Roanoke, Virginia Vol. X 1980

Dedication

Here at James Madison, we on the Executive Staff of the yearbook chose to dedicate our yearbook to Mrs. Roslyn Dunn. She was very dedicated to her work and loved what she did.

Her contributions of both time and effort, among other things, gained her a warm place in the hearts of both faculty and students. Because of her experience, she understood both students and teachers, and would always lend a helping hand to anyone who needed it. We were all very sad that she left James Madison and we hope she will return and take up where she left off.

Because we love her so much, we dedicate our 1979-80 yearbook to her, and we hope she will appreciate this book.

Bequests from the Class of '80

I, Donna Marsh, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will the following: To Patty Puckett, a 5 ft. comb; to Missy Irish all the Dales in the world; to Amanda Correll one F on her report card; to Yvette a parrot to talk to; to Mr. Hackley, 50 more pounds; to Becky Hyton, some more boyfriends; to Monique McDonald, a bigger butt; to Mary Moran, a lock on her window; to Mr. Taylor, a new suit; to Mrs. Mushko, 50 pink slips; to Mrs. Jenkins, some more people like me and Monique; to Mrs. Nave, some more bread; to Mrs. Martin, a big trip down the steps; to Mr. Lovell, another person like Patty Puckett.

I, Carolyn Woodard, being of sound mind and body, do will the following: Another couple like Kelly Frazier and Jeannie Chapple; to Marsha Osborne, upcoming great 8th and 9th grade years and all the fun at Madison I've had; and to Mrs. Grayell, two more people to talk like Marshall Langhammar. To Donna Gillespie, someone else to chase like Sut Edlich. To Robbie Saul, someone else to keep secrets for. Thanks Madison for three great years.

I, Marshall Langhammar, will Mrs. Graybill two more people like Carol and myself. I also will Eric Rider best years at Madison like I had. To Mrs. Hurley, I leave two more people to joke around with her. And to Donna Gillespie, I will her to find another boyfriend like Sut.

I, Christine Cutright, being of forgetful mind but great body, do will Holly Burford all of the rat bags she wants and lots of running with Mrs. Hughes; Cynthia Oakey, lots of fun at the "beach"; Joni Burdette, all of the JM's she wants and the ability to "vault" like I do (Ha); to Paul Roller, all of the troubles of my love life; to James Gregory, someone to tell lots of "good" jokes to; Stephen Kepley, someone to be snobby to him and make fun of at basketball; to David Anderson, my ability to draw "froggies"; to Sut Edlich, another winning season in soccer and the ability to kick the ball and not land on his face just like me. And to everyone else, fun at Madison.

I, Stephen Wooster, being of sound mind and great body, leave all my love to Susan Latsko and more beauty to Miss Hoal even though she already has it all and to all the 7th and 8th graders more happy years at Madison.

I, Yvette Brugh, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will the following: To Steve Hall one new shoe; to Julie Bishop a piece of gum; Leroy Parker someone else to pick on him; to Rhonda Gregory someone else to call "snob" in the halls; to Glenn Hyton, someone else to hit him on the bus. To Mrs. Hoal, another great 9th grade class like us. And last but not least I will Saunders a lifetime supply of curling irons.

I, Ashby Coleman, do will the following things: To Holly Burford someone else to talk about the Mr. Bill Show and to say hi in the halls; to Stephen Kepley my back seat on the bus; to Meredith Woodrum the ability I have to teach your brother how to slam dunk at your basket.

I, Jimmy Mallis, being of Greek mind and body, do hereby will the following: To Robert Glemont and Scott Waskey the ability to be a great kicker and punter, like me; to Scott Waskey, the ability to walk down the halls singing Blueberry Hill and catch a wave. To Alex Apostolu, the ability to talk Greek to everybody. To the next kicker and punter of the football team, I will my great kicking foot; to Scott Waskey the ability to be a prep.

I, Jacqueline "Jackie" Price, leave all my teachers, except Mrs. Martin, my locker, etc. To Mary Rose and Connie Mills, I wish good luck throughout their school years and may they have great times! The times that I have had at Madison.

