expressions,
you see them where ever you go,
a surprised look,
a wishful stare,
these are but a few faces people make.
a gentle smile,
an outright laugh, are all a part of the world's expressions.

In Appreciation

you have been a favorite with the senior class as well as with all who know you.

your enthusiasm, wit and love

which you have shown all of us during our three years together have been most inspirational.

you have spent endless hours guiding, listening, and helping us.

as our class advisor, your problems have been many,
yet, there were never any complaints.
therefore, we, the class of 1973, most proudly dedicate
the 1973 patriot to you,
MR. EARL RODNEY FULTON

Initiation

the world is a looking glass, and gives back to every man the reflection of his own face.
frown at it and it will in turn look sourly upon you;
laugh at it and with it, and it is a kind companion.

S.G.A. Successfully Reach Their Goals

Varied expressions are common in executive council.

Hall Chairmans Dabney and David, tally election results.

Oh gross. What is it?!"

Student Government, headed by president Charles Macfarlane, sought to broaden its scope by encouraging more participation from within the school this year. Taking a more active role in school functions, S.G.A. sponsored the annual Christmas dance and participated in Junior-Senior Exchange Day with local high schools. The most important endeavor was a Mardi Gras Festival and stock sales to pay student expenses in the German Exchange program.

SGA involves a lot more than work.

NHS Scholars

The National Honor Society promotes respect and admiration from the remainder to the student body. In the spring, they had their annual tapping ceremony in which they invited students who had the necessary grade averages to join the society. They held monthly meetings and in May when the carnival took place, they conducted their yearly bake sale.

Superior Literary Minds of Quill and Scroll

Outstanding members of the three school publications, the Statesman, Quill and Patriot, are chosen by their advisors for this honorary literary club. Its activities vary from sponsoring the doughnut sales during the break to more serious jobs such as campaigning for subscriptions to the "Big Three." Hard work and perseverance are the backbone of this club while parties and banquets highlight the year.

Amy Parrish and Nancy Meyers laugh at a caption that is sure to be censored.

Michael Overacker pops up in the darndest places!!

Quill — Literary Magazine

The award winning Quill Magazine has been a pride to the school since it was originated in 1962. The '72-'73 staff consists of seven students and Mrs. Jacquelyn Arnold, adult adviser. Doughnut sales during the break helped finance better layouts and artwork for this year's Quill. The Creative Writing Contest prompted good contributions from the student body. Cash prizes were awarded to the top three places.

Bible Club

The Bible Club nonexistent two years ago, had over sixty members this year. They held morning devotions in 3-100. Some guest speakers at afternoon meetings were missionaries from the Mormon Church and ministers from other valley churches. Many of the members go to The Way In, a coffeehouse, every Sat. Night. Mrs. Peery sponsored the club.

Pep Club Builds Up School Spirit

Yards and yards of paper and gallons of purple and gold paint went into the making of the Pep Club signs. The faithful members spent many long hours working after school on signs and decorations for the teams. With the help of Mrs. Gandee, their sponsor, they successfully undertook new projects. Football lockers and the field house were decorated, doughnuts were sold, and school spirit was overwhelmingly promoted.

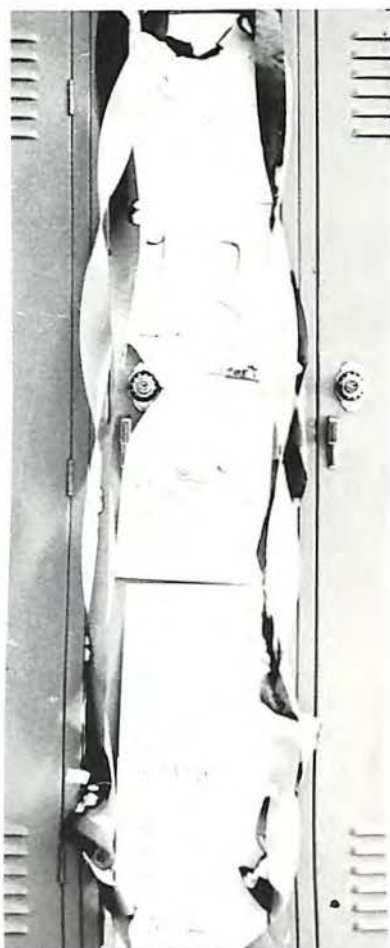

Sign painting is an endless job for pep club members.

Sharon's job as president includes cleaning up after other members.

Members of the Pep Club include: Front Row: Kay Strickland, Betsy Tucker, Debra East, Kathy Coulter, Pam Hasselmann, Sharon Gee, V. Red Cross Reps — Serving The Valley

The Red Cross representatives are headed by Mrs. Lottie Tice and Mrs. Elizabeth Drewry. In the fall they presented a Christmas program for the VA Hospital. In the spring they assist the Roanoke Valley Red Cross with Blood Donor Day, using the gym as an area center for donations.

The F.T.A. does various things in and around P.H. They sponsor the annual faculty tea at the beginning of the year, learn the aspects of teaching children at different levels, view films and listen to lectures at meetings. Under the able supervision of Miss Bailey, they seem to learn a great deal.

Last row: Richard Taylor, Mr. Hopkins, Bruce Akers, Barbara Tate, Laura Stone, Tim Lisk, Wayne Lineberry.

Debate Team — The Tongue Tanglers

The 1972-73 Debate Team debated several area schools in ten debates. The topic was federal funds for education. Mr. Clemmer coached the team.

