VOLUME II

PUBLISHED BY THE STUDENT BODY OF
Salem High School
Salem, Virginia

Foreword

"Everyone makes mistakes," and we admit that we have made a myriad of them in compiling, editing and publishing this volume, but we trust that the readers of this Annual will forgive and forget them on the grounds that we were the victims of circumstance. The work of the Annual Staff of '31 was undoubtedly impaired by the burning of our building.

However, if any congratulations are due, they should be extended to Mr. House, our principal. Nero fiddled while Rome burned, but Mr. House did not fiddle while his "Rome" burned. Even while flames leapt from the roof of Salem High School, he was busy making arrangements for the pending second term, and he made them successfully, too!

In the course of taking the pictures for this book, not having a high school for a background, we have taken advantage of the kindness of the owners and leaders of various buildings and institutions in Salem and used their property for backgrounds.

It is with the vision of next year's Annual Staff working in a new high school—modern, large, well-equipped—that the Annual Staff publishes this WOLVERINE of 1931.

Class Poem

Once again a Senior Class,
With smiles and joys untold,
By patience, work and hardships,
Have successfully reached the goal.
Though oft' discouraged we became,
We bravely faced the foe.
We'll not forget your services
When out in life we go.
Though we are bidding you, "Farewell,"
Your "spirit" will never die.
Our success and honors to you we owe,
Dear ole Salem High!

—EVIE LOUISE FERGUSON, Class Poet.

KATHERINE GIVENS ALBERT

"Deep brown eyes from whose alluring depths gleam love"

"Kat" is one of our best students. She is always ready to help everyone and is widely known by her smile. We feel sure there is something of importance awaiting you in the future, Katherine.

Gift Shoppe Club, '27-'28; Girl Reserves, '27-'28; Flower Club, '28-'29; President, Girl Reserves, '30-'31; Club Editor, Newspaper, '30-'31.

NINA TAYLOR ATKINSON

"Curles, smiles and dazzling eyes"

Nina is most popular among boys as well as girls and has an enchanting smile which certainly adds to her personality. Her interest seems to be of late centered at Roanoke College. Nina is a good student and will receive a reward for her faithful labor in the future. Luck to you, Nina!

EDWARD THOMAS BALLARD

"I think that life is not too long
For now and then a little song."

"Tootie" has a weakness for the fairer sex, but we feel sure he will cut down his limit when he grows older. He is a regular songbird, perhaps we'll recognize his voice in some grand opera in the future. He also has a talent for teasing.

Kangaroo Club, '27-'28; Art Club, '28-'29; Literary Society, '29-'30.

MILDRED WOODROW BOWER

"Her coquettish eyes so soft and blue.
Beware! Beware! She's fooling you."

"Mickey" is a carefree little girl and is a friend of many. She has made good throughout her high school career, and we are sure she will continue making good in the future. She has a cunning way of "winking."

Girl Reserves, '27-'28; Biology Club, '28-'29; Home Economics Club, '27-'28, '28-'29, '29-'30, '30-'31.

HARRY JAMES BREITHAUPT, JR.

"True to his word, his work and his friends"

Harry has made good use of his time in Salem High School and has progressed by it. He is considered one of our "bright" students. He will be well remembered by his jolly laughter and naturally "rosy cheeks."

Latin Club, '27-'28; Declamation Club, '28-'29; Vice President, Literary Society, '29-'30; President, Literary Society, '30-'31; Public Speaking, '28-'30; Sports Editor, Newspaper, '30-'31; Associate Editor-in-Chief, WOLVERINE, '31; Hi-Y, '30-'31; Botany Club, '30-'31.

MARY EUGENIA BRINKLEY

"None see her but to love her,
None name her but to praise her."

Jean is "silent but sweet." She is very attractive and must be a lover of sports because she seldom misses a game of any sort played by the Wolverines, whether in the United States or Europe. Wonder why? We anticipate a bright and happy future for you, Jean.

HOBERT BROWN

"Ready in heart and ready in hand"

"Slim" is a very good-natured fellow, always smiling, teasing but, above all things, flirting! Maybe sometime in the future he will manufacture a real meaning for his smiles.

LOIS VIRGINIA CARSON

"Lois, the sunbeam of our class,
A happy-go-lucky, bright-eyed lass."

"Curly" is clever, cunning and cute. She works when she works and smiles when she smiles. There is no doubt that she will make someone a good companion, for she stands well among her classmates. Good luck to you, "Curly."

Gift Shoppe Club, '27-'28; Flower Club, '29-'30; Girl Reserves, '27-'28 and '30-'31.

DOROTHY LOUISE CECIL

"Quick and slow, reserved and true,
Much respect to her is due."

"Dot" is very quiet as well as very sweet. She is always ready to help anyone that is in a "picklement." Hoping you succeed in anything you attempt, "Dot."

Commercial Club, '27-'28; Flower Club, '29-'30.

THEOCLA OGDEN CHAFFIN

"She was as good as she was fair"

Theocla has been with us for only a short time. Her friendly disposition and modesty have won for her a great many friends. She is very studious and successful in everything that she undertakes.

LOIS K. CHEATHAM

"She loves the game beyond the fame and life
beyond the prize"

Lois, a bright-eyed, smiling little girl, will be remembered by her kindness and willingness to help anyone at any time. A person with her anxiety and ambition could never fail to succeed.

Flower Club, '28-'29; Assistant Editor, WOLVERINE, '31.

WILMA ADELAIDE DENIT

"A voice so thrilling ne'er was heard—
In springtime from the cuckoo bird."

Wilma has a "pack of personality" along with a great big smile, a sweet voice and her many friends. We are wishing her much success in her vocal career. Perhaps a "grand opera" will be her final achievement.

Girl Reserves, '27-'28, '30-'31; Latin Club, '28-'29; Flower Club, '29-'30; Choral Club, '30-'31.

HELEN VIRGINIA DILLON

"Heart on her lips and some within her eyes,
Soft as the cyme and sunny as the skies."

Helen might be described by three little words: sincere, silent and sweet. In spite of her becoming dignity she has a weakness for a certain other party. Well, we cannot blame him, Helen.

RUTH ERA DILLON

"If a good face is a letter of good recommendation,
A good heart is a letter of credit."

Ruth is a quiet, studious person. And cook! You should dine with her some time. Every man likes good eats, so there is something for you to look forward to, Ruth. Best of luck and happiness to you.

MARVIN DOYLE

"Behold, the artist with his palate and brush!"

Marvin has a sentimental way of attending to his own business. That is the way all great artists start, but remember, Marvin, you may have to have real live models pose for you some day. We wish you success with your future "poses."

Science Club, '27-'28; Biology Club, '28-'29; Bird Club, '29-'30; Art Editor, Newspaper, '30-'31; Art Editor, WOLVERINE, '31.

