An eerie silence reigns everywhere.
A lone pair of feet shuffles through the echoing halls.
He unlocks each door
One by one.
Windows are opened,
lights switched on.
He glances at his watch:
8:31.
Then as if by eruption,
the swinging doors burst open and people stream in.
Halls are exploding with screams,
Bubbly giggles and anxious hellos.
It is August 26, 1981.
A new year has been born.

Smile, you're on candid camera.

Its been a hard day.

Asleep on the job.

Action in the air.

Don't trip!

Let's get it together!

Help! We're being invaded! Help!

Look at those legs!

STOP TALKING AND GET TO WORK!

My feelings exactly!

IN HONOR FRANCES LEWIS HURT

Frances Lewis Hurt, a direct descendent of Andrew Lewis, is a native of Salem, Virginia. She attended Fort Lewis Elementary and Andrew Lewis High School graduating in 11 years which was the trend at that time.

To continue her education Ms. Hurt attended a one year program at National Business College, then worked in Charleston, West Virginia for one and a half years. During World War II (1943-46) she served in the Navy. In 1947 Ms. Hurt began her higher education at Roanoke College and graduated in 1951 with a major in biology and a minor in chemistry. She then worked in the chemical lab at Radford Army Ammunition Plant. Ms. Hurt began teaching at Andrew Lewis in September of 1953 after having gone back to Roanoke College to certify as a teacher. In 1958-59 she received a grant from the National Science Foundation for graduate work in chemistry and physics at the University of Virginia. She then returned to Andrew Lewis and is retiring from teaching after a career of 28 years. Ms. Hurts' talents and knowledge in the field of science will long be remembered.

