FUTURE MEETINGS

February 18, 1984	"Colonial Ruffians" by by A Roger Ekirch, Associate Professor of History, VPI
March 17, 1984	Craig County, Virginia, in the Civil War
April 21, 1984	Giles County, Virginia by Ruth G Blevins

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

During a period in December and again in the early part of January as I was pondering how best I could serve our Society as President, an idea came to me. First, I need to determine the purpose of this association. Surprisingly, I found it in one line of article I, Section I of our by laws.

"- - - to encourage, foster and organize genealogical research, teaching, publishing, educating and recording; - - -"

when I have a conversation with old friends and new acquaintances and they learn of my hobby of genealogical research of the Brickeys, a great portion will remark: "I started reseaching my ancestors but I hit a snag and put the matter aside." Others will remark, "I want to research my family tree but I don't know how to get started."

This tells me a lot of us want to know more about our ancestors and the part they played in our nations history.

Lesson #1, we need to let these people know about our Society and how we can help them.

I plan to use this space in future issues of the VAN to suggest other ways and give direction as to how we can best serve our purpose.

On January 21st at our regular meeting, Mr. Joe Barnett brought us an excellent message, in spite of equipment failure, on Computerized Genealogy. I was surprised to learn the number of our members present that use personal computers in recording their research.

Plan to be present at our next regular meeting, February 18th, 1:30 P.M. at our present meeting location in the Jefferson Street Baptist Church. Mr. Roger Ekirch, Associate Professor of History - VPI, will be our speaker on "Colonial Ruffians." You don't want to miss this one.

Should you have overlooked mailing your dues for 1984 to-date, you will probably be getting a reminder soon. Don't lay it aside. Mail your check.

Write or personally advise me of any suggestions that you have.

Raymond Brickey, President

PROLOGUE: A family History and Genealogy of and by Richard Wm. Buckingham and his wife, Muriel Barbara Earl, pub. 1979 by Gateway Press, Baltimore, Md., 21202. Library of Congress Catalog #79-51617.

We reviewed this book in 1979, and since that time the Buckinghamhs have moved from Virginia to MN. The cost of the book at that time was $20.00 (I hope that it is still the same.)(Postage?, tax?)

The new address is: Richard W. Buckingham, 204 Chestnut Street, Cloquet, MN 55720.

CASSEL BIBLE

Contributed by
Colonel William Preston Chapter NSDAR
Roanoke, Virginia

The Bible offered to the National DAR Museum (Nov 6, 1964) by Anne Shelor Kennett, past regent of the Colonel William Preston Chapter, DAR, and her sister, Kathleen Shelor Bibb, was printed in Edinburg, Scotland in 1752 by Adrian Watkins, His Majesty's Printer, making it a quarter of a century older than the Declaration of Independence. It was imported by the Cassel family which had come to Philadelphia in 1686 on the "Jefries" after a voyage of seven months. They had come in response to the invitation of William Penn who, knowing of the miserable political conditions in Germany, had gone there to seek settlers for his Pennsylvania colony.

The original owner of the Bible was a young girl, Deborah Cassel, a fifth generation American, who was a war prisoner with her parents in Philadelphia when the British occupied the city. It was in her possession there when the Declaration of Independence was signed and when the Liberty Bell was first rung. During the time that the British held the city the Cassels were forced to burn their mahogany furniture to provide fuel for heat.

Across the Delaware River, three miles from Philadelphia, in Gloucester, N.J., lived John Banks, son of Capt. Richard Banks, who in September 1776, at the age of 19 years, followed the example of his father and joined Washington's Continental Line. In December of 1776 John Banks was stationed in Bucks County, Pennsylvania, and there first saw General Washington. John Banks was in one of the many crafts of various types in Washington's famous Christmas night crossing of the Delaware, and participated in the taking of the 900 Hessians at the battle of Trenton December 26, 1776, and went with the army to Princeton where the Americans won another battle.

