Happy Holidays, Fellow Researchers!

Holidays and family gatherings are great times to hear about those elusive ancestors and hear family legends. My great aunts and uncles were all school teachers or school principals. My Great uncle Charles was principal at one of the first desegregated schools in Roanoke in the 1960's. What stories they could tell!

Researching genealogy has gotten easier with the use of the World Wide Web but lacks good stories. It's the stories that put a human face on our ancestors and make us proud or amused by our sometimes too human relatives. It's the stories that connect us.

Members have a wonderful opportunity to contribute to a major undertaking in genealogical research in the Roanoke area. There are years that the Roanoke Times is not indexed. We are starting with 1897 to 1906. The project starts January 3, 2007. If you would like to be part of this project please call Alicia Sell, (Archivist) in the Virginia Room (853-2073).

It has been a great year. It has been a privilege to work with all who have contributed their time and talent to make our Society a great organization. I hope we can keep building on the foundation that has developed over the years and that next year will be even better!

I hope the holidays find you well connected.

FAMILY TREASURE DAY

Members are invited to bring a family treasure for "show and tell" at the January 20th program at 1:30 p.m. in the Roanoke Public Library. At this post-holiday party refreshments will be served. Bring a special object of historical interest and enjoy everyone else's stories!

Good bye Gene, We'll Miss You

On September 17, 2006 Gene Swartzell was honored in a Farewell Luncheon at the Red Lobster in Roanoke. Gene has faithfully served in a number of capacities, including President, during her many years as a member of the Southwest Virginia Genealogical Society. She has relocated to Texas to be near her family. We wish her well in all her future endeavors.

BEAUTIFUL HOME CEREMONY

The Bride Widely Known for Her Vivacity, Beauty And Charm of Manner

(Special to The Times-Dispatch)

FLOYD, VA, October 16—A marriage the news of which will be received with interest throughout the State of Virginia and Tennessee, was solemnized Wednesday, October 11, at "The Aspens," Floyd county Va, at high noon, when Miss Lillian Beatrice Pendleton became the bride of Mr. David L. Vestal, of Knoxville, Tennessee.

The nuptials were consummated at the home of the bride's grandparents, Major and Mrs. William H. Harman. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. K. Harris in the presence of a party of relatives and friends.

The marriage took place in the parlor of the residence. Columns and banks of goldenrod and potted plants adorned every available portion of the lower floor of the house, the color scheme being yellow and green. Promptly at 12 o'clock the opening chords of Mendelssohn's wedding march was struck and the bridal party proceeded to the altar. First came Mr. Vestal with his best man, Mr. Edmund M. Pendleton, brother of the bride, then came little Mary Spencer Pendleton A sister of the bride, dressed in white organdy, carrying the wedding ring on a silver waiter; next came Mrs. F. Willis Michael, a brunette of rare beauty, sister of the bride as matron of honor, costumed in white crepe de chine on taffeta carrying yellow chrysanthemums. The bride entered with her father, Dr. William Pendleton, who gave her in marriage. Her gown was exquisite violet chiffon with hat and gloves to match and she carried violets. The color scheme was carried out in the elegant luncheon which was served after the ceremony.

The bride is one of Virginia's prettiest daughters, a vivacious brunette, and is noted throughout the state for her charm and beauty, is a daughter of Dr. William Pendleton, of Floyd, VA, a descendant of Judge Edmund Pendleton of the Supreme Court, a granddaughter of Major William H. Harman of Floyd Va., and a niece of Mr. F. P. Harman, of Lynchburg.

The groom is a prominent business man of Knoxville and is held in high esteem by all who know him. After a Southern trip of two weeks, Mr. and Mrs. Vestal will make their home in Roanoke for the winter.

NOTE: This wedding announcement was found in the Bible along with many obituaries including one for Dr. C. M. Stigleman. Dr. William H. Harman's wife was the former Mary Etta Yearout and their home was called "The Aspens," named for the row of Aspens on either side of the driveway leading to their home on what is now Bethlehem Church road in the Northeast section of Floyd county.

