VIRGINIA APPALACHIAN NOTES

SOUTHWESTERN VIRGINIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INC.

May 1997

Dear Fellow Genealogists:

This past March Carol Tuckwiller, Virginia Room librarian, received the "Excellence In Community Service" award from the Daughters of the American Revolution. The framed award and a pin were presented to her at a reception given in her honor by the Roanoke Valley Chapter of the D.A.R. which nominated her. See it in the Virginia Room.

CONGRATULATIONS! Carol, from all your friends.

The Virginia Genealogical Society held their Spring Conference in Danville the first Saturday in April.

Mary McCampbell Bell, CALS, CGL, lectured on the National Union Catalog of Manuscript Collections (the NUCMC). This on-going project of the Library of Congress to catalog U. S. Manuscript holdings is a rich resource and of particular interest to those working in "burned counties." It is found in major universities and research libraries. Don't miss this source...her Lecture Outline handout was eight pages!

Always check the repository's own catalogue for more complete detail about their collection since NUCMC is a catalogue of national scope.

Craig Roberts Scott, CGRS, FSA, spoke on Pension Records Research: You Stopped Too Soon. His four page handout gives you a clue to the number of sources often overlooked.

We want to rush out and get to work! Just a few of our members were there, I am sorry to say. Do mark your calendars for the FALL Conference, October 17 and 18 at Richmond.

Gene Swartzell,
President

P.S: If you missed GENEALOGY BASICS 101 at our April meeting, you missed a wonderful program. Our thanks go to Karen Kappesser, Babe Fowler, Wendy James, Don Martindale and Ann Sylvest for their presentations.

THOMAS PLEASANTS JORDAN c1745-1809

Links To His Quaker Heritage

By Mary Elizabeth Ferrell

Thomas Pleasants Jordan, the father of my ancestor Deborah Jordan Thomas, was born about 1745 probably in Henrico County Virginia. In the search for his origins it seemed apparent at the onset that his might be a Quaker lineage. But no evidence emerged from the Society of Friends compiled records that this Thomas Jordan was the Thomas Jordan who was the son of Benjamin Jordan. Writings on other Thomas Jordans tended to "muddy the waters". Several writings made suppositions and attempted to link this Thomas to various Jordan lines but failed to provide the evidence. Thus, this was a family line that I had placed on the back burner until a inquiry was received from a distant cousin's wife in Floyd, Virginia. That inquiry started me on a determined search.

Background and Clues

The rule of thumb in genealogical research - "the best clues to a person's origins and birth family exist in the earliest proven place of residence" became the first step in the strategy of this search. The collection of data was first centered on the reconstruction of the family of Thomas P. Jordan to try to establish those links before beginning to try to find the evidence to link him to the Quaker Benjamin Jordan, Jr. The reconstruction of the family was paramount in the strategy.

Robert Barnard Jr., a descendant, also of Deborah Jordan Thomas (Charles Thomas Jr.) had written to me, sent me material on the Quaker Jordans. I had collected other material, too, which included a book entitled These Jordans Were Here. I discovered this book in the Virginia Room of the Roanoke Library on a visit there. This writing was one that provided good information about the Jordan family. However, the supposition was made that placed Thomas P. Jordan, son of Benjamin, Jr., in another Jordan family. No clear evidence was given and this supposition subsequently proved to be incorrect.

A letter from O. E. Pilson had brought another clue. This was a somewhat hidden clue that I had not realized was a clue until I began to review all the material I had gathered. His letter had the information that Thomas Jordan had migrated into the Blueridge Mountain area after the Revolutionary War from "near Richmond".

An answer to a query placed in The Genealogical Helper brought material from Marilyn Owen in California. Her husband, also, has a Jordan line and she had collected much material from research in North Carolina which she sent to me.

One of the most important clues came from Judy Blackwell, whose husband is the descendant of Deborah Jordan Thomas. She wrote to ask if I thought the Thomas P. Jordan who sold land in Montgomery County in 1798/1799 was the father of Deborah Jordan. Subsequently, she made a trip to the courthouse in Montgomery County and obtained a copy of the deed. And this, along with other deeds, verified that this Thomas P. Jordan, who had migrated from the Franklin, Patrick Counties area to Buncombe County North Carolina was the father of Deborah Jordan Thomas and Mary Jordan Dehart of Patrick County.

