staying with us to help Grandpa, especially with picking apples or cutting hay. Grandpa enjoyed his horses and cows, and he had one horse for so many years (Old John) that he was almost a member of the family. My mother used to say that Grandpa was almost like a Daddy to her (her daddy died when she was 17). Grandpa was so good to help her with any chores that had to be done – he always saw that her wood box was full of wood, he was there to help whenever there was any canning to be done, he was her main help at butchering time, he looked after all of the farm animals, he was so easy to please with anything that was placed on the table before him, and no one ever had a better grandpa. He was also a banker when I was a small child. He kept my few dollars in the little pocketbook with three compartments that he would slip into the top pocket of his overalls. I knew Grandpa would never spend a dime of my money, and he would help me count it at night.

Grandpa enjoyed watching his honeybees and trying to find bee trees. When his bees would swarm, we would beat on pans to keep them from leaving and then get Grandpa wrapped up in his bee outfit to keep him from getting stung by the bees and he would get them into a beehive. At times we questioned whether Grandpa was a very patient man (like the time he got hot and sweaty working in the garden and tore off his BVD’s from under his shirt and overalls and threw them up into the plum tree), but he had a lot of patience when he was watching his bees, and could spend hours trying to find a bee tree or just sitting and watching the beehives.

There were several big cherry trees in a pasture field on the Maxey place, and the rocks had been carried from the field and placed around the base of each tree. Snakes, especially rattlers and copperheads, loved those piles of rocks. When cherries were ripe, Grandpa would always go with us to pick cherries and be there to kill the snakes. He was not a tall man but he had long arms and had great power in throwing rocks. A snake did not have a chance of getting away if Grandpa spotted him first. I wish we had a record of the number of rattlers and copperheads that he killed during his lifetime. I don’t recall that he was ever bitten by a snake. Just before he left Bent Mountain to move to Blue Ridge, he was in his garden in his sweet potato plants and either a rattlesnake or a copperhead (I can’t recall which) struck at him and bit into his high top work shoe.

Grandpa was proud of his grandchildren and would walk down the mountain to Shawsville to visit his son Linden and his family, especially after he had triplet granddaughters to be born in that family. He was also proud that his son Willard (Bill) served in the Navy and his daughter Margie served in the WACS during WWII.

CHARLES AMOS CRAIGHEAD
Written by Genevieve Craghead Henderson

Grandpa Amos enjoyed walking. He never showed interest in learning to drive a car or a truck. It was not unusual for him to walk to Christiansburg to pay his real estate taxes, taking the shortcut down the mountain to Shawsville and then on to Christiansburg.

Grandpa also enjoyed playing a little game of cards with some of his friends. When we saw him getting his leather strap and straight razor out early on a Sunday morning and lathering up to shave, we knew he was planning a little trip up Bottom Creek to see Boney and Monroe Gray or Earl Martin or Charlie Craighead for a little card game. We could always count on Grandpa being home by dark.

Amos and Edith Craighead are buried at the Funk Cemetery, along with their daughter Virginia who lived only a few days.

M. SUSANNAH CRAIGHEAD
Written by Genevieve Craghead Henderson

M. Susannah Craighead (Aunt “Sook”) was born June 6, 1881, the youngest daughter of Lewis and Mary Craighead. From her pictures she was always a very pretty woman. She was never a wrinkled old lady – she always had beautiful skin and features.

In 1898 she married Paris Hall of Montgomery County, Virginia, and I know of at least nine children from this marriage.

The Hall family lived near Bottom Creek Church, and the house was near the road, but I don’t know the exact location. Paris Hall was blind but still went with his family into the mountains to cut cross ties and tanbark. They would then travel down the mountain (By way of the Maxey place) to Shawsville. A daughter has related how at a very young age she would sit at the front of the wagon and hold the horses reins and guide them, and her blind father would sit on the back of the wagon and control the brakes so the horses and wagon would not run away going down the steep mountain wagon road. The children from this marriage learned how to work at a very early age and were hard workers all their lives.

Uncle Paris committed suicide by hanging himself in their barn on July 21, 1921. He is buried in the Funk Cemetery.

Their daughter, Mae Virginia Craighead, married Frank Craighead (son of John Craighead), and they lived most of their married life with a large family on Bottom Creek. Their daughter Oakey married Thomas Milton Simpson, who was also raised on Bottom Creek as the son of Adolphus and Mary (King) Simpson. Although they lived in Roanoke, Uncle Milton and aunt Oakey visited frequently with their Bottom Creek relatives. Aunt Oakey still lives in Roanoke.

After Paris Hall’s death, M. Susannah married John W. Kelley. They are buried at the Craighead Cemetery.

PETER EVERETT CRAIGHEAD
Written by Genevieve Craghead Henderson

The marker at Peter Everett Craighead's grave shows his date of birth as 1881 and his date of death as August 30, 1974. He married Elzora Jane "Ellie" Conner ( daughter of Joseph L. and Catherine Conner) on September 21, 1904; and had a very large family.

To date I have not traced the ownership of the land where uncle Pete lived, but I have always assumed that his house was built on what had been the remaining land from the original Craighead tract. The home that he and Aunt Ellie lived in still stands jus across Bottom Creek from The Nature Conservancy property, and his granchildren have homes on the property.

As previously noted, Uncle Pete had a blacksmith shop. He farmed some, and he had a threshing machine and did threshing for other local farmers.

Aunt Ellie sold Raleigh products, and she used to come to our house with her mixes, flavorings and ointments.

After Aunt Ellie died (1954), Uncle Pete married Charity Jenkins. They lived in a smaller house closer to the George Brown property.

Uncle Pete was a great conversationalist and had the reputation for adding a little extra detail to some of his stories to make them more interesting. He was always a very jolly person. I best remember how he would hook his thumbs under his suspenders and stretch his suspenders out from his chest as he talked.

Uncle Pete and Aunt Ellie are buried at the Craighead Cemetery.

