PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Greetings! This is your new president speaking.

What can we officers of your Society do for you? We want to do everything we can do make our members far and near feel that they belong.

For our members within commuting distance of Roanoke, Bob Phlegar, First Vice-President and Program Chairman, is hard at work lining up speakers for our meetings on each third Saturday in the Auditorium of the Roanoke Public Library at 1:30pm.

For you members in Southwestern Virginia too far away to attend our Roanoke meetings, I am going to ask our membership at its February meeting (the January meeting was cancelled due to icy streets) to approve a request to hold the April and October meetings outside of Roanoke. If one of you would like to "host" one of these meetings in your county, please inform Bob Phlegar.

For members, outside of our charter area, the VAN will be our main medium for speaking to you. I feel that we are fortunate that Babe (Mrs. Claude) Fowler, your retiring President, is taking over as editor of VAN. She is anxious to receive publishable genealogical materials.

Your duly elected executive committee for the current year includes:

Bruce Anderson, Jr., President
310 W Lexington St, Wytheville, Va 24382
Robert Phlegar, First Vice-President
216 Craig Ave., Salem, Virginia 24153
Betty (Mrs S R) Low, Second Vice-President
2801 Longview Ave, Roanoke, Va. 24014
Viola B Wright (Mrs), Recording Secretary

THE BUSH FAMILY OF SOUTHWEST VIRGINIA

by Viola B. Wright

This family portrait was taken in 1902 on the day Margaret Bush, dressed in white, married her cousin, Albert Bush of the Kentucky branch of the family. Her parents and eldest brother George Gose Bush are seated in the picture.

James Bush, no middle name, the father, was born in 1850, the seventh son of Valentine Bush who lived to the age of 104 years. He was born ca 1799, the son of Austin Bush and his wife said to be of Indian blood. The wife of Valentine Bush and the mother of James was Nancy Gose, the daughter of Christopher Gose and Mary Elizabeth Litz, and the granddaughter of Stephen Gose and Elizabeth Spracher, pioneers of Southwest Virginia and Russell County. Valentine and Nancy Gose Bush are buried in the church cemetery of the Baptist Church in Nichelsville, Virginia.

Mary Ann Ellen Bond, wife of James Bush, was the daughter of George Bond and Hannah Kilgore and the great granddaughter of the Rev. Robert Kilgore, also known as Robin Kilgore, the first Mason to be buried in Scott County. His grave with marker bearing the Masonic emblem is in the Nichelsville Cemetery.

James Bush and Mary Ann Ellen Bond were married December 31, 1874 in or near Nickelsville in Scott County. They were the parents of George Gose Bush, Charles E. Bush, Margaret Bush, James Hopkins Bush, and a daughter who died in infancy.

Present for the wedding of their sister were three brothers, George Gose Bush and his wife, Martha Culbertson Bush, Charles E. Bush and James Hopkins Bush. It was quite an elegant affair for the back woods, judging from the family dressed in their best finery. Even James Bush, a mountain man and unaccustomed to frills and furbelows, put on the new ruffled front shirt his wife had made for him, a coat and his best leather boots. While Mary, his wife, was dolled up in her best bib and tucker. Martha, no doubt, was honor attendant for she, too, was in her Sunday best. All were wearing flowers, even the gentlemen.

James Hopkins Bush, the seventeen year old, on the far left of the picture behind his father, is the father of Viola Bush Wright. He married Mattie Lula

The Bush Family (con't)

Pinkard, the daughter of Charles Ballard and Frances Mason Pinkard after the family moved from Scott County to Franklin County in the vicinity of Ferrum on Story Creek. They were married October 25, 1907, as the story goes, on horse-back. James Hopkins Bush came to the school taught by Mattie Pinkard on the day he and her father had gone to Rocky Mount for the marriage license. He had brought a horse saddled with the proper side saddle for her to ride and they were married near the school by the minister they knew well, and he, too, is presumed to have been mounted.

TOWNS AND PLACESFURNACES OF BOTETOURT COUNTY

by Jim Avery

Between 1768 and 1882 there were some twenty furnaces producing iron in Botetourt County. The first furnace was Harvey's Catawba Furnace located on Lee's Branch of Catawba Creek. It was built between 1768 and 1770 by Isaac Zane. In 1821 it was owned by Robert Harvey and is sometimes referred to incorrectly as Martha Furnace.

Downstream from Harvey's was the Brunswick Forge and Splitting Mill. It is near the mouth of Lee's Branch where it flows into the Catawba. This forge is shown on Woods Map of 1821 as Taylor's Iron Works. At one time it was also known as Catawba Forge.