VIRGINIA APPALACHIAN NOTES

All this information, from various family history researchers, greatly assisted in giving clues as to places to search for Thomas P. Jordan prior to and preceding the Revolutionary War. As I began to reconstruct the family of Thomas P. Jordan other clues emerged and the pieces of the puzzle began to fall into place.

The Evidence and Links to Benjamin Jordan, Jr.

The 1787 personal property tax lists and index of Virginia, compiled by Netti Yantis and Florence Love, provided the needed assistance in the next step in the search. There were a dozen Thomas Jordans listed. The "near Richmond" information given by O.E. Pilson helped to narrow the location of which Thomas to choose! I don't know if it was sheer luck or serendipity that made me choose Hanover County - a "burned county"!

In spite of it being a burned county, I found the land tax, personal property tax and deeds to provide the needed evidence. Three important pieces of evidence linked Thomas to Benjamin Jordan, Jr. his father. One was the names of the slaves given to him by his father's will in Henrico County and listed by name for him on the personal property tax. The second piece of evidence was the name of the land, "Ginger Bread", the description, and the location listed in his father's will and in deeds. This was the land Thomas and wife Susannah sold in 1787 before leaving Hanover County. The third piece of evidence was the name of his wife Susannah. Their marriage was in the Society of Friends compiled records. Her name was in nearly every land transaction that Thomas made.

Extension of the Line

More recent research has further extended the line. The parents of Thomas Pleasants Jordan were Benjamin and Lydia Pleasants Jordan. One of the more useful tools for this information has been William Wade Hinshaw's Encyclopedia of American Quaker Genealogy, the Virginia Volume. Goochland County Virginia deeds have given further evidence and information of Lydia Pleasant Jordan's parents - Thomas and Mary Jordan Pleasants.

Benjamin Jordan's father was Benjamin Jordan, Sr. He was an elder in the Society of Friends. Hinshaw has been an useful tool for information about him. It proved to be a little more complicated finding information on Benjamin Jordan Jr.'s mother, Sarah. A query in The Virginia Magazine of Genealogy brought to me Sarah's maiden name of Robinson. This information, however, was without evidence. A Jordan researcher in Georgia sent to me some pages from a genealogy that gave Sarah as the step daughter of Joseph Glaister.

A review of the Quaker literature provided me with the information that Joseph Glaister was a Quaker missionary who migrated to America from England around 1707. He had settled in North Carolina. So it was back to Hinshaw's writings, this time the North Carolina volume. I knew that Sarah had married Benjamin Jordan Sr. about 1708. The North Carolina volume gave me further information on Joseph Glasiter and the location of his monthly meetings in England.

This information sent me to the Quaker Records of England, available on microfilm from the Salt Lake Family History Center Library. And luckily vital records for the location I wanted had been microfilmed. I found Sarah Robinson's birth date, the names of her parents, and the second marriage of her mother in those listings. She was, indeed, Sarah Robinson, daughter of John and Sarah Robinson of Pardshaw, Cumberland England.

Conclusion

Linking Thomas Pleasants Jordan to his Quaker parents and heritage entailed researching much more than the published literature. It involved some complicated plans and work in many different kinds of records. This was in part because Thomas Pleasants Jordan left the Society of Friends in 1775, during the Revolutionary War. The wonderful clues and assistance I received, though, from other family history researchers, cousins and their spouses made it much less work and a lot more enjoyable.

This writer (Billie Redding Lewis) has a copy of land transaction which was actually made in 1772 at which time Preston paid Stephen five pounds for forty-four acres which had been part of a land grant made to Stephen Renfro "by a Settlers (?) Patent bearing Date the Thirteenth Day of June One Thousand Seven hundred and fifty five (which tract of Land is included in a survey of Two hundred and twenty six acres . . ." The deed

- 1781 Peter Renfrow, b. ca. 1700 (?) was killed in Tennessee, maybe by Indians. He was the Peter who married Elizabeth Hollingsworth on 17 Sept, 1733; she was a Quaker and dismissed from the church for marrying out of unity. He is said to have had land in S. Carolina in 1748 but evidently he moved to Tenn. after 1758

1789 Botetourt County William Rentfro's probate was June, 1789; named John Targert and Patrick Lemon.

1791 Hannah Rentfro, d/o Moses married Henry Gearhart on 6 Dec, 1791
in Franklin Co, Va. REF: OVER THE MOUNTAIN MEN.

July 13, 1792, Stephen Renfro was killed by Indians on Cumberland Road near Crab Orchard, 18 miles from southwest point. He was a "member of Captain Ivan's company under Lt. McClellan in McClellan's repulse of the Creek Indians." This area is in current Roane County, Tennessee; "southwest point" was the junction of Clinch and Holston Rivers according to Ramsey's ANNALS OF TENNESSEE and ANNALS OF SOUTHWEST VIRGINIA. This was son of Stephen Renfro who married Margaret Looney, his step sister.