I, Sandy Knighton, being of somewhat sane mind and healthy body, do will the following: To Mary Moran an ounce and the ability to say no to Robert Bair; to Miss Hughes, I leave my wish that she would start smoking and become addicted to drugs; to Mrs. Bristow, I leave a thousand pink slips so she can write up everyone in the school and still have some left. To Diana W., Melinda S., Sue H., Donna M., Monique M., and Becky S., I will one pound to split. To Bradley Carr, I will him a girlfriend who thinks he's as cute as I think he is.

I, Robin McGeorge, do hereby will all the eighth graders all the success that I have had in the 9th grade. "GOOD LUCK".

I, Mariann Henobry, being of sound mind and great body, do will the following: To Rodney Jones, a punch up side his skinny head. Mrs. McCadden, my ability to be late for homeroom. To Ricky Nance, a hug and a kiss... and to all the kids at Madison, a good year.

I, Karen Mills, leave Connie, Lawrence Mills, Tracy, and Mary Rose, the fun and crazy days I had at Madison and my ability to run track and I leave them Mrs. Keller.

I, Trish Hobbs, of partially sound mind and very short body, do hereby subject my last will and testament to the student body of James Madison, Mr. High and faculty. To the G.B. sorority, I will the best of all in everything; to Sara Beamer, I will a lunch chair. To Mrs. Sink, I will her favorite—German chocolate cake. To the Faculty, I will many more tranquilizers to keep them sane for another year. And to all the seventh and eighth graders, I wish them much fun and hard work for their remaining years at James Madison.

I, John Stanley, being of average mind and body, do hereby will: To David Parker, someone to pick on in the locker room; to Brian Jones, an offensive line to get through. Miss Bowles, a trip to the Caribbean all by herself. And I will to all Matadors, the best of luck in the future.

I, India Brown, do hereby proclaim the following: To all the girls whom I gossip with, I leave someone to gossip with. Mrs. Graybill. To Mary Rose, I leave my gym clothes; and to all the eighth graders, the fun and laughs I've had this past year; also, I leave Robin, Nita, and Ruby, a seat on the bus and the lunch tables.

I, Donna Gillespie, being of great mind and sound body, will the following: To Alex Apostolu, someone else to say "oh yeah" too; and to Alan Crookenden, some more notes in Spanish. To Mrs. Parker, another great Spanish class. To Mrs. Jenkins, a more talkative 3rd period. To Carolyn Wooster, more fun with Thomas Osborne. Thanks Madison for a great 3 years.

I, Paul Divers, do will the following: To Melissa Divers, a hard time at Madison and better grades in social studies and English. To Fay Muse, another person like me. Everyone at Madison, have a good time. And also, you too ninth graders.

I, Carl Bramblett, being of sexy mind and body—"whoops", do will the following: To Kris Edwards, JR; to Holly Burford, more people to goof off at the car wash with; to the cheerleaders, all the luck with trying out at PH; to Dean Brandy, another 9th grader to say "hi" to and smile at; to Ben Comer, another one to tease about his limping; and to all of the upcoming 9th graders, a great (last) year at Madison.

I, David Anderson, being of extremely sound mind, (I won't say anything about the body), do will the following items: To Scott Waskey, a place to "catch a wave"; to Suzie "Chap-Stick" Leonard, I give the ability to be as "S-W-E-E-T" as me. To Kelley Frazier, I crown him king of "ACES". To Russell Atkinson, a spoon. To Jimmy Mallis, a son. To John Carder, a stick of butter. And to Ms. Bowles, a band as good as this year.

I, Beth Ann Hostutler, being of COOL mind and coming along body, do hereby will to the following: To Cathy Boardman, somebody to smile at and say "hi" to in the halls; to Mary Comer, another great pal like me; to Julie Bishop, to have the ability to be a great rat mom like her own, "ha, ha". To all the upcoming 9th graders, a great 9th grade year; and last but not least, to Jamie Loftin, another 9th grader to say "Hi Jamie".

