SOUTHWESTERN VIRGINIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY

November, 1992

Dear Friends,

This is my last letter to you as president of this organization. It has been an eventful two years in my life and the life of my family. I have enjoyed corresponding with and talking with so many of you.

We have achieved many things in the past two years--most of which I have told you about in the quarterly VAN issues. I hope we will continue to grow as an organization and as individuals working together in a common interest.

The membership has voted to continue adding to the Vital Statistics collection for the Virginia Room of the Roanoke City Public Library. This collection will facilitate the use of this information since it will not have to be borrowed from Richmond. This will be another valuable asset to those doing research.

Please continue giving your support to the new officers who will be coming into office in January. Only a strong membership and leadership together will make a strong organization.

Finally,

*Patsy*Patsy Wingfield
President

Old Jacksonville Cemetery

This cemetery was the first "burying ground" in the town of Jacksonville, now Floyd. It is located near the center of town, just off the east side of South Locust Street. It was originally the Kitterman family burying ground, John Kitterman the first to be buried here. In 1852, David Kitterman, John Kitterman's son, gave it for a public cemetery and it was used by the townspeople for thirty-five years. When the new cemetery was built on the hill in 1886, this one ceased to be used. Some of the bodies were disinterred and moved to the new cemetery. Many of the early leaders of the town were buried here. The graves are not in all cases by family and are not arranged in rows. This was recorded in 1971.

THE PITFALLS OF GENEALOGY

by Wm T Carter*

Back around 1985 I met a lady who was working on her family history. After talking with her for thirty minutes or so I thought that tracing one's ancestors would be something that I would like to do. About six months later while looking for something to do, I recalled my conversation with the lady. I also remembered her telling me about the Morman Church and the Virginia Room at the Roanoke City Library. I thought now is the time to begin my search. My first visit was to the Morman Church to look for marriage records. For some reason I started with my mother's line, Betty Jane Watkins, born June 3, 1882 in Henry Co, Va, daughter of John W. Watkins and Sarah Ann Minter all of Henry County. I found the records and they stated that John W. Watkins was born in Henry County, son of W. J. and Elizabeth Watkins. Next I made a trip to the Virginia Room to check census records. In all of Virginia for the year 1850 I find two W. J. Watkins. One is in Appomatox Co, Va and is quickly eliminated as his wife's name was not Elizabeth. The other W. J. Watkins was in Charlotte Co, Va and was married to Elizabeth Coles. I am also armed with a copy of "A Catalogue of the Descendants of Thomas Watkins of Chickahomony, Virginia" that had been passed down through the family. I thought since this catalogue had been in the family, this must be my line. I look and find W. J. and Elizabeth listed in the book but without a son John. Some weeks later it dawned on me that the book was published in 1850 and my grandfather was not born until circa 1854. Back to the Virginia Room for the 1860 census. No index at this time. After an extended search I find W. J. and Elizabeth with three children born after 1850 - Issac, John W. and Margaret a name that has come down through our line. The "History of Henry County" states that the Watkins of Henry Co are kin to the Watkins of Pr Edward and other counties. You just know this is the right line and I'm on my way. I took this line and ran and ran and ran and ran. Within weeks I was back to Edward III on three lines.

I forgot to mention that when I started my search I though I would be through in a few weeks. I'm a little wiser now and realize this search will probably take about three months to complete. Now my royal ancestors kept pretty good genealogical records out of necessity. This really made it easy for me. Now I'm on a roll. Virginia Ferguson from the Morman Church was going on a trip to northern Virginia and was kind enough to bring me back twenty-five of the 15 generation pedigree charts. Boy, am I on a roll. I'm off the back of chart #1 and don't have enough room on the front of the next chart for all the names I have to carry over. Did I tell you I'm getting smarter? I now realize its going to take me more than a few months to write down all of these royal names. Okay lets back up the sixth great-grandparents and start chart #2 with Col George Reade, born October 25, 1608, and run through the Windebanke's - Dymoke's - Tailboys - Percy - Sir Henry De Percy "Hotspur" (whatever that means)- De Mortimer - De Welles - Neville - Edward III King of England. We are rolling, now back to the early thirteen hundred's. Here comes and goes Edward III - Edward I - Henry III - Philippe III - King of France - and others. We are now off the back of chart #2. Lets start off chart #3 with sixteen of these royal families. By the time I get to the end of chart #3, I have Malcolm II, born 954 - Duncan of the Isles - Jaroslaus the Halt, Lord of all Russia 1015 - Olave III King of Sweden and Norway - Raoui III The Great - Henry I The Emperor - Yaroslav I of Kiev - Bela II King of Hungary and others. Time to start chart #4. Boy, this stuff is a little more time consuming then I thought but have I got great lines or what?

