SOUTHWESTERN VIRGINIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY

February, 1991

Dear Fellow Members:

I hope your holidays were wonderful and that your new year will be great. We have some exciting plans for 1992, and I would like for each of you to be a part of them. We will have our regular meeting dates each month. In March, we have a field trip planned for the Roanoke College Archives. You will be receiving more information about that trip.

We would like to welcome Carol Milbourn as our new treasurer. Ed Graham has done a wonderful job for the past two years, but our by-laws limit that position to two years. He is probably in need of a rest. Mildred Campbell will be our new corresponding secretary. Their telephone numbers have been included on the inside cover of the VAN. If you need them, please give them a call. If you have not paid your 1992 dues, please take care of that. Gene Swartzell, our membership chairperson, and H.W. Scott are trying very hard to keep our membership rolls up-to-date and correct. One problem we are encountering is those of you who are moving and neglecting to send us a notice of your move. It takes a long period of time for us to mail you something and have the Post Office return it to us. It also costs us return postage. If you are moving, please drop us a note.

We have sold many back issues of the VAN. We still have some copies of most issues available if you are interested. The new Membership Directory is in the works now, and you will be receiving it as soon as it is ready.

Thanks go to all the hard-working officers of this organization. Some of them put in a lot of time taking care of the business matters. If one of them calls you needing help, please try to find the time to help out.

Sincerely,

Patsy Wingfield
President

A LETTER FROM TEXAS

Collin County June the 3rd 1859

Dear Brother

Thos Horton I Sit down this evening to drop you a few lines to let you know that we are all well and well pleased with the Country hoping these few lines will find you and family enjoying the Same like blessings. I would have written to you before but did not know where to direct my letter until I Rc^d a letter from James Duncan which informed me you were in the Cove. I will try to give you a description of Collin C^o. as fare as I have Sean for beauty and Soil it cannot be beat on earth the Prairies lies high and just rolling enough to drain the water off betwen the branches of the Sabine. The Prairies is about 1/2 mile wide and on the branches timber enough to answer the demands of the country. These branches run up the divide between the Sabine and Trinity rivers and Some of them is from 1/2 mile to 50 miles in length. These Prairies are covered with grass that looks like a wheat field with numerous heards of cattle and deer. Some times can be Sean twenty in a gang. The Prairies at this Season of the year is over Spread with flowers of every tint and hue. The land is all taken up in Collin Co. but a plenty for Sale. I know of three four hundred acre tracks it is said can be had for $2.00 per acre one half timber and the other half Prairie land and a great many other tracks that can be had for $2.50 per acre. If you intend to move to this Country the Sooner you come the better it will be for you as land is rising verry fast. There is a 350 acre track joins me that has got a good double house orchard and about 45 acres in cultivation that can be had for $3000.00. I think this will be a great Season for people to move to Texas as there was plenty of wheat made and a good looking chance for corn. If I was young and back in Virginia and know what I now know about Texas I could not be kept there. I would beg my passage to Texas. My opinion is that Collin Co. is a great deal healthier a place than the Rye Cove. The water does not lie on the ground and the Springs and wells is not fed by Stagnated water. There is allway a pleasant air stirring on the Prairies though verry Sultry in the timber. Our wheat harvest is over here and the people is generally done laying by their corn and better looking corn I never saw grow out of the ground.

Please tell Mr. Robert F. Dorton that he could do much better in this country than in Va. as good wagonmaking can do well here. I will not bring my letter to a close as I want to write a few lines to Brother Harry Carter. Please write as Soon as this comes to hand and let me know how you are getting along. To Tho^s Horton. John Pendleton

Collin County Texas June the 3^d 1859

Dear Brother and Sister in Christ I take this opportunity to drop you a few lines to let you know that we are all well and well satisfied with the country hoping these few lines may find you enjoying the same like blessings. I have had better health since I left Va for the same length of time than I have had for many years. I should like verry much to see you once more in the flesh but I never expect to see you until the judgment of the great day but hope in God to see you in that better world where parting will be no more. I have often thought of you and drempt of seeing you, & how glad I was. I often think of being at your house and seeing old Harry smile when I slept in and the many good dishes of coffee my dear Sister Polly has dished out to me and the happy Seasons we have had together but now more than a thousand miles apart.