FLOYD COUNTY VIRGINIA
The Family of James Robert and Sarah Elizabeth Conner Craghead

James Robert Craghead was born in Franklin County Virginia March 17, 1830 (tombstone). His marriage application lists his birth as March 8, 1831. He was the son of William and Susannah Maxey Craghead. He moved to Montgomery County with his parents sometime between 1840 and 1850 (probably 1847). Bob as he was called married Sarah Elizabeth Conner (Sally) of Montgomery County April 1, 1854. Neither had been married before and their marriage application is recorded in Montgomery County Courthouse at Christiansburg, Virginia. The marriage application shows Sally as being born January 6, 1836. Bob and Sally had the following children:

1. Frances Craghead, born 1855.
  2. William Costly Craghead, born 1857.
  3. Eliza Jane Craghead, born between 1858 and 1859.
  4. Thomas Craghead, born in 1860 and died August 7, 1861 from croup.
  5. Charles H Craghead, born December 4, 1861.
  6. John Robert Floyd Alexander Jackson Craghead, born November 23, 1864.
  7. Lucy Mary Elizabeth Adeline Craghead, born March 15, 1865.
  8. Joseph David Stapleton Craghead, born March 20, 1866.
  9. Giles Elisha Payne Craghead, born February 10, 1868
  10. Nettie Ann Craghead, born May 10, 1870
  11. Odell Craghead, born May 6, 1871
  12. Lydia Luvenia Craghead, born August 4, 1876
  13. Arena Craghead, born about 1877 and was in the 1880 & 1890 census.
- There were 13 children per Ollie Whitenack (grandaughter), but the 12th and 13th may be the same person on my list.

Some of the children were identified from a book by Dr. Amos D. Woods "Floyd County a History of its People". Some were identified from 1853-1872 birth and death records of Floyd County Virginia.

Bob and Sally lived on a farm at Lick Ridge near Huffville in Floyd County Virginia where the raised their family. Bob joined Company I, 54th Infantry during the Civil War (Library of Va. Archives Div. Vol. 6 page 121). He apparently came home from the war to plant his crops. The story is told that he would send his children out on the surrounding hills of his farm to watch for soldiers that might be passing through the area while he was farming. If soldiers approached, the children would blow a dog horn and bob would take his horses and hide out in a cave until the soldiers passed. See attachments B&C for additional information.

FLOYD COUNTY VIRGINIA

Bob and Sally are buried at Lick Ridge Methodist Church cemetery (Vaughn's Chapel), not far from their farm. Bob's tombstone has the inscription "Our father at rest", and Sally's has "There are no partings in heaven". Sally usually wore an apron and smoked a pipe. When she wasn't smoking her pipe she would keep it in her apron pocket.

Three Craghead children are buried at Vaughn's Chapel and at this time I can not determine to whom these children belong. Lemia Craghead is buried at Vaughn's Chapel born December 26, 1889 and died July 18, 1890. L.Z. Craghead, born January 14, 1903 and died September 7, 1904. M.A.Z. Craghead, born May 10, 1870 and died April 18, 1890.

When the census of 1900 was taken James R. and Sarah Craghead were living with Joseph and Lydia Whitenack (June 20, 1900). They were listed as father and mother-in-law.

Floyd Courthouse has a record of James R. Craghead and wife Sarah on August 29, 1884 selling one acre of land more or less for $5.00 to the trustees for Vaughn's Chapel Methodist Church located in the Lick Ridge Community. Those trustees are William Whitenack, James W. Eanes, George W. Vest, William N. Conner and William R. Wilson.

Cabin of James Robert and Sarah Elizabeth Craghead in Lickridge Community in
Floyd County Virginia

The picture on the previous page (120) was taken in the 1960's. A heavy snow had caused the roof to cave in and the cabin was in bad shape. Sometime after the picture was taken, the owner destroyed the cabin as it was dangerous and could cause someone to get hurt if they tried to go inside of the cabin. A painting was made from the photo on page 120 and they restored the cabin in the painting to look as much like the original cabin a possible.

THE CABIN OF JAMES ROBERT CRAGHEAD

This is the remains of a log cabin that at one time served as the home of James Robert Craghead and his family. The cabin was a two room structure with no inside door between rooms. There were two front doors and one back door. The attic or loft served as additional sleeping quarters. A dug out area under the cabin provided space to store their food supply (root cellar). This photo shows the cabin as it existed in 1965. The cabin was torn down soon after this photo was taken. A heavy snow in years past had caved the roof and the front porch had rotted away. The base of the fireplace was stone and the upper part was made of logs, which had also rotted away. The cabin was built prior to 1850 and probably not used after about 1920.

Mr. Craghead Dead

Mr. Robert Craghead, an aged citizen of Lick Ridge, died Thursday of kidney trouble (April 22). He was the father of Mrs. L.L. Vest (Odell), Giles Craghead and others. His funeral was preached Friday by Revs. McKenzie and Vest, after which he was interred in the Lick Ridge cemetery. He leaves an aged wife, and many relatives. We extend our deepest sympathy to the family

Obit from the Floyd Press May 1928

In remembrance of my grandmother (Sarah Elizabeth Conner Craghead)

On the sad evening of May 4, 1928, the death angel visited the home of J.M. Whitenack and claimed for its victim our dear grandmother Sallie E. Craghead, wife of Robert Craghead, who preceded her to the grave several years ago. She was 93 years, 4 months and 2 days old.

She concentrated her life to God in early childhood and united with the Methodist church and lived a Christian life until death. Grandmother had been in declining health for many years with that dreadful disease T.B. She bore her suffering with much patience until Jesus called her for His own.

She leaves to mourn for her four children namely: Mrs L.L. Vest (Odell), Mrs. Jinnie Eanes, G. E. (Giles) Craghead, all of Pilot, and J.D. (Stape) Craghead of Roanoke, besides a host of grand children and great-grand children. Nine children preceded her to the great beyond several years before. Weep not for dear grandmother, for the time will surely come when we shall go to see her, when our work on earth is done. God needed one more angel.