Chart #4: Lets start here with William The Conqueror (I always wondered who I was named after), we run through Alfred the Great - Henry The Fowler, Emperor of Germany - Louis IV - Charles III King of the Franks to seven lines to Charlemagne and it don't stop here. We run lines on back to some time in the year 200 AD. It just don't get any better than this. I can't believe I've been two years putting this together but I guess its worth it to find out you are descended from the kings of most nations.

Did I mention Constantine, Joan of Arc - and somewhere on one of those charts is a Pope. Boy, I hope the rules were different in those days or I'll have a blemish on my charts.

Been doing genealogy several years now but it can't last much longer, only a couple of centuries to go. There are a few blank spaces on my charts for the mid eighteen hundreds.

One small item did bother me when I started. My grandfather John W. Watkins stated he was born in Henry County, Virginia but here I have him born in Charlotte Co, Va. He may not have known where he was born and just put down Henry County. Heck, a lot of those old timers weren't too smart anyway. They couldn't read or write just put down their "xxx's" and went about carving a nation out of the wilderness. Anyway this one little item kept bugging me and I kept trying to prove I was on the wrong lines. I didn't need all these wealthy ancestors anyway. They didn't pass any of their wealth down to me.

Been doing this genealogy thing about six years now and -- wait a minute, who is this Wm J Watkins on the Henry County 1850 census in the household of Wm. Moore? Lets go back and recheck marriage records after 1850 in Henry Co, Virginia. No luck. A lot of these Watkins for some reason were going to Rockingham Co, N C so lets look there. Here we are 9/10/1850 Wm J. Watkins married Elizabeth Jane Creasy and Hiram Watkins of Henry Co, Va is surety. Check 1860 Henry Co and find Wm J. Watkins with son John W Watkins age seven. Looks like I've proved I was wrong. Since the mistake was made in the fourth generation I wipe out most of chart one and all of charts two three and four. There goes my royal blood. Oh, well, I pick up Creasy - Moore - Mayse - Smith - Shackelford - Shields and Childs. There will be others. Guess I'll try and fill in some of those little blank spaces for the mid 1800. There must a moral in here somewhere. Guess it's if you jump to conclusions you might stump your toes or worse.

If your lines include Col George Reade, born 10/25/1608, or any of his descendants, drop me a line. I can save you a lot of work since I have three slightly used 15 generation charts with his ancestors that I would be glad to share.

This is a volume that will be found in a law library. I only abstracted the names, dates, etc -- more to show that the people were there. The Supreme Court records were burned in Richmond during the Civil War. These volumes are a record of the cases of the Appeal Court for Virginia. Printed in these volumes are the deposi-tions of the witnesses, evidence, lawyer briefs, judges opinions -- sometimes a wealth of information for the genealogist. The books are usually thick, pages yellow -- and may be hard to zerox. bf

As later gentlemen callers would bring flowers or candy, a man of the era would sometimes bring a newspaper as a gift when calling on a woman, so that she could read of the latest Indian raids, runaway slaves, and pirate attacks. WYTHE COUNTY, VIRGINIA, LEGISLATIVE PETITION page 1 (printed) except the name of the county which was written in)

"TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF VIRGINIA

"The Memorial of the Citizens of Wythe County.

The undersigned inhabitants of the County of Wythe having every confidence in the integrity of the Legislators of the State, and convinced of their sincere desire to promote the interest, happiness and convenience of its citizens, beg leave respectfully to present to your consideration, the question of the propriety of the Removal of the Seat of Government from the City of Richmond.

