STONEWALL

1983

Stonewall Jackson Jr. High
Roanoke, Virginia

"Stonewall Jackson's yesterdays and todays and tomorrows are linked in one continuing procession of people and events. To have been a part of this never ending parade is a lasting joy and a satisfying pleasure. For each day is a new day and every morning presents a new life and a new opportunity for the character and minds of the students."

In this edition of "The Stonewall", the annual staff would like to pay tribute to the last sixty years of glorious greatness, to portraying the activities of the present, and to anticipate the challenges of the future.

YEAR ROUND SPIRIT

When Ms. Bender left in November, Ms. Linda Petrocci took over the duties of cheerleading sponsor and since then changes have been seen in the cheerleading squad. The girls practiced at least twice a week during the school year and are now looking forward to attending a cheerleading clinic at Roanoke College this summer. When we return in the fall, the girls will be all set to perk up our spirit for football.
