PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

May 5, 1983

It seems summer is on the way! With the approaching summer months our members will be planning for family reunions and more research involving travel. While you make your plans for the summer, don't forget to leave time on your calendar for two special events the SWGS has planned. On June 18, we will be visiting Smithfield Plantation and doing research at the Virginia Tech Library. This should be a very enjoyable day and field trip for our members. Also, July 16th is another important day. The SWGS will be sponsoring it's Sixth Annual Genealogical Workshop at the First United Methodist Church in Salem, Va. Our guest speakers will be Mr. John Fredrick Dorman, editor of the Virginia Genealogist and Mr. Richard MacMasters, Professor of History at James Madison University. We are looking forward to a most interesting and informative day. The SWGS hopes to see you at these events and wishes you an enjoyable and profitable summer!

Reported.

FREEHOLDERS.

1789. Nov. 14. A 1705. Removal of mill-dams on Otter River from mouth to Logwood's, Kern's and Ewing's mills. Dams now prevent fish from coming up river. ONE MULLINS FAMILY

by

Marie Justice

ONE MULLINS FAMILY, a history of the family of Revolutionary John Mullins begins with immigration records when the family came from Ireland to Charleston, S.C. The descendants of John Mullins are scattered in the states of Kentucky, North Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia, West Virginia and other places. John Mullins Sr. was discovered in the 1790 Burke Co, N.C., census with 3 sons under 16, a wife and 2 daughters. On the attractive cover of the book is the picture of the historical marker in Clintwood, Va., with the following information:

"NEAR HERE ON HOLLY CREEK, JOHN MULLINS SETTLED IN 1829, THE SECOND SETTLER IN DICKENSON COUNTY. HIS FATHER JOHN MULLINS, THE ONLY KNOWN REVOLUTIONARY WAR SOLDIER RESTING IN THE COUNTY SPENT THE LAST YEARS HERE WITH HIS SON. HE DIED IN 1849 AND IS BURIED NEARBY."

John Mullins Sr.'s descendants through his 3 sons, John Jr., Solomon and James are traced in this book. Only those of Solomon are beyond the third generation. It includes information about allied families of AKERS, FLEMING, JOHNSON, STAMBACK (STUMBO) and others. The book has a soft cover, 175 pages, 8 1/4 x 10 1/2". It has 16 family pictures, is indexed and 204 documented notes. A copy of the book has been placed in the Virginia Room of the Roanoke City Public Library by the author.

The price is $12.00 plus $1.25 postage and can be ordered from Mrs. Marie R. Justice, P.O. Box 2172, Pikeville, KY 41501