It is not deemed necessary by your memorialists to enumerate, at large, all the objections, which apply to a longer continuance of it in the City of Richmond -- a few of the most prominent are selected for your serious consideration.

The first objection of your memorialists to the present Seat of Government is it want of centrality, whether regard is had to territory or to population. Your memorialists as well as the inhabitants of every other section of the State must frequently, and of necessity, resort to the Seat of Government, where the General Assembly are convened, Superior Courts held, Public Offices kept, and the Governor and Council usually trasact the Executive business of the Commonwealth; and hence it is, that in the opinion of your memorialists, the equal rights of all the said inhabitants require such Seat of Government should be as nearly central as possible, having a due regard to the population of each section of the State, (and of the certain increase of population to the west and the healthfulness of the most central part. Upon this principle of justice, have most of our sister states been governed, in the location of their seats of government.

Your memorialists, from the history of the late and revolutionary war induced to believe the City of Richmond, too much exposed to danger from foreign and domestic enemies, to offer sufficient pledges for the security of the Capitol, the Treasure, the Archives of the State, our public property, and the records of our land titles: for so long as our Seat of Government remains in this dangerous and exposed situation, do we hold out strong inducements to our enemies to attack it--All these dangers may in the opinion of your memorialists, be avoided, by a removal of the Seat of Government to the interior of the country.

Your memorialists beg leave further to state, that in consequence of the wealth and commerce of the present Seat of Government, expences have accrued to such a degree, that the salaries of our public officers have become quite inadequate to their support and maintenance; and no man who is not possessed of wealth, can accept of any public office, the duties of which require a residence in the City of Richmond; but by a removal of the Seat of Government to the interior of the country, where luxury and extravagance do not so much abound, where the main necessities of life are to be had in great abundance, and much cheaper than in the City of Richmond, this objection would not be found to exist.

Your memorialists cannot think, that the splendor, the hospitalities, the amusement sand perpetual excitements to pleasure, which Richmond, in common with every large commercial city possesses, is a fit situation for the Legislative council of a plain republican people, but these amusements and excitements to pleasure tend much to protract the sessions of the Legislature, and by that means add greatly to the expenses of the government.

Your memorialists have reason to believe, that no additional taxes will be necessary in order to effect a removal of the Seat of Government to a central part of the State, as the public property in the City of Richmond will sell for a price, amply sufficient to defray all the expenses that will arise in erecting other necessary public buildings. Your memorialists are led to believe that, so far from the removal of the Seat of Government from Richmond to some more central position, requiring any additional taxes, or imposing any additional burthens on the public, it will produce an annual saving to the State, of many thousands of dollars, which may be usefully employed to the improvement of roads or other beneficial purposes.

Veterans of 1812: let us not pass unnoticed the ivy-covered mounds of earth, here in our cemetery, where rest the bones of such veterans as Col Wm Anderson, Captain Andrew Hamilton, Adjutant Gurtner, Isaac and John Carper, Edward Haney, Miles Tinnery and Morris Hickok and a score of other soldiers of the war of 1812.

Col William Anderson, he would be proud of his three sons, Joseph R, John T and Frank T Anderson;.....

Isaac and John Carterwere full cousins, they being respectively the sons of Jacob and Nicholas Carper, two brothers who came to this county from Pennsylvania in the latter part of the last century..... The late Benjamin Carper... was a brother of John, while the Rev Jacob Carper, the methodist minister was a brother of Isaac.....

Edward Haney.....was a worthy saddler..... the father of Mr Jacob Haney, of Buchanan.

.....Mrs. Tinney, relict of Miles Tinney....survived her husband many years, passing away from us but a short time ago....

The earth that covers the body of Morris Hickok, is too fresh to be disturbed.

....only two live in Fincastle, viz., John Anderson, who despite his age can still quote from memory chapter after chapter of the Bible; and Jacob Fleager, one of the oldest men in Botetourt.

