VOLUME 3

ROANOKE, VIRGINIA

We, the annual staff, are proud of this annual. It represents each of us, from the students, to the faculty and administration.

The bicentennial pages may not seem to relate directly to us, but they do in that our school is part of this free country. We should appreciate our freedom and not take it for granted.

However, in this annual, we want to bring out one main thought to you. That is, when we, the bulldogs, work together, we can accomplish anything. This is why Addison is number 1.

DEDICATION

To dedicate the 1976 Addison Bulldogs was a difficult task because of so many deserving and worthy persons on the staff. We chose the person, however, whom we really feel deserves this dedication. A man, who shares our joys as well as our sorrows, and who is both a great teacher and a good friend. He is someone upon whom we can always depend. Therefore, we, the yearbook staff, would like to show our appreciation by dedicating this 1976 Addison Bulldogs to you, Mr. Charles Gross.