“Pawn” — Derers

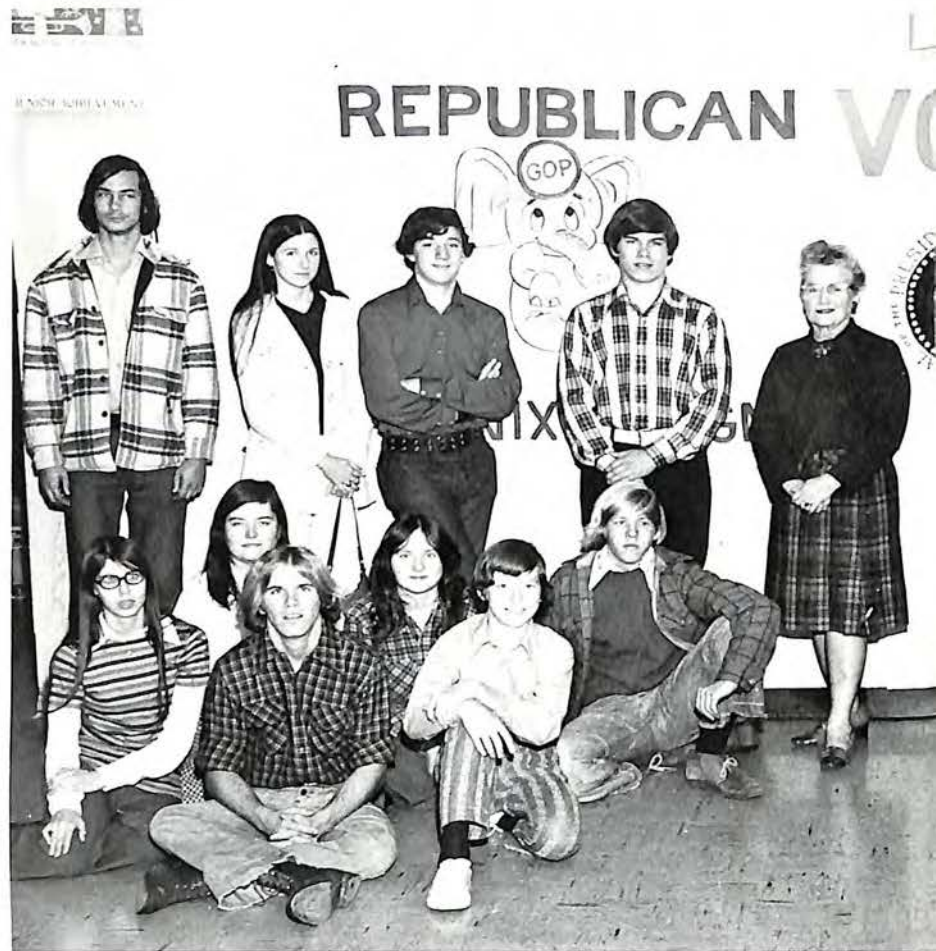

The Chess Club was an enthusiastic one. The members played each other and teams from other schools. Mr. Knight served as official sponsor. Seated (l to r): Mark Williams, Jess Gearhart, Richard Fisher, Stokley Caldwell. Leaning down: Robert Soloman, Jamie Parsons, and Robert Freeze. Standing: Steve Garrett, Dick Osborne, Doug Waring, Ed Haarsgar, Jim Collette, Jay Lutins, Bill Symthers, Jimmy Bryce, Fred Cocke, Robert Bates, Kevin Poff, Greg Gearhart, Chuck Suval, Bob Fisher, and James Taylor

Teenage Republicans

With 1972 being an election year the TEENAGE REPUBLICANS had many projects going as they campaigned successfully for the re-election of President Nixon and the election of Scott to the Senate and Butler to the House. They had bumper blitzs and windshield blitzs, canvassed, campaigned at shopping centers, and manned the polls in an attempt to decide the undecided voters. The Republicans chose Teresa Garland as their president. Miss Haley sponsored the club.

Teenage Democrats

The 1972 election year did not prove as gratifying for the Democrats as for the Republicans. Although the TEENAGE DEMOCRATS campaigned just as hard as their opponents, their candidates, McGovern for President, Spong for Senate, and Anderson for the House, lost. With Lee Robertson as their leader and Mrs. Stump as their advisor, the club undertook many campaign projects. They too, were present at the polls on election day.

Lee Robertson plans the comeback for 1976.

Anna Leigh Jones worked for the Democrats on election day at the Wasena precinct.

Modern Foreign Language Club

The Modern Foreign Language Club members are a varied lot. They are students of French, Spanish, and Russian. Foreign food is the center of the club's activities — a banquet and picnic. The banquet held in the fall served food from various countries to over two hundred members and guests.

Sharon Sheppard and Michael Overacker are two of the "shorties" on the front row.

The seniors of the '72-'73 choir were the members of the last Freshman Choir Patrick Henry will ever have. The "old faithfuls" who endured four years have helped the underclassmen make this year's choir one of the best P.H. has had. Hours of work, with a lot of fun mixed in, produced a choir outstanding in personality and musical capability. When most other things are forgotten, choir alumni fondly remember the rehearsals, performances, and escapades of Fergie's Follies.

Karen Austin, Nancy Havnaer, and Debra East often use the choir period to catch up on the local gossip.

The A-Capella Choir celebrates the Christmas season by caroling through the halls.

Mr. Ferguson smiles with pleasure at the balanced blend of the choir.

Mr. Gene Winston Ferguson has been directing school choirs since 1958. It is through his efforts, patience, and ability to draw music out of even the least talented people that the P.H. choir is able to exist and perform well. Through the disappointments of 1972-73, Mr. Ferguson worked with the determination that brought this year's successes.

"The Night Before Christmas" is a song that provokes varied expressions from the choir as it sings.

The choir members are disappointed and a little angry as they hear of the school board's rejection of their plans for Holland.

The Marching Patriots

You can't have a school without a band. It plays an important part in school spirit. In the fall, during football season, the band plays for half-time shows. They practice everyday after school on the field beside McQuilken. After football season is over, there are concerts to prepare for and parades to march in.

This is the band in a more serious moment.

The Field Conductor this year was Suzanne Swecker.

PEOPLE

Seniors Reflect Upon The Past And Future

I sat. Alone. And as I listened to the muffled voices of the people who surrounded me, I realized what all this was about. My years at Patrick Henry had suddenly passed by me. The voices began to die, and like others, I rushed to my next class. I sat motionless as my mind wondered. Could I ever remember those math equations and writing forms? My head wanted to explode. Now, the noise brought thoughts as I recalled all the headaches, skipping class and the beautiful expressions. Suddenly, it all seemed real. I understood.

Mr. Fulton not only works hard as the advisor for the senior class, but in the Industrial Arts dept. too.

"Oh really, is that what you think?"

Joe Wallace and Charolotte Clark look with disgust at all the trash on the block.

"I wish I'd done this last night."

Crazy Carlyle tells another famous joke.

Mary Ray bites her lip with a worried look.

A sophomore learns that our type of campus means walking in the rain.

"The tenth day of the seventh month of what year?"

