Introduction:

The Gainsboro Library Miscellaneous Items Collection is comprised of items that are too large for standard vertical file storage or need special considerations due to format. These items are considered part of the Gainsboro Library Vertical Files and relate to subjects found within that collection.

Scope and Content:

This collection consists of 14 oversized record storage boxes that contain various miscellaneous items. The materials contained in this collection are varied and range from complete newspapers, news clippings, publications, blueprints, a scrapbook, various large format paper documents, maps, a large format booklet and audio/visual media.