Dr. C. M. Stigleman is Dead

Dr. C. M. Stigleman "the beloved physician," is dead, and although there had been for some weeks past, little or no hope of his recovery, yet his death sent a shock through the town and community, and many many hearts were sad at the announcement of his demise.

Dr. Stigleman breathed his last peacefully and quietly on Sunday the 29th of January, at 4:30 p.m. and all that was mortal of him was laid to rest on Tuesday morning following, at the cemetery by the side of his beloved wife who preceded him to the grave 16 years ago. Dr. Stigleman was born in Floyd county, near Rose Hill, on the 13th of March, 1833.

Dr. Stigleman received his academic education at the school conducted here by Wm T. Gannaway, was always a bright student, excelling in mathematics and almost every other branch of study. He, by his own exertions, accumulated sufficient means to take and complete the course of medicine at the Medical College of Virginia. When he graduated in the spring of 1857, and during the same year, commenced his career as a practitioner of medicine in this county, locating at the courthouse. In the fall of that year he was united in marriage to Miss Ellen M. Shelor, a daughter of Rev. Thomas G. Shelor, who at that time lived at this place.

At the beginning of the Confederate War, Dr. Stigleman was captain of a military company known as the Floyd Rifles," which he took into the service in May, 1861. This company was incorporated in the 4th VA Regiment at Lynchburg, along with Col. Jubal A. Early commanding, and in a short time went to the front at Manassas. Capt. Stigleman being the senior captain his company was designated as Company A., and took its place at the head of this gallant regiment. Capt. Stigleman served faithfully during the first year of the war, when he returned home and resumed the active practice of his profession, which continued up to the commencement of his only serious and last sickness, though for several years past he had been trying to retire from active practice and to some extent succeeded. Still there were many of his old friends and patrons who would, to the last, persist in having him to attend them in times of sickness. And in many serious cases, far and near, he was often called in consultation.

Dr. Stigleman was by far, for many years, the most widely known and the most extensive practitioner in this county and section, his practice extending largely into the adjoining counties, especially Franklin and Patrick. There are few families in the county, especially so with the older and middle aged people, where Dr. Stigleman has not been called to visit, the sick and afflicted, when by kindness and sympathy as well as by his skill, he endeared himself to all, and it can be said of him with truth, that he was the friend of the sick and suffering and of the poor, paying hundreds and thousands of visits for which he never received a cent and never expected to. Truly he was the "beloved physician."

Dr. Stigleman was the first Superintendent of Schools of Floyd County, which position he efficiently filled until ousted under the Mahone regime in 1880. Without any disparagement of the services of his successors in this office it may be said that Floyd county never had more able and faithful superintendent of schools, and one who took more pride in his work. Dr. Stigleman organized the schools of the county with more dispatch and with better school houses than was done in any other county in this section of the State.

Dr. Stigleman was a true southern man. He always maintained that the South was right in the struggle of 1861-65, and nothing could ever induce to become false to his people or section. No thirst for office or hope of gain could swerve him from his devotion to the Sunny South and her cause.

Dr. Stigleman loved and honored the old Confederate soldiers and it has been by his efforts and at his expense principally that the "old boys" have held several reunions in the past years.

The crowning act of Dr. Stigleman's life in his devotion to the Confederate soldier and the cause for which so many fought and died stands today in the courthouse yard—the bronze monument "in memory of the Confederate dead"—which he only lived to see erected under his supervision and principally through his inspiration and exertions and then as if he said, "it is finished," he laid him down and died.

NOTE: Dr. Stigleman died 29 January 1905.

WITT and FRANK(S) FAMILY LETTER

The following letter was submitted by Lois Blankenship who found the letter in a box of items purchased at an estate sale.

Old Witt Farm
Rt. 221, Bedford, Va.
August 7, 1979

Dear Aunt Helen:

Here you're going to be 95 tomorrow and I am still not able to hand you a copy of the Witt Family as I have gathered it since I was a girl in high school.

