Let us continue . . . to grow mentally . . . physically . . . and spiritually.
To continue to gain knowledge . . . seek the truth . . . and place honor above all. Let us continue . . . to promote friendship . . . encourage brotherhood . . .
and abide by the laws of God and man.

Let our hearts continue . . . to link us with the past . . . remind us of our loved ones . . . and to know the joy of true happiness.

Let our eyes continue . . . to see only good . . . to look forever onward . . .
to see beauty in all things . . . and to see the true meaning of life.

Let our hands continue . . . to mold a better world . . . to work for universal peace . . . and to give us strength to realize our dreams.

Let our feet continue . . . to lead us to greater things . . . to guide us down the proper paths . . . and walk forever on the bright side of life.

Let our minds continue . . . to be open to all ideas . . . to think of better ways to help our fellow man . . . and to dream of the years to come.

Now, students of Cave Spring, let us continue to look back on this past year.
The Accolade Staff presents this book to you in hopes that you will continue to go forever onward but not forgetting the past. We, the editors, present the Accolade '64-'65.

ADMINISTRATION

MR. CON A. DAVIS
Principal
B.A., King College
M.Ed., Virginia Polytechnic Institute

All of the programs and activities of the school are greatly determined and influenced by our principal, Mr. Davis. Having coached and worked with so many young people, he has a keen insight into our individual and group problems. Through his guidance, his help, and his interest in each of us, he is making a constant contribution to the advancement of our school.

Letters to answer, announcements to make, telephone calls to answer, notes from parents, etc., etc., . . . The desk is seldom clear.

Administration and Supervision . . .

Mr. Lacy dictates a letter . . . basketball schedules must be verified.

MISS HELEN L. EMSWILER
Secretary

MR. JACK R. SPIGLE
Assistant Principal
B.S., Virginia Polytechnic Institute
M.Ed., University of Virginia

Guidance counselor, teacher of mechanical drawing, and “mastermind” of the records system—these are just a few of the tasks that fill Mr. Spigle’s day. He will be remembered by all Cave Spring students for his patience, his sympathetic understanding, his diligence, and his willingness to help all who seek his counsel.

Students assist Mr. Spigle with the constant flow of records and reports.

Are Handled by Dedicated Leaders . . .

MR. JOHN W. EDMUNDS
Assistant Principal
B.A., Duke University

Mr. Edmunds lends a sympathetic ear as he administers just rewards and punishments when we accumulate too many demerits. Under his direction as head football coach, Cave Spring has had many fine teams. He also supervises the maintenance of our school buildings, seeing that repairs are made when needed and that all “parts” are operating for our comfort and convenience.

Our competent guidance staff serves in counseling, testing, pupil placement, college admissions, employment opportunities, and career selections. The counselors' most meaningful service is to help the individual student gain a better understanding of himself and his opportunities in order to make more effective decisions for himself.

GUIDANCE STAFF: Miss G. Draper, Mrs. E. Follmer, Miss P. Kirkwood, Mrs. H. Hudson, and Mr. J. Dupree.

Foreign Languages Offer Diversity

"Ora Claudite, quiete, et sedete!"

Tres bien—prononcons tout ensemble!

A Cave Spring High School student may choose from three languages—Latin, French, and Spanish. The study of one or more foreign languages creates a better understanding of the culture and customs of peoples of other lands as well as to help us obtain a better understanding of our own language.

Business Courses Prepare for Office Jobs

Vocational Office Training Students work part time in down-town offices.

Business students at Cave Spring receive training in preparation for office positions by taking courses in typewriting, shorthand, book-keeping, and office practice. Through Vocational Office Training students may secure part-time work in local office and receive valuable on-the-job training while still in school.

Safety at the Wheel

Driver training is offered to students who are fifteen years of age and older. Following the textbook course in good driving, this class offers an opportunity for students to get valuable behind-the-wheel training from a specially trained driving instructor. This combined training entitles boys to a ten per cent reduction in insurance costs.

"Who says Freshmen don't stack Senior lockers?"

