Awesome season for the Wolverines

The stingy Wolverine defense stymies another opponent. The defense only allowed 49 points all year.

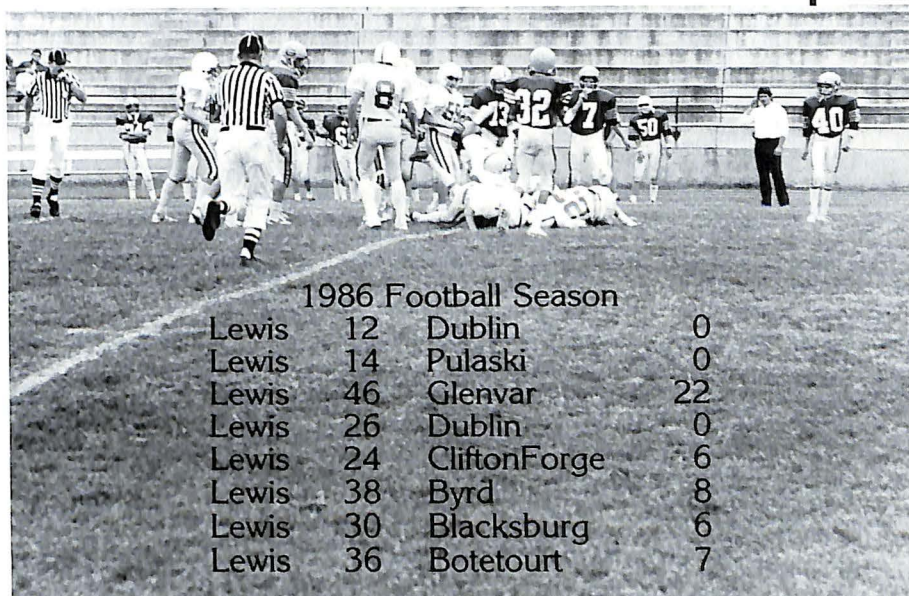

Scott Switzer punts to bring rain.

Andrew Lewis completed the 1986 football season with a perfect 8-0 record. The eight wins were the most ever by an Andrew Lewis Middle school team. Andrew Lewis opened the season with shutouts of traditional strongboys, Dublin 12-0 and Pulaski 14-0. Lewis drilled Glenvar 46-22 next at Highlander Stadium, and it marked the only time the Wolverine's defense allowed double-figures all year; the second unit was in early in that one.

Lewis played Dublin again in their debut at Salem Stadium. This time it was 26-0 win. A 38-8 win at Byrd followed. The season concluded with home wins over Clifton Forge and Blacksburg and a 37-7 victory over Botetourt. The offense finished with 226 points on the year while the defense allowed 49 points, an average score of 28-6 over the eight ball games.

Andrew Lewis was comprised of 44 seventh and eighth graders. Andrew Lewis Middle concentrated on the team aspect of play. Fundamentals are taught and stressed. A fifth quarter was played in most of the games allowing non-starters playing time.

The beat goes on — district champs again

Defeating Botetourt for the third time to win the Valley Highlands Tourney capped off another outstanding campaign for the Lady Wolverines. Despite losing nine players, including all five starters from last year's unbeaten team, this year's squad did not miss a beat. In racing out to a 7-0 record, they extended the two-year winning streak to 23 straight games. Holding their opponents to under 18 points a game, while scoring at a 30 P.P.G. clip themselves, they survived a mild mid-season slump (2-2) and closed with 7 straight victories to post an outstanding 16-2 overall record. Missing another undefeated season by a total of five points, ALMS again won the tough Valley Highlands District regular season and tournament championship, with an unblemished mark, and still have not lost a district game in the history of the league.