I, Melinda Steels, do hereby leave my patience to my brother, Jon Randall Steele and I'd like to leave my empty gum wrappers to Mrs. Graybill.

I, Matt Jeter, in superior mind and body, do hereby will to my brother, Robert Jeter, to have a nice, sweetheart like mine; and Susan Nelson, who I hope can be as courteous as I was; and to John Sellers, who I will all my good qualities.

I, Allison Brown, leave James Madison with a complete grin on my face and leave all my good grades to Mrs. Stephanie Smith, better known as (Peanut); and Missy Divers, all my good teachers for passing me.

I, Mary Schroeder, being of sound mind and body, do will the following: To Mrs. Hurley, someone else to have for 3 years and a year of peace after having Beige for 2 years. Mrs. Parker, another Russell Atkinson. To all the 7th and 8th graders, more great years at Madison like I had. And to the teacher, my brother, Tom.

I, Mary Smith, being completely insane, leave my brother, David Smith, nothing and best wishes to everybody left here.

I, Theodore Bratton, being of no mind and a lot of body, will leave good fortune to all my best friends coming into the ninth grade and hope this will be as lucky to have what I didn't.

I, Phyllis Harris, leave all my valuable work to Barbara Brown and all my bad grades, And the Madison Matadors left over here, all the fun I had at Madison.

I, Debbie Sheffield, being of sound mind and body, hereby will the following: To Andrea Marshall, someone else to tell her not to run in the halls; and to Cindy Strong, someone else's shoe to steal; and everyone I've forgotten, best of LUCK to you.

I, Sheila Cupp, with sound mind and insane body, do will the following: Debbie Cup, all the worst years in Madison that I had. To Randal Edwards, all the cute little (short) girlfriends he can find. And to Mrs. Graybill, two more students in her homeroom just like me; and last but not least, I will Mr. Shulcum another girl just like me to always tell him he is cute.

I, Melanie Gilmer, do will the following: To Jane Gott, a great rat like I had. To Miss Bowles, another terrific flute player like me. To Stephen Kepley, another person to pick on before 4th period. That next year the band's flute section is so big they can't even get in the band room.

I, Daniel Montague, of intelligent mind and body, hereby will my brains to Jeff DeBell.

I, Cheryl Farrell, leave best wishes to my two sisters, Angela and Latericia and most of all, Mrs. Hughes; I hope Mrs. Hughes stays a good athlete and I hope they can succeed the same way I did. (Stay Cool "BETSY")

I, Kim Haley, will all my books and I will all my books; I will Mike Cole and Diana Wort forever. I feel sorry for anybody who has Bristow for math.

I, Jack Avis, being of sound mind and body, do will John Sellers someone else for him to ask stupid questions; to Alex Apostolu, someone smaller than him to all eighth graders on bus 30, the back seats; to Susan Leonard nothing; to Ashley Roysters, nothing.

I, Miller Baber, being of sound mind and body, will Allen Crookenden someone else to hit in the halls.

I, Cindy Pusey, being of sound mind and almost Playboy Bunny body, do hereby will the following: To Michelle Nesbit, the ability to take over the last of Madison's great parties; to Susan Leonard, Mrs. Keller for geometry; to Julie Bishop, some really wild parties; and to all upcoming 9th graders, all the great times I had.

I, Patty Puckett, do make the following will: To Suzie Saunders, thousands of butterflies; to Rhonda Gregory, the word UH; and to Mr. Taylor, the money to fix the school; and Mr. Hackley, all more great 9th graders like us. Wayne, fatter cheeks for Yvette to squeeze. To the upcoming 9th graders, I wish all the luck in the world to them. To James Madison, a brand new roof. I also will Donna Marsh a new boyfriend; to Yvette Brough, diet pills; to Amanda Correll, more books and a radio to hook up to her mouth; Angela Cline more privates to rip up against; Missy Irish, more obscene words to say; Diana Worlife, good health; Patsy Gross, the ability to stand on snow piles.