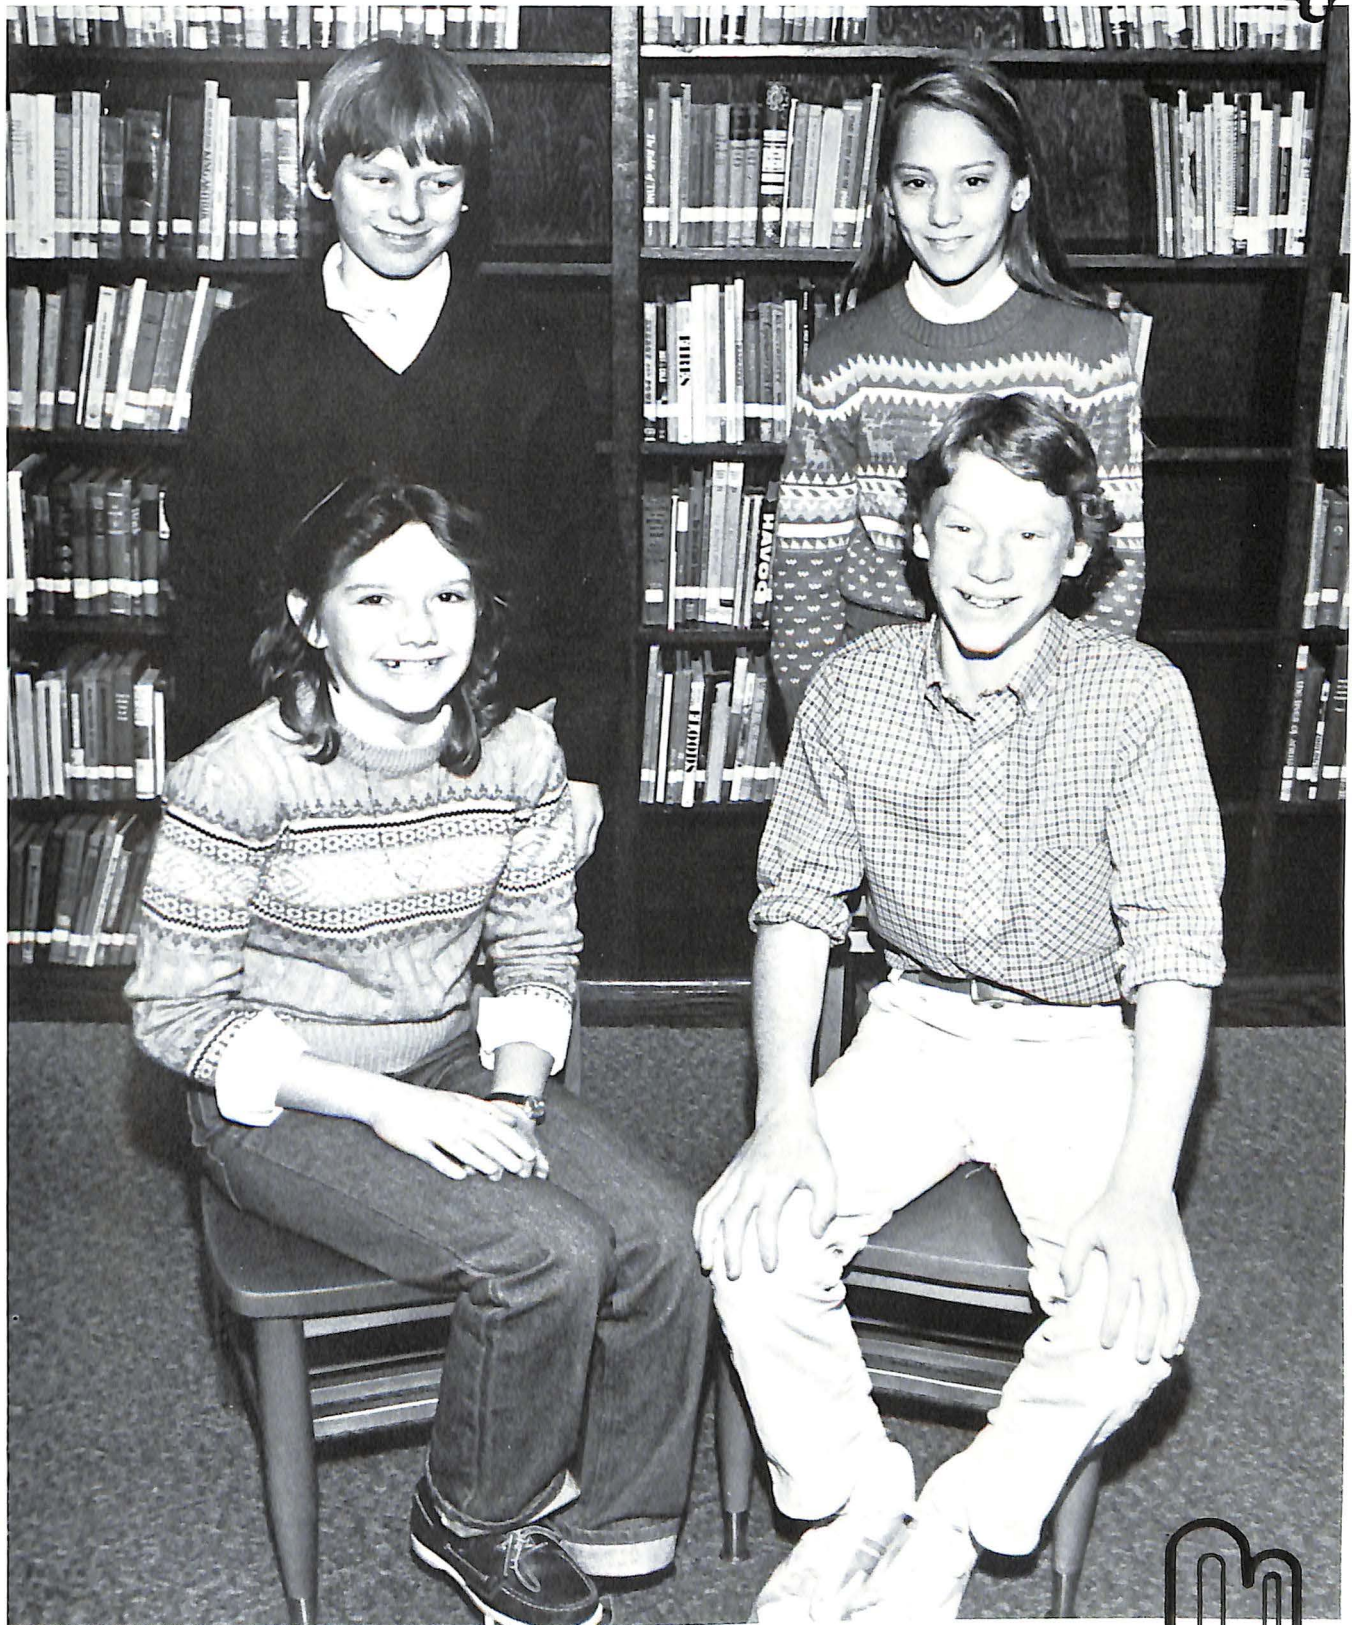

HILDA N. SCOTT

Hilda N. Scott was born in Bonsack and is a native of Roanoke County. She graduated from William Byrd in 1938 and her first job was working for the National Youth Association. She attended Kennett School of Commerce for one and a half years to take a business course. She married W. Murphy Scott on June 22, 1946 and had two children — Douglas and Gail. They moved to Charlotte County and lived at Drakes Branch, Virginia for two years. While there her husband taught school at Randolph High School and operated a store. The Scotts moved back to Bonsack, then to Salem, in 1951. Various jobs kept her busy during the years while her children were growing up. In 1970, Mrs. Scott became secretary at what was then Salem Intermediate under Mr. Barnett. Mrs. Scott came to Andrew Lewis when it became a junior high in 1977. After ten and a half years with the Roanoke County School System, she retired in December, 1981. She says she is enjoying every minute of retirement by taking care of her new granddaughter.

ALJH FOOTBALL

The 1981 football team compiled the first undefeated-untied record in Andrew Lewis Junior High School history. A number of things contributed to this — the team spirit and closeness, the love of the sport and the dedication and talent to produce a number one team. The Wolverines outscored their opponents 166 to 24. The offensive unit gained a season total of 2,751 yards averaging 393 yards per game. Offensive standouts in the line were Roy Johnson, Brian Ellis, and Doug Moore. Quarterback Cameron Young passed for a district record of 16 touchdowns to Richard Morgan, Lynwood Hutchinson, and James O'Quinn. Eighth grader JoJo Harris led the rushing game with a total of 405 yards.

The Wolverine defensive unit held their opponents to 3.4 points per game — the best defense in the district. Richard Morgan and James O'Quinn led the team in interceptions with 11. Defensive linemen Doug Moore, Jack Farris, and William Kimbrough were cited for outstanding play. Linebacker Brian Ellis led the unit in total tackles with 66. Ninth grader Jamie Carter led the kick-off team in coverage. Allen Wiley recorded a 47.9 yard kickoff average, kicking 3 into opponents end zones throughout the course of the season.