I started when Mrs. Mary Latham Norton of California organized the Huguenot Society of the founders of Manakintowne of Virginia about 1924. I opened a letter she had written to your mother, Mrs. Booker T. Witt, giving the line of descent of the Witts from William Witt, who came to Manakin in 1695. We are descendants of one of his sons, Lewis Witt. They were French Huguenots, who fled France after the Edict of Nantos.

As I understand it he moved on to Nelson County where "Roselands" became the old Witt home. I have not been able to visit there, but that's what the various yearbooks of the Huguenot Society report. His son, Lewis, did not fight in the Revolutionary War but he gave aid to the troops and thus, if anyone in our family wants to join the Daughters or Sons of the American Revolution they can do so on his line.

Here are the descendants as I have them listed when I joined the state society. Jane, my sister, still is active in the Suzanne Rochet Chapter, which was organized in Lynchburg and I often attend their meetings but I had to give up belonging to things when I worked on the newspaper here and had to keep up with what other people belonged to.

William Witt, father of Lewis Witt who lived in Amherst County. William was born in 1675 in France and died in 1754.

Lewis Witt, who died in 1774, was married to Ann Mills, who died Oct. 28, 1816.

Their son, Mills Witt, who is listed as a "pioneer in Bedford County", married Bethani Creasey, April 27, 1797.

Their son, Abram Witt, married Alcinda James in 1831. She died Oct. 11, ____.

Their son, Booker T. Witt (b. 4-8-1834, d. 4-12-1896) married Eliza Jane Frank (b. 10-30-1844, d. 12-27-1910)

Their son, Abram Witt, married Lelia D. Anderson June 10, 1897. She died July 24, 1920; he died Mar. 17, 1941. They are my parents.

Now about the Franks who are buried on the farm next to ours.

I have a record of John Frank, our grandfather, as early as 1809 when he went on a marriage bond of his daughter, Sukey Frank. He bought the land Dr. J. A. Wente, Jr., now owns adjoining our farm. I have a date of 1832 for that farm which included the 100 acres we live on. You told me that he gave this part to his son, Washington Frank, for a wedding present.

John's wife was Sarah Catherine _____. She was born 1811, according to my father. She died Jan. 17, 1898. John Frank (Franks) died April 1854. They are buried on that farm, along with their son, Washington Frank and his wife, Catherine Powell. Their daughter, Nancy Frank, married Silas Ramsey. After John's death in 1854, his wife came to live on the Washington Frank farm and the Ramsey's took over the other farm. Nancy Frank Ramsey died in 1851 and is buried there with her parents. Her tombstone is one of the two we can find that have not fallen into holes, etc. I learned from Mrs. Mary Ramsey Venable, a granddaughter of cousin Calvin Ramsey, that Mr. Silas Ramsey moved to Rockbridge County after Nancy's death and that family has had a prominent part in the life of the county. He was county clerk, and I think, an ancestor [descendant?] is now running for the State Senate.

The others buried there are four of your little brothers and sisters, as you gave them to me. Uncle Lee's daughter, who is now dead, gave Booker a copy of the old family Bible in which all are listed. She thought her father did the writing in the Bible. Anyway, here they are so you will have a record:

George W. Witt - b. 3-22-1860; d. 6-25-1861

John W. Witt - b. 6-6-1863; d. 9-27-1871

Mattie N. Witt - b. 5-10-1875; d. 2-16-1879

Harold J. Witt - b. 6-10-1878; d. 6-10-1878

There are no stones for the Franks or Witts, except one almost buried, but someday, the Lord willing, I shall have them properly identified. I have checked on the cost of a marker listing all of them. Dr. Wente is good about keeping it mowed. He loves that old farm and if the time comes that this farm gets out of our "Witt" hands I hope he can but this, too. He beautifies everything he touches and has a sense of appreciation for the family that lived there so long ago.

Your parents got their marriage "consent" on June 10, 1859, according to the records in the Bedford County Courthouse, but I also have an 1858 date from somewhere.