I, Julie Emidt, of sound mind and body, do will the following: To Senora Parker, an excellent Spanish class; to Mrs. Martin, a new Easter outfit; to Jody and Lori, the ability to hang in there; to Miss Keller, a better geometry class; to Alex, the ability to do Spanish next year; and to the upcoming 7th and 8th grades, good luck next year.

I, Michele Mustard, being of excellent mind and slowly but surely great body, do will the following: To Mary Cathrine, more fun skipping church and things like that; to Kris Edwards, more terrific friends like me; to Alex Apostolu, another 9th grade girl to admire his short and sexy body; to all new cheerleaders, new uniforms, a great captain like we had; and last but not least, I wish everyone the best of luck here at Madison.

I, Doug Hundley, being of sound mind and body do will the following: To my sister Teresa, two more great years at Madison; to Coach Tommy Lovell, a better football team and to try to get a better line than John Stanley. Steve Hall, Duke Baldrige, Branch Carr, and me. And Coach Ray Perry and T.J. Sulcum, better basketball and baseball teams. Good luck to whoever is left. Bassel, another water bottle to hold for a football player.

I, Beth Ann Hostutler, being of COOL mind and coming along body, do hereby will to the following: To Cathy Boardman, somebody to smile at and say "hi" to in the halls; to Mary Comer, another great pal like me, to Julie Bishop, to have the ability to be a great rat mom like her own (ha, ha); to all the upcoming 9th graders, a great 9th grade year; and last but not least, to Jamie Loftin, another 9th grader to say "Hi Jamie".

I, Carrie Bramblett, being of sexy mind and sound body—"whoops", do will the following: To Kris Edwards (J.R.); to Holly Burford, more people to goof off at the car wash with; to the cheerleaders, all the luck with trying out at PH; to Dean Brandy, another 9th grader to say "hi" to and smile at. To Ben Comer, another one to tease about his limping; and to all of the upcoming 9th graders, a great (last) year at Madison.

I, Laverne Stuart, do hereby will my sister, Deborah Stuart, all of the success I have had at James Madison. I will Mrs. Jenkins another 6th period science class (7th) and 3rd period science class (9th grade) like the ones we had. I will JO ANN HUGHES to give everyone F's on their report card when studying about guns. I wish all of the success to the upcoming 7th, 8th, and 9th graders. I wish all of the upcoming cheerleaders lots of success. And a thanks to Mrs. Hurley for new POM PONS—we still got stuck with the old ones for football season. But I'm looking forward to cheering with the new ones during basketball season. To Mr. Hackley and Mr. Lewis, "less trouble with the girls" next year. To Mrs. Graybill, I will another "A" student like myself in General Business and those three wonderful years of typing. To Mr. Frye, another person in Algebra that would try as hard as I did. To Mrs. Dunn, a thank you for being so understanding in 7th and 8th grade and much success to her in the near future. BYE-BYE MADISON—MUCH FUN.

I, John Carder, being of sound mind and "tres chic" body, do hereby bequest the following items: To Steven Kepley, all the women (including the one in the baby blue nightgown) he needs next year. To Gwynne Anne Churchill, I leave another broken leg from "two steps". To Jill Calaghan, Sherry Martin, and Martha Newton, I leave someone with the "shouldergrip" to run into in the halls. To Christine Cutright, someone to totally embarrass her in lunch. To Joni Burdette, another fox. To an upcoming saxist, I leave my bari sax, "Zoot". And last and not least, to Miss Bowles, I leave another untalented sax section like ours.

I, Franklin Haley, being of stoned mind and body, willfully leave all my 9th grade possessions, such as pens, pencils, notebooks and battered classroom books to my darling sister, Kim Haley. Also, I would like to leave Jimmy Loftin all of my bad luck, Mr. Taylor, Killer Keller, etc. And the passageway to the back door through which we used to cut class.

I, Cynthia Oakley, do will the following: To Ellen Smallwood, a rat as terrific as I had; to Suzzette McCoy, another person to sit in front and bug; to Stephen Kopley, enough batter to make a million brownies; to Peter Letkowitz, a life supply of cootie shots; to Jamey Loftin, another person to keep their books in his locker; last but not least, to all the 7th graders, two great years here at Madison and to the 8th graders, a fantastic 9th like I've had.

