PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Greetings! By now you should have your copy of the Society's "Membership Directory - 1980". It shows 126 members in Virginia and 214 members in other states, for a whopping total of 340.

Activities planned for 1980 are coming off as scheduled. Turnout for the Genealogical Workshop (May) was smaller than expected --- partly due to a goof by the local post office which returned an unknown number of properly addressed applications. Those who came received many good, practical tips on how to go about nursing your genealogical gleanings into book form from Jess Carr. Pauline Dunn's description of the treasure trove of genealogical data contained in the American Indian Records in our National Archives caused many of us to start figuring out how to get down to D.C. this summer.

An unusually large group turned out to plot grave sites at East Hill Cemetary (Salem, Va.) in June. Jim Avery had the task well planned as a result of good coordination with the Roanoke Valley Historical Society. John Burrows showed us how to "rub" a gravestone. (I put John's techniques to work two weeks later when I plotted graves on my Grandfather William Henry Speas'es place down in Forsyth County, N.C.)

By the time you read this, our Open House (July 19th) will be "un fait accompli." Here's hoping that I get a chance to meet many of our out-of-state members.....Don't forget to tell John Burrows((703) 982-2872) that you will be with us when we join members of the New River Valley Historical Society in October to tour the newly dedicated "Alexander House" in Dublin and the nearby Pulaski County Court House.

And don't forget --- keep those cards & letters comin'.

OBITUARY OF COL. ANDREW JOHNSON

Copied from Lewisburg, (W) Va, newspaper from microfilm. Date of 7 Dec. 1838: DIED. At his late residence at Giles C. H. Va. on Wednesday the 14th inst. Col. Andrew Johnston in the 68th year of his age. He was one of our most distinguished citizens, and through life was characterized by a highminded and gentlemanly deportment, and an unflinching integrity rarely equalled. About two years since he made a profession of religion and attached himself to the Baptist Church, since which time his steady christian demeanor and constant attention to all the duties of religion, has evinced the sincerity of his profession and done honor to the cause he had espoused. His death was preceded by a most distressing illness of near three weeks, during which he gave strong evidence of the efficacy of the christian religion to soothe the bed of affliction, and light up the dark valley and shadow of death. He was not herd to utter a complaint but with truly christian resignation committed himself to the keeping of him who judgeth righteously "he was often heard to say that his only hope and consolation was in the blessed Saviour of sinners, and when scarcely able to articulate his lips were still seen to move and his voice heard to whisper in prayr, thus he passed away from a world of affliction to the bosom of his God. He has left an affectionate family and a numerous circle of relatives and friends to mourn a loss which cannot be easily repaired, as a magistrate, a citizen and a christian, his memory through succeeding years will call up a tribute of melancholy yet pleasing reflection in the minds of all who knew him and were capable of estimating his worth.

This microfilm was obtained from West Virginia University Library, Morgantown, WV, on interlibrary loan.

Every precaution has been taken to insure the accuracy of this copy of the Marriage Bonds and Minister's Returns on file in the Botetourt County, Virginia, Courthouse. Each document has been carefully examined by several persons familiar with the script of earlier days; both English and German. Where several interpretations are possible, the most plausible one is found herein. In some instances, a second possibility is noted.

It is interesting to know some of the rules governing the early marriages of this state. Before 1780, all marriages were supposed to be performed by a minister of the Church of England, who was to keep a list of them, to be turned over to the Secretary of the Commonwealth. A great many of such lists, if they were kept, were never turned over to the state.

In Botetourt County, where a great majority of the county officials, and even the vestrymen of the Church, were of Scotch-Irish and Presbyterian backgrounds, these Marriage Laws were not rigidly enforced.

There were two methods by which the Minister was authorized to perform the marriage rites; one is generally referred to as "by bond," and the other "by banns" or "by publication." By bond, the groom and his surety would sign a bond for fifty pounds (later, one hundred and fifty dollars) payable to the King (later, to the Governor), to guarantee that a marriage would take place with the girl, if there were no legal objections. Legal objections were: the refusal of a parent to give consent, if either party was under the age of twenty-one; either party having a living, legal husband or wife, etc. When this bond was presented to the Clerk of Courts, he would sign it, thus giving authority, or license, to the minister to perform the ceremony.

By the other method, the intended marriage was announced at public worship service, for three weeks, and if no objections were heard, the ceremony was performed. A list of these marriages was to be kept by the minister, and a copy sent to the Clerk of Courts, within three months. The fee charged for a marriage by this method, was only one-fourth that for the "bond" method.

Ministers of other denominations performed marriages, that were considered legal only by members of that denomination, and were not recorded at the Courthouse.

Some denominations considered marriage a sacrament, the same as baptism and the Lord's Supper, and should not be regulated by any other authority than the church, and that there should be no costs, such as fees, involved.

So, we have some of the reasons why the Courthouse records do not show all marriages actually celebrated.

In 1780, the law was changed, allowing ministers of other denominations to qualify to perform ceremonies, and legalizing the marriages performed in these denominations, in the earlier years. This law also, required that the list of marriages performed be sent to the Clerk within three months. This was not always done. The Law reads that he who "failing to transmit such a certificate to the clerk of the court in due time, shall forfeit and pay the sum of five hundred pounds, to be recovered with costs of suit by the informer in any court of record." To my knowledge, this was never enforced, so it appears that ministers were allowed to do pretty much as they pleased.

The genealogist wishes there had been more marriages recorded, but he is amazed and thankful that we have as many as we do.

Charles T. Burton, Rt 2, Box 191, Troutville, Va. 24175

This volume is copied according to the year the marriage was performed (for VAN it was retyped in alphabetical order - groom's name) and copied as the names were listed -- as we read them -- on the bond in the space listed for the bride and groom, the sureties, and signatures. We found several errors on the bonds but made no attempt to correct any errors. There were several names in which a "l" should have been a "t", "e" for "i" --- in fact just about any letter. I know that just about any name is subject to correction, because on the second go around I've changed my mind. Also noted genealogical material, unusual information, or spelling from the bonds and consents. The one thing that I have found out from my experience at abstracting original records is, if at all possible, to OBTAIN COPIES OF THE ORIGINAL RECORDS because what is copied into the court records or abstracted (such as we are doing) may be entirely different from the original or the data you need has been left out.

Mrs. Inez E Good, Assistant Professor Roanoke College, Salem, Va., helped us with the translation of some of the German names and consents. Mrs. Good said she is not sure that the translations are correct because of the difficulty in reading the handwriting. She also put down her "translation" of the English signatures -- these were included to show the difficulty in reading the handwriting of that period.

Our abstractions were compared with the Botetourt County marriages included in "Annals of Southwest Virginia 1769-1800" by Lewis Preston Summers (I was told these marriages were copied by a typist and not by Mr. Summers) and "Early Marriages, Wills, and Some Revolutionary War Records, Botetourt County, Virginia" by Anne Lowry Worrell. After each author's name are listed the differences, if any. If no differences, just the name of the author or if the bond was not listed.

We sincerely hope that these abstractions will be of help to those researching the county --- and please forgive us for any error that we may have made.

Mrs. Vicie Waskey Fowler, PO-Box-5433-1716 Colgate St, Ne. Roanoke

WHITE GATE, GILES COUNTY, VIRGINIA

by Jerrie Atkin*

A large taste of living abroad has convinced the James Bryans there's nothing like burrowing down in this little Giles County hamlet of some 150 souls.

..A year ago they bought the old Beauregard Allen home and 250 acres off Virginia 42.....Although the Allen house is only around 85 years old, the site is historic. In cleaning out around fencelines, the Bryans found the wooden sign marking White Gate's first post office in 1842.

Oddly enough, the community, previously called Rye Meadows and Baneville, was dubbed White Gate because the first postmaster, John Bane, had a white gate in front of his house.

The place also bustled a lot more in pre-Civil War years.

Bill Bane, Giles County treasurer and a lifetime resident of White Gate, says it used to be known as an educational hub of the county because it boasted the Old Academy, one of two institutions of higher learning in Giles.

The Old Academy wasn't college caliber or anywhere near it, Bane said. Rather, the primitive log structure was the next rung above the one-room school, kind of equivalent to the current junior high.

GILES COUNTY VIRGINIA CENSUS INDEX

By Mary-Paul Beaudrias Shannon

This index of Giles County 1860 Census consists of the Head of the Household and the Household Number. It also contains the first member(s) of the household whose last name is different from the Head. In this way, at least all surnames are represented in the index for each household.

The 1870 Giles County Virginia Census Index is in preparation.

BLAND COUNTY VIRGINIA CENSUS INDEX

By Mary-Paul Beaudrias Shannon *

**Mary-Paul Beaudrias Shannon*
M. P. Shannon

Bland County was formed in 1861 from Tazewell, Wythe and Giles Counties, and divided into four districts. In very general terms, those people in Sharon and Rocky Gap Districts in 1870 were probably in Tazewell in 1860. Likewise, those in Seddon District in 1870 were in Wythe County in 1860, and those in Mechanicsburg District in 1870 were probably in Giles County in 1860.

The index itself consists of the Head of the Household, the district abbreviation and the household number. It also contains the first member(s) of that household whose last name is different from the Head. All surnames are represented in the index for each household.

Gift copies to the Southwestern Virginia Genealogical Society from the author have been placed in the Virginia Room of the Roanoke City Public Library. Copies may be ordered for the price of $5.00 each postpaid plus Virginia sales tax (20¢) from:

MILLS, FRAZIER, AND ALLIED FAMILIES

* By Margaret Mills Frazier

Margaret Mills Frazier was inspired to search for her ancestors as she watched our country's 200th Birthday Celebration in 1976. Mrs. Frazier's choice of drawings for her book cover expressed the situation in researching each of the families included here--"The Family Tree - Out on a Limb."

Beginning with her three grandchildren, James Thomas Connor III, James Henry Boschma III and Stacie Lynn Boschma, her search went back twelve generations. Records include the families of Adams, Addington, Crank, Cromwell, Duncan, Elswick, Fraley, Frazier, Green, Hutchinson, Ingram, Mason, Mills, Moore, Napier, Newberry, Phillips, Powers, Squire, Stallard, Teal, Thompson, Todd, Wilburn, Williams and others.

The family of Adams, Addington, Mills and Stallard came to the United States from England; Duncan and Frazier from Scotland; Newberry and Powers from Ireland. Some families are traced back to 1500.

Family records include the states of Pennsylvania, East Tennessee, Kentucky, Massachusetts, North Carolina and Virginia (counties of Culpeper, Essex, Goochland, Gloucester, Lee, Montgomery, Russell, Scott, Washington and Wise), and parts of the state of West Virginia.

There are 250 pages of family records with many pictures throughout the book, with coat of arms and indexed. The book is cloth bound and Library of Congress catalogued. A copy of the book is in the Virginia Room of the Roanoke City Public Library and may be ordered from the author,

Mrs. Margaret M. Frazier
558 Sunnybrook Drive Hurricane, West Virginia 25526.

The price is $20.00 postpaid.

ANCESTOR	WASKEY, George	"

married first known child born	ca 1774
wife	Margaret	(d 1827, Va.)
Researcher	Mrs Claude S Fowler (nee Waskey)
address	1716 Colgate St.NE; Roanoke, Va 24012 came from Frederick Co., Md. bef 1800 to Rockbridge Co. Va. Believe all Waskeys are from the same family.

Our file is for 3X5" cards. Larger ones will not fit.

At one time we attempted to place all names on the pedigree charts on cards but membership is growing and just too much for one person to record all the surnames --- so if you want the surname entered in the index file, please fill out a 3x5" index card and mail to us. Only one surname to a card and be sure to put YOUR NAME AND ADDRESS on the card. Or state if you are researching all of that surname.

SURNAMES FOR VAN: We will publish 5 names per member in VAN (see Register -Membership-). If you have not sent in the names, do so and we will put them in Nov. issue.

The PEDIGREE CHARTS published in this issue were condensed from the charts sent to us. Takes less room and more can be published.

I am suppose to write a short message -- earlier I had several things to say --- but now my 'mind' is blank. Must be the heat.

We have several articles by members that will be in the upcoming issues and need more.

Again, thanks to the Col William Preston chapter of the DAR for allowing us to publish the marriage records that are now in Botetourt Co, Va., --- there are 4 Volumes in all that cover the period up to 1820.

Please remember --- to be sure of the record, try to obtain a copy of the original record -- not from the marriage register, deed book (that record is seldom available), will book, for they are copies.

GUIDELINES FOR VIRGINIA APPALACHIAN NOTES

Material for publication:

1. Please type, if possible, on 8½x11" paper, single space, with minimum margins of 1" on all sides and headings patterned on those in this issue. PLEASE use a dark ribbon and CLEAN keys, mail in large manila envelope if ready to publish. If handwritten, please write plainly or print. If you feel you cannot type well, please type the material with double space. Please read the material over before sending it and check all dates.
2. Give source of material. Original documents - where found, type, number of page, etc. We cannot print material from printed source unless we have permission from the author.
3. Deadline for submitting material is the first of the month previous to the month of publication.
4. Material contributed will not be returned unless accompanied by a stamped self-addressed envelope.
5. We welcome all family histories (may have to be edited due to space) copies of court records, Bible records, etc. That little bit of information may be of help to someone. Of course, we cannot promise next issue publication.
6. On family histories, our policy is to print prior 1900 -- much as we would like to carry forward the modern day generations - it uses too much space.

NOTE: We cannot vouch for the accuracy of the material submitted to us or that the "translation" of the original document is true. If you have read such material, you can understand.

QUERIES:

1. Unless queries are to be used as fillers, submit one at a time. Since this is a quarterly, queries not used when originally submitted may become dated and of no value to the writer.
2. All material should be sent to Mr J V Avery Jr, PO Box 2154, Roanoke, Virginia 24009.
3. Be sure your query makes sense. Don't abbreviate (we will) or over simplify. If longer than 50 words, we will edit.
4. Queries are free to members. To nonmembers the cost is 5¢ a word -- does not include your name and address. Limit of 50 words. We will try to get all queries in as space permits.
5. Please put queries on a separate sheet with your NAME and ADDRESS when enclosing with other material. Some queries have been lost along the way because of being included in the body of a letter. (NOTE: this applies to other requests as well.)

+++++=====+++++
REQUESTS FOR RESEARCH: Our research is made in our library. NO One should ask for material on John Henderson of Virginia -- we need dates, county (area) --give us something to go on. Remember early Virginia went to the Mississippi River - later included Kentucky, West Virginia, part of North Carolina, Tennessee, Maryland, and Pennsylvania (disputes over the boundaries). So when you say John Henderson was born in Virginia ----designate,-parents, children and who married who. Please remember that the research is done by volunteers and therefore is limited, it cannot be a comprehensive research. Also - please enclose a self addressed stamped envelope (SASE)