A word now to Sister Polly in regard to her beautiful flowers in her garden. Her garden is nothing in comparrison to our Prairies for beauty. They are covered the bloom from the large rose down to the little pink. When the Seed gets ripe I will Send you Some of the beauties of Texas. When you get these lines I want you to write to me and let me know how you are getting along. When I got to Texas I felt like John did in the isle of Patmus almost banished from friends no meeting houses. An old Baptist Sister invited me to preach at her house. My first sermon was from Paul to the Romans the first chapter and the 15 and 16 verses. I have since bin preaching in a School House near Farmersville and in the Masonic Hall in Farmersville. We have Missionary Baptist and old side Baptist and Methodist. The presiding Elder here is James Belamy that used to be with us at Copper Creek in the time of that big revival. I have not heard a Shout in Texas except Mary Pendleton. Tell old Brother Tommy Carter that I had the pleasure of spending one night in talking with old Robt Gibson and saw Matha Moss and passed by Charles Nelson but did not know it until I had passed his house. Matha Moss is independent of this world he clears about $60.00 per day from his saw mill and gris mill. Gibson had not heard any thing of Elijah Carter for three or four years. I must conclud my letter Write when this comes to hand.
To Harry and Polly Carter

John Pendleton

Note: I send this letter to you because I think you would like to have a copy. This letter was written shortly after John Pendleton moved from Virginia to Texas. Gibson and Moss lived in Tennessee and were visited on the way. Nelson also lived in Tennessee. All of these families originally came from the area around Rye Cove and Ft. Blackmore, Virginia. Mary Pendleton was John Pendleton's daughter-in-law, the wife of his son Newton Pendleton. The copy of this letter was sent to me by Mrs. Edward H. Shook, a grand daughter of Thomas Horton to whom the original was directed. My best wishes to you for Christmas and the New Year.

/B/ James W. Phillips

James W. Phillips was the son of Roy E. Phillips and Charlotte Elizabeth Pendleton, grandson of Eldridge Howard Pendleton and Sarah Cassandra Robinson, great-grandson of William Gaines Pendleton and Charlotte Coupland, and great-great-grandson of John Pendleton and Jemima Kilgore. James W. Phillips was born in 1919 and died Dec. 20, 1986. He was the author of The Pendleton Family which was published in the late 1930s. He was the Curator of the DeGoyers Library in Dallas, Texas.

Mr. Phillips sent the copy of John Pendleton's letter to Maxine Pendleton Sanders of Wichita Falls, Texas. Mrs. Sanders is the daughter of Homer Alexander Pendleton and Marguerite B. Shine, granddaughter of Eldridge Howard Pendleton and Sarah Cassandra Robinson, great-granddaughter of William Gaines Pendleton and Charlotte Coupland, and great-great-granddaughter of John Pendleton and Jemima Kilgore. Mrs. Sanders shared this letter, and other valuable information, when my late husband, Robert Ferrell Pendleton and I began our family search.

Robert Ferrell Pendleton was the son of Hardy Winford Pendleton and Lydia Rowena Bradford, grandson of Croel Newton Pendleton and Maggie L. Allison, great-grandson of William Pendleton and Harriet Rebecca Hawkins, great-great-grandson of Isaac Newton Pendleton and Mary ? (she was mentioned in John Pendleton's letter), great-great-great-grandson of John Pendleton and Jemima Kilgore.

John Pendleton was born ca. 1792 in Russell (now Scott) County, Virginia. He was the son of Benjamin Pendleton. John married Jemima Kilgore ca. 1810. She was the daughter of William Kilgore and Virginia Jane Osborne. John was a Methodist minister and farmer. John and Jemima were the parents of 13 children (all born in Scott County, Va.). Their children were: Melinda who married Daniel Price, William Gaines who married (1) Charlotte Coupland (2) Rhoda Day, Hiram Kilgore who married Eliza Jane Richmond, Ira T. who married Phoebe Flannery, Isaac Newton who married (1) Mary ? (2) Lucy Shifflett, Jane who married John Duncan, John Craig who married Martha Ann Asbury, Eliza who married (1) Monroe W. Legg (2) Elijah W. Hendrix, Andrew Jackson who married Sallie Taylor, Allison Osborne who married Rebecca Ann Lawson, Sarah E. who married Abraham J. Gaylon, Minerva Jemima who married (1) Levi Howell (2) Joseph Rice Buchanan, and Melvin C. who married (1) Mary Davis (2) Narcissus M. Brummett.

John Pendleton, his wife Jemima and their children lived in Scott County, Va. until shortly before 1850 when they moved to Lee County, Va. In the fall of 1858, John and Jemima Pendleton, sons Allison Osborne and Isaac Newton and their families, daughter Eliza and her husband Monroe Legg, grandsons Eldridge Howard and James Bell Pendleton, and brother-in-law Robin Kilgore moved to Texas. The trip to Texas was made in covered wagons and it took them 64 days to make the trip. It is believed that son William

Gaines Pendleton was already in Texas teaching school. John Pendleton died Oct. 11, 1861 and is buried in the Pendleton Cemetery near Farmersville, Collin County, Texas. Jemima Kilgore Pendleton died May 28, 1868 and is buried beside her husband.