I, Duke Baldrige, do hereby will to Miss Bowles a band that quits like I did. I leave Todd Elms my hard earned ability to miss the bus. To my favorite teacher at Madison, Mr. Morrison, I leave a box of Arm & Hammer Baking Soda. I leave to Ashley Royster a dumb-bell doll; to Matt Chittum, I give a UNC t-shirt. I leave Mr. Perry & Mr. Lovell a football team much better than the one on which I played the last two years. And last but not least, I leave to Holly Burford all the fun that I had at Madison.

I, Amy Lower, being of sound mind and body, do will the following: To Paul Gee, a person to pick on at the bus stop; to Christy Hammerstrom, a seat on the bus; to Mr. Hackley, a person to call "meaney"; and to all upcoming 9th graders, a terrific year like I had.

I, Corbin White, being of fair mind and decent body, will to Scott Frazier my ability to pass out stuff in Mrs. Hurly's class; to Paul Gee, my great style of sideline walking; to Steve Kopley, I leave Kermie; to Miss Bowles, another fantastic baritone section as we had in 8th grade; and to Todd Moore, mine and Michael Parker's fantastic baby-baritone.

I, Angela Bradshaw, of sound mind and body, do will my brother John, some of his best school years; to Mrs. Nave, another office assistant like me; to all my teachers here at Madison, students who wish to thank you for your time and effort like me; and to all of Mrs. Keller's geometry students, time to study and work and a good memory.

I, David Anderson, being of extremely sound mind (I won't say anything about the body), do will the following items: To Scott Waskey, a place to "catch a wave"; to Suzie "Chap Stick" Leonard, I give the ability to be as "s-w-a-e-l" as me; to Kelly Frazier, I crown him king of "ACES"; to Russell Atkinson, a spoon; to John Gardner, a stick of butter; and to Ms. Bowles, a band as good as this year.

I, Libby Semones, will to Jill Calahan the band and Miss Bowles; to Elizabeth Ewert, Mrs. Cooley; to Michelle Nesbit, Mrs. Mushko for another year of fun; to Mrs. Mushko, someone to ride the extras at the stables; and the rest of students below the freshman class of 1980, a great stay at Madison.

I, Branch Carr, being of sound mind and body, tall body, do will the following: To Michelle Nesbit, I leave a briefcase full of cassettes; to Robert Clement, my ability to block on the frontline; and to my brother, another shirttail to hand out.

I, Robin Jones, do will the following: To all the upcoming 7th, 8th, and 9th graders, all of my success; and just have fun as I had.

I, Sara Peterson, being of sound mind and body, do will the following: To Tracy Smithson, another Cott Waskey to fall in love with; to Gwin Ann Churchill and Stacey Mork, a seat behind me in class; to Leigh Graham, I leave "a hunk" exactly the way she wants him; to Mrs. Parker, another French II class; to Mrs. Hurley, another year to grow a year older; to Elizabeth Vail, I leave all my "zits"; to Ellen Smallwood, I leave someone to walk home with (preferably of the male sex); to Melanie Hall, a great time in the G.B.'s; and to all the upcoming ninth graders, a great time in your freshman year!

I, Sharon Smith, do will my cousin Cindy Campbell, the best of success over at James Madison for the two years she has left. I wish Laverne Stuart (SOME), probably (ALL) of the nice looking dues. I wish JoAnn Hughes the best success in the future in all. And for Gracey Bosworth, I wish the best success for all the yearbooks she has come up with and hope that she will keep up the good work. Later Sharon Smith.

I, John Tompkins, being of not so sound mind and body, will Julie Bishop a "Stop Vandalism" sign and a car antenna. To Steve Hale, the front seat of the bus; to Ashley Royster, a bad grade in Mr. Ross's class; to Alex Apostolu, the security of knowing his locker won't be slammed every other day before lunch; to Frank Hancock, I leave my football skills; and to Dennis Cook, I leave my wings. Finally, last and definitely least, I leave Lee Graham a date with Frank Hancock, whom she has been admiring all year.

I, Susan Wood, being the beholder of a fabulous body, well maybe not "so" fabulous, do will the following: To Ricky Lettwich, I leave a Bob Seger belt buckle and a Silver Bullit. To my brother Greg, I leave an absentee sheet every day, since he loves to admire his name so much; to my dear friend, "Missy Nichols", I leave "Steven Tyler"; to Tony Rakes, I leave a "Brand New" Rainbow Bread T-Shirt; to Mr. Taylor, I leave another student like myself to come in tardy every day; to all the 7th and 8th graders, I leave a "diary".

I, Shella Cupp, with sound mind and insane body, do will the following: Debbie Cupp, all the worst years in Madison that I had; to Randal Edwards, all the cute little (short) girlfriends he can find; to Mrs. Graybill, two more students in her homeroom just like me; and last but not least, I will to Mr. Shulcum another girl just like me to always tell him he is cute.

I, Melissa Brooks, do will to the following: To Glen Hyton, another girl like me to trust him; to Mr. Shulcum (snucms), another girl to say "Hi" to every morning; to Donna Janney, another girl like me to get into a fight with all the time; to Donna Lavinder, another person to cuss out; to Linda Sawyers, a place to sit at lunch; to Shannon Carr, another girl like me to call a dog; to Joey Rakes, all the good times I had at Madison, don't get too many girls; and to all the 7th and 8th graders, a lot of good times.

I, Alice Stockton, being of sound mind and short body, do hereby make the following will: To Jody Katz, (my very own rat) and Holly Burford (my very own "little sister"), I will a fantastic future in the G.B. Sorority; to Mary Katherine Ewart, I will the ability to tame her hyper tongue; to Michelle Nesbit, I will all the cute guys and weekends she can handle; to Alex Apostolu, I will a pinch; to Todd Turner, I will the ability to boss his big brother around the way I can; to Jimmy Mallis, I will a picture of my wet "lollipop stick" and legal proof that I'm part Greek just like him; to Susan Latsko, I will another 9th grader to yell "hi" to all the time; to John Sellers, I will something else to stare at in the movie theater; and to all future Madison cheerleaders, I will tons of pep, a responsive crowd and maybe even new uniforms.

I, Melissa Kay Wilcher, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath the following: To Mrs. Hoover and Mrs. Wertz, one quiet class; to Mrs. Jenkind, a clear night for star-gazing.

I, Matt Jeter, being of superior mind and body, do hereby WILL to my brother, Robert Jeter, a sweet, nice heart like mine; to Susan Nelson, my courtousness; to John Sellers, all of my good qualities.

I, Robyn Little, being of no mind and body not worth mentioning, leave my unmentionable body to Susan Leonard; I leave Danny Hart, since I was will him last year; to Jeannie Chappalear, I leave a tree and a muzzle; to Michelle Nesbit, I leave, so I won't have to party with her anymore; to Bradley Carr, I leave a great big kiss, redeemable anytime, anywhere.

To the parties left, I leave a flask of Jim Beam in my locker. That's all!

I, Cindy Pussey, being of sound mind and almost Playboy Bunny body, do hereby will the following: To Michelle Nesbit, the ability to take over the last of Madison's great parties; to Susan Leonard, I leave Mrs. Keller for geometry; to Julie Bishop, I leave some really wild parties; and to all upcoming 9th graders, I leave all the great times I had.

I, Norvell West, of insane mind and good body, hereby will the following to Martha Newton, somebody to bug in the cafeteria; and to Mrs. Dunn another 4th period class like ours last year; and to Susan Lundy, someone to throw an egg at her next Halloween.

I, Jan Lowe, being of sound mind and body do will the following: To Ashley Royster, more people to pull on her loop and many more sockets to stick her fingers in (hair); to Susan Nelson, more boys to flirt with and to keep her mind off of them in class; to Martha Newton, another cheering year at Madison; and all other violinist, another great year; to all the seventh and eighth graders, the best of luck in the years to come.