Amid His shining shore, so He bent with loving kindness, and clasp dear grandmother's hand. Earth has lost its hope of gladness, heaven seems to us more bright, since our dear grandmother took her homeward flight.

Farewell, dear grandmother, on earth we will meet no more, but in heaven we hope to meet you on that bright happy shore.

Written by her granddaughter
Mrs. Ollie Whitenack

THE CRAGHEAD FAMILY ROOTS

The Craghead family roots can be traced to Timothy Craghead of Franklin County, Va., who was born in 1777. His parents were John Craghead, who was born at Chesterfield, Va., in 1740 and Jane Dicia Maxey from Lynchburg, Va., who was born in 1747. Timothy married Mary Agee on December 23, 1802. It is not known how many children were born of this marriage. It is known that they had one son, William, born in 1805. William moved to Montgomery County, Virginia, and was the first Craghead in that area. William married Susannah Maxey, daughter of James and Sally Agnu (Agnew) Maxey on March 28. Eight children were born to William and Susannah: William I., James R., Martha E., Sarah I., Charles O., Mary, Lewis, and Frances. James R. is the direct descendant of the Craghead family of Mercer County W. Va.

James Robert Craghead was born in Franklin County, Va., March 8, 1831. He moved to Montgomery County, Va., with his parents between 1840 and 1850. Bob married Sarah Elizabeth Conner (Sally) on April 1, 1854. Bob and Sally had ten children: Frances, William C., Eliza Jane, Charles Oty, Floyd, Joseph David, Giles, Nettie Ann, Odell and Vennie.

Bob and Sally's first son, William C., married Jane Tinsley (date unknown). They had six children: Maurice, Arminda, Archie, John, Alonza and Maude.

ARCHIE WILEY CRAGHEAD

Archie Wiley Craghead was born November 5, 1883, to William C. and Jane Tinsley Craghead. On July 13, 1906, he married Edna Frances Pennington at Athens, W. Va. Arch and Edna were the parents of seven children: Hoy G., Chauncey B., Quincey Hershel (Chauncey and Quincey were twins), Quincey died at age seven, Opie Otis, Pearl Gay (Mrs. Eunice W. Copen), and Paul M.

Arch was a farmer and preacher in the Speedway community. As a Lay Preacher he served five churches, often going in place of the regular minister by riding horseback. At times he had to help dig a grave, preach the funeral, and close the grave. When the county poor farm closed, he and Edna took children into their home. Some were supported by the State Welfare Department but several were reared as their own children with no support from Welfare.

Arch Craghead was an influential and caring man in his community. Everyone loved this tall and red-headed man, who loved people, especially children, and the Lord. He was Sunday School Superintendent for Painter's Chapel at Speedway. When the church was in need of repair, and there were no funds available, he was one of the first of volunteer to sign a note to borrow from Athens Bank the money necessary for the job.

He kept one of the best teams of horses in the area and was hired to pull the pipe for the gas line from the Summers County line to Princeton in the 1930's. He also served as a school bus driver, transporting children from Heck's Knob to Speedway to school in his covered wagon (hack). Later he purchased a truck and converted it to haul the children to school.

To help educate one of his children at Concord College, he furnished stone to build the wall around the main entrance to the grounds.

One fond childhood memory that many of his grandchildren share is about visiting Grandpa on the farm. When we would pull up in the driveway he would rush out of the house, arms spread wide, a big smile on his face saying, "Well upon my word and honor". At that everyone got a big hug.

Arch's wife Edna was often called upon to act as midwife for many of her friends and neighbors in the community in the absence of the doctor. Upon the doctor's arrival, she was often praised for her expertise. She is credited with the delivery of one of her sister's children.

The Family of Stape and Ellen Whitlock Craghead

8. Joseph David Stapleton Craghead, born in Floyd County, Virginia March 20, 1866 and died November 18, 1952. He and his brother Giles purchased a farm on Griffies Creek, in Floyd County. Stape later purchased Gile's part of the farm and it was here that Stape and Ellen raised their family. Ellen was the daughter of Jonathan and Elizabeth Gardner Whitlock. Stape and Ellen were married July 18, 1894 and is recorded in Montgomery County Virginia.

Matilda Ellen Whitlock, born May 13, 1866 and died March 21, 1937. Stape and Ellen are buried at Huffville Methodist Church Cemetery in Floyd County, Virginia. After Ellen's death, Stape kept his farm for awhile, but sold it and spent most of his latter years visiting at the homes of his children and friends and relatives. Stape usually always entertained when he came to visit, that is if he spent the night. He sang after he went to sleep, usually he sang a hymn, but never sang when he was awake except maybe at church. He was always active and was either working or on the go most of his life. He chewed tobacco for many years, but quit when he went into the hospital to have his big toe removed (he was diabetic). When he was asked why he quit, he said he was not going to have those pretty nurses carrying out a nasty spittoon. Ellen must have been pretty heavy as I heard one of the relatives say that "when she steps on the side of a wagon to get into it, she sure did make it lean". Ellen's mother Elizabeth was a widow and living with them when the census of 1900 was taken. Stape and Ellen had six children, three boys and three girls.

IN MEMORIAM (Obit)

“I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you I will come again and receive you unto myself; that where I am there ye may be also.” John 14:2-3

God called and on March 21, 1937, as Sunday dawned in the Eastern horizon, the soul of Mrs. Ellen Whitlock Craghead of Pilot, took flight heavenward.

Choosing to live her life of 70 years wholesomely and happily; her mind concentrated on higher powers than earthly accomplishments she honorably achieved the goal of righteousness.

To her husband she was most devoted and loyal; to her children a living monument of goodness, love and truth, and to her friends glorious symbol of sincerity.

Her character, like the mighty rolling mountains among which she dwelled, possessed strength from our Lord. The purity of her heart; the graciousness of her manner shall forever be in our memories.

“I have glorified thee on the earth. I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do” John 17:4. Probably written by her daughter Ollie Whitenack.

