Dedication

The 91-92 Yearbook Staff chose a teacher who has been here since Madison opened. The recipient taught for thirty years, twenty-one years of coaching and teaching at Madison, and nine years at Booker T. Washington. He is an excellent Science, Math, and Horticulture teacher. Through Madison, he has participated in community services such as Jump Rope for Heart and United Way.

For all these reasons, the 91-92 Yearbook Staff feels that Mr. Raymond Perry deserves this honor.

Here are some more unusual facts about Mr. Perry that teachers have shared with us:

Q: What is the funniest memory about Mr. Perry?

— "It was the first year we were working together as teammates and our first dance for the new Middle School. No one was dancing until Mr. Perry got on the dance floor and everyone began to dance. For this reason it changed my whole image of him, from a mean, touchy coach to a warm, funny teacher." — Mrs. Alderson

— "I remember Mr. Perry falling to the ground laughing over something a student did." — Mr. Childress

Q: What comes to mind when you think of Mr. Perry?

— "He cares for all students and shows good sportsmanship." — Ms. Taylor

— "Attention toward every student in any class." — Mrs. Wertz

— "Great teacher and motivator; goes beyond more than expected." — Mr. Bowles

— "Not only does he coach basketball but coaches his students in the classroom as well." — Mrs. Alderson

Q: What is the most memorable event of Mr. Perry?

— "He can tell more jokes than anyone"

— "Same room and chairs for twenty-one years." — Mrs. Alderson

Q: Describe Mr. Perry in your own words.

— "Great cook, good source for plant information." — Ms. Taylor

— "Does more than necessary" — Mr. Bowles

"Dedication toward students" — Mrs. Wertz

— "Mr. Perry explains to his students how to get along and survive in the real world." — Mrs. Alderson

— "Mr. Perry is the rock of our team: I've learned a lot from him." — Mrs. Pumo
