BEHIND RUFFNER'S WALLS . . .

William Ruffner Junior High School is now in its eighth year. Our school was named for the originator of the Public School System in Virginia, Dr. William Henry Ruffner (1824-1908).

Rush Hour at the Lockers really goes on. In this yearbook we wish to help outsiders better comprehend what goes on "Behind Ruffner's Walls."

William Ruffner was enlarged in order to accommodate Roanoke's newly annexed students. This enlargement included a new building for the mathematics department, an auxiliary gym, shop, an enlarged cafeteria, and a small stage.

Our school colors, forest green and gold, were picked by Coach Cummings. Our school nickname "Saints" was derived from Dr. Ruffner's having been a minister and a chaplain. The name "Rock" reflects the fact that Dr. Ruffner was also a professional geologist, and we of the student body feel that we are building a solid foundation for ourselves.

The theme, "Behind Ruffner's Walls . . .," was chosen by the yearbook staff to tell about our school. We felt that every student at Ruffner should be proud to be a part of it and to have had access to its well trained staff. Behind Ruffner's walls only we the student body and faculty know what

THE RUFFNER ROCK 1978

1978 Rock Dedication

Ruffner's faculty is composed of highly competent dedicated teachers. It is to one of these that the yearbook staff has chosen to dedicate this volume of the RUFFNER ROCK.

This teacher's well organized teaching technique makes learning enjoyable. Her devotion to her students is made clear through her patience and understanding. She always remains in a cheerful mood and is always thoughtful of others' feelings.

Miss Sally Rachel Hicks

This teacher has always participated in activities. In her own sophomore, junior, and senior years, she took part in dramatics and such clubs as Literary, Advanced History, French, Girls' Athletic Association, and Y-Teens. She also served on the William Fleming newspaper, THE SABRE.

She still takes part in school activities. She has been an SCA sponsor for seven years. Because of her many high quality characteristics we, the yearbook staff of 1978, feel that she deserves this dedication. Our congratulations along with our gratitude go to Miss Sally Rachel Hicks.

It matters not to win or lose. It's how you play the game. It's nice to be important, but it's more important to be nice.
