Class Wills

I, Annette Poore, do will Allan Godsmith my ability to get a chair in the lunch room, Jeff Wool my lucky number 13 and all the trash inside of it, Jay Laprade a pair of 10 inch heeled shoes so he can look down on Mr. Moore, My last and testament will go to the future ninth graders . . . Good Luck!

I, Ginger Noce do hereby make the following will: To Jay Noce my lovable Geometry teacher, Miss Keller; to Miss Keller my brother, Jay, who's another Phillip Christian; to Phillip Markley ten lessons on how to be a better quarterback; to Tim, the tiger Unberger, another ninth-grader to follow around and give a pat on the back, and finally to Doug Henson my ability to play basketball.

I, Mary Airheart, do make the following will: To Margaret Guerrant I leave the ability to pass all of Miss Keller's Geometry tests: to Stella Mitchell, I leave the ability to get a seat on the back of the bus; to Chris Rogers and Andy Pitzer, I leave the ability to become an officer of the Social Studies Club and to all of the 7th and 8th graders, I leave all the good times I've had at Madison.

I, Donna Stovall, do will Liza Field a new song to sing on the bus since she can't think of another one.

I, Karen Apostolou, do will Linda O'dell all my bad grades in French and a life size picture of me; to Mrs. Martin a life size doll of Annette Poore and to Mrs. Hoal 100 mallets to bang on the desk; to my sister two great years at Madison.

I, Phillip Christian, do will Mr. Moorman all the money, praise, credit, and football players he can claim; to Mrs. Belcher a dime and to Mr. Taylor the best year ever.

I, Jana Lindemann, do will Catherine Baldridge and Lisa Strong to Miss Keller for geometry; to Mrs. Graybill a sink; to Mrs. Heal a microphone and cotton for her students' ears; to everyone else, I will all the strange times I've had at Madison.

I, Marie Van Liere, do will Connie a good rat like I had.

I, Verlain Melvin, do will Miss Hughes my ability to stop sliding on the basketball team.

I, Leslie Jennings, do make the following will: To Martha Gordge, I leave all the cheese curls in the world; to Mark Holdren (Dimples) a pair of chopsticks and a box of Wheaties; to Donna White I leave a tube of white paint and a hotfoot skateboard.

I, Shawn Hill, do will Eddie Smith my 85 lbs. of dough and the official title of "Doughboy of Madison Jr. High" and my "Alaskan Ice Cubes" they never melt. I will, Teddy Comer my ability to shoot a basketball at the wrong basket. There is more to it than you think.

I, Janice Dunbar do will Judy Robertson my ability to get to school on time and my peace and fun I have had at Madison, in the years 1973-76.

I, Rober Knapp, do will Jimmy Barnes my ability to get to class on time and David Knapp my ability to have good grades.

We, Mary Myers and Sara Low, do will Mrs. Cornwell more lovable students like US!

I, Elizabeth Haner, do will Charlie Farrelly my sister Melanie Haner.

I, Kelly Edwards, do will Becky Katz the ability to have the year with Miss Keller I never had.

I, Ana Hathaway, do will the following: to Kay Bently a flower garden; to Ginny Robinson and Joan Linkous, my ability to party and stay up all night and to the eighth grade girls, a bunch of Sammy Lowmans.

I, Doug Huggett, do will Tim Eads a football team next year with a record as good as ours was this year.

I, Stacy Beck hereby will Mark Holdren all the chop suey he can eat, and to Mrs. Mushko I will another drama class like the fifth period.

I, Paul McCusker, do will Billy Lemack a smaller nose; Steven Graybill a wrapper for his butterball; and to Jim Bishop and Doug Atkinson a shhh-for the weight set.

I, Cindy Hammond, do will Constance Apostolou Miss Hughes as a softball coach for two years.

I, Bill Fisher, do will Mrs. Sink my torn-up jeans.

I, Cheryl Young, do will Sylvia Williams all my teachers and Judy Reynolds Mrs. Martin. To Miss Hughes all the luck with the softball, baseball and volleyball teams.

I, Claire Little, do will Charlie Farrelly one year to persuade Mrs. Mushko to put a "War and Peace" and "Gone With The Wind" on the Madison stage.

CHANGING PLACES

Mrs. Dorothy Dillard, a dedicated music teacher in the Roanoke City School System for many years now changes her place as a staff member of James Madison for another role as a private citizen. Many students will feel the impact of the great work done by this educator. Mrs. Dillard, we are going to miss you!
