October 1990

Dear Fellow Genealogists,

By the time you receive this issue of the VAN the Society will have made a trip to an historic site in Bedford known as Avenel. We have all looked forward to this trip for some time. It is hard to believe that there is only one more meeting in November to complete the 1990 calendar year. Please join us if you haven't attended a meeting recently.

The last issue of the VAN arrived at some houses in sad shape because of a stapling problem at the printer's office. We have been trying to rectify this problem. If the cover was ripped or came off in mailing, we need to know. The printer will try to replace any issues that arrived in poor shape or reimburse us for those. We are sorry if this caused problems for you.

Hope you are enjoying your time in research and will continue to add to you family tree in the days ahead.

Sincerely,

Deedie Kagey
Deedie Kagey,

The subject of lineage could actually read LINEAGE-RECORDS as an hyphenated word, as no lineage could ever be established without records. This year of 1986 is the 900th of the first all encompassing record we English speaking people have of the citizens of a state. In 1085 King William I, during his Christmas court commissioned the Domesday survey. I rather imagine that when most of us think of this survey we assume it lists the names of all the people of England, a total of some one and one half million persons, but most of them did not have names as we know them, that is, first and last names. Only a very limited number of the actual population was listed by name. To give you an idea of the record as presented to the King, I will show one area only, Albury, in Surrey England in the year 1086. The entry in the DOMESDAY SURVEY relating to Albury and translated from the Latin, is told by R. Charles Walmsley, FRICS in a little booklet published in 1974. The "Domesday Book" is said to be so named because it judged all men without bias - like the Last Judgement - named landowners only and showed the value of their holdings and the extent. I hope the following account of the Survey made under William the Conqueror will be of as much interest to others as it was to me.

DOMESDAY SURVEY - Relating to Albury; In Blacheatfield (Blackheath) Hundred. Roger holds of Richard Eldeberie. Azor held it of King Edward. It was then assessed for 4 hides; now for 2½ hides. The land is for 6 ploughs. In demesne there is 1, and (there are) 11 villeins and 5 bordars with 6 ploughs. There is a church; and 4 serfs; and a mill worth 5 shillings. Wood worth 30 hogs (a year). Of these hides, a knight holds 1 hide; and (he has) there in demesne 1½ ploughs, and 1 villein and 1 serf; and there is an acre of meadow. The whole, in the time of King Edward, was worth 10 pounds, and afterwards 100 shillings; now 9 pounds.

The following Notes help explain some of the terms and names of the above.

1. Blackheath Hundred. A county was divided into Hundred, each of several parishes, for what we should police purposes.
2. Roger d'Abernon, whose descendants held Albury for five centuries.
3. Richard de Tonebridge, ancestor of the great house of de Clare, Earls of Hertford and of Gloucester.
4. Eldeberie - i.e. 'the old Bury'. Doubtless derived from the Roman enclosed settlement on Farley Heath.
5. Azor. An Englishman who held large estates of King Edward, and did not lose them all at the Conquest. He had made his peace with the Conqueror, but died before 1086.
6. Assessed for 4 hides. A hide was 120 acres, but it does not follow that there were really 480 acres here. It is what we call a rateable value, so reckoned for purposes of taxation.
7. Now - i.e. in 1086 the rateable value is lowered.
8. 6 ploughs. This almost certainly refers to an ancient valuation of King Edward's days, not to any definite measure of land.
9. demesne. The part of the estate farmed by the lord's bailiff. 'Home Farm', we should call it.
10. there is 1 - one plough, meaning one team of eight oxen.
11. villiens. Small farmers who had land of their own, worked by them in co-operation, of which they could not be deprived, but who owed certain work on the lord's land and certain payments, and were not free to leave. There were 11 villein holdings here, with one man responsible for each, but most probably with several sons, brothers or relatives on each holding. The population can not be estimated from this.

12. bordars. Tenants in a lower class than villeins, perhaps with only a cottage and garden and no farming land. The same remark applies to this number as to that of the villeins.
13. church. The Church of Albury Park bears traces of the church mentioned here.
14. serfs. Absolute slaves who could be bought and sold. Probably heads of families. They had no holdings of land, as even bordars had on a small scale.
15. mill. A water mill. Dues paid for grinding at it worth 5s a year. The Villeins would grind their corn here.
16. Wood worth 30 hogs. Wood from which thirty hogs could be provided a year, but it would feed very many more. Thirty killed.
17. a knight. In all probability this unnamed knight was ancestor of the family afterwards called de Weston. Weston Street is the correct name of the main street of Albury village. De Westons held it as a separate manor under the de Clares (see Note 3).
18. $1\frac{1}{2}$ ploughs. This sound mysterious, but a plough means eight oxen. He had twelve oxen - enough to draw one plough with four over. Surrey farmers would plough with less than eight oxen. He also had two tenants - his managing farmer and one slave under him.
19. worth 10 pounds - i.e. in the time of King Edward, before 1066.
20. afterwards. After the Conquest of 1066 and the ravage of the country by the march of William's army, which came through or near Albury. The value of the land dropped by one-half that year (1066/67).
21. now. In 1086, it has nearly recovered, but the lowered assessment for taxation is allowed to stand.