Season highlands include three game sweeps over district rivals Botetourt and Clifton Forge, and a two game sweep over arch-rival Glenvar. This year's squad was determined to prove they belonged in the same class as last year's team, and they did. This year's edition was led by Co-MVP, tri-captain Debbie Cobb and Co-MVP, Cathrena Spaulding. The Coaches Award was given to tri-captain Michele Clouser, while the Most Improved Award went to tri-captain Beth Appleman. Rebounding and assist awards were handed out to Spaulding and Cobb. Other members of this year's club were eighth graders Maryann Duff, Beth Hammel, Ashley Wainwright, Susan Yost and April Young. Seventh graders were Rebecca Brouchu, Michelle Curl, Kerri Green, and Kelly Robinson. This year's managers were Peewee Harrison and Rachelle Lytton. The stats were kept by Dana Jessee, Nace Lanier, and Silver Persinger.

After three winless seasons in the early 1980's the Lady Wolverines are 43-7 in their last three campaigns. With six young ladies returning in the fall from this year's championship squad, look for the beat to go on!!!

First winning season in five years

In a season of streaks, the Lewis Wolverines won five straight, lost four in a row then won three before losing a heartbreaking two point decision to Clifton Forge in the tournament finals, to settle for a fine 8-5 season and the runner-up spot in the always competitive Valley Highlands District. The campaign maked ALMS first winning season in five years since becoming a middle school.

The year was highlighted by two game sweeps over archrival Glenvar, and Pulaski, and a tremendous defensive effort against Botetourt in the tourney semi-finals. In that game the Wolverines held the Patriots to one field goal from the four minute mark of the first period until only two minutes remained in the contest. It was an emotional victory as it took away some of the sting of a one point setback at BI, caused by a possession clock error — a defeat that cost Lewis the regular season crown.

The cagemen averaged 36 points per game while allowing 34.9 points per contest. They outrebounded their opponents by a 27 to 19 edge per till. Lewis shot 29 pct. from the floor and 44 pct. from the charity stripe as compared to the opposition's 40 pct. from the court and 54 pct. from the free throw line.

Fourteen young men made up this year's roundballers, and over half of them started at one point in the season. This year's squad was lead by Squad-captains Richard Goodpasture, Stephen Magenbauer, Jay Sandy and John Shelor. Other members were eighth graders Brian Arthur, Lee Cadd, Joey Crowder, Dale Foster, and Scott Switzer. Seventh graders included Chad Gearhart, Greg Lionberger, Shaine Miles, Stacy Muse, and Lee Wolfe. Helping out as managers this year were Gavin Fisher and Jeff Johnson. The statistics and video tape machine were handled by a host of the Lady Wolverines.

Time really does fly

If only it could last forever. No homework, no books, and no teachers. It was too good to be true, after three months of paradise, school had to reopen. At least, the summer of rest, relaxation, and fun lasted a few days longer than usual. All Virginia school systems began operating after Labor Day due to a new state law.

Regular routines quickly resumed. Highlighting the year were many activities that took place during and after school. Successful pep assemblies that led to Lewis victories were enjoyed by all. The excitement of holiday dances and getting anonymous carnations on Valentine's Day played a major role in life at Lewis.

1987 proved to be a little out of the ordinary with record snowstorms that cancelled schools for days. Who would ever think that snow would ever become so tiresome.

With spring in the air, students once again looked forward to days of sunshine, beaches, and three months of putting the ole brains on automatic pilot.

The 1987 yearbook staff of Andrew Lewis Middle School: Carolina Asirifi, Jennifer Baker, Erin Beach, Crystal Beggs, Brenda Burnop, Jill Clinevell, Deirdre Hayes, Amber Miller, Amy Mills, Stephanie Peery, Elizabeth Rusinko, Dara Rutherford, Chris Saunders, Melissa Underwood, and Cathy Webber would like to thank Mr. Art Cournoyer of Gentry Studios, the

Salem Times Register, and Jimmy Carter for all their help with the photography. We would also like to thank Coach Ward and Coach Hooker for writing captions and copy for the team sports.

The yearbook staff would like to give extra-special thanks to Ms. Eva Farrell and her sister, Mary Kate Farrell for making all this possible.