Shelors and Grahams that are related to the Whitlocks

Daniel Shelor's (1750 – 1830) father was Lawrence Shelor, born in Germany. Lawrence came to America, with his first wife and one son about 25 years before the American Revolutionary War (about 1753). They first settled in Maryland or Pennsylvania according to tradition, before moving to Virginia. Lawrence later married an American lady (Mary_____). He and Mary had five children. The son by Lawrence and his first wife and one daughter stayed in Maryland or Pennsylvania. The daughter is thought to have married a Delaplaine. Mary (Polly) Shelor, married Jonathan Graham, son of Jacob Graham and they had twelve children. (Ref. Floyd Co., A History of it's People and Places, by Dr. Amos D. Wood.)

Jacob Graham, born November 21, 1801 in Montgomery County

He was married January 23, 1823 in Franklin County

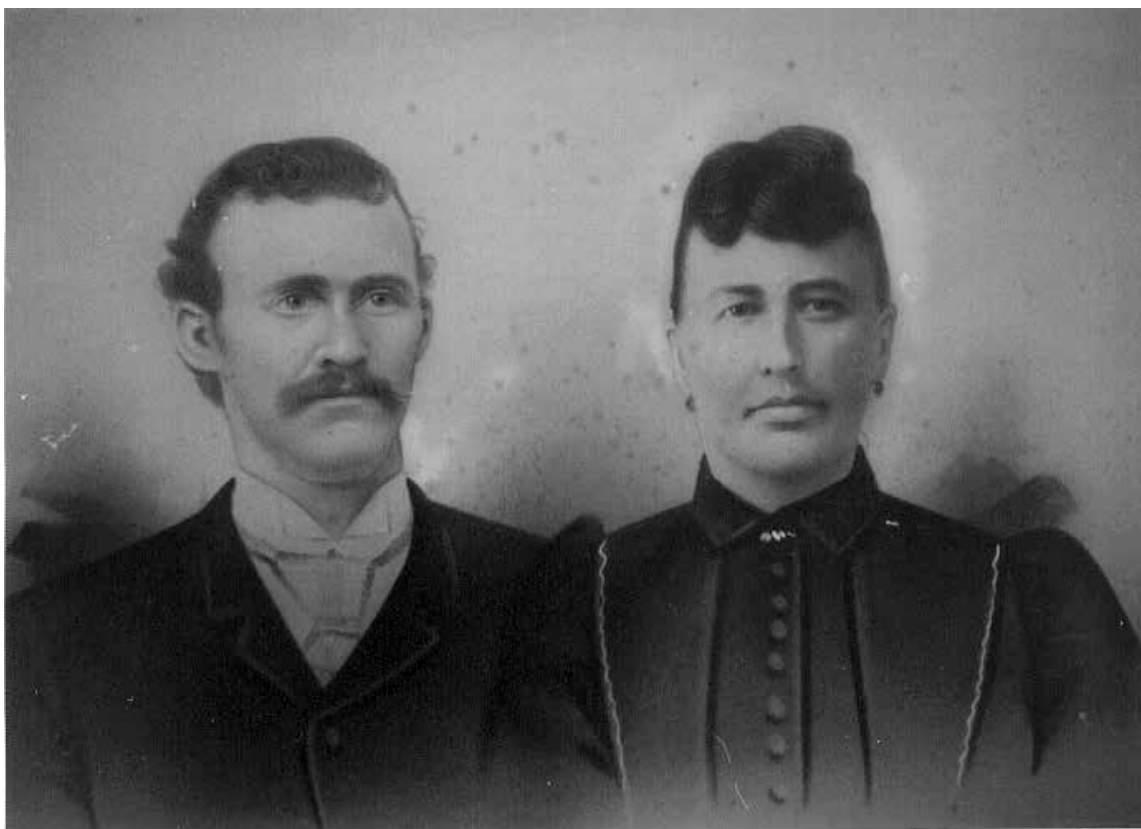

He died April 20, 1876 in Montgomery County

Jacob's parents were Jonathan and Mary Shelor Graham

Lawrence Shelor's first wife's name may be Margaretta and did arrive in America and was in Burks Co. Pa.

There are two known Mary Shelors. Mary Shelor was born about 1795 and is the daughter of Daniel Shelor and Mary Wickham. The second is Mary Shelor, the daughter of Lawrence and Mary Beatty Shelor, born (1781-1784).

The Underwood Family

The Underwood family appears to have mostly come from England to America based on what research I have conducted so far. I have not determined when the first Underwood came into what is now know as Floyd County, Virginia. The tax records of 1831 (when Floyd County was formed) shows four Underwood families as paying taxes. These families are Joseph, Joseph Jr., Jesse and Joshua Underwood. Joshua was born March 12, 1796 in Franklin County Va. and died April 4, 1869. He was the fifth child of Joseph Underwood.

