Biographical Note:

Alphonzo (Al) LaSalle Holland, Sr. was born 27 December 1916 to Gus and Dora (née Saunders) Holland. He was married twice, first to Susie Fishburn Holland until her death and later to Sara Williams Pettigrew. He had four children Al Holland Jr., Carrieoma Brooks, Mary Ann Cummings and Tom Pettigrew.

Holland graduated from Lucy Addison High School in Roanoke, Virginia and later attended Hampton Institute in Hampton, Virginia and LaSalle University in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

He served in the Army during World War II and was stationed in the Philippines. Holland later served in the Army Reserves.

Holland was employed at Norfolk & Western, beginning as a janitor and retiring as Assistant Manager for Tariff Compilations in 1985 after 45 years of service.

He was a civic volunteer and community activist and was active in many civic and Christian organizations, including serving as president of the Roanoke Chapter of the NAACP, on the board of trustees at High Street Baptist Church, God's House Baptist Ministry, Big Brothers Big Sisters, YMCA Family Center, League of Older Americans, Virginia Museum of Transportation; he was a Boy Scout Leader and mentor for Lucy Addison Middle School. He was a Freemason and a member of the Delta Nu Alpha Transportation Fraternity and the American Legion. Additionally in 2003, Roanoke City Council gave him the Citizen of the Year award.

Holland died on 12 December 2015.