"My students must get up at five every morning to see the sun rise and to hear the birds sing," saith "bright-eyed" Mr. Echols.

CLASS OFFICERS: Linda Price, Corresponding Secretary; Susan Martin, Vice President; Gayla Purcell, Recording Secretary; Eddie Lynne Young, Treasurer. Lynn Davis, Reporter; Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Musser, Mrs. Follmar, Sponsors; David Price, President.

We are Juniors . . . looking forward . . . with plans . . . hopes . . . Gone are the under-class days of rushing through crowded halls . . . looking for rooms that always seem to move. No longer strangers, but teammates . . . working together in clubs . . . student government . . . committees . . . plays . . . elections . . . doughnuts . . . all for the high light of the year —The Prom . . . colorful decorations . . . in crystal ballroom . . . gaiety . . . fun and laughter . . . mixed with responsibilities . . . all packed into this, our JUNIOR YEAR . . . We anxiously anticipate the high and mighty senior year.

Junior Class:

Biggest and best since '56 . . .

"They call it food! Mrs. Johnson."

SPONSORS: Mr. Duff and Mr. Morrison help Mr. Pack decide which girl to take to the Junior-Senior Prom.

MARGARET FISH

A specially made bulletin board was waiting to welcome Margaret when she came.

Margaret shows her American "family" where home is across the sea.

Dear Margaret,

When you came to us, you were a stranger in our midst. We did not know how to react to you or what to say. As weeks flew by, your winning personality, great sense of humor, and friendly smile shined like a beacon to guide us to your true self.

Through your presence here, we have learned a great lesson in international understanding, and we have also gained an insight into the heart of the English people.

You have lived with us, suffered our heart-breaks, reveled in our joys, and shared moments we shall never forget. When you return to England, a part of Cave Spring will go with you, and we will continue to hold a cherished spot in our hearts. We only hope that this short time you have spent with us will mean as much to you.

The Student Body of C.S.H.S.

Foreign Exchange to Us From England

A happy moment with friends that will never be forgotten.

“Hurrah for Cave Spring” is a cheer familiar to all Knights, but to me it’s more than that. I could write nothing but the word “hurrah” for the rest of my life, and still not write it enough to make you realize just how wonderful you’ve all been. Every single one of you has contributed to a gloriously happy year—the happiest ever. Memories of dances, parties, plays, games, club meeting, crowded halls, noisy lunch breaks, and crowded school buses will never leave me. Classes produced some really ghastly tests and also scores of friends who filled my days with joy. Among the faculty I found more friends who certainly made learning a pleasure. “Thank you” seems an extremely inadequate way of expressing all I want to say, but the words are so very sincere, and come from the bottom of my heart. Truly, “Knights are Great!”

CAVE SPRING 0—NORTHSIDE 0

In their opener the Knights fought to a scoreless tie on their home field. The C.S. defense allowed the Vikings to complete only one pass out of 10 tries. Late in the first period, Doug Crisp picked off a Northside aerial and the Knights drove 40 yards, only to lose the ball on the Viking 19. Sackett was the top runner, carrying for 64 yards in 8 runs.

We Win,

CAVE SPRING 0—LIBERTY 19

After journeying to Bedford, the Knights remained scoreless. The three Minutemen tallies were on passes from Q.B. Peyton Brown and on his 1 yard sneak. C.S. got no closer than the Liberty 25. Two scores came in the 2nd period and the 3rd quarter, Brown tossed a screen pass which went for a 70 yard score.

Mike Christley and Doug Crisp team up to bring down Liberty backs.

Knight line closes in on Covington Q.B.

CAVE SPRING 14—COVINGTON 26

Plagued by injuries, the Knights traveled to Covington's muddy field. Clowser and Sackett were C.S.'s first scorers of the season, Clowser on an 8 yard pass from Grigg and Sackett on a 15 yard run with a blocked punt. Covington's scores came twice with long bombs, once with an intercepted pass, and once on a blocked punt.