Here's your mother's obituary which I copied from the Bedford Bulletin-Democrat. This was in the issue of 1-5-1911. She died Dec. 27, 1910:

A Good Woman Gone

Mrs. Eliza J. Witt, who has been quite ill for a long while, died on Wednesday night of last week at 9 o'clock, aged 67 years. She was the widow of Booker T. Witt, at one time a well-known contractor and builder, who preceded her to the grave twenty odd years ago.

She had been a devout member of Timber Ridge Baptist Church since her girlhood and whenever her health permitted she was always in her place in the house of worship.

Mrs. Witt was the mother of 15 children, all of whom are dead except eight, as follows: Lee R. Witt, of Washington, D.C.; Mrs. A. J. Comer, Mrs. Sarah Wingfield, K.[?], Abe, Charles B. and Frank A. of Bramwell, W. Va.; Mrs. Helen Waugaman, Ohio; Mrs. Nettie Wooldridge of Bedford.

Her children loved her devotedly and did everything in their power to prolong her life and add to her comfort. She was before marriage a Miss Franks, born and reared in the vicinity, where she lived all of her days, where everyone knew and loved her for her many good good traits of character. The funeral and interment took place at 11 o'clock and the service was conducted by her pastor, Rev. C. W. Collier, which was attended by a long concourse of sorrowing friends. The pallbearers were Wm. Smith, Harold Stanley, James McIntyre, F. O. Thomas, C. R. Bondurant, and C. J. Ramsey.

Fondly,
Bobby Witt

NOTE: Attached to the letter is a newclipping from the Bedford Bulletin-Democrat, dated August 15, 1979, entitled "Mrs. Helen Nave has 95th birthday Aug. 8". In part it states: Mrs. Helen Witt Nave, who was born and reared on the old Witt farm on Little Otter, Route 221, celebrated her 95th birthday Wednesday Aug. 8. She was the dinner guest of her son Cecil W. Waugaman of Roanoke. Also present were her daughter, Mrs. Virginia Thomas with whom she now lives in Vinton, and her nieces, Mrs. R. E. Carneal and Miss Bobby Witt, and Robert C. Peterson of Bedford. Mrs. Nave's other daughter, Mrs. Marietta Waugaman Hockett, lives with her husband, Robert E. Hockett, at Orange. She was married to George Emory Waugaman Sept. 17, 1907. After his death she married Thomas Nave in 1914 and had one son, Frank Nave, who was lost aboard the submarine, "The Grunion" in the Aleutian Islands Aug. 2, 1942. Mrs. Nave's parents were the late Booker T. and Sarah Frank Witt. Mrs. Nave became a nurse in her youth and continued in that profession the greater part of her life, doing private duty at one time at Johns Hopkins and Walter Reed Hospitals until her retirement in 1961, when she moved back to Virginia. She served as assistant postmistress in the Vinton Post Office during the 1920s and 1930s and was active there in the Baptist church. She became well-known in the Roanoke area because of her period of service as a nurse for the late Dr. Semones who pioneered the practice of osteopathy in Roanoke. Mrs. Nave wears a hearing aid, does not see well and has difficulty walking but her mind is as clear as when she grew up in the Center Point neighborhood. She visits her old home once or twice a year and walks around the old orchard and other places where she played as a child, and where she and her sisters planted daffodils which still bloom all over the farm. Her health is good and she looks forward to her 96th birthday.

Funeral homes recently have been using the excuse of HIPAA privacy regulations to deny access to their records. As indicated by this federal advisory this is not true.

ADVISORY CONCERNING THE HIPAA PRIVACY RULE

The HIPAA Privacy Rule, a federal regulation which is required by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act, will take effect on April 14, 2003. Basically, the HIPAA Privacy Rule will require all health care providers, such as hospitals, nursing homes and doctor offices, to adopt and implement strict privacy procedures for patient's medical records.