Later, on March 9, John Banks was taken prisoner by the British. His Captain (John Cozens) was also taken prisoner. Both were detained three months in Philadelphia, at that time occupied by the British. On June 17, 1778, the prisoners were taken by water to New York City. The British evacuated Philadelphia the next day, following the news that France had become an ally of the colonies. Three weeks later, July 7, 1778 there was a prisoner exchange, and John Banks returned to his home in Gloucester, N.J. On July 13, 1778 he and Deborah Cassel, of Philadelphia were married. It is probable that the young couple had met during peaceful colonial days and had found a way to continue their romance while both were war prisoners in Philadelphia.

During his eight tour in the Continental Army John Banks was made a sergeant, and his last military service was in guarding the salt mines on the coast of New Jersey.

After their marriage Deborah (Cassel) and John Banks lived in Gloucester, N.J., but later, hoping to acquire a large tract of land for their heirs, they emigrated southward, stopping for a time in Frederick County, Maryland, then in Shenandoah County, Va., and then moved on to Montgomery County, Va. Land was cheap here, and Deborah found that she could buy a farm with one of the handsome coverlets she had brought with her from Philadelphia, as the settlers there had never before seen such fine handiwork. It is said that in this way she bought farms for several of her children.

Wherever they went Deborah took with her the Bible which had been a present from her parents. Attesting to the care which she gave it, is the original leather binding which is still intact although the Bible has been in constant use for about 210 years. It contains records of the births of the twelve children of Deborah and John Banks as well as other family information.

Ruth Banks, daughter of John and Deborah Banks, and great grandmother through their mother, of the donors of the Bible, was born in New Jersey August 23, 1783.

Mary Abigail Banks, daughter of John and Deborah Banks, also great grandmother of the donors of the Bible, through their father, was born in Montgomery County, Va., March 25, 1798.

By offering their Bible to the DAR Museum the present owners hope to contribute some valuable records of early American life and to make them available to all the hundreds of descendants of John and Deborah Cassel throughout America and other countries, and to other persons who may be interested. Also they believe that in the custody of the DAR's the Bible will be permanently preserved in a fireproof building.

COMMUNITY OF THE CROSSROADS:
A Study of the Village Bonsack of the Roanoke Valley
by

Deedie Dent Kegey

"Community at the Crossroads" is more than the study of the village of Bonsack. It contains a wealth of information on the Valley settlers who came into Virginia with English, Scotch Irish, German and German-Swiss heritage. Some of these family names were: Bonsack, Cook, Crumpacker, Davis, Gish, Harshbarger, James, Layman, Lunsford, Moomaw, Murray, Smith, St. Clair, Stoner, Wood, Woodson and many other related families.

The book is well documented from many sources; books, church records, court records, interviews, maps and newspapers. Family cemetery records of the Bonsack Cemetery - new and old plot; Cook, Gish, Moomaw, Smith and St. Clair are included. There are 48 illustrations, including old photographs, homes and others.

From the New Frontier (1749-1800) Augusta and Botetourt Counties, Bonsack's beginnings (1800-1850), the coming of the railroad, War, Reconstruction, and Bonsack's Boom (1851-1900) into the 20th Century, an era of change is discussed in Community at the Crossroads. The book has 257 pages and is completely indexed. A figt copy from the author has been placed in the Virginia Room of the Roanoke City Public Library. A copy may be ordered from Mrs Deedie Kegey, 4664 Bonsack Road, Roanoke, VA 24012. The price including sales tax and postage is $17.10.

THE BRICKEY HERITAGE
by

Raymond L Brickey

From early researchers and the OLD BRICKEY BIBLE recently presented to the Virginia Room of the Roanoke City Public Library, Roanoke, Va, Jean Bricquet was the progenitor of the Brickeys in the U.S.A. According to the 1815 Brickey Bible" "John Brickey came from France with his wife about the year 1680 AD. His children were, JOHN, JARAD, JINNY, MARY and PETER. John had all daughters. Jarad had one son, John, who died without children. Peter married Winifred Lucas and had JARAD, JOHN, TEMPERANCE, WINIFRED, PETER, WILLIAM and ELIZABETH."