THE MERCHANTS: Amongst the prominent merchants of that early day, we may mention Robt. Kyle, who did a large business in the old frame house that stood below McDowell's residence; the Wileys in the Young house, just opposite; Cahoon and Pat-ton in the "Stone House;" Mr James Waldron, in the house formerly occupied as a residence by himself; whilst in the old "Bittle Confectionery," on the ground where Capt J H H Figgat's law-office now stands, was the store of John C Griffin, who was the father of Lieutenant Wm Griffin of the U S Navy, Capt Hancock Griffin, aide-de-camp of Gen Gaines in the Florida war, Dr John Griffin, Surgeon in the U S Army, and Miss Eliza Griffin who became the second wife of Gen Albert Sidney Johnston.

State of Virginia, Grayson County: On this 24th day of September 1832 personally appeared in open Court before the justices of the Court of the County of Grayson, now sitting James Cox a Resident of Grayson County & State of Virginia age 69 years & 7 months, who being first duly sworn according to law, doth on his oath, make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the act of Congress passed June 7th 1832. That he entered the service of the United States under Capt. John Cox at the age of 15 or 16 and assisted in the building of a fort on new river near the mouth of Peach bottom Creek in the year 1778, and from that time until the year 1780, he acted as an Indian Spy for the Said Capt. John Cox and from his intimate knowledge of the Country, was upon every occasion, sent as a pilot to conduct those who were unacquainted with the mountains, in safety to where the different parties had their encampments. The Tories about this time, or about the time the British were invading North & South Carolina, became very troublesome in the Country where he was, having but very few neighbours who were not Tories, and these, with those of the adjoining State of North Carolina, would frequently assemble themselves & overrun the Country. The Declarant's father, the aforesaid Capt. John Cox, Enoch Osborne and his family, Benjamin Phipps, Peter Hart, & William Hardin, were the only Whigs who would render any assistance when required. In this situation, surrounded by Tories, the declarant and a few others had to combat with the whole neighborhood, and when they found themselves too weak (lines are marked out) the declarant was sent as an express to Col. Benjamin Cleveland who was stationed on the Yadkin River near where the town of Wilksboro has been since built, to inform him of the fact that the Tories were collecting in large bodies in the mountains. Shortly after his return from Col Cleveland's camp, he was taken prisoner by the Tories who intended to take & deliver him to the British, but in the mean time Col. Cleveland and Majr. Love had joined their forces, and overtook the Tories at a place called the big glades, now in Grayson County, VA. The Tories when they discovered the Whigs determined to seek safety by flight and in their terror forgot the declarant, who availed himself of the opportunity, and immediately run with all speed to the Whigs and informed them of what the Tories had done; the Whigs then pursued them, wounded some & took others prisoners, whipped or flogged several severely, & hanged one where the declarant now lives. After this the declarant's father Capt. John Cox, being on an expedition against the Indians, the Tories under a Capt. Green made another excursion into the mountains, and this declarant raised his father's Company and pursued the Tories under Green, and killed or made prisoners of Green & his entire Company. Green afterwards died of his wounds, and only one of the the said Company survived, this was a brother of the said Green, who afterwards enlisted in the regular army of the United States. Some time after this affair a certain Capt. Roberts, of the Tory party, come into the neighborhood with a Company of Six Hessians, and this declarant with Majr. Love pursued them into Carolina near the head of New river, determined to overtake them, but Capt. Baker of North Carolina had heard of them, got in before this declarant & his party, overtook, killed & wounded the whole party, except Roberts, their Capt. who made his escape. The declarant does not now recollect the precise time he was engaged in the war of the Revolution, but he is very certain that he served under his father, Capt. John Cox, and major William Love as an Indian Spy, for the term of 2 years and that he was engaged, under the same officers, against the Tories for 2 years more, making in all 4 years service. The applicant was born in Fort-Chisel, in the County of Wythe, then Bottetourt & afterwards Montgomery County, Feby. 24th 1763. He has a record of his age in a large family Bible which was given to the declarant by his father. He lived in Montgomery County, Virginia, when he entered the service, now Grayson County, Va., where he has lived ever since the war of the Revolution, and where he now lives. He was a Volunteer during the whole service. There was no regular officers in the neighborhood. He never had any discharge; indeed his only wish was to conquer & subdue the enemies of his Country. He is known to Benjamin Phipps & Isaiah Austin contemporary survivors and to John Jones & Charles Cole, who can testify as to his character for veracity, and as to their belief of his services in the war of the revolution.