MARGARET LOU ELLIOTT

"She is shy, solemn and sweet"

Margaret is a very attractive girl and very reserved in her manner; she is a real friend. We think she has a certain attraction and we feel that she will win out in this as well as her other undertakings. Here's hoping for you the best of luck, "Pig."

Girl Reserves, '27-'28; Commercial Club, '27-'28; Flower Club, '28-'29, '29-'30.

EVIE LOUISE FERGUSON

"Gracious as sunshine, sweet as dew"

"Lou" is a cheerful little girl with natural black wavy hair and dancing blue eyes. She is very talented—what, with her superior dancing, piano playing, sewing, singing, drawing and writing—it will not be hard for her to find a life work. But we wish her good luck and we'll visit her in her beauty parlor.

Pianist, Glee Club, '30-'31; Senior Editor, WOLVERINE, '31.

BEULAH MAY FERRIS

"She moves a goddess and she looks a queen"

Beulah is an all-round success in everything she attempts. She is one of our very best students. It is she who generally comes out in the lead with the difficult problems. Her sunny smile and wit have won her much popularity among both the boys and girls.

Gift Shoppe Club, '27-'28; Flower Club, '28-'29; Glee Club, '30-'31; Secretary-Treasurer, Student Council, '30-'31; Editor-in-Chief, WOLVERINE, '31; Class Salutatorian.

ANNETTE FISCHER

"Speech is silver;
Silence is golden."

Annette has a most becoming dignity but she is most attractive. She is a willing worker and is very studious. If you want to meet a good and true friend call on Annette. Then, too, she would make a grand movie star. Good luck!

LAWRENCE DANIEL FISHER, JR.

"All things come to him who labors"

Lawrence is one of our all-round pupils. He is very studious and always ready to render help to others. He is also the possessor of splendid athletic abilities. Best of luck to you, Lawrence!

Science Club, '27-'28; Local History Club, '28-'29; Hi-Y, '30-'31; Football, '30; Basket Ball, '30-'31.

JOHN RANDOLPH FRANCIS

"Live and have a good time while you may,
You may probably never see another day."

"Ran" is to be congratulated for his good work and popularity. He is the President of the Senior Class. He is considered one of our best athletes. Who is it that blushes when he appears with one of those heart-leaping smiles on his face? Guess! We don't blame her, Ran, for we are all proud of you and are wishing you the greatest of successes in your future career.

Biology Club, '27-'28; Monogram Club, '28-'29; Manager, Football, '28; Student Council, '29-'30; Football, '29-'30; Basket Ball, '29-'30-'31; President, Senior Class, '30-'31; Student Council, '30-'31.

MARION ELIZABETH GARDEN

"How can I study with love affairs on my mind?"

Marion is as "fair as a rose, kissed by the purest dew of the early morn." She has plenty of pep, good looks and popularity, as well as a weakness for—whom? May mother luck not only smile on you, Marion, but laugh out loud.

Gift Shoppe Club, '27-'28; Flower Club, '28-'29-'30; Senior Reporter, Newspaper, '30-'31, Circulation Manager, WOLVERINE, '31.

CARL WOODROW GARLAND

"Act honestly and act boldly"

Carl has been a faithful student in spite of the difficulties. He is not widely known but is thought well of by those who know him. He is always ready to help anyone and aids those who come to him when distressed. We wish you a "cart load of success," Carl.

ROBERT GARST

"Be useful and be happy"

Robert is an all-around sport. He possesses plenty of school spirit and is always ready to join in any school activity. He does as well in his classes as he does in the extracurricular activities.

WINTON WILEY GARST

"An all-around good fellow"

Winton is a friend to everyone. He is always jolly no matter where you see him. Some day he will be a great business man, we know, for he certainly has carried on the business of this class successfully. He is very popular as well as good looking.

President, Short Story Club, '27-'28; Treasurer, Class, '27-'28; Declamation Club, '28-'29; Hi-Y Club, '30-'31; Assistant Business Manager, WOLVERINE, '30; Literary Society, '30-'31; Business Manager, WOLVERINE, '31; Business Manager, Newspaper, '30-'31.

IRVIN GIVENS

"Never do to-day what can be put off 'till to-morrow"

Irvin is big-hearted and gay. You can take away his books if you care to, but please don't take away his dreams for he would look so unnatural without them. We will not forget your jolly mood, Irvin.

E. RUSSELL GRESHAM, JR.

"Has sighed too many but loved but one"

"Cotton" has had a far-off, dreamy expression lately—we are wondering why. He is very studious and a good sportsman combined. He has the ability to succeed in everything he attempts. Good luck, "Cotton"!

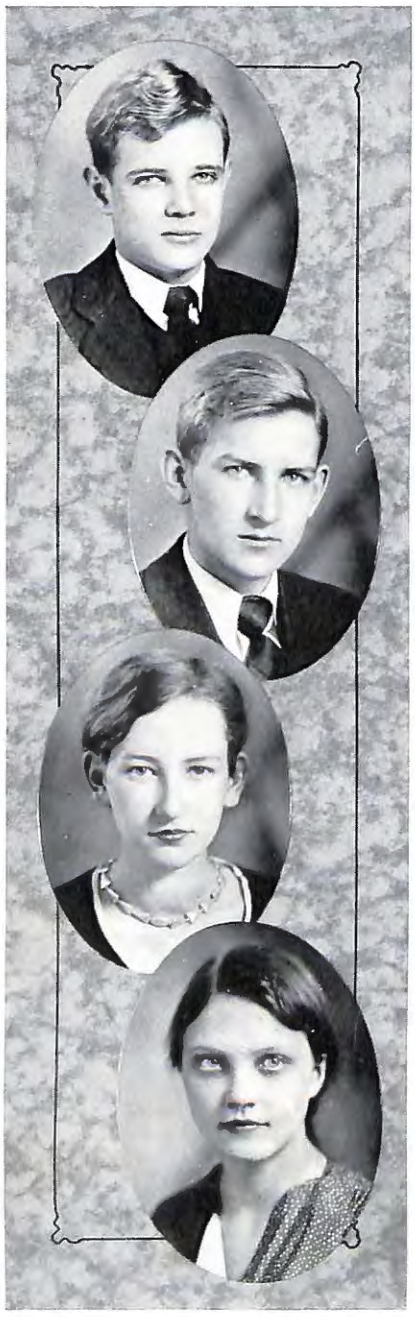

Vice President, Bird Club, '29-'30; Baseball Club, '29-'30.

CALEB HALL

"Immortal Gods! How much does one man excell another?"

Caleb is one of our most popular students. He does as well in the class room as he does on the athletic field. We are expecting him to become one of America's best artists some day, for he has the talent. Hoping you have success, Caleb!

LIVINGSTON C. HANSBROUGH

"Not too short, not too tall;
Cute and sweet and loved by all."

"Petie" has knowledge as well as plenty of wit about him, even if he is small. He is very popular, especially in athletics, and might be described as "Cute." Here's hoping you will make good in everything you undertake.

