Her Own Separate Peace

Dedication Announcement: Tears of Joy

Teaching English With John Hardwick
In Charge

Wearing Her Corsage With Pride

Mrs. Elizabeth C. Hardwick

1985 Matador Dedication

To dedicate this year's Madison Matador, staff members presented their opinions, then voted.

We considered the qualities we wanted, and we decided on someone who teaches a class that was hard enough to be challenging but also fun.

The teacher whom we chose has strong views that we can dispute, although always in vain, because she has facts or statements to support her ideas.

Every day in class she shares her own experiences and ideas with us, so we go far beyond the subject of English.

She is always helping students with English or any other thing we may need. She was also instrumental in organizing the impressive ninth grade graduation assembly.

She's a lady with her own Separate Peace. We dedicate the 1985 Madison Matador to:
