DEDICATION

MRS. MARIAM DOWDY

With her eyes straight ahead and a smile on her face, she hurries through each day, making the most of each moment.

For her dedicated and untiring service to Stonewall Jackson Junior High and the surrounding community, we dedicate the 1973 STONEWALL to Mrs. Mariam Dowdy.

MISS MARY SHELTON

She holds each student in the highest esteem and in her quiet manner encourages them to reach out for a better life.

In appreciation for her sincere interest in young people, we dedicate this edition of the STONEWALL to Miss Mary Shelton.

The 1973 STONEWALL is also dedicated to the administration, faculty, staff and students for their desire and determination for making Stonewall Jackson an outstanding, accredited school.

“YOU’VE COME A LONG WAY STONEWALL JACKSON” 1923—1973

1923
Cafeteria, Courtyard and Shops – 1960

1953
Stonewall Jackson

1973
Gym and Courtyard
Trailers – 1970

The original structure of Stonewall Jackson Junior High was built in 1923. In 1928, 1960, and 1970 additions were made to the original structure to accommodate increased enrollment and a more diversified curriculum. 1971 saw the grading and landscaping of a practice field in Jackson Park. The Home Economics Department and storage room under the gym were remodeled in 1972.

Until 1970, this school primarily served the surrounding community. Now our student body is made up from several geographical areas; Southeast, Northeast, and Northwest. Under federal court order, the school was fully integrated in 1970. The students and faculty went on split schedule necessitated by bussing and increased enrollment – over 975. Four trailers eased the over-crowded conditions. Many adjustments were made that year. The faculty and students worked intently to make the transition one of the best in the school system.

Since 1923, not only the physical plant has been enlarged and improved, but also the curriculum and extra-curricular activities are being evaluated and continuously improved. Stonewall Jackson Junior High is the oldest Junior High structure still in use in the Roanoke area. It is very proud of the place it has held in education in the Roanoke Valley. Under the guidance and direction of four fine principals; A. S. Craft, W. C. Ikenberry, Lewis McNeace and Don Bartol, “Jackson” has produced many community leaders.
