WOLVERINES

Whitney Penn, Erin Alba, and Jessica Beamer. Whitney says, "They need to give a class on this!"

David Weaver and Alan Vincent, "Let's see . . . two to the left, four to the right, twelve to the left!"

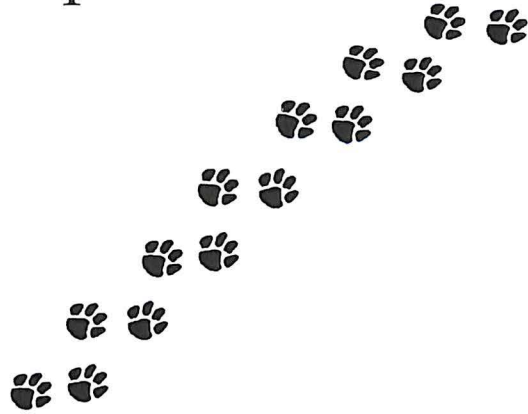

Charrise and Ivan Brewer and Gary Mahoney, "One more day down, and only 142 to go!"

Sarah Campbell is on the run. "Are you that excited about school?"

NEW BEGINNINGS

School starts with a fresh pack of Wolverines

"We're going home!"

Sarah Henrickson . . . "Is this your impression of your first Lewis dance?"

The big gym in the morning . . . some of us socialize and some of us actually study!

CAMP DARE

A Great Experience!

Salem Camp D.A.R.E. is a project unique to Salem. The camp began in 1991, and is offered to all upcoming seventh graders at A.L.M.S. A number of physical activities range from canoeing to a thirty-five foot high ropes course. While the camp is mostly fun and games, it also provides educational activities stressing teamwork and cooperation. Fire safety, first aid, and drug awareness are included in this. The camp is an enjoyable experience, and every rising seventh grader should take advantage of this opportunity.

The newspaper staff is working diligently to meet one of their deadlines for The Lewis Times. The Paper is published three times annually under the direction of Mr. Tom Chester.

John Powell and Travis Pierce Setting up for the CO2 race in Technology class.

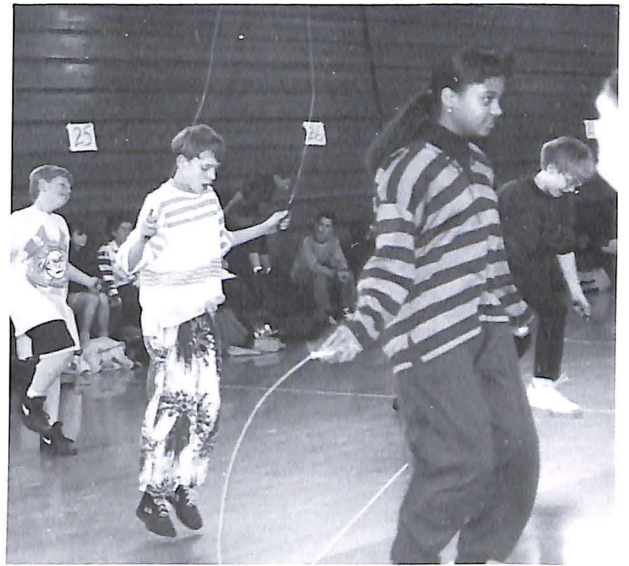

Laura Cornett, Kristen Thomasson, and Gretta Hughes helping Mrs. Shrader prepare one of the bulletin boards in the 7th grade hallway.

Mrs. Vishneski's 3rd period reading class sponsored a Winter Social for their parents and the faculty of ALMS. Presentations were made by the students followed by refreshments which the students prepared. Pictured from left to right are: Nicole Brown, Chrissy Everson, Leigh Hinson, Kevin Felvus, and Jeremy Smith.

In February, 180 sixth graders participated in the annual Jump Rope for Heart sponsored by the American Heart Association. A total of about $5075 was raised with Kevin Bishop being the top fundraiser, bringing in $162. The team which collected the most money, which was $309, consisted of Kari Brunson, Elisabeth Kennedy, Molly Klein, Erin Powell, DeAnn Foster, and Anne Hall. Mrs. Connie Thurston, physical education and health teacher, organized the event along with the help of the other P.E. teachers.