Biology Club, '27-'28; Secretary, Class, '28-'29; Vice President, Class, '29-'30; Student Council, '29-'30; President, Student Council, '30-'31; Midget Basket Ball, '29-'30-'31; Manager, Football, '30; Sports Editor, Newspaper and WOLVERINE, '30 and '31.

FLEMING BRUCE HARDWICK

"Happy am I, from care I'm free;
Why aren't all contented like me?"

Bruce! Who doesn't know him? He is a jolly good teaser and is always ready to try almost anything once. If you ever run out of wise cracks call on him. He is also studious when he takes the notion to be that way.

Debating Club, '27-'28; Bird Club, '29-'30; Manager, Basket Ball, '30-'31; Manager, Baseball, '30; Hi-Y, '30-'31.

JUNE HARDWICK

"'Tis well to be witty and wise"

June has plenty of personality and wit. She is very studious at certain times and has won the affections of many. She is always ready to speak a good word for everybody. The best of luck be with you, June.

Gift Shoppe Club, '27-'28; Flower Club, '29-'30; Girl Reserves, '30-31.

SHIRLEY HASH

"She has a sweetness all her own"

Shirley, although not finishing in May, will yet have the pleasure of attending dear ole High a summer session longer.

With her big blue eyes and dark hair she will not stay alone long after her school days are over.

THELMA HELM

"What care I when I can lie and rest,
Kill time and take life at its very best?"

Thelma is quite a favorite among some of her classmates and has many friends among the students. She has dark hair and eyes, which make her very attractive. One of her noted characteristics is to be last—but not least—in line, but don't worry, Thelma, you'll come out on top some of these days.

MARGARET HILTON

"Beware, when she meditates mischief is brewing"

Margaret is one of our best Seniors and has made many of our students a worthy friend. She is a "friend indeed" when you wish to be gotten out of some difficulty. We wish you happiness and prosperity, Margaret, in "Red Cross Roll."

Latin Club, '27-'28 and '30-'31; Flower Club, '28-'29.

MILDRED ANN HOWELL

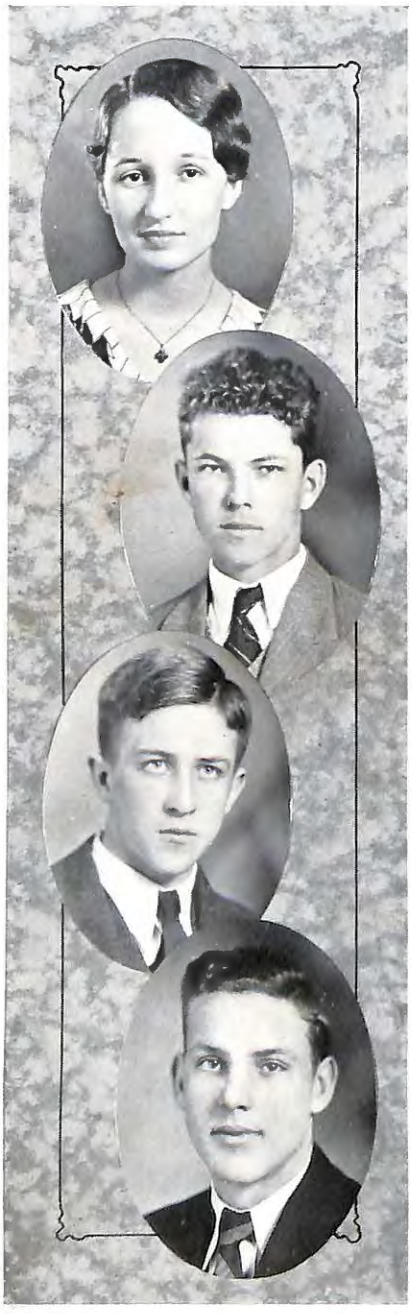

"Better be small and shine than large and cast a shadow"

"Pee Wee" is our midget, but that doesn't matter if she succeeds after leaving Salem High as she has done while here. It seems that "Senior English" would be quite an enormous task for such a "little" girl but she seems to have conquered it. Keep it up, "Pee Wee."

LOTTIE MAE HUMPHREY

"Her modest looks the cottage might adorn;
Sweet as the primrose peeps beneath the thorn."

Though not as tall as some of our dignified Seniors, Lottie gets along in our midst just as well. She keeps a smiling face and has certainly helped all who have been her friends by her happy, jolly ways.

MARY SUE HURT

"I'll be merry and free, and sad for nobody"

Mary Sue is a most attractive girl with dark hair and eyes, and is very popular, especially among the opposite sex. She makes excellent grades and is a favorite with the teachers as well as the pupils.

Orchestra, '28-'29 and '29-'30.

ROBERT JENNINGS

"I'll warrant him whole-hearted"

Robert is one of our little Seniors, but what does that matter if he accomplishes what he sets out to do? He is studious and does his best in everything. He is a faithful friend and is always willing to help those who come to him for aid.

GEORGE VINCENT KELLY

"None but himself can be his parallel"

George is an excellent student in all his subjects and who knows but that he might be an example to some of our struggling Freshmen? He is certainly talented along the line of giving orations and some day may come to the front and be an able spokesman. Luck to you, George.

Debating Club, '27-'28; Declamation Club, '28-'29; Literary Society, '29-'30; Declamation, '30; Hi-Y, '30-'31.

CHARLES HENRY KIDD

"Behold! The paralyzer of female hearts"

"Handsome" is an all-around Senior and is well known by his good looks. He seems to be capturing all the female glances lately; we wonder just who the lucky girl is. Charles is a very good student and deserves much credit for his faithfulness to everyone. Best wishes to you, Charles.

Science Club, '27-'28; Treasurer, Class, '29-'30; Orchestra, '29-'30; Band, '30-'31; Hi-Y, '30-'31.

RICHARD CLINE KINZIE

"A man's a man for a' that"

Cline is very quiet and his own needs do not bother him. He is a faithful student and we are sure he will succeed as well in the future. We all envy him because of his natural wave.

MARY KINZIE

"A heart as true as steel"

Mary, although she has had to struggle hard on those "old chemistry tests," has succeeded in coming to the top in them. She is willing to help and is a true friend to those that know her. Her future is still veiled for us, but probably she has in mind something that will surprise all of us. Who knows what it will be? But we do know that she would make a good housekeeper.

Flower Club, '27-'28; Glee Club, '30-'31; Band, '30-'31.