Also in the area was the Catawba Furnace. It was located upstream from Brunswick Forge on Catawba Creek. It is incorrectly shown on Wood Map as being near Lee's Branch. It was actually upstream from Stone Coal Creek. It was built in 1830 and may have been owned by Robert Harvey. The property was sold to Joseph R. Anderson in 1847.

A fourth furnace was located on the Catawba. This was the Salisbury Furnace located where the Catawba empties into the James River. The pits used in making charcoal for the furnace was located across the James from the furnace.

Another early furnace was owned by Mathew Harvey. It was located on his Mountjoy estate near Buchanan. It is shown on Wood's Map on the south side of Looney's Mill Creek.

About 1830 a furnace was built at Roaring Run by a man named Robertson. The tub bellows were built by a millwright named Flaherty. The furnace was owned and operated by the Anderson family. It was abandoned in 1854 and rebuilt in 1863. The furnace could produce ten tons of high quality iron per day. The area is preserved as a picnic area near Eagle Rock.

Near Roaring Run was another Anderson furnace, Grace Furnace. There was an old charcoal furnace there before the iron furnace. It was in operation in the 1850's and during the Civil War.

Two other old furnaces were located on Purgatory Creek north west of Buchanan. They were known as Mayberry A and B. The lower furnace, Mayberry A, was located near the Cartmill's homestead and is shown on Wood's Map. The stack to the furnace is still standing, but the remainder of the furnace has been torn down to build walls in the fields across the road. The other furnace was further upstream. I could not get my Cutlass that far up the road to see if it was still standing.

Probably the best known furnace in Botetourt County was at Cloverdale. This furnace was built about 1787 by Robert Harvey. It was also known as Martha after Harvey's wife Martha, the daughter of Benjamin Borden. The furnace was on a mill race which was used to power the bellows. The same race was used to power the Cloverdale Flour Mill. The furnace was located upstream from the flour mill where the old road leading west crossed Tinker Creek. The 1821 map identifies it as Tayloe's Furnace. It was operated by John Tayloe III from 1810 to his death in 1824. There may have been as many as three furnaces located on or near the same site. A furnace known as Cloverdale 1 was built about 1830 and abandoned in 1843. Cloverdale 2 was built in 1841 and rebuilt in 1850. Both these furnaces were in production during the Civil War. One of the furnaces was burned by General Hunter in June 1864, but was rebuilt in six months.

The only furnace in Botetourt County built during the Civil War was at Arcadia. It is on Jennings Creek about three and one half miles northeast of Buchanan in the Jefferson National Forest. It was built in 1862 and abandoned in 1882. The furnace is still standing. The present owner has a CB antenna mounted on top of it.

During the Civil War most of the furnaces in production were owned or controlled by John and /or Joseph Anderson. These included Roaring Run, Catawba, Cloverdale 1 and 2, and Grace. Joseph Anderson was an agent for the Tredgar Iron Works in Richmond who purchased Catawba, Cloverdale, and Grace from the Andersons in 1862. Apparently the only furnace in operation after the Civil War was Arcadia.

There were other furnaces in Botetourt of which little record remains. These include: Aetna 1 and 2, Rebecca (in operation in the 1850's), Retreat, Callie, Princess, and Jane (also operating during the 1850's).

SOME FREEDMEN INDENTITIES

PART II -- Slaveowners and Their Former Slaves

by Richard W Dickenson, 128 Central Ave, Staten Island, NY 10301

All references in this section to Montgomery Co. are to Montgomery Co, Va., whose county seat is Christiansburg, containing the Courthouse, constructed in 1908. The County Clerk's office contains, among numerous other records, the marriage records of the county from 1787 to the present. In the flap pocket of Book one of the Marriage Register this writer found four folded papers with the following heading: "Register of Colored Persons of Montgomery County, State of Virginia, cohabitating together as husband and wife on 27th February 1866." Subheadings were: Name of Husband; Age; Place of Birth; Residence; Occupation; Last Owner; Last Owners Residence; Name of Wife; Age; Place of Birth; Residence; Last Owner; Last Owners Residence; Name of Children, with age of each; Date of Commencement of Cohabitation, Some 336 families, with a minimum of 2 to a maximum of 14 to a family were listed. This register was compiled by Captain Charles S. Schaeffer, Freedmen's Bureau Agent who was the founder of the Christiansburg institute and the church which now bears his name -- Schaeffer Memorial Baptist Church in Christiansburg.

