*“To the Looking-Glass world it was Alice that said
‘I’ve a sceptre in hand, I’ve a crown on my head.
Let the Looking-Glass creatures, whatever they be Come and dine with the Red Queen, the White Queen,
and me’!”*

*Simple things mean a lot to me
Some things only children can see
I never want to stop being a child
I want to see the flowers growing on
the hillside*

The old man said to me,
said, "don't always take life so seriously."
Play the flute and dance and sing your song —
try and enjoy the here and now.
The future will take care of itself somehow . . .
time will wear away the storm . . .
Don't try to live your life for one day.
Don't go speed your time away . . .

More than
you think.
A rooster
minus a hen
equals
no baby chicks.
Kellogg minus
a farmer
equals
no corn flakes.
If the nail
factory closes,
what good is the
hammer factory?
Paderewski's
genius wouldn't have
amounted to much
if the
piano tuner
hadn't shown up.
A cracker maker
will do better
if there's a
cheesemaker.
The most skillfull

you need someone
and someone
needs you.

Live to hear the laughter
of million happy children
happy children playing to
the sound of freedom, peace
and justice.

MNP

Why worry, there should be
laughter after pain,
There should be sunshine
after rain,
These things have always been
the same,
So why worry now?

Once in a while you can
get shone the light,
in the strangest
of places,
if you look at it right.
Nothing left to do but
smile, smile, smile.

You can't lose what
you ain't never
had

Seated: Captains: Andrew Vaughan, Will Roberts, Harry Johnson, Hugh Meagher, coach. Standing: Aaron Ewert, Ethan Cook, Grayson Prillamen, Chris Hillron, Mark Monroe, Matt Koops, Towels Lawson, and Kirby Smeltzer.

The volleyball team had 7 players returning from 1984. 3 (Shockley, Feldman, & Branch) had a great deal of game experience. There was a great deal of raw talent on the team. The emphasis in practice was to turn raw talent into skill; passing and defense were this emphasis for 1985's season.

Branch was the setter in the 5-1 off. with Shockley Feldman, and Fishburne being the main hitters. Mastin, Ellett, and Koontz were starters, as def. specialists. The starters were backed by Jacobs, Cullops, Capozzi and Snoddy.

3 players received individual recognition by the Blue Ridge Conference: Branch was named to the 2nd team All Conf, and All Tourney Team; Shockley was named to the 2nd team All Conf, and All Tourney team. Koontz was named to the All Tourney team. Feldman set a new school record, serving 191 (30%) of total points scored by the team. Branch received a trophy for Best Offensive Player, Feldman received a trophy for Best Defensive Player, and Schockley received a trophy for MVP.

The team finished the regular season in 3rd place losing to Holy Cross and LCA. They made it to the final four of the tournament, beating RVCS. They defeated Holy Cross once, and LCA twice to win the Blue Ridge Conference Championship, finishing with a 16-4 season record.

Miss Satterwhite commends the girls for the way they worked and improved during the season — putting forth their best effort at the tournament. Miss Satterwhite states, "Even though we lost the first game of all three matches, the girls never doubted that they were going to win. I wish I could bottle the determination, teamwork and concentration we had at the tournament and open it up the first day of practice next year." It should be easy with the team returning intact next year.

Senior Wills

I, Matt Fautz, do hereby solemnly bequeath, to Coach, the V.I.C. Football Championship he deserves and my J. Jensen-like abilities to bestow on anyone he feels is worthy; "Mr. J" my passing talents and 2 inches of Hr.; J.M., the courage to hit like a man; D.G. and J.M., a cheap shot and a haircut; Dutch, a scholarship to N.D.; D.D., the lacrosse skills that I will never develop; K.H., a boyfriend; K.S., a smut novel; F.D., control of the "RED" team and complete domination of the "Whites"; the summer work crew and Kenny Penn, a real job; "The Brow", same non-conformity; D.C., 2 QB with better hands; H.J., the answer to all Trivial Pursuit questions; Chris R., some patriotism; B.B., a healthy body, finally; K.T., a blue ribbon from the first annual my Parents are out of Town- Essay Contest and last but not least to all the faculty and students of North Cross my friendship and a little musical taste.