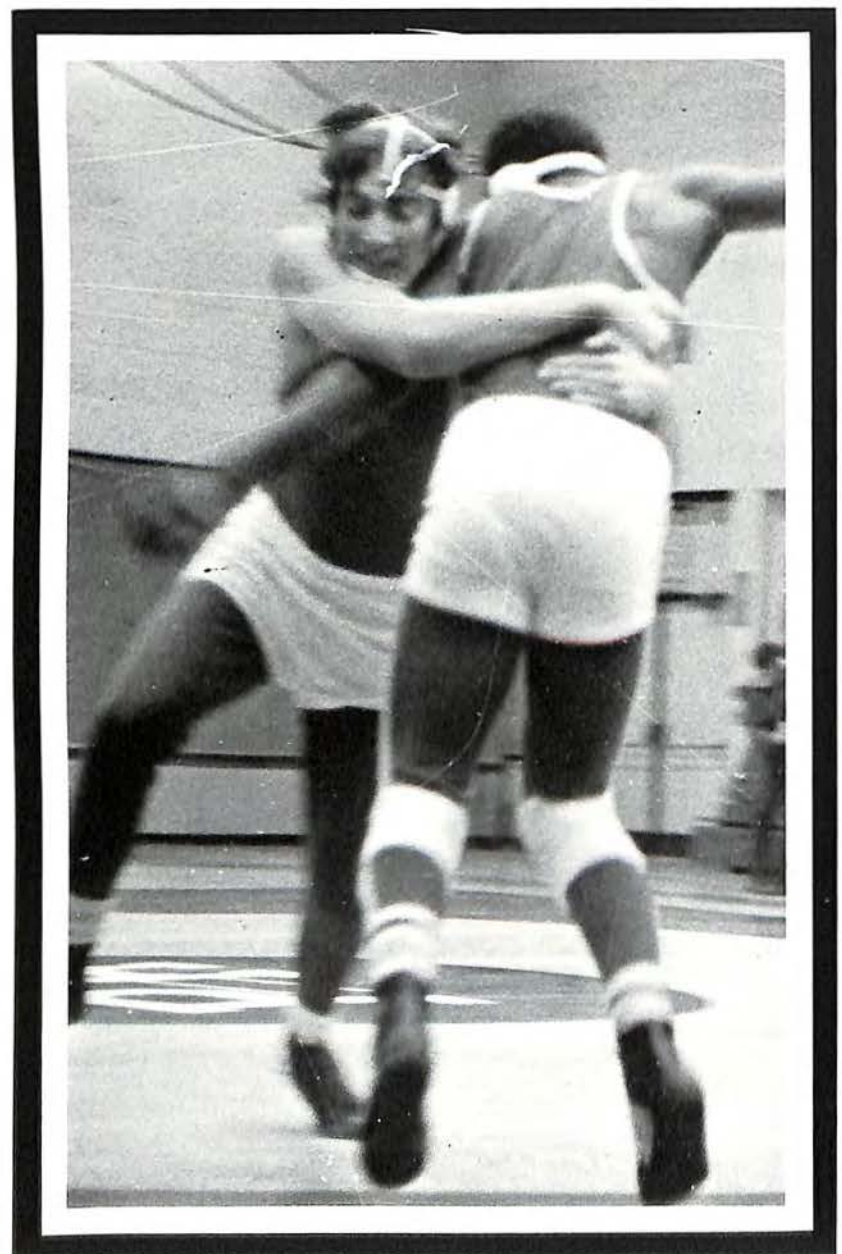

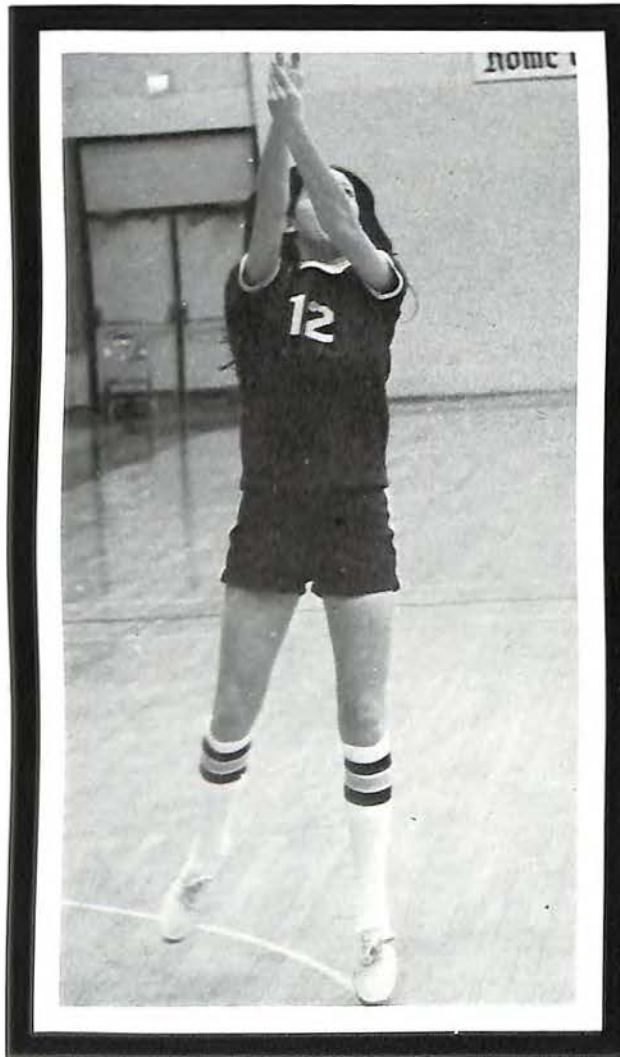

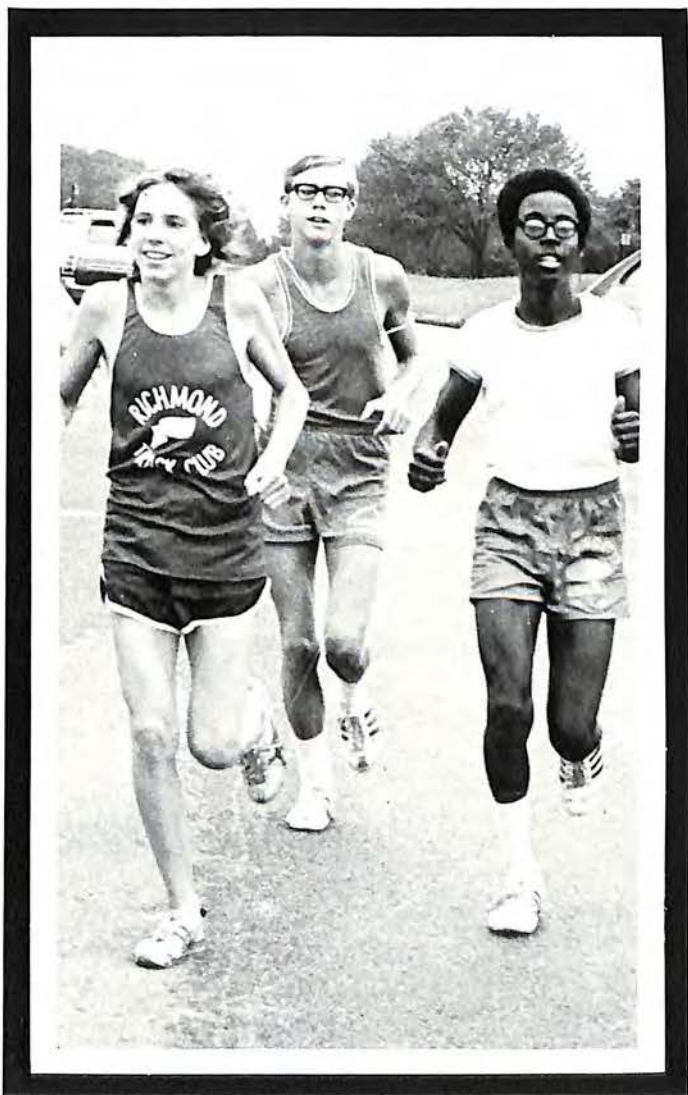

"I told you not to call me here," replies Kim Owens.

