Our Spirit Soars

When Andrew Lewis opened its doors in the fall, a small breeze lifted the student's spirits higher. This enthusiasm resulted in our successful school year.

Successful teams were not the only factors that raised our spirit. We were encouraged by our new teachers: Mr. Tony Wirt, Mr. Greg Gallion, Miss Kathy Whitenack and Mr. Jimmy Carter.

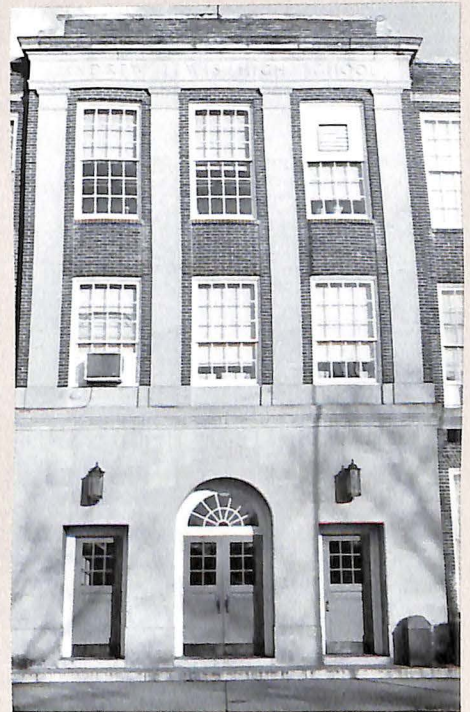

Besides the new teachers, there were also a number of other improvements. A new sign identifying Andrew Lewis was added to the side lawn. Each room had its number, (or name) painted in bright colors on the wall beside it. Our teams rode to the games in newly painted activity bus.

SPORTS

Cross Country Team

This year, Andrew Lewis girls had a chance to participate in Salem High School's Junior Varsity Cross Country Team. The team competed at Blue Ridge Invitational, Metro Invitational and other additional dual meets against local teams. Christy Moushegian won the individual Junior Varsity girls title at the Metro; Stephanie Provost was third. At the Blue Ridge invitation, Christy was second and Stephanie was third.

Girls' Tennis Team

This year Andrew Lewis fielded its first girls' tennis team coached by Mr. Greg Gallion. The team's 3-2 record was led by Laura Byrd and Barbara Robertson. Opening the season with a loss to Addison, the girls rallied back to defeat Madison. The team then went on to win impressively in the second half of the season defeating Jackson and closing out the season with a challenging win over Breckinridge.

New tradition continues best season ever

After years of frustration, this year's squad continues the resurgence of girls basketball at Lewis. Posting a fine 11-5 record, 6-1 in the friendly confines of the Wolverine Den.

Despite losing three starters off last year's surprising district runner-ups, Coach Ward and Coach Orange took a very young group of ladies, (two seventh and two eighth graders started,) and made it to the district finals once again. Although losing a heart-breaking 49-46 decision in that contest, this year's squad will be remembered as the best ever at ALMS.

Season highlights included two game sweeps over Cave Spring and Franklin County, and wins over Perennial Power Northside and William Byrd in the District's Semi-Finals.

At the season ending banquet, the following lady Wolverines were trophy winners: Carrie Campbell — Coaches Award, Carol Cobb — Most Assists, Debbie Puch — Most Valuable, and Stephanie Danstrom — Most Improved. Also recognized were Lynn Holliday and Debbie Puch for being selected for All-District.

Major Victories Highlight Season

The Andrew Lewis Junior High Football team completed a 2-3-1 season in 1984. The season was highlighted by a 32-8 thrashing of the Franklin County Eagles and a slim 12-8 victory over the Squires of Cave Spring. Two members of the team made the 1984 All-Roanoke Valley

Junior High Squad; Jerry Hall at safety and Chris Crawford at defensive tackle. Also honored was Lamar Daniels as the team's most improved player. The Andrew Lewis Junior High Team consisted of forty 7th, 8th, and 9th graders. The squad was coached by Larry Bradley and Brian Hooker.