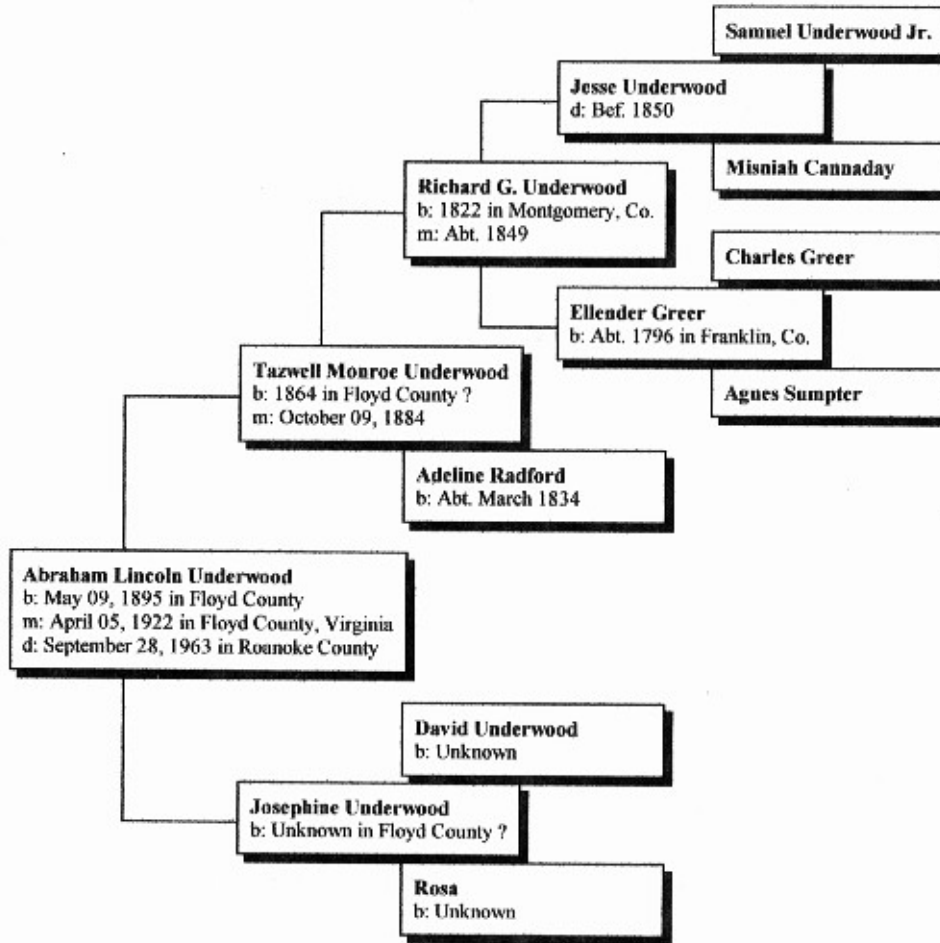

I found that Bird (Byrd) Cole married into the Underwood family twice, but at this time do not know his first wife's name. Bird's second wife's name was Sarah Underwood and may be the daughter of Jesse Underwood as he signed the marriage bond. Sarah was born in Franklin County, Virginia in 1798 and died from epilepsy at age 65 March 30, 1859. The marriage bond is recorded in Montgomery County, Va. and dated October 21, 1818. They had about ten children.

Jesse Underwood was married to Ellender Greer and they had a son Richard G. Underwood born in Montgomery County, Virginia in 1822. They probably had additional children. Jessie was the son of Samuel Underwood Jr. and Misniah Cannaday and died prior to 1850. Ellender was born about 1796 in Franklin County and was the daughter of Charles Greer and Agnes Sumpter. Richard G. Underwood married Adeline Radford about 1849. Adeline Radford was born about March 1834. Richard and Adeline had children, one of which was Tazewell Monroe Underwood. Tazewell was born April 1864. Tazewell was married twice, the first wife was Lydia M. Smith and they were married April 11, 1882. Lydia was the daughter of Willis and Lucy Smith. Tazewell and Lydia had a son Charles A. Underwood. Lydia apparently died during or soon after the birth of Charles as Tazewell married Josephine (Josie) Underwood October 9, 1884. Josie was the daughter of David and Rosa Underwood. Tazewell and Josie were probably related as they both were Underwoods. Tazewell and Josie had several children, one of which was Abraham Lincoln Underwood, born May 9, 1895. Lincoln married Lititia Maye Craghead April 5, 1922. The census of 1880 lists a Josie Underwood, age 12, as living with James P. and Martha Cannaday Howery in Floyd City.

I also found that on the 1860 Floyd County census, Elizabeth Underwood, age 55 was a farmer and living with her was Tazewell Underwood age 18. Due to the age difference between this Tazewell and Tazewell Monre Underwood, there must be two Tazewell Underwoods in Floyd County as one was born in 1842 and one in 1864.

ATTACHMENT A
MY MEMORIES OF JOSEPH DAVID STAPELTON CRAGHEAD
by Paul D. Craghead

As a boy growing up, I was lucky to get to know my grand father. His wife died when I was about a year old so I did not get to know my grand mother. Stape as my grand father was called, decided to sell his farm sometime after his wife's death. The household items and farm were sold at auction and his son Eldredge bought the farm and kept it until his death and was sold outside the family some time later. Stape's daughter Ollie and her family lived on the farm for several years. Eldredge was working in Pittsburgh Pa. and never lived at the farm after he bought it.

Stape had very little money as he had raised his family on his mountain farm and did not work anywhere except on his farm. After the farm was sold, he paid off his debts and with the small amount left, was able to live for several years with the help of family and friends.

He spent the rest of his life visiting at the homes of his children, relatives and friends. He was loved by all who had the opportunity to know him. He was a Christian man (Methodist) and was in attendance at church every Sunday when it was possible. Stape spent a lot of time visiting with my family when I was a young boy, which gave me the opportunity to get to know him pretty well. We usually owned a farm and when he came for a visit he would help with whatever work that needed to be done. He seemed to enjoy working in the garden and spent a lot of time there during the summer.

He kept up with a lot of his relatives. Some lived in Bristol Virginia, some in West Virginia, and some in Floyd County and Roanoke County, Virginia, and he would try to go visit with them from time to time. I have often wished I could have started this book prior to his death, he could have told me a lot of things about the family that I will never know. He was a fairly quiet man and didn't talk much unless you asked him a question. He was also an uneducated man, but could read and write a little.

I can never remember him saying anything bad about anyone or ever saying a bad word. I know of very few people who would be in that class. Stape did chew tobacco for several years, but quit when he went into the hospital to have his big toe removed. He enjoyed most foods so it was never a problem to prepare a meal for him. I remember he used to ask mother to fix him mush for supper sometimes. Mush for him was just boiled cornmeal (like grits) and he would put some butter on it and really enjoyed his mush. When eating, he would use his table knife to pick up his food and bring it to his mouth. He always said the blessing before he ate his food.