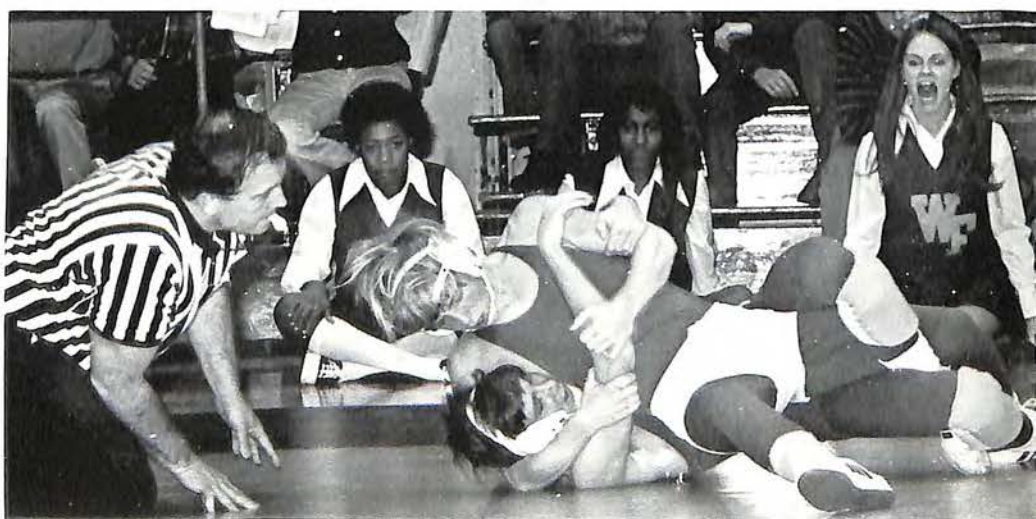

"Now that one wasn't really funny."

SPORTS

Players —

After practicing, time after time,
the real test comes in the competition.
Practice is over and it is the real thing.
The individual knows his team is counting on him.
They're all alone,
struggling for a victory.

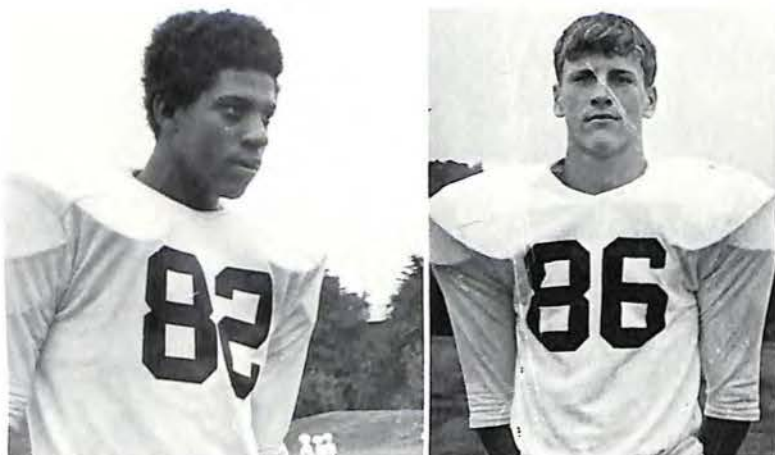

Coaches —

Teachers devoting spare time to produce winning teams.

Fans —

Cheering fans and Patriots, cries of joy changing to shouts of disappointment when we lose, but behind their men all the way, never to be forgotten.

Senior Players

Winston Holland, Kevin Lebo, Jon Brobst, Paul Partington, Alvin Graves, Bob Atkinson, Mike Brammer, Mike Smith, Keith Shirley, Larry Levin, Victor Willis, Richard Newton, Randy Hutcheson.

Ralph Baker rushes strong Patriot offense against opponents.

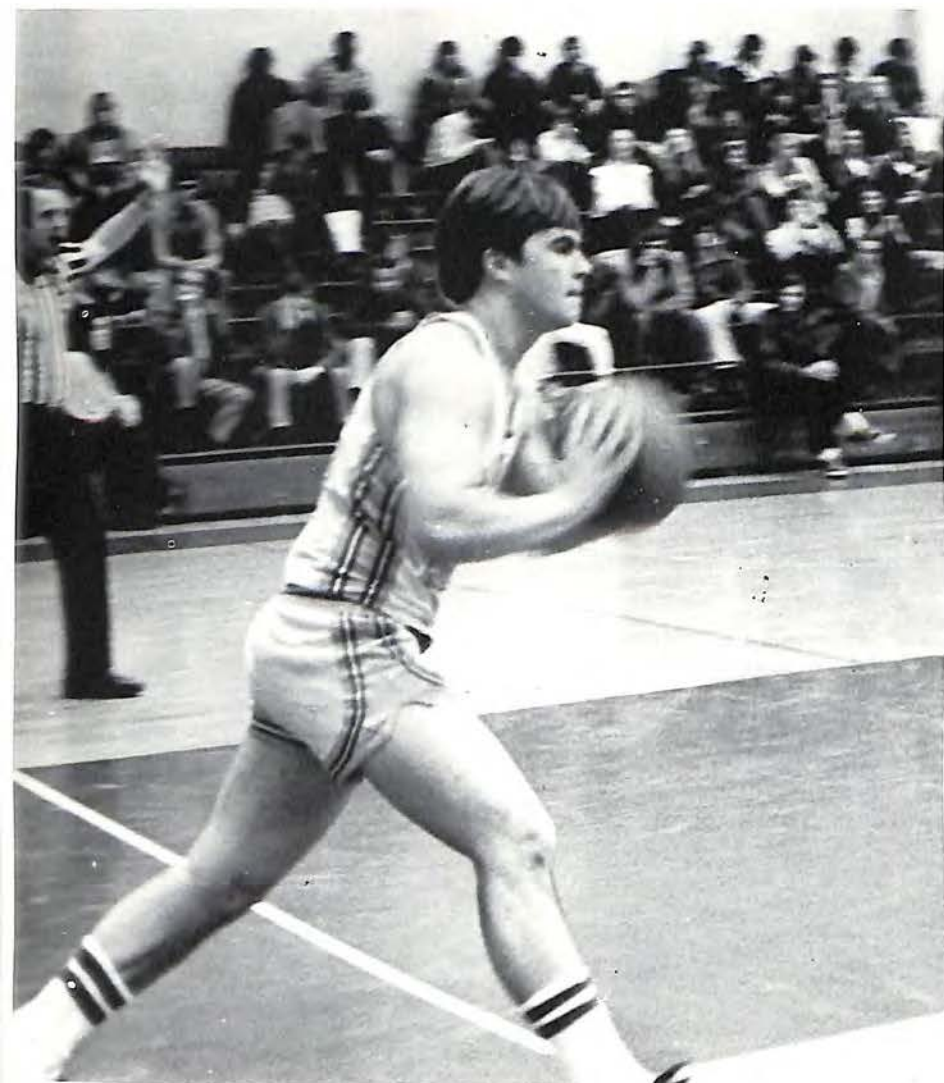

Chuck Jennings goes for points against a tough Magician defense.

