The mystery "Orange Man" and his faithful sidekick welcome students to the Fruit Bash.

Congratulations to JMMS for passing the SOLs 5 years in a row!

Supportive JMMS students cheer on the girls basketball team!

Yearbook Staff

The yearbook staff stayed busy selecting the yearbook cover, designing the page layouts, choosing the yearbook dedication, taking pictures, and writing captions.

2004-2005 JMMS Yearbook Dedication

Mrs. Keith and Mrs. Phillips

In an effort to recognize their invaluable contributions to JMMS, the yearbook staff selected Mrs. Keith and Mrs. Phillips as the recipients of the 2004-2005 yearbook dedication. They are the "unsung heroes" in the front office who keep the school running smoothly.

Thank you for caring so much and making JMMS a great place to be! We appreciate your hard work!

Smile Pretty

Mrs. Phillips poses with eighth grade office workers. Students enjoy talking with Mrs. Phillips and Mrs. Keith.

Money Manager

Mrs. Keith enters purchase orders daily. Teachers complete purchase orders to buy classroom supplies.

Lending a Hand

Mrs. Phillips helps Medina McEntyre with a class assignment. Mrs. Phillips and Mrs. Keith are always willing to answer a question or just lend a hand.

Over and Out

Mrs. Phillips uses the two-way radio to talk with Mr. Dunleavy. The radio allows Mrs. Phillips to communicate with Mr. D and Mr. Amos during lunch duty.

Work, Work, Work

Mrs. Keith consults with Ms. Prillaman regarding a student. When a student transfers, Mrs. Keith sends records to the new school.

Action Shots

It's A Close One!

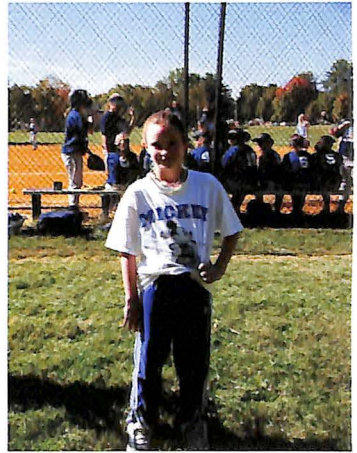

A daring run for home base helps Madison win the game.

Wow! They can play the game and pose for pictures!

Focus, Focus, Focus!

Coach Townley watches as her team makes her proud!

An injury kept Kelsey Hurt from finishing out the season, but it did not keep her from being a loyal teammate.

Anjali Patel (left) and Nerma Berbic (right) are focused and ready for whatever may come their way!

	Us	Them
Ruffner	13	5
Breck	7	9
Wilson	3	6
Addison	17	11

Congrats City Champs!

Pass,
pass!!

The JMMS Girls Basketball Team worked hard as a team. They truly believed that there is no "I" in TEAM!

Dribble, dribble!

The team watches eagerly as their teammates battle Woodrow Wilson's players in the Championship game!

Confusion about possession of the ball is quickly resolved and the game resumes. It looks like it is Madison's ball! Yeah!!

The team remained undefeated for their 2004 season. They did not stop until they won the CHAMPIONSHIP TITLE.

GO FIGHT WIN!

The JMMS cheerleaders promoted school spirit throughout the year and energized the loyal fans!

CHEER, CHEER!

We're number 1!

For a fundraiser, cheerleaders sold carnations to students on Valentine's Day.

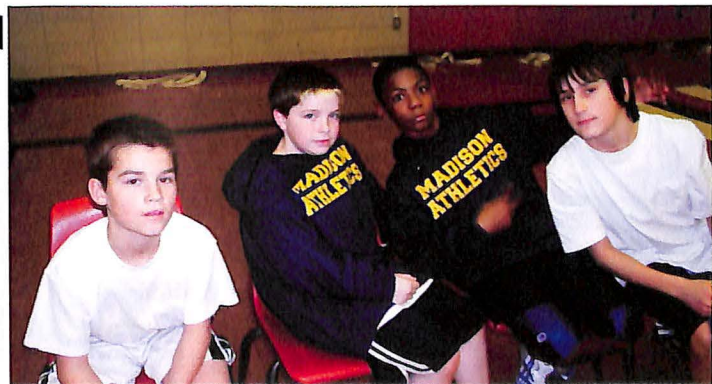

One thing is for sure, the cheerleaders will have fun no matter what!

2005 JMMS Wrestling Team!

2005 JMMS Baseball Team

Stretching may not be the most fun part of practice, but one can see above that Michael Gilmore and Matt Chapin take it very seriously.

Playing catcher for JMMS, Sam Khalilian, crouches down hoping to provide a good target for Yates Sayers, a Madison pitcher.

"Take me out to the ball game!"

Carter Blackwell takes a knee to practice proper throwing technique.

1st baseman, Kemper Steffe, eagerly waits for a line drive to come his way.

Madison's baseball players dress quickly so that they can get to practice as soon as possible. They are always ready and waiting for Coach Childress' directions. The team understands that hard work and discipline is all part of the game. Good job guys!