I, Richard Cheadle, do will the following: To Jamie Loftin, the ability to grow; to Mrs. Keller, more last minute students like myself; to Sara Beamer, I will a chair to sit in during lunch; to Susan Leonard, give the right to beat L.L. in tennis; to Tracy Smithson, I will a million Waskeys; to Ashley Royster, I will Paul Roller; and to Mr. Parker, a blindfold for the 1981 tennis season.

I, Russell Atkinson, being of totally insane mind and body, with radiations phasing my brain at all times, will Esteban another pair of sun glasses and the power to make it through next year without complete misery; Matt Chittum, the power to NEVER EVER throw down his hat at a football game; Kelly Ferry, good luck with Mrs. Parker next year; Mrs. Hurley, some more liars, cheaters, thieves, and destructionists; Mr. Parker, someone to call him "Stud".

I, Amy Jo Wheeler, being of sound mind and body, do hereby make the following bequests: To Scott Waskey, I will a comb; to my rat, Jenny Repass, I will my ability to survive imitation; to Tracy Smithson, I will a pocketbook; to Kent Blackburn, I will a lot more messages and my love; to Ben Comer, Jamey Loftin, Spencer Edmunds, Johnny Sarber, and Kevin Peter, I will many more great years; to Holly Burford and Cathy Boardman, I will the best of luck in the G.B.'s and school; to all of the 7th and 8th graders, I will more terrific years at Madison.

I, Jennifer Durham, do hereby will the following: To Allan Crookenden, a lot more books to read and three more people like Susan, Julie and I to sit with in lunch; and to Robert Clement, another person to bug in science; to Steve Hale, another ex-girlfriend like me; to Alex Apostolu another O-yea and a great Spanish II with Sara Parker.

I, Stephen Wooster, being of sound mind and great body, leave all of my love to Susan Latsko, and more beauty to Mrs. Hoal, even though she has it all. To all 7th and 8th graders, I leave more happy years at Madison, and to Ricky Nancy, may he not have 9th grade math.

I, Paul Roller, do hereby will the following: To Miss Bowles, the right to have a good low brass section and a decent boyfriend; to Mr. Perry, I will Steve Kopley to follow me up as Chester; to Mr. Lovell, football players with some talent; to Mr. Shulkum, a national "Pick on Shulkum Day"; to my ninth grade class, the best of luck at PH; to the rest of the school, some better memories than the ones I've had; and last to Mr. Mooreman, I will as many "Egg-a-muffins" as he can eat.

I, Kelly Frazier, being of sound body and deteriorating mind (because of three years at Madison), do will to my brother, Scott, all the luck in sports and the fun that I've had at Madison. To Jeannie Chappalear, as fun of a 9th grade year as I had and luck to keep us from breaking up. To Brian Davis, who will replace me next year at fullback in football, a good season and I hope he lets you run somewhere besides the middle. To all the teachers, "Good luck with my brother!!"

I, Sut Edlich, being of sound mind (and that's about it), hereby will the following: To Jeff Debell, a right foot to go with the two left feet he already has; to James Gregory, my ability to play basketball; to the 7th and 8th grade clarinetists, my wonderful marching and playing talent; and good luck to all future ninth graders at Madison.

I, Yvette Brugh, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will the following: To Steve Hall, one new shoe; to Julie Bishop, a place of gum; Leroy Parker, someone else to pick on him; to Rhonda Gregory, someone else to call "snob" in the hall; to Glen Hyton, someone else to hit him on the bus; to Mrs. Hoal, another great 9th grade class like us; and last but not least, I will Saunders a lifetime supply of curling iron.

I, Marshall Langhammer, will Mrs. Graybill two more people like Carolyn and Myself. I also will Eric Rider best years at Madison like I had. To Mrs. Hurley, I leave two more people to joke around with her; and at last to "DONNA GILLESPIE", I will her to find another boy like SUT.