I, Traci Long, hereby leave the following: to Garrett Mastin, a pack of Marb. lights. To Sinclair E., a license to drive Mack trucks. To Eric H., a date to the Homecoming dance. To Cameron C., my driving ability; To Mary Elizabeth C., memories of our "secreter talks," a car with an automatic transmission, and a new boyfriend (Just kidding David). To my "only friend," Karen B., I leave a bottle of peppermint Schnapps. To Jeff A., a back rub. To Marisol R., my cousin Eric and many more "fun" double dates. To Kim B., a last name and a years supply of Arrid X-tra dry! To Doug D., one last square dance. To John G., I leave a vacation on Treasure Island, a haircut, and a date with M.E.C. To Tommy and Michael Erwin, a hug. To Tammy J., yet another silver pinky ring. To Anne W., breakfast or Wendy's. And last but not least, to Katie T., I leave custody of Piedre in the hopes that she will take just as good care of him as I did, the "crap car," a diet Slice, a trip to the dentist, the ability to give better directions, and a smile.

I, Garrett Mastin, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave the following: to Holly, a new stone wall, a birthday cake and a birthday card for every year; to Don, the hope that he gets along with his roommate and a smile from a friend of mine; to Matt F., David G., and Carl B., the hope that they all find someone else to pick on; to Adrienne, I leave a hard hat, a S&G rape, and a lifetime supply of TCBY; to Eric H., I leave the memory of the "Big M" and the job of chaperoning; to Clai, I leave the night in the jacuzzi; to Marisol, the promise that she did o.k. on the phone that night, and a date with Mr. Jesse; to Blair I leave a tennis skirt; to Traci, my locker buddy, I leave the ability to be nice and the memory of what I wore every day to school; to Cameron M., I leave a bag of circus marshmallows; one more year of advisor groups, and all of my problems; to Mark C., I leave a hug for every day; to Sinclair — remember to have fun on your next beach trip; To Sally, I leave an Eastern Metro Express, a shower curtain, more Myrtle Beach trips like the first one, the ability not to COB on all future relationships, and some seafood; to Mary Liz, I leave another day at Windsor Lake, more fun times at "the studio," a trip to Europe; and TB; to David, Mary Liz, Sally, and Bill, I leave my address and many thanks for all my memories of the year '85; to Sloane (from the city girl) I leave a cheerleading uniform, a list of errands, a "baby stick," more evidence, babysitting money Mrs. Hurt's Biology class, many more times in the jeep, a trip to Vonderbelt, and a friend for life, to my sister I leave a great senior year.

I, Keller Bivens, do leave the following: to Tommy, a knee in the mouth and a friend-in-law. To Marisol, Adrienne, Blair, Holly, Sloane, Garrett, and Mary Elizabeth, a slumber party.

when the parents are out; to Claiborne, a "perfect dare" and a 10:30 curfew; to Lou, Carl, Robert, Tommy, Scott, and Fielding, the vegatorium, and a big sister who gives advice no matter if it's wanted or not; to Adrienne, hot summer days in the marching convertibles; to Sally, Myrtle Beach with Frank and Robert and stolen sweatshirts; to King, a back-rub on the back of the bus; to Packy and Ronald, hangman on away basketball games; to Denise, Nicolet, Ashley, Amy, Melinda, and Marie, a "hyper" game; to Anne B. and Bonnie, a big smile; to Chris B.; a night on the back porch with the prophet; to Holly, a ride in the Olive, the Mill Mountain Star, sisters, sneaking out playing strip poker, Christmas wreaths, truth or dare, a night sleeping on 3 chairs, headboards, and the game-spots; to Blair, I leave late night phone conversations, cute babies with blond ringlets, "I'd just like a novel," a ramp in the ramper, a big toe, days in the sun with your toes in the sand and a drink in hand, Rasa Lindas, spiked watermelon, and best friends forever; to GAW., I leave our past memories and those still to come.

I, Barbora Davis, being of sound mind do hereby leave the following: to Erin, endless diet coke, the parkway, and one more trip to Tech, to Adrienne, may you always have a better grade than S., to Kevin, I hope you always have confetti on your floors, to Fielding, a game of frisbee, to Matt, the right to never take another math class, to Sloane, a man hiding under her car, to Marisol, the deed to a warehouse, to Bill B., just one good day, and to Karen, all the happiness in the world.

I, Kevin Ayyildiz, being of devious mind, leave NC and the following: to Mr. Wanson, some valium and trust; to Kim Stevens, a loss of innocence (we all know); to Marisol, some clean sheets; to Rob, a parkway citation, some pain, and an attic; to Jeff A., a second chance; to Traci, our blue shoes; to King, a real name; to Clai, some crumbs and religion; to Blair F., her farm and Debonair Dam; to Tommy, her Santa costume; to Mr. Sharp, dominant and submissive alleles; to Erin, May 20th, her porsche, Romeo and Juliet, and a cold night by the window, I'll bill you for the rest; To John G., a grandma named Peggy; to Anne W., her fantasies, and to Doc, Maycock, Richard Nixon.

I, Watt Dixon, being "Dazed and Confused," do will the following to Andrew L. $2.00, which he has been offered many times, to Jack a mad dash down 419, a door, a bubble, and a long lasting girl, which he would never want but would often use. To Jimmy, I leave a new set of dry books. To King, I leave a rather dense smoke cloud and of course some kangaroos (let's roll). To Tee, I leave a room temperature of 2:34 P.M. as well as a bedpan and pills for his ulcers. To Jeff A., aka rock idol, poet, visionary, my vs to replace his jughead. To John, I leave a smoking black as well as a superball for the one we lost, coupons for a dinner at Goliaths chauffeured in a certain BMW, three hearty meals a day (at least), and my yellow bug to provide many more "D" spins. To Matthew Frazier, $40.00 to purchase some shoes. To Rob, I leave a BEE. To Blair F., I leave a warrior, a hammock, and 21 poses. Finally to Kim Stevens, I leave something she has desired for sometime now, me.

I, Harry Johnson, being of adequately sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath the following items to the following people with no refund option: to Bill "the Crip" Bailey, a "hor line" with which to call me before his first Spanish rest in college; to Tony, the ability to dodge beserk salad bowl racklers; to Chris R., some political sense and a free subscription to Pravoda; to Don, the famous therapy book How to Stop Plying Your Air Guitar by Tam Bativk; to Wyatt, a M-60 main battle tank so he need not worry about any more auto accidents; to Greg, a supersonic fighter bomber to take out all his frustrations; to Commissioner Matt Fautz, my hearty congratulations no matter how our teams finish, plus all of James Mitchner's novels; to all the teachers that ever taught me, my gratitude for my knowledge. To all the students still here, the endurance to graduate; to Strevie Nicks, the best of my love. And, finally, to the citizens of Roanoke, I leave you the premonition that you will soon be over-run with an avaricious horde of pre-med students hell-bent on getting foreign cars and designer clothes.

I, Nelson Stone Teague Jr., now bolting, do leave the following: to Robby a headstone for the V-smoke and some BEE-repellent. To "Beandip" his own Whalebone Junction T-shirt, my license and a pin cushion to sleep with. To King a maid for his room, a free trip to Advanced Auto and an "A" on his Biology project. To Watt, a high horse to ride back to Texas on, some facial hair, and meetings with Jimmy Page, Jim Morrison, and Jerry Fawell, all of whom can teach him a little. To John a set of CB700-translucents with 18" crash, double bass pedals, 23" splash, Zildjon-rectal high hats, reinforced toms with a nitrate powered tri-singular snare, geosynchronous pine-balsa wood stricks. To Watt, in addition, passing grades on his "a-mara" tests. To Jack — "Want a BH?" $900 spending money for Pigale and a stroll in the park. To Walter restraint in his beverage habits. To Traci silence. To David G., HA!!! To Bingy, get a new nickname. To Kim something she has always wanted . . . Watt. To Scott Harris, my set of L. L. Beon boots when I go away. To Andrew V., a Smithsonian i.d., a congratulations on the wedding. Lastly of all to Richard Vladimir Cook, a jokebook.

I, Eric Helms, being of sound mind and body do bequeath the following: to Marisol some pearls to chew on and the memories of our sexual encounters in the hall; to Rob, I leave a lifetime supply of caught syrup; to Sally, I leave the memories of the past 3 years and all the people we made fun of, and of course one last "Hello!" I also leave the memories of "In Nean," "thermo-coar," "the unidentifiable stretch," and memories of some of the best times I've ever had. To Watt, I leave the memories of our French class and of "my brother." To Sloane, I leave the joy of knowing me, the memories of "Eat Papa! Eat!", and of course our great times; to Blairs I leave Olgo's condo, 5 free German lessons with Dolores, a better leaf press, and the memories of "please missy!"; to Will, I leave the fact that I know he's a "PT" and the promise I'll never tell S, or the rest. To Holly and Chris B., I leave Hash Browns, my feet, and the memories of New Years eve. To Claiborne I leave our good times and a "Top Hat"; to Traci — of course! the white patent leather shoes and the nerd who wore them (you could have been with me). To Tee, I leave the memory of the extra notes we had to take in Govt. because "Dad said . . ." To Adrienne, my favorite Hellion, I leave our good times, a phone call at 4 in the morning, a wrecked Honda, and the question, "What is evolution?"; to Bill K., I leave the best of luck with Sally. To David C., I leave a date with his favorite blond; to Keller, I leave the memory of our friendship and talks in the lounge; to Garrett, I leave our jokes and a trip to see Geneva; to Karen I leave the fact that I'm not a "weirdo." To those juniors who have one year I leave Hought o silly math class some eggrolls for Blair, a Hompsden-Sydney application for Tammy, and to Carolyn, the hope we'll make our film, "sexual suspect," one day. To Cameron, leave the name "Charlotte" some dirty pontaloons, water on the brain, and the memories of our friendship. Finally, to all of the class of 1986. I leave the hope we will all meet as happy and successful people 20 years from now.

leave: C.R., the phone number of every ninth grade girl and a lifetime pass to the middle school dance; Bill K., and David C., a divorce; Matt F., a fight after the championship; Neal T., a razor; Bill B., my red Honda; Will R., a jam session; King T., Helter Skelter; Mr. D., a football and a helmet; Garrett M., ask me later; Sloane, my oldest friend, the presidency of NCKC; LCA, a Christian attitude; Coach Muscara, number 100 and thanks; to North Cross School, I leave.

I, Doug Danstrom, does not care if he is of sound mind leaves North Cross the pleasure of having me as a student. To Neal, I leave the pleasure of having one eye-brow for the rest of his life. To Bill B., I leave the extra photos of 7-9th grade girls not pictured in the yearbook. To Chris R., I leave the right to start a land where homosexuality is accepted. To Blair I leave the ability to make homosexual friends out of everybody. To Rude Tee I leave the pleasure of being a rude boy for the rest of his life. To Ronald I leave our new famous soyings (d.b., etc.), to Dan, I leave the ability to argue. To Matt I leave the thought of Lacrosse and the beach. To Kim I leave cowboy boots. To Karen I leave a boyfriend her own age. To Adrienne my campus corner bill. To Traci, a guide to square-dancing for the advanced dancer. To John a mirror to see how silly he looks when he plays "air-drums." To Harry I leave the pleasure of being on the "Doug Danstrom Security Council"; to Dutch Muscara I leave a "get out of jail free pass"; to Andrew L., I leave the thought of looking good, since that's what counts. To the Senior class I leave friendship since we are the most polarized class ever. To the Faculty I leave a continuation of the great job they do. To Mrs. Kent I leave all the quick little bunny rabbits in the world. And to everybody else happiness.

I, Andrew L. Vaughan, being of mostly sound mind and body do bequeath the following testament: to Andrew Lawrence: a hot pink Fender guitar pick with all the white letters rubbed off, and a lacrosse stick to trip me with. To John Gardner: a neverending road trip. To Warr Dixon: a large naval orange for his car. To Jeff Ahearn: a license, and a flag of unknown origin to sleep in. To Rob Frazier: an economy size box of tiny torts. To Walter Frazier: a pack of Scott Towel "napkins." To Jack Cunningham: La-dee-da-dee. To Sloane Frantz: $5.25, and a 1st period study-hall for the rest of your life. To David Cassada: may the Bimer be permanently washed, and remember "There's nothing wrong with looking." To Mark Cannors, free directions to Winterplace, and a Led Zeppelin tape without "Stairway to Heaven" on it. To Tee Teague: a rather large hidden ditch in which to drive your left wheel in. To King Tower: a car that will flit move. To Traci Long: a peanut butter and homemade blackberry jelly sandwich. And most of all to my beloved Hunter, a dozen roses with a note saying, "I will never leave"

To Warr and Tee — THANKS BUT NO THANKS!! Kim Stevens
