James Madison Middle School

home of

The Matadors

At James Madison Middle School you will see smiling faces and then brows furrowed in concentration. You will feel the energy on the field and the creativity in the art room. On any day, you can hear the music from chorus, band and orchestra. The friendships and camaraderie are ever present at James Madison. Everyday we are Matadors. Everyday we are friends learning, working and playing together. We are all a part of the family that is James Madison Middle School.

2013 Matador is Dedicated to Ms. Jacqueline Mitchell

The 2013 Matador is dedicated to Ms. Jacqueline Lee Mitchell, English Teacher. The eighth grade students recommended Ms. Mitchell for a variety of reasons. They appreciate her energy. She helps them "be better writers." One student offered, "she makes class fun!" Ms. Mitchell also sponsors the Health & Fitness Club and works with students after school in Writing Bootcamp.

This is Ms. Mitchell's first year at James Madison. Originally from Naples, NY, she is a graduate of SUNY - Potsdam and The University of Virginia. When she is not in front of the Smart Board, she is usually spending time with her two dogs, Ha-lei and Luyah (Hallelujah). She is also an acoustic guitarist and an accomplished singer/songwriter with two videos on YouTube.

Ms. Hogan says, "Ms. Mitchell has so much passion for her craft, her classroom and her students!"

Ms. Mitchell became a teacher in order "to discover the truth once and for all." She adds, "My students teach me new things everyday! They know the answers to everything!"

Ms. Janet Curry is Madison's Teacher of the Year

Ms. Janet Curry is JMMS Teacher of the Year! Ms. Curry, the Artist in Residence at Madison for the past three years, is a favorite of both her students and her peers. She adds so much to the fine arts programs and is a bright spot in the day for her students! Along with teaching art, Ms. Curry also sponsors the Art Club.
