YEARBOOK STAFF

The Yearbook Staff works very hard from September until March to design and create an outstanding yearbook for James Madison Middle School. This year was no exception. Students from 6th grade through 8th grade met every Monday from 2:00pm until 3:00pm to design the layouts, take pictures and organize this year's yearbook. The following students worked diligently to make this year an exceptional yearbook.

Eighth Grade Staff:

Maggie Bartlett
Teresa Johnson
Amber Monroe
Kellie Reynolds

Seventh Grade Staff:

James Foutz
Whitney Norbo
Carter Varner

Sixth Grade Staff:

Stephanie Bourne
Maggie Dorsey
Latoya Edwards
Emily Equi
Lydia Higgs
Jessica Smith
Alicia Spangler

Dedication

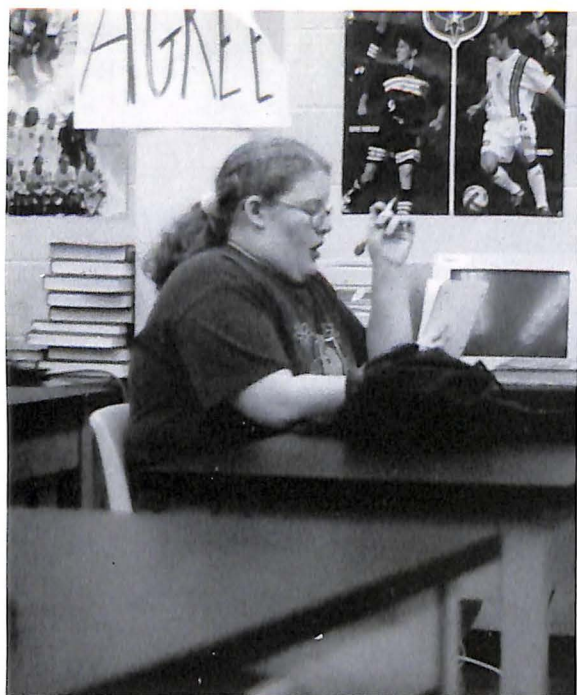

Every year, the yearbook staff has a hard decision to make. The staff must decide on to whom to dedicate the yearbook. This year was no exception. The staff listed numerous staff and faculty members that they believe go beyond the call of duty to help the school and the students. The yearbook staff finally chose a very talented person for this award. This person has been a member of the Madison staff for many years. She has helped Madison become the technology magnet school of Roanoke City. With her constant desire to learn, she has become Madison's chief authority on technology. She troubleshoots problems with the computers and with audio visual equipment. She makes sure that the computer labs are running smoothly and that teachers are well knowledgeable about new uses of technology. She works extremely well with the faculty and students. She has helped to bring Madison to the year 2000 in technology. She is a valuable asset to our school. For these reasons and many more, the 1999-2000 yearbook is dedicated to Mrs. Jan Wertz.