1794 listed in Knox County, Tennessee is Stephen Renfro Sr, who died intestate, but this has to be Stephen Jr. who had a son named Stephen by that time. His estate was intestate because he had been killed by Indians. His sons were John (probably named for John Looney), David, William (both popular Looney names) and Stephen to whom he left 300 acres on Beaver Creek. Knox Deed book L 264. Wife Margaret Rentfro was granted admn. on estate of her late husband Stephen Rentfro, late husband. Securities were John Crawford and Moses Looney (step-brother of this Stephen Renfro)

That land was then a quit claim from John Renfro who then lived in Grainger County, Tenn, Stephen, William and David (all three of Knox Co) to John Lindsay (Knox Co. Deed books T:171, 184; UI 247; Will 44, 128)

In the 1780's there were a number of Rentfros listed in Fayette and Lincoln County, Kentucky. Benjamin Looney was in Fayette County at the same time. had 500 acres on Indian Creek Dec 2, 1782.

The Renfro researchers theorize that old Stephen Sr's first wife may have been a VanBebber (his second wife was Margaret (Rhea) Looney, widow of Robert Looney Jr. who also had been killed by Indians. The Renfro family certainly had a lot of contact with the VanBebber family as they did with the Walkers, another family who married into the Looney family, as did the Renfros.

1804 Knox County, Tennessee, "July . . . Last will and testament of Stephen Rentphrow, produced in said county court. Will was written 12 December, 1802. His sons John and Stephen Renfro were both deceased but he remembered daughters Elizabeth Looney and Moses Looney "son of my beloved wife." Daughter Elizabeth had married a son of John Looney Sr, and Moses Looney was the son of Margaret (Rhea) and Robert Looney son of Robert Looney Sr, immigrant.

The COX-PHILLIPS NEWSLETTER is published each quarter (irregular...four issues per volume/year at $12.00 per year USA and $14.00 foreign) and being used by researchers (not just Cox and Phillips) from all over. It started from the Cox and Phillips settlers in Virginia from the early 1600's...the Cox line descends from William Cox of England, who arrived at Chesapeak Bay on 6 May 1607. He returned to England and supposedly brought his family back to Virginia in 1610. William gave his age as 26 in 1610, and supposedly was the son of Michael Cox of England. My Matthew Cox (born 1730, VA) is a descendant of this line, who first settled in Montgomery (now Floyd) Co, VA, and later moved to Wilkes (now Caldwell) Co, NC. My Phillips line descends from John Phillips, born 1653, Wales, England and Elizabeth Tobias. John died 1701 in Richmond Co., VA, was supposedly the son of John Phillips and Sarah (unknown) Phillips. MRS. REBECCA WILSON

An accident of the most serious nature occurred, about a mile from this place, on Saturday last, which has filled our little village with sympathetic feelings of sorrow and regret. As Mrs Rebecca Wilson, consort of the late Alexander Wilson, formerly a representative of this district, with her brother, (Mr Simon Gillispie, from Kentucky) were passing from this place, on a visit to some friends, near Pattonsburg, in a Carry All, drawn it appears by a very sprightly horse; a dog rushed from an enclosure belonging to a Mr. Ingleheart, which affrighted the animal in such a manner, as to cause him to run off, his speed was such as to render all efforts to stop him fruitless; Mr Gillispie in order to save himself, sprung from the Carry-All, by which he received several severe bruises, the horse still passing on--the lady, was at lenth precipitated, and so dreadfully hurt, that serious doubts were entertained by the physicians of this place of her recovery. A few rods from the place the horse was found with his neck broke.