The Brickey descendants are located in all of the states of the USA. Those migrating from Virginia to another state and their descendants, will carry a prefix of the state's two letter abbreviation before their index number.

There were Brickey Revolutionary War Patriots. Peter was too old to serve. He received a citation for patriotic services by furnishing supplies to the militia. William, Peter's son was a "fifer" in the army. He was present at the surrender of Cornwallis. He received a pension of $50.00 annually in his old age. Peter, the son of Jarad and grandson of Peter 1st, served in the Botetourt County militia on two occasions. His second wife received a land grant in Kentucky. Gerard, Jr, son of Jared and grandson of Peter, served in the Revolutionary army and was listed in the 1840 census as having received a pension.

The BRICKEY HERITAGE contains 458 pages, well documented (copies of many original documents included) and completely indexed. There are copies of some pages from the old Brickey Bible. The book has about 60 pictures. The author has researched the Brickey families for more than 10 years. The book has a hard cover. The price is $39.95. Order from Raymond L. Brickey, 3641 Winding way Road, SW, Roanoke, VA 24015. A copy has been placed in the Virginia Room of the Roanoke City Public Library.

1850 HARDY COUNTY, VIRGINIA CENSUS
by
Clara Mae Ross

The 1850 Federal Census, Hardy Co, Va. has 222 pages and an index including foreign born people on the 1880 Grant County Census. Grant was formed from Hardy in 1866. The Census taker has very pretty handwriting and 20 pages of his handwriting is included.

The author is a native of Hardy County, the book reflects accuracy. The census is listed in the exact order taken by the census taker with exact spelling. Genealogists will appreciate all the extra information. On each family household, the author lists family and dwelling numbers, household name, age, sex, occupation, value of real estate, and place of his or her birth. All family members are listed including name, age, sex, occupation, where born and any outsiders living in the household.

THE NEW RIVER EARLY SETTLEMENT
by
Patricia Givens Johnson

The New River, the world's second oldest river, is portrayed by a foremost historian of Southwest Virginia in one volume. The New River rises in the mountains of western North Carolina, crosses the entire width of the Appalachians from the Blue Ridge in NC through Virginia to West Virginia, where it joins the Gawley to form the Kanawha which flows into the Ohio. The waters of the new course to the Mississippi.

The first settlers were from Northern Ireland, Wales, Africa, Czechoslovakia, Alsace-Lorraine, the Rhine Valley, the cantons of Switzerland, the parishes of England and Scottish Highlands. They came to New River from other places in America, as New England, North and South Carolina, and Pennsylvania. Early religious groups from Dunkards to Lutherans and Moravians played an important role.

A partial listing of settlers in Virginia were Anderson, Baker, Bouerne, Carrico, Chapman, Dickenson, Hale and Nuckolls; North Carolina: Blevins, Cox, Evans, Helton, Osborne, Porter and Wilson; West Virginia: Culbertson, Farley, Looney, Meadow and Staffords.

The book has a hard cover, index, and 232 pages beautifully illustrated with pictures and maps. Documentation is shown from a bibliography of over 200 books and many private papers. The price of the book is $19.95 including oistage, Order from Patricia G. Johnson, Rt 2 Box 50, Christiansburg, Virginia 24073.

A FRONTIER MURDER
by
Theodosia W. Barrett

"One of the most intriguing and complex murder cases in the early history of Southwest Virginia was perpetrated September 27, 1817 at Dickensons Ford on Clinch River near where Russell and Tazewell Counties meet. Abner Vance committed the murder. Lewis Horton was the casualty." The sector of Clinch Valley was an isolated, unique and scenic locale in the 1700s. Very few settlers dared to invade the Cherokee-Shawnee hunting grounds before the Revolutionary war. Many of the permanent settlers arrived in the late 1700s. They were a mixture of Scot-Irish, Dutch, Germans and possibly others. They were attracted to the remote southwest Virginia for various reasons.