Tara and Kristen Stacey are helping other members of FHA prepare treat bags to deliver to Snyder's Nursing Home in Salem for Halloween.

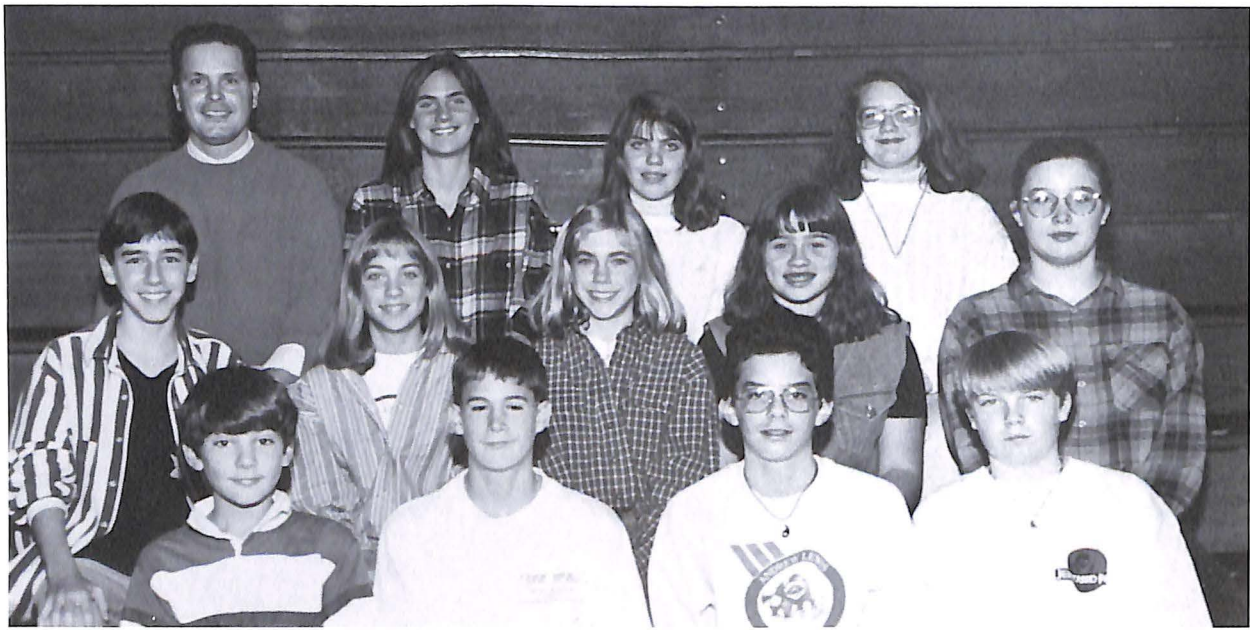

First place winners from Andrew Lewis for the 1993-94 Reflections Program were Patrick Sessions, Photography; Brooke Boles, Music; Amanda Poulin, Visual Arts; Jenny Griep, Literature; Willie Caldwell, Music; Lindsey Lewis, Literature; and Kimberly Davis, Visual Arts. The theme for this year was "If I Could Give The World A Gift."

As others watch, Mrs. Thurston and her partner (and son), Daryl, try to teach some fancy footwork to other members of the 6th grade P.E. class.

Sixth grader, Jeb Wright, looking good at the match against Glenvar.

The ALMS wrestling team for 1993-94 was composed of two 6th graders, ten 7th graders and twelve 8th graders. Team scores were not kept, as the focus point of wrestling at ALMS is not on competition but on participation. All 24 wrestlers competed and gained experience. The highlight of the season came at Pulaski when ALMS once again participated in the Pulaski Open Middle School Tournament where over 175 wrestlers from three states attended. ALMS had five wrestlers who reached the finals. We were led this season by Captain James Giarla, who has wrestled for ALMS for three years, and Shawn Palmer, the lone champ from ALMS at the Pulaski Tournament. The Andrew Lewis team was coached by Larry Bradley, Bob Maynard, and Dan Jones. The manager and scorekeeper was Brooke Buchannon.

The referee takes a close look as Luke Poulin PINS his opponent from Glenvar.