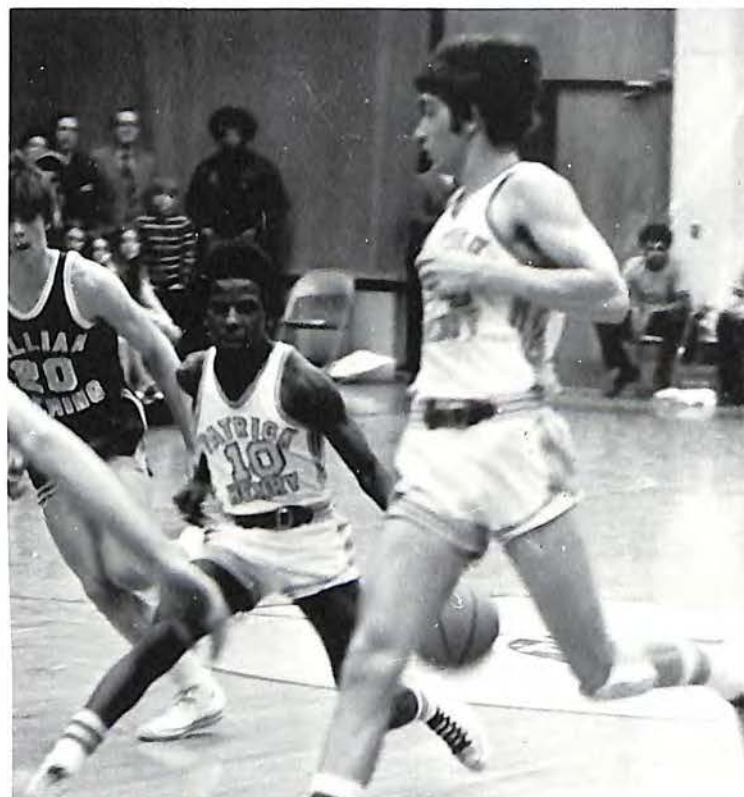

Jim Quigley s-t-r-e-t-c-h-e-s for a goal.

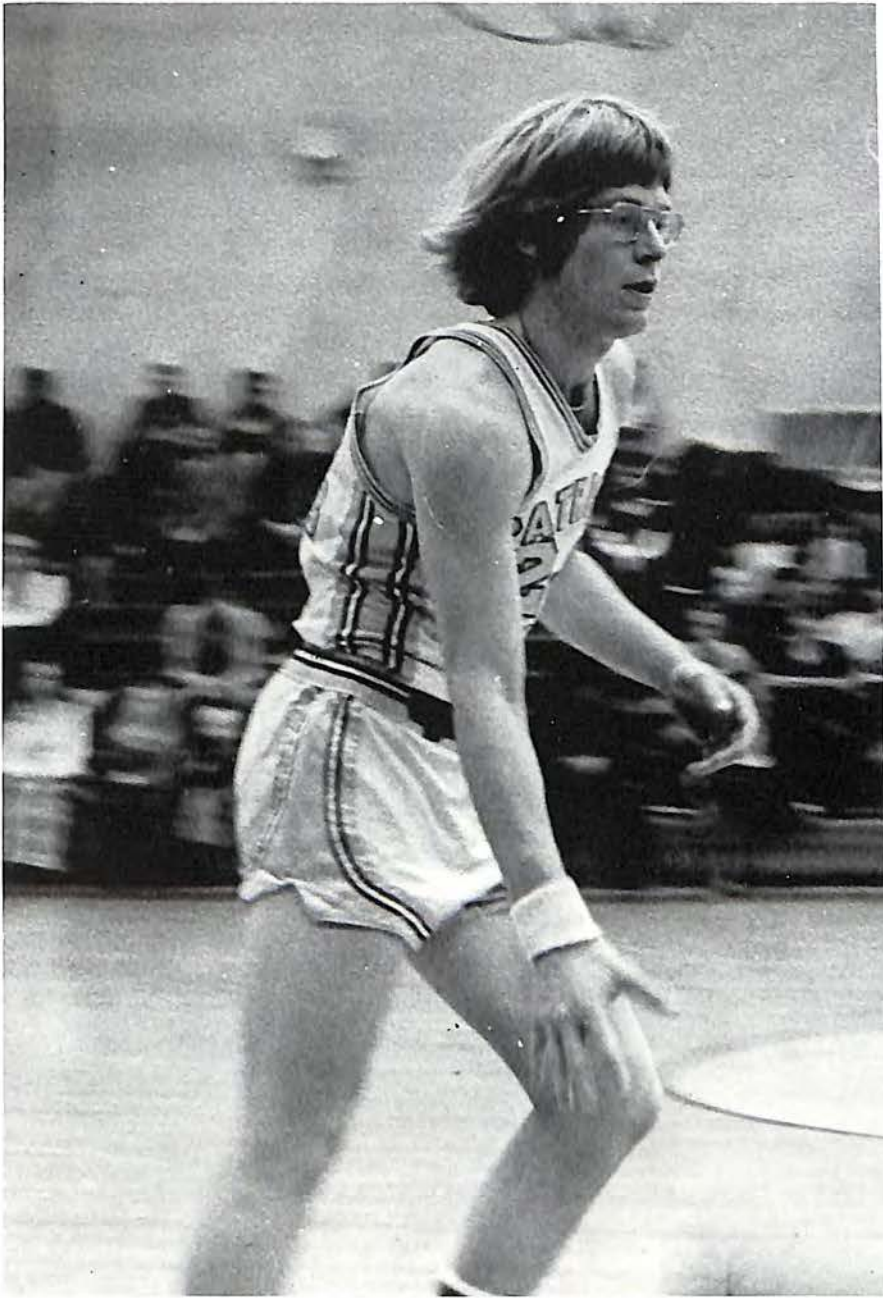

Patriots Try Hard In Quest For Victories

Tim Burton shuffles off a pass.

Members of the Basketball Team: Back Row: Mr. Vaniels — Coach, Alvin Graves, Glen Holland, Jeff Stone, Robert Baker, Winston Holland, Jim McKinzie, Frank Hyre, Donny Smith, Tim Burton. Front Row: Ted Plunkett — Manager, Clifton Gunn, Kirby Kidd, Victor Willis, Ricky Harman, Preston Tyree — Manager. Not Pictured: Mr. Mosser — Head Coach.

