eresa, (or should I say "D.B.")

Well it's July 2nd & I'm finally getting around to signing this & we all know why I picked this page. (Ha, Ha) Remember all the great times we had at S.D. Don't forget Bifford and the great Y.H.A. & the time we visited J.P. (yuk! yuk!) It's really to bad that mouse didn't do on the food! (Ha, Ha) It's been a great year, but it's come to an end & by the way, good luck at Community! May you find a nice cuddley Pillow. (if you know what I mean) Lets not forget Chunky & Sunwood & all the gas you brought! Have fun next year & good luck.

Pat
(Dave!)
Ha! Ha!

F.S. I Jim
you & Jim be good this summer D.O.
Queen B. want to yap
have anything to yak
about, and not to yak
a tradition: Remember the mighty oak was once as big as your nose (arguing me but I couldn't resist
that since all big brother
I didn't write it)

ALIENS ARE GUILTY

DO YOU KNOW YOU'RE A MONSTER?
 WHY ARE YOU A MONSTER?
 BECAUSE YOU'RE INDIFFERENT, THAT'S WHY.
 YES, AND BECAUSE YOU WERE INDIFFERENT TO THEM.
 YOU ARE CRUEL,
 EVEN EVIL.
 WHAT DID YOU DO TO STOP IT?
 STAND THERE AND PICK YOUR NOSE?
 PIOUS HYPOCRITES,
 YOU FLUSH CONSCIENCE DOWN THE TOILET, DAILY
 THEN PRAY ON SUNDAYS SO YOU WON'T GO TO HELL
 YOU'D BETTER PRAY AND BE AFRAID OF HELL
 FOR YOU DESERVE TO BURN FOREVER.
 SELFISH STONES,
 BEG GOD TO BE MERCIFUL TO YOU,
 AS YOU WERE MERCIFUL
 WHEN YOU LET ALL THE TRAINS GO THROUGH.

Here I am,
 At the halfway of my life
 I look back,
 Then look again.
 Time to ask the mighty potentate
 Is this all?
 Is my turn lost forever
 To hear the crow?
 Must I weary, still half young,
 To let release my half old soul,
 Or dare I dream a dream again
 And hope its not too late to love?
 I need a dream to ease my heart
 Now that time has taken meaning,
 For each day sortens
 As it hurries by
 And presses me to know,
 Am I foolish to hold to hope
 should I just let go?
 Was there ever any truth
 In my youth's sweet promise,
 To hear the crow?

3

1. Cafeteria decoration increase every year because of student participation. 2. Priscilla and Diane display their school spirit during homecoming week. 3. Damon is impressed by the action on the football field. 4. Girls on the homecoming court Lynn Smith, Barbara McClung, Susan Crowder, Nancy Wiley, Leigh Harris, Helen Keller, Gail Hogan, Rhonda Dumber, take time out for a quick pose. 5. Sophomore artist displays his feelings about Alleghaney. 6. Homecoming court takes part in half-time festivities where Nancy Wiley was announced as maid of honor and Leigh Harris was crowned queen.

This years homecoming seemed to be an almost total disaster. Everyone was looking forward to the dance that was cancelled for "no apparent reason." The football game was postponed until the next evening because of rain and when we finally did play, we were beaten by Alleghaney 29-10. Not only did we lose a football game but we seemed to have lost respect for school pride and spirit.

PABLO JUAN COMES TO LORD BOTETOURT LORD BOTETOURT IS REPRESENTED BY TALENTED

Pablo Juan, an exchange student from Guatemala City, was here for ten weeks and stayed with Willie Simmons and his family.

In an interview with the Shield staff, some of his comments on American life included the student friendliness here at Lord Botetourt. Also, said Pablo, students were more sociable and the student-teacher relationship is closer than at his school in Guatemala. Pablo mentioned that he would enjoy coming back to the United States to attend college.

During his stay, Pablo saw snow for the first time. He thought the snow was beautiful because everything was so white. Also while he was here he enjoyed attending basketball and football games.

MARCHING, STAGE BANDS FLOURISH UNDER NEW LEADERSHIP OF STARKEY

1

Under the energetic direction of Mr. Starkey, the Cavalier band flourished with stylish new shows and new sounds. The band enthusiasm was obvious in their "eat-em-up" yell and snappy red and black pep rally sweaters. Competing against much larger and more established bands at marching festivals, the group failed to bring home a first-place in competition, but they did bring home the experience and spirit needed to take them back for a better showing next year.

1. Damon Pearson shows his spirit at a pep rally. 2. Majorettes Diane Bowe, Cindy Poulin, Vicki Stinnette. 3. Lord Botetourt Marching Cavalier Band. 4. Band Officers. 5. Stage Band. 6. The drum section at a football game.

Under the direction of Mrs. Murray and the leadership of its officers, the Glee Club initiated a special Back-to-School night. The Chorus sent eight representatives to Concord College in Athens, West Virginia, to an Invitational Music Festival, and six singers to All-Regional Chorus at Radford College. They performed their Christmas cantata "Joy to the World" at two local churches and also performed sections of it for the student body.

The sole purpose of the Debating Society is to give students who are interested in forensic and current affairs a chance to express themselves in competition with debators from other schools, both within Virginia and from surrounding states. The society teaches its members the art of public speaking and argumentation and gives them a better knowledge of international as well as national affairs.

The debating club trains key pupils as debators for the state forensic meet, gives them experience in group discussion and cooperative endeavor, and directs the study of current political and economic problems. These endeavors give the members fundamental training for the exercise of citizenship in our democratic form of government.

This year's society members include Liz Blanton, Richard Painter, Terry Vaughan, Nan McMurry, Etta Sue Bell, Barbara Conner, Donald Lovern, Roger Bertholf, Charles Lamb, Rae Marie Thacker, and Marshall Woodson.

“ . . . Still, the profound change
has come upon them:
rooted they grip down and begin to awaken.”

— Wm. Carlos Williams,
“Spring and All”

The SHIELD staff thanks all our friends and patrons
for their continued encouragement and support.

Special thanks go to the following:

CHARLES GARRISON and Hunter Publishing Co.

JIM HOFSTETTER and Graham School Pictures

Terry Ayoub

Charles Lamb

Brenda Neas

Camera, Inc.

Faculty members who let us out of class to meet deadlines

The "friends" of sixth period who stopped by to keep things going

Jeresa, luck Best of
in the future to a great friend. Don't forget all of our good times we have had in study hall and on Senior day. Best wishes always.

Becky Turner

Lucas,
I hope you remember
all the fun times
we had in study hall,
and of course senior
day when we lost
your minds and
every thing else.
Best of luck
Lucas Cotton
