"A DECADE OF EXCELLENCE"

TEN YEARS AGO, JAMES MADISON JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL BECAME KNOWN AS JAMES MADISON MIDDLE SCHOOL. MANY CHANGES TOOK PLACE THAT FIRST YEAR AS A MIDDLE SCHOOL SUCH AS A TWO-THIRDS CHANGE IN TEACHERS AND STAFF, NEW ENRICHMENT COURSES INSTEAD OF THE TRADITIONAL HOME ECONOMICS AND INDUSTRIAL ARTS CLASSES, NEW SCHEDULING INCLUDING TAGS, AND A NEW GRADE LEVEL BEGINNING WITH THE SIXTH GRADE THROUGH THE EIGHTH GRADE INSTEAD OF THE NINTH GRADE WHICH MOVED TO THE HIGH SCHOOL. MADISON ALSO BEGAN TO GROW AS THE MAGNET SCHOOL OF TECHNOLOGY AND COMPUTER SCIENCE.

SINCE THAT FIRST YEAR, MADISON HAS CONTINUED TO GROW AND TO CHANGE. COMPUTERS ARE USED IN EVERY CLASSROOM. TEACHERS AND STAFF HAVE CHANGED. WE HOSTED MANY DIFFERENT SCHOOLS AS OTHER ROANOKE CITY SCHOOLS WERE RENOVATED. MADISON CONTINUED TO STRIVE FOR EXCELLENCE IN EDUCATION AND CONTINUES NOW AS OUR STUDENTS AND TEACHERS PREPARE FOR THE STATE STANDARDS OF LEARNING ASSESSMENT TESTS. WE NO LONGER HAVE TAGS, BUT STUDENTS FEEL A SENSE OF BELONGING TO EACH INDIVIDUAL TEAM. TEAMS HAVE BLENDED TOGETHER TO FORM A MORE UNIFIED GRADE LEVEL. THE BAND AND STRINGS PROGRAM HAS INCREASED IN SIZE AND ACHIEVEMENT. STUDENTS ARE TAKING MORE CARNEGIE UNIT CLASSES IN BOTH MATHEMATICS AND FOREIGN LANGUAGES. WE DO NOT KNOW WHAT THE NEXT CENTURY WILL BRING, BUT WE DO KNOW THAT MADISON WILL CONTINUE ITS EXCELLENCE IN EDUCATION.

YEARBOOK STAFF

The Yearbook Staff works very hard from September until March to design and create an outstanding yearbook for James Madison Middle School. This year was no exception. Students from 6th grade through 8th grade met every Monday from 2:00pm until 3:00pm to design the layouts, take pictures and organize this year's yearbook. The following students worked diligently to make this year an exceptional yearbook.

Stacy Black

David Fifer

Carter Varner

Whitney Norbo

Elizabeth Baar

Peyton Youngblood

Sallie Embrey

Matt Price

Kathleen Carew

Marissa Bannister

DEDICATION

Every year, the yearbook staff has a very hard decision to make. The staff must decide on to whom to dedicate the yearbook. This year was no exception. The staff listed numerous staff members who go beyond their regular duties to help the school and the students. The yearbook staff eventually decided upon a group of very hard working individuals whose job is sometimes overlooked by the people at the school. This year the 1998-1999 Madison Matador Yearbook is dedicated to the James Madison Middle School custodial staff which includes Mr. Walter Cox, Mrs. Pam Sartin, Mrs. Sandra Scott, and Mr. Ra Siv. These dedicated employees work inexhaustibly to keep our school clean. They keep our floors tidy, our mirrors shiny, and our school all around squeaky clean every day of the week. We are grateful for their service to us and to our school.

SLIPPERY WHEN WET

by
David Fifer

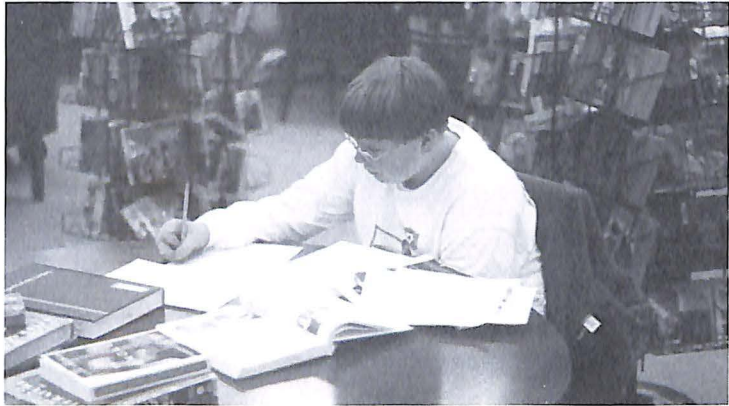

Floppy flop flop, look at 'em mop,
They never stop,
And never drop,
Their bucket of suddsy solution.

Moppity mop mop,
Those floors look on top.

And thanks a bunch,
'Cause when I lost my lunch,
It probably looked really nasty.

SCA

The Student Council Association Officers:

President:	Tessa English-Bey
Vice President:	Jamie Payne
Secretary:	Jayci Bowden
Treasurer:	Page Garrett

The Student Council Association is an organization that allows the student body to have an input into different events at James Madison Middle School. Each grade level chooses representatives and alternates who attend meetings and work together for the benefit of the school. They report back to their peers the discussions of the meetings and take back student input for the meetings. This year the SCA conducted a food drive for Christmas donations to the Salvation Army. The SCA also sponsored the Winter Blast dance and the Spring Fling dance for all students. The SCA sponsors are Mrs. Cole and Mrs. Wert.

SPELLING BEE WINNER

Every year the students at James Madison Middle School participate in classroom spelling bees in their English classes. The top students from each class then participates in a school wide spelling bee. This year the first place winner was Barry Wirt, an eighth grader from the Crazy 8's team. Barry represented Madison at the City-wide Spelling Bee where he won first place. The spelling bee is sponsored by the Roanoke Times newspaper. Congratulations Barry!!!!

OFFICE WORKERS

James Madison is lucky to have a group of hard working students who spend one block a day helping the secretaries in the office with their duties. The students copy materials for teachers, answer the telephone, run errands for the office, and perform many other clerical duties. The office workers even painted the mailbox outside. Office workers are seventh and eighth graders who work during first, second, fifth and sixth block. The office workers this year are:
