PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Welcome to a new year and new opportunities to make more discoveries in your family research. As the new president, I want to take a moment to say thank you for the honor and to invite everyone to take an active part in what promises to be an exciting year for the SWVGS.

Don't forget to renew your memberships promptly if you haven't already done so. This will insure that you won't miss a single copy of the VAN. Also, be sure to invite friends, family, and neighbors interested in genealogy to join us as the society continues to grow.

In looking at the year ahead, remember to reserve July 18, 1983 for our Sixth Annual Genealogical Workshop. Details will be announced at a later date, but it promises to be a most interesting and delightful day!

Speaking of programs, we have started our year with a "bang" as the January program featured Mrs. A.W. (DeeDee) Kagey's interesting presentation on the community of Bonsack. It was a delightful and informative afternoon. The February meeting will be a day to look forward to with Mr. John Mack Welford speaking to the society on his work with family histories and students. He will be giving some information on a grant and how the SWVGS may be involved. Don't miss this important date -- February 19.

In closing, I would like to say a special word of thanks to our past president, Mrs. Belva Counts. Her wonderful attitude of teamwork, helpfulness, and consideration has made my job so much easier.

I am looking to a great year for the SWVGS!

Nancy Barton

THE PURVINE - WALKER REUNION

The Purvine - Walker Reunion was held at Zena Church, nine miles Northwest of Salem, Oregon, on 14 August 1982. Officers were elected and it was decided to hold our reunions on even years on the third Saturday of August.

Both families came west in same wagon train from Independence, Mo., in 1848 and settled in the Willamette Valley of Oregon. The Purvine's were from Morgan County, Illinois and the Walker's had lived in Pike County, Mo. Adam Walker Sr. and Adam Walker Jr., parents and grandparents of the group who went to Oregon lived in Wythe County, Virginia, until 1829 when they moved to Missouri.

Paul L. Purvine, Historian, 3411 W. Lawton Street, Seattle, WA 98199.

(Note: I know that if you have a connection with the families mentioned, he would like to hear from you.)

THE BOOTHE FAMILY OF FLOYD COUNTY, VIRGINIA

by George Pesely *

George Boothe (1737-1813) and his wife Millie settled in Montgomery County, Virginia (the parent county of Floyd Co.), shortly before 1787. Their known children are Isaac, Millie, George Jr., Abijah, Daniel, and Tamar.

For many years Millie Boothe's maiden name has incorrectly been thought to be Carroll. I recently found a query by a John T. Booth of Wyoming, Ohio, in the NEW ENGLAND HISTORICAL AND GENEALOGICAL REGISTER for 1877 which reads in part: "I find one George Booth who is said to have married a Millie Wright, or Rite, and with a brother Stephen lived in or near Rye, Westchester Co., N.Y....From Rye, N.Y., he moved to Montgomery Co., Va." (vol. 31, p. 225). The maiden name Wright is confirmed by the name of a grandson, Wright Boothe.

Stephen Boothe lived for some years in Montgomery Co. before moving to the "north side of Clinch mountain" in Russell Co., Va., where he died in 1815. His will names his wife, Nancy, and his children William, Jerutia (Elkins), Anny (Bishop), Rachel (Dickson), Stephen, James, and Joseph, and the widow of his son David (VIRGINIA MAGAZINE OF HISTORY, 1927, vol. 35, p. 196). The marriage records of Montgomery Co., Va., include the marriages of Elijah Elkins and Jerusha Booth (daughter of Stephen and Nancy Booth), Nov. 28, 1789; George Bishop and Nancy Booth (daughter of Stephen and Nancy Booth), June 28, 1790; James Dixon and Rachel Boothe (Stephen Boothe, witness), Dec. 11, 1799; and Stephen Boothe and Polly Boothe (no parents' names), Jan. 1, 1799.

John T. Booth had been in contact with descendants either of George or of Stephen Boothe, and commented that "his descendants think he came direct from England, but are not positive."

This point has not yet been resolved. It is possible that George and Stephen Boothe were descended from earlier Booths in that part of New York, or they may have been related to the numerous Booths of nearby Fairfield Co., Conn. A Richard Booth settled at Stratford in that county in 1639. By one tradition, this Richard Booth was a close relative of the Earls of Warrington (NEW YORK GENEALOGICAL AND BIOGRAPHICAL RECORD, 1901, vol. 32, p. 240).

In 1867 some descendants of George Boothe living in Lawrence Co., Ohio, formed an association to investigate their legal heirship to an estate reportedly left them by their ancestors in England (IRONTON JOURNAL, Sept. 18, 1867; contributed by Robert M. Willis). The outcome of this investigation is not known.

* 2609 Ellsworth St. #202, Berkeley, Calif. 94704

Reportedly a barrister from England came to Floyd Co. and told the Boothes there of their supposed estate in England. Possibly this is what inspired the investigation by the Boothe descendants in Lawrence Co., Ohio. In any event, stories were current in the late 19th century telling why George Boothe had come to America.

The basic version of the story is that, at the age of 12 or 14, George Boothe was with some boys who were showing off their strength. George moved a stone which happened to be a landmark or a cornerstone to a piece of property. For this deed he was liable to the death penalty, and so he was sent to America, either secretly or because of the King's clemency.

In the more elaborate versions of the story, George is said to have been the son of Sir George Booth, second Earl of Warrington, and to have lived for some years with Booth relatives in Gloucester Co., Va. In fact, Sir George Booth (1675-1758) had only one child, a daughter, and there is no reliable evidence that the Booths of Gloucester Co., a prominent family in the Colonial period, were related to the Boothes of Floyd Co. It should be borne in mind that there was a great interest in 19th-century America in rumors of estates in England which were being held in abeyance or which had passed to false claimants because the rightful heirs in America were unable to prove their claim. So there may be nothing of substance behind the legends about George Boothe.

According to Olivia Simmons Keesee (1870-1944), the first descendant of George Boothe to join the DAR, George Boothe was born in Sandwich, Kent, England. In 1980 I was able to examine a complete transcript of the Sandwich parish records, kept at Maidstone, Kent. There was no George Boothe listed. Curiously enough, some of Millie Boothe's ancestors may have lived for a time in Sandwich, Mass. Perhaps that is the origin of that detail.

The will of Daniel Wright of the Manor of Cortlandt, Westchester Co., N.Y., written in 1777 (with a codicil dated 1781), mentions "the land which I purchased of George Booth" (New York Historical Society, Collections, vol. 33, p. 240). One of Daniel Wright's daughters was named "Miloson" (Millicent). Quite possibly Millie Boothe was a sister of this Daniel Wright. Daniel Wright uses the Quaker dating formula. Probably both Daniel and Millie were descended from the Wrights of Oyster Bay, N.Y., which is across the Long Island Sound from Rye. These Wrights had come from Sandwich, Mass., in 1653, and were prominent Quakers (see "The Wright Family of Oyster Bay, L.I.," NEW YORK GENEALOGICAL AND BIOGRAPHICAL RECORD, 1872, vol. 3, pp. 35-45). There was considerable emigration from the Oyster Bay area to Westchester Co. Isaac Boothe's first wife was named Freelove, and Oyster Bay is one of the few places where this name was common.

Beginning in 1787, George Boothe acquired more than 1300 acres in Montgomery Co. (See Netti Schreiner-Yantis, MONTGOMERY COUNTY, VIRGINIA --CIRCA 1790.) He is listed in the 1810 census of Montgomery Co., and he was still alive in March 1813 (Montgomery Co. Deeds, Book E, 341). Millie Boothe is last found in January 1815 when she was a witness to a marriage. Both George and Millie Boothe are said to be buried in the Simmons Cemetery in Floyd Co. Mrs. Linvil G. Rich made a thorough search of this cemetery in 1975 but found no gravestones earlier than 1866 still legible.

Col. Lucian D. Booth's book, DESCENDANTS OF GEORGE BOOTHE, 1737-1813, MONTGOMERY COUNTY, VIRGINIA (1948), lists more than 1200 descendants and contains a great deal of valuable information on many lines. There are copies in the Roanoke Public Library, the Virginia State Library (Richmond), and the Los Angeles Public Library. Col. Booth lists 11 children of George Boothe: Isaac, George, Permellia (Millie), Abijah, Daniel, Elizabeth, Wright, Stephen, Elisha, Nellie, and Riley. Of these, Elisha was actually a Bowman, Nellie was a Simmons, and Riley was the son of George H. Boothe, a grandson of the first George Boothe. I have not been able to confirm Elizabeth, Wright, or Stephen. The marriage record of Thomas Ashley and Ruth Karn (Montgomery Co., Va., Aug. 21, 1797) shows her as a daughter of George Boothe. Either she was a young widow or (more likely) an error was made when the records were recopied. The Polly Boothe who married Stephen Boothe in 1799 is another possible daughter. Col. Booth was unaware of Tamar Boothe.

SECOND GENERATION:

Isaac Boothe, b. Apr. 27, 1758; d. 1837, Lawrence Co., Ark.; m. (1) Freelove -- (b. Apr. 17, 1764; d. Dec. 15, 1809); (2) Mary Ferguson (b. June 26, 1773), Oct. 8, 1810, Franklin Co., Va. Isaac appears in the 1790 and 1800 censuses of Dutchess Co., N.Y. (Frederick township, now Kent township, Putnam Co.). His daughter Freelove gave "Frederick" as her place of birth on her third marriage record. Census records for 5 of Isaac's children (Daniel, Isaac Jr., Freelove Whirley, Anna McAlexander, and Drucilla Langdon) give N.Y. as their place of birth. Bible records survive for Isaac's family and for his daughter Anna's family. Isaac's will: Lawrence Co., Ark., Will Book C, 122-124 (transcript: Floyd Co., Va., Will Book A, 136-137).

Millie Boothe, dates unknown, m. Cyrus Howard (son of James and Mary Howard), Apr. 4, 1787, Montgomery Co., Va. Names of children unknown.

George Boothe, Jr., d. 1801, Kanawha Co., Va. (now W. Va.); m. Sarah Howard (daughter of William Howard), Dec. 23, 1789, Montgomery Co., Va. See VIRGINIA REPORTS, vol. 40, p. 161, "Page and Others Vs. Booth and Others" (first name from Montgomery Co. Court Order Book 23, 275): "...he died in 1801, leaving a widow (who died about 4 months after him), and several children, the eldest about 12 years, the youngest 13 months old."

Abijah Boothe, d. 1841, Jackson Co., Mo.; m. Rhoda Ellen Howard (daughter of James and Mary Howard), Dec. 29, 1789, Montgomery Co., Va. Abijah appears in the 1810, 1820, and 1830 censuses of Montgomery Co. and in the 1840 census of Jackson Co., Mo. Rhoda Boothe is found in the 1850 and 1860 censuses of Jackson Co., Mo.

Daniel Boothe, d. 1857 (?), Patrick Co., Va.; m. (1) Sarah McAlexander (daughter of William McAlexander, Sr.), May 24, 1805, Patrick Co., Va.; (2) Rachel Graham, June 28, 1827, Montgomery Co., Va.; (3) Susannah Hubbard, Dec. 27, 1836, Patrick Co., Va. Daniel appears in the 1810, 1820, and 1830 censuses of Montgomery Co., Va., and in the 1840 and 1850 censuses of Patrick Co., Va. Two daughters of Daniel (Tamar Simmons and Sarah Sowers) gave N.Y. as their father's place of birth on the 1880 census of Floyd Co., Va., as did Asa Boothe, probably a son of Daniel.

Tamar Boothe, b. about 1780, d. 1844 or Jan. 1845, Patrick Co., Va.; m. William McAlexander, Sr. (d. March 8, 1822; son of James McAlexander), Dec. 27, 1798, Patrick Co., Va. William had 11 children by his first marriage, 5 of whom married Boothers. Tamar McAlexander appears in the 1830 and 1840 censuses of Patrick Co., Va. A daughter, Rachel Lester, gave N.Y. as her mother's place of birth on the 1880 census of Raleigh Co., W. Va. The town of Lester, W. Va., is named for Rachel's husband.

"I'M SORRY"

Charlotte Co., VA - Deed Book 12, Page 207:

Whereas I Mary Palmer of the County of Charlotte do hereby for myself Confess that from the hurry of passion without reflection I did say imprudently words going to the injury and Slander of Elizabeth Rackerby which words were in amount that Luke Palmer my husband had acts of intimacy and improper Connection with her the said Elizabeth Rackerby. Now I do Confess that I said so without evidence to justify the Speach, and for which I am truly sorry, and ask the pardon of her the said Elizabeth Rackerby. I will just mention as one cause by which I made the charge towit, an unhappy diference seemed to exist between myself & my dear husband, he seemed to associate at Mrs. Rackerbys & in my passions on that subject, I said without evidence the thing now going to Mrs. Rackerbys injury, And in justice I say of her, I believe her to be a virtuous chaste woman, Given under my hand 28th April 1813.

CENSUS of the TOWN of ROANOKE - 1883

This census is composed of three books that now belong to the Roanoke Valley Historical Society, Roanoke, Virginia, who gave us permission to publish.

On the first page of each volume is written "Alma G. Hart Kyser's Book - Roanoke's first Baby, born June 2, 1882."

The reason for taking the census was that before Roanoke could be incorporated there had to be a certain number of people living here.

p 1 Census of the Town of Roanoke, taken by A.J. Camp. December, 1883

"Remember this saying, the good pay master is lord of another mans purse. He who is known to pay punctually and exactly at the time he promises may at any time and on any occasion raise all the money his friends can spare.

Nothing contributs more to a youngman in the world than punctuality and justice in all his dealings therefore never keep borrowed money an hour beyond the time you promised lest a disappointment shut up your friends purse from you forever."

BOOK REVIEWS

THE SALYER FAMILY

by
Elizabeth L.WL Salyer

This is a history of the Salyers/Sallier family in America since 1655. The immigrant ancestor is thought to have been of French extraction, it has not been determined how his name may have originally been spelled. The history includes information from original court records, personally researched by the author, explanation and documentation of records, old family pictures, reproduction of original documents, confirmation of a name change, lineages numbered and cross-referenced and interesting stories about early ancestors.

The Colonial era Salyers were located in New York, New Jersey, Chowan County, N.C. and other western N.C. counties. It seems from all records that descendants of Zachariah Salyer, Sr. of N.C. went into parts of Southwestern Virginia by 1780. These were Isiah Salyer Sr. of Russell Co, Va, John Salyer of Scott Co, Va, Zachariah Salyer Jr of Scott Co, Va, Martin Dunn Salyer of Lincoln Co, Ky, Benjamin Salyer of Harlan Co, Ky, Sarah Salyer Saylor of Harlan Co, Ky, and Rebecca Salyer Kilgore of Marion Co, TN.

In 1787 Isiah Salyer (1752-1818) settled on Copper Creek in Russell Co, Va. His brothers, John, Benjamin, and Zachariah; sisters, Sarah, wife of Solomon Saylor, and Rebecca, wife of Stephen Kilgore, settled on nearby land. The Salyers intermarried with Virginia peioneer families - Castle, Isaacs, Nickels, Stapleton, Vicars and Byerley. Recently, November 16, 1982, an historic marker honoring Isiah Salyer was erected on Virginia Highway 71, Russell County by the Virginia Department of Highways and Transportation. Kermit W Salyer of Roanoke, a great, great, great grandson of Isiah Salyer requested the marker, and provided proof of the data, with the help of Elizabeth Salyer of West Palm Beach, Fla, and Dr Howard Salyer of Nashville, Tenn.

A review of this book can in no way show the outstanding reference done on the many families represented. The book has a hard cover, 688 pages, and is completely indexed. A gift copy from the author has been placed in the Virginia Room of the Roanoke City Public Library. The price of the book is $51.00 and may be ordered from Mrs. Elizabeth K. Salyer, 734 Ardmore Road, West Palm Beach, Florida 33401.

(Note: The historic marker noted above is located at Grassy Creek Church, between Dickensonville and Nickelsville.)

A DOWNEY AND CRAWFORD ANCESTRY

by

Roy H. Downey

Both the Downey and Crawford Families are traced from Ireland to Pennsylvania, arriving in Virginia as early as 1700 in the areas of Alleghany, Augusta, Botetourt, Craig and Roanoke Counties. The Downeys were a part of establishing the iron works that were located in Alleghany County and were called the Longdale Mines, quarry or furnace Downeys.

The book is a complete genealogy of John Edward Downey born Feb. 29, 1864, son of Archibald J. Downey (1831-1913) and Mary Jane Craft Downey (1832-1903), who married Elizabeth "Betty" Crawford on July 7, 1885 in Covington, Va. by the Rev. A.F. Chapman, pastor of Covington Baptist Church. Elizabeth Crawford was born Aug. 1, 1867 and was the daughter of John J. Crawford (1836-1878) and Eliza Jane Martin Crawford (1835-1878). Some of the early surnames were Brown, Campbell, Craft, Crawford, Downey, Irvine, Kidd, Low, Martin, Nicely, Persinger, Wagoner, Waymon, and others. There are many old family photos. GUIDELINES FOR VIRGINIA APPALACHIAN NOTES

Material for publication:

1. Please type, if possible, on 8½x11" paper, single space, with minimum margins of 1" on all sides and headings patterned on those in this issue. PLEASE use a dark ribbon and CLEAN keys, mail in large manila envelope if ready to publish. If handwritten, please write plainly or print. If you feel you cannot type well, please type the material with double space. Please read the material over before sending it and check all dates.
2. Give source of material. Original documents - where found, type, number of page, etc. We cannot print material from printed source unless we have permission from the author.
3. Deadline for submitting material is the first of the month previous to the month of publication.
4. Material contributed will not be returned unless accompanied by a stamped self-addressed envelope.
5. We welcome all family histories (may have to be edited due to space) copies of court records, Bible records, etc. That little bit of information may be of help to someone. Of course, we cannot promise next issue publication.
6. On family histories, our policy is to print prior 1900 -- much as we would like to carry forward the modern day generations - it uses too much space.

NOTE: We cannot vouch for the accuracy of the material submitted to us or that the "translation" of the original document is true. If you have read such material, you can understand.

QUERIES:

1. Unless queries are to be used as fillers, submit one at a time. Since this is a quarterly, queries not used when originally submitted may become dated and of no value to the writer.
2. All queries should be mailed to VAN, % Mrs C S Fowler, 1716 Colgate St NE Roanoke, VA 24012.
3. Be sure your query makes sense. Don't abbreviate (we will) or over simplify. If longer than 50 words, we will edit.
4. Queries are free to members. To nonmembers the cost is 5¢ a word -- does not include your name and address. Limit of 50 words. We will try to get all queries in as space permits.
5. Please put queries on a separate sheet with your NAME and ADDRESS when enclosing with other material. Some queries have been lost along the way because of being included in the body of a letter. (NOTE: this applies to other requests as well.)

+++++=====+++++
REQUESTS FOR RESEARCH: Our research is made in our library. NO One should ask for material on John Henderson of Virginia -- we need dates, county (area) --give us something to go on. Remember early Virginia went to the Mississippi River - later included Kentucky, West Virginia, part of North Carolina, Tennessee, Maryland, and Pennsylvania (disputes over the boundaries). So when you say John Henderson was born in Virginia ----designate,-parents, children and who married who. Please remember that the research is done by volunteers and therefore is limited, it cannot be a comprehensive research. Also - please enclose a self addressed stamped envelope (SASE)