I, Becky Stewart, being of burntout mind and dummy body, do hereby leave Sue Huss a small model of New York so she will feel at home and her own store full of New York clothes. To Monique McDonald, I leave straight hair. To Patty Puckett, Diana Wolfe, Mary Moran, Melinda Steel, Sandy Knighton, Dreema Markan, Donna Marsh, and Patsy Gross, one "FANTASTIC" PARTY!!!

I, Melissa Irish, do will Donna Marsh a pound of pot, and another fight with Doug; Yvette Brugh, a tweety bird and another compliment; Sandra Knighton, to look exactly like Mar Moran; Amanda Correll, another report card with straight A's; Patty Puckett, all the combs in the world; to Drema Markham, all the bathroom passes; to Mr. Hackley, one more hood to suspend; and to all the 7th graders and 8th, a better 9th grade year, and to Mrs. Hoal, another TERRIFIC 4th period class and a pom-pom hood, plus another stupid 1st period class; and last but not least, to myself I will Dale Hartman.

WE, Mike Brices, being of sound minds and bodies, do leave zelta owe baratore to another baratore player as good as us; another Cheerio Hidout to Jimmy Malice's little brother; to Susan Leonard, somebody else to use her bathroom and get caught; and to Melinda Steel, who will probably be here next year, all the guys she wants.

I, Beige Boylston, being of sound mind and highly muscular body, do will the following: To Mr. Frye, a pair of pants with a zipper that works; to Alex Apostolu, someone else to proclaim him as a sex god; to all the seventh grade dudes, a date with the brides of Funkenstein; to Susan Latsko, someone else to molest her towels with Elton John on them; and to the chalkboards of Madison, someone else to write E.J.H. on them.

I, Walter Rose, leave to my little brother, all the fun I had with the girls and to my sister, all the good times and bad times I had with the teacher.

I, Shannon Rabby, being of superior mind and body, hereby bequeath these things: To Sut Edlich, my skill in soccer; to Jeff DeBell, a one-way ticket to New Guinea; and to all of those poor victims on Halloween, wait till next year!

I, Lisa Cupp, do will my cousin, Lori Cupp, the best of luck in her next year at Madison. I also wish the best of luck to the upcoming 9th graders. And to Mrs. Furrow, another wild and crazy student like me.

I, Donna Johnson, do hereby will all the 7th graders, you're moving up in the world; 8th graders, you're making it; and 9th graders, you've made it. "Give yourself a hand."

I, Melinda Johnson, do will that Mr. Hackley will have more and better years at Madison.

I, Rob Duckwall, being of sound mind and excellent body, do hereby will a "Battle Star Galactica" cruiser to Michelle Nesbit; 10 hours of wasted time to the Monogram Club; and to all the upcoming 9th grade girls, I leave the SEX MACHINE, Jay Lugar.

Class Prophecy 1980

The Matador can see the future and knows what is in store for some of the ninth graders in the year 2020.

Sut Edlich quit school to become a professional soccer player on the first All-American soccer team.

Cynthia Oakey became a great flutist and dug graves in the dead of night for extra money.

Rob Duckwall tried out for the lead part in "Star Wars", but ended up playing R2-D2 and now lives in a portable outhouse in Beverley Hills.

Dana Billingsly set a record in the Guinness Book of World Records for the thinnest man in the world.

Patsy Gross decided she wanted a change in life and became a nun.

In her senior year at Harvard, Jan Lowe was admitted to a "detox center" and as a result was expelled.

Donna Gillespie started out as a model but ended up doing domestic work in Iran.

Robyn Reynolds became a highly paid cosmetologist in New York and was promoted to editor of Glamour magazine.

Paul Roller inherited a harem from his deceased brothers and moved to Cambodia where he worked for the Sanitation Department.

Every student at James Madison is a member of the Student Cooperative Association, since this is the body that governs student affairs. Some students are actively involved, and serve as S.C.A. Homeroom Representatives or Alternates or in other service functions. S.C.A. members man the pencil sales desk in the front lobby, frequently keep up the hall bulletin boards, sponsor a Christmas Dance and a Spring Formal, and find any number of ways to serve the school. Sponsor for this group is Mrs. Geneva Jenkins.