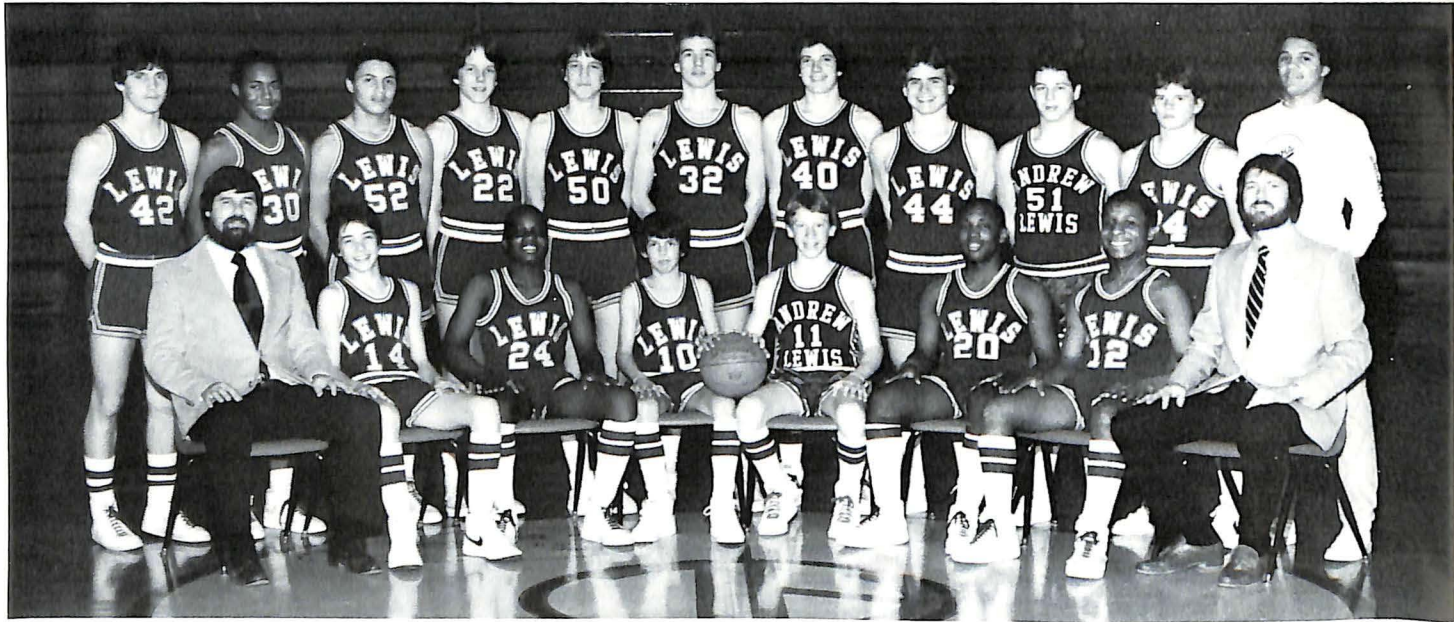

This team made the fall season enjoyable for everyone in Salem and it will never be the same again. We're proud of our men.

The Volleyball Team finished a spectacular season this year by winning the district title for the third year straight, something never done by any team in the league. They won their first game in district competition by a score of 15-1, which is unusual. Brenda Looney was leading scorer with over 120 points. The team finished the season with an overall record of 12-2.

The State Convention was held in November in Norfolk, Va. with 47 out of 60 club members attending. The club participated in only one contest, "Quis Sum", which means, Who am I? Vincent Randall, our representative, came in second place out of 30 contestants. He portrayed Nero. Andrew Lewis was the only Jr. High competing against High schools in this contest. The club had a dinner at the Salem Town Club in March. They also had their annual picnic with the National Junior Honor Society in May. Anyone taking Latin may join the Latin Club.

The Student Council Association had a very exciting year. There was a good turn out for the Christmas dance with everyone having fun. The "Spirit Weeks" the SCA sponsored were most interesting. The day with the most response from the student body had to be "Punk Day." On this day the students looked unusually different. Other events the SCA sponsored were the Lewis/Glenver Day at Lakeside and the Mock Olympics. The class officers are elected by their respective classes. The SCA officers are elected by the student body.

1932-1982 50-YEARS

EPILOGUE

He rambles down the hall,
sweeping aimlessly.
Silence echoes throughout the halls.
Lockers are all empty and trashcans are full of papers, and notebooks that nobody cares about anymore.
Momentarily he pauses at the trophy case,
brimming with awards.
He remembers the pride of the school,
and the honor that went along with being a student there.
He rushes on, though.
There are walls to be washed and
rooms to be cleaned.
It is his job to brush away the memories
of the school year,
so there is no trace of the life and the energy that was here for almost two hundred days.
Yes, the hard work, spirit, laughter
and confidence are gone
and the 1981-82 school year is over.