CELIA WARD LAVINDER

"As peppy as the day is long"

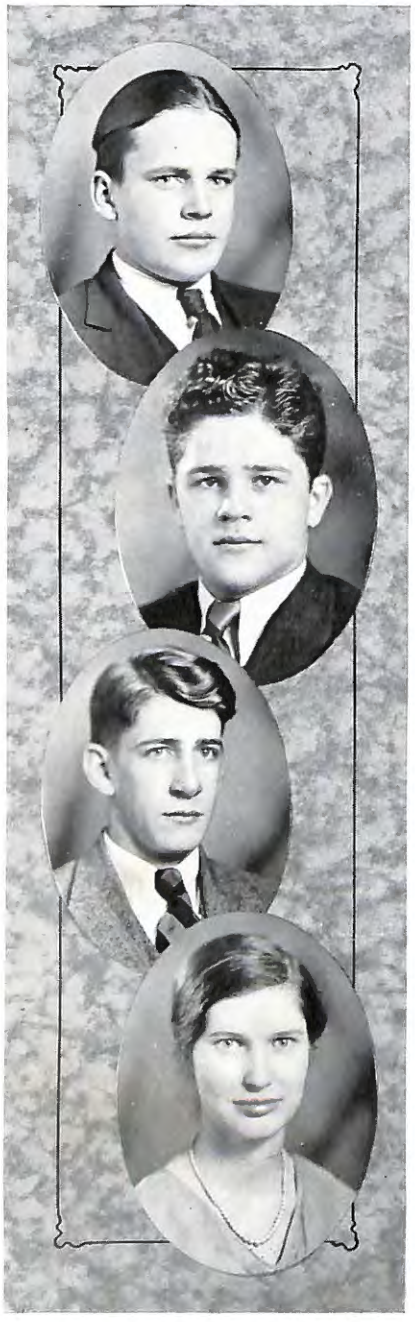

Celia is one of our most attractive Seniors. Her winning ways and cheery smile have won places in the hearts of many, all of whom agree that "to know her is to love her." She succeeds in all that she undertakes and we know that she will continue to do so in the future. May the greatest success be yours, Celia.

Short Story Club, '27-'28; Treasurer, Class, '27-'28, '28-'29; Treasurer, Gift Shoppe Club, '27-'28; Flower Club, '28-'29, '29-'30.

NENA LEAVELL

"Better late than never"

We have not had Nena with us the entire year as she graduated at mid-term, but while she was with us she certainly acquired many friends. She was one of our most talented musicians and we feel sure that she will be among the best of that vocation. It is a characteristic of this girl to be seen coming in late, just at the last minute, but she gets there, sooner or later—usually later.

RANDOLPH LOWRY LEWIS

"Happy am I, from care I'm free;
Why aren't they all content like me?"

Randolph is a very ambitious boy and, though he has not been an excellent student, he has those qualities that have brought him through his High School days successfully. He is everybody's friend and never fails to smile when he's passing you by.

SAMUEL JACKSON LIGHT, JR.

"He is a fool who thinks by force or skill—
To turn the current of a woman's will."

Jack is one of the most popular boys in the Senior Class. He is a good student, but chemistry sometimes keeps a puzzling look upon his face. His black, curly hair and dark, sparkling eyes will attract someone, we are afraid—if they have not already done so—before he goes very much farther in life. Here's luck to you, Jack!

Biology Club, '27-'28; Science Club, '29-'30.

WILLIAM MOORE LIGHT

"A laugh is worth a groan in any market"

Moore certainly likes to argue, if you want an authority on this just ask his Democracy teacher and she will tell you. He is quite interested in one of the '29 graduates, it seems. Don't get too serious, Moore, you've a long life before you.

Biology Club, '27-'28; Treasurer, Bird Club, '29-'30; Science Club, '30-'31.

GOLDIE LOOPE

"Her smile shows her disposition"

Goldie has been with us all during her four years of High School and has been a faithful worker through thick and thin. She is quiet but we always find that she comes out on top in whatever she does.

Latin Club, '27-'28; Flower Club, '28-'29.

ROBERT McCLUER

"By the work one knows the workman"

"Bob" makes excellent grades on all his subjects and, although he graduated at mid-term, he came back and took a postgraduate course. We were certainly glad to have him with us the rest of the year. Agriculture seems to be his pet subject and we're wondering who will be so lucky as to eat out of "Bob's" garden.

Science Club, '27-'28; Agriculture Club, '29-'30; Secretary, Agriculture Club, '30-'31; Class Valedictorian.

RUTH KATHLEEN McDANIEL

"Neither too careless nor too glad,
Neither too studious nor too sad."

Ruth is one of our Seniors who keeps a smiling face through all her work no matter how difficult. She has taken Home Economics, which we feel sure will help her a great deal in her future life. Here's success to you, Ruth!

Latin Club, '27-'28, '28-'29; Home Economics Club, '29-'30, '30-'31.

GRACE McGHEE

"Silence is deep as eternity;
Speech is shallow as tide."

Grace is a quiet, unassuming girl and has acquired many friends as a result. She is a willing helper and is always ready to lend a helping hand at the most needed times.

LESTER CLAY McGHEE

"From great quietness often comes the greatest wisdom"

Lester helped us out this year on our football team as a "sub," but he was always dependable and displayed quite a bit of enthusiasm and pep for all our games. We do not know his plans for the future, but know that he will be near the best in whatever it may be.

Baseball, '29-'30; Monogram Club, '29-'30; Bird Club, '29-'30; Science Club, '30-'31.

HESTER MARIE McGRADY

"What's the use to worry? It never did pay"

Hester is one of those quiet, unassuming girls. She comes in for her share of good grades, though. To those who do not know her, she is—well, just another attractive girl—but after you become acquainted she is the sweetest little farmeress-to-be in the world.

Science Club, '28-'29; Commercial Club, '28-'29.

HARRIETT MARTIN

"She has a daily beauty in her life"

Harriett is a favorite among her classmates as she has been all during her school days. She is one of our best all-round Seniors and is never a slacker in any of the activities that help her school.

Gift Shoppe Club, '27-'28; Secretary, Art Club, '28-'29; Flower Club, '29-'30; Literary Society, '30-'31; Girl Reserves, '27-'28 and '30-'31; Glee Club, '30-'31.

FRANCES LENORE MEADOWS

"Mildest manners and the gentlest heart"

One never sees Frances without a book of some kind and that is the reason she makes such excellent grades. She has always led her classes and we know she will be a credit to any school that she attends next year. An answer is always stowed away in that marvelous brain of hers for any question that she might be asked.

Short Story Club, '27-'28; Girl Reserves, '30-'31.

ELIZABETH FLORENCE MILLER

"A maiden never bold in spirit, still and quiet"

Elizabeth is very studious and makes good grades, but has made an especially good record in Latin. She is a quiet girl but all who know her like her. She has not yet made public her future plans but they, we know, are the very best.

Bird Club, '28-'29; Latin Club, '30-'31.

HUGH MILLER

"Man's brain is not measured by its width"

Hugh has made a name for himself in athletics, especially in football, and the team of next year will certainly miss such an excellent player. Not only in the athletic field is he one of the best, but also in his class work. His knowledge of mathematics is astounding, he masters "Trig" as though it were only the simplest arithmetic.