Detailed information regarding the HIPAA Privacy Rule will be published in the next few weeks. However, with the compliance date of April 14, 2003 right around the corner, it is critical for funeral homes to understand several important aspects of how the HIPAA Privacy Rule does and does not impact funeral service.

1. Funeral homes are not covered by the HIPAA Privacy Rule. Covered Entities, which are those businesses that are subject to the HIPAA Privacy Rule requirements, consist of health plans, health care clearing houses, and health care providers. Although funeral homes may receive or have access to health information of the decedents they care for, they are not Covered Entities. Therefore, funeral homes are not subject to the HIPAA Privacy Rule and do not have to comply with the obligations imposed upon Covered Entities regarding the development of privacy practices and the protection of patient health care information.

2. Funeral homes are not Business Associates. When a Covered Entity has another business perform functions or activities on behalf the Covered Entity, and that business is provided patient health information, the business is required as a "Business Associate" of the Covered Entity. While the HIPAA Privacy Rule does not directly regulate Business Associates, it does require Covered Entities to regulate the activities of Business Associates. The Covered Entity must enter into a contract with the Business Associate that mandates that the Business Associate's use of protected health information will be consistent with the privacy policies of the Covered Entity.

In nearly all cases, funeral homes would not be regarded as a Business Associate of a Covered Entity. Therefore, if a hospital or nursing home requests that the funeral home enter into a Business Associate contract, the funeral home should not do so. The only exception would be if the funeral home was providing services for the hospital. For example, if a funeral home ran the morgue at the hospital, it would be a Business Associate. However, in the overwhelming majority of the cases, funeral homes are not Business Associates and should not enter into Business Associate contracts with hospitals, nursing homes, doctor offices or other Covered Entities.

3. Funeral homes may receive confidential medical information. Under the HIPAA Privacy Rule, Covered Entities are permitted to make disclosure of confidential patient health information to funeral homes as necessary for the funeral home to carry out its duties with respect to the care of a deceased body. Therefore, hospitals could disclose to funeral homes the presence of a contagious disease or the fact that organ and tissue donations were taken from the deceased body.

Hospitals and nursing homes may be contacting funeral homes to discuss these disclosure policies. Certainly, it would be appropriate for funeral homes to participate in the development of these disclosure policies to insure that the funeral home receives the necessary information to perform its duties for the decedent while protecting the health and safety of its staff.

Pinkard Court Family Reunion

On Dec. 16, 2006 from 1:00 to 4:00 pm the Harrison Museum of African American Culture will be hosting a Pinkard Court Family Reunion at the Museum. If you or anyone you know has any connection to the Pinkard Court community please plan to attend and share your memories with old friends who were more like "family" than friends. Also invited are those who have memories of Dr. Pinkard. The exhibit Dr. John Henry Pinkard, African American Legend of the Roanoke Valley continues through December. We can't bring Pinkard Court back but we can keep the memories alive.

Adopt an Orphan

Orphan photos are photos that have somehow lost their families. We'd like to make the effort to find their families and hopefully reunite them. If someone pictured here appears on your family tree, please let us know and we'll get the photo to you. Remember, the first request gets the photo...but maybe the person who gets the photo will be kind enough to send others a scan. Requests for a photo can be e-mailed to the editor at: mblankens@yahoo.com.

RAYMOND BARNES' ROANOKE HISTORY TO BE REPRINTED

A new edition of Raymond Barnes' huge A History of the City of Roanoke will be published by the Historical Society of Western Virginia this fall. This edition will contain two paperback volumes with the 115-page index compiled by Betty Low after Barnes' death.

The price for the two volumes will be $75, postpaid. The history has been out of print and in demand for many years.

Barnes, a Roanoke lawyer of the old school, published his 844-page history in 1968. Beginning with the organization of the Town of Roanoke in 1882, he wrote of the everyday happenings of Roanokers in chapters for each year until 1940. Although criticized for some inaccuracies, the book contains an excellent picture of life-business, social and government-in the first half of Roanoke's history. The book is chock-full of names, as seen in the lengthy index.

