THE CARDINAL

My heartiest thanks
for your stupendous effort
on the part of trying to enlighten me to the glories of Latin. Perhaps someday
your undaunting faith
will be rewarded.
Although I ain't got no
idea how.

Miss Cannaday:
I have enjoyed being in your classes better than any other years I sure will hate to leave you and dear old Monroe But I guess time goes on and we grow up, but some times growing up is awfully hard I hope that throughout the coming years
you will remember the poor dumb little girl who could never get pron - ponere - prun
ponere right.

Lots of luck to a nice
teacher. Best wishes.

Donald Mowbray:

Dear Miss Cannaday,

I certainly have enjoyed being in your Latin and English classes this year and I am sure that I have profited from it a lot. I shall always remember you in my years of Latin to come. Sincerely,

Jeannie
Kosko

Dear Miss Cannaday,

I certainly have enjoyed being in your classroom this year. Also having you as my Latin and English teacher.

Lots of luck to a very nice teacher in years to come.

Dear Miss Cannaday,

I have enjoyed being in your classes. I know you will treasure this annual, you should, because you deserved everything. I will always remember you as a Latin teacher.
~~And~~ lots of luck in your future years of teaching.

Your Latin student,
Penny Pappas

Dear Miss Annaday,

It has been a pleasure being in your Latin class. Remember the E & the F I made were kept in my file.

Ben Swanson

Miss Cannady,
I have enjoyed
being in your classes
this year. You are really a swell teacher.
I guess I could have studied harder
in Latin Class, but sometimes time gets scarce. The best of luck
to a swell woman and teacher, and I hope to see you around.

Ronnie

Osborne

Miss Cannaday,

I have really enjoyed being in your classes this year. I know I haven't worked as hard as I should nor behaved like I should but I am going to try my best to straighten myself out in the coming year. You are one of the best teachers I have ever had.

Always,

Reid McKinney

Miss Cannaday,

This has really been a wonderful year. I have enjoyed being in your English and Latin classes. You are a wonderful person and teacher. I shall always remember you and your classes and I hope that you will remember me.

Your friend,

Sandra Meloy

Best of everything in the years to come to a wonderful person and teacher. I will always ~~remember~~ remember my first year of Latin, although I didn't do as well as I should.
Good luck in the future years
to you and your teaching.