John Pendleton evidently knew the value of Collin County, Texas well as it now one of the fastest growing counties in the state. It is near Dallas and much of the growth is due to the location and interstate highways.

Many descendants of John and Jemima Pendleton have visited Southwest Virginia in search of their roots, and have grown to love the area and it's residents. The area is especially lovely in the fall with the many colors on the trees and bushes.

CHAMPAIGN WOMAN, AGED 108, TALKS

Champaign Daily Gazette, 10 Aug 1912, Champaign, IL

contributed by Michele McNabb, Archives Ass't
Champaign Co Historical Archives *

What would you do if you were the oldest person in Champaign, having lived several years over the century mark and far beyond the four-score years and ten, the time allotted for man to inhabit this earth?

Mrs Winnie Hennison, 411 West Maple street, 108 years old, says she is happy in her own thoughts as she sits on the back porch of the home of her daughter, Mrs Maggie Carter, and looks over the sunny yard with its wealth of old-fashioned and bright-hued "posies" and wanders back in memory to the old antebellum days in the south "before de wah."

Children Born In Slavery

Born and reared in slavery, bearing her sixteen children under the same conditions, the old southern "mammy's" thoughts naturally dwell mostly on her younger days. "Ole marster" and "young missy," the huge plantation in Tennessee, the few bright spots in the lives of the slaves, such as "possum killin' time," "apple-jack time," "Christmus time" and "camp meetin'" time, and through it all never to be forgotten memories of hard work in the cotton fields from daylight till dark and the cruel words and deeds of the slave-owner, dwell uppermost.

Retains All Her Faculties

Mrs Hennison retains all of her faculties to a remarkable degree excepting that her mind wanders and she cannot keep it long on any subject of the present which is brought before her. She will revert in thought to the olden days and the fact is not to be wondered at. She does not wear "specs" and probably the reason for this is the fact that the old woman never could read nor write. Her hearing is remarkably keen and she is the first of the household to hear a Big Four engine's shrill whistle long before the train thunders by a little ways from the front of the house.

The Centenarian's face is threaded with winkles, but a pair of humorous old eyes in which there is a saddened cast, however, beams out above it. Mrs Hennison said that her two southern masters in Tennessee were noted for their cruelty and memories of old times and old scenes are forever crowding before her mental vision.

Negro Born in 1804

Mrs Carter says that her mother's age would not be known if it had not been for an elder brother of Mrs Hennison's, who died several years ago. Before his death he informed Mrs. Carter how old her mother was, saying that she born on the plantation of one Dave Kent in Pulaski county, between Lynchburg and Bristol in 1804.

Napoleon Starting on Conquests

The year of Mrs Hennison's birth was the same as that which witnessed the beginning of the fame of Napoleon Bonaparte, which extended uninterrupted for ten years. When the "little corporal" died broken hearted on the island of St Helena in 1821, Mrs Hennison, being seventeen years old, was serving in the capacity of maid for "young missis" who had married her "marster" ten years before.

During the war of 1812 with England, our second war of independence as it were, the little pickaninny was playing around the plantation cabins with the other negroes of her age on the immense preserves owned by Mr Kent. Three years later she began her training for "lady's maid."

Remembers Marriage of Master

"Yassir, I remember that time well," said the old ex-slave. "When Marster

Champaign Woman, Aged 108, Talks (con't)

Dave he married Miss Virginny Buford I went along with de young couple to watch over de young missy. They was kind to me in de main, but Marse Kent was turrible hard on his niggers an' beat 'em an' sold 'em aroun' lak dey was a passel of cattle."

"How'd I know when I was free?" she continued, "marster come an' tol' us hissef and he didn't lak it none too well, neither. But we-all didn't lak him an' we all skun out as quicken as we could."

Mrs Hennison has remained with the Carters in Tennessee near their old plantation home until three years ago when the family removed to Champaign.

JITS, JOTS, AND DOTS ON THE OLD FAMILY NAMES OF SCOTT

by

C. V. Compton

from

Thursday, December 23, 1937
The Gate City Herald (Va)

The Adams family is of Welsh origin. They migrated to Pennsylvania long before the Revolutionary War and two brothers, Samuel and George came down the "Great Trough" of Virginia. Samuel went to Kentucky in 1773 as one of the very first settlers of that state and George's descendants are the Adams in Scott and adjacent counties.