Orders should be addressed to the Historical Society of Western Virginia, P. O. Box 1904, Roanoke, VA 24008.

Death Certificates Not Always Reliable

Below is an excellent example of why the information on death certificates cannot always be trusted. This West Virginia record states that Gay Morgan Allen was born February 28, 1938, died November 26, 1938 (the same year) and yet he was over 36 years old.

MARGIN RESERVED FOR BINDING. EVERY ITEM OF INFORMATION SHOULD BE FULLY SUPPLIED. AGE, SEX, OCCUPATION, TRADE, PROFESSION, INDUSTRY OR BUSINESS, should be stated EXACTLY. PHYSICIAN'S should state CAUSE OF DEATH in plain terms, so that it may be properly classified. Exact statement of OCCUPATION is very important. See instructions on back of certificate.

Roanoke County Cemeteries

If you are searching for any information on Roanoke County cemeteries your first stop should be at this web-address:

<http://freepages.genealogy.rootsweb.com/~spgraham/Cem%20by%20Tom%20Klatka%20pages%201%20to%2074.html>

It is a long, cumbersome address, so once you find it be sure to bookmark it so you won't lose it.

Most of the Roanoke County cemeteries, and some Roanoke City cemeteries were transcribed by Thomas S. Klatka in 2000. Klatka is on the staff of the Roanoke Regional Preservation Office of the Virginia Department of Historic Resources. The document is rather long but beginning on Page 63 you will find, in alphabetical order, dozens of documented and transcribed cemeteries.

GENEALOGICAL QUERIES: Each member is entitled to one (1) to three (3) free 60 word query (does not include your name, address and e-mail address ) per issue as space permits. Please make your query as clear and specific as possible so that others can understand and have a chance to help you. The queries will be printed exactly as submitted. Each query should include names, dates, and location to identify the person or persons you are researching. Please CAPITALIZE all surnames including maiden and married names. Do not abbreviate, we will do so if necessary. If handwritten queries are submitted, please print legibly. Queries for non-members are 5 cents per word, not including your name, address and e-mail address. Queries must be received prior to the 1st of the month preceding publication.

FAMILY REUNION, PUBLICATION OF BOOK, NEWSLETTERS, ETC.: Limited to 60 words, not including your name, address and e-mail address or website. Send the 60 word notice as you want it printed. These notices will be printed as space permits. Members will be given priority in publishing these notices.

MATERIAL FOR PUBLICATION: We welcome articles, records, etc. for publication. The material may not be used in the issue following the date of submission but in a future issue. If a large amount of material is sent , it may take some time to publish because we try to have a variety of material in each issue. (1) READY FOR PUBLICATION (which the editor loves). Use 8 ½ X 11 paper, with a minimum margin on all sides of 1 inch. Center your title. Be sure to include your name, address and e-mail address. PLEASE read material carefully before submitting, double-check dates and use "spell checker". If you wish to save the cost of postage, articles for publication may be e-mailed to the editor or The Virginia Room. Photos to be included with your submission may also be e-mailed, most formats can be accommodated. (2) GIVE SOURCE OF MATERIAL. Original documents - where found, type of record, page number, etc. or, if known, who (or what facility) now has the document in their possession. We CANNOT print material from printed sources unless we have written permission from the publisher, which you must furnish. We must have the source of materials to give credit to the person who has done the work. (3) DEADLINE for submitting material should be at least two months before date of publication. (4) MATERIAL WILL NOT BE RETURNED.

SURNAME INDEX: Information will include NAME (given and surname), DATE (birth, death, marriage or where living at the date given), PLACE (location at time of date). If this data takes more than one line or the spouse is included on the same line, it will count as two names. The limit is ten names. The surname index is published in the Summer Issue.

Virginia Appalachian Notes cannot vouch for the accuracy of the material submitted to us and printed by us. The "translation" of the original document may not be correct - get a copy of the original document, if possible, to see if you agree with the printed version.