Congrats Champs!

Kick It!

Gentle ladies by day and tough soccer players by night!

The girls practiced as a team and played as a team. Their teamwork made them champions!

GOAL!

Katie Pillis battles for the ball until she wins it!

After a tough game, the team still jogs off of the field.

The champions wait patiently for their trophies. We are proud of you!

Once again, Matt Chapin beats a Woodrow Wilson player to the ball.

Now it's between Justin Manning and the goalie! Justin wins!!

A Season To Be Proud Of!

JMMS soccer keeps these guys in shape and prepares them for high school soccer.

Juggle It!

Many of the players said that playing soccer is worth doing the sprints at practice.

Look Up!

Even though the boys came in 2nd place, they will always be 1st to Madison!

	Us	Them

Sam Khalilian is not going to let this Woodrow Wilson player go much further.

Faculty v Student Basketball Game

Tough Competition

Students return to the floor after a huddle. They were confident going into the game and were not intimidated by playing against faculty.

Darren practices his foul shots before the game. Free throws can make or break a game.

Mr. Burnette displays some smooth moves on the court. He was the lead scorer for the faculty.

The eighth grade student section shows a lot of spirit during the game! Many students made signs to show support for the eighth grade players.

The students maintained the lead throughout the majority of the game. However, the faculty came back to win with a spectacular rush in the last minutes of the game.

Back To School Night

Eat Up!

Parents, students, and the faculty of JMMS dined together! The food, drinks and friendly service was provided by our great PTA.

Socialize!

Students and parents who attended Back To School Night enjoyed an evening of informative discussion, relaxation, and fun!

What is Back To School Night?

Back To School Night is an opportunity for students and parents to eat, socialize, and learn more about JMMS. The PTA spends a great deal of time making this event fun by providing a hotdog dinner. Back To School Night helps students and parents prepare for another successful year at JMMS!

Chess Club

3rd Place, Great Job!

The Chess Club came in third place in the city-wide tournament. They received the trophy that is pictured below! Way to go!

Checkmate!

Chess is a game of concentration and contemplation. The members of the chess club meet weekly in the JMMS cafeteria to practice their moves and strategies. Rachel Taylor's father, Dennis Taylor, is the club's sponsor. The chess players rotate from table to table in order to play various opponents.

Battle of the Minds!

Greg Miller and Rachel Taylor battle it out. Arthur Gravely watches every move hoping to learn something new!

Every move counts!

The students love the game, but agree that after a hard day of school it does not allow the mind to relax.

Band and

Practice Makes Perfect

Will Goldsmith plays the snare drum. Students enjoy taking band, but admit that it requires a lot of practice.

All Grades. All Levels!

At JMMS, sixth, seventh, and eighth grade students can participate in the music program. Mrs. Steele does a wonderful job of teaching the students how to play various instruments. This year, JMMS has about 160 musicians in six classes of band and orchestra! The classes are geared for beginners in the sixth grade with the work becoming more advanced each year.

Friendly Competition

Students take a break at All-City Band. JMMS had 25 representatives from seventh and eighth grade at All-City Band in February.

Keep that Beat

James Patterson plays the bass drum with a smile. Students, including James, watch Mrs. Steele to keep the beat.

Orchestra

Busy Musicians

The students performed in the annual Sounds of Winter concert in December and Sounds of Spring concert in April. In addition, the students performed at school assemblies and community functions around Roanoke. They also participated in regional and district music events, such as All-City Band, Junior Regional String Orchestra, and Virginia Tech Honor Band. During the summer, students have the opportunity to participate in the Roanoke Symphony Summer Institute and middle school band camps.

Fact Fingers

Ben Mullet plays the bass. He was one of twelve JMMS representatives in the Junior Regional Orchestra. Students compete with the best musicians in the area for seats in that orchestra.

Bell Macter

Marcus Tate plays the orchestral bells. In their first year of band, sixth graders experiment with different instruments hoping to find the one that suits them best.

Technology Student Association

Technology Whiz Kid

Mr. Morris, the TSA advisor, keeps a watchful eye on the students while looking for the next Bill Gates.

A Step Ahead

The TSA motto is "learning to live in a technical world."

TSA prepares students for the challenges of a dynamic world by promoting technological literacy, leadership, and problem solving, resulting in personal growth and opportunity.

Digital Photography!

Eighth grader, Ally Doane, enjoys learning how to modify digital photos on the computer. TSA students know the values of technology.

It's all about Teamwork!

Kinner Ingram and Dongai Tucker work together to find the best solution. Two heads are always better than one!

Spelling Bee 2005

Job Well Done!

Congratulations!

Thanks to all of the Spelling Bee participants!

Madison's winner, Shawn King, placed second at the Roanoke City Public Schools Division-Wide Spelling Bee Competition! He is pictured with Robin Reed, the Official Caller of the Spelling Bee and WDBJ-7 Chief Meteorologist.

And the winners are...