Stape had very few clothes. He had his Sunday clothes for going to church, and when those clothes got too worn to wear to church, they then became his work clothes. He did the same with his shoes. He wore a high top patent leather shoe he ordered from somewhere (probably Sears). When they got too scuffed for wearing to church, they became his work shoes. He wore long under ware summer and winter and all his shirts were long sleeve. I do remember him wearing long sleeve blue work shirts in which he worked and also had work pants. He always wore pants with suspenders, never a belt or bibbed overalls. He also had a felt hat to wear to church and when it became soiled, it became his work hat. When he traveled, he had a dark blue small metal suitcase in which he carried his clothes. The only personal possessions, other than his clothes and suitcase, I knew him to have were a pocket knife, a leather snap open coin purse, a pocket watch with a fairy stone fob, a walking cane, a song book of gospel songs, a cocoa nut someone sent him, and a pig made out of plaster of paris or a similar material. The pig and cocoa nut remained at my parents house and he gave the pig to me. He and his wife had given me a horse made of similar material just prior to her death. He could have had other items that he left at other places, but I was never aware of them.

His physical appearance was always neat and clean. He was around 6 ft tall, not overweight but some stomach. He was bald with a fringe of white curly hair. He always wore a mustache and did not have any teeth as long as I knew him. He could still eat about anything he wanted. He had no scars or other marks of which I was ever aware, except for his big toe that had been removed. He wore glasses at times, but usually only when he needed to inspect something closely.

Stape was a Christian (Methodist by choice) and always went to church if it was possible. While he was staying with us, my parents attended the Methodist church, probably because Stape preferred going to the Methodist church. After his death my parents became members of the Baptist church. During WWII (we lived at Lithia) and we had to walk to church and the Methodist Church was the only church with walking distance, Stape enjoyed attending that church a lot.

He was staying at his daughter Maye's home when he died. I believe the cause of his death was cancer. I was there the night he died and made a couple of trips to the drug store for medicine for him. He seemed to be having a vision into heaven as he was dying as he said he was seeing crystal water and people in white just before he died. He remained mentally alert and was physically active until the time of his death.

1909 FLOYD COUNTY CONFEDERATE PENSION LIST

After the Civil War ended the problem of disabled Confederate soldiers and Confederate widows came before the Virginia Legislature several times. In 1888 the Legislature approved payment of pensions of widows of soldiers killed in action or who died in service and those who were severely maimed while wearing gray. In 1900, as the veteran population aged, some restrictions were lifted. In 1901 requirements were further eased.

The procedure followed was that the veteran or widow filled out an application for a pension. This pension was then presented to a local pension board for review. If this board approved the pension, then it was sent to the Auditor of Public Accounts for payment. The pension applications were not kept at the county level. The Auditor of Public Accounts published a list annually, by county, of the recipients of these Confederate pensions. This is the list for Floyd County in the year 1909.

The following were the Craghead names that appeared on that list.

1. Craghead, James R.

The Library of Virginia lists additional information on the confederate pension rolls, veterans and widows. James R. Craghead was listed as disabled and his widow Sarah E. was disallowed receipt of his pension. William T. Craghead was listed as disabled. Lewis C. Craghead was listed as a veteran and his widow Mary E. filed for a pension. C. O. Craghead was also listed as a disabled veteran.

A book titled “54th Virginia Infantry” by George L. Sherwood and Jeffrey Weaver is a good source for an insight as to the battles and people who were from Southwest Virginia and their involvement in the Civil War.

Craghead (CRAIGHEAD) CEMETERY INFORMATION

Craighead Cemetery

This particular cemetery is located at a point near where Floyd, Montgomery and Roanoke Counties join. I believe the cemetery is in Montgomery County. Going from Roanoke to Floyd on state route 221, you turn to the right on Tinsley Lane (Route 711) at the top of Bent Mountain. You continue to "Bottom Creek Road", and turn right. Follow Bottom Creek Road until you come to Bottom Creek Lane and turn right. Follow Bottom Creek Lane for a couple of miles passed the Montgomery County line. You turn to your left about just a few feet after crossing the Bottom Creek bridge in what appears to be a private drive. You continue on up the road passing 2 or 3 other drives(keep to your right) that turn off and you will come to the cemetery when you can go no further. The list below is all the Cragheads or Craigheads buried in the cemetery. There could be others buried there and the graves were not marked with a stone. There was at least one grave with a rock at the head and foot of the grave.

A partial letter to Mrs. F. A. Craighead in Fulton Missouri

March 5, 1980

Mrs. F. A. Craighead
1102 N. Vine Street
Fulton, Mo. 65251

Dear Mrs. Craighead

Perhaps you will recall that I wrote to you in 1967 asking about a Craighead-Lebo marriage. You very kindly went to the Courthouse and asked for the information I needed. You also sent me information from the Craighead book.

I have just received a letter from a Mrs. Hal. V. Miller, 6945 Hubbard Drive, Dayton, Ohio 45424, who is a direct descendant of Betsy Lucinda Craighead the daughter of John Craighead Sr. and third wife, Betsy Bobinson, daughter of Lucy to whom he was married in Bedford County on October 28, 1799. He had one daughter by Betsy Robinson, Betsy Lucinda Craighead who married John Burdett here, about February 7, 1820. Surety Isaiah Craighead, her half brother. John Jr., son of John Sr. and his first wife Jane Leodecia Maxey, married Sally Powell who outlived him. She was nearly one hundred years old when she died. I have been to her grave near the old brick house on Staunton River. I can find no actual proof that John Sr. married Elizabeth Hail, but since there was no other John present at that time I feel certain that he actually did marry the widow of Richard Hail. He was guardian of her minor children and I believe that John Hail who married Jane Craighead was her son. Isaiah Craighead married Feminina Robinson, daughter of Nicholas Robinson also a child (son) of Lucy Robinson and a brother of Betsy Robinson Craighead. I came across an entry in Court Order Book dated February 1820, Nicholas Robinson had died in Cumberland County Kentucky and his brother-in-law, James English has been appointed guardian of his minor children, Feminina, Theodicia and Nicholas Robinson. Also Elizabeth, William and Arthur. James English had married Ann Robinson daughter of Lucy in Bedford 17 March 1794.