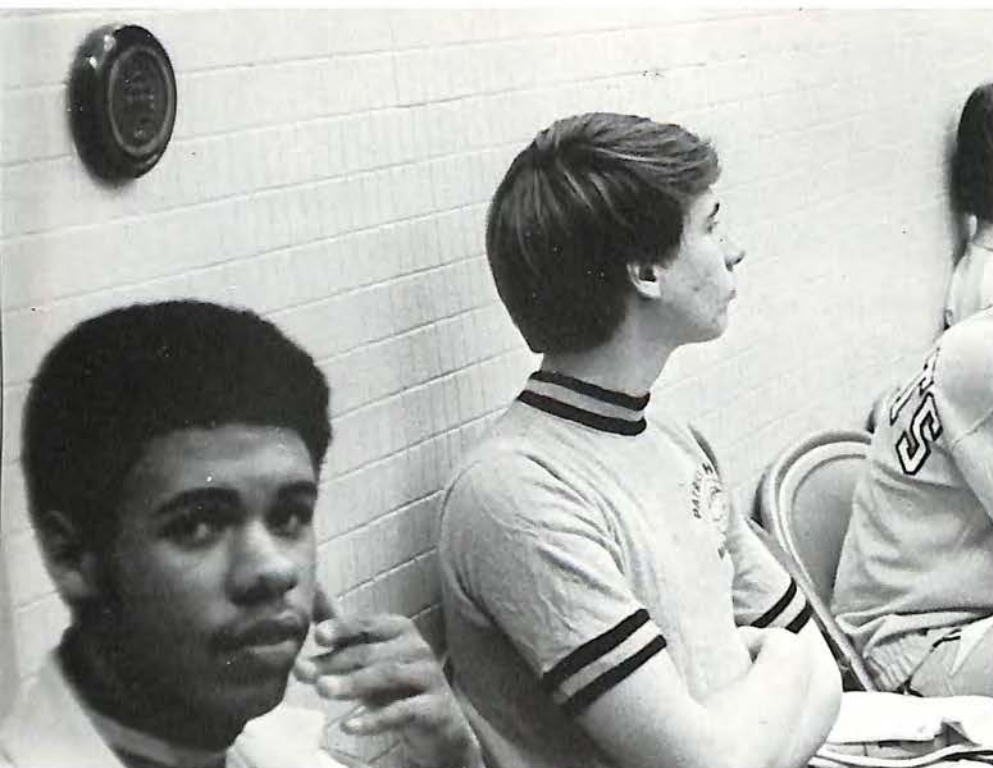

Dribbling the ball, Kirby Kidd looks for an open receiver.

Coach Mosser explains the positions and moves for the next quarter.

Everyone rejoiced over our victories.

Managers Preston Tyree and Ted Plunkett seem to have their minds on different things.

Victor Willis goes for two more points.

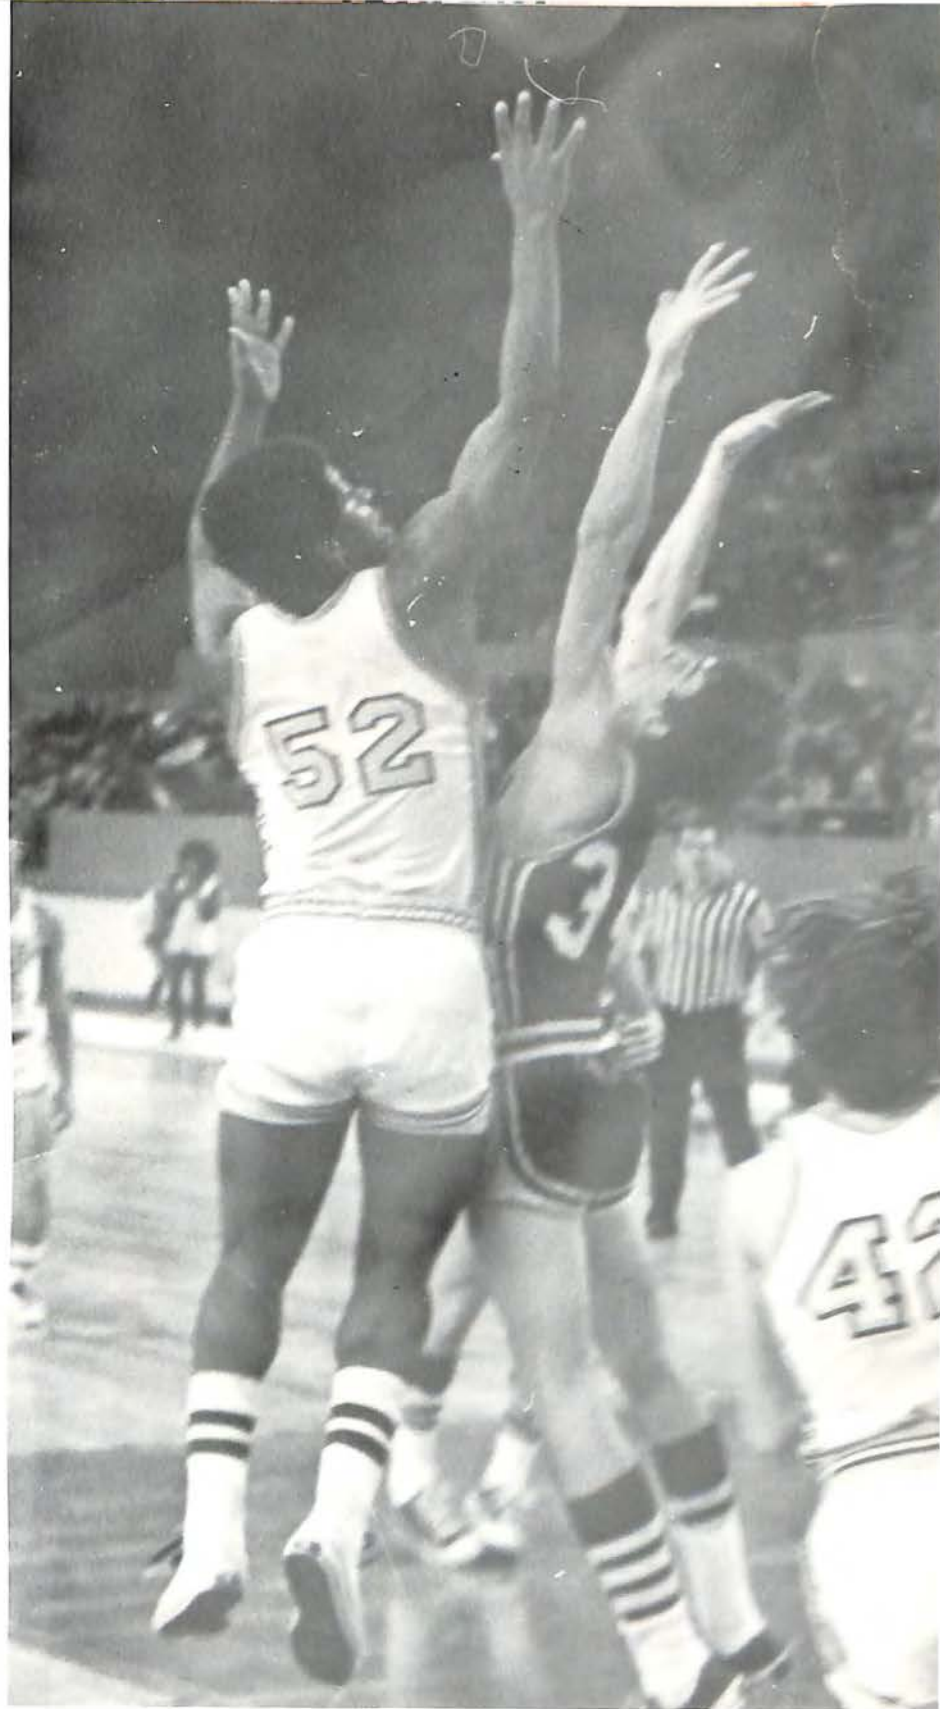

Coach Mosser points out that the ball goes that way.