CAVE SPRING 0—ANDREW LEWIS 47

For their fourth game, Cave Spring was handed its worst defeat in history. Relying on backfield execution, the Wolverines rolled up a 27-0 lead by halftime. Substituted into the game during the second half, the Andrew Lewis reserves did their share to build up the Wolverine's final score. Going off tackle, around the end, and up the middle, the Andrew Lewis backs averaged almost 10 yards per carry. The Knight backs only averaged 1.4 yards per carry.

Knights threaten State Champs.

We Fight,

Big Knight offense searches for an enemy.

CAVE SPRING 20—CATHOLIC 6

Staying home the Knights played a "must" game. Drawing first blood, the Celtics scored after a 15-yard penalty but had their extra point attempt blocked. After scoring on a pass from Grigg to Clowser, Flora kicked the extra point, and Cave Spring led 7-6. Scoring twice more, the Knights ended their first win with a healthy margin.

CAVE SPRING 13—BASSETT 12

In the next home game after a deadlocked first half, Bassett scored and missed the extra point. Scoring on Grigg's end run, the Knights went ahead on Flora's conversion. The Bengals scored again but had their point attempt blocked. With less than two minutes left in the game, Cave Spring scored and went ahead 13-12. A few seconds later the win was assured by Worrell's interception of a Bassett pass.

Rescue Squad stands watch over eager reserves.

Matthews eludes a tackler.

CAVE SPRING 7—WILLIAM BYRD 6

In their seventh game, the Knights rumbled past the Terriers at Vinton. In the second quarter after a T.D. on a run by Clowser, Flora kicked the extra point to put C.S. ahead 7-0. Byrd scored in the 3rd period but had their pt. attempt blocked and were behind 7-6. Traveling once to the C.S. 10 the Terriers were stopped cold by the Knight defense.

CAVE SPRING 2—MARTINSVILLE 19

Looking for their 4th straight win, the Knights played the Bulldogs at C.S. The only score C.S. got came when the spirited defense rushed the Martinsville Q.B. and forced him to make a bad pitchout on his own 8. He recovered the ball and was brought down in the end zone, giving the Knights a safety and 2 pt. Martinsville scored once in the 2nd quarter and twice in the 4th.

The Knights chase a man into backfield.

For What We Believe . . .

Cave Spring's Samantha???

CAVE SPRING 6—DREWRY MASON 0

Scoring the first time they had the ball, the Knights kept up a tremendous defensive battle to win their fifth game and even up their own record. The Spartans recovered their own kickoff and drove to the C.S. 8 and were contained. The Knights then rolled, with Worrell running around the end for the last 24 yds. From there on the game was played between the 25 yd. lines.

"The Line"

Loose Ball!!

CAVE SPRING 25—FRANKLIN 0

Needing one more for a winning season, the Knights played the Eagles. C.S. racked up 14 pts. in the first quarter. The game's highlight occurred with 1 sec. left in the 1st half. Worrell brought the team out in a spread and hit Gregory in the end zone with an aerial from the Franklin 15. Sackett scored twice on short plunges and Matthews once on a pass from Grigg. Early in the 2nd half, Franklin got desperate and took a 4th and 9 gamble which failed. From there C.S. went for a T.D. in 8 plays. The 4th quarter was played between the 30 yd. lines of both teams.

The year is ended . . . the echoes of past activities both inspiring and discouraging resound loudly—clearly through the empty halls.

For most, these timeless, everchanging sounds will ring loud again next year . . . but for some, they ring for the last time.

Let us, the Senior Class of 1965, continue to grow mentally . . . to gain knowledge of ourselves . . . and others as we go our separate ways.

We shall continue to place honor above all . . . we shall strive to seek truth for what it is, or what it may be.

Let our friendships continue to grow, not hindered or lessened by time and distance; but strengthened by them, instead.

We shall continue to remember the years spent at Cave Spring . . . the gay, carefree times . . . the sad ones, all of which we shall come to realize were only a part of maturing.

Then memories of our years at Cave Spring, highlighted by lasting friendships and brief acquaintances will grow deeper and warmer as the years move on, while we continue to strive toward the same goal—understanding . . . of ourselves, of others, and perhaps the meaning of life.

J. Draper