I expect to go to Bedford on Monday and look for Robinson information. John Burdett and first wife, Betsy Lucinda Craighead and had three children, Thomas Louis Burdett who married Sarah ____? Mary Jane Wood, wife of James Alexander Wood, and Elizabeth McCowan, wife of Francis McCowan.

John Burdett's second wife was Elizabeth Wood, widow married in Callaway County, Missouri on March 6, 1845. They also had three children, Robert P. who married Catherine E. Bellama, Nancy A. Steele wife of ____ Steele and John R. Burdett. All of these people lived in Callaway Co., Missouri. We know nothing about Ester Craighead Burdett who married a John Burdett in Franklin Co. before 1794. She was the daughter of John, Sr. and Jane L. Maxey "Craighead. Mrs. Miller wrote that she got the information from Mrs Nesis Payne Massey of Fulton.

I am always pleased to hear from any descendant of a Franklin County family for I am trying to compile as much information as possible for succeeding generations. Our Franklin County Historical Society is not a Genealogical Society, but one can't separate the history from the people who make it.

Sincerely,
Gertrude C. Mann

A letter to Mrs. Hal V. Miller from Gertrude Mann March 4, 1980
Located in the Franklin County Library

Dear Mrs. Miller,

Thank you for your letter of February 18, 1980. Am always pleased to hear from a descendant of Franklin County Families and we need more information on both the Craighead and Robinson families.

Some years ago I write to Fulton to ask for information about the Craghead line that married into the Debo line from Bedford and received some information from a book that had just recently been written by my correspondent Mrs. Vivian Bridewell of St. Joseph, Mo., answered my letter for her mother, then deceased, had taken an active part in compiling the family genealogy. She wrote me the following:

Parents of Robert M.; John; and Isaiah were John and his first wife Jane Leodecia Maxey. Robert M. and John spelled their surname without the "I". Isaiah married Feminina Robinson, sister of Arthur and Nicholas Robinson. ( also of Elizabeth, Theodosia, and William.) I was fortunate enough the other day to come across an entry in the Court Order Book for February 1820 which recorded the appointment of James English as guardian of the minor children of Nicholas Robinson of Cumberland, Ky. Feminina, Theodocia, and Nicholes C. also Elizabeth, William and Arthur Robinson. I will get a copy of this for you. Nicholas Robinson Craighead was a direct descendant of Robert M. Craghead through their son William who married Nancy Craghead. He Nicholas married Nanie Debo. Robert M. married Nancy Powell, his brother John married Sally Powell. John and Sally lived in a large brick house, still standing, overlooking the Staunton River not far above the mouth of the Blackwater River. She lived to be over 100 years old and so was the only wife of John Jr. I have been to their grave which is near that brick house along what was one the road to Radford's Ford of Staunton River. The reason I mention the one wife of John Jr. is that his father appears to have married three times. His first wife, the mother of John Jr., had the following children all named in a suit in Chancery as her children, Court Order Book #3, page 339: Robert Craghead, John Craghead, Hail Maxey and wife Dicey Craghead, William Craghead, Timothy Craghead, Isaiah Craghead, John Burdett and wife Esther Craghead, George Key and wife Susannah Craghead, Thomas Allen and wife Mary Craghead, James Lewis Hale and wife Nancy Craghead, James Hale and wife Jane Craghead, eleven in all.

John Craghead's Will names the above children and in addition Lucy Robinson Craghead and his then wife, Betsy. He married Elizabeth Hale widow of Richard Hail in Franklin Co. (marriage bond) on April 3, 1789. Surety John Kemp and in Bedford County on October 28, 1799. Betsy Robinson, daughter of Lucy Robinson, who gave her consent. He appears not to have had any children by Elizabeth Hale. She was an older woman with a large family. One of the Hails above was her son by Richard Hail. John Craghead was the guardian of her minor children.

We still have work to do on the Robinson line. There is no marriage here for Lucy and her husband, the father of Elizabeth. She had other children who married in Bedford, her daughter Ann married James English March 17, 1794. Surety Arthur Robinson. Her son, Arthur Robinson married Betsy Irvine, January 4, 1781. Robert Bradfute, surety. Her son, Nicholas Robinson, married Elizabeth Bagby, d/o William Bagby, October 6, 1794. James English was surety for the marriage. If she had other children I have not yet found them. I hope to go to Bedford the first of next week and will try to find some more information. Isaiah Craghead was a half brother to your ancestress, Betsy Robinson Craghead. The Burdetts are a puzzle right now. Did John marry twice and to half sisters or are there two John Burdetts? I have gone over the Deed Books here and no answers are there neither do the Court Order Books explain who John was and where he went.

I have twenty five Volumes of "Missouri Pioneers" and the entry for August 25, 1850, James Woods and Mary Jane Burdett. Callaway County marriages 1840-1850, Also John Burdett and Mrs. Elizabeth Woods, March 6, 1845. I didn't find Thomas Louis Burdett's marriage.