Achievement of victory brings a glow of satisfaction to Jim McKinzie.

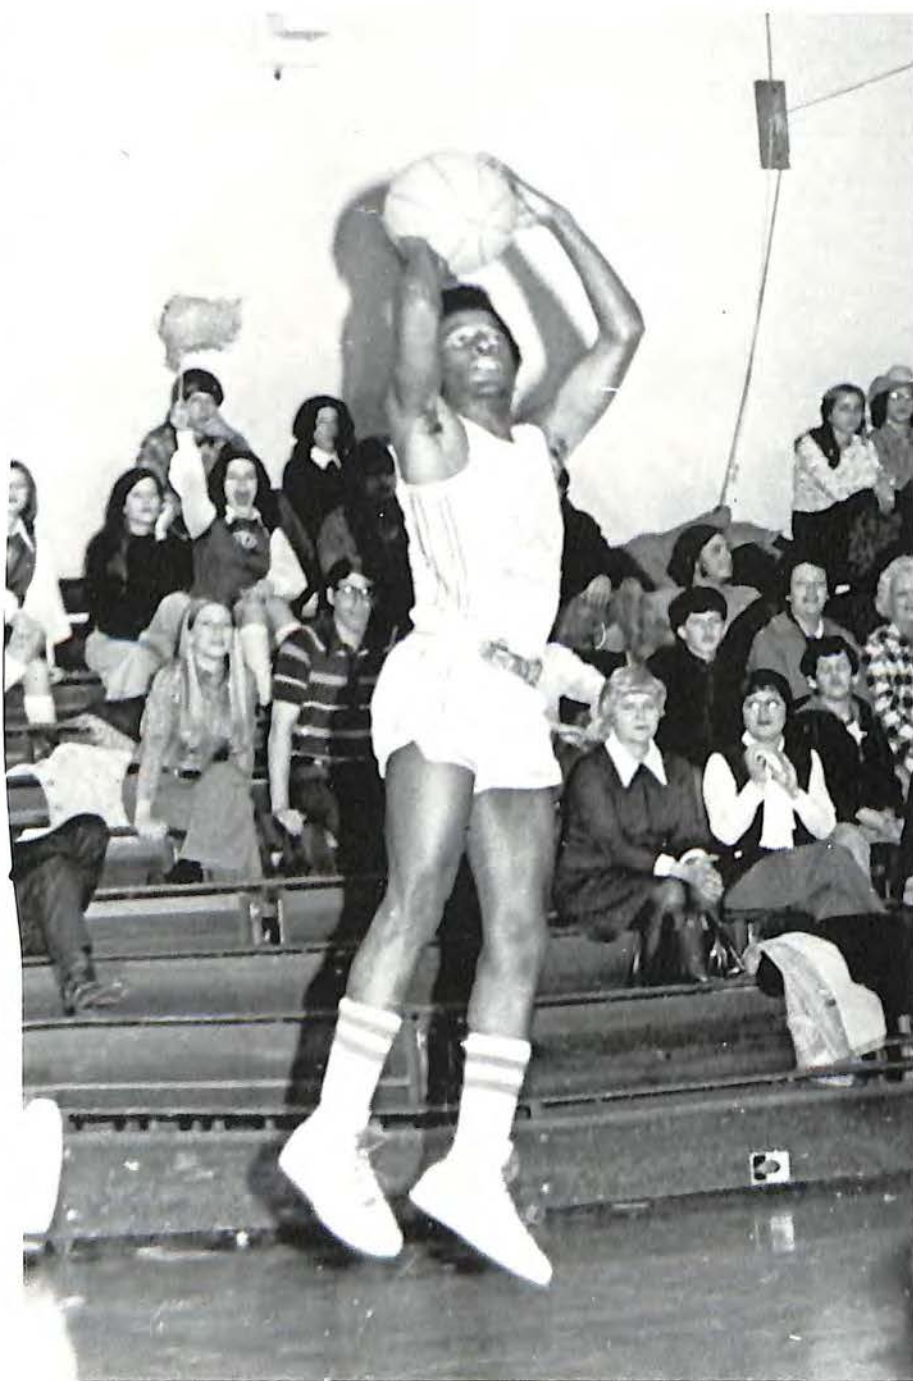

Ricky Harman attempts to recover the ball.