From the time of the survey in 1086 until Runnymede on June 15, 1215 when the great charter - MAGNA CHARTA - was granted by King John of England, the people started to add second or Surnames to the first names and many occurrences of their lives were being recorded, such as marriages, births and deaths. Most of these records were kept by the churches of England (as well as those of other countries) and even today, if one knows where to look - county or area - many of them are available. When the ownership of property became more prevalent, the records were kept by the civil authorities.

By the time of the first settlement in 1607 in this country some of the people, not all of course, were able to read, held property which could be sold or traded and the transactions had to be recorded. From these records we are often able to carry down generation after generation of a family to form a pedigree. Without records it would be almost impossible to do this. I know there are some cultures where the genealogies are given orally by a very limited number of people, such as was done by the Hawaiians, but even they have now had this information put into book form. When a people have writing they have records, when they do not, there is no way to establish a true genealogy.

From the time of the first settlement in this country until just before the Revolution, records were fairly well kept, both in the churches and by the civil governments, primarily because of property, and names of the titheables which were the principal source for taxes. Marriages, births and deaths were often kept by local ministers of some of the churches as their private property, but many Parish Churches still have existing records which are valuable for research. One of the most informative and complete sources for church records is William Wade Hinshaw's ENCYCLOPEDIA OF AMERICAN QUAKER GENEALOGY. The Quakers kept meticulous records and even though there may be no indication that an ancestor was a Quaker, these records are worth looking into, especially up until the early 1800s when the people started migrating over the mountains and from older states of the coast into the Northwest Territory and other new areas of the country. The hardest period of research seems to be from the end of the Revolution until the first complete census of 1850; until then land records and sometimes wills were kept but not much else because of distances involved to seats of government and the lack of laws. It was not until after the early 1900s that most of our states required that vital statistics be recorded, which certainly made for easier research. One of the most important and often overlooked places for records are the family Bibles or Record Books. The prize possession of many of our early families was the Bible. In these were recorded the marriages, birth and deaths, often for a number of generations, and these Bibles were passed down from member to member of a family. If a family Bible is available for research, feel most fortunated! If the contents of any known Bible have not already been published in some form, see that it is done, so the information will not be lost forever from this prime source of LINEAGE-RECORDS.

Searching records can be frustrating, but remember, you have established a bit of history when you have found an answer to a problem and that can be most enjoyable!

PATTERNS OF FREEDOM
 Records of the Freedmens Bureau
 1866 Marriage & 1867 Census
Montgomery County, Virginia
 Compiled and Edited by R. Boulton Dickenson
 August 1990

Prior to The Surrender at Appomattox, on April 9, 1865, the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned lands, usually called the Freedmen's Bureau, was established by an act of Congress approved March 3, 1865. Within the the State of Virginia, following The War of the Rebellion, the bureau was divided into 8 districts, Montgomery County being one of 18 counties included in the 8th district. Brevet Captain Charles S. Schaeffer, a native of Germantown (Philadelphia) Penn., was assigned to the 8th District headquarters in Christiansburg, under Special Order No. 9 of May 23, 1866.

It was under his direction that the following 1866 marriage records, and the 1867 Census, of Freedmen were taken. Where appropriate, the incomplete 1865 census taken by Schaeffer's predecessors, are included. All told, they are among the few such records to survive the disestablishment of the Freedmen's Bureau by Congress in 1868, and the subsequent withdrawal of the bureau from the States in 1869.

OBITUARY of ELDER WILLIAM B. RADFORD

Contributed by: Mrs. Paul S. Pate

Our beloved brother, Elder Wm. B. Radford, who was born of Primitive Baptist parentage in Franklin County, Va., the third day of August, 1825, departed this life the 29th day of January, 1901, at the age of 75 years, 5 months and 26 days.

Brother Radford was married to Miss Artie Cockram, his beloved and devoted companion, on the second day of December, 1845. By that union were born seven children. All but one, which passed away in infancy, remain in this poor world.

Brother Radford professed a hope in the Lord and joined the church at Union the 20th day of November, 1853, and was baptized by Elder Joshua Adams. Soon thereafter he professed a call to the ministry, and the church gave him liberty to exercise the same in the bounds of the church. In the year 1864, the church, feeling that his gift was profitable, gave him license to preach the word where God in his providence might call him. In the fall of 1865, a presbytery of elders composed of Elders A. J. Cassell and W. T. Robertson ordained him to administer the gospel ordinances.

His wife Artie preceded him to the grave; but he was soon married again to sister Lourinda Edwards, daughter of Elder A. J. Cassell. They lived devotedly together till he passed away.

