Why is this woman smiling?
After 33 wonderful years in education, she's moving on.
Good luck, Ms. Townsend, hope to see you around.

Life at Jackson in Y2K

Is it Friday yet?

Got milk, Justin????

Beam me up, Scottie.

Romeo, Romeo, wherefore art thou...

Then you add your hydrochloric acid and shake...

Cheyenne and Kristen predict snow, snow, snow.

The Bug was a Bust, But We Did Great!

Heather and Troy consider joining the Mouseketeers.

Do you think we can get away with using Bidzilla here?

Do you think Ms. Rony would notice if we put chicken nuggets in there?

Mindy tries her hand at kente cloth.

Are you sure Mr. Farrell is Ms. Gilliam's brother?

Stone Cold comes to middle school!

Sixth Graders settle in to their new school.

Learning the ropes
here at Jackson.

Fall Sports - Softball

Lynea and Amanda on deck.

This girl can really pitch!

It was nearly a perfect season for the Lady Chargers.

Shannon says it's hard to get a homer on crutches.

Is this another victory huddle?

Tennis - Soccer

Annie, Coach Higham, Ashleigh, Kara, Danielle, Crystal, Julia, Ashley, Chelsea

Slam it, Crystal!

Annie, what's the racket?

Chargers on the attack.

Do you like our shoes?

Coach Shepherd's team showed great heart in spite of the 3-3.

Boys & Girls Basketball Teams

Plenty of support from the bench!

Fatima, Malina, Ashley, Lynea, Bre'Anna

Amanda looks for help from Ashley.

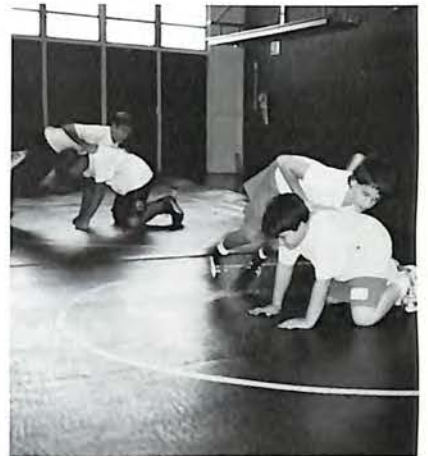

Clara, Amanda, Kara, Meteja, Julia

Wrestling - Vollyball

Jackson Grapplers had a 4-3 season.

Winning starts with a good practice.

First, you have to have a good net!

Chris thinks, "I sure hope he doesn't have a cold."

Manager Carol with the coach.

Coach Stanley fields two complete teams with this group.

Pep Squad Brings Plenty of Spirit to Athletics.

Co-Captains April Martin, Lindsay Brown and Stevie Coleman.

Eighth graders April Martin, Lindsay Brown, Stevie Coleman, Kim Sherman, Uyen Nguyen, Kristen Owens, Ellen Guzman and Heather Moulse.

Seventh graders Lindsey Link, Heather Clevensline and Jennifer Carr.

Sixth graders Courtney Reynolds, Lauren Broughton, Kara Gibson, Jessica Jones, Shannon Jackson and Christian Akers.

PE and Intramurals Keep Students Active.

The girls try their hands and feet at Tae-Bo, while the boys work out with wrestling and basketball. It's all in a PE day at Jackson.

The intramural program at Jackson offers some after-school activities as varied as indoor soccer, basketball, volleyball, hockey and a climbing wall. The program is designed for students who want to try different sports, but may not want to go out for a team.

Electives let students explore many worlds -

Art students check out the animation on Fantasia trip.

Looks like a Power Lunch!

Joe shows a deft hand with scissors.

Esther, Kristen, Tasha and Jessica work on weaving.

Stacey and Jocey interact with one of the museum exhibits.

Mr. Terry's class enjoys the Richmond field trip.

Art - Music - Foreign Language - Technology

8th Graders enjoy Spanish field trip.

Howard and Zach collaborate on a Spanish assignment.

6th graders listen intently in the language lab.

Teacher-in-Training, Mr. Prescott.

Ms. Roberts' class enjoys the IMAX experience.

I think you're fooling me, Mr. Terry!

Music classes at Jackson are “noteworthy”.

Ms. Steele strikes a musical pose on the field trip that all the participants loved. Music students had spent time prior to the trip listening to and analyzing the music in Fantasia 2000.

It was a great year for the band and orchestra. Ms. Steele took a record number of string players to the Regional Orchestra. Both band and strings had the annual Winter PTA Concert and are preparing for a spring performance. The future looks bright. A large number of sixth graders signed up for strings.

Drama of "Romeo & Juliet" at Jackson.

Mill Mountain Playhouse performed their urban update of the Shakespeare classic for an appreciative audience. It was followed by a chat session to answer student questions.

Ms. Karr's Drama Club also worked on an updated version of the play for its spring production. The cast included Amber Lang, LaKeisha Murray, Courtney Dooley, Keesha Terry, Jamie Barton, Kara Gettings, Jamie Pickard, Candice Frye, Kym Durham, David Neighbors, Jacob Lamb, Justin Hall, Jessie Sink.