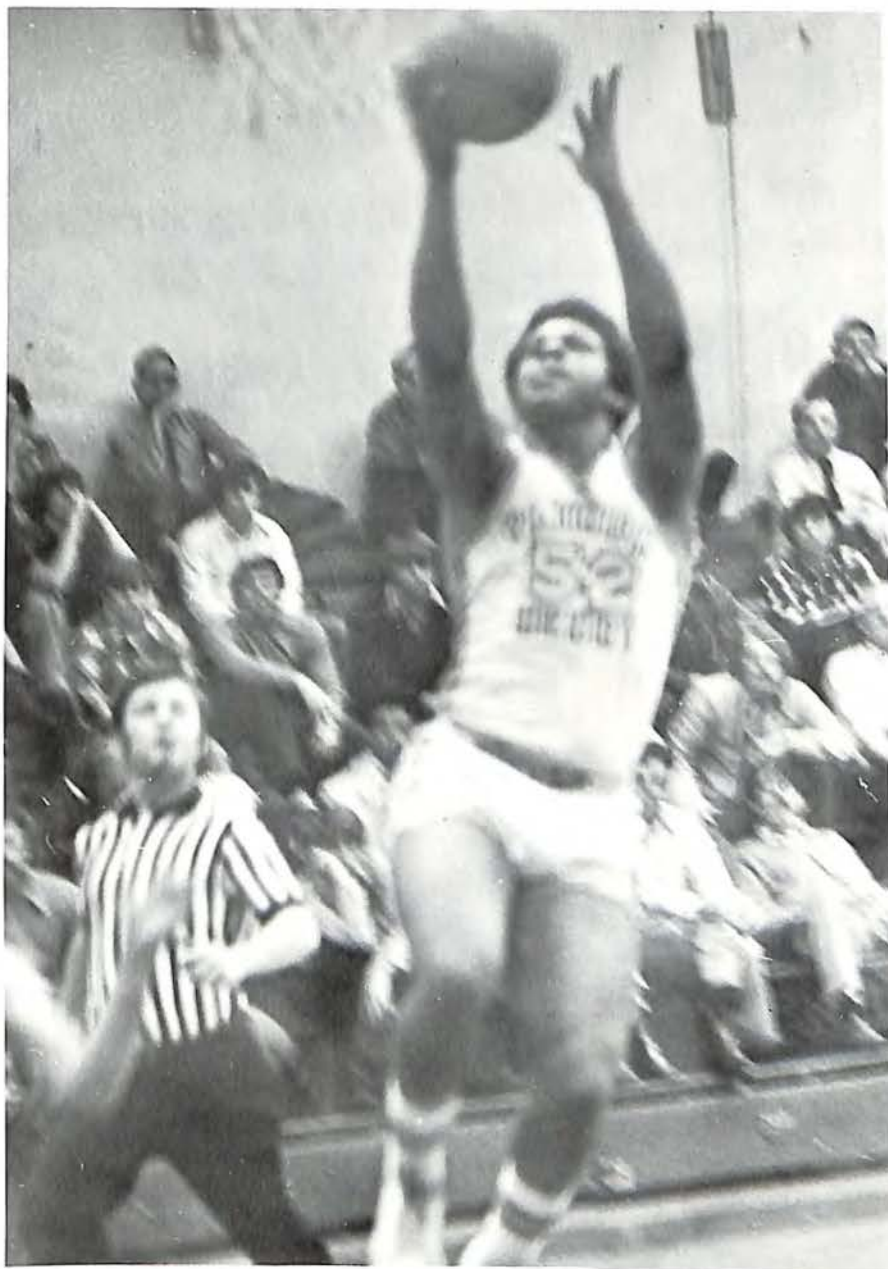

Winston Holland jumps high over a Northside opponent.

Both teams wonder where the ball is going.

Clifton Gunn uses arm muscles to get the ball up the court.

Winston Holland's points added up quickly this season.

 they gave tests —
 i studied till 1:00 a.m.
 they tried to make me physically fit — i ached all over.
 they sponsored my clubs —
 i sold doughnuts.
 they sat next to me at our games —
 i was glad they were there.
 they explained and re-explained —
 i finally understood.
 they tried new methods —
 i felt like a guinea pig.
 they urged, demanded, stressed, begged, tested, questioned, and provoked — i learned.

A class prophecy

Ten years from now, when you pick up this annual, you will have access to at least 15 new electric appliances that don't even exist today!

Electrical innovations will "make the scene" (as we say in 1973) to benefit health, education, industry and our social lives. You'll also see in the next decade more electronic equipment to purify, filter, recycle and generally clean up America.

Electricity is doing a lot of things for you now. It's going to do a lot more tomorrow. Our prediction: life will keep on getting better electrically.

Jeff A Wilson

It + been fun this year in all these days. I've just got to stop it. I've enjoyed being in wave play, & really it.
I think you ought to persevere God bless you & may you have a successful future.

Henry

To Ricky, who is my very favorite playwright and always will be.

Thank you for writing your wonderful play. It showed me so much about life. My favorite song was "Live for the Moment." It is a wonderful philosophy. How you ever put all your thoughts into words and music is beyond me. But I will never forget the sound advice of your songs. As I "pussyfoot" down the street of life - I'll remember who taught me how! I had the best time playing Jenny, and I'm very grateful to you for giving me the part. I only hope that all of us performed your play to at least half of your expectations. I know I tried to.

You have been a wonderful friend to me and one I'll never forget. You are quite a person Ricky, and I will always value your friendship. As someone once said, "You can live without people, but you can't live without friends." In the years to come take care of yourself and live life fully, as I know you will. Don't forget me or the wonderful plays we've shared. Best of luck next year and always.

Love,

Jim (one of Mammari's "pussyfooters")

Ricky, keep up the playwriting, this may be an unprofessional opinion but I think you could really go places in the field. It's been great working with you for the last two years, I'll remember it for a long time. Sorry I let you down in your play, but that's showbiz! Hope to see after high school!

Friends Always,

DAVE ECKMAN

Ricky,

It has been fun acting with you these past two years. I really don't have much to say except I really liked your play and think you have good talent in writing and acting. I hope you don't underestimate yourself in these areas.

God bless you,
Dick Jones

Ricky,
Brooklyn, here we come! But next time, let's make it a drama - they're more my style. I have to admit that I've never understood you & I, at times, haven't liked you. (Just a thing to say in a notebook!) But I respect your talent (I've heard known about it since, it could've been in the Quill!) and your ability to get along with all kinds of people. You are talented, but sometimes I think you put yourself down, which is wrong. Have confidence in yourself! Maybe we'll meet someday in a New York soup line: he's starving poet & you a starving playwright. We'll see each other across the mess of hungry faces ... and ... you'll burst out singing "I've found what I need!" and I'll instantly think of a rhyme: "We'll combine our talents, write, direct & star in a hit play & end up getting rich, with all the champagne in the world at our disposal! Vive la bourgeoisie!"

Good luck always.

Steve, (aka Ruble

Ricky,

Dearest, it's been the greatest fun acting in your show, being in home room together and all those parties — ! Hope to see you this summer and next year.

Love,

Lynn "Silvia" R.

Ricky,

Well we went through Latin last year and English this year and

Ricky,
We've almost finished another great (?) year at P. H.! It seems like it has gone so fast. So much has happened this year! SGA has been an experience. I'm sure that no one will ever forget Mrs. Warden! I'm glad you took Cont. Eur. History this year & I was especially glad to see that you joined the forces to try to get him off the subject. With "Mighty Midget" gone this year, we need all the help we could get!
"All sh a Day's Work" was great! Someday you'll have your name in lights! Best of luck always.
Love,
Anne McIntosh

WELL E.L., OCE BUDDY, SINCE FIRST GRADE I'VE BEEN SICKER OF YOU THAN I CARE TO MENTION... AND NOW FOUR MORE YEARS!!

SERIOUSLY, FOLKS, I GUESS YOU HAVE ENJOYED THIS YEAR AS MUCH AS ME (SIC) SIC...
HOW APPROPRIATE... HOW 'BOUT - AD NAUSEAM -
I'M SURE THINGS COULD ONLY GET BETTER, SO I'LL SEE YOU NEXT YEAR ON THE WEEKENDS IN HORNBY CEXINGTON AS ALWAYS (UNFORTUNATELY)
Robert C. Smith
P.S. I ENJOYED YOUR PLAY, YOU...

Dear Ricky,

It was nice knowing you from Mrs. Ferguson's class.

You are a very talented person and as I always tell, I really loved & enjoyed "All in a Day's Work."

Have a great summer,

Hail