Addington is an old English name. They came from the region of London prior to the Revolutionary War. William Addnigton (sic), who is the progenitor of the Addingtons of Southwest Virginia, participated in the Battle of Yorktown from Culpepper (sic) Co., Virginia. After the close of the Revolution he with his family migrated to Caswell County, North Carolina and thence on to Hyter Gap, Virginia. We find a James Addington, living in the same community of North Carolina (sic) with William prior to 1800 and a member of the Quaker Church -- we do not know the exact relationship -- whether father and son or what. We know William Addington, who married Miss Cromwell left two sons, and one of these was Charles Cromwell Addington, who moved from Hyter Gap in 1802 to the Old Billie Guillenwater's Farm near Wood, Virginia, but due to the fear of fever and chills he migrated to the Copper Creek Region in a year or so and founded the Addinton (sic) settlement in that section.

Brickey was originally Briquette, until Anglicized to the present spelling. John Brickey with his family left France during the St. Bartholomew Massacre 1686, first coming to Charleston, South Carolina and then with his wife, Mary, and the following children: Gerard, John, Jr., William, Peter, Gency, Nancy, and Mary to Maryland. John, Sr. moved from Maryland Co., Va. prior to 1725 where he left a will 1732. Among his children only Peter, who married Winifred Lucas, had male heirs to continue the Brickey name. His sons John and Jerrard moved to Southwest Virginia prior to the Revolutionary War and John married Mary Garner, migrated after the close of the war (1789) to Blount Co., Tenn. Most all the Brickeys of Southwest Virginia are the descendants of Garrard Brickey.

Broadwater is English from Broadwater Hundred, Hertfordshire, England. We find the will of William Broadwater in Accomac County dated 1716 leaving a large family of sons and daughters. In the Revolutionary War at least nineteen Broadwaters served in the Continentla (sic) Army. Charles and Nancy Broadwater, born in Fairfax Co., moved to Loudon Co., and in 1787 bought a farm in Botetourt County and sold the farm in 1811 and came to Russell (Scott) County. We believe Charles died enroute but his wife, two sons, William and John and four daughters, reached Scott County about 1812. John married Winnie Kilgore from whom all the Broadwaters of southwest Virginia are descendants. William married a Culbertson and migrated to Missouri in 1825 where find most of his descendants.

Carter is an old English name. We find more Carters in Scott County than any other family name -- also this is true for the state of Virginia. The Carters of Scott County came from Amherst Co., Virginia in about 1772 to

Scott Co., Va., con't

Scott. We find the will of James Carter, Amherst County, mentioning two sons, Jas. and Dale which will is dated 1754.

Carrico is a Gallic name -- they came direct from France during the St. Bartholomew Massacre in 1686 to Charleston, South Carolina. One of the descendants moved to Danville, Virginia region from whom the Carricos of Southwest Virginia are descendants.

Compton is an Anglo-Saxon name, meaning a town in the hills, John Compton came to Roxbury, Massachusetts in 1634 as a Baptist. William, his son migrated to Long Island and at one time owned a part of Coney Island -- then he moved to Woodbridge, New Jersey in 1666 with his wife Mary Wilmot where he bought the land from the Indians and built the first Baptist Church in New Jersey from which church all the Baptist churches of Pennsylvania, Maryland and(sic) the Valley of Virginia have sprung. Just prior to the Revolutionary War John Compton, his brother Samuel, and their nephews, Abraham, Jeremiah and Reubin came to Botetourt County, Va. John was killed by the fall of a tree on Wolfe Creek in 1778, Abraham was killed in the Continental Army in 1779, Samuel died at a ripe ole age in Botetourt County, Jeremiah drew a pension for Continental service and died in Sevier County, Tenn., and Reubin drew a pension and died in Montgomery Co., Virginia, but most of his descendants migrated to Arkansas. Abraham's descendants are the Comptons of Scott County, Va.

Culbertson is a Scottish name but Joseph Culbertson came from Ulster County, Ireland in 1720 and established Culberston Row, Franklin Co., Pennsylvania. One of his sons settled at Culbertson Bottom, near Draper's Meadow from whom all the Culbertsons of Southwest Virginia have sprung. Joseph Culbertson who was buried near Ft. Blackmore, possibly say service in the Revolutionary War. All Culbertson in American are akin.

Dingus (Dinges, Dingess, Dingee) is of Teutonic origin. They came from the Palatinate, Rhine Region Germany. Three brothers came across in 1749-50-51 and the last one of the three to come was Phillip Dingus, the progenitor of the Dingus's of Southwest Virginia. One of Phillip Dingus' sons married a Miss Head (a German woman) whose son Phillip Dingus, who married Nancy McConnell, the sister of Adam and George McConnell. It is the writer's opinion that George, Adam and Nancy McConnell's father was Adam McConnell. Adam McConnell served in the Revolutionary War in Pennsylvania and his son Adam, Jr., served in the Indian Wars of 1787. Nancy spoke German fluently and had her own German Bible. George spoke German and possibly English brokenly as when he came from Glade Hollow (near Lebanon, Va.,) and bought the land around the Glad around the Glade Hollow Region, Scott Co., he said in his German dialect that he bought a "Walley on top of a hill". Phillip Dingus who married Nancy McConnell, left a large number of descendants in southwest Virginia, and eastern Kentucky.

