FOREWORD

With the hope that we shall be uplifted by having our minds called back to the scenes among which we have spent our school days, the friends with whom we have shared joys and disappointments, and the faculty, who have revealed to us much of the fullness of life, and with the further hope that we shall remain true to those influences found at William Byrd High that have meant so much to us, we send forth this fourth volume of THE BLACK SWAN

Senior Class History

THE present Senior Class entered William Byrd High School in the fall of '33. The class began their high school career under most favorable auspices, being especially fortunate in having Miss Patricia Lorraine as sponsor. At our first meeting we elected the following class officers: Helen Sisler, President; Mary Elizabeth Shank, Vice President; and James Taylor, Secretary-Treasurer. We selected for our class colors Blue and White and for our motto these appropriate lines: "True as the Blue; pure as the White," to which standard we have attempted to adhere during our four eventful years in high school.

Our Freshman year drew to a close all too soon, but we found solace in being privileged to take our classes in the large building on the hill.

Due, no doubt, to her valuable services the year before, Helen Sisler was reelected to the office of president; Donald Bryant commencing his rise to fame at the post of vice president. Mary Elizabeth Jones was appointed by the class to be secretary; Geraldine Montgomery was elected treasurer and Julia T. Moseley made reporter. Mrs. Horn was our able and beloved sponsor this year. The class presented the play "Wait For Me," which was proclaimed an immense success. Mr. Horn is on record as saying the cast should be able to play Shakespeare in their Senior year. On May 18th, the social high-light of the year took place in form of a hike to Tinker's Knob. An excellent time was had by all, numbering among the party numerous chaperons in addition to a great majority of the class.

In our Junior year we elected the following officers: Jesse Gearhart, President; Jack Fitzpatrick, Vice President; Douglas Brown, Secretary; Dorothy Bryant, Treasurer; Donald Bryant, reporter; and Miss May Carter, sponsor. The play this year was called "Bachelor's Choice." In the gala event of the year, the Junior-Senior Banquet, we bade our Senior friends farewell.

The end is in sight at last! We have become Seniors. We are in the last lap; a final spurt and we break the tape. This year we again have Miss Carter for sponsor. Donald Bryant is our president; Helen Sisler, Vice President; Geraldine Montgomery, Secretary; Dorothy Bryant, Treasurer. We look forward with great pleasure to the coming events of the year.

The Senior Class has had the pleasure this year of publishing the fourth edition of the BLACK SWAN. We take great pride in the efficient work of our Editor-in-Chief, Mary Elizabeth Shank, and of the Business Manager, Helen Sisler. The annual this year promises to be one of the biggest and best the school has yet published.

Our Class will present the play "Tom Sawyer." The Junior Class is to give us a reception and the Alumni, a banquet. Then come exams, graduation and the end of high school for us. It is with great sorrow that we bid our friends, the undergraduates, farewell. But the best of friends must sometimes part, and so "Adieu."

Last Will and Testament

WE, the Senior Class of William Byrd High School, being of sound mind, on this, the second day of June, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven, in the Commonwealth of Virginia, do hereby will and bequeath, collectively and severally, our scholastic possessions:

Collectively:

We, the Seniors of '37, do leave to the Juniors, our dignity and studiousness.

To our faculty sponsor, Miss May Carter, we leave our thanks for working so patiently with us.

The members of the Annual Staff leave to Mr. Horn our thanks for the use of his office.

To Miss Marshall, we leave our many thanks for her personal interest, which she has taken in each of us, these four years.

Severally:

I, Virginia Abell, do will my dramatic ability to Louise Powell.

I, Lenwood Moore, do will my influence over the teachers to Robert Dunman.

I, Elizabeth Chisom, do leave to Essie Patsel, my quietness.

I, Douglas Brown, do will my position as President of the Student Body to any one who can conduct assembly as well as I do.

I, Nellie Bowles, do leave my fair complexion to Nancy Shelor.

I, Marie Eanes, do will to Lucille Herman my "blond curls."

I, Edna Dowdy, do leave my musical talent to Evelyn Laughlin.

I, Cecil Ferguson, do will my "carrying-on-ways" to Charles Williamson.

I, Maxine Hurt, do will my sweet disposition to Alpha Booth.

I, Julia Moseley, do will "mama" to any one who can use her suggestions to a greater advantage than I have.

I, Jack Fitzpatrick, do leave my likeable ways to Manuel Weeks.

I, Margaret Tolley, do leave my dark complexion to Ann Muse.

I, Lois Watson, do leave to Everett Flippen my absent-mindedness.

I, Nellie Rakes, do leave my position as Secretary of the Athletic Council to anyone who is willing to work as hard as I have.

I, Herman Smith, do leave my athletic ability to Bennie Wise.

We, Dorothy Bryant and Clarabelle Burt, do will our positions as co-managers of the girl's basket ball team to Margaret Marshall and Ayles Coleman.