After a tough competition, Shawn King was the winner and Kate Robbins was second place.

Just Dance!!

Arriving In Style!

Austin Luther won a limo ride to the dance as a result of having the highest fruit sales. After a ride around town, Austin and his friends arrived to the dance in style.

Let's Get This Party Started!

JMMS students danced the night away in Madicon's cafeteria. Keeping with the theme "Under the Sea," the SCA transformed the cafeteria into a cool dance club with balloons, streamers, and beautiful mermaids.

The SCA sponsors three dances throughout the school year.

Boogie Down!

Students crowded onto the dance floor when the disc jockey played their favorite songs.

Time for a Break!

Eighth grade students take time to get a snack and chat before hitting the dance floor again.

Newspaper

Mrs. Hamner and JMMS journalists work hard to write the articles for the school newspaper.
Grace Aheron is the Editor. Finley Vinson and Naida Berbic are the Assistant Editors.

"The Matador
Cape" is the JMMS
newspaper published by student journalists and photojournalists.

students publish the newspaper monthly.

Mr. Gourley and JMMS photojournalists take pictures for the newspaper throughout the school year. The students learn about digital photography in photojournalism class.

Beta Club

The Beta Club is an academic honor society that promotes character, develops leadership skills, encourages service involvement, and recognizes achievement.

"Let us lead by serving others."

Kemper Steffe leads members in a discussion regarding contributions to the tsunami relief effort. Service to others is an important characteristic of Beta Club membership.

They may have some serious discussions, but they also know how to be silly!

Peer Mediation

Eighth Grade
Peer Mediators

Seventh Grade

Choir

The choir was a new addition to JMMS this school year. Thank you to the choir members and sponsors, Mr. Settle and Mrs. Talin.

Alex Talin and Maggie Hanks, along with the other choir members, practice a new song.

The choir performed at the winter concert where they entertained the audience with great music and adorable antlers.

Drama

Back: Peyton Holt, Emily Heymann, Jelena Jelic, and Ms. Butcher

Peyton Holt and Kaitlin Parker stay after school to make props for a skit.

Best Wishes

Mr. Dunleavy

Bus Duty

Below, Mr. Dunleavy poses with Joyce Melendez. He supervised the bus line to ensure student safety.

Supporting the Team

Mr. Dunleavy talks with a parent at a wrestling match. He attended after-school activities not only to provide supervision but also to show his support and school spirit.

Thank you for your leadership!

Mr. Dunleavy has high expectations for students and encourages them to achieve to the best of their ability. Thank for for helping students to strive for success!

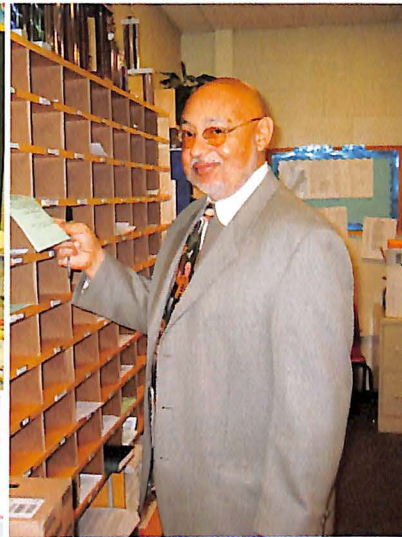

Mr. Dunleavy will be retiring in 2005 after 31 years in education. He was a teacher for 9 years, an assistant principal for 3 years, and a principal for 19 years.

on your Retirement

Mr. Elliott and Mrs. Kilpatrick

Helping with a Smile
Mrs. Kilpatrick helps Tyanna Rossi and her first block class in the library.

A new adventure begins!

Mr. Elliott, a seventh grade science teacher, will be retiring in 2005 after 30 years in education. Mrs. Kilpatrick, a special education teacher, will be retiring in 2005 after 20 years in education. Thank you for your dedication and service to the students.

May your retirement open the door to a whole new world of enjoyment, adventure, and happiness!

Leader of the Pack
Mr. Elliott poses with Ms. Pearman and Mrs. Roach during a team meeting. The Oracles teachers meet during first block.

Remembering Ms. Brown

You are missed!

Pursuing Her Goals

In December 2004, Ms. Brown completed her Bachelor of Arts Degree in Sociology from Mary Baldwin College.

Celebrating Her Life

While at JMMS, Ms. Brown touched the lives of many students and faculty. She was a dedicated, conscientious, and caring individual. Her passion for teaching was exemplified each day in her positive attitude and solid work ethic. Ms. Brown's presence and smile will continue to lift the hearts of those who knew and loved her.

Helping with a Smile

Ms. Brown helps Kenneth Brown, a seventh grader, with a class assignment. Students enjoyed her enthusiastic smile and constant encouragement. Ms. Brown was nurturing and, when necessary, firm but fair.

Students Remember

Above, the Guidance Department created a bulletin board with letters and drawings from students.

Leading by Example

Ms. Brown possessed an understanding and empathy that inspired students to succeed.