Bowens are from Wales. We find them at Frederickstown, Maryland. Reece Bowen left Fredericktown, Maryland and in the fullness of years drifted down the great "trough" to Tazewell County, Va. He married Miss Louisa Smith in Augusta County, Va., lived for a while on the present site of Roanoke City. He is reputed to be the one of the Long Hunters and settlers at Maiden Springs in 1772. His descendants are scattered along the Clinch Region.

Scott Co., Va., con't

Estill is of Irish descent. Wallace Estill was the originator of the Estills and born in New Jersey in 1707. He married Mary Bowdy and came to Augusta County, Virginia about 1745. Benjamin Estill, the second son was born in 1735, married Kitty Moffett in Augusta Co., and thence moved to Washington Co., Virginia. His brother went to Kentucky and a county was named for him, while Benjamin gave the name to Estillville, Virginia, which in later years has been changed to Gate City, Virginia.

Tips to Improving Your Writing
by
Charles Lehman

Improving your handwriting is not a very difficult process. There are five common elements used in the formation of letters and words that when done correctly will yield legible and graceful writing.

These five tips are known as the five S's: Speed, Slope, Space, Size, Shape.

Speed: Slow Down!!! Even though life seems to be going by in the wink of an eye, there is no reason to rush when writing. Writing fast is a major cause of poor writing as it does not allow you enough time to properly form letters.

Slope: Your script should reflect the natural movement of the hand. All letters should slope in the same direction at about 10 degrees to the right.

Space: Letters should not be cramped and uneven, but rather should be equally spaced. Two straight strokes (l,i) should be further apart than a straight stroke with a curved letter (a,n,o), while 2 curved letters should be the closest together of all (o,o).

Size: Make sure all capital letters are consistent in size; lower-case letters as well.

Shape: Letters with the same body shapes, such as the rounded parts of (d,g,q) should be consistent.

By legibly signing my name below, I hereby agree the bird's got to go. I needn't be chicken and scrawl like a fowl; I'll write like a human and keep sacred my vow.

Because my handwriting is unique, I can write clearly and still be chic. I'll encourage my boss, my peers and my friends: "Don't scratch like a chicken with pencil or pen."

Your days are now numbered you fowl feathered blight; the call has been sounded, "Good writers unite!"

FRANCIS BROWNING

contributed by Gene Swartzell

Russell Co, Va, Order Bk 9, p 395: Oct 2, 1832: Russell County Court to wit: On the 2nd day of October 1832 personally appeared before the County Court of Russell and State of Virginia Francis Browning, a resident in the county of Russell and State of Virginia, aged about seventy-nine years, who being first duly sworn according to law, doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the provisions made by the act of Congress passed June 7th 1831 ---. That he entered the service of the United States in the State line of North Carolina in the month of October in the year he thinks of 1778 at Hillsborough in the said State, under Captain William White and as he now thinks, Lieutenant Lawson and Ensign William Raney, and was attached to the State Regiment commanded by Col. James Saunders and Major Moore for a term of six months, and from Hillsborough, the place of rendezvous, he, with the said Regiment marched to Salisbury, when when they joined the Salisbury Regiment under the command of Col. Lock, and were then placed under the command of General Rutherford and marched from thence to a place then called Pine Tree, the same perhaps which is now called Camden in the State of S. Carolina, near the junction of the rivers Congaree and Wateree, and from thence marched to the Ten Mile house, it being about ten miles from Charleston in the State of S. Carolina, and from thence to a little town called Dodgeston, and from thence took up their line of March for Savannah in South Carolina, where they joined the main army under the command of General Lincoln at a town called Pinensburgh upon the Savannah river. From which place the Regiment to which the said Frances Browning belonged, marched up the said river to a place called the "Two Sisters" where they remained, nearly in sight of the enemy for about one month, and then marched to the place called Brian Creek, where they joined General Ash in the time of the Battle fought at that place, and took part in that engagement, and from thence he and his regiment were ordered to make a forced march back to Pinensburgh to protect the magazine left there, which they affected by a most severe and fatiguing march, and remained there and in the vicinity of that place watching and following the varied movements of the enemy upon the border line of Georgia, from Savannah to Augusta, which was exposed to the depredations of the british then in the said state of Georgia, and was then incessantly engaged, until about the 10th of April in the year he thinks of 1779, when he and the Regiment to which he belonged were discharged, at a place called Black Swamp, about 500 miles from home, and obtained a regular discharge in writing, which has been since either lost or mislaid so that he cannot now produce it. The said Browning, although nominally belonging to the state line, performed continental service during the time aforesaid, and out of the nominal compensation received from the government for his services, he afterwards paid $100 thereof for one bushel of salt. The said Francis Browning further states that sometime after his return home from the tour aforesaid, he removed with his family from Caswell County in the state