The pioneers coped with the hardships and privations of frontier living in a remarkable manner. By combining their skills by 1817 the wilderness had been transformed into a progressive community of picturesque plantation homesteads.

Lewis Horton was a descendent of two early Clinch Valley families, the Hortons and Kendricks from Stafford County, Va. There is no known record of Abner Vance's coming to Clinch Valley. He married into the Howard family, who was a prominent early family. He had eleven children. Abner Vance, according to Russell County Court records was an esteemed citizen, Baptist preacher, poet, Indian fighter and long hunter, fought a losing battle through a series of trials to save his life.

Mrs Barrett has a documented list of Source material. The book has a soft cover, 35 pages, price $3.00, including tax and postage. Order from: Theodosia W. Barrett, PO Box 1045, Lebanon, Va. 24266.

WEBB FAMILIES OF THE VIRGINIAS

by Ronald R. Turner

This study of the Webb family of Virginia is a result of many tryeps of research by the author.

It begins with the early Webbs of Virginia, with a special study of Giles Webb of Nansemond County, Virginia and the Henry Webb family of Grayson County, Virginia.

Early Webb marriages from 58 Virginia Counties, completely indexed both male and female are included. The 1850 Virginia Census of the Webb families names the counties, occupations, ages of all members, birth place if known. The author has added extra information learned from other sources.

Virginia Roots, Webbs in 1880 Soundex born Virginia lists the following states: Ala., Ark., Colo., Washington, DC, Ill., Ind., Iowa, Kan., Ky., Md., Mo., NC, Ohio, Tenn., Texas. The complete family is listed with ages and state of birth.

The book has 1162 pages and is completely indexed. The price of the book is $11.00 by mail and may be ordered from: Ronald R Turner, 4607 Angela Dr., Fairview Park, OH 44126.

MATERIAL FOR PUBLICATION

1. Please type, if possible, on 8½x11" paper, single space, with minimum margins of one inch on all sides and headings patterned on those in this issue. PLEASE use a carbon ribbon or dark ribbon and CLEAN keys, mail in large manila envelope if ready to publish. That is a big help -- one reason it will be published sooner. If not typed, please write plainly or print. If you feel you cannot type well, please type the material with double space. Please read the material over before mailing -- and double check all dates.
2. Give source of material. Original documents - where found, type, number of page, etc. We cannot print material from printed source unless we have WRITTEN permission from the author.
3. Deadline for submitting material is the first of the month previous to the month of publication.
4. Material contributed will not be returned unless accompanied by a stamped self-addressed envelope.
5. We welcome all family histories (may have to be edited due to space). Our policy is to print prior 1900 -- much as we would like to carry forward to the modern day generations. Also we welcome copies of court records, Bible records, etc. That little bit of information that may be of help to someone else. Of course, we cannot promise next issue publication.

===== GENEALOGICAL QUERIES

Each paid-up membership is entitled to up to 3 free, 60-word queries per issue as space permits. Our editors will check the queries for spelling, punctuation, and grammar. However, they will NOT compose them for you. Please make your queries as clear and specific as possible, so that others can understand them and have a chance to really help you. Each query should include enough names, dates, and locations to definitely identify the problem. Each query must be 60 words or less (excluding your name and address). Please capitalize surnames -- is it Mary Smith JONES or Mary SMITH JONES? Do NOT abbreviate, we will.

EDITOR'S COMMENT

We cannot vouch for the accuracy of the material submitted to us or that the "translation" of the original document is true. If you have read such material, you will understand that statement. Please try to get a copy of the original to see if we could be right. Also try to get three "proofs" for one fact.