Latin Club, '27-'28; Football, '30.

LUCY EFFIE MONDIE

"A gracious manner and a winning smile"

Lucy is a typical Senior and has made many friends among her classmates. We see that she has lavished her affection upon one especially, though. Her cheery smile and sunny disposition are a credit to her personality. Here's success to you in all your affairs, Lucy!

SUSIE MAE MONDIE

"This sweet girl is pretty and gay;
An ideal girl in every way."

Susie's bright eyes and smiling face have made her quite a favorite in S. H. S. She makes very good grades but especially on bookkeeping. Lucky will be the man that finds her in his office.

MARION LUCY MORAN

"Her actions are modest and her words discreet"

Marion is another one of our small Seniors but no ideal is too lofty for her to strive to attain. She is a good student and during her sojourn here at Salem High has become one of our foremost Seniors. We do not know her ambition, but feel sure that she will do well indeed in anything.

Gift Shoppe Club, '27-'28; Flower Club, '28-'29.

BERNARD S. MORRIS

"He's a jolly good fellow which nobody can deny"

Bernard has many friends in dear old Salem High and they are not all confined to boys. He has some reputation as a saxophonist and sometimes even writes poetry. When you become a famous poet or musician, whichever it may be, Bernard, don't forget that you started at Salem High.

Science Club, '27-'28; Biology Club, '28-'29; Orchestra, '29-'30; Band, '30-'31.

HELEN FRANCES MOWLES

"A friend to those who need a friend;
A pal to make things so."

Helen has blond hair and big, beautiful blue eyes which add much to her grace and charm. She is very popular among her classmates and is one of those friends that "stick" forever. Her cheery smile and sweet disposition leave a pleasant atmosphere wherever she goes. Success to you, Helen!

Girl Reserves, '27-'28; President, Gift Shoppe Club, '27-'28; President, Home Economics Club, '29-'30.

JOHN RAPPÉ MYERS, III

"Happy all the livelong day in his sweet and childish way"

Rappé, better known as "Mud," is a most attractive Senior. His sunny disposition and happy, carefree ways make him a favorite with both boys and girls. He makes excellent grades even though he scarcely ever seems serious enough to study. Versatility is one of his outstanding traits and will be of much help to him in whatever he does. Here's luck to you, "Mud."

Latin Club, '27-'28; Agriculture Club (Reporter), '30-'31.

CHARLOTTE RAMSEY OAKEY

"Her eyes are brown and dancing with merriment"

"Toddie" has won a place in the hearts of many of her classmates with her cheery smile and sunny disposition. She is a good student and maybe her love for arguing carries her a long way. She will be a credit to any institution that she may enter next year. Best of luck to you, Charlotte.

Gift Shoppe Club, '27-'28; Flower Club, '28-'29 and '29-'30; Girl Reserves, '27-'28 and '30-'31.

CURTIS PARRIS

"Individuality is everywhere to be guarded and honored as the root of all good"

"Curt," one of our smallest Seniors, may be recognized by his dignity. He always accomplishes what he sets out to do. He is one of our easy-going Seniors, but is very studious and makes an honest effort at whatever he attempts. His winning smile and helping hand have won him many friends at old Salem High. We know his plan to become a structural engineer will be a success.

Science Club, '27-'28, '29-'30.

ROBERT ENOS PEERY

"The laborer is worthy of his reward"

"Bob" makes excellent grades on all his subjects—thus is a credit to all of his classes. He has made many friends among the students during his four years at Salem High. We do not know your plans for the future, Robert, but here's luck to you.

Biology Club, '27-'28; F. F. A., '27-'28, '28-'29, '30-'31.

HEYWOOD PERSONS

"'Tis a man of affairs you see"

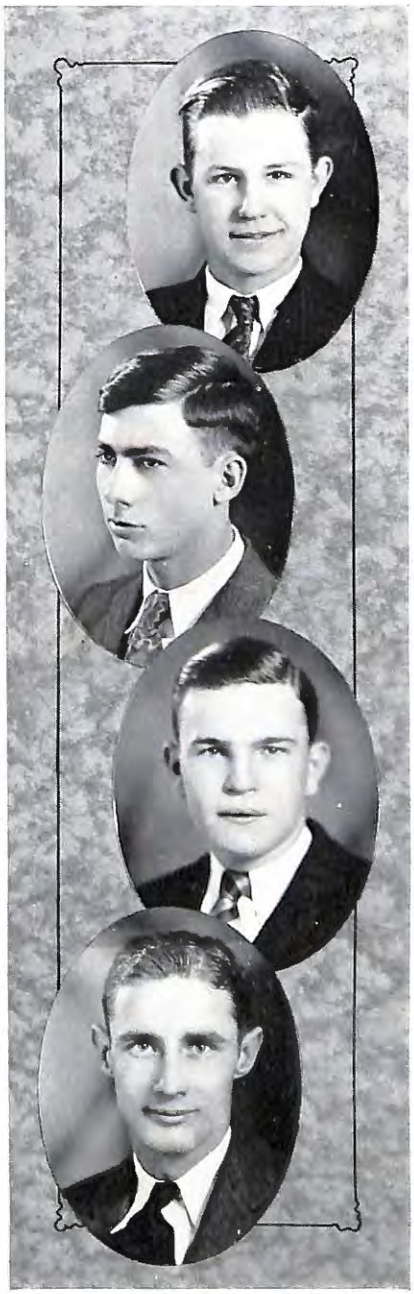

Heywood played "sub" this year on our football team, but being a "sub" did not keep him from doing his very best. He is always prepared in all his classes—but that is perhaps because someone tells him that there is going to be a test. His friends are numbered high—not only in Salem but Roanoke as well—and they all wish him the greatest success in the future.

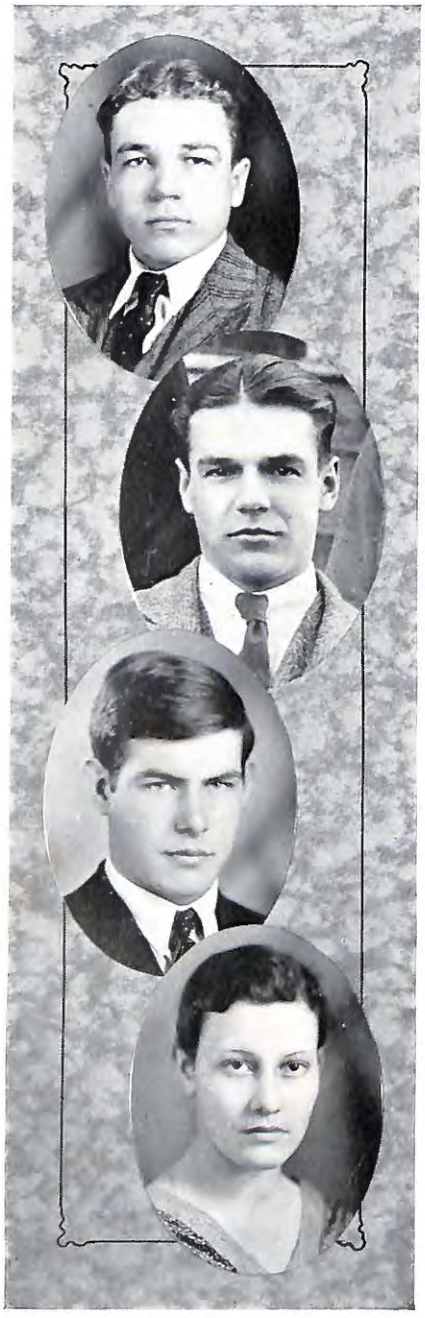

EDWARD PETERSEN

"Oh, the wild joy of living!"