Bk 9, p 396: of North Carolina near Jonesborough then N. Carolina but now state of Tennessee, where he was again in 1781 drafted to go to the State of South Carolina under the command of Col Sevier for a three months tour, when the situation of his affairs was such as to render it exceedingly inconvenient for him to leave home, and he employed one (name not recollected) a substitute whom he paid, a horse valued at fifteen pounds in genuine currency, and also allowed him the wages of the said tour, and that the said substitute was received as such by the proper officer and performed the duties of the said tour. He hereby relinquishes every claim whatsoever to a pension or annuity, except the present, and declares that his name is not on the pension rolls of any agency in any state. Sworn to and subscribed the date and year aforesaid.

Francis Browning

We - Nathaniel Munsey, a clergyman residing in the neighbourhood of Francis Browning in Russell County, in the state of Virginia, and William Price a justice of the peace residing in the neighbourhood, county and state aforesaid, do hereby certify that we are well acquainted with Francis Browning, who has subscribed and sworn to the foregoing declaration: that we believe him to be about seventy-nine years of age: that he is reputed, and believed in the neighbourhood where he resides to have been a soldier of the revolution, and, that we concur in that opinion. Sworn to and subscribed the day and year aforesaid.

Nathaniel Munsey
William Price

And the Court do hereby further certify, that Jesse Vermillion personally appeared, before them this day in open Court and made oath, that he was personally acquainted with Francis Browning who has sworn to and subscribed the foregoing declaration and that the said Browning served in the war of the revolution and that he believes that the foregoing declaration sworn to and subscribed as aforesaid, contains a correct recital of the services of the said Francis Browning in the war of the revolution: Sworn to and subscribed, the day and year aforesaid.

Jesse Vermillion

And the said Court do hereby declare their opinion, after the investigation of the matter, and after pulling the interrogatories presented by the War Department, and hearing the testimony of Jesse Vermillion who hath sworn to and subscribed the above affidavit, that the above named applicant was a revolutionary soldier and served as he states. And the said Court further certify it appears to that Nathaniel Munsey who has signed the preceding certificate is a clergyman resident in Russell County in the state of Virginia, and that William Price who has also signed the same, is a resident in the same County, and Jesse Vermillion who has signed the preceding affidavit are all credible and respectable persons, and that their statements are entitled to Credit.

CORRECTION

In the August 1991 VAN on p 96 in the listing of Pension Applications is an error - #35 R C Browder served in Co F, 29th Virginia Infantry. This service is typed in at #34 for John A Sutphin. Mr John A Sutphin is NOT listed in John Perry Alderman's "29th VA Infantry." I do not know the extent of the typographical error(s). Camilla (Browder) Dean, RD 3 Box 82, Cambridge Springs, PA 16403.

NATHAN MCCLURE LESLIE

Nathan McClure Leslie (1829-1919) who immigrated to Texas in the 1880s was probably born in Augusta or Rockbridge Co, Va, 17 Aug 1829. He was the son of Samuel & Elizabeth Winegar Leslie (Lesley). Samuel & Elizabeth were married 28 July 1814 by Samuel Houston at the Old Oxford Presbyterian Church in Rockbridge Co, Va. Samuel is listed as the son of John, & she the daughter of William Winegar. Samuel is shown on the 1840 Rockbridge Co census and a taxpayer in 1841. In 1850, he is shown in the Augusta County, Va census, age 57, Elizabeth, age 56.

According to information from History of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Botetourt County, VA by Rev. E. W. Leslie, A.M., published in 1910, David A Leslie was the son of Samuel and Elizabeth Leslie. David A. was born near Fancy Hill, Rockbridge County, VA 14 June 1831. It can be assumed that Nathan McClure Leslie could have been born either in Rockbridge or Augusta counties. The article further states that the family moved c 1837 to Alleghany Co, Va, then back to Rockbridge where they lived at Collierstown. C1841, the family moved to Augusta County where they probably remained until 1850 as Samuel is shown on the 1850 census in Augusta. Nathan is shown on the 1850 census living with James Leslie in Botetourt County. It is assumed that James was his brother. Then Samuel and his family moved back to Rockbridge County and lived near Brownsburg. C 1851-1852, Samuel planned to move to Wythe Co, Va, but became ill. He then moved to the home of a relative in Bedford County. Samuel & his wife Elizabeth are buried at the Zion Church at Locust Bottom in Bedford County. The known children of Samuel and Elizabeth were: Nathan McClure (1829), David A (1831), Elizabeth (1832), Pansy (1834), and Martha (1840). James was born in 1822. There was also a William listed in the 1850 Botetourt census who may have been a son.