The Black Swan • 1937

- I, Cecil Cox, do will my bashful ways to Tom Silcox.
- I, Odell Davis, do will my false fingernails to Janet Long.
- I, Kenneth Young, do will my beautiful hair to Wilton Thurman.
- I, Maxine Parker, do will my stenographic ability to LaRaine Sheaff.
- I, Harold Powell, do leave to Frank Pedigo my good looks.
- I, Helen Sisler, do will my "Ha, Ha's" to anyone who doesn't mind being sent out of Mr. Thompson's English Class.
- I, Eula Smith, do leave to Virginia Goodman my artistic ability.
- I, Harry Wade, do leave my name "Buchanan" to Harry Dickson.
- I, John Wilkerson, do will my opposition to the Student Council to Joe Milner.
- I, Lillian Wimmer, do leave my reserved ways to Thelma Brown.
- I, Edison Arrington, do will my quiet ways to Harry Lacy.
- I, Donald Bryant, do will my "height" to O. J. Meador.
- I, Shirley Cromer, do will my shyness to Grace Neighbors.
- I, Howard Dooley, do leave my neatness in dress to Norris Brown.
- I, Geraldine Montgomery, do will my winning ways to Jewell Thompson.
- I, Roy Wilson, do will to Norris Brown my studiousness.
- I, Juanita Austin, do will my quietness to my sister, Doris.
- I, Clara Foutz, do leave LaRaine Sheaff to anyone who cares for her as I do.
- I, Josephine Newman, do will my "size" to Vivian Kidd.
- I, Dorothy Eanes, do leave to Margaret Ridgeway my flirtatious ways.
- We, Hazel Cundiff and Clara Kingery, do will our influence over Mr. Miller to Rachel Cyphers and Margaret Turk.
- I, Hazel Dove, do will my A's to Harry McCue.
- I, Hazel Cadd, do leave to Gretna Snyder my basket ball propoganda.
- We, Catherine Cooper and Roberta Craig, do will our influence over Mr. Shannon to Josephine Meador.
- I, Jesse Gearhart, do will my speaking ability to James Garrett.
- I, Margaret Hopkins, do will my shyness to Jeanette Fizer.
- I, Edith Kelly, do will my good looks to Rachel Bowdel.
- I, Bertha Mullins, do will my interest in athletics to Elizabeth Abell.

The Black Swan • 1937

I, Richard Meador, do will my athletic ability to Murphy Scott.

I, Mary Elizabeth Shank, do will my position as Editor of the BLACK SWAN to anyone who is willing to lose a lot of sleep over it.

I, Julia Vinyard, do will my attractiveness to Margaret Marshall.

I, Charles Wilson, do leave my ability to sleep in classes to Mr. Thompson. (He needs it.)

I, Patty Sandridge, do will my evidence of my affection for my girl friends to Jewell for Rachel.

I, Ganymede Smith, do will my studiousness in bookkeeping class to Mary Jim Funk.

I, Dorothy Willis, do leave my position as Secretary of the Booster Club to anyone who likes to argue with Mr. Myers.

The season began with only three lettermen, which gave Coach Ahalt something to worry over. But cooperation and courage brought us two ties and two victories; and bad luck brought us four losses. Prospects for next year are bright as not too many of our best players graduate.

Girls' Basket Ball

At the beginning of the season the team was in fine condition, due to the efficient coaching of Mr. Myers. The team has shown splendid cooperation and has been awarded by winning nine games out of fifteen.

Montgomery, Mullins and Vinyard gained additional favor by winning places on the All-County Team.

By graduation we lose Montgomery, Mullins, Kelley, Lawhorn, Wimmer, and Vinyard.

Boys' Basket Ball

SCOTT.....Captain AHALT.....Coach ARRINGTON.....Manager

The Basket Ball season began—more trouble for the Coach. There was only one eligible letterman—Douglas Brown. Good material was found, and determination combined with coöperation carried our team through a successful season. When the final whistle blew we had ten victories and six losses to our credit.

The defensive ability of Captain Scott, Wise and Vaught; the floor work of Crowder, and the scoring of Brown and Noel deserve mention.

Baseball

Our prospects for a baseball team this year are good, although the services of Weaver, Foutz, Ferguson, Hess and Pursley will be greatly missed.

Five letter men and a group of last year's Junior Varsity, as well as several new men, should develop into a creditable team.

Track

Our track team should have a very successful season, since Coach Myers has a number of lettermen and a group of promising new men competing for places on this year's team. Yet, the absence of Fitzpatrick, dash man; Overstreet, distance ace; and Adkins, 440-dash man, will be keenly felt.

The squad consists of lettermen Captain Gregory, Reynolds, Akers and Vaught and the following new candidates: Francis Hill, Edward Garnand, Kenneth Young, Lawrence Roach, Charlie Wilson, Roy Wilson, Jimmy Fuqua, Eugene Holmes, Hugh Tucker, Warren Butterworth, Joe Milner, Bennie Wise and Jimmy Reynolds.

The schedule consists of:

To High School Graduates

Whatever you plan to do after graduation—whether you plan for college or business—your mental development must continue.

The National Business College is a distinctive, private school of professional grade. Day and evening courses prepare high school graduates for immediate earnings. Many graduates who have acquired experience are now presidents, vice-presidents, cashiers, secretaries, treasurers and controllers of large corporations—others are in successful accountancy practice.

The selection of a commercial school for your business training is of vital importance to you. Write for beautifully illustrated catalog.

Doctor (to pretty patient): "You certainly have acute appendicitis."

Pretty Patient: "Oh, Doctor, you flatter me."

"Did you tell your father that I had asked you to marry me?" the young man inquired.

"Yes," responded the very modern girl.

"And how was he affected?" the young suitor went on.

The girl answered: "He smiled in a knowing way and cried 'Brave boy!'"