We certainly are glad that "Uncle Pete" chose Salem to live in after leaving Chattanooga. What would we and the football team have done without him? Ed has become accustomed to Salem and its peculiar ways by this time and here's hoping he chooses it as a place in which to continue his career.

Football, '30; Basket Ball, '30-'31.

JOHN H. PILLIS

"Life is but a span;
I'll enjoy every inch."

Truly one proverb is miscarried because if possible, "The more they come the better they are." Salem High can easily say this for the Pillis boys. And John, with his cheery smile, wins the hearts of all, and leaves an empty space which no one will be able to fill in the future.

History Club, '28-'29.

ELMER PILLIS

"Quietly he worked away,
Faithful to each day."

"Bill" left last year and Elmer this. One a year keeps the family interest in Salem High. We sympathize with these boys in the loss of their mother this year. Elmer is one of the quietest boys until you know him—indeed many Seniors, especially the girls, think he's bashful. At least, he was lucky to get out in February—a half-term sooner than the rest of us hopefuls. Best wishes, Elmer!

JAMES DOUGLAS PRICE

"The longer I live, the more I learn"

Salem High loses a grand athlete in "Doug." Besides being captain of last year's football team, he is a good participant in other fields of sport. Only, because he lives way over yonder on the Rocky Mount Road, it is exceedingly hard to stay late in Salem for practice—morn, noon and night. Luck to you, 'cause you are a good sport in more ways than one, "Doug."

Football, '30.

CLAUDINE WILEY PUCKETT

"If e'er she knew an evil thought,
She spoke no evil word."

With her winsome ways Claudine has won all High to her side. She's the pretty brunette, with dark eyes, of the "twins." Lucky is the man for whom she is a secretary because not only her intellect but also her beauty will endow any office.

Commercial Club, '27-'28; Biology Club, '29-'30.

VICTOR REED

"The only way to have a friend is to be one"

"Vic" is steady and determined. He has played football for many years and he's good, too. He has blue eyes and light hair, and looks contented even after English class is over. "Vic" don't let them kid you 'cause dear old Salem High will certainly miss you in everything.

History Club, '28-'29; Secretary, Monogram Club, '29-'30; Football, '28, '29, '30.

BEATRICE REES

"Black, alluring eyes in whose depths I lose myself"

"Bee" is a sweet little girl whose first attraction may be said to be her beautiful black eyes. "Bee's" greatest fault is not studying and what sin is there in that? (Most of us so sin that way, don't we?) "Bee" is entirely too interesting not to have made many friends since her arrival here to begin her Junior year. Welch is a fine place but, honestly, don't you like Salem just a little bit now, "Bee"? Our only prediction for a girl like "Bee" is a housekeeping future.

CHARLOTTE REYNOLDS

"There in her noisy mansion, skilled to rule,
The village mistress taught her little school."

"Chattee" is a sweet little girl from up in the country. Her laughing blue eyes and auburn hair, together with her attractive personality, interest everyone. "Chattee" certainly gets her share of good grades, too. '31 wishes her the best of everything in her elementary schoolroom. Treat the kiddies well, "Chattee," remembering that you were once one yourself.

Gift Shoppe Club, '27-'28; Latin Club, '28-'29.

JAMES LUCK RICHARDSON, JR.

"Never do to-day what can be done to-morrow"

Luck is a jolly, fun-loving boy and is everybody's friend. It is no uncommon thing for him to make some innocent remark that will set the whole class in an uproar. Chemistry and "Trig" seem to be two of his pet subjects. If you see a group of girls around him rest assured that they are "bumming" him for chewing gum. Luck is good natured and will be an asset to any concern when he goes out into this world to make a name for himself.

THOMAS CLARK ROBERTSON

"Strange to the world he wore a bashful look,
The field his study, sports was his book."

An all-round good boy, better than Clark cannot be found in our school. He goes in for athletics of all kinds—and he is a great sport in more ways than one. Clark doesn't exceed in any especial branch but is a good football, basket ball and baseball player. With that cheery smile, Clark makes friends among all. And grades—it really is surprising that one person can do so much. His interest in some things lie close at home, too. We are certain you will continue to succeed.

Football, '29, '30; Basket Ball, '29, '30, '31; Monogram Club, '29-'30; President, Hi-Y, '30-'31; Vice President, Class, '30-'31.

JAMES WILLIAM SAMPLE

"Slumber is more sweet than toil"

"Jim" to some seems lazy, but what lazy boy is able to do all that "Jim" does? He is never seen in a hurry but like the tortoise, gets there just the same. The best wishes of your classmates go with you into your life work, "Jim."

Science Club, '27-'28; Mythology Club, '28-'29.

MARY LOUISE SAUL

"Love's sweetness, goodness in her person shine"

"Mary Lou" has been the friend in need and the one in answer to prayer all of our school years together. Truly none other in all dear High has done more than she and her cheery smile. She succeeds and receives good grades, too, but the "Mary Lous" of the world never get all that they deserve. Have a good time and please don't forget us when at Sweet Briar.

Vice President, Gift Shoppe Club, '27-'28; President, Junior Girl's Club, '27-'28; Class Historian, '28-'29; Orchestra, '28-'29, '29-'30; Exchange Editor, Newspaper, '29-'30; Vice President, Student Council, '29-'30, '30-'31; Assistant Business Manager, Newspaper, '30-'31; Girl Reserves, '30-'31; Secretary, Class, '30-'31; Assistant Business Manager, WOLVERINE, '31.

JAMES CALVIN SHELTON

"Tho' modest, on his unembarrassed brow
Nature hath written—Gentleman!"

"Jim" is large in size, jolly and free in his disposition. His blue eyes, light hair, dimples and smile surely rate him among Salem High's best looking boys. Ask the girls' hearts if you don't believe some people near Cave Spring have "It." Luck to you, "Jim."

Agriculture Club, '27-'28, '28-'29.