Sincerely,
G. Mann

Crockett Springs near Shawsville Virginia

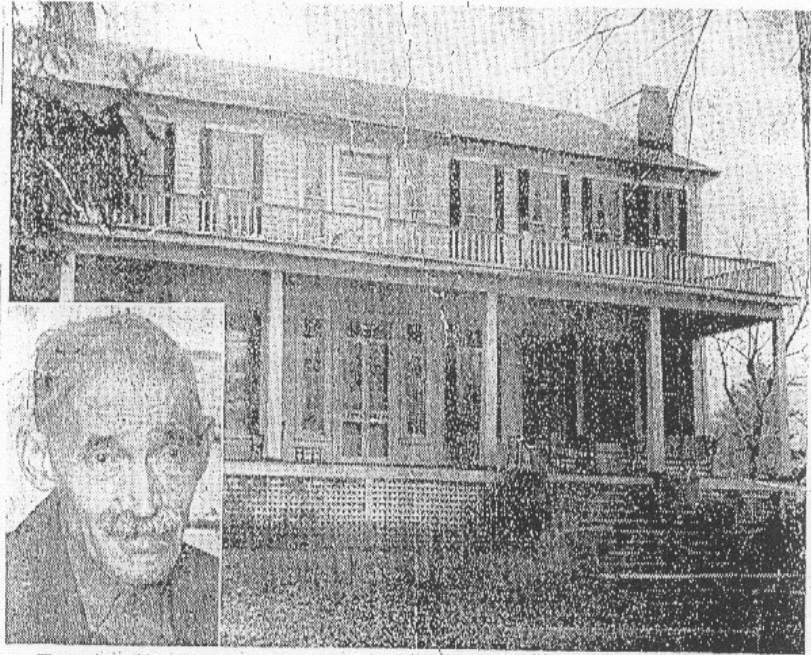

Some of the earlier settlers of the Craghead family owned property near the Shawsville, Virginia area in Montgomery County, but near the Floyd County line. One of the first was Costly Conner and his wife Lydia Hall Conner. Some of the Craghead family who also lived in the area were William, James Robert and Ted. The area in which Costly had his home was a valley between some mountains of which I do not know their name. Other families lived in the area but at a higher elevation. A stream called Purgatory Creek flowed through the property.

At some point a hotel was built on this property as a resort and was in existence for some time. The hotel was eventually torn down and the property was purchased by the Methodist to be used as a camp ground and retreat and is called Alta Mon. Crockett Springs was located South of Shawsville on state route 637.

FRONT VIEW, CROCKETT SPRINGS HOTEL, CROCKETT SPRINGS, SHAWSVILLE, VA.

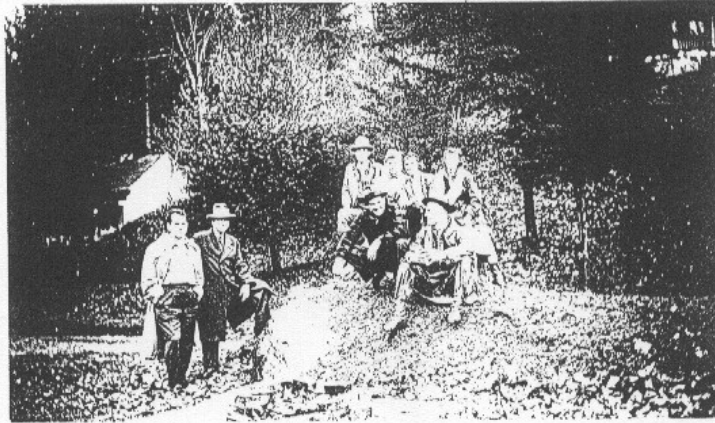

The main residence and a portion of the original hotel at Crockett Springs (above) was sold, with surrounding buildings and the 354 acres of land adjoining the resort property for $18,025 at public auction yesterday.

Sections of the hotel, including the large dining room, ballroom and lounges, were torn down a few years ago.

Green West, (inset) 71 year old Negro handyman who has lived on the property for the past 53 years through a succession of owners, says that his staying on with the new owners depends on "whether I suit 'em or no."

DEC 57 Camp Crockett 1912

The home on the previous page is that of Costly and Lydia Hall Conner. Their daughter Sarah Elizabeth married James Robert Craghead. It was a two story log structure and the picture was taken shortly after weather boarding was placed on the house to modernize it. The home was located behind the Crockett Spring Resort (now Alta Mons).

This house, known as the “Old Home Place” was the ancestral home of the Costly Conner descendants. It was located on a parcel of land that was originally a part of the Daniel I. Conner tract given to him by the then acting Governor of Virginia, Robert Brooks. The grant was written on deer skin and consisted of 1000 acres. J. P. Conner, son of Andrew Conner, grandson of Daniel, is said to have had the original deed to the land. J. P. Frederick of Princeton WV has seen the deed and has a copy of it.

Jonathan Conner, second oldest son of Daniel, inherited the land on which the house was built. It later came into the hands of Costly Conner, my great grandfather.

Costly Conner and his wife, Lydia Ann Hall Conner, built the original log house on Spring Branch on the Left Fork of Purgatory Creek in the valley below Huff Mountain, Giles Andrew Conner, my grandfather, (my mother’s father) was born there.

Giles Conner bought the “Costly Conner Estate” and raised his family there. It was also known as “Singing Waters” He kept the 428 acres until July 31, 1916, at which time he sold it to my father, Elbert Wilson Pearman, who had it remodeled as shown in 1925. It was the only country home in the area that had indoor plumbing (bathroom) and electric lights. This painting was copied from a photograph taken soon afterward.

After my father’s death, my mother sold the farm to J. W. Hall and Z. R. Hall September 24, 1932. It was owned by several others after that before the house burned. The property joined the land on which Crockett Springs is located. Bother properties are now owned by the Roanoke District of the United Methodist Church and is known as “Alta Mons”.

Merle P. Mills, March 6, 1992

Shortly after the remodeling, the sixteen year old daughter of Elbert Pearman died of unknown cause. She had fallen and hit her head at school sometime before her death. She was buried in the yard of the "Pearman House", and soon after Elbert Pearman died. His daughter, Merle Wills, told me the family thought Elbert died of a broken heart. He had loved all his children but this child was very special to him.

Venie Conner Pearman bought the house in Shawsville so her children could be near the school. Her youngest son Jimmy was less than two years old at the time. She hired John Maxey to "take up" the young daughters body buried in the yard and she was reburied in Shawsville.

Elbert Pearman had been Chief Purchasing Agent for the Pocahontas Coal and Coke Company. The family lived in Pocahontas, VA during the school year. "The first thing we did when we returned to the house was to run up the hill to see Uncle Washington and Lucy". Lucy would bake biscuits, put on butter and fresh cherries.

Merle

Venie gave work to Aunt Sally (widow of Charley Maxey). She paid her and gave her clothes. We were fascinated by silk stockings etc.