He hereby relinquishes any claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present, and declares that his name is not on the pension roll of the agency of any State. Sworn to & subscribed the day and year aforesaid. James Cox (Sig.)

LEGISLATIVE PETITION
 for GILES COUNTY VIRGINIA

To the Legistature of Virginia

The petition of the undersigned Citizens of the County of Giles as hereby (word marked out?) humbly represent to your Honourable body that they live at a remote distance from their CHouse (Never usual place of Voting) and other diffculties with which they have to contend, compells them to ask that your Hon^l body will grant to them a precinct election in their neighbourhood. Your petitioners would beg leave to state that very often in the month of April when the Rivers & Creeks are flush from the rains and snows of the past winter that they are forced to remain at home or travel on foot so as to avoid the waters, for the purpose of casting their votes.

Your petitioners do hope that your Hon^l body will hear prayer and grant to them such relief as their situation demands, they have selected the house of Thomas Hale on Wolf Creek as being the most central and convenient, they solicit your Hon^l body to pass a law establishing a precinct election at the house of the said Hale.

And in duty bound will ever pray &c

BOOK REVIEWS

1920 CENSUS OF CRAIG COUNTY, VIRGINIA compiled by Ruth G Hale. This is a corrected copy of the census. Mrs Hale visited families, used court house records, cemetery records, obituaries, etc, and compared those sources with the census. In some cases, she has added the nicknames to the census so people will know that is the family they are looking for. The book is indexed, 96 pages, soft bound. Price is $15.00 plus postage of $1.50, total $16.50. Order from Ruth G Hale, 3945 Read Mountain Road, Roanoke, Va 24019.

Buzzard and Alt Families, compiled by Monte P. Buzzard, P.O. Box 353, San Luis Obispo, CA 93401, is soft-cover, 8 1/2 X 11", 207 pages, indexed, $15.00. This book covers the descendants of Henry Buzzard and Elizabeth Alt (Ault). The ancestors of Henry Buzzard were from the Palatinate and emigrated to Switzerland. Further information is given for this and other families of this surname, all of it referenced. This book updates the author's previous book, The Buzzard Family in America, 1981. The book contains lists of data from various sources such as land or vital records. It continues with family listings, histories of families and individuals, and information on the following surnames: Bussard, Ault, Hull, Radabaugh, Zickafoose, Grimes, Carpenter, and Chestnut. Copies are available from the author at the above address.

CEMETERIES OF FLOYD COUNTY, VIRGINIA - Vol. II - BURK'S FORK DISTRICT compiled by Phyllis Goad Phillips and Genevieve Cochran Starkey. The book has 109 cemeteries listed. As with any cemetery book, some of the cemeteries listed are those that this may be the only recorded information before they 'disappear' forever. The book is 6"x9", soft cover, perfect bound, 142 pages, completely alphabetized index. The book should be received from the printer by the end of November. The price is $13.50 plus $2.00 postage & handling. Order from: Phillips - Starkey, PO Box 106, Willis, VA 24380.

MIDDLE NAMES

Did you know that middle names were once illegal? The old English law was definite as to the naming of children and, according to Sir Edward Coke's law commentary, "A man cannot have two names of Baptism; and on bills of sale, that purchaser must be named by the name of his Baptism and surname." Royal personages were always allowed to have more than one given name, but as late as 1600 it was said that there were only four persons in all England who had two given names. In 1620, when the 'Mayflower' sailed for America, not a man or woman aboard had a middle name! Thanks to the Clark/Oconee Genealogical Society Newsletter, PO Box 6403, Athens, GA 30604. Our thanks to "The Family Tree", PO Box 1110, Moultrie, GA 31776-1110.