THELMA ELIZABETH SHEPHERD

"She eats not the bread of idleness"

Thelma may be rather a child in looks and age, too, she is modest yet laughs along with the rest of us dignified Seniors. She never neglects her lessons, though. Thelma's plans (like the rest of ours) are hidden in the dim and distant future, but '31 wishes her success in all her undertakings.

Gift Shoppe Club, '27-'28; Home Economics Club, '28-'29.

ALFREDA WATKINS SHIELDS

"Lady, wherefore talk you so?"

Questions and talk—one gazes and lo and behold! There in our midst is Freda. But an exceedingly attractive Freda, very lovable, with her light hair, blue eyes and dimples. But, please, Freda, don't become too interested in a certain student at Roanoke College that you will forget all about us. Best wishes of '31 to a future stenographer or teacher.

Short Story Club, '27-'28; Flower Club, '28-'29, '29-'30; Girl Reserves, '27-'28, '30-'31.

CHESTER A. SNYDER

"How pretty his blushing was and how pretty he blushed again!"

"Shystie" is one of the most interesting, amusing and attractive boys in the whole class. Not only "the one girl" thinks so, but many others who are unable to express it. With his brown eyes and hair and his charming manner, Chester was a welcome addition to our class last year. He has been and is a great help as first baseman on last and this years' baseball teams. Salem High's Class of '31 endows your

Opal Thomas photo sent her

JANE SPINDLE

"She is known by her golden tresses"

The mention of the name recalls visions of beautiful, long, wavy, Titian hair under which are set two brown eyes. Jane is a very attractive girl but she refuses to study. Because her bosom friend quit at mid-term another "twinship" was broken up—still with her many friends Jane could never be lonely.

Flower Club, '29-'30; Girl Reserves, '30-'31.

MARGARET JUANITA STOUTAMIRE

"All that's generous, all that's kind, in her you're always sure to find"

"Marg" is quiet and oh, so studious! She rates, too, and is very proficient in mathematics. Just because she lives on a farm she is even more attractive and a better sport. She would make a wonderful physical director, but we're afraid she'll either be a school teacher or start specializing in Home Economics.

Gift Shoppe Club, '27-'28; Flower Club, '28-'29; Girl Reserves, '30-'31.

LEWIS THOMAS

"A little body doth often harbor a great soul"

"Monkey," of the family of "Monkeys," is a jolly little boy whom everyone loves, even though we tease him more than any other boy in "Ole High"—just because he's little. But Lewis really does mean well; he studies and surprises Mr. Snapp with his ready answers. The best o' luck to you, Lewis, when you settle on that farm to raise chickens and pigs.

F. F. A., '27-'28, '28-'29, '29-'30, '30-'31; Literary Society, '30-'31.

WILLYE MAE THOMAS

"What is more useful than silence?
It never betrays you."

Seems as though all Salem High girls are quiet because each name ushers in another of that type. Willye Mae is very studious, too. We notice that she's taking commercial subjects and we know that the man who gets her for his stenographer will be lucky, and she would make a good school teacher, too.

Gift Shoppe Club, '27-'28; Latin Club, '28-'29; Mythology Club, '29-'30; Girl Reserves, '30-'31.

LUCILLE MARION THORPE

"Love to some, friendship to a few—
And good will to all."

"Cilly" is one of the sweetest little girls you'll find hereabouts and anyone who knows her will bear witness to that. She is a brilliant pupil and would make even better grades than she does if she would only study more. (Don't take us too seriously.) With black, naturally wavy hair, blue eyes and a pert, freckled nose, she truly typifies the "Southern Miss." There is only one true future for such a sweet girl as "Cilly."

Gift Shoppe Club, '27-'28; Latin Club, '27-'28; Local History Club, '28-'29; Secretary, Girl Reserves, '30-'31.

JOSEPH IRVIN TOWE

"He makes sunshine in a shady place"

"Demmie," although this is his second year down here, has attracted all High to his side. His black hair, brown eyes, kind and merry personality have won a host of friends for him. Irvin is very capable and has been a great help with the annual. He should, we think, go into printing business but, please, don't cut any more fingers. Best o' luck to you, "Demmie."

Activities Editor, WOLVERINE, '31.

JAMES DALTON VIA

"Happy art thou if every day
Thou hadst picked up a horseshoe."

"Oh, Jim!" A very interesting little boy and one who always has a cheery greeting which answers a longing in us when tired of the humdrum. He truly makes the day brighter and even the French class doesn't have any effect upon his sunny nature. We don't know Jim's exact plans for the future but all Salem feels sure his life work will be beneficial, as he is a true "chip off the old block."

Science Club, '26-'27; Biology Club, '27-'28; Democracy Club, '28-'29.

ELIZABETH WALDROND

"Silence is more musical than any song"

The tone of the voice in just pronouncing the name causes one to think of dignity and studiousness strolling into our midst. Truly Elizabeth, not "Liz" or "Beth" but "Elizabeth," suggests a personification of both. She is ever friendly but never very jolly, due to her serious and studious nature. Her beautiful black hair and big eyes together with her schoolgirl's complexion is the envy of many other girls. '31's best wishes.

Latin Club, '27-'28; Local History Club, '28-'29.

JOHN A. WEBBER

"One man may, in his time, play many parts"

"Johnnie" may be small in size but he's been very important to us and our school. Not only is he a good athlete, going out for all sports, but good in literary work also. He has beautiful black wavy hair and dark eyes, but he is not in the "market" to feminine admirers. His luck followed him and enabled him to graduate at mid-term, but we miss his baseball skill. Just the same, "Johnnie" is one good scout and Salem High wishes him all the luck in the world.

Football, '27, '28, '29 and '30; Baseball, '27, '28, '29 and '30; Science Club, '27-'28; Basket Ball, '28, '29 and '30; President, Class, '29-'30.

EDNA FLORA WEBSTER

"High flames the light of her intelligence"

"Ed" is a typical all-around girl. She's very pretty with long hair and blue eyes. Edna is jolly and a better student cannot be found in our school. She's very capable, too, and her class associations have endeared her to all. Fortunate is he who acquires her hand.

Gift Shoppe Club, '27-'28; Flower Club, '28-'29; Home Economics Club, '29-'30 and '30-'31; Secretary, Class, '29-'30; Treasurer, Class, '28-'29 and '30-'31; Newspaper Staff, '29-'30.

SARA VIRGINIA WELLS

"Just a dear little, cute little, sweet little girl"

Sara comes to our minds as a girl who is studious and a little stern. She has a very serious and a slightly sad face, outlined with light wavy hair. Sara doesn't have much to say but words of wisdom spring forth when she deigns to speak. She is, all in all, one of our best girls.

Gift Shoppe Club, '27-'28; Flower Club, '28-'29; Girl Reserves, Treasurer, '30-'31.

RUTH ANNA WIGGINGTON

"Blue were her eyes as the fairy flax,
Her cheeks like the dawn of day."