Where the 1866 Cohabitation Register listing coincides with 1865 "Census of the Colored Population of Montgomery Co., Va." it has been incorporated under the name of the individual. Although not all of the 865 names are thus matched, it does not diminish the importance of the Register of Colored Persons cohabitations. Prior to February 29, 1866 there were only seven (7) Black marriages registered in the County Clerk's office - the first of which occurred on 28th of October, 1865--but, these do not show former slave-owners and children, if any. Therefore, this is a find of considerable consequence to Black geneology in this area.

EXCHANGE BULLETIN NOTES

by

Mary C Maier

Be sure to read the "Spice of History" in the August 1978 Bulletin of The Genealogical Society of Old Tryon County, North Carolina. This is by Harold W Rollins, and puts some of our ancestor hunting in perspective. You will enjoy it.

Do you have Polish ancestors? Ancestors Unlimited, newsletter of the Southwestern Nebraska Genealogical Society advises that "any U. S. citizen desiring genealogical information about Polish ancestors may write to : American Consul, U. S. Embassy, A-1, Ujazeoskie 29, Warsaw, Poland, and request assistance in obtaining documents and/or information."

Much of the Journal of the Kanawha Valley Genealogical Society for October, 1978 is devoted to the Vanbebber-Vanbibber family--first settled at Germantown, Pa. in 1683, later Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, Missouri, Tennessee, Kentucky, Ohio, etc. Anyone interested in this line will want to read this by Mrs. Anna L. Lutz.

St. Louis Genealogical Society advises that "Helen Free VanderBeek is compiling an Encyclopedia of the Free Family of America"--she will "return postage plus 15¢ for every complete new entry with complete source identification". Her address is Route 5, Box 151, Idaho Falls, ID 83401.

Search & Prove, Bulletin of the Seattle Genealogical Society for Winter 1978 has a reminder for all of us that we should not neglect our own records because "TODAY'S FAMILY HISTORY IS TOMORROW'S GENEALOGY". Lorraine Barker Miller has written "Care and Feeding of Old Photographs" giving many pointers that will help future genealogists. Well worth reading.

From Sycamore Leaves, Wabash Valley Genealogical Society, June 1978, we learn that if you have a soldier ancestor who might have been buried in Ohio, write to Division of Soldier's Claims, Ohio Adjutant General's Office, State House, Columbus, Ohio 43215. Their grave registration file is indexed. They will check and send a copy of the record, if found, at no charge. Be sure to send a stamped addressed envelope.

George Robinson and His Kin
by
Marie R. Justice

George Robinson and His Kin is the story of the Robinson family, descendants of James through his son, George from 1726 to the present. James Robinson and his wife Cathern Howell Robinson came from the North of Ireland, along with other Ulster County Presbyterian Dissenters, either in the late 1600's or early 1700's. James settled in New Castle County, Delaware where he made his will in 1726.

George Robinson brought his family down the Shenandoah Valley in Orange County, Augusta County (now Botetourt) with land transactions along Buffalo Creek (now Tinker Creek), the James, the Roanoke and the New River. "Captain Robinson died in the spring of 1763,.... an important individual in the great migration from lower Pennsylvania to Virginia...."

The Russell County, Virginia Robinsons began with Samuel Robinson whose first record was found in 1786 the year of the County formation. His records show lands around the cedar-covered rolling hills of Lebanon, Virginia and Elk Garden. "The magic of Elk Garden is something that will live forever in the physical and mental makeup of anyone who has been so fortunate as to see its beauty, breathe its air...."

The Pike County, Kentucky Robinsons began with David Robinson "looking to see what was over the next hill." Early records mention Millard Area, Johns Creek, Brushy Fork and Apple Orchard Settlement.

Allied families of the Robinsons were Huffman, Johnson, Price, Alexander, MacDonald and others. The book includes many wills, marriage records, land deeds and military records. It has documented notes and an index.

THE LAST WORD

At times I thought that this would be my last word -- the butterflies that I have in my stomach. Maybe next time it won't be so bad. Of all the quarterlies that I have read -- I have never paid any attention to the make-up -- only looking for information on MY families and fussing because what I wanted wasn't there. I thought "Why don't the publish these records." Now I am beginning to know -- There must be something for everyone and different types of records.

There are research notes scattered thro' this issue of VAN -- this is date that has been given to us that may help some members.

Wish me luck -- I need it.

Babe Fowler

ps: The most important thing and I almost forgot. A first for us! We have printed our first picture! This we will do -- if, the person wanting the picture printed pays the cost of the half-tone negative.
