Virginia Room
Sigma Tau Delta Collection

Collection Description:

Repository: Roanoke Public Libraries, Virginia Room

Accession Number: 2007.5.9.1 – 2007.5.9.9

Title: Sigma Tau Delta Collection

Physical Characteristics: 2 document storage cases, 8 scrapbooks

Donated by: Sigma Tau Delta Sorority / Helen French

Arrangement: Documents are arranged chronologically

Creator: Sigma Tau Delta Sorority

Reproduction Restrictions: No known restrictions on publication. Virginia Room copy fees apply.

Processor: Angela Stiefbold, June 2025

Historical Note:

The Sigma Tau Delta Sorority was founded in 1940, and its first officers elected in August of that year. Members were young women, both married and single. It was primarily a social club, but members also organized and participated in philanthropic activities. Membership ranged from 20-35 women. Some remained members for several decades.

Scope and Content:

The collection documents the activities of the Sigma Tau Delta Sorority from 1940 through 1983 and includes a significant number of photographs of club members and events. It consists of the contents of eight traditional scrapbooks and one “magnetic” photo album.

Scrapbooks include information about the sorority, including constitution and by-laws, lists of officers, and a few membership lists. Newspaper clippings about the club document its activities and officers, as well as information about members. The scrapbooks also contain correspondence received by the sorority, including numerous thank you notes from members regarding gifts and from organizations the club donated to, as well as marriage, birth, graduation, and death announcements.

Of special interest are letters in scrapbooks that document members’ lives during WWII, when several relocated with their husbands to military bases, and one member’s experience in the Women’s Army Auxiliary Corps (WAAC).

While all scrapbooks contain numerous photographs, later scrapbooks have more photographs and less ephemera. Many, but not all, of the people in photographs are identified. Photographs of the sorority’s parties also document the interiors of a variety of venues in the Roanoke region, as well as members’ homes. The 1953-56 Scrapbook includes over thirty pictures of the interior and the residents of Hobday Cottage, Virginia Baptist Children’s Home, Salem, VA, taken from 1953-55 when the sorority sponsored activities and improvements for the young women living there.

Digital versions were created of all scrapbooks. Items that could be removed from scrapbooks without damage were placed in folders, including both paper and photographic items. However, most scrapbooks included pages that could not be disassembled; these have been retained within the scrapbook covers. All items were removed from the “magnetic” photo album.

Digital Files