"Wiggy" is a quiet girl with a baby doll face. Black hair and blue eyes make such a perfect picture that a certain young man doesn't even notice that he drives several miles before he sees her. She should and does specialize in home economics because there can be but one future for such a girl as Ruth.

Kangaroo Club, '27-'28; Home Economics Club, '28-'29, '29-'30, '30-'31.

MALCOLM EVERETTE WILLIAMS, JR.

"'Tis men like me that make the world go 'round"

"Sonny" is so dignified that it isn't even funny. But he can yell and has been cheer leader this year. Although he went to Louisiana and has been absent until last year, yet we are only too glad to have him graduate with us. "Sonny" is no real honest-to-goodness heart breaker, but he plays the role of Romeo to one among the Seniors. You'll be lucky to get her and you have our best and kindest wishes.

Hi-Y, '30-'31.

MARCUS SCOTT WOOD

"Men of few words are the best men"

Marcus, with his height, easily is our most dignified boy. He didn't start the high school struggle with us, but entered from Bristol at the beginning of our second year. "Bunny," true to name, is an especially good Latin student. With his intelligence, manner and personality, he will achieve much.

Debating Club, '28-'29; Literary Society, '29-30; Associate Editor, Newspaper, '30-'31; Vice President, Hi-Y, '30-'31; Band, '30-'31.

Class History

Was there ever a class of freshmen more seething with self-importance, more with a "know-it-all" air, than the Class of '31 which entered Salem High School? The answer is, "No." But wait, we reserve the privilege of asking one more question. Was there ever a class who learned more rapidly their place, who had in an amazingly short time become acquainted with the back entrance and the paddle? Again the answer is, "No."

We hope that the reader has gathered from the opening paragraph that the Class of '31 was exceptional. At least the class thought so—but the thought is pardonable, as it is a characteristic possessed by all Seniors.

Our Sophomore year we lost much of our former chagrin and acquired a certain amount of dignity and learning—but for which we had to suffer and work with a diligence and vigilance that was unrelaxed. The strike of the majority of us students occurred during this year. We took a three-day holiday because of the resignation of our principal, Mr. A. M. Bruce. That is, some of us did. There were others, just as right and probably more so, who stayed at school and attended classes just as usual.

We had a new principal to commence our Junior term with, how we missed the old one, but how we admire Mr. House. With boundless ardor we entered upon this year, for we realized that it was the only one left in which to play. The following year additional responsibilities would be heaped upon us.

At last OUR GOAL—Seniors—Fourth Year—Graduation. Those words were constantly in our thoughts when we were Rats, but now being Seniors, there is a sadness of which, try as we may, we are unable to rid ourselves. We look at our classmates queerly, and we think of all the obstacles, the failures and the triumphs which we have gone through.

Our most outstanding obstacle was the burning of our Alma Mater, January 19, 1931; our most outstanding triumph—carrying on our work without a school building, not complaining or taking advantage of the situation but glad of the opportunity afforded to finish our education this year.

But to respect our ideal of a motto—"Salem High School may burn, but the spirit will not; that will live forever."

History of Junior Class

It was in September of 1928 when we, a frightened body of Freshmen, slipped quietly and hurriedly into the auditorium of Salem High School. We gazed into each other's faces and realized that the terrible day had come, but in some mysterious fashion it passed as all days do and we looked at life with a more cheerful aspect.

The awe of everything "Seniorish" soon lessened and the year passed smoothly on until spring. At this time, due to some unfortunate circumstance, the school was again in a turmoil and many of our loyal group deserted to strike, while many others, just as loyal, kept old Salem High company.

Finally peace again prevailed, the school year ended, and some of the more ambitious of our group stood proudly before all the lords and ladies of the Senior Class to receive their honors.

Look again into the same school the following year and what do you see? The same old group? No, there are a few gone and especially one who went up from our midst during the summer vacation—that lovely and brilliant girl, Ruth Stoutamire.

Among the group of old and new faces we sedately sat, for were we not Sophomores?

Another year rolled smoothly on. We came back last fall to take up our added and multiplied burdens as Juniors.

What is that shrill noise in the night? We rub our sleepy eyes and yawn, "Oh, just another fire." But we look again and decide that it must be a large one to make the sky so red; so with excitement tingling in our blood, we rush to the scene only to gaze in dismay—at the sight of our beloved high school burning!

And now, although we roam the streets and go to school without a school, the spirit of Salem High still lingers in our hearts.

We are looking forward to the time when we shall be Seniors ready to traverse life's highway and leaving behind the best days of our life.

MILDRED LAM, Historian.

Class Poem

T for the Time we spent in school.
H for the Help we readily give and
E represents the Energy we all have.

J is for the Juniors, the wide awake class.
U for Union, which binds our class.
N is for the Name we have won and
I for all Interest in our work we have shown.
O means only One more year in high school.
R for the Rise we slowly make and
S is for the Spirit to "Ole High" we have shown.

So remember we have only one more year
In high school, our course to steer.
We must do our best for others to hear
What the "Class of '32" did that last year.

SECOND TEAM

Football

The Salem High football season for 1930, considering even the defeats that were suffered, was a success. Although the Blue Team was beaten in all except one conference game, the team showed up fine and always fought until the last whistle sounded.

The team was light but fast and the main offense was to get the jump on our opponents. But woe be unto us! Every important game but one was played on a muddy field. The Wolverines are not willing to say that they were outplayed in these games but the team was just outweighed by their rivals.

Captain "Doug" Price was officially selected for the first All-State team, while Jack Crosswhite and "Buddy" Webber were picked for the second team.

Many letter men will be lost in graduation but some excellent material is developing and next year's team should give good account of itself.

The Wolverine squad this year was made up of the following:

Hall	Right End	Crosswhite	Left End
Miller	Right Tackle	Petersen	Quarterback
S. Webber	Right Guard	J. Webber	Halfback
H. H. Price	Center	C. Robertson	Halfback
Reed	Left Guard	Humphreys	Fullback
D. Price (Capt)	Left Tackle	Hansbrough	Manager

BASKET BALL SQUAD

Basket Ball

The Salem High basket ball season for 1930-31 was marked by many surprises, both glad and sad. As usual the Jefferson High jinx remained and one of the strange parts was that we beat teams that had gotten the best of the Magicians.

The conference race this year was unusually close, all of the teams being fairly well matched. One team would win one game and lose another and until the last two games, it was hit and miss as to who would get the western district championship. Danville finally won by beating us 18 to 17 in a heart-breaking game, scoring the winning point during the last few seconds of play.

Brilliant playing was done by Francis, Maury, Captain Crosswhite and Clark Robertson, while the entire team is to be congratulated for sticking together, though the fire occurred in the middle of their season and threatened to dissolve even the classes.

The Wolverines did not have an outstanding team but they fought hard until the very last minute, always doing their best to hold up the high standards of the school they were representing.