David A married Elizabeth Lemon, daughter of Christopher and Sidney Lemon 14 April 1858. He moved to Blue Springs where he worked as a carpenter. David served in Co. K, 28th Va Regt, and also made coffins for the CSA at Lynchburg. Although his father had been a strict Presbyterian, David joined the Lutheran Church as a young man. He helped build the Lutheran church at Glade Creek, Blue Ridge Community. Both David & Elizabeth Lemon Leslie are buried at the Glade Creek Church Cemetery which is now a Baptist church.

When Nathan McClure Leslie married Susan Waggoner 18 December 1851 at Fincastle, Va, he was listed as a farmer in Botetourt co where at least three of his children were born.

Sometime between 1851 & 1860, Nathan became a Baptist minister. Bedford court records indicate that he presented himself to the court in Oct of 1860 and was granted permission to perform marriages in Bedford as a licensed Baptist minister. He is listed in the Strawberry Baptist Association minutes as the minister of Flint Hill Baptist Church in Bedford County. His post office addresses during the 1870's included Thaxton, Troutville, & Fincastle (1871-1873). The Va Baptist Historical Society, Richmond, Va, indicated that Nathan Leslie pastored churches at Cove in Alum Springs, New Bethel, Rose or Rosey Hill, Enon, Natural Bridge, and at Flint Hill. The society was unable to furnish further information about Nathan.

In the 1862 Confederate records at Bedford County, Va, it is noted that David A Leslie asked to be released from military service with the CSA to help operate Plott's Mill with his partner brother, N M Leslie. It is noted above that David did serve later in the military. Nathan's son, Alonzo remembered the Yankees coming to his father's house at meal time and taking all the available food. Then they destroyed the mill which Nathan and his brother operated.

Prior to 1880, Susan had died as Nathan is listed as a widower in the 1880 census of Botetourt Co. Susan may be buried near Buchanan. Her father, John Waggoner and his wife Mary Powers lived near Buchanan. John is shown in the Fincastle records as having made the shingles for the court house built in 1820 in Fincastle. He is shown in the 1860 census with his wife Mary, born in 1798 in Va. Her parents are assumed to be Yancy and Nancy Powers. Nancy is shown in the 1870 census, aged 105, living with the widowed Mary. John's father, Jacob, was still living in Botetourt co in 1850. He was born in New Jersey in 1764. John Waggoner died in 1868 and the probate of his estate named Nathan McClure Leslie and wife (Susan) among the heirs. John Waggoner is buried at the Mt. Moriah Lutheran Church, located near Lapsley Run and Eagle Rock, northwest of Fincastle, Botetourt Co, Va.

C 1886, Nathan, his new wife, Susan A Laymon, (whom he married 14 Oct 1881) and part of his family went to Texas on an immigrant train, according to William S Leslie, Nathan's grandson. At Dallas, the family purchased or hired a team and wagon and settled south of Dallas at Fairy(?). At that time it seems that the large family was divided with the older children remaining in Virginia. There was no issue with the second marriage.

Nathan and Susan Waggoner Leslie's children were: Josephus A (1854), Lora Virginia (1855), Nannie Judson (1852), Alonzo Chalmer (1860), Andrew M (1866), William Walter (1868), Anna (1869), Howard (1870), Charles Edward (1873), and Ellira (1876).

Josephus, Anna, Walter, and Nannie remained in Virginia. Lora Virginia moved to Oklahoma where she died rather young. Alonzo Chalmer (called "Uncle Doc") went first to Texas, began his practice of medicine, and sent for the rest of the family. After remaining near Dallas for four years, the family moved by covered wagon in 1890 to the plains of West Texas. They settled near Hermleight, Scurry County, TX, where Nathan took up state land at $1.00 per acre with 40 years to pay. The family lived for sometime in a dugout, Nathan continued to preach, and his son, Charles Edward, also became a Baptist preacher. Nathan McClure Leslie died 15 February 1919 and is buried in the Snyder Cemetery in Snyder, Texas near his son Dr. Alonzo C Leslie and his wife, Nathan Leslie's second wife, Susan Laymon is buried in the Hermleigh Cemetery, Hermleigh, Texas.