GENEALOGICAL QUERIES: Each member is entitled to one (1) to three (3) free 60 word query (does not include your name and address) per issue as space permits. The typist will not compose queries for you, so please make your query as clear and specific as possible so that others can understand them and have a chance to help you. Each query should include name, dates, and location to identify the problem. Please CAPITALIZE surnames - is it Mary Smith JONES (single) or Mary SMITH JONES (maiden & married name). Do not abbreviate, we will. If not typed, please PRINT — some written queries we have not been able to read. Queries for non-members are 5¢ (cents) per word not including your name and address. Queries must be received prior to the 1st of the month preceding publication.

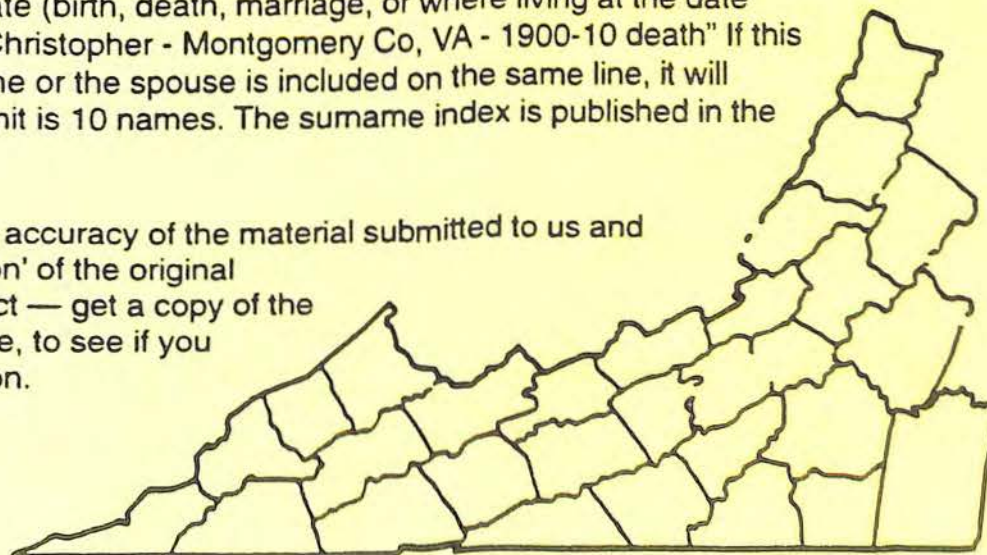

FAMILY REUNION, PUBLICATION OF BOOK, NEWSLETTERS, ETC.:

Limited to 60 words, not including your name and address. We cannot edit a full page down to 60 words — so send the notice as you want it printed. These notices will be put in as space permits. Members will be given priority in publishing these notices.

MATERIAL FOR PUBLICATION: We welcome articles, records, etc. for publications. The material when received may not be used in following issue, but in a future issue. If a large amount of material is sent, it may take a while to publish because we try to have a variety of material in each issue. (1) READY FOR PUBLICATION (which the editor loves). Please type using a carbon ribbon or dark ribbon and CLEAN KEYS. Use 8 1/2" x 11" paper, single space, with a minimum margin on ALL sides of 1 inch. Center your title. Be sure to include your name, address, and date (year) on the document. If not typed for publication, please PRINT PLAINLY — some articles that have been hand written we have not been able to read, or those that are typed with all caps are difficult to read. PLEASE read material over before mailing and double check all dates. (2) GIVE SOURCE OF MATERIAL. Original documents — where found, type of record, page number, etc., or, if known, who now has the document in their possession. We CANNOT PRINT material from printed sources unless we have written permission from the publisher, which you MUST FURNISH. We must have source of material to give credit to the person who has done the work. (3) DEADLINE for submitting material should be at least two months before date of publication. (4) PLEASE do not send material that you want returned — send a photocopy to us instead. That way it won't get lost, as letters do get misplaced, when passed from one person to another.

SURNAME INDEX: Information will include name (given and surname), place (location at time of date), Date (birth, death, marriage, or where living at the date given). "WASKEY, William Christopher - Montgomery Co, VA - 1900-10 death" If this data takes more than one line or the spouse is included on the same line, it will count as two names. The limit is 10 names. The surname index is published in the August issue.

VAN cannot vouch for the accuracy of the material submitted to us and printed by us. The 'translation' of the original document may not be correct — get a copy of the original document, if possible, to see if you agree with the printed version.