Elder Radford was a member of the church at Charity, and was pastor. He was a good counselor and peacemaker. His gift seemed to be experimental, and in doctrine he believed in salvation by grace alone. When the writer was with him he spent his time in speaking of his own experience and God's mercies. But, dear brethren of Charity and of our Association, wife and children, his voice is heard no more. Yet we trust and believe that his immortal soul is basking in the blessed paradise of God, where no widow's tears are known, no orphan's cries are heard, but in joy and sweet concord they stand around the throne.

Elder J. W. Blacett

DECENNIAL DIGEST

I want to give you another source. It is my very favorite for every new line I research. It is called the 1st Decennial Digest. You may need to write down these dates -- it only covers 1658 to 1911. Volumes 21-25 of the 1st Decennial Digest (1897-1906) comprise the Table of Cases, or the index, to Volumes 1-50 of the Decennial Digest (1658-1896), and Volumes 1-20 of the 1st Decennial Digest (1897-1906). It has over 500,000 cases in it. The Decennial Digest is in five (5) volumes, and 20 percent of your American surnames -- as an average -- are in the Decennial Digest.

1860 FEDERAL CENSUS TAZEWELL COUNTY, VIRGINIA. by Francis W McIntosh and Elise Greenup Jourdan. This record was taken from the microfilm and the original census record by Francis W McIntosh and formatted, transcribed and laser-jet printed by Elise Greenup Jourdan. There's not too much you can say about books on census records -- poor, good, best. This is one of the best that I have seen. Easy to read, published in the order in which it was taken (there is a surname index), and ALL information on the original census is given here, which many people do not include. This additional information helps to identify the people we are looking for. This book has 171 pages, printed on acid-free paper and has a soft cover. Price is $18.00 (postpaid) and order from Elise Jourdan, 8624 Asheville Highway, Knoxville, TN 37924. (reviewed by Babe Fowler)

Other books by the above: 1840-1850 FEDERAL CENSUS, TAZEWELL COUNTY, VIRGINIA and ready in a couple of months will be 1870 FEDERAL CENSUS, TAZEWELL COUNTY, VIRGINIA. Also available if GREENUP-WITTEN-CECIL by Mrs. Jourdan. For information write to Mrs Jourdan at the above address.

BOOK REVIEWS: All books sent will be reviewed and printed in the next issue of VAN. Please include the price of the book, any advertising material that you have and where the book may be ordered. All books will be placed in a library, usually the Virginia Room of the Central Roanoke City Public Library, Elwood Park, Roanoke, VA, or a library of your choice in the area that VAN covers. Mail to SVGS, PO Box 12485, Roanoke, Va.

For members, we will place a small notice in VAN of an upcoming book or of a book that they have published. We cannot put in review notices of books that we have not received.

FAMILY REUNION, PRE-PUBLICATION OF BOOK, NEWSLETTERS, ETC: Limited to 60 words, not including one name and address. We cannot edit a full page down to 60 words - so send the notice as you want it printed. These notices will be put in as space permits.

MATERIAL FOR PUBLICATION: We welcome articles, records, etc for publications. The material when received may not be used in the following issue, but in a future issue.

1. READY FOR PUBLICATION (which the editor loves). Please type (use a carbon ribbon or dark ribbon and CLEAN KEYS.) Use 8½x11" page, single space, with minimum margins of one inch on all sides. Title your article and place as in similar articles used in VAN. Be sure to include your name and address to be identified as the contributor of the article. If not typed, please print or type double space -- some articles that have been written we cannot read or those that are typed with caps are difficult to read. PLEASE read the material over before mailing and double check all dates!

2. Give source of material. Original documents - where found, type of record, page number, etc., or who now has the document in their possession. We CANNOT PRINT material from printed sources unless we have WRITTEN permission from the publication or publisher. We must have source of material, to give credit to the person who has done the work.

3. DEADLINE for submitting material is the first of the month previous to the month of publication.

4. Material contributed will not be returned unless accompanied by a stamped, self-addressed envelope -- it would be better to send a photocopy, as letters do get misplaced and lost.

GENEALOGICAL QUERIES: Each member is entitled to one or up to 3 free, 60-word query per issue as space permits. Our editor will not compose queries for you, so please make your query as clear and specific as possible so that others can understand them and have a chance to help you. Each query should include names, dates and locations to identify the problem. Each query must be 60 words or less (excluding your name and address). Please capitalize surnames -- is it Mary Smith JONES (single) or Mary SMITH JONES (widow or divorced). Do NOT abbreviate, we will. Queries for non-members are 5¢ a word not including your name and address.

SURNAME INDEX: Information will include Name (given & surname), Place (location at time of date), Date (birth, death, marriage, where living at the date given). This information will go on one line. If this information takes more than one line or the wife or husband's name is included on a single line, it will be counted as two lines. The surname index will be in the August issue and must be in by July 1st.