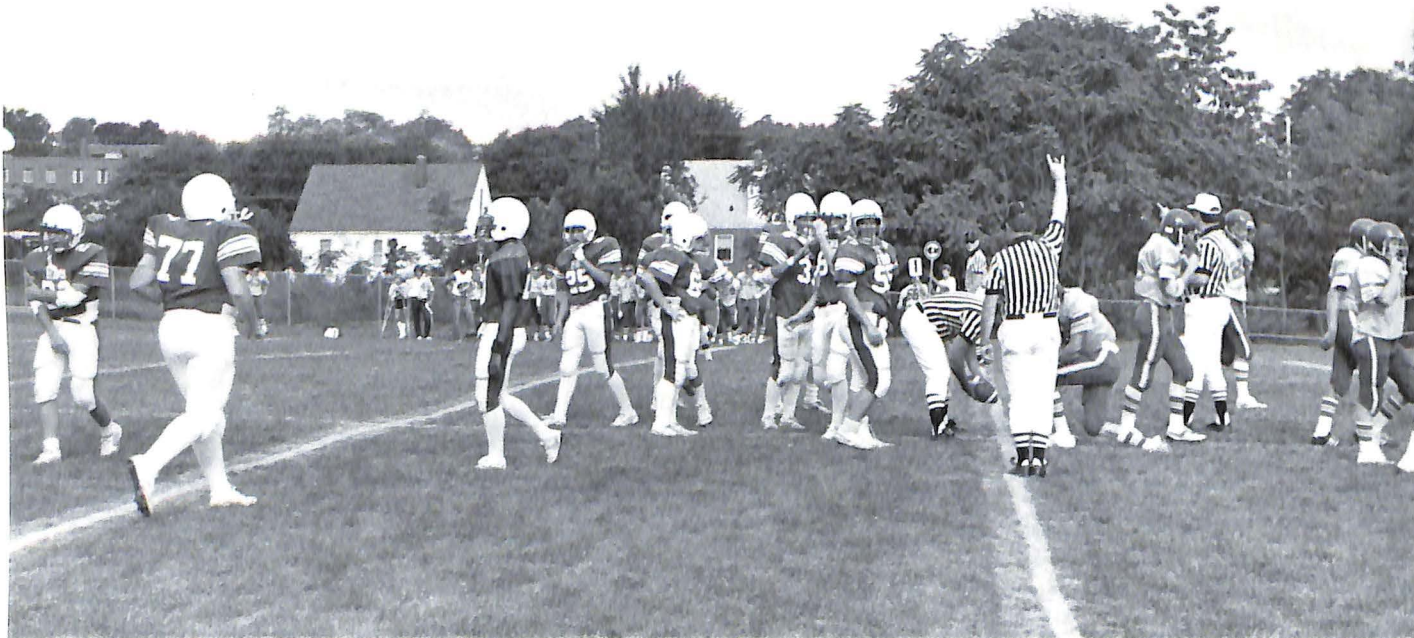

Jerry Hall (1) is tackled by two Northside defenders; Kenny Sledd (88) and Mike Janney (24) prepare to leave the field.

Volleyball

Volleyball Team

The volleyball team was coached by Mrs. Pat Oberlin again this year. Playing 5 different schools with many close decisions; the lady Wolverines were able to defeat Northside on two separate occasions.

They ended the season with a banquet held at the Ground Round. Awards were given to the following: most improved player — Amy Dunn, coach's choice — Michelle Keyes, most valuable player — Cielita Martin, and most determined — Martha Claytor.

Andrew Lewis Gymnastics 1984-85

The 1984-85 Lewis gymnastic had a rewarding year, having gone 1-5 with a young but highly competitive squad. The lone victory was achieved on opening day against Franklin County Jr. High. Although this was the only victory, the girls were very close to winning in most of their other meets.

The Lewis ladies were placed by all-around competitions Amy Webster, and also by Sissy Mathena, Holly Orr, Amy Daulton, and Kim Bryant.

Wrestling Team

The 1984-85 Andrew Lewis wrestling team was a young one, returning only one starter from last year's team. Despite the team's inexperience, there were many individual accomplishments. Steve Saunders and Joe Faulkerson were both district place winners. David Mills, Brent Munsey, and Damon Simmers also had successful seasons.