CORRECTION

In the August 1991 VAN on p 96 in the listing of Pension Applications is an error - #35 R C Browder served in Co F, 29th Virginia Infantry. This service is typed in at #34 for John A Sutphin. Mr John A Sutphin is NOT listed in John Perry Alderman's "29th VA Infantry." I do not know the extent of the typographical error(s). Camilla (Browder) Dean, RD 3 Box 82, Cambridge Springs, PA 16403. [Editor's note: Our article was taken from photocopies of a record in Carrol Co. I believe that the notes were taken by the board at various locations and then recorded at the court house. How many errors were made we will never know. And all who serve in the Civil War are not recorded. The only record of my grandfather, James M Waskey, serving is his pension record.]

THE SNUFFERS (A History of the Forebearers and Descendants of Isaac and Malinda (Rakes) Snuffer of Raleigh County West Virginia) by Jim Wood, 111 Daniel St, Beckley, WV 25801 [published 1989]. This book was not reviewed by VAN because it was sent directly to the Virginia Room by Barbara Drew, a member of SVGS. The book is well researched, well written, and takes the family back - Raleigh Co - Floyd Co- Montgomery Co - up the valley to Md - Pa - Germany - to the sixteenth century. Write to Mr Wood for price and if the book is still available. Also includes data on the Huffs, Gearharts, Elizabeth Davis, John Nowlin, Charles Thomas. VAN thanks Mrs Drew for sending the book to the Virginia Room.

THE LAST WORD

I owe apologies to many people for not answering their mail and the fact that this issue will be late coming out. Most of Nov & Dec I was out of town and on coming back - I started the New Year with a 'cold' that kept me in for more than 2 weeks - have a good case of 'cabin fever.' This is for local members -- VAN needs help - especially with typing. We need a query editor and another assistant editor. And don't say 'I know nothing about putting out a quarterly.' Learn on the job, as I did. Want to congratulate one of our members. Richard Dickenson has been appointed borough (Staten Island) historian. Dick (at that time with VPI) was a speaker at our first workshop; he has contributed many articles to VAN and I hope he will continue with his research in this area. Good luck Dick on your new job.

GENEALOGICAL QUERIES: Each member is entitled to 1 to 3 free 60 word query (does not include your name and address) per issue as space permits. The typist will NOT compose queries for you, so please make your query as clear and specific as possible so that others can understand them and have a chance to help you. Each query should include name, dates, and location to identify the problem. Please capitalize surnames - is it Mary Smith JONES (single) or Mary SMITH JONES (maiden & married name). Do not abbreviate, we will. If not typed, please PRINT -- some written queries we have not been able to read. Queries for non-members are 5¢ a word not including your name and address.

FAMILY REUNION, PUBLICATION OF BOOK, NEWSLETTERS, ETC: Limited to 60 words, not including your name and address. We cannot edit a full page down to 60 words - so send the notice as you want it printed. These notices will be put in as space permits.

MATERIAL FOR PUBLICATION: We welcome articles, records, etc for publications. The material when received may not be used in the following issue, but in a future issue. If a large amount of material is sent, it may take a while to publish because we try to have a variety of material in each issue. (1) READY FOR PUBLICATION (which the editor loves) Please type using a carbon ribbon or dark ribbon and CLEAN keys. Use 8½x11" paper, single space, with a minimum margin on ALL sides of 1 inch. Center your title. Be sure to include your name, address, and date (year) on the document. If not typed for publication, please print PLAINLY -- some articles that have been written we have not been able to read, or those that are typed with all caps are difficult to read. PLEASE read the material over before mailing and double check all dates. (2) GIVE SOURCE OF MATERIAL. Original documents - where found, type of record, page number, etc, or, if known, who now has the document in their possession. We CANNOT PRINT material from printed sources unless we have written permission from the publisher, which you MUST FURNISH. We must have source of material to give credit to the person who has done the work. (3) DEADLINE for submitting material is the first of the month previous to the month of publication. (4) Please do not send material that you want to keep - send a xerox copy to us instead. That way it won't get lost, as letters do get misplaced, when passed from one person to another.

SURNAME INDEX: Information will include name (given and surname), place (location at time of date), date (birth, death, marriage, or where living at the date given). "WASKEY, William Christopher - Montgomery Co, Va - 1900-10 death" If this data takes more than one line or the spouse is included on the same line, it will count as two names. The limit is 10 names. The surname index is published in the August issue.

VAN cannot vouch for the accuracy of the material submitted to us and printed by us. The 'translation' of the original document may not be correct - get a copy of the original document, if possible, to see if you agree with the printed version.
